Products having editorial or informational content. Books, magazines, motion pictures, periodicals, newspapers, pamphlets, leaflets, sheet music, music rolls, stamp albums, maps, charts, catalogues, directories, programs, house organs, menus, advertising matter printed on paper (except such articles as containers, labels and book matches, the form of which serves a purpose other than that of advertising), time tables, tariffs, price lists, and globes.

Chemicals, drugs and paints. (1) Hog cholera virus and anti-hog cholera serum (products used in the immunization of swine against hog cholera), manufactured and marketed in compliance with the standards and regulations promulgated by the United States Department of Agriculture.

(2) Aviation gasoline and components, synthetic rubber and components, toluene manufactured from petroleum as set forth below except sales and deliveries of benzol, toluol, and xylol derived as by-products from coal-carbonization or from the production of carbureted water-gas or oil-gas:

(a) Aviation gasoline of 87 octane rating or higher and, to the extent sold or delivered for use in the manufacture thereof, all components of aviation gasoline of 87 octane rating or higher, including but not limited to aromatic hydrocarbons and base stocks or fractions thereof; and catalysts.

(b) The following to the extent sold or delivered for use in the manufacture of synthetic rubbers: components of synthetic rubbers, including but not limited to styrene; hydrogen, acetaldehyde, acetylene, vinylacetylene, vinyl-chloride, vinyl acetate, sebacate esters, phthalate esters, tricresyl phosphate hydrochloric acid, calcium carbide, ethylene dichloride, dichlor-ethyl ether, sodium polysulfide, butylene glycol, acrylonitrile, and furfural, catalysts, and physical carrier agents for such catalysts, including but not limited to silica gel:

The term "synthetic rubber," as used herein, means a material obtained by chemical synthesis, possessing the approximate physical properties of natural rubber, when compared in either the vulcanized or unvulcanized condition, which can be vulcanized with sulphur or other chemicals with the application of heat and which, when vulcanized, is capable of rapid elastic recovery after being stretched to at least twice its length at temperature ranging from 0° F. to 150° F. at any humidity.

(c) Toluene manufactured from petroleum, and, to the extent sold or delivered for use in the manufacture of such toluene, base stocks from which such toluene is to be extracted, and selected charging stocks to be processed for the synthesis of such toluene, and catalysts.

(3) Domestic botanical drugs.

(4) Gum for naval stores and gum naval stores.

(5) Reagent chemicals, when sold for the purposes of scientific and medical research, for analytical and educational uses, and for quality control of industrial products.

(6) Core oils and core washing oils.

Rubber and rubber products. (1) Synthetic rubber and reclaimed synthetic rubber and their components, as specified above in paragraph (2) (b) under chemicals, drugs and paints.

(2) Crude rubber, guayule rubber and liquid latex.

Fuel, petroleum products and other oils. (1) Aviation gasoline of 87 octane ratings and higher and its components as specified above in paragraph (2) (a) under chemicals, drugs, and paints.

(2) Toluene manufactured from petroleum as specified above in paragraph (3) under chemicals, drugs and paints.

(4) 80-Octane Army all-purpose gasoline.

Machinery, tools and equipment. (1) Instrument jewel bearings.

(2) Diamond dies smaller than .002 inches in diameter.

Metals and minerals. (1) Sales or deliveries of scrap metals to dealers in such materials purchasing for resale: Provided, (a) That the dealer certifies to the Government agency in his bid, quotation or otherwise that he is purchasing such materials for resale and that in reselling he will not exceed the applicable Office of Price Administration maximum prices, and

(b) That the selling officer has no reason to doubt the accuracy of the certificate.

(2) Block mica of strategic grades (i. e., block mica of a quality better than "heavy stained," as defined in Conservation Order No. M-101 issued by the War Production Board on March 6, 1942) and fabricated mica produced therefrom.

(3) Crude fluorspar ores.

(5) Lead bullion.

(6) Ores and ore concentrates other than chrome or manganese. The term "ores" means any mineral substances in a crude state used chiefly as a commercial source of metal contained therein. The term "or concentrates" means any ore after the removal of a part of the gangue, or a part of the nonmetallic elements, by either a physical or chemical process.

(7) Electrotype plates which are obsolete by reason of the time limitations of War Production Order M-99 or which may become obsolete within the definition of War Production Board Order M-99, and backing metal, composed of approximately 94% lead, 3% tin and 3% antimony obtained from these electrotype plates, sold by purchasers of the electrotype plates to the National Lead Company, acting as agent for the Metals Reserve Company.

(8) Pennsylvania anthracite when sold and delivered for use as a filter medium under the trade name "anthrafilt."

(9) Optical grades of fluorspar.

(10) Domestic battery or chemical manganese ores.

(11) Domestic metallurgical manganese ores when sold to dealers purchasing for resale or to users or processors who use it in the production of spiegeleisen or ferromanganese containing less than 75% manganese or who charge it directly in the production of steel or in foundry operation.

(12) Domestic chrome ores when sold to dealers.

Forest products, lumber and building materials. (1) Bark obtained from hemlock, oak, chestnut and spruce.

(3) Wood for naval stores.

(4) Saw and veneer mill wood wastes, when sold for use as raw materials in wood distillation, including but not limited to slabs, edgings, veneer log ends and cores, and ground wood.

(5) Any tree or plant, or part thereof, painted or unpainted, mounted or unmounted, which is used for decorative purposes during the Christmas season.

(6) Flat glass (all types).
(7) Glass blocks.
(8) Foamglas.
(9) Filtros plate.
(10) Mineral wool including fiberglas.
(11) Concrete products.
(12) Refractories and refractory cements.
(13) Mineral aggregates.
(14) Lightweight aggregates and slag.
(15) Dimension stone.
(16) Lime and limestone (except agricultural).
(17) Crude and calcined gypsum (except agricultural).
(18) Talc, pyrophyllite and soapstone.
(19) Plumbing specialties.
(20) Stokers. (Only those otherwise subject to Maximum Price Regulation 188).
(21) Heating specialties. (Only those otherwise subject to Maximum Price Regulation 188).

Textiles, leather and apparel. (1) Wool skins (whether domestic or foreign)—i. e., the untanned skins of sheep or lambs, with the wool still on, other than shearlings or wool skins which are sold for use as furs.

Consumer items

(1) Tie racks, shoe racks.
(2) Pin cushions.
(3) Shoe horns.
(4) Comforter grippers.
(5) Comb cleaners.
(6) Book ends, portable door stops, and paper weights.
(7) Reading racks.
(8) Mirror table plateaus.
(9) Beverage coasters.
(10) Dinner bells and chimes.
(11) Figurines and ornamental statuary.
(12) Wood carved figures and animals.
(14) Bird houses.

Miscellaneous. (1) Animals of any kind, whether wild or domestic and whether living or dead, other than those slaughtered for food purposes, but this exception does not extend to pelts, furs or other parts of animals.

(2) Stamps and coins.

(3) Precious stones and mountings into which precious stones are set. The term "precious stones" means any ruby, sapphire, emerald, natural pearl, or any diamond (other than an industrial diamond). Synthetic stones and cultured pearls shall not be deemed "precious stones".

(4) Antiques.
(5) Knotted oriental rugs.
(6) Paintings, etchings, sculptures and other objects of art.
(7) Cattle warts.
(8) Domestic hog bristle, whether raw or dressed: Provided, That this exemption shall not apply to sales of dressed hog bristle to a manufacturer of brushes.
(9) Unginned Spanish moss.
(10) Vinyl acetate—vinyl chloride copolymer transcription records.
(11) Ammunition sold by Defense Supplies Corporation.
(13) Temporary buildings sold apart from the land.
(14) Three dimensional sculptured or cast anatomical models (human, botanical, zoological) used for educational purposes.
(17) Wrought iron fences.
(18) Wrought iron balustrades.
(19) Lightning rods.
(22) Steel or iron marquees.
(25) Changeable sign letters, and equipment for mounting such letters on theater marquees and in theater lobbies.
(26) Theater lobby display signs and transparencies, and equipment for mounting such signs and transparencies.
(27) Novelty pouring and measuring caps for liquor bottles.

Appendix B—Dollars and Cents Maximum Prices for Specified Commodities

This appendix identifies commodities (either by listing the regulation to which they are subject, Part I, or by name, Part II) for which dollar-and-cents maximum prices have been established for one or more of various levels of sale (i. e. manufacturer or producer, wholesaler or jobber, or retailer). The maximum prices applicable to sales by Government agencies shall be determined by reference to the listed regulation as follows:

First, where the listed regulation establishes dollar-and-cents maximum prices for Government agencies by express reference to such agencies such maximum prices shall govern sales by the Government agency or agencies expressly covered.

Second, where the listed regulation does not establish dollar-and-cents maximum prices for Government agencies by express reference, the maximum prices governing sales by Government agencies shall be determined under the rules set forth in section 4 (a) of this order.

Third, where the listed regulation does not establish dollar-and-cents maximum prices or alternatively the Government agency wishes to sell at levels of sale (e.g. manufacturing, wholesale or retail) for which maximum prices are not established in the regulation, such maximum prices shall be determined under section 5 or section 7 of this supplementary order. For example, the listed regulation may establish dollar-and-cents prices only at the manufacturing level, whereas the Government agency may intend to sell either at wholesale or retail levels, or the Government agency may wish to sell at the producer level while the listed regulation has established dollar-and-cents maximum prices only at the wholesale or retail levels. In such cases, under section 5 it could sell at a price not to exceed acquisition or replacement cost; or alternatively under section 10 it could apply for a maximum price.

It will be found in the case of some of the listed regulations that while dollar-and-cents maximum prices are established therein which are applicable to the bulk of the sales of the commodity, the Government agency may wish to dispose of special categories of the commodity for which no dollar-and-cents maximum prices are established in the listed regulation. In such case, the selling agency may sell at a price not to exceed acquisition or replacement cost under section 5, or apply for a maximum price under section 10.

Part I—Regulations establishing dollar-and-cents maximum prices at one or more levels of sale for all or most of the commodities subject to the regulation. They are listed under the appropriate general commodity classification.

Appendix C—Regulations Establishing Dollar-and-Cents Maximum Prices by Reference to Price Lists

The following regulations establish dollar-and-cents maximum prices by incorporating specific price lists by reference. The maximum price can, for the most part, be ascertained only by using the regulation in conjunction with the price list specifically referred to therein.

When a Government agency sells a commodity covered by any of the regulations listed in this Appendix C, its maximum price is the net list price, if any, expressly specified in the applicable price regulation as applying to sales by Government agencies. But if no such provision for sales by Government agencies is made in the regulation, then the maximum price for the sale is the manufacturer's, producer's or processor's net price to wholesalers or jobbers, which means list price, adjusted for all applicable extra charges, discounts, or allowances, for sales to manufacturers, processors, wholesalers or jobbers.

FLOUR FROM WHEAT, SEMOLINA AND FARINA SOLD BY MILLERS, BLENDERS, PRIMARY DISTRIBUTORS AND FLOUR JOBBERS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised MPR 296 is amended in the following respects:

1. Sec. 10 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 10. Exempt sales. This regulation shall have no application to any purchase by the United States or any of its agencies under such circumstances of emergency as to make immediate delivery imperative, and as to render it impossible to secure, or unfair to require immediate delivery at the maximum price which would otherwise be applicable, if such purchases and deliveries are made pursuant to the provisions of section 4.3 (f) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended: Provided, however, That the Administrator may, by order, waive the reporting of any part of the information required by section 4.3 (f) in connection with a particular purchase or group of purchases upon determining that such information may not reasonably be required under all the circumstances, and he may, in lieu thereof, require the reporting of other information more suited to the circumstances.

2. The first paragraph of section 14 is amended to read as follows:

With the first delivery of any commodity listed in Appendix A, hereof, after a maximum price is changed pursuant to any provision of this regulation, or of any amendment, thereof, the miller or blender shall:

3. The second paragraph of paragraph (a) of section 14 is amended to read as follows:

For a period of 60 days after the maximum price of an item is changed, and with the first shipment after the 60-day period to each person who has not made a purchase within that time, the miller or blender shall place upon or attach to each invoice the written notice set forth above.

4. Appendix A—XVI is hereby deleted.

This amendment shall become effective August 7, 1944.

Issued this 2d day of August 1944.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH PRODUCTS

[RMPR 169,[1] Amdt. 44]

BEEF AND VEAL CARCASSES AND WHOLESALE CUTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 is amended in the following respects:

1. The first paragraph of § 1364.405 (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) Wholesalers' (Zone 1 or 2) adjustments affecting frozen boneless beef (Army Specifications). Upon a unanimous finding by the Quartermaster General, War Food Administrator and Price Administrator (1) that the facilities of any wholesaler located in Zone 1 or 2 are essential for the purpose of increasing the total supply of frozen boneless beef (Army Specifications), and (2) that the production of frozen boneless beef by such wholesaler will not be accompanied by or cause a decrease in the production of frozen boneless beef (Army Specifications) by any other person, and will not therefore increase the cost of prosecuting the war without achieving a greater essential supply; and

2. Section 1364.452 (q) is added to read as follows:

(q) Maximum prices for beef wholesale cuts, fabricated beef cuts and/or ground beef and miscellaneous beef items sold to operators of lake vessels, other than passenger boats, engaged in shipping upon the Great Lakes. The maximum price for each grade of each beef wholesale cut, fabricated beef cut and/or ground beef and miscellaneous beef item shall be the maximum price determined as provided in subparagraph (1). On an dafter August 2, 1944, this paragraph (q) shall apply only to sales between a "Great Lakes marine supplier," as defined in subparagraph (13) and an "operator of a lake vessel," as defined in subparagraph (14) hereof, and no sale or delivery shall be made pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (q) unless the "Great Lakes marine supplier" has complied with the filing requirements of subparagraph (8) hereof.

(1) Maximum prices. (i) The maximum price for each grade of each beef wholesale cut for sale or delivery by a Great Lakes Marine Supplier to an operator of a lake vessel shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) hereof, and specified in subparagraph (9) plus the addition permitted by subparagraph (12), if applicable, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule II (incorporated herein as § 1364.453). The additions set forth in Schedule III (§ 1364.454) may not be charged.

(ii) The maximum price for each grade of fabricated beef cut for sale or delivery by a Great Lakes Marine Supplier to an operator of a lake vessel shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) hereof and specified in subparagraph (10) plus the addition permitted by subparagraph (12), if applicable, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule II (§ 1364.453), substituting for the purposes of this subdivision (ii) the term "fabricated beef cut" wherever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in Schedule II (§ 1364.453). The additions set forth in Schedule III (§ 1364.454) may not be charged.

(iii) The maximum price for each grade of ground beef and miscellaneous beef items for sale or delivery by a Great Lakes Marine Supplier to an operator of a lake vessel shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) hereof and specified in subparagraph (11) plus the addition permitted by subparagraph (12), if applicable, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule II (§ 1364.453) substituting for the purposes of this subdivision (iii) the term "ground beef and miscellaneous beef items" wherever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in Schedule II (§ 1364.453). The additions set forth in Schedule III (§ 1364.454) may not be charged.

(2) The applicable zone price shall be the price specified in subparagraphs (9), (10) or (11) for the zone in which is located the seller's distribution point:

(i) At which the buyer takes actual physical possession of the meat; or

(ii) From which the meat consigned to the buyer (a) is delivered to a common carrier other than a railroad, for shipment to the buyer, who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier, or (b) is delivered to a railroad for shipment at the carload rate to the buyer who pays the shipping charges direotly to the carrier.

(iii) In the case of a less-than-carload shipment, other than an express shipment to a purveyor of meals, the applicable zone price shall be the price for the zone in which is located the rail unloading station nearest to the buyer's place of business.

(iv) On sales to purveyors of meals the distribution point may be, in addition to those listed, the point at which meat, consigned to the buyer, is delivered to a railway express company for shipment by express to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(3) The applicable zone price shall be the delivered price anywhere within the zone to which such price applies. Schedule I (paragraphs (a) to (j), inclusive) incorporated in the regulation as § 1364.452, contains a statement describing the geographical limits of each price zone.

(4) Except as permitted in paragraph (l), (m), (n), (o) or (p) of Schedule I (§ 1364.452), regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no Great Lakes marine supplier shall sell or deliver any beef carcass or any part or portion of any beef carcass, and no operator of a lake vessel in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any beef carcass or any part or portion of any beef carcass unless such beef or part or portion is a beef carcass or a beef wholesale cut as defined in § 1364.455, for which applicable prices have been established.

(5) No Great Lakes marine supplier shall sell or deliver any fabricated beef cut, and no operator of a lake vessel in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any fabricated beef cut unless such fabricated beef cut is a fabricated beef cut as defined in § 1364.455 (b) (3) for which applicable zone prices have been established.

(6) No Great Lakes marine supplier shall sell or deliver any ground, chopped or comminuted meat containing any proportion of beef or any miscellaneous beef item and no operator of a lake vessel in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any ground, chopped or comminuted meat containing any proportion of beef or any miscellaneous beef item unless such ground, chopped or comminuted meat is ground beef and such miscellaneous beef item is a miscellaneous beef item as defined in § 1364.452 (p) for which applicable zone prices have been established.

(7) No Great Lakes marine supplier shall sell or deliver any beef wholesale cut, fabricated beef cut or ground beef and miscellaneous beef item and no operator of a lake vessel shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business any beef wholesale cut, fabricated beef cut or ground beef and miscellaneous beef item at a price higher than the maximum price permitted therefor in subparagraph (1) of § 1364.452 (q).

(8) No Great Lakes marine supplier shall make any sale or delivery of any beef wholesale cut, fabricated beef cut or ground beef and miscellaneous beef item pursuant to this paragraph (q) unless such Great Lakes marine supplier shall have filed with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration a statement, prior to the making of such sale or delivery, that he (i) is engaged in the business of buying beef carcasses and beef wholesale cuts for resale as beef wholesale cuts, fabricated beef cuts or ground beef and miscellaneous beef items to an operator of a lake vessel or vessels as defined in subparagraph (14), and (ii) sold or delivered to such lake vessel during the calendar year of 1943 at least 25 percent of the total volume by weight of meats or meat products sold or delivered from his selling establishment. The filing of such a statement shall not preclude investigation by the Office of Price Administration of the facts relating to the nature of the business carried on by the person filing the statement or of any action or proceedings arising from such investigation.

(9) (i) The beef wholesale cut prices applicable in Zones 3 and 4 shall be as follows:

[All prices are on a dollar per hundredweight basis. The price for any fraction of a hundredweight shall be reduced accordingly. The additions set forth in Schedule III (§ 1364.454) may not be charged.]

Beef wholesale cuts	Grades

9. Short plate	15.00	15.00	14.00	14.00
10. Brisket	18.00	18.00	15.00	15.00
11. Shank	13.00	13.00	13.00	13.00

(ii) The beef wholesale cut prices applicable in Zones 1 and 2 and 5 to 10 shall be the prices specified in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph (9) plus the following:

Zone:
1	$1.75
2	1.00
6	.75
8	1.25

(iii) All sales under this subparagraph (9) are made subject to the provisions of § 1364.452 (k). The applicable Zone 3 and 4 price of each cow wholesale cut of utility grade, commercial grade or good grade shall be the same as the Zone 3 and 4 price of the corresponding wholesale cut of steer or heifer of the same grade.

The applicable Zone 3 and 4 price of each stag wholesale cut of utility grade, commercial grade or good grade shall be the same as the Zone 3 and 4 price of the corresponding wholesale cut of steer or heifer of the same grade.

The applicable Zone 3 and 4 price of each bull wholesale cut of utility grade or commercial grade shall be the same as the Zone 3 and 4 price of the corresponding wholesale cut of steer or heifer of the same grade.

The applicable Zone 3 and 4 price of each beef wholesale cut which has not been graded or identified by sex mark (required by paragraph (c) of § 1364.411) when offered for sale, sold or delivered, shall be the price of the lowest priced corresponding wholesale cut.

(10) (i) The fabricated cut prices for a Great Lakes marine supplier applicable in Zones 3 and 4 shall be the prices listed in subparagraph (o) (4) of this § 1364.452.

(ii) The fabricated beef cut prices for a Great Lakes marine supplier applicable in Zones 1 and 2 and 5 to 10 shall be the prices listed in subparagraph (o) (4) of this § 1364.452 plus the following:

Zone:
1	$1.75
2	1.00
6	.75
8	1.25

(iii) All sales under this subparagraph (10) are made subject to the provisions of § 1364.452 (k). For the purposes of this subparagraph the term "fabricated beef cut" shall be substituted for the term "wholesale cut" in § 1364.452 (k).

(11) (i) The ground beef and miscellaneous beef item prices for a Great Lakes marine supplier applicable in Zones 3 and 4 shall be the prices listed in paragraph (o) (10) of this § 1364.452.

(ii) The ground beef and miscellaneous beef item prices for a Great Lakes marine supplier applicable in Zones 1 and 2 and 5 to 10 shall be the prices listed in paragraphs (o) (10) of this § 1364.452 plus the following:

Zone:
1	$1.75
2	1.00
6	.75
8	1.25

(iii) For any item subject to this subparagraph (11) which does not satisfy the specifications of § 1364.452 (p) or which is made from beef wholesale cuts, portions of beef or grades of beef not authorized, the zone price used for the determination of the maximum price shall be the applicable zone price of the lowest price of miscellaneous beef item.

(12) On a delivery of beef wholesale cuts, fabricated beef cuts or ground beef and miscellaneous beef items by a Great Lakes marine supplier to the operator of a lake vessel, made in the seller's motor launch, such seller may add 75 cents per hundredweight to the applicable zone price.

(13) "Great Lakes marine supplier" means a person operating a selling establishment from which he is engaged in the buying of beef carcasses and beef wholesale cuts for resale in the form of beef and veal wholesale cuts, fabricated beef and veal cuts, and ground beef and miscellaneous beef items to an operator or operators of a lake vessel or vessels for consumption aboard such vessel or vessels, and who during the calendar year of 1943 sold or delivered to such lake boats for consumption aboard such lake vessel or vessels at least 25 percent of the volume of meats and meat products sold or delivered from his selling establishment.

(14) "Operator of a lake vessel" means any person who owns or operates a lake vessel or vessels, other than a passenger boat, engaged in shipping upon the Great Lakes, and who in operating such vessel or vessels purchases or receives meats from a Great Lakes marine supplier for consumption aboard such vessel or vessels.

(15) The provisions of subparagraphs (2) and (3) of § 1364.407 (e) and the provisions of § 1364.415 shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries by a Great Lakes marine supplier of fabricated beef cuts and/or ground beef and miscellaneous beef items to an operator of a lake vessel.

3. Section 1364.467 (o) is added to read as follows:

(o) Maximum prices for veal wholesale cuts and fabricated veal cuts sold to operators of lake vessels, other than passenger boats, engaged in shipping upon the Great Lakes. The maximum price for each grade of each veal wholesale cut and fabricated veal cut shall be the maximum price determined as provided in subparagraph (1). On and after August 2, 1944, this paragraph (o) shall apply only to sales between a "Great Lakes marine supplier," as defined in subparagraph (13), and an "operator of a Lake vessel," as defined in subparagraph (14) hereof, and no sale or delivery shall be made pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (o) unless the "Great Lakes marine supplier" has complied with the filing requirements of subparagraph (8) hereof.

(1) Maximum prices. (i) The maximum price for each grade of each veal wholesale cut for sale or delivery by a Great Lakes marine supplier to an operator of a lake vessel shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) hereof and specified in subparagraph (8) plus the addition permitted by subparagraph (10), if applicable, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule V (incorporated herein as § 1364.468. The additions set forth in Schedule VI (§ 1364.469) may not be charged.

(ii) The maximum price for each grade of fabricated veal cuts for sale or delivery by a Great Lakes marine supplier to an operator of a lake vessel shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (2) hereof and specified in subparagraph (9) plus the addition permitted by subparagraph (10), if applicable, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule V (§ 1364.468), substituting for the purposes of this subdivision (ii) the term "fabricated beef cut" wherever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in Schedule V (§ 1364.468). The additions set forth in Schedule VI (§ 1364.469) may not be charged.

(2) The applicable zone price shall be the price specified in subparagraph (8) or (9) for the zone in which is located the seller's distribution point:

(i) At which the buyer takes actual physical possession of the meat; or

(ii) From which the meat consigned to the buyer (a) is delivered to a common carrier other than a railroad, for shipment to the buyer, who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier, or (b) is delivered to a railroad for shipment at the carload rate to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(iii) In the case of a less-than-carload shipment, other than an express shipment to a purveyor of meals, the applicable zone price shall be the price for the zone in which is located the rail unloading station nearest to the buyer's place of business.

(iv) On sales to purveyors of meals, the distribution point may be, in addition to those listed, the point at which meat, consigned to the buyer is delivered to a railway express company for shipment by express to the buyer who pays the shipping charges directly to the carrier.

(3) The applicable zone price shall be the delivered price anywhere within the zone to which such price applies. Schedule IV (paragraphs (a) to (j), inclusive) hereof, incorporated in the regulation as § 1364.467, contains a statement describing the geographical limits of each price zone.

(4) Except as permitted in paragraph (l), (m) or (n) of Schedule IV (§ 1364.467), regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no Great Lakes marine supplier shall sell or deliver any veal carcass or any part or portion of any veal carcass and no operator of a lake vessel in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any veal carcass or any part or portion of any veal carcass unless such veal or part or portion is a veal carcass or a veal wholesale cut as defined in § 1364.470, for which applicable prices have been established.

(5) No Great Lakes marine supplier shall sell or deliver any fabricated veal cut and no operator of a lake vessel in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any fabricated veal cut unless such fabricated veal cut is a fabricated veal cut as defined in § 1364.470 (b) (3) for which applicable zone prices have been established.

(6) (i) On and after August 2, 1944, no Great Lakes marine supplier shall sell or deliver any veal wholesale cut or fabricated veal cut and no operator of a lake vessel in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any veal wholesale cut or fabricated veal cut pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (o) unless such seller is a "Great Lakes marine supplier" as defined in subparagraph (12), who has complied with the filing requirements of subparagraph (7) and the buyer thereof is an "operator of a lake vessel" as defined in subparagraph (13) hereof.

(ii) No Great Lakes marine supplier shall sell or deliver any veal wholesale cut or fabricated veal cut and no operator of a lake vessel shall buy or receive in the course of trade or business any veal wholesale cut or fabricated veal cut at a price higher than the maximum price permitted therefor in subparagraph (1) of this § 1364.467 (o).

(7) No Great Lakes marine supplier shall make any sale or delivery of any veal wholesale cut or fabricated veal cut pursuant to this paragraph (o) unless such Great Lakes marine supplier shall have filed with the appropriate Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration a statement, prior to the making of such sale or delivery, that the person (i) is engaged in the business of buying veal carcasses and veal wholesale cuts for resale as veal wholesale cuts or fabricated veal cuts to an operator of a lake vessel or vessels as defined in subparagraph (12), and (ii) sold or delivered to such lake vessels during the calendar year of 1943 at least 25 percent of the total volume of weight of meats or meat products sold or delivered from his selling establishment. The filing of such a statement shall not preclude investigation by the Office of Price Administration of the facts relating to the nature of the business carried on by the person filing the statement or of any action or proceedings arising from such investigation.

(8) (i) The veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 4 shall be as follows:

[All prices are on a dollar per hundredweight basis. The price for any fraction of a hundredweight shall be reduced accordingly. The additions set forth in Schedule VI (§ 1364.469) may not be charged]

Veal wholesale cuts	Grades
	Choice or AA	Good or A	Commercial or B	Utility or C
1. Foresaddle or forequarter	21.00	20.00	18.00	17.00
2. Hindsaddle or hindquarter	26.00	24.00	22.00	19.00
3. Loin, double or single	24.50	23.00	20.00	17.25
4. Legs or leg	26.00	24.25	21.50	18.75

(ii) The veal wholesale cut prices applicable in Zone 1 to 3 and 5 to 10 shall be the prices specified in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph (8) plus the following:

Zone:
1	$2.50
2	1.50
6	.75
8	1.25

(iii) All sales under this subparagraph (8) are made subject to the provisions of § 1364.467 (k).

The applicable Zone 4 price of each veal wholesale cut which has not been graded or identified by sex mark (required by paragraph (c) of § 1364.411) when offered for sale, sold or delivered, shall be the price of the lowest priced corresponding wholesale cut.

(9) (i) The fabricated cut prices for a Great Lakes marine supplier applicable in Zone 4 shall be the prices listed in subparagraph (n) (4) of this § 1364.467.

(ii) The fabricated veal cut prices for a Great Lakes marine supplier applicable in Zones 1 to 3 and 5 to 10 shall be the prices listed in subparagraph (n) (4) of this § 1364.467 plus the following:

Zone:
1	$2.50
6	.75
8	1.25

(iii) All sales under this subparagraph (9) are made subject to the provisions of § 1364.467 (k). For the purposes of this subparagraph the term "fabricated veal cut" shall be substituted for the term "wholesale cut" in § 1364.467 (k).

(10) On a delivery of veal wholesale cuts or fabricated veal cuts by a Great Lakes marine supplier to the operator of a lake vessel made in the seller's motor launch, such seller may add 75 cents per hundredweight to the applicable zone price.

(11) "Great Lakes marine supplier" means a person operating a selling establishment from which he is engaged in the buying of veal carcasses and veal wholesale cuts for resale in the form of veal wholesale cuts or fabricated veal cuts to an operator or operators of a lake vessel or vessels for consumption aboard such vessel or vessels, and who during the calendar year of 1943 sold or delivered to such lake boats for consumption aboard such lake vessel or vessels at least 25 percent of the volume of meats and meat products sold or delivered from his selling establishment.

(12) "Operator of a lake vessel" means any person who owns or operates a lake vessel or vessels, other than a passenger boat, engaged in shipping upon the Great Lakes, and who purchases or receives meats from a Great Lakes marine supplier for consumption aboard his vessel.

(13) The provisions of subparagraphs (2) and (3) of § 1364.407 (e) and the provisions of § 1364.415 shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries by a Great Lakes marine supplier of fabricated veal cuts to an operator of a lake vessel.

This amendment shall become effective August 2, 1944.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting provisions of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 2d day of August 1944.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Hotels and Rooming Houses,[1] Amdt. 27]

ADJUSTMENTS

The first unnumbered paragraphs of section 5 of the Rent Regulation for Hotels and Rooming Houses are amended to read as follows:

SEC. 5. Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required.

In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Administrator finds would have been on the maximum rent date the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change: Provided, however, That no adjustment shall be ordered where it appears that the rent on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was fixed in contemplation of and so as to reflect such change.

In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations on the maximum rent date.

In cases involving construction, due consideration shall be given to general increases in costs of construction, if any, in the defense-rental area since the maximum rent date.

In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the defense-rental area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on the maximum rent date.

This amendment shall become effective August 3, 1944.

Issued this 2d day of August 1944.

TITLE 34—NAVY

Chapter I—Department of the Navy

PART 6—NAVAL RESERVE

WOMEN'S RESERVE DISCHARGES

Section 6.12401 (8 F.R. 9712) is amended to read as follows:

§ 6.12401 Discharges. Enlisted members of the Women's Reserve discharged under unsatisfactory conditions or for inaptitude or unsuitability, as provided in Article D-9103, (Bureau of Naval Personnel Manual) shall not be provided with an outfit of civilian clothes in accordance with Article D-9115 (4) (Bureau of Naval Personnel Manual). Such members shall be allowed to retain articles of uniform in their possession, except havelocks, ties, and white or seersucker hat covers, after removal of distinctive Navy buttons, insignia, or marks, from suits, overcoats, and Navy blue hats. Such items of clothing may be worn by them in place of the civilian outfit furnished to an enlisted man discharged under similar conditions. The civilian clothing purchased under the authority of Article D-9115 (4) (Bureau of Naval Personnel Manual) and Article 1431-6 (Bureau of Supplies and Accounts Manual), in such cases will be limited to the plain buttons necessary for replacement of distinctive Navy uniform buttons. PART 25—CONTRACT SETTLEMENT ACT

DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

§ 25.1 Delegations of authority. (a) The Contract Settlement Act of 1944 (Public Law 395, 78th Congress, 2d Session) was signed by the President on 1 July 1944 and becomes effective 21 July 1944. The enactment of this legislation places specific responsibilities upon the Navy Department to carry out the policies and procedures established by the Congress for contracting agencies of the Government. The Chiefs of the several Bureaus, Boards, and Offices of the Navy Department, the Commandant, U. S. Marine Corps, and the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard (all the foregoing being hereinafter for brevity referred to collectively as the Bureaus), and all officers and civilian employees of the Department charged with duties relating to contract terminations, termination settlements and interim financing shall see that the administration of the Act is accomplished in a manner to fulfill its declared objectives.

(b) Pursuant to section 23 (b) of the act, there is hereby delegated to the Chiefs of the several Bureaus, subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, all authority and discretion conferred upon the Secretary of the Navy or the Navy Department by or pursuant to the act necessary to the full exercise of their powers and responsibilities in respect of administering the termination of contracts, the disposition of property, both real and personal, and matters related thereto. The Chiefs of the several Bureaus may redelegate such authority and discretion and may authorize successive redelegations thereof.

(c) The authority and discretion delegated by paragraph (b) of this section shall be exercised by, or pursuant to the authority of, the Chiefs of the several Bureaus in conformity with such policies and procedures as may be established by the Chief of Procurement and Material, through the Assistant Chief for Industrial Readjustment or the Assistant Chief for Procurement within their respective cognizances. The authority to establish such policies and procedures may be redelegated, and successive redelegations thereof may be authorized, by said Assistant Chiefs respectively.

(d) All directives of general application proposed to be issued under the act by the Chiefs of the several Bureaus or pursuant to the authority of any of them, shall be submitted for approval, before issuance, to the Assistant Chief of Procurement and Material for Industrial Readjustment.

(e) The Procurement Legal Division is responsible for the legal interpretation of the act. Such questions of interpretation of the act arising in connection with its day to day administration by a Bureau shall be referred to counsel for the Bureau. Counsel, however, shall in turn refer any such questions involving a matter of general application to counsel assigned by the Procurement Legal Division as counsel for the Assistant Chief of Procurement and Material for Industrial Readjustment.

(f) Subject to such limitations as may from time to time be imposed by and in the discretion of their superior officers or officials, officers and civilian employees of the Navy Department are hereby authorized, pursuant to section 20 (f) of the act, as a part of their official duties, to advise, aid and assist war contractors in preparing and presenting termination claims, in obtaining interim financing, and in related matters; provided the officer or employee does not receive therefor benefit or compensation of any kind, directly or indirectly, from any war contractor.

(g) All policies and procedures relating to termination of war contracts, termination settlements, and interim financing, prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, the Assistant Chief of Procurement and Material for Industrial Readjustment, the Assistant Chief of Procurement and Material for Procurement, the Chiefs of the several Bureaus, or pursuant to the authority of any of them, in effect upon the effective date of the act, and not inconsistent with the act, shall remain in full force and effect unless and until duly superseded.

(h) The Assistant Chief of Procurement and Material for Industrial and Readjustment is hereby designated as alternate or representative of the Secretary of the Navy on the Contract Settlement Advisory Board created pursuant to section 5 of the act.

tion under Public Law 417, 78th Congress, Second Session.

1. Public Law 417, 78th Congress, Second Session, provides, if the Secretary of the Navy shall certify to a Court in which a suit relating to a vessel of the Navy, arising under the Public Vessels Act is pending, that such suit would tend to endanger the security of naval operations in such war, or to interfere with such operations, all further proceedings in such suit shall forthwith be stayed." Section 4 of this act provides that the Secretary of the Navy, while the stay is in effect, may file with such Court a certificate extending or shortening the time stated in a prior certificate. It is further provided that the certificate filed by the Secretary of the Navy may, in his discretion, stay only the taking of the testimony of certain witnesses or evidence on certain subjects.

2. The act specifically provides (section 4) a procedure whereby any party, deeming himself adversely affected by a stay under the provisions of the act, may serve a written notice requesting the Secretary of the Navy to reconsider the stay previously issued and to issue a further certificate. The act provides that, within ten days after the receipt of such notice, the Secretary of the Navy, or some official designated by him, "shall hold in secret a hearing at which the claimant or his representative may present such facts and arguments as he may think material with respect to the question as to whether or not a stay should be issued or maintained."

3. The procedure to be followed by the Navy Department in compliance with the provisions of the act reads as follows:

A. The filing of the initial certificate for a stay. In the first instance, the Judge Advocate General, who has cognizance of matters of claims and litigation, on being advised of the existence of a situation where such certificate should appropriately be filed, is directed to initiate such investigation of the matter as is required to ascertain whether security interests are involved. He is to confer with Naval Intelligence and the Office of the Commander in Chief and then submit to the Secretary of the Navy, for execution, an appropriate certificate in keeping with the recommendations developed at such conference. Navy Department officials, who acquire knowledge of a situation where it is appropriate that a certificate be issued, are directed to advise the Office of the Judge Advocate General (Chief Admiralty Officer).

B. Procedure on appeal on receipt of the notice for reconsideration by a libelant as specified by section 4 of the act. Such matter shall be referred to the Judge Advocate General who shall arrange for a hearing of the claimant before a Board of Review. This Board will consist of an officer appointed by the Judge Advocate General, an officer appointed by the Security Officer (F-24) in the Office of the Commander in Chief, and a representative of Naval Intelligence (Op. 16B-4). The hearing accorded the claimant or libelant will then be held in secret, as provided by section 4 of the act. The preparation of a stenographic copy of such hearing shall be within the discretion of said Board of Review. Said Board, after the conclusion of the hearing, shall file its recommendation with the Secretary of the Navy, accompanied by such further certificate with respect to the prior action of the Secretary of the Navy, as the Board shall consider appropriate. There shall be attached to the recommendation of the Board which is submitted to the Secretary of the Navy, all memoranda or communications submitted by the claimant or attorneys appearing in connection with the hearing and any transcript prepared of the hearing.

OFFICE OF ALIEN PROPERTY CUSTODIAN.

[Vesting Order 800A–81]

COPYRIGHTS OF CERTAIN FOREIGN NATIONALS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that each and all of the identified persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof (the names of which persons are listed (a) in Column 3 of said Exhibit A as the authors of the works, the titles of which are listed in Column 2, and the copyright numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (b) in Column 4 of said Exhibit A as the owners of the copyrights, the numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, and the titles of the works covered by which are listed in Column 2, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (c) in Column 5 of said Exhibit A as others owning or claiming interests in such copyrights) are nationals of one or more foreign countries;

2. Determining, therefore, that the property described as follows:

All right, title, interest and claim of whatsoever kind or nature, under the statutory and common law of the United States and of the several States thereof, of each and all of the identified persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of said Exhibit A, and also of each and all other unidentified individuals who, as of the date of this order, are residents of, and of each and all other unidentified corporations, partnerships, associations or business organizations of any kind or nature which, as of the date of this order, are organized under the laws of, or have their principal places of business in, Germany, Italy, Japan, Bulgaria, Hungary, Rumania and/or any territory occupied by one or more of such six named countries, whether or not such unidentified persons are named elsewhere in this order or in said Exhibit A, in, to and under the following:

a. Each and all of the copyrights, if any, described in said Exhibit A;

b. Every copyright, claim of copyright and right to copyright in each and all of the works described in said Exhibit A and in every issue, edition, publication, republication, translation, arrangement, dramatization and revision thereof, in whole or in part, of whatsoever kind or nature, and of each and all other works designated by the titles therein set forth, whether or not filed with the Register of Copyrights or otherwise asserted, and whether or not specifically designated by copyright number;

c. Every license, agreement, privilege, power and right of whatsoever nature arising under or with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

d. All monies and amounts, and all right to receive monies and amounts, by way of royalty, share of profits or other emolument, accrued or to accrue, whether arising pursuant to law, contract or otherwise, with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

e. All rights of renewal, reversion or revesting, if any, in any or all of the foregoing;

f. All causes of action accrued or to accrue at law or in equity with respect to any or all of the foregoing, including but not limited to the right to sue for and recover all damages and profits and to ask and receive any and all remedies provided by common law or statute for the infringement of any copyright or the violation of any right or the breach of any obligation described in or affecting any or all of the foregoing;

is property payable or held with respect to copyrights, or rights related thereto, in which interests are held by, and such property constitutes interests held therein by, nationals of one or more foreign countries;

3. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 2, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

4. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on May 14, 1943.

[SEAL] LEO T. CROWLEY,
Alien Property Custodian.

MANTLE LAMP CO. OF AMERICA, INC.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Second Revised Order No. 728 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Maximum prices for sales by manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers of kerosene mantle lamps sold by the Mantle Lamp Company of America, Inc.

Revised Order No. 728 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 is revised and amended to read as follows:

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, It is ordered:

(a) This order fixes maximum prices for sales of unassembled kerosene mantle lamps, and component parts of mantle lamps, which are sold by the Mantle Lamp Company of America, Inc., Chicago, Illinois, hereafter called the Company, and which are shipped by the Company on and after the effective date of this revised order. This order also fixes maximum prices for sales of those lamps and those component parts of lamps by wholesalers and retailers.

(b) The maximum prices for sales at retail, at wholesale, and by the company for each model of unassembled mantle lamp are those set forth below:

(1) For sales at retail by any person, the maximum price for each lamp is the price set forth below opposite each model number:

(d) On and after the effective date of this revised order the Company, before delivering any unassembled lamp subject to this order, shall attach to the burner of each lamp a tag or label which plainly sets forth the maximum retail price for the lamp, without any accessories, established by this revised order. A tag in the following form, with the blanks properly filled in, is satisfactory:

The O. P. A. retail ceiling price for this Model No. ------ lamp, without accessories, is $------.

(e) At the time of or prior to the first delivery, on and after the effective date of this order, of any lamp or component part covered by this order, the Company shall notify in writing every wholesaler and retailer to whom the Company sells an article priced under this order, of the maximum prices fixed herein for resales by the purchaser; and every wholesaler shall give like notice to every retailer to whom he sells those articles. This notice may be given in any convenient form. In addition, the company shall, within 15 days after the effective date of this order, file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a copy of each different notice which it issues to its purchasers for resale in accordance with this paragraph.

(f) This revised order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(g) This revised order shall become effective August 24, 1944.

Issued this 2d day of August 1944.

[Region II Rev. Order G-13 Under RMPR 122, Amdt. 3]

PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE IN BRADFORD AND SULLIVAN COUNTIES, PA.

Amendment No. 3 to Revised Order G-13 under §§ 1340.259 (a) (1) and 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Pennsylvania anthracite delivered by dealers in Bradford County and Sullivan County, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Coal Area IV.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator by §§ 1340.259 (a) (1) and 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, Revised Order No. G-13 is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(a) What this order does—(1) Dealers' maximum prices; area covered. If you are a dealer in "Pennsylvania anthracite", this order sets the maximum prices which you may charge and, if you are a purchaser in the course of trade or business, this order sets the maximum prices which you may pay for certain sizes and quantities of "Pennsylvania anthracite" (hereinafter called simply "anthracite") delivered to or at any point in Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—Coal Area IV. Coal Area IV comprises all of Bradford County and all of Sullivan County in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, falling into two zones as follows:

Zone 1. Zone 1 includes all of Sullivan County and that part of Bradford County not included in Zone 2.

Zone 2. Zone 2 includes the boroughs of Athens, Sayre, and South Waverly, and the Townships of Athens, Litchfield, Ridgebury, Windham, and Warren in Bradford County.

2. Paragraph (c) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Use the schedule which covers your sale. (Schedule I contains a separate table of prices for "Direct Delivery" sales and "Yard Sales" within Zone 1. You will find Schedule 1 in paragraph (d). In like manner Schedule II contains a separate table of prices for "direct delivery" sales and "yard sales" within Zone 2. You will find Schedule II in paragraph (e).

3. Paragraph (c) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) If, at your purchaser's request, you actually render him a service for which this order authorizes a charge, you may add to the foregoing figure no more than the maximum authorized service charges. You must state that charge separately on your invoice. The only authorized service charges are those provided for in the schedules.

4. Paragraph (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Schedule I. Schedule I establishes maximum prices for certain sizes of anthracite in certain specific quantities, delivered to or at any point within Zone 1. There is a separate table of prices for "direct delivery" sales and "yard sales".

[Region II Order G-45 Under RMPR 122]

Pennsylvania Anthracite in New York

Order No. G–45 under §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Pennsylvania anthracite delivered by dealers in Chemung, Chenango, Cortland, Delaware, Otsego, Schuyler, Steuben, Sullivan, Tioga, Tompkins, and Yates Counties, and in designated portions of Broome County, State of New York. Coal Area IX.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.260 and 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is ordered:

(a) What this order does—(1) Dealers' maximum prices: Area covered. If you are a dealer in "Pennsylvania anthracite", this order fixes the maximum prices which you may charge, and if you are a purchaser in the course of trade or business, this order fixes the maximum prices which you may pay, for certain sizes and quantities of "Pennsylvania anthracite" (hereinafter called simply "anthracite") delivered to or at any point in State of New York—Coal Area IX. That area comprises eleven counties in the State of New York, and part of a twelfth, falling into thirteen zones as follows:

Zone 1. Zone 1 includes all of Sullivan County.

Zone 2. Zone 2 includes all of Delaware County except the Towns of Andes, Davenport, Franklin, Harpersfield, Kortright, Middletown, Roxbury, and Stamford. It also includes the Town of Unadilla in Otsego County and the Towns of Afton and Bainbridge in Chenango County.

Zone 3. Zone 3 includes the City of Oneonta, and the Towns of Decatur, Hartwick, Laurens, Maryland, Middlefield, Milford, New Lisbon, Oneonta, Otego, Otsego, Westford, and Worcester in Otsego County; and the Town of Franklin in Delaware County.

Zone 4. Zone 4 includes the Towns of Andes, Davenport, Harpersfield, Kortright, Middletown, Roxbury, and Stamford in Delaware County; the Towns of Cherry Valley, Burlington, Butternuts, Edmeston, Exeter, Morris, Pittsfield, Plainfield, Richfield, Roseboom, and Springfield in Otsego County, and the Towns of Columbus, New Berlin, Sherburne, and Smyrna in Chenango County.

Zone 5. Zone 5 includes all of Cortland County, the City of Norwich, and the Towns of Coventry, German, Greene, Guilford, Lincklaen, McDonough, North Norwich, Norwich, Otselic, Oxford, Pharsalia, Pitcher, Plymouth, Preston, and Smithville in Chenango County; the Towns of Barker, Lisle, Nanticoke and Triangle in Broome County, and the Towns of Berkshire, Newark Valley, and Richford in Tioga County.

Zone 6. Zone 6 includes the Towns of Barton, Nichols, Owego, and Tioga in Tioga County, and the Town of Chemung in Chemung County.

Zone 7. Zone 7 includes all of Tompkins County; the Towns of Candor and Spencer in Tioga County, and the Town of Van Etten in Chemung County.

Zone 8. Zone 8 includes all of Chemung County except the Towns of Chemung and Van Etten.

Zone 9. Zone 9 includes the City of Corning and the Towns of Campbell, Caton, Corning, Erwin, and Hornby in Steuben County.

Zone 10. Zone 10 includes all of Schuyler County.

Zone 11. Zone 11 includes all of Yates County and the Towns of Prattsburg and Pulteney in Steuben County.

Zone 12. Zone 12 includes the Town of Bath in Steuben County.

Zone 13. Zone 13 includes all of Steuben County except the City of Corning and the Towns of Bath, Campbell, Caton, Corning, Erwin, Hornby, Prattsburg, and Pulteney.

(2) Schedules of prices, charges and discounts. The applicable prices, authorized charges, and required discounts, from which you shall determine the maximum prices for designated sizes and quantities of anthracite delivered within Zones 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13 are set forth in Schedules I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII, and XIII, respectively.

(3) To what sales this order applies. If you are a dealer in anthracite, you are bound by the prices, charges and discounts, and by all other provisions of this order for all deliveries within Zones 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13.

You shall determine the maximum price for "direct-delivery" sales, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate schedule of this order covering the zone to which delivery is made, whether or not you are located in one of the thirteen zones.

You shall determine your maximum price for a "yard" sale, as hereinafter defined, by reference to the appropriate schedule of this order covering the zone in which the purchaser takes physical possession or custody of the anthracite.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligations, you shall not: (1) Sell or, in the course of trade or business, buy anthracite of the sizes and in the quantities set forth in the schedule herein, at prices higher than the maximum prices computed as set forth in paragraph (c) of this order, although you may charge, pay, or offer less than maximum prices.

(2) Obtain any price higher than the applicable maximum price by:

(i) Changing the discounts authorized herein, or

(ii) Charging for any service which is not expressly requested by the buyer, or

(iii) Charging for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by this order, or

(iv) Charging a price for any service higher than the schedule price for such service, or

(v) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him, except that a dealer may comply with requirements or standards with respect to deliveries which have been or may be issued by an agency of the United States Government.

(vi) Using any other device by which a higher price than the applicable maximum price is obtained, directly or indirectly.

(c) How to compute maximum prices. You must figure your maximum price as follows:

(1) Use the schedule which covers your sale. (Schedule I contains a separate table of prices for "direct-delivery" sales and "yard sales" within Zone 1. You will find Schedule I in paragraph (d). In like manner Schedules II, III, IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII, and XIII contain separate tables of prices for similar sales in Zones 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, respectively. You will find Schedule II in paragraph (e), Schedule III in paragraph (f), Schedule IV in paragraph (g), Schedule V in paragraph (h), Schedule VI in paragraph (i), Schedule VII in paragraph (j), Schedule VIII in paragraph (k), Schedule IX in paragraph (l), Schedule X in paragraph (m), Schedule XI in paragraph (n), Schedule XII in paragraph (o), and Schedule XIII in paragraph (p).

(2) Take the dollars-and-cents figure given in the applicable table of the applicable schedule, for the sizes and quantity you are selling.

(3) Deduct from that figure the amount of the discount which you are required to give, as specified therein. Where a discount is required, you must state it separately on your invoice.

(4) If, at your purchaser's request, you actually render him a service for which this order authorizes a charge, you may add to the figure obtained as above no more than the maximum authorized service charge. You must state that charge separately on your invoice. The only authorized service charges are those provided for in the schedules.

(d) Schedule I. Schedule I establishes specific maximum prices for certain sizes of anthracite, in certain specific quantities, delivered to or at any point within Zone I. There is a separate table of prices for "direct-delivery" sales and "yard sales".

You shall deduct from the prices set forth in table (2) of this schedule, on sales and deliveries of all sizes except screenings, a discount of 50¢ per net ton where payment is made within ten days after delivery. Nothing in this subparagraph requires you to sell on other than a cash basis.

(q) Commingling. If you sell one size of anthracite commingled with another size of anthracite, your maximum price for the combination shall be the maximum price established in this order for the smallest of the sizes so commingled, except in the following situation. Where a purchaser requests that two or more sizes of anthracite be commingled in one delivery, then, and in that event, if those sizes are separately weighed at the point of loading, the dealer may commingle those sizes in the truck or other vehicle in which the delivery is made. The price for anthracite so commingled shall be calculated on the basis of the applicable per net ton price for each size in the combination, and the invoice shall separately state the price, so determined, for the quantity of each size in the combination.

(r) Ex Parte 148. Freight rate increase. Since the Ex Parte 148 Freight Rate Increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December 1941. Therefore, you may not increase any Schedule price on account of freight rates.

(s) Addition of increase in suppliers' maximum prices prohibited. You may not increase the specific maximum prices established by this order to reflect, in whole or in part, any subsequent increase to you in your supplier's maximum price for the same fuel. The specific maximum prices already reflect increases to you in your supplier's maximum prices occurring up to the effective date of this order. If increases in your supplier's maximum prices should occur after such date, as the result of any amendment to or revision of a maximum price regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration governing sales and deliveries made by such suppliers, the Regional Administrator will, if he then deems it to be warranted, take appropriate action to amend this order to reflect such increases.

(t) Taxes. If you are a dealer subject to this order you may collect, in addition to the specific maximum prices established herein, provided you state it separately, the amount of the Federal tax upon the transportation of property imposed by Section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by you, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of your prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from you by the supplier from whom you purchased. On sales to the United States or any agency thereof, or to the State of New York or any political subdivision thereof, you need not state this tax separately.

(u) Adjustable pricing. You may not make a price adjustable to a maximum price which will be in effect at some time after delivery of the anthracite has been completed; but the price may be adjustable to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery.

(v) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(w) Right of amendment or revocation. The Regional Administrator or the Price Administrator may amend, revoke or rescind this order, or any provision thereof, at any time.

(x) Applicability of other regulations. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you are governed by the licensing provisions of Licensing Order 1. Licensing Order 1 provides, in brief, that a license is required of all persons making sales for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for the license. The license may be suspended for violations in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If your license is suspended, you may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(y) Records. If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall preserve, keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, a record of every sale of anthracite hereunder, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the per net ton price charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in the order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(z) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall post all your maximum prices (as set forth in the applicable schedule or schedules of this order) in your place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public.

(2) If you are a dealer subject to this order, you shall, except for a sale of less than one-half ton, give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt showing your name and address, the kind, size, and quantity of the anthracite sold to him, the date of the sale or delivery and the price charged, separately stating the amount, if any, of the required discounts which must be deducted from, and the authorized service charges and the taxes, which may be added to, the specific maximum prices prescribed herein.

In the case of all other sales, you shall give each purchaser a sales slip or receipt containing the information described in the foregoing paragraph, if requested by such purchaser or if, during December 1941, you customarily gave purchasers such sales slips or receipts.

(a) (a) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Binghamton District Office of the Office of Price Administration, or with the Price Panel of the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board.

(b) (b) Definitions and explanations. When used in this Order No. G–45, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political sub-divisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale", "selling", "sold", "seller", "buy", "purchase", and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) "Dealer" means any person selling anthracite of the sizes set forth in the schedules herein, and does not include a producer or distributor making sales at or from a mine, a preparation plant operated as an adjunct of any mine, or a briquette plant.

(4) "Pennsylvania anthracite" means all coal produced in the Lehigh, Schuylkill and Wyoming regions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

(5) The sizes of "Pennsylvania anthracite" described as broken, egg, stove, nut, pea, buckwheat, rice, barley, and screenings shall refer to the same sizes of the same fuel as were sold and delivered in the State of New York—Coal Area IX with such designations during December 1941. Under no circumstances, however, shall the anthracite contain an ash content in excess of the limits specified by Amendment No. 1 to Solid Fuels Administration for War Regulation No. 9.

"Screenings A" are screenings derived from the primary or initial screening of egg, stove, nut, pea, and buckwheat sizes of anthracite, before any of these sizes have been reclaimed from screenings.

"Screenings B" are the resultant screenings after buckwheat and larger sizes of anthracite have been reclaimed from "Screenings A".

(6) "Direct delivery" means delivery to the buyer's bin or storage space.

(7) "Carry" and "wheel" refer to the movement of coal to buyer's bin or storage space in baskets or other containers, or by wheelbarrow or barrel, from seller's truck or vehicle, or from the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space at which the coal is discharged from seller's truck in the course of "direct delivery".

(8) "Yard sales" means sales accompanied by physical transfer to the buyer's truck or vehicle at the yard, dock, barge, car, or at a place of business of the seller other than at seller's truck or vehicle.

(9) Except as otherwise provided herein, or as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to terms used herein.

(c) (c) Effect of order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. This Order No. G–45 shall supersede Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, except as to any sales or deliveries of solid fuels not specifically subject to this order.

NOTE: The record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This Order No. G–45 shall become effective August 1, 1944.

FLUID MILK IN DAWSON, MINN.

Order No. G-79 under § 1499.75 (a) (9) of Supplementary Regulation No. 15 to the General Maximum Price Regulation under Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 and under Maximum Price Regulation No. 329. Adjustment of fluid milk prices for Dawson, Minnesota.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by § 1499.75 (a) (9) of Supplementary Regulation No. 15 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, by § 1351.807 (a) to the Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 and § 1351.408 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, it is ordered:

(a) Maximum producer prices. The maximum price which distributors may pay to producers for milk for human consumption in fluid form shall be $2.75 per cwt. for 3.5% milk, plus not more than 5¢ for each 1/10 of a pound of butterfat in excess of 3.5% and minus not less than 5¢ for each 1/10 of a pound of butterfat below 3.5%.

(b) Applicability of producer prices. Maximum prices established by paragraph (a) of this order shall apply to all purchases of fluid milk from producers for resale for human consumption in fluid form by distributors whose bottling plants are located within the corporate limits of Dawson, Minnesota, or who sell within this community 50% or more of the milk sold by them. The maximum price provided in paragraph (a) of this order shall apply only to purchases from producers from whom distributors covered by this order purchased from August 1, 1943 to February 28, 1944 and are not applicable to purchases from producers who did not in that period sell to distributors located in Dawson, Minnesota.

(c) Maximum distributor prices for sales to civilian purchasers. The maximum price for the sale and delivery of standard content butterfat fluid milk at wholesale and retail in Dawson, Minnesota, shall be the maximum price determined under the General Maximum Price Regulation, or Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, or the following prices, whichever shall be the higher:

Container size	Wholesale	Retail
Gallon (in bulk)	$0.37
Gallon	.37	$0.46
½ gallon	.19	.23
Quart	.09½	.11½
Pint	.05½	.06½
½ pint	.03	.03½

Where the maximum price set forth is expressed in terms of ½ cent, the price charged for a single unit at retail may be increased to the next even cent. An opportunity must, however, be given to each buyer to purchase two units for which the maximum price will be twice the single unit price. All sales at wholesale and home delivery sales at retail shall be considered multiple unit sales unless separate collections are made for single units when delivered.

(d) Maximum distributor prices for sales to the Army and Navy. The maximum price for the sale and delivery of fluid milk to the Army and Navy shall be the price at wholesale computed under paragraph (c) of this order for the particular size and type of container, plus whichever of the following provisions is the higher:

1. One-half cent per quart or a proportionate amount for a part of a quart.

2. The actual transportation costs from the seller's plant to the point of delivery at the lowest common carrier rate.

(e) Applicability of distributor prices. For the purpose of paragraph (c) of this order, sales and deliveries within the Dawson, Minnesota, area shall mean:

1. All sales made within the city limits of Dawson, Minnesota, and all sales at or from an establishment located in Dawson, Minnesota.

2. All sales of fluid milk by any seller at retail at or from an establishment obtaining the major portion of its supply of milk from a seller at wholesale located within Dawson, Minnesota.

(f) Definitions. 1. Standard butterfat content milk shall mean cow's milk having a butterfat content of not less than 3.2% or the legal minimum established by statute or municipal ordinance and distributed and sold for consumption in fluid form as whole milk.

2. Sales at wholesale shall include all sales to retail stores, restaurants, schools, hospitals, prisons and other institutions.

3. Army or Navy means the War Department or the Department of the Navy of the United States, including such Departments' sales stores, commissaries, ships' stores, officers' messes, and stores operated as Army canteens or post exchanges.

(g) Relation of this order to Office of Price Administration regulations. No purchaser shall pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or supply of milk from producers than he paid on deliveries during January 1943. Except as modified by this order, the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, and of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be evaded by any change in business or trade practices in effect during the applicable base period of such regulations.

(h) Revocability. This order may be revoked, amended or corrected at any time.

The portion of this order which applies to prices which may be paid to producers has been approved by the Administrator of the War Food Administration.

This order shall be effective July 8th 1944.

Gallon	.41	$0.49
½ gallon	.21	.25
Quart	.11	.13
½ pint	.03½	.04½

Where the maximum price set forth is expressed in terms of ½ cent, the price charged for a single unit at retail may be increased to the next even cent. An opportunity must, however, be given to each buyer to purchase two units for which the maximum price will be twice the single unit price. All sales at wholesale and home delivery sales at retail shall be considered multiple unit sales unless separate collections are made for single units when delivered.

(b) Maximum distributor prices for sales to the Army and Navy. The maximum price for the sale and delivery of fluid milk to the Army and Navy shall be the price at wholesale computed under paragraph (a) of this order for the particular size and type of container, plus whichever of the following provisions is the higher:

1. One-half cent per quart or a proportionate amount for a part of a quart.

2. The actual transportation costs from the seller's plant to the point of delivery at the lowest common carrier rate.

(c) Applicability of distributor prices. For the purpose of paragraph (a) of this order, sales and deliveries within the Stoughton, Wisconsin, area shall mean:

1. All sales made within the city limits of Stoughton, Wisconsin, and all sales at or from an establishment located in Stoughton, Wisconsin.

2. All sales of fluid milk by any seller at retail at or from an establishment obtaining the major portion of its supply of milk from a seller at wholesale located within Stoughton, Wisconsin.

(d) Definitions. 1. Standard butterfat content milk shall mean cow's milk having a butterfat content of not less than 3.2% or the legal minimum established by statute or municipal ordinance and distributed and sold for consumption in fluid form as whole milk.

2. Guernsey milk shall mean cow's milk produced from Guernsey herds, having a butterfat content of not less than 4%.

3. Sales at wholesale shall include all sales to retail stores, restaurants, schools, hospitals, prisons and other institutions.

4. Army or Navy means the War Department or the Department of the Navy of the United States, including such Departments' sales stores, commissaries, ships' stores, officers' messes, and stores operated as Army canteens or post exchanges.

(e) Relation of this order to Office of Price Administration regulations. Except as modified by this order, the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280, and of the General Maximum Price Regulation, shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be evaded by any change in business or trade practices in effect during the applicable base period of such regulations.

This order shall be effective July 18, 1944.

(b) Maximum distributor prices for sales to the Army and Navy. The maximum price for the sale and delivery of fluid milk to the Army and Navy shall be the price at wholesale computed under paragraph (a) of this order for the particular size and type of container, plus whichever of the following provisions is the higher:

1. One-half cent per quart or a proportionate amount for a part of a quart.

2. The actual transportation costs from the seller's plant to point of delivery at the lowest common carrier rate.

(c) Applicability of distributor prices. For the purpose of paragraph (a) of this order, sales and deliveries within the Crete, Nebraska, area shall mean:

1. All sales made within the city limits of Crete, Nebraska, and all sales at or from an establishment located in Crete, Nebraska.

2. All sales of fluid milk by any seller at retail at or from an establishment obtaining the major portion of its supply of milk from a seller at wholesale located within Crete, Nebraska.

(d) Definitions. 1. Grade A milk shall mean cow's milk complying with United States Army Specifications C-M-381-C.

2. Sales at wholesale shall include all sales to retail stores, restaurants, schools, hospitals, prisons and other institutions.

3. Army or Navy means the War Department or the Department of the Navy of the United States, including such Departments' sales stores, commissaries, ships' stores, officers' messes, and stores operated as Army canteens or post exchanges.

(e) Relation of this order to Office of Price Administration regulations. Except as modified by this order, the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 280 and of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be evaded by any change in business or trade practices in effect during the applicable base period of such regulations.

(f) Revocability. This order may be revoked, amended or corrected at any time.

(c) Definitions. 1. As used herein "retail sale" means a sale by a person who buys Presto-Logs from the producer for resale to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial or a commercial user.

(d) Invoices and records. Every person making a sale of firewood for which a maximum price is set by the order shall give the purchaser or his agent at the time of the sale an invoice or other memorandum of sale, which shall show:

(1) The date of sale,

(2) The name and address of the buyer and seller,

(3) The quantity of Presto-Logs sold,

(4) Place of sale (If the price is dependent on place of delivery, then the place of delivery shall be stated.), and

(5) The total price of the Presto-Logs.

On the invoice or memorandum, a separate statement shall be made of any discounts and of each service rendered such as delivery, carrying, and stacking, and the charge made for each such service.

The seller shall keep an exact copy of such invoice or memorandum for a period of two years following the sale. Such copy shall be made available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

(e) No seller shall evade any of the provisions of the order by changing his discounts, allowances, or other price differentials, unless such change results in a lower price.

This order shall become effective July 14, 1944.

NOTE: The record-keeping provisions of this order has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Amendment No. 8 to Order No. G–14 Under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Maximum prices for solid fuels sold in Milwaukee County, Wisconsin.

An opinion accompanying this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith.

Order No. G–14, as issued and amended under Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, is amended by adding the following sentence as a part of and immediately following the price schedules appearing in paragraph (c) of the order:

Whenever a dealer selling coal at the dock purchases raw coal from a producer or supplier and subjects that coal to an oil treatment against dust at the dock, that dealer, in selling the coal so treated by him, may add to the applicable maximum prices set by this order, as amended, a treatment charge not in excess of 10 cents per ton: Provided, That such an addition may be made only with respect to those sales in which the purchaser requests oil treated coal: And further provided, That the treatment charge so made shall be stated separately from all other items on the dealer's invoice.

This amendment No. 8 to Order No. G–14 shall become effective July 22, 1944.

[Region VI Order G–16 Under RMPR 122]

SOLID FUELS IN CHICAGO REGION

Order No. G–16 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Maximum prices for solid fuels within certain specified areas in Region VI.

Under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.259 (a) (1) and 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, and § 1340.209 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120, and for the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, this Order No. G–16 is issued.

SECTION (a) What this order does. This order establishes dollars-and-cents maximum prices for, and provisions generally applicable to the pricing of, certain solid fuels, when sold in specified areas in Region VI.

The body of this order contains the general provisions which are applicable to all of the appendices hereto. The special provisions and specific prices applicable in particular areas will be set forth in appendices hereto, each of which will be issued as a part of this order and each of which will be numbered. Insofar as any provision contained in any appendix may be inconsistent with any provision contained in the body of this order, the provision contained in the appendix shall be controlling in the area governed by that appendix.

Where the applicable appendix does not contain a maximum price for a kind of sale or a specific kind, size or type of solid fuel, the maximum price shall be determined by the appropriate provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

SEC. (b) Applicability of other regulations. To the extent applicable, the provisions of this order supersede Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Insofar as any provision in this order may be inconsistent with any provision of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, the provision contained in this order shall be controlling in the area governed by this order.

Dealers whose prices are established by this order are not required to file reports under § 1340.262 (c) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 for those solid fuels for which specific maximum prices are established herein.

SEC. (c) Geographical applicability. (1) Specific maximum prices, established on a delivered basis by any appendix to this order, shall apply when delivery is received within the area covered by that appendix, regardless of whether or not the dealer is located within that area.

(2) Specific maximum prices which are established by an appendix to this order for sales at fixed locations (e. g. "yard sales," sales f. o. b. transportation at a dealer's yard or dock or sales at retail stores), shall apply to all such sales at points located in the area covered by the applicable Appendix, regardless of the ultimate destination of the fuel.

SEC. (d) Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers making sales subject to this order. A seller's license may be suspended for violation of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules, regulations, or orders thereunder. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

SEC. (e) Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this order are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. (f) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall do any of the following:

(1) Sell, or, in the course of trade or business buy, solid fuels of the kinds and sizes covered by this order, at prices higher than the maximum prices established in the applicable appendix;

(2) Grant any discounts in lesser amounts or on less favorable terms than those specifically required by an applicable appendix;

(3) Charge for any service for which a charge is not specifically authorized by an applicable appendix;

(4) Charge more for a service than the amount authorized by an applicable appendix;

(5) Increase the maximum prices established herein to reflect, in whole or in part, increases in purchase costs or in suppliers' maximum prices. (It is within the discretion of the Regional Administrator to alter the maximum prices established herein to reflect any changes in the prices paid by dealers to their suppliers).

(6) Obtain a higher than maximum price by:

(i) Charging for a service not expressly requested by the buyer; or

(ii) Using any tying agreement or making any requirement that anything other than the fuel requested by the buyer be purchased by him, except that a dealer may comply with the requirements or standards with respect to deliveries which have been or may be issued by any agency of the government of the United States of America; or,

(iii) Making any charge for the extension of credit except pursuant to the provisions of an applicable appendix; or

(iv) Using any other device by which a price higher than the established maximum price is obtained, either directly or indirectly.

SEC. (g) Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery.

SEC. (h) Transportation tax. With respect to any sales subject to this order, the dealer may, provided he states it separately, collect, in addition to the specified maximum price established herein, the amount of the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by him, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of his prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from the dealer by his supplier: Provided, however, That the dealer need not state separately from his selling price the amount of said tax on a sale to the United States or any agency thereof, any State government or any political subdivision thereof; And provided further, That no part of that tax may be collected in addition to the maximum price, on sales of lesser quantities than one-quarter ton or any sales of any quantity of bagged fuel.

SEC. (i) Records. (1) Each dealer shall continue to preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all his existing records relating to:

(i) The prices he charged on deliveries made by him during December, 1941;

(ii) His offering prices (as defined in Rule 1A of § 1340.254 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122) for delivery during the period December 15–31, 1941;

(iii) His customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials;

(iv) His charges for all special services and rates of interest on all forms of debts during December, 1941;

(v) The prices charged to him by all of his suppliers during the last month of 1941 in which he received each different size, kind and quality of solid fuel.

(2) Every person making a sale of solid fuel for which a maximum price is set by this order shall keep a record thereof, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer (if known), the per net ton price charged, and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in this order. The record shall also separately state each service rendered and the charge made for it.

SEC. (j) Posting of maximum prices. Every dealer making sales subject to this order shall post, in his place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public, all of the maximum prices established hereby which apply to the types of sales made by him, and shall keep a copy of this order available for examination by any person during ordinary business hours. In the case of a dealer who sells directly to consumers from a truck or wagon, the posting shall be done on the truck or wagon. All postings shall include discounts, service charges, credit terms, and all other terms of sale.

SEC. (k) Sales slips and receipts. (1) Every dealer making a sale subject to this order shall give to the purchaser an invoice or similar document showing:

(i) The date of the sale or delivery;

(ii) The name and address of the dealer;

(iii) The name and address of the buyer;

(iv) The kind, size and quantity of the solid fuel sold;

(v) The price charged;

(vi) The terms of sale; and

(vii) A statement, stated separately on the invoice, of any special services rendered and any other charges made, and the amounts charged therefor.

(2) In the case of all other sales, every dealer who, during December, 1941, customarily gave buyers sales slips or receipts shall continue to do so. If a buyer requests of a seller a receipt showing the name and address of the dealer, the kind, size and quantity of the solid fuel sold to him, or the price charged, the dealer shall comply with the buyer's request as made by him.

(3) Paragraph "(1)" above shall not apply to sales of quantities of less than one-quarter ton unless the dealer customarily gave such a statement on such sales: Provided, however, That in the case of a sale of bagged fuel, the invoice required by paragraph "(1)" shall be given on all sales to dealers and retail stores. The invoice given shall show both the price per bag and the total charge.

SEC. (l) Definitions. When used in this order, except where otherwise provided in an appendix hereto, the following terms shall have the meanings as set forth below. These definitions include only those terms which are used generally in this order and in a number of appendices. When necessary, other terms which are used in a particular appendix will be specifically defined therein. If any definition contained in any appendix is inconsistent with any definition contained in this order, the definition contained in the appendix shall be controlling in the area governed by that appendix.

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Dealer" means any person selling solid fuel, except a producer or distributor making sales at or from a mine, a preparation plant operated as an adjunct of any mine, a coke oven, or a briquette plant.

(3) "Sell" includes sell, dispose, barter, exchange, supply, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale," "selling," "sold," "seller," "buy," "purchase," and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

(4) Whenever in this order or any appendix hereto, reference is made to "price classification," "minimum price schedule," "P. G. (production group)," "S. G. (size group)," "price group," "district No.," "sub-district," or "freight origin district," the reference shall be construed to have the meaning, definition, force and effect given those terms under the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, or under any order, schedule, rule or regulation issued by the Bituminous Coal Division of the U. S. Department of the Interior and established or in effect as of midnight, August 23, 1943.

(5) "Delivery" or "delivered" refers to the dumping or chuting of fuel from the seller's vehicle directly into the buyer's bin or storage space; but, if this is physically impossible, the terms refer to the discharge of the fuel directly from the seller's vehicle at a point where this can be done and which is nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space.

(6) "Yard sales" means deliveries made by the dealer in his customary manner at his yard or by any means other than by direct delivery.

(8) "Carry," "wheel-in," "carry up or downstairs," "carry from curb," or "carry from curb up or downstairs" refers to the movement of fuel to the buyer's bin or storage place from the vehicle from which delivery is made or from the point of discharge therefrom, when the physical condition of the premises is such as to prevent dumping or unloading directly into the bin or storage space.

(9) "Mow-back," "pull-back," or "trimming" means to arrange and place fuel in the buyer's bin or storage place by rehandling the same for the purpose of filling the bin or storage place, and applies only to the amount of fuel actually rehandled.

(10) "Low volatile bituminous coal" refers to coal produced in the low volatile sections of the producing districts specified herein.

(11) "High volatile bituminous coal" refers to coal produced in the high volatile sections of the producing districts specified herein.

(12) "Pennsylvania anthracite" means only coal produced in the Lehigh, Schuylkill and Wyoming regions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

(13) "Egg," "stove," "stoker," etc., sizes of bituminous coal refer to the size of such coal as defined in the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as prepared at the mine in accordance with the applicable minimum price schedule promulgated by the Bituminous Coal Division of the United States Department of the Interior and in effect (or established) as of midnight, August 23, 1943. Where the applicable minimum price schedule does not make specific mention of any size designated in this order, such size designation shall refer to the size of bituminous coal sold as such during December, 1941, in the area covered by the appendix containing the price schedule.

(14) "Egg," "stove," "nut," etc., sizes of bituminous coal received via the Great Lakes refer to the sizes of coal sold at the docks under such designations during December, 1941.

(15) "Egg," "stove," "nut," "chestnut," etc., sizes of Pennsylvania anthracite refer to the sizes of such coal prepared at the mine in accordance with standard sizing specifications adopted by the Anthracite Committee and effective December 15, 1941.

(16) Except as otherwise provided herein, or as the context may otherwise require, all terms used in this order shall bear the meaning given them in Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 or the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. (m) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order, including any provision of any appendix to this order, may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator of the Chicago Regional Office of the Office of the Price Administration.

SEC. (n) Power to amend, revoke, correct, or modify. This order, or any provision thereof, including all or any portion of any appendix hereto, may be revoked, modified, amended, or corrected at any time.

This order No. G-16 shall become effective July 29th, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[Region II Order G-15 Under MPR 329]

FLUID MILK IN NEW YORK

Order No. G-15 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, as amended. Purchases of milk from producers for resale as fluid milk. Adjustment of the maximum prices for purchases of fluid milk from producers in the State of New York.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith, and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by § 1351.408 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, as amended, and with the approval of the Regional Director of the Office of Distribution for the Northeastern Region of the War Food Administration; It is hereby ordered:

(a) The maximum price at which a purchaser in the course of trade or business may purchase or receive from a producer fluid milk with a butterfat content of 3.5%, f. o. b. a receiving or processing plant within the State of New York, except those receiving or processing plants listed in paragraph (b) below, shall be:

(1) The uniform price per cwt. as computed and announced by the Market Administrator pursuant to the terms and provisions of Order No. 27, as presently amended, as described in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) hereof,

(2) Plus or minus the applicable transportation differential for each receiving or processing plant as set forth in Column B of the schedule in § 927.4 (c) (1) of said Order No. 27, as presently amended,

(3) Plus 5¢ per cwt.,

(4) Plus or minus 4¢ per cwt. for each 1/10 of 1% butterfat content in excess of or below 3.5%, as the case may be,

(5) Plus 25¢ per cwt. for fluid milk purchased or received at a receiving or processing plant located within the following counties in the State of New York: Columbia, Dutchess, Orange, Putnam or Rockland.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) shall not be applicable to:

(1) Those receiving or processing plants located within the State of New York operating under or directly subject to:

(i) Order No. 4, as presently amended, issued by the United States Secretary of Agriculture, and amended by the War Food Administrator, entitled "Order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area";

(ii) Order No. 27, as presently amended, issued by the United States Secretary of Agriculture, and amended by the War Food Administrator, entitled "Order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the New York Metropolitan Marketing Area"; or

(iii) Order No. 61, as presently amended, issued by the United States Secretary of Agriculture and entitled "Order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Marketing Area"; or

(2) Those receiving or processing plants located within the State of New York operating under or directly subject to:

(i) Revised Official Order No. 127, issued by the New York State Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets and entitled "Compilation of Revised Official Order No. 127 regulating the handling of milk in the Niagara Frontier Milk Marketing Area, as in effect July 1, 1944"; or

(ii) Revised Official Order No. 129, issued by the New York State Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets and entitled "Compilation of Revised Official Order No. 129, regulating the handling of milk in the Rochester Milk Marketing Area, as in effect July 1, 1944"; or

(3) Those receiving or processing plants located within either the "Niagara Frontier Milk Production Area", or the "Rochester Milk Production Area", as hereinafter defined.

(c) The maximum price at which a purchaser in the course of trade or business may purchase or receive from a producer fluid milk at a receiving or processing plant within the State of New York, operating under or directly subject to said Orders Nos. 4, 27 and 61, all as presently amended, issued by the United States Secretary of Agriculture, and Revised Orders Nos. 127 and 129, as in effect July 1, 1944, issued by the New York State Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets, shall be determined under the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, as amended.

(d) The maximum price at which a purchaser in the course of trade or business may purchase or receive from a producer fluid milk with a butterfat content of 3.5% f. o. b. a receiving or processing plant within the "Niagara Frontier Milk Production Area", as hereinafter defined, shall be the uniform price per cwt. as announced by the New York State Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets in accordance with the terms and conditions of said Revised Order No. 127, as in effect July 1, 1944, plus or minus 4¢ for each 1/10 of 1% butterfat content in excess of or below 3.5% as the case may be.

(e) The maximum price at which a purchaser in the course of trade or business may purchase or receive from a producer fluid milk with a butterfat content of 3.5% f. o. b. a receiving or processing plant within the "Rochester Milk Production Area", as hereinafter defined, shall be the uniform price per cwt. as announced by the New York State Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets in accordance with the terms and conditions of said Revised Order No. 129, as in effect July 1, 1944, minus fifteen cents per cwt., plus or minus 4¢ for each 1/10 of 1% butterfat content in excess of or below 3.5% as the case may be.

(f) The maximum price at which a purchaser in the course of trade or business may purchase or receive from a producer, whose farm is located in the State of New York, fluid milk with a butterfat content of 3.5%, f. o. b. a receiving or processing plant outside the State of New York, except those receiving or processing plants operating under or directly subject to Federal Milk Marketing Orders Nos. 4, 27 or 61 regulating the Boston, New York, and Philadelphia markets, and except purchases from those producers described in paragraph (g) below, shall be,

(1) The uniform price per cwt. as computed and announced by the Market Administrator pursuant to the terms and provisions of said Order No. 27, as presently amended,

(2) Plus 5¢ per cwt.

(3) Plus or minus 4¢ per cwt. for each 1/10 of 1% butterfat content in excess of or below 3.5%, as the case may be,

(4) Minus transportation charges for hauling such fluid milk from the producer's farm in the State of New York to the nearest receiving or processing plant located within the State of New York, not to be less than the lowest of the following:

(i) The lowest available common carrier rate, or

(ii) The lowest available contract carrier rate, or

(iii) The reasonable value of such transportation,

(5) Plus transportation charges from the producer's farm in the State of New York to the receiving or processing plant outside the State of New York, not to exceed the lowest of any of the following:

(i) The lowest available common carrier rate, or

(ii) The lowest available contract carrier rate, or

(iii) When transportation is provided in trucks owned or controlled by the seller, the reasonable value of such transportation from the producer's farm to the receiving or processing plant of the purchaser,

Provided, however, That, where the purchaser receives the milk f. o. b. the producer's farm in the State of New York, the transportation charges set forth in this paragraph may not be added.

(g) The provisions of paragraph (f) shall not be applicable to purchases of fluid milk from:

(1) Those producers who held permits to, and who actually did ship fluid milk into the State of Connecticut during the month of June, 1944, and whose farms are located in the towns of Ancram, Chatham, Clancrack, Copake, Ghent, Hillsdale, Hudson, Kinderhook, Livingston, Stockport, Taghanic, Canaan, Greenport and Austerlitz in Columbia County; the towns of Amenia, Beckman, Dover, East Fishkill, La Grange, North East, Pawling, Pine Plains, Stanford, Unionvale and Washington in Dutchess County; the towns of Carmel, Kent, Patterson and South East in Putnam County; and the towns of Bedford, Lewisboro, North Salem and Poundridge, Somers and Yorktown in Westchester County; all in the State of New York, and

(2) Those producers whose farms are located in the State of New York and who actually did ship fluid milk into the following states during the month of June, 1944: Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont.

(h) Definitions. (1) "Fluid Milk" means liquid cows' milk in a raw, unprocessed state which is purchased for resale for human consumption as fluid milk, and at least satisfying the minimum butterfat content, sanitary and health requirements established by the appropriate governmental authorities.

(2) "F. o. b. purchaser's receiving or processing plant" means delivery to a receiving or processing plant which is either owned by the purchaser, or in which, with respect to the particular purchase, fluid milk purchased from the producer is actually received by such purchaser.

(3) "Niagara frontier milk production area" means the counties of Orlean and Wyoming; the county of Genessee, except the towns of Bergen, Leroy and Pavilion; the towns of Hanover and Villenova in the county of Chautauqua; the towns of Perrysburg, Dayton, Persia, Otto, East Otto, Ashford, Yorkshire and Freedom in the county of Cattaraugus; and the counties of Niagara and Erie, except those portions thereof defined as the Niagara Frontier Marketing Area in Revised Official Order No. 127, issued by the New York State Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets and entitled "Compilation of Revised Official Order No. 127 regulating the handling of milk in the Niagara Frontier Milk Marketing Area, as in effect July 1, 1944".

(4) "Rochester milk production area" means the towns of Bergen, Leroy and Pavilion in the county of Genessee; the towns of Caledonia, York, Lancaster, Avon, Genessee, Lima and Livonia in the county of Livingston; the towns of West Bloomfield, Victor, East Bloomfield, Farmington and Manchester in the county of Ontario; the towns of Ontario, Walworth, Macedon, Williamson, Marion, Palmyra, Sodus, Arcadia and Lyons in the county of Wayne; and the county of Monroe, except that portion thereof defined as the Rochester Marketing Area in Revised Official Order No. 129 issued by the New York State Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets and entitled "Compilation of Revised Official Order No. 129, regulating the handling of milk in the Rochester Marketing Area, as in effect July 1, 1944".

(i) Unless the context manifestly otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall apply to other terms herein.

(j) Order No. G-12 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, as amended, issued January 28, 1944, is hereby revoked.

This order shall become effective August 1st, 1944.

CONSOLIDATED ELECTRIC AND GAS CO. AND PORTSMOUTH GAS CO.

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING AND DESIGNATING NEW TRIAL EXAMINER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 31st day of July, A. D. 1944.

Consolidated Electric and Gas Company ("Consolidated"), a registered holding company, and Portsmouth Gas Company ("Portsmouth"), its subsidiary, having hereto filed declarations or applications (or both) pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 regarding the proposed sale by Portsmouth to Allied New Hampshire Gas Company of all of its properties and other assets (except certain minor claims), the liquidation of Portsmouth, and the use of the proceeds of said sale by Consolidated (which owns all of the securities of Portsmouth) for the retirement of certain of its debt securities presently outstanding; and

The Commission having directed by order of July 24, 1944 that a hearing be held on August 4, 1944 in respect of the applications and declarations; and

Consolidated having requested that the hearing be postponed to August 7, 1944, and the Commission having considered the request and finding that it is appropriate to grant the requested postponement:

It is ordered, That the hearing in this matter previously set for August 4, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., in the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as the Hearing Room Clerk in Room 318 will at that time advise, be, and the same is hereby, postponed to August 7, 1944 at the same hour and place.

It is further ordered, That Allen MacCullen or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing in lieu of the trial examiner heretofore designated. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

By the Commission.

ENGINEERS PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa. on the 31st day of July, A. D. 1944.

The Commission having on April 14, 1944 issued its findings and opinion and order (Holding Company Act Release No. 4997) permitting to become effective the declaration, as amended, of Engineers Public Service Company (Engineers), a registered holding company, pursuant to section 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-42 promulgated thereunder, regarding the expenditure of not more than $4,000,000 for the reacquisition of its outstanding preferred stocks by open market purchases or private purchases, said order imposing certain terms and conditions, including the condition that no purchases were to be made after four months from the date of order, subject, however, to the right of Engineers to apply for an extension or extensions of said period; and

Engineers now having filed on July 22, 1944 a post-amendment to its declaration, as amended, requesting an extension of four months to December 14, 1944 of the time within which to complete the reacquisition program ($2,487,356.25 having been expended as of July 22, 1944, under the same terms and conditions as set forth in the order of April 14, 1944; and

The Commission having considered the request for extension and being duly advised in the premises:

It is ordered, That the requested extension to December 14, 1944 of the time within which to complete the reacquisition program be, and the same is hereby, granted, subject otherwise to the terms and conditions set forth in the order of April 14, 1944.

By the Commission.

COLUMBIA GAS AND ELECTRIC CORP., ET AL.

ORDER MODIFYING CONDITION AND GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 31st day of July, 1944.

In the matter of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Manufacturers Gas Company, Pennsylvania Fuel Supply Company, Greensboro Gas Company, and Fayette County Gas Company, File Nos. 70-7; 70-25.

Joint applications and declarations and amendments thereto having been filed with this Commission by Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, and certain of its subsidiaries, The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Manufacturers Gas Company, Pennsylvania Fuel Supply Company, Greensboro Gas Company and Fayette County Gas Company, pursuant to sections 6, 7, 9, 10 and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder regarding the merger of The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Manufacturers Gas Company, Pennsylvania Fuel Supply Company, and Greensboro Gas Company to form Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, a new corporation, which will acquire the assets and assume the liabilities of Fayette County Gas Company, the latter thereupon to be dissolved, and other related transactions; and

The Commission having by order dated June 23, 1944 granted the applications and permitted the declarations to become effective subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, which rule provides in part that, unless otherwise requested, the transactions proposed be carried out within sixty days of the Commission's order granting the applications and permitting the declarations to become effective; and

The applicants and declarants having advised the Commission of their unexpected inability to effectuate the proposed transactions within the sixty-day period provided by Rule U-24 due to the time required in order to comply with certain statutory regulations of the States of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia wherein the new corporation proposes to do business; and having requested that the terms and conditions of said rule be modified to the extent necessary to extend the time within which the transactions, as set forth in the applications and declarations, may be consummated; and the Commission deeming it appropriate that such request be granted;

It is ordered, That the terms and conditions contained in our order of June 23, 1944 (Holding Company Act Release No. 5128) be, and hereby are, modified to the extent necessary to extend the time within which such transactions may be consummated to November 20, 1944.

By the Commission.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD.

C. A. WAITE CO.

CONSENT ORDER

C. A. Waite and E. J. Carroll, individually, and doing business as C. A. Waite Company, operating a steel warehouse at 3201 Penn Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, were found on investigation by the War Production Board to have exceeded their quota in the amount of about 900 tons of carbon steel between March 1, 1942, and March 31, 1943, inclusive, in accepting deliveries into their steel warehouse stock of Schedule "A" products, namely, No. 7 Hot Rolled Bars-Carbon and No. 10 Cold Finished Bars, in violation of Supplementary Order M-21-b. C. A. Waite and E. J. Carroll, individually, and doing business as C. A. Waite Company, admit the receipt of steel into warehouse stock in excess of their quota, as stated, and have consented to the issuance of this order.

Wherefore, upon the agreement and consent of C. A. Waite and E. J. Carroll, individually, and doing business as C. A. Waite Company, the Regional Compliance Chief and the Regional Attorney, and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner. It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) C. A. Waite and E. J. Carroll, individually, and doing business as C. A. Waite Company, or under any other name, their successors and assigns, shall not directly or indirectly order for delivery to or receive into their warehouse stock from producers, other distributors, holders of excess and idle stocks or any other source of supply, general steel products as defined in General Preference Order M-21-b-1, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board. These restrictions shall apply to the successors and assigns of C. A. Waite and E. J. Carroll, individually, and doing business as C. A. Waite Company.

(b) The provisions of this consent order shall not restrict said C. A. Waite and E. J. Carroll, individually, and doing business as C. A. Waite Company, from placing authorized controlled material orders for steel and from accepting delivery of steel for use in their present business of manufacturing steel forgings.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve C. A. Waite and E. J. Carroll, individually, and doing business as C. A. Waite Company, their successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 28th day of July 1944.

WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION.

"ALBATROSS"

DETERMINATION OF VESSEL OWNERSHIP

Notice of determination by War Shipping Administrator pursuant to section 3 (b) of the Act approved March 24, 1943, (Public Law 17, 78th Congress).

Whereas on February 21, 1943, title to the vessel Albatross, (236246), (including all spare parts, appurtenances and equipment) was requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended; and

Whereas section 3 (b) of the Act approved March 24, 1943, (Public Law 17—78th Congress), provides in part as follows:

(b) The Administrator, War Shipping Administration, may determine at any time prior to the payment in full or deposit in full with the Treasurer of the United States, or the payment or deposit of 75 per centum, or just compensation therefor, that the ownership of any vessel (the title to which has been requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, or the Act of June 6, 1941, (Public Law 101, Seventy-Seventh Congress), is not required by the United States, and after such determination has been made and notice thereof has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than the title to such vessel shall be deemed to have been requisitioned for all purposes as of the date of the original taking; Provided however, That no such determination shall be made with respect to any vessel after the date of delivery of such vessel pursuant to title requisition except with the consent of the owner, * * *; and

Whereas no portion of just compensation for the said vessel has been paid or deposited with the Treasurer of the United States; and

Whereas the ownership of the said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States; and

Whereas the former owner of the vessel has consented to this determination and to the return of the vessel and the conversion of the requisition of title therein to a requisition of use thereof in accordance with the above-quoted provision of law;

Now therefore, I, Emory S. Land, Administrator, War Shipping Administration, acting pursuant to the above-quoted provisions of law, do hereby determine that the ownership of said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States, and that, from and after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than title thereto shall be deemed to have been requisitioned, for all purposes, as of the date of the original taking.

PART 1401—DAIRY PRODUCTS

CONSERVATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF FLUID MILK AND CREAM

War Food Order No. 79, amended, 9 F.R. 4321, 4319 (formerly known as Food Distribution Order No. 79, issued by the War Food Administrator on September 7, 1943, as amended, 8 F.R. 12426, 13283), is hereby further amended as follows:

1. By deleting therefrom the provisions of § 1401.28 (d) (v) and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(v) Nursery, elementary, junior high, and high schools;

(vi) Hospitals; and

(vii) Any other agency or group named by the Director.

War food orders issued heretofore by the Director pursuant to War Food Order No. 79, as amended, not in agreement herewith, are hereby modified to agree with this amendment.

This amendment to said War Food Order No. 79, as amended, shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., Sept. 1, 1944. With respect to violations of said War Food Order No. 79, as amended, rights accrued, or liabilities incurred thereunder, prior to the effective time of this amendment, said War Food Order No. 79, as amended, shall continue in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violations, right, or liability.

PART 1401—DAIRY PRODUCTS

FLUID MILK AND CREAM IN EVANSVILLE, IND., SALES AREA

Pursuant to War Food Order No. 79 (8 F.R. 12426, 9 F.R. 4321, 4319), dated September 7, 1943, as amended, and to effectuate the purposes thereof, War Food Order No. 79-78 (8 F.R. 14599, 9 F.R. 4321, 4319), as amended, relative to the conservation and distribution of fluid milk, milk byproducts, and cream in the Evansville, Indiana, milk sales area, is hereby further amended by deleting therefrom the provisions in § 1401.117 (e) (3) and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(3) Multiply the aforesaid resulting amount by the following applicable percentage: (i) Milk: 104.5 percent; (ii) cream: 78.5 percent; (iii) butterfat in cream: 78.5 percent; (iv) milk byproducts other than cottage, pot, or baker's cheese: 78.5 percent; and (v) cottage, pot, or baker's cheese, 78.5 percent of skim milk equivalent. (For the purpose of this order, one pound of cottage, pot, or baker's cheese shall be considered as the equivalent of 7 pounds of skim milk.)

The provisions of this amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., August 1, 1944. With respect to violations of said War Food Order No. 79-78, as amended, rights accrued, or liabilities incurred thereunder, prior to the effective time of this amendment, said War Food Order No. 79-78, as amended, shall continue in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability.

PART 802—GENERAL PURCHASE POLICIES

SUBPART B—CONTRACT PLACEMENT

1. Section 802.221 (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 802.221 Purchase of used or second-hand materials. • • •

(d) Purchases through Procurement Division, Treasury Department. In connection with the use of used or second hand materials, it is of the utmost importance that all procurement offices and agencies avail themselves of the facilities of the Procurement Division, Treasury Department as more fully set forth in §§ 806.613–806.613 (j). That division makes available to the War Department property which is surplus to the need of other Government agencies. Chiefs of technical services should see that all procurement offices and agencies under their direction obtain the catalog of available property referred to in § 806.613 (f) and that they keep in touch with the Regional Property Officers of the Procurement Division referred to in § 806.613 (e). In this way much used and second hand material can be obtained.

2. Section 802.222 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 802.222 Time for placing contracts and scheduling deliveries—(a) General policies. (1) At an earlier stage in the war program, procuring agencies were encouraged to place contracts at the earliest possible time and to require contractors to commence production or to place subcontracts immediately. That policy was desirable as long as Army procurement was directed primarily to the task of providing the initial equipment for the rapidly expanding requirements of the Army and of the United Nations. However, that phase of procurement is now approaching completion. Except for comparatively few items, procurement for the future is designed to meet estimated replacements and operational requirements. The paramount and governing policy is still to place contracts sufficiently in advance of the actual need for the supplies to assure that deliveries will be made on time and in the proper quantities. Subject to this guiding principle, conditions now make it advisable that in the placement of contracts consideration also be given (i) to restricting contract commitments to the practicable minimum both as to time and quantity, and (ii) to the use of contract forms which will provide for the maximum flexibility in production rates while at the same time assuring the availability of the production facilities needed to produce all known requirements. This change of emphasis is essential if useless surpluses and costly cancellation and termination charges are to be avoided.

(2) The scheduling of deliveries to correspond more closely with actual requirements is likewise essential in the present stage of the war program. Close scheduling tends to prevent the building up of surpluses and to diminish termination claims. It is also vital to the most efficient use of available industrial capacity. If manufacturers are required to produce and deliver items long before they will actually be needed, they may be forced to increase the number of their employees abnormally or be unable to produce other items which will be needed sooner, and scarce materials may be tied up in inventory not currently needed. Thus the failure to schedule deliveries properly tends to disrupt the Army supply program and prevents industrial capacity from being used in the production of items as they are needed. Accordingly future contracts will be scheduled so that supplies will be delivered to synchronize with actual requirements, unless in a particular case efficient production requires otherwise. Existing contracts will also be reviewed with a view to rescheduling deliveries on the same basis.

SUBPART C—CONTRACT PRICE POLICIES

1. In § 802.232 (e) subpargraph (8) is added, as set forth below:

(e) Existing contracts. * * *

(8) The foregoing policies and considerations concerning conversion of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts to a fixed-price basis are applicable to the conversion of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee prime contracts.

2. Section 802.239 is added as set forth below:

§ 802.239 Subsidy prohibited. None of the funds appropriated in the Military Appropriation Act, 1945 (Pub. Law 374, 78th Congress) shall be used for the payment of any subsidy on agricultural or other products. (See Section 1 of Pub. Law 374, 78th Congress, under subtitle "Subsistence of the Army".)

SUBPART D—NEGOTIATION OF CONTRACTS

Paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 802.246 are amended to read as follows:

(a) Mandatory orders. Under Section 9 of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940 as amended, mandatory orders may be placed with producers requiring them to supply items of the nature and kind usually produced or readily capable of being produced by them. Payment for such items will be at prices determined by the Secretary of War to be reasonable. While the general use of such orders is not favored they will be resorted to when necessary under the circumstances described and outlined in § 814.1450 et seq. Thus, where a qualified producer whose products are required in the war effort refuses to produce and deliver upon terms which in the opinion of the contracting officer are fair and reasonable, the issuance of a mandatory order will normally follow. Specific reference should be made to § 814.1450 et seq. for detailed procedures covering this method of procurement.

(b) Requisitioning. When articles needed in the war effort are already in existence but for one reason or another cannot be purchased after reasonable negotiation, the procedure under the requisitioning acts, as outlined in § 814.1401 et seq., should be resorted to in order to obtain the required items.

PART 803—CONTRACTS

SUBPART B—AUTHORITY TO MAKE AWARDS, CONTRACTS, AND MODIFICATIONS THEREOF; REQUIRED APPROVALS

1. Paragraph (e) (5) of § 803.306 is added, as set forth below:

(e) Supplemental agreements converting cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts to a fixed price basis. * * *

(5) Any supplemental agreement, converting a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontract to a fixed-price basis, if required to be approved by the contracting officer, shall, prior to such approval, be forwarded for approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, accompanied by the information required by subparagraph (1) above.

2. Section 803.308h is added, as set forth below:

Sec. 17. (a) Where any person has arranged to furnish or furnished to a contracting agency or to a war contractor any materials, services, or facilities related to the prosecution of the war, without a formal contract, relying in good faith upon the apparent authority of an officer or agent of a contracting agency, written or oral instructions, or any other request to proceed from a contracting agency, the contracting agency shall pay such person fair compensation therefor.

(b) Whenever any formal or technical defect or omission in any prime contract, or in any grant of authority to an officer or agent of a contracting agency who ordered any materials, services, and facilities might invalidate the contract or commitment, the contracting agency (1) shall not take advantage of such defect or omission; (2) shall amend, confirm, or ratify such contract or commitment without consideration in order to cure such defect or omission; and (3) shall make a fair settlement of any obligation thereby created or incurred by such agency, whether expressed or implied, in fact or in law, or in the nature of an implied or quasi contract.

(c) Where a contracting agency fails to settle by agreement any claim asserted under this section, the dispute shall be subject to the provisions of section 13 of this Act.

(d) The Director shall require each contracting agency to formalize all such obligations and commitments within such period as the Director deems appropriate.

(b) Investigation of claims under statute. The chiefs of the several technical services will arrange for the prompt investigation of all claims which may come within the purview of secton 17 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944. Any Claimant under section 17 shall reduce his claim to writing and may be required to make any such claim under oath, verified by the claimant or by a principal officer of the claimant. Each such claim should be accompanied by affidavits of the representatives of the claimant having knowledge of relevant circumstances. If the chief of the technical service concerned is of the opinion that any such claim is without merit, such claim will be denied by the chief of the technical service by written notice to the claimant which will be sent by registered mail, return receipt requested. A copy of each such notice together with a copy of the claim and supporting papers and a brief statement of the circumstances of the investigation made by the technical service will be transmitted to the Judge Advocate General (attention Litigation Division). Such brief statement should include the names and permanent addresses of any witnesses relied upon by the technical service in denying such claim.

(c) Formalization of claims under existing procedures. Insofar as specifically authorized by other provisions of these Procurement Regulations in effect prior to the effective date of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944, the chiefs of the technical services will continue to approve and formalize instructions given or requests made in the behalf of the technical service to furnish or arrange to furnish materials, services, or facilities. Approval or formalization of instructions or requests not authorized by these Procurement Regulations prior to the effective date of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 pursuant to section 17 of that act will be dealt with in accordance with this section.

(d) Action under section 17 by the technical service. (1) The chief of any technical service may take or approve any action authorized by subsections (a) and (b) of section 17 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944, if there was in existence at the time of the furnishing or arranging to furnish any materials, services and facilities in question, a valid, formal contract between the Government (acting through the technical service in question) and the person claiming the benefit of section 17, and also,

(i) Such person acted upon instructions from an officer or employee of such technical service;

(ii) Such instructions were of a type which, when given could properly be embodied in a change order or supplemental agreement under such existing contract;

(iii) Such person actually furnished or arranged to furnish materials, services or facilities which the Government in fact desired such person to furnish or to arrange to furnish in connection with such contract at the time such instructions were given; and

(iv) Such person (a) has not been paid for such materials, services or facilities or for arranging to furnish the same, (b) has no pending contractual arrangement for such payment by the Government, and (c) is willing to accept in complete discharge of all liability of the Government for furnishing or arranging to furnish such materials, services or facilities an amount which the chief of the technical service considers to be not in excess of fair compensation for what such person has in fact done or furnished and which is not in excess of $5^0,000.

(2) Any action taken by the chief of the technical service pursuant to this paragraph will be embodied in a supplemental agreement to such existing contract. In each case involving the payment to the contractor of more than $50,000 by reason of such supplemental agreement, the agreement shall be subject to the prior written approval of the chief of the technical service in person or of any one or more employees or officers designated by him within the headquarters office of the technical service or in the case of the Air Forces, within the headquarters offices of the Air Forces or of one of its major component commands.

(3) The chief of the technical service will make a written report to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, of each action taken pursuant to the authority granted by this paragraph. Such report will contain the following:

(i) A copy of the supplemental agreement constituting the action;

(ii) A brief statement of facts and evidence upon which such action is based and the reasons for such action;

(iii) A statement of the reasons why such instructions were not, at the time they were given, promptly embodied in a supplemental agreement or change order.

(4) The chief of the technical service concerned will require full records to be preserved containing the facts relevant to any action taken pursuant to this paragraph. Such records will include, so far as practicable, sworn statements by the representatives of the Government and of the contractor or claimant having knowledge of the relevant circumstances.

(5) The chief of each technical service will take adequate steps to make certain that the grant of authority contained in this paragraph does not lead to any relaxation of the efforts of the procurement offices within such technical service to formalize promptly all instructions and agreements with contractors as required by applicable regulations.

(e) Action by Director, Purchases Division. In any case not covered by paragraph (d), either because (1) no valid, formal contract existed between the Government and the contractor or (2) for any other reason, the chief of each technical service will not grant any claim or request for relief or action under section 17 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 without obtaining the prior written approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. Each recommendation for such relief or action will be accompanied by an adequate statement of the circumstances which, in the opinion of the chief of the technical service, justify such relief or action and in addition the following:

(i) A copy of the proposed supplemental agreement granting such relief or taking such action;

(ii) A statement of the reasons why the proposed action was not, at the time of the circumstances upon which such action is based, promptly embodied in an appropriate supplemental agreement or change order;

(iii) A statement showing whether or not any claim relating to the matter is pending before or has been passed upon by the General Accounting Office;

(iv) A statement of the scope and nature of the investigation of the circumstances made by the technical service;

(v) A brief description of the contract or contracts, if any, to which such proposed relief or action is related;

(vi) The name, address and telephone number of the person in the War Department with detailed knowledge of the facts of the case.

(f) Action by War Department Board of Contract Appeals. The War Department Board of Contract Appeals in connection with any appeal pending before it under the "Disputes" article of a contract (see e. g. § 803.326) may authorize or direct the taking of any action pursuant to section 17 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 which in its opinion is required or authorized by that section.

SUBPART B—CONTRACT PROCEDURE WITHIN THE SERVICE COMMANDS

1. In § 803.318b, paragraphs (b), (d) and (e) (5) are amended as follows:

§ 803.318b Contract procedure. • • •

(b) Service command contracts. As indicated in § 803.318a (b), as a result of the service command reorganization much of the contracting done at posts, camps and stations located within service commands is done under the complete jurisdiction of the commanding generals of the service commands. Except as provided in § 803.318c (b) and except as staff officers of the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, the chiefs of technical services have no function to perform in connection with this contracting. Some of the contracting done at posts, camps and stations is still, however, under the jurisdiction of the chiefs of the technical services. In order clearly to differentiate contracts which are executed under the jurisdiction of the commanding generals of the service commands from those executed under the jurisdiction of the chiefs of the technical services, it is important that contracts of the former type be numbered and distributed in a manner different from technical service contracts. Accordingly, in the succeeding paragraphs a separate system of numbering and distribution is provided for contracts of the former type which, for convenience will be referred to as service command contracts.

• • • • •

(d) Distribution of service command contracts. The provisions of Subpart D of this part are applicable to service command contracts. In connection with service command contracts the term "chief of the technical service" is to be read as "commanding general of the service command." Except as required by § 803.318c (b), service command contracts (as that term is defined in paragraph (c)) should not be forwarded to the headquarters of the various technical services for legal review. If the chief of a technical service requests that copies of a particular type of service command contract be forwarded to his office in order to complete his technical records, such copies may be forwarded pursuant to subparagraph (5) of § 803.316 (a).

(e) Numbering of service command contracts. • • •

(5) Contract of sale. Reference is made to § 807.113. As indicated therein when a contract of sale, as distinguished from a contract of purchase, is executed, the letter "s" will be added after the parenthesis of the symbol specified in subparagraph (1) (iii) of this paragraph. The letter "s" will be so added not only in the case of contracts for the sale of property but also in the case of contracts for the sale of services.

2. Section 803.318c is added, as set forth below:

§ 803.318c Service command utility contracts. (a) For the purpose hereof, utility contracts are defined as those for the procurement of electricity, gas, water, sewage disposal and steam.

(b) All utility contracts and changes or supplemental agreements thereto entered into by service commands which require approval of higher authority pursuant to § 803.306 (a)–(d) because of material deviation from an approved form, failure to comply with the requirements of subpart H of this part, or because a matter or matters of policy beyond the jurisdiction of the chiefs of technical services are involved, will be referred by the commanding general of the service command direct to the Office of the Chief of Engineers, Attention: Repairs and Utilities Branch, New War Department Building, Washington 25, D. C. Such contracts will be reviewed by the Office of the Chief of Engineers for engineering and rate features, matters of policy and legal sufficiency and approved or returned for revision. Prior to reference to the Chief of Engineers such contracts will be referred to the Repairs and Utilities Divisions of the service command for review of engineering and rate features. The action taken and comments made by Repairs and Utilities Divisions will be made a part of the file forwarded to the Chief of Engineers for review.

Any such utility contract or modification thereof requiring approval pursuant to § 803.306 (a)–(d) will contain a provision that it is subject to the approval of the Chief of Engineers and will not be binding until so approved. Prior to such approval any required approval by the Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, will be obtained by the Chief of Engineers. Provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to interfere with or supersede the provisions of § 803.394–803.394 (e), inclusive, and in accordance with § 803.394 (e) any utility contract which is of the character described in § 803.394 (b) will also contain a provision that it is subject to approval by the War Department Power Procurement Officer or the Deputy War Department Power Procurement Officer and will not be binding until so approved.

(c) Service command utility contract procedure. The procedure set forth in paragraph (b) does not affect the execution, numbering and distribution of service command utility contracts as provided for in § 803.318b–803.318b (f).

SUBPART F—CONTRACT APPEALS

In § 803.318d, paragraph (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) Powers of Board. The Board has all powers necessary and incident to the proper performance of its duties and has the power with the approval of the Under Secretary of War to adopt its own methods of procedure and rules and regulations for its conduct and for the preparation and presentation of appeals. These rules and regulations are set forth in §§ 803.318e (a)–(e).

Memorandum of the Secretary of War, dated 4 July 1944, provided that in the consideration and disposition of appeals to the Secretary of War, the Board and the President of the Board, as representatives of the Secretary of War for the disposition of appeals, shall

(1) Exercise such delegable authority and discretion as the Secretary of War himself might exercise either through contractual power or otherwise in the consideration and disposition of appeals, to ratify or approve the acts of subordinates and to waive any contract requirement which the Secretary of War himself legally might waive, whenever in the discretion of the Board or the President of the Board, as the case may be, such action is deemed necessary or desirable to arrive at a just and equitable adjustment or disposition of the dispute involved in the appeal.

(2) Consider and administratively pass on appeals not specifically or impliedly authorized by the contract where the ruling appealed from is not thereby made final and conclusive, and the appeal is taken within the time fixed in the contract for appeals.

(3) Find and administratively determine the facts out of which a claim by a contractor arises for damages against the Government for breach of contract, without expressing opinion on the question of the Government's liability for damages.

SUBPART H—MANDATORY AND OPTIONAL CONTRACT PROVISIONS

1. In § 803.323, subparagraph (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) As to contracts of sale, see General Provision 8 of W. D. Contract Form No. 26 (§ 813.1326).

2. In § 803.324 subparagraphs (1) to (6) are amended to read as follows:

§ 803.324 Uniform termination article. (1) There is set forth below the uniform termination article prescribed by the Office of War Mobilization for use in fixed price (lump sum) supply contracts (§§ 815.1001 and 815.1002). This article will be referred to hereafter in this section as the uniform article.

(2) The uniform article may be inserted in any lump sum supply contract.

(3) Every lump sum supply contract for the manufacture of supplies and equipment executed on and after 20 February 1944, except:

(i) Contracts to be completed in six months or less for an amount of less than $500,000,

(ii) Contracts for an amount of less than $50,000, regardless of the date of completion and

(iii) Requirement or open end contracts, will contain the uniform article without deviation.

(4) As provided in § 815.107 (a), the chief of any technical service, without approval of higher authority, may amend any existing lump sum supply contract to insert therein the uniform article. Such amendments will take place wherever possible prior to giving formal notice of termination. Inasmuch as it is in the interest of both the contractors and the Government that termination be effected under a uniform article, a vigorous policy will be pursued of promptly inserting by amendment the uniform article in existing contracts (other than those within the exceptions of subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of subparagraph (3) above) not now containing it. This policy will be applied with special emphasis in the case of contracts for large amounts and contracts calling for deliveries over long periods of time.

(5) Prior to the adoption of the uniform article by the Office of War Mobilization there was in use by the War Department a standard termination article (see § 815.901a) for lump sum supply contracts which was contained in this paragraph. Certain of the instructions contained in Part 815 are based upon the former article. To the extent that such instructions are inconsistent with the uniform article they are to be deemed inapplicable to contracts containing it.

(6) Simultaneously with the issuance of the uniform article, the Office of War Mobilization published a "Statement of Principles for Determination of Costs Upon Termination of Government Fixed Price Supply Contracts". It will be noted that this statement is incorporated by reference by subparagraph (h) of the uniform article. The statement is set forth in full in §§ 815.480. For convenience the uniform article has been printed in § 815.901, as well as below in this section.

3. Section 803.369 is added, as set forth below:

§ 803.369 Release upon final payment under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. To facilitate the prosecution of the war and the final settlement of war procurement contracts, authority is granted to the chiefs of technical services and their representatives, pursuant to the First War Powers Act, 1941, Executive Order No. 9001 and the Contract Settlement Act of 1944, to amend existing cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, whether or not terminated or completed, but in no event after final payment thereunder has been made, to include substantially the following article, and concurrently to delete any existing provisions of such contracts which are inconsistent with the following article:

Article ..... Release provisions. 1. Prior to final payment and as a condition thereof the Contractor shall furnish the Government with a release of all claims against the Government arising under and by virtue of this contract, other than (a) such claims, if any, as may be specifically excepted by the Contractor from the operation of the release in stated amounts to be set forth therein, or in estimated amounts where the amounts are not susceptible of exact statement, and (b) any claim based upon responsibility of the Contractor to third parties arising out of the performance of this contract not known to the Contractor at the time of furnishing the release.

2. Even though the existence or amount thereof shall not be determined until after the furnishing of such release as is described next above, reimbursement to be made for payments made by the Contractor shall include, along with wages and salaries otherwise reimbursable, all additional amounts determined (either by approval of the Contracting Officer or by litigation as hereinafter provided) to be due and payable for overtime compensation and allowances under local, state or Federal laws in connection with such wages and salaries.

3. The Contractor shall promptly notify the Contracting Officer of any claims of the type described in paragraph 1 (b) above which are asserted subsequent to the execution of the release.

4. In the event the Contracting Officer shall determine that the best interests of the Government require that the Contractor initiate or defend litigation in connection with claims of third parties arising out of the performance of this contract, the Contractor will proceed with such litigation in good faith and the costs and expenses of such litigation, including judgments and court costs, allowances rendered or awarded in connection with suits for wages, overtime or salaries, and reasonable attorneys' fees for private counsel when the Government does not furnish Government counsel, shall be reimbursable under this contract. The term "litigation" shall include suits at law or in equity and proceedings before any Governmental agency having jurisdiction over the claim.

SUBPART L—MISCELLANEOUS

1. In § 803.394 that portion of paragraph (b) preceding subparagraph (1), and paragraph (e) are amended as follows:

(b) War Department Power Procurement Officer. Pursuant to the directives from the President, set forth in paragraph (a), the Secretary of War has designated Col. S. M. Weaver as War Department Power Procurement Officer and Lt. Col. C. McCabe as Deputy War Department Power Procurement Officer, with the following responsibilities for contracts of 1000 kilowatts or over for electric service to all installations where the War Department has an interest in the cost of electric service:

* * * * *

(e) Required provision in contracts and supplements. All contracts and supplements of the character referred to in paragraph (b) will contain a statement that the contract or supplement is subject to the approval of the War Department Power Procurement Officer or the Deputy War Department Power Procurement Officer and will not be binding until so approved. Such contracts and supplements will then be forwarded through the Repairs and Utilities

Division of the Service Command Engineer Office to the War Department Power Procurement Officer, Office of the Chief of Engineers, for such approval.

2. Section 803.395 (a) is amended to include provisions of the Military Appropriation Act, 1945.

Section 9, Military Appropriation Act, 1945 (Pub. Law 374, 78th Congress) provides:

Whenever, during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1945, the Secretary of War should deem it to be advantageous to the national defense, and if in his opinion the existing facilities of the War Department are inadequate, he is hereby authorized to employ, by contract or otherwise, without reference to section 3709, Revised Statutes, civil service or classification laws, or section 5 of the Act of April 6, 1914, (38 Stat. 335), and at such rates of compensation (not to exceed $25 per day and travel expenses, including actual transportation and per diem in lieu of subsistence while traveling from their homes or places of business to official duty station and return as may be authorized in travel orders or letters of appointment for individuals) as he may determine, the services of architects, engineers, or firms or corporations thereof, and other technical and professional personnel as may be necessary.

PART 804—BONDS AND INSURANCE

SUBPART D—INSURANCE

Insurance in Connection With Lump Sum Contracts

1. That portion of § 804.451 preceding paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

(2) The contract articles referred to are intended to put the contractor in the same position he would occupy if he obtained commercial insurance policies providing broad coverage against the "expected perils" set forth in the contract article. In view of the protection thus afforded to the contractor by the Government in lieu of commercial insurance, the contractor has no liability for loss or destruction of or damage to Government-owned property caused by any "excepted peril" against which he may obtain commercial insurance, and the contractor is in fact required by the contract article to make the express representation (among others) that he is not maintaining and will not maintain insurance (including self-insurance funds or reserves) covering such liability.

(3) The policy described above rests to a large degree upon the savings to the Government obtained by the elimination of charges for commercial insurance, which savings are, of course, intended to be reflected in the contract price. When, by reason of special circumstances, it is not practicable to obtain such savings (for example, when Government interests are so far commingled with other interests as to be practically incapable of segregation) or the savings are trivial in amount, the chief of the technical service concerned may, in his discretion, determine that the general policy will not be applied. Typical cases where this determination has been made in the past are: service contracts such as laundry contracts; shoe, tent or tire repair contracts; machinery maintenance or repair contracts; fixed rate storage contracts. In such cases neither the contract article set forth in § 803.365 (a–1) nor the liability provision of § 803.332 will be used. In lieu thereof the following will be used:

(i) Instead of the article set forth in § 803.365 (a–1), a clause may be used stating in substance that except for reasonable wear and tear or depreciation or the utilization of the Government-owned property in connection with the contract, the contractor shall be liable for any loss or destruction of or damage to such property.

(ii) Instead of the liability provision appearing in § 803.332, a clause may be used stating in substance that except for reasonable wear and tear or depreciation, the Government-owned facilities shall be returned to the Government or delivered to the Government's designee, at the time elsewhere in the article provided, in as good condition as when received.

PART 805—FOREIGN PURCHASES

1. In § 805.502, paragraph (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

§ 805.502 Buy American Act. • • •

(a) Restriction created by Appropriation Act. (1) The Military Appropriation Act, 1945, approved 28 June 1944 (Public Law 374—78th Congress) contains a proviso that no part of any appropriation contained in that Act "shall be available for the procurement of any article of food or clothing not grown or produced in the United States or its possessions, except to the extent that the Secretary of War shall determine that articles of food or clothing grown or produced in the United States or its possessions cannot be procured of satisfactory quality and in sufficient quantities and at reasonable prices as and when needed, and except procurements by vessels in foreign waters and by establishments located outside the continental United States, except the Territories of Hawaii and Alaska, for the personnel attached thereto."

2. In § 805.503, paragraphs (c) and (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 805.503 Applicable only to food and clothing. • • •

(c) Items of food and clothing exempt without regard to country of origin. The following items of food and clothing have been exempted without regard to country of origin.

Bananas.	Fish oils.
Brazil Nuts.	Flour.
Canned corned beef.	Green olives.
Canned roast beef.	Molasses.

PART 807—DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

SUBPART B—DISPOSITION OF TERMINATION INVENTORIES

In § 807.206, a new subparagraph (4) is added to paragraph (c), as set forth below:

(c) Other sales of termination inventories. * * *

(4) If efforts to find a user-buyer on a negotiated basis within a reasonable period of time under the provisions of subparagraph (3) above are unsuccessful, then, if the items are such as are not customarily sold for civilian use in their existing form, they may be offered on competitive bid, and sales made or approved to the highest bidder, unless all bids are rejected.

SUBPART C—DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY FOR PURPOSES DIRECTLY RELATED TO THE PROSECUTION OF THE WAR

1. In § 807.310 the head note is amended to read as set forth below, the first paragraph is designated (a), and a new paragraph (b) is added, as follows:

(b) Transfers to the Veterans' Administration. Any property may, by direction of the chief of the technical service having control thereof, be transferred to the Veterans' Administration upon written request, stating that the property is needed for authorized hospital care for veterans. (See Title I, Public Law 346, 78th Congress.) Such transfers will be made only with the approval or pursuant to regulations of the Commanding General, Army Service Forces, as to military property of Army Service Forces, and the Commanding General, Army Air Forces, or his delegate or delegates, as to military property of the Army Air Forces.

2. Section 807.315 is amended to read as follows:

§ 807.315 Exchange of property. The chiefs of technical services are authorized to make any exchanges of property which are authorized by the following statutes: 39 Stat. 535, 10 U.S.C. 1271; 40 Stat. 43, 849, 10 U.S.C. 1272; 38 Stat. 1064, 10 U.S.C. 1273; 38 Stat. 1161, 41 U.S.C. 26; 50 Stat. 64, 5 U.S.C. 118d; 53 Stat. 739, 10 U.S.C. 1271 (a); 44 Stat. 680, 10 U.S.C. 1209, 1210; Act of July 2, 1940, Public 703, 76th Congress, as extended by the Act of June 5, 1942, Public 580, 77th Congress; Section 203 of the Act approved June 26, 1943, Public Law No. 90, 78th Congress; Section 203 of the Act approved June 27, 1944, Public Law 358, 78th Congress. Any other exchanges will be submitted for the approval of the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

SUBPART D—DISPOSITION OF NON-REPAIRABLE PROPERTY

1. A new § 807.411 is added as follows:

§ 807.411 Destruction of worthless property included in termination inventories. Property included in termination inventories which is entirely worthless and unsalable may be destroyed, discarded or abandoned by the contractor in possession of the property with the approval of the contracting officer subject to the following conditions:

(a) Property which is deemed to be worthless will be offered for sale to at least three scrap dealers. If no bids are received, the contracting officer will submit his recommendation to a local Disposal Board with a certificate that an effort has been made to dispose of the property by sale without success, and that in his opinion it is unsalable and worthless.

(b) Upon the written approval of the Disposal Board, the contracting officer may authorize the contractor to destroy, discard or abandon the property.

(c) Where the total cost or the estimated cost of the property proposed to be destroyed is $5000 or more, Disposal Boards will not authorize its destruction, discard or abandonment without the written concurrence of a representative of Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

SUBPART C—WAGE AND SALARY STABILIZATION

1. Section 809.980f is amended to read as follows:

(a) The hiring of an individual at a wage or salary rate in excess of the rate properly established in the plant for employees of similar skill and productive ability within the classification in which the individual is employed is an increase in wages or salary within the meaning of Executive Order 9250, and the regulations of the Director of Economic Stabilization, and requires the approval of the National War Labor Board.

(b) The hiring of an individual at a wage or salary rate lower than the rate or the minimum of the range of rates properly established in the plant for the job classification in which the individual is employed is a decrease in wages or salary within the meaning of Executive Order No. 9250, and the regulations of the Director of Economic Stabilization, and requires the approval of the National War Labor Board.

(c) If a wage or salary rate or range of rates for a job classification has not theretofore been established by the employer for the plant involved, the rate or range of rates, may be established without the approval of the National War Labor Board if it bears the same relation to the rates or ranges of rates for similar classifications in the area as the existing rates or ranges of rates in the plant bear to comparable rates or ranges of rates in the area: Provided, however, That rates or rate ranges covering new plants or new departments within existing plants must be submitted to the National War Labor Board for approval.

2. Section 809.980h is amended to read as follows:

Exercising the authority vested in the National War Labor Board by Section 4001.19 of Part 4001, Regulations Relating to Wages and Salaries issued on October 27, 1942, as amended, by the Economic Stabilization Director and approved by the President, and deeming it necessary for the effective administration of the Act of Congress of October 2, 1942, the Board hereby determines that adjustments in any wages or salaries over which this Board has jurisdiction and which are paid in any territory or possession of the United States, except Alaska and the Territory of Hawaii, are exempted from the operation of the said Regulations and therefore made be made without the approval of the Board.

3. Section 809.980cc is amended, as follows:

* * * * *

II. EMPLOYERS OF 31 OR MORE EMPLOYEES

* * * * *

F. Restrictions on hiring employees at rates in excess of the minimum rate of the properly established rate range for a given job classification.

1. Existing establishments. An employer shall hire employees at the minimum of the properly established rate range for a given job classification: Provided, however, That an employee who has special ability and experience may be hired at a rate within the range corresponding to such ability and experience. But an employer may not, within a given year (which shall be the same year as the one used by the employer in calculating the average amount of merit or length of service increases given under section II–C–1 of this General Order), hire more than 25 percent of all the employees hired for any job classification, at rates in excess of the minimum of the properly established rate range for that job classification. In any job classification in which fewer than four employees are hired within the year, one employee who has special ability and experience may be hired at a rate in excess of the minimum rate of the properly established rate range. If, before the effective date of this amendment, an employer has had a plan properly in existence (as defined in this General Order) which provides that some percentage of employees in excess of 25 percent may be hired at rates above the appropriate minimum rate, such provision may be continued in effect. All other employers are subject to the restrictions of this or the following subsection II–F–1 or II–F–2).

2. New establishments or new departments in existing establishments. An employer shall hire employees at the minimum of the properly established rate range for a given job classification: Provided, however, That an employee who has special ability and experience may be hired at a rate within the range corresponding to such ability and experience. But an employer may not, within the first year of operation hire more than 50 percent of all the employees hired for any job classification, at rates in excess of the minimum of the properly established rate range for that job classification. During all subsequent years of operation, no more than 25 percent of all the employees hired in any job classification may be hired at rates in excess of the minimum of the properly established rate range for that job classification. In any job classification in which fewer than four employees are hired within the year, one employee who has special ability and experience may be hired at a rate in excess of the minimum rate of the properly established rate range.

4. Section 809.980dd is amended to read as follows:

(a) Organization and jurisdiction. (1) There is hereby created within the Territory of Hawaii the Territorial War Labor Board for Hawaii, to consist of the following members to be appointed by the National War Labor Board: Representatives of Labor, two of whom are to be available for service with the Territorial Board at any given time; Representatives of Industry, two of whom are to be available for service with the Territorial Board at any given time; and Representatives of the Public, two of whom are to be available for service with the Territorial Board at any given time. There shall be two Co-chairman and one or more Vice Chairman, to be designated by the National War Labor Board from among the public representatives.

(2) The Territorial War Labor Board for Hawaii shall have jurisdiction over all labor disputes and voluntary wage and salary adjustments in Hawaii within the jurisdiction of the National War Labor Board. It shall have power, subject to the same review by the National War Labor Board as other Regional War Labor Boards, to issue final orders and rulings in such cases.

(3) The Territorial War Labor Board for Hawaii shall comply with all pertinent provisions of the rules of organization and procedure of the National War Labor Board, especially Part VI, entitled Jurisdiction and Procedure of Regional Boards. (§ 809.979): Provided, however, That the Territorial War Labor Board for Hawaii may by unanimous vote of its members, make such modifications in its procedures as are deemed by it to be necessary for its efficient administration. Such action shall be promptly reported to the National War Labor Board and shall be subject to the National War Labor Board's ultimate power of review.

(4) In acting hereunder on wage or salary adjustments, the Territorial War Labor Board for Hawaii shall comply with the terms of Executive Order 9250, dated October 3, 1942, Executive Order 9328, dated April 8, 1943, the Supplementary Directive of May 12, 1943 and all other Executive orders and regulations issued thereunder. The Territorial War Labor Board may make such recommendations as to appropriate policies to govern wage and salary adjustments as are adapted to the special circumstances obtaining in the Territory. Such recommendations shall be consistent with the Act of October 2, 1942. They shall be submitted for consideration of the National War Labor Board which will transmit to the Director of Economic Stabilization those recommendations deemed by it advisable and necessary.

(b) Wage and salary adjustments which may be made effective without approval of Territorial War Labor Board for Hawaii. (1) Adjustments in the wage and salary rates of individual employees as a result of (i) individual merit increases, (ii) individual increases based upon length-of-service, (iii) operation of an apprentice or trainee system, (iv) individual promotions or reclassifications, (v) increased productivity under piece work or incentive plans; Provided, however, That with respect to increases made under subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) of this section the total of such increases to any individual employee (subject to National War Labor Board jurisdiction) shall not exceed 10¢ per straight time hour during any year, and such increases during any such year shall not exceed an average of 5¢ per straight time hour for all the employees (subject to National War Labor Board jurisdiction) in the establishment.

(2) Increases in wage and salary rates made in compliance with any minimum wage statute or with any minimum wage order of the duly constituted authorities of the Territory of Hawaii.

(3) Adjustments in the wage and salary rates of governmental employees of the Territory of Hawaii. It is expected, however, that the authorities of the Territory of Hawaii will observe and abide by the same stabilization policies as are made applicable generally in the Territory.

(4) Establishment of a wage or salary rate or range of rates for a job classification not theretofore established for the plant involved, the rate or rate range so established to bear the same relation to rates or rate ranges for similar classifications in the area as the existing rates in the plant bear to comparable rates or rate ranges in the area: Provided, however, That rates for new establishments or new departments within existing establishments must be submitted for approval.

(5) The payment to employees, whose wage or salary increases are subject to the jurisdiction of the National War Labor Board, of a bonus, fee, gift, commission or other form of compensation customarily paid to such employees in the past: Provided, That:

(i) If in a fixed amount, the total amount so paid to an employee during the current bonus year does not exceed the total so paid to an employee for like work during the preceding bonus year, or

(ii) If computed on a percentage, incentive or other similar basis, the rate and the method of computation are not changed in the current bonus year so as to yield a greater amount than that in the preceding bonus year, but a greater amount when resulting from the same rate and method of computation may be paid.

(6) The Territorial War Labor Board for Hawaii may, in the case of small total wage or salary increases, provide for the making of such other adjustments without its approval as it deems necessary for the efficient administration of its duties hereunder. Such action shall be promptly reported to the National War Labor Board and shall be subject to the National War Labor Board's ultimate power of review but any modification or reversal thereof shall not be retroactive.

(7) No general order heretofore or hereafter issued by the National War Labor Board shall be applicable to the Territory of Hawaii unless expressly extended thereto by action of the National War Labor Board.

SUBPART K—FAIR EMPLOYMENT PRACTICE

Section 809.994a is amended by the addition of subparagraphs (10) and (11) to paragraph (a).

(10) The non-discrimination clause is not required in contracts renewed pursuant to an option to renew in accordance with the terms, conditions and provisions contained in the original contract.

(11) The requirement that parties to contracts with the Government of the United States (or agencies of said Government) include a non-discrimination clause "in all subcontracts" is not applicable to lessors of space in buildings except in cases where the Government of the United States (or any agency thereof) is the only tenant involved, or unless a sub-contract is entered into solely for the purpose of performing an obligation (or obligations) imposed by the Government lease.

[Procurement Reg. 11]

PART 811—MISCELLANEOUS PURCHASE INSTRUCTIONS

SUBPART D—PRICE REGULATIONS

Section 811.1133 (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 811.1133 Procedure for obtaining exemption under developmental and secret contracts and emergency purchases or for relief from a price regulation. * * *

(d) Procedure for obtaining relief. (1) OPA Procedural Regulation No. 6, effective July 3, 1942, as amended, sets forth the procedure to be followed (except where OPA regulations specifically otherwise provide) to obtain prompt adjustments of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. The regulation provides that any seller who has entered into or proposes to enter into a Government contract, or a subcontract thereunder, who believes that his maximum price or prices impedes or threatens to impede the production, manufacture or distribution of a commodity or the supply of a service which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of such contract or subcontract may apply for adjustment of his maximum price or prices. Any Government agency may appear as an interested party in the case of any such application. Upon the filing of an application for adjustment, or within five days prior thereto, and until final disposition of the application, contracts may be entered into or proposals and bids submitted at the price or prices requested in the application, and deliveries may be made under such contracts, except that the seller may not receive and the buyer may not pay the amount by which the price exceeds the maximum price unless and until an order granting a higher price has been issued. The seller shall include in any sale, contract to sell, or offer to sell at the price requested in the application the following: (i) the maximum price for the commodity or service in question; (ii) a statement that the quoted price is subject to approval of the Office of Price Administration; and (iii) a statement that an appropriate application has been filed, or will be filed within five days, with the Office of Price Administration. Applications involving contracts exceeding $5,000,000 in value must be filed with the OPA in Washington, D. C. Other applications (with a few exceptions) may be filed either with the appropriate regional office of the OPA or with the OPA in Washington, D. C.

(2) By amendments effective April 12, 1943, and June 25, 1943, respectively, special adjustment procedure is provided in MPR 136 (Machines and Parts, and Machinery Services), to which reference is made for complete details. This procedure is available to any person who has entered into a "war contract", defined as a contract for the sale of a machine or part purchased for the ultimate use of the armed forces of the United States or for lend-lease purposes, or for use in the production or manufacture of any such commodity. Provision is also made for adjustments of the maximum prices of machinery services.

SUBPART P—CONTRACTS INVOLVING RUBBER OR SYNTHETIC RUBBER

1. Subparagraph (4) of § 811.1150 is amended to read as follows:

(4) The War Department will pay Rubber Reserve Company the difference between these amounts and the prices fixed by Rubber Reserve Company specified in subparagraph (1) above, or such lower prices as the Rubber Reserve Company may fix from time to time. This contract will remain in force until 30 June 1945 unless extended by the War Department or terminated on ninety days' notice before that date.

2. Section 811.1151 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 811.1151 Administration of agreement. • • •

(c) The chief of each technical service has been directed to make available to the Ordnance Department by special allotment or otherwise sufficient funds to cover the estimated amounts payable to Rubber Reserve Company under this agreement with respect to its contracts and subcontracts up to 30 June 1945. The Chief of Ordnance is authorized to issue such directives or instructions to the chiefs of the other technical services as he deems necessary for the administration of the agreement and the furnishing of such allotments.

SUBPART H—MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

1. Section 811.1180 (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 811.1180 Discounts in purchasing. • • •

(d) Fiscal aspects of discounts. Although as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, offers of discounts for cash or prompt payment are to be disregarded in deciding between two possible contractors, in many cases contracts awarded or invoices pursuant to such contracts will provide for such discounts. In such cases advantage should be taken of such discounts and procedures should be established to aid in reaching this result; provided interference does not result in the payment of accounts or transactions which do not provide for discounts. The preferred form of procedure for the taking of discounts is one in which originals and copies of purchase instruments involving discounts and used internally by the procurement office are suitably stamped "Discount—Expedite" by the initiating office and the discount terms shown on such instruments are underscored or circled in red to invite the attention of all concerned to the possible priority status of the instrument and allied documents. For fiscal aspects of cash discounts, see AR 35-6200.

2. Section 811.1183 is amended to read as follows:

§ 811.1183 Procurement of spare parts. Certain restrictions and procedures have been prescribed with respect to the procurement of spare parts, particularly initial concurrent spare parts. Such restrictions and procedures are set forth in W. D. Circular 227, 7 June 1944.

[Procurement Reg. 12]

PART 812—RENEGOTIATION AND PRICE ADJUSTMENT

SUBPART A—STATUTORY RENEGOTIATION

Renegotiation Statute and Exemptions

In § 812.1205 (g) subparagraph (2) (v) and subparagraph (6) are amended as follows:

§ 812.1205 Discretionary power to exempt certain contracts and subcontracts. • • •

(g) Exemption of individual contracts and subcontracts for less than $5,000,000. • • •

(2) • • •

(v) If the contract contains any of the articles set forth in §§ 803.341 (a), (b), 803.360a (a) and 803.360 (b), the initial period of production has been completed; and

• • • • •

(6) Where a contract contains a periodic pricing article (§§ 803.360 (a) and (b)) or an article like those set forth in § 803.360a and 803.360a (a), exemption from renegotiation should not be granted with respect to the entire contract but only until the next succeeding price adjustment. At the conclusion of the first pricing period under the articles set forth in §§ 803.360 (b) and 803.360a (a), exemption from renegotiation for the initial pricing period may be granted retroactively at the time of the amendment of the contract to fix the price for the next succeeding period, if such exemption from renegotiation is warranted in accordance with these regulations.

[Procurement Reg. 13]

PART 813—FORMS OF CONTRACT

Section 813.1302 is amended by the addition of an alternate Article 10, as follows:

• • • • •

Article 10.[1] Permits and responsibility for work.—The Contractor shall obtain all required licenses and permits. He shall be responsible for all damages to persons that occur as a result of his fault or negligence in connection with the prosecution of the work. Except for "Government property", as defined in Article—(Liability for Government-owned Property), the responsibility for which is as stated in said article, the Contractor shall be responsible for all loss or destruction of or damage to property that occurs as a result of his fault or negligence in connection with the prosecution of the work, and shall be responsible for all materials delivered and work performed until completion and final acceptance. Upon completion of the contract the work shall be delivered complete and undamaged.

[Procurement Reg. 14]

PART 814—REQUISITIONING OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

SUBPART A—GENERAL

Section 814.1401 is amended to read as follows:

§ 814.1401 Authority to requisition. Authority to requisition personal property is conferred under (1) the Act of October 10, 1940 (54 Stat. 1090), as amended by the Act of July 2, 1942 (56 Stat. 467) and by the Act of June 28, 1944 (Public Law 379, 78th Congress); (2) the Act of October 16, 1941 (55 Stat. 742), as amended by the Act of March 27, 1942 (56 Stat. 181), by the Act of June 30, 1943 (Pub. Law 104, 78th Congress) and by the Act of June 28, 1944 (Public Law 378, 78th Congress) and (3) Executive Orders Nos. 8942 (6 F. R. 5909), 9024 (7 F. R. 329), 9040 (7 F. R. 527), 9138 (7 F. R. 2919), 9280 (7 F. R. 10179), 9294 (8 F. R. 221), 9322 (8 F. R. 3807) and 9334 (8 F. R. 5423). By such Executive Orders the President delegated to various persons, including the Secretary of War, the power to initiate requisitions under the Act. The Secretary of War, by Order dated December 11, 1941, assigned to the Under Secretary of War the functions, powers and duties so delegated to him. As a result of such delegation and assignment, the Under Secretary of War makes final determination as to the existence of statutory authority to requisition property desired to be requisitioned by the War Department and, if the Proposal to requisition and the proposed disposal of the property is approved by the Army and Navy Munitions Board and in proper cases, by the Chairman of the War Production Board, the War Food Administrator or the Office of Defense Transportation, issues the Requisition. He also makes final administrative determination as to the amount of compensation to be paid for property requisitioned by the War Department.

SUBPART B—ACQUISITION OF PROPERTY BY REQUISITION

Section 814.1405 is amended to read as follows:

§ 814.1405 Statutory authority to requisition property. (a) The Act of October 10, 1940, as amended, authorizes the taking of property by requisition when it is determined that:

(1) The property is military or naval equipment or munitions, or component parts thereof, or machinery, tools, or materials, or supplies necessary for the manufacture, servicing, or operation thereof;

(2) The property was ordered, manufactured, procured, or possessed for export purposes, and that the exportation thereof has been prohibited or curtailed in accordance with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act of July 2, 1940 (54 Stat. 714) as amended by the Act of June 30, 1942 (56 Stat 463, 50 U.S.C. App. 701), by the Act of July 1, 1944 (Public Law 397; 78th Congress) or by any other law; and

(3) It is necessary in the interest of national defense or prosecution of the war to requisition and take over the property for use or operation by the United States or in its interest.

(b) The Act of October 16, 1941, as amended, authorizes the taking of property, other than fire arms possessed by an individual for his personal protection or sport, possession of which is not prohibited by existing law, by requisition, if the taking will not impair or infringe in any manner the right of any individual to keep and bear arms, when it is determined that:

[1] This Alternate Article 10 will be inserted instead of the standard Article 10 when the contract contains § 803.365 (a-1). In such event, § 803.365 (a-1) will be modified to commence as follows:

"Except as otherwise specifically provided, the Contractor shall not be liable for loss or destruction of or damage to "Government property," (i. e., property of the Government in the possession or control of the Contractor in connection with this contract, other than property furnished by the Contractor title to which is vested in the Government by reason of the provisions of Article 16 (c) hereof entitled "Payments to Contractor") (1) caused by any peril • • •".

(1) The property is military or naval equipment, supplies, or munitions, or component parts thereof, or machinery, tools, or materials necessary for the manufacture, servicing, or operation of such equipment, supplies, or munitions;

(2) The use of the property is needed for the defense of the United States;

(3) Such need is immediate and impending and such as will not admit of delay or resort to any other source of supply; and

(4) All other means of obtaining the use of the property for the defense of the United States upon fair and reasonable terms have been exhausted.

SUBPART D—RETURN OF REQUISITIONED PROPERTY AND DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS OF REQUISITIONED PROPERTY

1. Section 814.1415 is amended to read as follows:

§ 814.1415 Return of requisitioned property to former owner under certain conditions. The Act of October 16, 1941, as amended, provides that whenever it is determined that property requisitioned under that Act and retained is no longer needed for the defense of the United States it shall, if the original owner desires the property and pays the fair value thereof, be returned to such owner and that, in any event, property so acquired and retained shall, if such owner desires the property and pays the fair value thereof, be returned to him not later than December 31, 1945. Should a technical service determine that property requisitioned by it and retained is no longer needed for the defense of the United States it shall advise the Legal Branch, Director of Matériel, which will prescribe the procedure to be followed in effecting its return.

2. The caption "Subpart E—Requisitioning Forms is inserted immediately preceding § 814.1417.

PART 815—TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT

SUBPART A—POLICY AS TO TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS AND SUPERVISION OF TERMINATION SETTLEMENTS

Introduction

1. Paragraph (b) of § 815.100 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.100 Scope of part. • • •

(b) Adjustments under the so-called "Changes" article in War Department contracts, consisting of changes in specifications, accelerations or extensions of delivery schedules, increases in quantities and similar matters. (See for example §§ 803.329a; 803.351 (c); 813.1301, Art. 2; 813.1302, Art. 3; 813.1303, Art. 1, sub-par. 5.) The relationship between quantity reductions made under "Changes" articles and terminations for convenience is explained in § 815.300 (c).

2. The first paragraph of § 815.104 is designated (a), and paragraphs (b) and (c) are added as follows:

§ 815.104 Legal authority for terminations and settlements. (a) • • •

(b) The Contract Settlement Act of 1944 confers on contracting agencies express authority to settle termination claims by agreement, by arbitration, and by determination without agreement, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, and authorizes the making and amending of contracts to carry out the provisions of the Act. Before the passage of the Act, the authority to make negotiated settlements has been held to exist under various court decisions and also rested on Public Law 703, as extended, and the First War Powers Act, 1941.

(c) The chief of each technical service may exercise the authority to terminate contracts and the authority and discretion under the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 to the extent authorized by these regulations.

3. That portion of § 815.107 preceding paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.107 Amendments of contracts to insert termination provisions. (1) Section 6 (g) of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 provides as follows:

Where any war contract does not provide for or provides against such fair compensation for its termination, the contracting agency, either before or after its termination, shall amend such war contract by agreement with the war contractor, or shall authorize, approve, or ratify an amendment of such war contract by the parties thereto, to provide for such fair compensation.

By the definition of "war contract" contained in the act this provision applies both to prime contracts and subcontracts.

(2) The approved termination articles currently authorized provide fair compensation for termination of contracts. Amendments of contracts to include such approved articles, whether or not they contain earlier forms of termination articles, will facilitate prompt settlements, promote uniform procedures, avoid delay and administrative difficulties, and carry out the objectives of the act.

(3) The chief of each technical service may make such amendments of contracts in accordance with paragraphs (a) and (b) and may authorize, approve or ratify such amendments of subcontracts in conformity with § 815.436. Each such amendment will recite that it is made pursuant to the Contract Settlement Act of 1944. A form of supplemental agreement appropriate for prime contracts is set out in § 815.926. Before making any such amendment the assent of each surety, guarantor, or assignee should be obtained.

4. Section 815.112 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.112 Requirement to expedite "hardship cases." It is War Department policy to expedite settlement of all terminated contracts and subcontracts. Where the termination imposes unusual financial hardship on a contractor, the policy is to give his case special administrative priority.

5. Sections 815.113 to 815.115 are added, as follows:

Sec. 15. (a) Whenever any payment is made from Government funds to any war contractor or other person as an advance, partial or final payment on any termination claim, or pursuant to any loan, guaranty, or agreement for the purchase of any loan, or any commitment in connection therewith, entered into by the Government, no officer or other Government agent authorizing or approving such payment or settlement, or certifying the voucher for such payment, or making the payment in accordance with a duly certified voucher, shall be personally liable for such payment, in the absence of fraud on his part. In settling the accounts of any disbursing officer the General Accounting Office shall allow any such disbursements made by him notwithstanding any other provisions of law.

(b) This provision relieves any Government officer or agent authorizing, approving, certifying, or making payment on any termination claim or on any interim financing, or authorizing or approving any settlement, from personal financial liability for such payment except for his own fraud. Thus, an officer or employee will not be personally liable for mistakes of judgment or errors made in good faith in connection with termination payments or settlements or interim financing.

(f) Any contracting agency may authorize or direct its officers and employees, as a part of their official duties, to advise, aid, and assist war contractors in preparing and presenting termination claims, in obtaining interim financing, and in related matters, to such extent as it deems desirable. Such advice, aid, or assistance shall not constitute a violation of Section 109 of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 198) or of any other law, provided the officer or employee does not receive therefor benefit or compensation of any kind, directly or indirectly, from any war contractor.

(b) As a part of their official duties War Department officers and employees will advise, aid and assist contractors and subcontractors as authorized or required by this regulation or by the chief of their technical service.

§ 815.115 Prosecution of fraud. In addition to the criminal provisions relating to preservation of records set out in § 815.408, the act provides (a) that fraud in connection with negotiation, termination and performance of a contract with the United States be punishable by fines and forfeitures, and (b) that 18 U.S.C. Section 80 shall apply broadly to all statements and representations under the act. The exact language of the act is as follows:

(1) Sec. 19 (c) (1):

Every person who makes or causes to be made, or presents or causes to be presented to any officer, agent, or employee of any Government agency any claim, bill, receipt, voucher, statement, account, certificate, affidavit, or deposition knowing the same to be false, fraudulent, or fictitious or knowing the same to contain or to be based on any false, fraudulent, or fictitious statement or entry, or who shall cover up or conceal any material fact, or who shall use or engage in any other fraudulent trick, scheme, or device, for the purpose of securing or obtaining, or aiding to secure or obtain, for any person any benefit, payment, compensation, allowance, loan, advance, or emolument from the United States or any Government agency in connection with the termination, cancellation, settlement, payment, negotiation, renegotiation, performance, procurement, or award of a contract with the United States or with any other person, and every person who enters into an agreement, combination, or conspiracy so to do, (1) shall pay to the United States an amount equal to 25 per centum of any amount thereby sought to be wrongfully secured or obtained but not actually received, and (2) shall forfeit and refund any such benefit, payment, compensation, allowance, loan, advance, and emolument received as a result thereof, and (3) shall in addition pay to the United States the sum of $2,000 for each such act, and double the amount of any damage which the United States may have sustained by reason thereof, together with the costs of suit.

(2) Sec. 19 (d):

The provisions of section 35–A of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C., sec. 80) shall apply to any statement, representation, bill, receipt, voucher, roll, account, claim, certificate, affidavit, or deposition made or used or caused to be made or used for any purpose under this Act or under any regulations pursuant to this Act.

Section 80 of 18 U.S.C. reads as follows:

Whoever shall make or cause to be made or present or cause to be presented, for payment or approval, to or by any person or officer in the civil, military, or naval service of the United States, or any department thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, any claim upon or against the Government of the United States, or any department or officer thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, knowing such claim to be false, fictitious, or fraudulent; or whoever shall knowingly and wilfully falsify or conceal or cover up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or make or cause to be made any false or fraudulent statements, or representations, or make or use or cause to be made or used any false bill, receipt, voucher, roll, account, claim, certificate, affidavit, or deposition, knowing the same to contain any fraudulent or fictitious statement or entry in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States or of any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both.

Definitions

6. In § 815.150, paragraphs (a) to (j) are amended, and paragraphs (k) to (r) are added, as follows:

(a) The act. The term "the act" means the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 (Public 395, 78th Cong., approved 1 July 1944).

(b) Chief of technical service. The term "chief of a technical service" includes the chief of any one of the technical services of the Army Service Forces, the Commanding General, Army Air Forces, and the Commanding General of any Service Command, and except as otherwise expressly provided, includes any duly authorized representative of any of them (§§ 801.108 (d) and (e), and 815.206).

(c) Common item. The term "common item" means any materials which are normally usable both in connection with the terminated contract and in connection with other work of the war contractor.

(d) Continued portion of contract. The term "continued portion of contract" means that portion of a terminated contract not already completed which, in accordance with a notice of termination, the contractor must continue to perform.

(e) Contracting officer. The term "contracting officer" means the officer or employee who signs a contract on behalf of the Government and includes a duly appointed successor or authorized representative of such a contracting officer, all as set out in § 803.302 (c). The term shall have the same breadth of meaning as in § 803.302 (c).

(f) Contractor. The term "contractor" means the holder of a prime contract with the United States.

(g) Interim financing. The term "interim financing" includes advance payments, partial payments, loans, discounts, advances, and commitments in connection therewith, and guarantees of loans, discounts, advances, and commitments in connection therewith and any other type of financing made in contemplation of or related to termination of war contracts.

(h) Material. The term "material" includes any article, commodity, machinery, equipment, accessory, part, component, assembly, work in process, maintenance, repair and operating supplies, and any product of any kind.

(i) Other work. The term "other work" means any work, whether Government or commercial, being done by a contractor or subcontractor, other than that related to the terminated contract or subcontract under discussion.

(j) Prime contract. The term "prime contract" means any contract, agreement, purchase order, letter order, or letter of intent, heretofore or hereafter entered into by the War Department and connected with or related to the prosecution of the war.

(k) Subcontract. The term "subcontract" means any contract, agreement, or purchase order heretofore or hereafter entered into to perform any work, or to make or furnish any material to the extent that such work or material is required for the performance of any one or more prime contracts or of any one or more other subcontracts.

(m) Termination. The terms "termination" and "terminate" and "terminated" refer to the termination or cancellation, in whole or in part, of work under a prime contract for the convenience or at the option of the Government (except for default of the prime contractor) or of work under a subcontract for any reason except the default of the subcontractor.

(n) Termination claim. The term "termination claim" means any claim or demand by a war contractor for fair compensation for the termination of any war contract and any other claim under a terminated war contract, which this regulation authorizes to be asserted and settled in connection with any termination settlement.

(o) Termination inventory. The term "termination inventory" means any materials (including a proper part of any common items), properly allocable to the terminated portion of a war contract, except any machinery or equipment subject to a separate contract specifically governing the use or disposition thereof.

(p) Uncompleted portion of the contract. The term "uncompleted portion of the contract", when used with respect to a terminated lump-sum supply contract, means that portion of the contract which does not relate either (1) to completed supplies called for by the contract or (2) to any continued portion (see § 815.150 (d)) of the contract.

(q) War contract. The term "war contract" includes a prime contract and a subcontract.

Organization and Responsibility for Terminations

7. Section 815.200 is added, as follows:

§ 815.200 Office of Contract Settlement. (a) The act establishes an Office of Contract Settlement headed by the Director of Contract Settlement, and a Contract Settlement Advisory Board composed of the Director and representatives of the principal contracting agencies and of the Department of Justice.

(b) The Director is responsible for insuring uniform and efficient administration of the provisions of the act. For this purpose he will issue general orders or general regulations prescribing policies, principles, methods, procedures and standards to govern the exercise of the authority and discretion and the performance of the duties and functions of the various Government agencies under the act.

(c) To the extent applicable to War Department activities, the regulations of the Director will be embodied or effectuated in this part. Consequently, the chiefs of technical services and contracting officers will not find it necessary to refer directly to the regulations of the Director but will confine themselves to these regulations for all instructions regarding terminations, termination settlements, and interim financing.

(d) The Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, will maintain liaison between the War Department and the Office of the Director of Contract Settlement, and will clear all matters of policy arising in connection with that office.

8. Section 815.203 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.203 Decentralization and supervision of administration—(a) Decentralization. The policy of the War Department is to delegate to the chiefs of the several technical services the administration of contract terminations as fully as possible. Subject to the provisions of this part in effect from time to time, the chief of each technical service may delegate such administration to such extent as he deems appropriate.

(b) Supervision of administration. (1) The act places directly on the War Department and other contracting agencies responsibility for protecting the Government's interest in making termination settlements and interim financing. The Comptroller General is authorized to investigate completed settlements for the purpose of reporting to Congress on whether the settlement methods and procedures used by the contracting agencies are designed to achieve expeditious and fair settlements and are followed with care and efficiency and adequately protect the interest of the Government.

(2) The chief of each technical service will establish procedures for regular checks of the administration of terminations by each procurement office, including review of samples of settlements and financing, to insure that its termination settlements are being made expeditiously and are fair to the Government and to contractors and conform to existing regulations.

(3) The chief of each technical service will be prepared to report periodically on the procedures established by him to discharge his responsibilities under this paragraph and on the results of the checks on individual procurement offices.

9. In § 815.220, paragraphs (a), (c) and (d) are amended as follows:

§ 815.220 Provisions for review of termination settlement agreements. (a) The chief of each technical service will establish for the assistance of contracting officers engaged in the settlement of termination cases, one or more settlement review boards composed of at least three responsible officers or civilian employees of the War Department. So far as is practicable in view of the volume of cases being handled and the availability of qualified personnel, such boards will be established at regional offices where responsibility for negotiation of settlements is placed. The duties of such boards may be assigned to the members of any boards or sections already in existence or already charged with other duties. No person will serve as a member of the settlement review board in reviewing a settlement in which he has participated.

* * * * *

(c) The review board will submit to the contracting officer a written recommendation with respect to each proposed settlement or other matter considered by the board. Any proposed settlement disapproved by the review board shall not be executed unless approved by the chief of the office in which the board is established. If the amount of the proposed settlement exceeds $500,000, it shall, after the approval by the review board, be submitted to such higher authority as the chief of the technical service concerned shall deem appropriate, and shall not be executed until approved by such authority acting personally or through such person or persons as he shall specifically designate to act for him. Review boards must act promptly with respect to all matters submitted for their consideration or approval. Failure of the review board to act upon any settlement within 30 days after its submission to the board shall operate as approval by the board.

(d) In determining, for purposes of this paragraph, whether review of any proposed settlement is required because of the amounts involved, no deduction shall be made on account of credits for property chargeable to the Government or for advance or partial payments, but amounts payable under such settlement agreement for completed articles or work at the contract price and for the discharge of the termination claims of subcontractors shall be deducted.

10. The introductory paragraph of § 815.222 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.222 Records to support final settlement. It is the responsibility of the chiefs of the technical services to assure that adequate records will be kept in accordance with the standards of prudent business judgment to substantiate settlements made by contracting officers. Such records will be kept for at least (1) five years subsequent to final settlement of the terminated contract, or (2) five years subsequent to disposition of termination inventory relating to such contract, or (3) five years after termination of hostilities in the present war, as proclaimed by the President or by a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress, whichever applicable period is longer.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURES RELATING TO TERMINATION OF LUMP SUM SUPPLY CONTRACTS

1. In § 815.300 the introductory paragraph is amended by deleting the last three sentences thereof and new paragraphs (b) and (c) are added; as follows:

§ 815.300 Introductory. The discussion in this subpart relates primarily to the termination of lump sum supply contracts. However, the procedures herein discussed are in many instances equally applicable to lump sum construction contracts and to cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts (to the extent indicated in the discussion of those types of contract) (see §§ 815.600 et seq., and 815.650 et seq.).

* * * * *

(b) Alternative methods. (1) The act authorizes each contracting agency to "establish methods and standards, suitable to the conditions of various war contractors, for determining fair compensation for the termination of war contracts on the basis of actual, standard, average, or estimated costs or of a percentage of the contract price based on the estimated percentage of completion of work under the terminated contract, or on any other equitable basis, as it deems appropriate."

(2) The procedures prescribed by this subpart contemplate the filing of a termination inventory for the termination claim, and of a statement of the costs of the work done on the terminated portion of the contract based on actual, standard, average, or estimated costs. In some instances these procedures may be unduly complicated or burdensome. For example, in the termination of contracts for standard supplies and ordinary commercial articles, other procedures may be more expeditious and equitable.

(3) Wherever the chief of any technical service considers that fair settlement in any case or class of cases will be expedited by basing it on a percentage of the contract price based on the estimated percentage of completion of work under the terminated contract, he is authorized, by general regulations or specific orders, to modify, or permit deviation from, the procedures prescribed by this subpart to the extent necessary to permit such methods to be used. The chief of the technical service will promptly report each such general regulation in writing to the Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, with a brief statement of the reasons for its issuance.

(4) Whenever the chief of any technical service considers that fair settlement of any case or class of cases will be expedited by methods and standards for settlement, other than those prescribed by this subpart or authorized by subparagraph (3) above, he will submit to the Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, a report (i) recommending an alternative method or standard for such settlements, and (ii) requesting authority for its use in the particular case or class of cases. Any such alternative method and standard shall be designed to compensate the contractor fairly for the preparations made and work done for the terminated portion of the contract, including a reasonable profit on such preparations and work.

(c) Reduction under "Changes" article or by agreement. (1) The special "Changes" article set forth in § 803.329a authorizes the Government, under certain conditions, to reduce by a change order the quantity of supplies to be delivered under the contract. Such a reduction is a method of partial termination.

(2) Where a reduction in the quantity of supplies to be delivered under a contract appears likely to involve substantial or complicated problems regarding termination inventories or claims by subcontractors, such reduction will usually be effected as a partial termination pursuant to the termination article contained in the contract (see e. g. §§ 803.324, 815.901, 815.901a). Where no such substantial or complicated problems relating to termination inventories or subcontractors' claims appear to be involved, such a reduction in the quantity of supplies should be effected under the special "Changes" article (§ 803.329a) or any similar article. Where a contract does not contain such a "Changes" article reductions may be made under the same conditions by supplemental agreement with the consent of the contractor.

(3) When any such reduction is made under the "Changes" article or by supplemental agreement, the contractor may be compensated therefor by equitable adjustment in the contract price without conforming to the procedures in this part; but the provisions of this part may be used as a guide in making the adjustment. By such an equitable adjustment the contractor should receive fair compensation for the reduction. It is not intended that, in making such an equitable adjustment for a reduction, any of the types of costs, allocable to the reduction and payable in accordance with the Statement of Principles for Determination of Costs on Termination (see § 815.480 et seq.) shall be denied, although the Statement of Principles is not strictly applicable to adjustments under such change orders. In the event of any failure to agree on the adjustment, in any such case, the contracting officer will make formal findings substantially in accordance with § 815.560 and the following sections insofar as applicable. Since such reductions constitute a termination under the Act, the contractor will be entitled to appeal from such findings or sue in accordance with section 13 of the act.

Action To Be Taken Prior to Service of Termination Notice

2. In § 815.306 a new paragraph (a) is added, and former paragraphs (a) to (c) are redesignated (b) to (d).

§ 815.306 Determination of scope of proposed termination. (a) The Act provides as follows regarding proper cut-off points:

SEC. 11 (a) In order to facilitate the efficient use of materials, manpower, and facilities for war and civilian purposes, each contracting agency— • • •

(3) shall permit the continuation of some or all of the work under a terminated prime contract whenever the agency deems that such continuation will benefit the Government or is necessary to avoid substantial injury to the plant or property.

• • • • •

3. Section 815.310 is revoked, as follows:

4. Section 815.311 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.311 Settlements of contracts containing no termination articles. (a) When the Government desires to terminate a contract containing no termination article and the contractor will not agree to insert an approved termination article by amendment, the chief of the technical service without the approval of higher authority may make an agreement for the discontinuance of performance and for settlement of the contract or provide for its settlement by reason of such termination in such form as he deems for the best interest of the Government.

(b) If no satisfactory agreement can be made for the termination of such a contract, the chief of the technical service concerned acting personally or through a duly authorized representative within his own headquarters office (or in the Army Air Forces within the headquarters office of any of the major component commands of the Army Air Forces), may authorize the contracting officer to order the contractor to discontinue further performance. Where speed is essential such authority may be granted by teletype or telegraph. In view of the War Department policy against breaches of contract, such action will be taken only in unusual cases where all other reasonable efforts to prevent unnecessary expense have been exhausted. In any such case special care will be taken to record and preserve a statement of the circumstances and reasons leading to the action and of the grounds on which such action was determined to be in the interest of the Government.

(c) Where the contractor has been ordered to discontinue performance under paragraph (b) above, the chief of the technical service may make a settlement agreement with the contractor in accordance with paragraph (a) above. Where the contractor refuses to agree to a settlement, the chief of the technical service will prepare and deliver to the contractor findings of the amount due on his termination claim in accordance with the formula prescribed in the uniform termination article (see § 815.560 et seq.).

5. Section 815.315 is amended to read as follows:

Whenever a contracting agency hereafter directs a prime contractor to cease or suspend all or a substantial part of the work under a prime contract, without terminating the contract, then, unless the contract provides otherwise, (1) the contracting agency shall compensate the contractor for reasonable costs and expenses resulting from such cessation or suspension, and (2) if the cessation or suspension extends for thirty days or more, the contractor may elect to treat it as a termination by delivering written notice of his election so to do to the contracting agency, at any time before the contracting agency directs the prime contractor to resume work under the contract.

(b) The act does not alter established War Department policy against suspension of contracts. Contracting officers will continue to avoid directing a prime contractor to suspend performance while attempting to decide whether to terminate a particular contract. Generally, this course results in confusion to the contractor, increased costs to the Government, and disorganization of the contractor's working forces and operations.

(c) Occasionally, however, the possibility of termination may justify an order to a contractor to suspend performance. The contracting officer should not do so, however, unless he is sure that the resulting cost to the Government will be substantially less than either (1) allowing the performance of the contract to continue, or (2) effecting its immediate termination. Where a suspension is ordered it is suggested that the contracting officer:

(i) Should discuss with the contractor the nature and terms of the suspension and reduce such terms to writing and, if possible, obtain the contractor's consent to them; and

(ii) Should limit the duration of the suspension and not delay a decision as to termination.

(d) Whether the contract is reinstated or terminated, the reasonable costs of the contractor caused by the suspension should be paid either pursuant to an appropriate supplemental agreement or as a part of the termination settlement.

(e) In some instances, while working out with the contractor appropriate preliminary arrangements for a termination which has definitely been decided upon, a short suspension may be arranged by letter, conference or telegram (see form set out in § 815.911). The method should not be pursued except where it is certain that the contract will be terminated in whole or in part in the manner stated in the notice of suspension and is designed merely to afford an opportunity to make appropriate arrangements with the contractor prior to giving formal notice of termination (see e. g. § 815.312).

Service of Termination Notice and Action Connected Therewith

6. In § 815.322, paragraphs (a) and (c) are amended to read as follows:

§ 815.322 Commencement of negotiations; initial conference with the contractor at the time of the service of the termination notice. (a) In the case of each termination of a substantial contract, at the time of service of the termination notice, or as promptly as possible thereafter, a conference should be held with the contractor to negotiate the general outlines to be followed in making settlement and to develop a definite program to be followed by all parties participating in the work of settlement. Negotiations should be carried out at this conference sufficiently completely so that the basic terms on which settlement is to be effected are at least tentatively determined and so that there is a clear understanding as to what information is to be furnished by the contractor, what methods are to be pursued in disposing of property, what the general principles of settlements are to be and what accounting or other investigation is to be undertaken. The various methods of interim financing available to the contractor, and his need for such financing, should be carefully reviewed. If the contractor desires financing, a definite program should be developed at this conference. In addition, arrangements should be made with the contractor by which the needs of subcontractors for interim financing may be immediately ascertained and acted upon.

• • • • •

(c) It is important that all interested groups in the office of the contracting officer should be represented at the initial conference. This will normally include the principal representative of the contracting officer, hereinafter mentioned, and also appropriate negotiating, technical, engineering, legal and accounting personnel. At or before the initial conference some one person will be designated by the contracting officer as his principal representative in connection with the particular termination, but it should be made wholly clear to the contractor that such representative is not authorized to agree finally upon a supplemental agreement making settlement of the amount, if any, due by reason of the termination. The contracting officer's representative should be given authority, either general or limited,

(1) To approve partial payments for the contractor and for subcontractors,

(2) To approve dispositions of property,

(3) To approve settlements with subcontractors up to some stated amount,

(4) To pass upon the miscellaneous minor questions which inevitably arise in connection with a termination settlement,

(5) To negotiate a settlement subject to any required approval.

7. Section 815.324 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Approval of large cutbacks; notification of cutbacks to other Government agencies. Pursuant to order of the Director, Office of War Mobilization, dated 5 June 1944, certain authority with respect to the making of cutbacks and terminations has been conferred upon the War Production Board. Proposed cutbacks or terminations which involve a reduction of $1,000,000 or more of the total value of the items to be delivered in the current month or any one of the succeeding six months under all prime contracts for the same procurement item are required to be submitted to the War Production Board for approval prior to the sending of a formal notice of termination to the contractor. Any change in schedule under any one outstanding prime contract which reduces the value of items to be delivered during the current and succeeding three months by $200,000 or more is required to be reported to the War Production Board and certain other Government agencies as soon as possible, ordinarily not later than two days before the contractor is formally notified of such change. Detailed instructions[1] have been issued by Headquarters, Army Service Forces and Headquarters, Army Air Forces, with respect to the procedure to be followed, and War Production Board forms have been distributed for this purpose. Since this procedure is in a developmental stage, all circulars and instructions on this subject should be carefully checked for changes.

Preparation and Review of Contractors' and Subcontractors' Accounting Statements and Proposals for Settlement: Accounting Guides to a Negotiated Settlement

8. Section 815.408 is added, as follows:

§ 815.408 Criminal law relating to contractors' records. (a) Section 19 (a) of the act reads in part as follows:

> It shall be unlawful for any person willfully to secrete, mutilate, obliterate, or destroy, or cause to be secreted, mutilated, obliterated, or destroyed:
> (i) any records of a war contractor relating to the negotiation, award, performance, payment, interim financing cancellation or other termination, or settlement of a war contract of $25,000 or more; or
> (ii) any records of a war contractor and any purchaser relating to any disposition of termination inventory in which the consideration received by any war contractor or any Government agency is $5,000 or more,
> until (1) five years after such disposition of termination inventory by such war contractor or Government agency, or (2) five years after the final settlement of such war contract, or (3) five years after the termination of hostilities in the present war as proclaimed by the President or by a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress, whichever applicable period is longer.
> As used in this subsection, the term "records" includes, but is not limited to, books, ledgers, checks and check stubs, pay-roll data, vouchers, memoranda, correspondence, inspection reports and certificates. Any corporation violating any provision of this subsection shall be fined not more than $50,000 and any natural person violating any provision of this subsection shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both; Provided, however, That the Director, by regulation, may authorize the destruction of such records upon such terms and conditions as he deems appropriate, which may include the making and retaining of photographs or microphotographs.

(b) No regulations have as yet been issued by the Director authorizing destruction of such records, and consequently, contracting and disbursing officers and any other War Department officers having custody of such records (1) will observe the requirement of section 19 (a) of the act concerning such records and (2) will, to the extent feasible, bring this section to the attention of war contractors.

(c) Paragraph (h) of the uniform termination article (§§ 803.324, 815.901) requires the preservation of pertinent records for three years after final settlement, and in the case of any such records not covered by the act (see paragraph (a) above) this requirement will continue unchanged. In the case of all records which are covered by the act, the longer period of preservation prescribed by the act will be observed.

9. In § 815.436, paragraph (b) is amended, and paragraphs (c), (d), (e) and (f) are added, as follows:

(b) At the time of making any fixed-price subcontract for the manufacture of supplies, any contractor or subcontractor may insert in it the approved subcontract termination article, if it is appropriate. Where any subcontract is a requirement or open end contract, the article will be made to apply only to termination before the purchase of any minimum quantity contracted for, or to a termination of a firm order issued under the subcontract.

(c) The approved subcontract termination article may be inserted by amendment at any time in any fixed-price subcontract for the manufacture of supplies for which it is appropriate. The profit percentages set forth in the approved article will generally be considered fair and reasonable, but when a subcontract is so amended after termination of the prime contract, the rate of profit, if any, fixed in subparagraph (2) (ii) of paragraph (b) of the article shall not exceed the rate of profit which the parties then estimate would have been realized had the subcontract been completed.

(d) Where, at the time of settlement, a subcontract does not contain the approved article, a settlement based upon a reasonable estimate by the parties of the aggregate amounts which would be due under subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (b) of the approved subcontract article, will be considered fair and reasonable, unless the profit allowed, if any, exceeds the rate of profit which the parties then estimate would have been realized had the subcontract been completed.

(e) As far as possible, terminated subcontracts should be settled by negotiated agreement.

(f) In some instances, because of the terms of the particular subcontract being settled, the Government will be under an obligation either to make reimbursement for, or to assure the defense against, a demand by a subcontractor which is greater in amount than would be recognized by the principles of the approved subcontract article. On the submission to the contracting officer for his approval of a settlement which provides for the payment of such an amount, the contracting officer will decide whether the settlement should be approved or ratified and whether the Government should protect the prime contractor or intermediate subcontractor from the asserted liability. (See § 815.535.)

10. In § 815.437, paragraph (a) is redesignated (a–1), and a new paragraph (a) is added, as follows.

§ 815.437 Subcontractors' and suppliers' claims; investigation and approval by Government personnel—(a) Statutory provisions. Section 7 (a) of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 provides as follows:

> Where, in connection with the settlement of any termination claim by a contracting agency, any war contractor makes settlements of the termination claims of his subcontractors, the contracting agency shall limit or omit its review of such settlements with subcontractors to the maximum extent compatible with the public interest. Any contracting agency (1) may approve, ratify, or authorize such settlements with subcontractors upon such evidence, terms, and conditions as it deems proper; (2) shall vary the scope and intensity of its review of such settlements according to the reliability of the war contractor, the size, number, and complexity of such claims, and other relevant factors; and (3) shall authorize war contractors to make such settlements with subcontractors without review by the contracting agency, whenever the reliability of the war contractor, the amount or nature of the claims, or other reasons appear to the contracting agency to justify such action. Any such settlement of a subcontract approved, ratified, or authorized by a contracting agency shall be final and conclusive as to the amount due to the same extent as a settlement under subsection (c) of section 6 of this Act, and no war contractor shall be liable to the United States on account of any amounts paid thereon except for his own fraud.

11. In § 815.437a paragraphs (a) (3) is amended, the undesignated paragraph following (a) (3) is amended, a new undesignated paragraph is added, and paragraph (d) is amended, as follows.

§ 815.437a Authorizations to prime contractors and subcontractors to make subcontract settlements involving payments of not more than $10,000—(a) Authorizations of settlements by prime contractors. • • •

(3) All the property allocable to the terminated portion of the subcontract or purchase order, the cost of which is included in the statement of charges, will be retained by the prime contractor or subcontractor at fair and reasonable values or sold by them at the best obtainable prices and the value or proceeds credited on the settlement.

Subparagraph (3) above is subject to the exception, however, that if the prime contractor or subcontractor can not sell part or all of the property at any price or considers the best obtainable price too low to be acceptable, taking into full consideration the difficulties to be encountered in the shipment and handling of small amounts of property if delivered to the Government, then the prime contractor may make special arrangements with the contracting officer for transfer of title and delivery to the Government of such unsold property.

The chief of each technical service will coordinate the granting of authority under this paragraph by the procurement officers of his service in order to avoid inconsistent action and to expedite settlements.

(d) Paragraph applicable to cost-plus-a-fixed-fee prime contractors. An authorization in accordance with this paragraph may be given in connection with the settlement of terminated subcontracts or purchase orders under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee prime contracts.

• • • • •

12. Sections 815.490 and 815.491 are added, as follows:

§ 815.490 Interest on prime contractor's claim. (a) Each settlement with a prime contractor will provide for interest at the rate of 2½ per centum per annum on the amount due and unpaid on the termination claim from time to time, computed in accordance with this paragraph.

(b) For the purpose of computing interest, the term "the date fixed for termination" means the date upon which the notice of termination requires the contractor (1) to reduce or stop deliveries under his contract or, (2) if no deliveries are being made or are called for under the contract, to reduce or stop performance under the contract.

(c) The amount due and unpaid on the claim from time to time shall be determined as follows:

(1) The contractor's own claim for termination expenses before deducting any disposal credits shall be treated as due 30 days after the date fixed for termination.

(2) Costs of settling termination claims of subcontractors, and allowable post-termination expenses shall be included as of the date on which the contractor pays them.

(3) Credits for disposal of termination inventory and partial payments shall be applied to reduce the amount due as of the date payment or disposal is made.

(d) Such interest shall be computed for a period beginning thirty days after the date fixed for termination or 21 July 1944, whichever date is later, and ending with the date of final payment to the contractor, with the following exceptions:

(1) If, in the opinion of the contracting officer, the prime contractor unreasonably delays settlement of his claim, interest shall not accrue for the period of such delay as determined by the contracting officer.

(2) If the contractor appeals or sues after a formula settlement, interest does not accrue after thirty days from the delivery of the findings, unless the amount allowed by the findings is increased upon the appeal or suit.

(e) Where interest for the period after termination on any advance payment or loan, made or guaranteed by the Government, has been waived for the benefit of the contractor, the amount of interest so waived which is allocable to the terminated contract shall be deducted from the interest otherwise payable under this paragraph.

(f) The settlement agreement will include an amount to cover the interest payable under this paragraph, based upon the estimate of the contracting officer as to the date of final payment, and will release all claims of the contractor for interest on the termination claim.

§ 815.491 Interest on subcontractor's claims. (a) Each prime contractor, in settling with his subcontractors, and each subcontractor, in settling with his own subcontractors, will allow interest substantially in accordance with the principles stated in § 815.490.

(b) In approving, ratifying, authorizing or making termination settlements with subcontractors, the contracting officer will allow interest on the termination claim of the subcontractor on substantially the same basis and conditions as are applicable to a prime contractor.

Interim Financing of Terminations

13. The following statutory provisions are inserted immediately preceding § 815.500.

(1) SECTION 1. The Congress hereby declares that the objectives of this Act are—

(b) To assure to prime contractors and subcontractors, small and large, speedy and equitable final settlement of claims under terminated war contracts, and adequate interim financing until such final settlement;

(2) SEC. 3. As used in this Act— • • •

(1) The term "interim financing" includes advance payments, partial payments, loans, discounts, advances, and commitments in connection therewith, and guaranties of loans, discounts, advances, and commitments in connection therewith and any other type of financing made in contemplation of or related to termination of war contracts.

(3) SEC. 7. (b) Whenever any contracting agency is satisfied of the inability of a war contractor to meet his obligations it shall exercise supervision or control over payments to the war contractor on account of termination claims of subcontractors of such war contractor to such extent and in such manner as it deems necessary or desirable for the purpose of assuring the receipt of the benefit of such payments by the subcontractors.

(4) SEC. 8. (a) It is the policy of the Government, and it shall be the responsibility of the contracting agencies and the Director, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this Act, to provide war contractors having any termination claim or claims, pending their settlement, with adequate interim financing, within thirty days after proper application therefor.

(b) Each contracting agency shall, to the greatest extent it deems practicable, make available interim financing through loans and discounts, and commitments and guaranties in connection therewith, in contemplation of or related to termination of war contracts. Where interim financing is made by advance payments or partial payments, it shall, insofar as practicable, consist of the following:

(1) An amount equal to 100 per centum of the amount payable, at the contract price, on account of acceptable items completed prior to the termination date under the terms of the contract, or completed thereafter with the approval of the contracting agency; plus

(2) An amount equal to 90 per centum of the cost of raw materials, purchased parts, supplies, direct labor, and manufacturing overhead allocable to the terminated portion of the war contract; plus

(3) A reasonable percentage of other allowable costs, including administrative overhead, allocable to the terminated portion of the war contract not included in the foregoing; plus

(4) Such additional amounts, if any, as the contracting agency deems necessary to provide the war contractor with adequate interim financing.

(5) In lieu of the costs referred to in clauses (2) and (3) of this subsection, where a detailed ascertainment of such costs is not suitable to the conditions of any war contractor and is apt to cause delay in the obtaining of interim financing by him, that portion of such interim financing shall be equal to an amount not greater than 90 per centum of the estimated costs which are allocable to the terminated part or parts of the war contract or group of war contracts, and are ascertained in accordance with such methods and standards as the Director shall prescribe.

(6) There shall be deducted from the amount of such interim financing any unliquidated balances of advance and partial payments theretofore made to such war contractor, which are allocable to the terminated war contract or the terminated part of the war contract.

(c) The Director shall prescribe (1) the types of estimates, certificates, or other evidence to be required to support such interim financing; (2) the terms and conditions upon which such interim financing shall be made including the use of standard forms for agreements with respect to such interim financing to the extent practicable; (3) the classes of cases in which such interim financing shall be refused; and (4) such methods of supervision and control over such interim financing as he deems necessary or desirable to assure adequate and speedy interim financing to subcontractors of the war contractor. (See § 815.200 (c).

(d) In case of an overstatement by any war contractor of the amount due on his termination claim or claims in connection with any interim financing under this Act, such contractor shall pay to the United States, as a penalty, an amount equal to 6 per centum of the amount of the overstatement, but the Director may suspend or modify any such penalty if in his opinion the imposition thereof would be inequitable. Any penalty may be deducted from any amounts due the war contractor upon such termination claim or claims, or otherwise, or may be collected from the war contractor by suit. The obligation to pay any penalty imposed and to repay any interim financing made or assumed by the United States under this Act shall constitute a debt due to the United States within the meaning of Revised Statutes, section 3466 (31 U.S.C., sec. 191).

(e) Any contracting agency may allow any advance payments, previously made or authorized by it in connection with the performance of a war contract, to be used for payments and expenses related to the termination settlement of such contract, upon such terms and conditions as it deems necessary or appropriate to protect the interest of the Government.

(f) No interim financing shall be made by any contracting agency under this Act unless the terms of such financing provide for the liquidation by the war contractor of all loans, discounts, advance payments, or partial payments thereunder not later than the time of final payment of the amount due on the settlement of the termination claim or claims of the war contractor involved or such time thereafter as the contracting agency deems necessary for the liquidation of such interim financing in an orderly manner.

(g) Any contracting agency may settle, upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper, any claim or obligation due by or to the Government arising from or related to any interim financing made, acquired, or authorized by it. Any interim financing made, acquired, or authorized by any contracting agency before the effective date of this Act shall be valid to the extent it would be authorized under the provisions of this Act if made after its effective date.

(5) SEC. 9. (a) Any contracting agency may make advance or partial payments to any war contractor on account of any termination claim or claims, and may authorize, approve, or ratify any such advance or partial payments by any war contractor to his subcontractors, upon such conditions as it deems necessary to insure compliance with the provisions of subsection (b) of this section. Each contracting agency shall make final payments from time to time on partial settlements or on settlements fixing a minimum amount due before complete settlement, or as tentative payments before any settlement of the claim or claims.

(b) Where any such advance or partial payment is made to any war contractor by any contracting agency or by another war contractor under this section, except a final payment on a partial settlement, any amount in excess of the amount finally determined to be due on the termination claim shall be treated as a loan from the Government to the war contractor receiving it, and shall be payable upon demand together with a penalty computed at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, for the period from the date such excess advance or partial payment is received to the date on which such excess is repaid or extinguished. Where the advance or partial payment was made by a war contractor and authorized, approved, or ratified by any contracting agency, the war contractor making it shall not be liable for any such excess payment in the absence of fraud on his part and shall receive payment or credit from the Government for the amount of such excess payment.

(6) SEC. 10. (a) Any contracting agency is authorized— • • •

(1) To enter into contracts with any Federal Reserve bank, or other public or private financing institution, guaranteeing such financing institution against loss of principal or interest on loans, discounts, or advances or on commitments in connection therewith, which such financing institution may make to any war contractor or to any person who is or has been engaged in performing any operation deemed by such contracting agency to be connected with or related to war production, for the purpose of financing such war contractor or other person in connection with or in contemplation of the termination of one or more such war contracts or operations; and

(2) To make, enter into contracts to make, or to participate with any Government agency, any Federal Reserve bank or public or private financing institution in making loans, discounts, or advances, or commitments in connection therewith, for the purpose of financing any such war contractor or other person in connection with or in contemplation of the termination of such war contracts or operations.

(b) Any such loan, discount, advance, guaranty, or commitment in connection therewith may be secured by assignment of, or covenants to assign, some or all of the rights of such war contractor or other person in connection with the termination of such war contracts or operations, or in such other manner as the contracting agency may prescribe.

(c) Subject to such regulations as the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System may prescribe with the approval of the Director, any Federal Reserve bank is authorized to act, on behalf of the contracting agencies, as fiscal agent of the United States in carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(d) This section shall not limit or affect any authority of any contracting agency, under any other statute, to make loans, discounts, or advances, or commitments in connection therewith or guaranties thereof.

(7) SEC. 15. (b) For the purpose of making termination settlements or interim financing any Government agency is authorized to rely upon such certificates of war contractors as it deems proper and to permit war contractors and other persons to rely upon such certificates without financial liability in the absence of fraud on their part.

14. Section 815.505 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.505 Partial payments—(a) Distinguished from final payment on partial settlement. A partial payment within the meaning of section 9 (b) of the act and these regulations should be distinguished from a final payment on a partial settlement. A partial payment to the extent that it is in excess of the amount finally determined to be due on the termination claim, is treated as a loan from the Government to the contractor, payable upon demand together with a penalty computed at the rate of 6% per annum from the date such excess payment was made to the date on which the excess is repaid or extinguished. On the other hand, payments made pursuant to partial or final settlements cannot be recovered by the Government in the absence of fraud. Payments of this latter type will most frequently be made when it is desired to reimburse the prime contractor for final settlements with subcontractors which have been approved by the contracting officer, or made pursuant to authority delegated by him, prior to final settlement of the prime contract (see § 815.559).

15. In § 815.506, paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) are amended, and paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) added, as follows:

§ 815.506 Partial payments for the benefit of prime contractors—(a) Types of payment authorized. A partial payment of one of the following types shall be provided for prime contractors within thirty days from date of receipt of a proper application therefor provided the conditions set forth in these regulations are satisfied:

(1) Immediate partial payment based on preliminary estimates (paragraph (b));

(2) Cost-supported partial payment based on an adequate statement of costs (paragraph (c)); or

(3) Controlled partial payment to be deposited in a special controlled account and to be released as particular items of cost become established and are presented for payment (paragraph (f)).

(b) Immediate partial payments. (1) It is recognized that many contractors may desire or need partial payments within a short time after receipt of a notice of termination and before an adequate inventory or statement of costs can be prepared. For this purpose immediate partial payments are authorized whenever the contracting officer believes that the contractor has not had a reasonable opportunity to prepare a detailed statement of his costs. A contractor who desires an immediate partial payment for his own benefit should include with his request for such a payment a certificate that the amount of his own costs allocable to the contract and due as of the date of the certificate is not less than a specified figure, after excluding charges with respect to inventory which he intends to retain at no cost to the Government.[1] In accordance with the policy expressed in the Act that partial payments be promptly made, and in view of the provisions of the act that excess partial payments shall be treated as loans, the contracting officer should promptly grant the request for partial payment in the largest amount he believes reasonable under all the circumstances then known to him, but such amount together with all previous unliquidated advance or partial paymets allocable to the contractor's own costs, shall not exceed 90% of the amount stated in the contractor's certificate. In deciding the amount to be paid, the cotracting officer should consider the contractor's certificate in the light of:

[1] Under section 8 (d) of the act a war contractor is subject to a penalty of 6% of the amount of an overstatement made in connection with interim financing.

(i) All relevant information affecting the amount due then readily available to the contracting officer.

(ii) The relation between the amount of the requested partial payment and the amount certified by the contractor as due, and

(iii) The general reputation of the contractor for honesty and fair dealing.

It is recognized that the contracting officer may have little or no opportunity, in view of the policy expressed in the act, to do more than consider the general reasonableness of the certificate, and, in such cases, the contracting officer may make his determination of the amount to be paid solely upon the basis of such consideration of the contractor's certificate.

(2) The contractor should also anticipate the needs of his subcontractors for prompt partial or final payments and submit to the contracting officer a request for the necessary funds with which to make such payments promptly, as provided in § 815.507 (b) (1).

(c) Cost supported partial payments. Partial payments upon proper application shall also be made after the contractor has submitted a partial or complete settlement proposal, supported by the data prescribed for the submission of termination claims. On the basis of only such preliminary review as the contracting officer deems essential, the contracting officer will authorize payment of all or such part of the following amounts as he believes are within the amount due the contractor on his claim:

(1) An amount equal to 100 per centum of the amount payable, at the contract price, on account of undelivered [1] acceptable items completed prior to the termination date under the terms of the contract, or completed thereafter with the approval of the contracting officer; plus

(2) An amount equal to 90 per centum of the cost of raw materials, purchased parts, supplies, direct labor, and manufacturing overhead allocable to the terminated part of the war contract; and plus

(3) A reasonable percentage of other allowable costs, including administrative overhead, allocable to the terminated portion of the war contract not included in the foregoing.

In determining whether the proposed payment is within the amount believed to be due, the contracting officer will take into account the amount of any unliquidated advance or partial payments previously made on the terminated portion of the contract.

(d) Voucher for partial payments. Partial payments of the types described in paragraphs (b) and (c) may be authorized on the basis of a voucher signed by the contractor and approved by the contracting officer. The voucher shall include substantially the following provision:

> The payment covered by this voucher is a partial payment of the amount due on the contractor's termination claim under Contract W———, made pursuant to Section 9 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 and expressly subject to subsection (b) of such Section. This payment shall be applied against the amount finally payable by the Government to the contractor on such claim.

The voucher shall also include a certificate by the contracting officer substantially as follows:

> This payment is authorized under the Contract Settlement Act of 1944.

(e) Successive partial payments. Successive immediate and cost-supported partial payments should be made as soon after the first partial payment as possible, whenever the contractor requests additional payment and the conditions set forth in paragraphs (b) or (c) are satisfied. There is no limit to the number of immediate or cost-supported partial payments that may be made on any one contract before execution of the final settlement agreement.

(f) Controlled partial payments. (1) In certain cases where the contractor is of doubtful financial responsibility or where the contractor's records are known to be inadequate, prompt and adequate partial payments ma, not be feasible under the procedures prescribed in paragraphs (b) and (c). In such cases the contracting officer may authorize partial payments to be made through a special controlled account for the purpose of insuring speedy and adequate interim financing consistent with adequate protection of the Government's interest.

(2) Such controlled partial payments shall be originally authorized by the execution of a supplemental agreement to the terminated contract substantially in the form set forth in § 815.922. Moneys deposited in a controlled account shall be made subject to a Government lien and subject to the direction of the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative. Under the general direction of the contracting officer, personnel of the Contract Financing Section will establish the controlled account and exercise prior approval of withdrawals therefrom for the purpose of assuring payment of costs allocable to the terminated portion of the war contracts against which the partial payments are made.

(3) The total amount of partial payments deposited in a controlled account with respect to any contract will not exceed the amount estimated to be due by reason of the termination less all unliquidated advance or partial payments previously made on the terminated portion of the contract. Subject to the above limitations, successive partial payments may be made into the controlled account on the basis of vouchers submitted in accordance with the terms of the supplemental agreement.

16. In § 815.507, paragraphs (a) to (d) are amended and paragraphs (e) and (f) added, as follows:

§ 815.507 Partial payments for the benefit of subcontractors—(a) Direct payments not authorized. Except as provided in § 815.569, contracting officers are not authorized to make partial payments directly to subcontractors, vendors or suppliers whose subcontracts or purchase orders have been terminated or cancelled as a result of the termination of a prime contract with the War Department. This policy is based on the following reasons (see § 815.325 (b)):

(1) There is no direct contractual relationship between the Government and the subcontractor.

(2) There is no assurance that counterclaims and set-offs by the prime contractor (or by intermediate subcontractors) against the subcontractor in question will have been taken into account by the contracting officer in making partial payment.

(3) There is no assurance that the amounts of such partial payments will be taken into account in determining the amount due the prime contractor.

(4) The administrative difficulties involved in attempting to deal directly with subcontractors will tend to delay the settlement of terminated contracts.

(b) Types of payment authorized. Partial payments for the benefit of subcontractors shall be provided for within thirty days from date of receipt by the contractors shall be provided for within tion. Partial payments to prime contractors may be made as follows:

(1) Partial payments may be made, in advance of actual requests by subcontractors, to place a prime contractor in funds with which to make prompt partial or final payments to subcontractors as the occasion arises. The prime contractor should constantly endeavor to anticipate the needs of his subcontractors and to have on hand at all time sufficient funds to meet their immediate requirements. To obtain a partial payment from the Government for this purpose, the prime contractor should include with his application a certificate that the amount of all subcontractors' charges allocable to the contract is not less than a specified figure. After giving consideration to the factors set forth in § 815.506 (b), the contracting officer should promptly grant the request for partial payment in the largest amount he believes reasonable under all the circumstances then known to him, but not exceeding 90 percent of the amount certified by the contractor as the minimum amount of all subcontractors' charges. The payment will be made to the prime contractor only upon his agreement to keep all funds received for this purpose in an account separate from his other funds. If the contracting officer is in doubt as to the financial responsibility of the prime contractor, he should utilize the controlled account procedure prescribed in § 815.506 (f).

(2) Partial payments may be made to provide a subcontractor in any tier with an immediate partial payment before he has had an opportunity to prepare an adequate inventory or statement of costs. The subcontractor who desires an immediate partial payment should include with his request for such a payment a certificate that the amount of his own costs allocable to the contract and due as of the date of the certificate is not less than a specified figure, after excluding charges with respect to inventory which he intends to retain at no cost to the Government. The application should be made by the subcontractor to the war contractor immediately above him, who will forward the application through contractual channels to the contracting officer. In forwarding the application, the prime contractor and any intermediate subcontractors should state (i) whether a partial payment is recommended and in what amount, (ii) the general reputation of the applicant for fair business practice, if known, (iii) such information as is readily available with respect to the amount of the applicant's termination claim, and (iv) the amount of any partial payments obtained in anticipation of the needs of subcontractors, as provided in subparagraph (1) above, the use which has been made of this fund, and whether the proposed partial payment can be made out of this fund. The contracting officer in authorizing the partial payment, and war contractors in passing upon the application, will be guided by the principles stated in § 815.506 (b).

(3) Partial payments may be made to provide a subcontractor in any tier with a cost-supported partial payment as promptly as possible after he has submitted a partial or complete settlement proposal, supported by the data prescribed for the submission of a termination claim. The application should be made and forwarded together with a copy of the settlement proposal and supporting papers, in accordance with the procedure set forth in subparagraph (2) above. In determining the amount of the partial payment to be authorized or recommended, the contracting officer authorizing the partial payment, as well as war contractors who pass upon the application, will be guided by the principles stated in § 815.506 (c).

(c) Delegation of authority to make partial payments. Authorizations to prime contractors and subcontractors to make settlements with subcontractors involving payment of not more than $10,000 in accordance with § 815.437a should generally include an express authorization to make partial payments up to 90 percent of the amount for which settlement is authorized. Where the authorization to make partial payments is granted in such cases, partial payments may be made in accordance with the terms of the authorization and without obtaining the contracting officer's approval of the particular payment. A partial payment made pursuant to a general delegation of authority from the contracting officer has the same effect as a payment made with his specific approval (paragraph (d)).

(d) Effect of payment to subcontractors. The war contractor making a partial payment to a subcontractor should see that the payment is made expressly subject to section 9 (b) of the act which provides that any excess payment over the final amount determined to be due shall be treated as a loan from the Government to the war contractor receiving it. Where this is done, and where the partial payment is authorized, approved, or ratified by the contracting officer, section 9 (b) of the act entitles the war contractor authorizing or making the payment, in the absence of fraud on his part, to receive payment or credit from the Government to the extent of any excess payment.

(e) Voucher for partial payments. Partial payments to prime contractors for the purpose of making payments to subcontractors may be authorized on the basis of a voucher signed by the prime contractor and approved by the contracting officer.

(1) Where the partial payment is made in accordance with subparagraph (1) of paragraph (b), the voucher shall include substantially the following provision:

> The payment covered by this voucher is a partial payment of the amount due on the contractor's termination claim under Contract W ———, made pursuant to Section 9 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 and expressly subject to subsection (b) of such Section. This payment shall be applied against the amount finally payable by the Government to the contractor on such claim. The contractor agrees to keep this payment and all other payments received for the same purpose in an account separate from his other funds and to use this payment only for the purpose of making payments to subcontractors. Any amount not so used shall be repaid to the Government upon demand, with interest at 6% per annum from the date of demand to the date of repayment.

(2) Where the payment is made in accordance with subparagraphs (2) or (3) of paragraph (b), the voucher shall include substantially the following provision:

> The payment covered by this voucher is a partial payment of the amount due on the contractor's termination claim under Contract W ———, made pursuant to Section 9 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 and expressly subject to subsection (b) of such Section. This payment shall be applied against the amount finally payable by the Government to the contractor on such claim. The contractor agrees to keep this payment and all other payments received for the same purpose in an account or accounts separate from his other funds and to pay over to the subcontractors listed below the amounts set opposite their names. Any amount not so paid over by the contractor shall be repaid to the Government upon demand with interest at 6% per annum from the date of demand to the date of repayment.

(3) In all cases the voucher shall also include a certificate by the contracting officer substantially as follows:

> This payment is authorized under the Contract Settlement Act of 1944.

(f) Control over partial payments. When the contracting officer is in doubt as to the financial responsibility of the prime contractor, he should, in order to assure the receipt of partial payments by subcontractors, follow the procedure prescribed in § 815.569.

Negotiation of Settlements

17. Section 815.559 is added as follows:

§ 815.559 Partial settlement. (a) The chief of each technical service, by general rule or delegation of authority or in specific cases, may authorize the use of partial settlement agreements, consistently with this paragraph.

(b) During the course of negotiations, the contracting officer from time to time will approve subcontract settlements and dispositions of property and credits arising therefrom in order to expedite or facilitate the settlement, and such approvals shall be final according to their terms, for the purpose of settling the terminated contract involved. With these exceptions, partial settlements covering particular items of the contractor's proposal may impede the negotiation of a complete final settlement, and should therefore not be made during the course of negotiations.

(c) When the contracting officer, after diligent effort, has been unable to negotiate a complete settlement of all matters related to the termination, it may be desirable to negotiate a partial settlement agreement covering all clearly separable issues as to which fair agreement can be reached without unreasonable concessions to the contractor. (See § 815.535.) Even in such cases the partial settlement should be used cautiously and should not be made if it will prejudice the interest of the Government in disposing of the issues left unsettled.

18. Section 815.560 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.560 Formula settlements—(a) When formula settlement is used. (1) When, after diligent efforts to negotiate a settlement, any termination claim has not been settled by agreement or has been so settled only in part, the settlement will be made by formula. Whenever a contractor is unreasonably delaying a negotiated settlement by inaction or otherwise, the contracting officer will take action promptly to settle the claim by formula, especially where the interests of subcontractors may be adversely affected by the delay of the prime contractor.

(2) Where a contractor has submitted his termination claim in substantially the form prescribed by this regulation, he may make a written demand for findings of the amount due on his claim or the unsettled part thereof, under section 13 (a) of the act. Upon such demand, he is then entitled to such findings within ninety days after his demand. Section 13 (c) (3) of the act makes it clear, however, that the contractor is expected to negotiate in good faith for the settlement of his claim before demanding such findings.

(b) Procedure. (1) Where all or any part of any claim is to be settled by formula, the chief of the technical service will promptly so report in writing to the Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, stating the issues involved. Action on the settlement will not await any action on the report.

(2) Where a settlement is made by formula, the contractor has the burden of establishing, by proof satisfactory to the contracting officer, the amount due him on his termination claim. For this purpose the contractor will not be required to furnish detailed evidence, vouchers, and other data, to the extent ordinarily required under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. The contracting officer should generally accept photostatic or other copies of documents and records, and should not request original documents unless their authenticity is in dispute. In making formula settlements, the cost principles stated in § 815.480 et seq. will be applied.

(3) The contracting officer will give the contractor not less than fifteen days' notice by registered mail to produce, on or before a stated date, his written evidence bearing on the amount due. The contractor may submit such vouchers, verified transcripts of books of account, affidavits and audit reports, and other documents as he may wish. The contracting officer may require the contractor to submit such additional documents and data as he considers necessary in the particular case, and may cause such accounting and other investigations and audits to be made as he deems appropriate. If the contractor wishes to present oral testimony, or if the contracting officer wishes testimony presented on behalf of the Government or by independent experts, or wishes to examine persons whose affidavits or reports have been submitted, the contracting officer in his discretion, may hold a hearing, after due notice in writing to the contractor. In all cases, the contractor should be given full opportunity to submit, within a reasonable time, such additional documents, records and other evidence as he deems appropriate to support his claim.

(4) The contracting officer shall retain in the files of the procurement office to which he is attached or in the office of the chief of the technical service, as the chief of the technical service may direct, a file containing copies of all written evidence and other data relied upon by him in making his findings and determination, except that original books of account and other original papers and documents may be returned to the contractor upon the contractor's agreement to preserve them in accordance with section 19 (a) of the act.

(c) Basis of formula determination. (1) The determination of the amount due shall be based upon the applicable formula in the termination article of the contract involved. Without duplicating amounts included in negotiated partial settlements, the findings and determination shall include the following items:

(i) A summary of the costs to be paid under the formula settlement. Such costs should ordinarily be summarized in substantially the same manner as the summary shown on Standard Form A–1 (§ 815.937 (a)) with the detailed supporting data shown in the summary on Standard Form B–1 (§ 815.938 (a)) or on Standard Form B–2 (§ 815.938 (b)) whichever is applicable. Such summary of costs, however, may be in such form as the contracting officer deems appropriate in the particular case.

(a) When the costs are presented on the "inventory basis", the figures on the cost summary should be supported by an inventory list. Where the inventory is comprised of more than three pages, a reasonable analysis only will be presented. This analysis (which should not require more than one or two pages) should show the description, quantity, prices (if appropriate) and extensions of the important classifications of inventory. For example, raw material may be listed by major groupings, and principal purchased components may be briefly described. Work-in-process will be listed to show the dollar amounts by departments or other appropriate classifications.

(b) When the cost summary is presented on the "total cost basis", each major element of cost on the summary should be supported by an short analysis or schedule of one or two pages. This analysis in respect to direct material will show to the extent practicable the several major classes as indicated by the contractor's records, such as steel, copper, lumber, etc., sub-divided as to grade for the major elements. Such a breakdown should seldom include more than 15 or 20 items. Direct labor may be summarized by plant operations, production centers or other appropriate classifications, if the contractor's accounting system so provides or if such an analysis can be readily obtained. Other direct charges if important, may be succinctly analyzed. Usually indirect factory expenses will be reflected in not more than 25 or 30 major accounts. The basis of allocation should be clearly described. A similar schedule should be submitted for administrative expenses and any other major groups shown on the cost summary if and to the extent deemed appropriate by the contracting officer.

(ii) A statement of the amount allowed by the contracting officer by way of profit. If the contract contains the new uniform termination article (§§ 803.324, 815.901), this item of profit should show separately (a) the amount allowed with respect to the cost of articles or materials not processed by the contractor, and (b) the amount allowed with respect to other costs of the contractor. If the contract contains the old standard form of termination article (see § 815.901a), the contracting officer will include a statement of his estimate of the profit which would have been realized on the uncompleted portion of the contract if the contract had been completed and his determination of the percentage of completion of the uncompleted portion of the contract, as well as the amount of profit allowed with respect to the work done on the uncompleted portion of the contract.

(iii) A supporting analysis of disposal credits, if substantial or if they cannot be appropriately explained in the summary, segregated as to those arising from property retained by the contractor and those arising from sales to outsiders. In no event is it expected that such analysis will require more than two or three pages.

(iv) A list of all settlements with immediate (first tier) subcontractors with the name and address of each subcontractor and the amount of each settlement as approved or authorized by the contracting officer.

(v) A schedule of settlement expenses (post-termination expenses) including the cost of preserving and protecting the property. This schedule will show the major items by classification followed by a description where necessary to clarify the figures and should seldom exceed one page.

(vi) The total amount found to be due to the contractor. (Any amounts payable to the contractor in connection with a partial negotiated settlement should be listed separately for purposes of information.)

(vii) In addition to the accounting statements and schedules enumerated above, the following supplemental or collateral data should be furnished:

(a) The administrative accounting reports to the contracting officer by Government accounting personnel.

(c) An appropriate certificate by the contracting officer supporting his findings of fact and stating that the amount of the termination settlement agreement is in his judgment just and reasonable.

(2) In making a formula settlement the contracting officer will not reexamine settlements with subcontractors made with his approval before or after the breakdown of negotiations, and will allow the costs of such settlements to the contractor under the applicable termination article as part of the formula settlement. Similarly the contracting officer will treat as final for the formula settlement any other action (such as dispositions of property) taken by the contractor before or after the breakdown of negotiations in reliance upon the written approval of the contracting officer.

(3) After reviewing accounting information prepared by his own office and any additional data or evidence furnished by the contractor, the contracting officer will make his findings and determination on the issues still in dispute and will transmit a copy of such findings and determination to the contractor by registered mail. The findings and determination will refer the contractor to his right of appeal or suit in accordance with section 13 of the act.

(d) Appeal from findings within the War Department. (1) Under section 13 (c) of the act, the contractor in his discretion may resort to any procedure for appeal from such formula findings provided by the War Department, within the time specified in his contract or if no time is specified, within 30 days after the delivery of the findings to him. Furthermore, he must take such an appeal if so required by regulations of the Director, but no such regulations have as yet been issued. Any revision of the findings upon appeal within the Department is treated as the findings of the Department for the purpose of any subsequent appeal or suit under the act.

(2) If the contractor does not take an appeal from the findings and determination of the contracting officer within the time specified in the Disputes article of the contract, or within the thirty days, they become the findings and determination of the War Department with respect to the amount due to the contractor on his termination claim or the unsettled part thereof.

(3) If the contractor appeals within the War Department from the decision of the contracting officer, the contracting officer will transmit to the appeals agency (through channels) a narrative statement of the action taken before the appeal and relevant to the issues raised therein. In his discretion, he may include such schedules, office reviews, audit reports and records as he deems appropriate. He will also transmit to the appeals agency a copy of his findings and determination together with any other documents and papers required by the rules of the appeals agency. Most such appeals will be to the War Department Board of Contract Appeals (see §§ 803.-381d–803.318f (e)) but some contracts made before the formation of that board provide for appeal to the chief of the technical service concerned. The determination by the appeals agency becomes the determination of the War Department with respect to the termination claim or unsettled part thereof.

(4) If the contractor does not accept the decision of the appeals agency within the War Department, the Act allows him to appeal to the Appeal Board established by section 13 of the act or to bring suit against the United States in the Court of Claims or in the United States District Court in accordance with subsection (20) of section 24 of the Judicial Code. This must be done within ninety days after delivery to him of the findings by the War Department, or within ninety days after the decision on his appeal within the Department or within one year after his demand for findings, if they are not delivered. In such suit or appeal, the findings of the War Department are prima facie correct, and the burden is on the contractor to establish that the amount due on his claim exceeds the amount allowed by the findings of the War Department.

(5) The pendency of any appeal within the War Department or before the statutory Appeal Board does not affect the authority of the chief of the technical service to make a settlement of the termination claim or any part thereof by a negotiated agreement with the war contractor at any time before the appeal is decided.

(6) The chief of the technical service will notify the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, of each such appeal which is taken either to the chief of the technical service, the War Department Board of Contract Appeals, or to the statutory Appeal Board, and each suit under section 13 (b) of the act.

(e) Payment on account. (1) Within thirty days after delivering to the contractor the findings and determination in a formula settlement, the contracting officer will authorize a partial payment to the contractor of 90% of the amount determined to be due, after deducting from the 90% the amount of any outstanding advance payments and interim financing applicable to the contract involved. Before approving such a partial payment, the contracting officer may require the contractor to certify that the payment has not been assigned, or if it has been assigned, will require the written consent of the assignee to the making of the payment in accordance with § 815.510.

(2) Any such partial payment shall be made only upon a voucher containing substantially the following statement:

> The payment covered by this voucher is made pursuant to section 13 (a) of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 and is a partial payment of the amount due on the contractor's termination claim under Contract W-_____, as determined by the War Department in findings dated_____. This payment shall be applied against the amount finally payable by the Government to the contractor on such claim. If this payment, together with all other payments made on such claim, exceeds the amount finally payable to the contractor on such claim, the contractor agrees to repay the excess to the Government on demand.

The voucher should also include a certificate by the contracting officer substantially as follows:

> This payment is authorized under the Contract Settlement Act of 1944.

(f) Final payment. When the amount due the contractor has been finally determined, a voucher will be prepared in the usual manner covering the portion of the amount so determined which remains unpaid and will be presented to the finance officer for payment. The finance officer will forward to the Office of the Fiscal Director, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, the voucher together with the findings, the determination and supporting papers and also any findings or opinion on appeal or suit. The Office of the Fiscal Director will review the file and take such steps as are necessary to establish the sufficiency of the supporting papers and will then return the file to the finance officer with appropriate instructions. The amount due will be paid to the contractor after execution of a supplemental agreement which will constitute a release by the contractor of all furtner charges under the contract.

19. Section 815.561 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.561 Disputes article. (a) Section 13 (c) of the act expressly modifies the usual disputes article (§ 803.326) as applied to termination settlements. As stated in § 815.560 (d) the contractor may appeal within the War Department from any findings on termination but shall not be required to do so unless regulations of the Director so provide. Since no such regulations have been issued, the contractor may now appeal from the findings of the contracting officer directly to the Appeal Board established by the act or may sue. In either case the findings of the War Department are prima facie correct but are not conclusive even as to questions of fact.

(b) If the contracting officer refuses to make a negotiated settlement of all or any part of a termination claim, his action is not subject to appeal either under the Disputes article or otherwise. However, if the contractor demands findings on his claim in accordance with section 13 (a) of the act, and they are not delivered to him within 90 days after his demand, he is entitled to appeal or sue without such findings.

20. Section 815.569 is added as follows.

§ 815.569 Supervision of payments for subcontractors. (a) Section 7 (b) of the act provides:

> Whenever any contracting agency is satisfied of the inability of a war contractor to meet his obligations, it shall exercise supervision or control over payments to the war contractor on account of termination claims of subcontractors of such war contractor to such extent and in such manner as it deems necessary or desirable for the purpose of assuring the receipt of the benefit of such payments by the subcontractors.

(b) In the absence of any complaint or protest by a subcontractor, the contracting officer shall be under no duty to make an independent investigation of the financial condition of a war contractor; but if such complaint or protest is made, the contracting officer shall take reasonable steps to determine whether it is true.

(c) In determining whether a war contractor is unable to meet his obligations, the contracting officer is required to act only on the basis of substantial evidence indicating that the contractor is insolvent or bankrupt or is involved in pending proceedings in insolvency, bankruptcy, receivership or corporate reorganization, or is in imminent danger of such proceedings.

(d) Whenever the contracting officer is satisfied that a prime contractor, or a subcontractor with whom a direct settlement is made, is unable to meet his obligations, he shall either (1) follow substantially the procedure outlined in § 815.506 (f) in making payments to the contractor on account of termination claims of subcontractors, or (2) request authority to make such payments directly to the subcontractors entitled thereto, or to settle directly with them in accordance with § 815.570; or (3) take other appropriate action to assure that the subcontractors receive the benefit of payments on account of their claims. In his discretion, the contracting officer may take such action in other cases where he deems it necessary or desirable for the protection of the subcontractors.

21. Section 815.570 is added, as follows:

§ 815.570 Direct settlement with subcontractors (a) Section 7 (d) of the act authorizes the War Department to settle directly termination claims of subcontractors to the extent that it deems such action necessary or desirable for the expeditious and equitable settlement of such claims; and prescribes certain action to be taken for this purpose.

(b) With the written approval of the officer or employee in charge of the procurement office which is administering the settlement of the related prime contract, acting personally or through a representative designated for the purpose, the contracting officer may settle directly the termination claim of any subcontractor in accordance with section 7 (d) of the act, if (1) the war contractor liable to the subcontractor is not in financial difficulties, and is not threatened with financial difficulties, so far as the contracting officer is aware, and (2) a maximum is stated for the amount of such direct settlement, so that the total payments under the terminated prime contract will not exceed any maximum limit set for payments under the termination article (see §§ 803.324–815.444a).

(c) The officer or employee approving the making of any such direct settlement, and the contracting officer making it, should satisfy themselves that the subcontractor's termination claim is allocable to the terminated portion of the prime contract, and should also consider the following matters: (1) possible rights of offset or counterclaim against the subcontractor which may be possessed by the war contractor liable to him; and (2) any assignments that may have been made by the subcontractor of amounts payable under the subcontract.

(d) Whenever the chief of any technical service desires to settle directly the termination claim of any subcontractor where the above conditions are not met, he will forward to the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, a request for authority to make such settlement, stating the essential facts of the case. No such settlement will be made without such special authority.

(e) The authority under this section is not intended for widespread use of direct settlements with subcontractors as a general program. By the terms of their contracts with the Government, prime contractors are still obligated to settle the termination claims of their subcontractors and suppliers. The provisions of this paragraph are primarily to facilitate expeditious and equitable settlement of subcontractors' claims where that cannot be accomplished by settlement by the prime contractor.

22. Section 815.571 is added, as follows:

§ 815.571 Supplemental payments to subcontractors. (a) Section 7 (f) of the act provides:

> If any contracting agency determines that in the circumstances of a particular case equity and good conscience require fair compensation for the termination of a war contract to be paid to a subcontractor who has been deprived of and cannot otherwise reasonably secure such fair compensation, the contracting agency concerned may pay such compensation to him although such compensation already has been included and paid as part of a settlement with another war contractor.

(b) Whenever the chief of a technical service considers that a subcontractor is entitled to receive a payment of fair compensation under the provisions of this section of the act, he shall forward to the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, a report stating the essential facts of the case and the reasons for requesting the approval of such a payment. No such payment shall be made without such approval.

SUBPART D—COST-PLUS-A-FIXED-FEE CONTRACTS

General

1. In § 815.651, paragraphs (b), (c), and (g) are amended, and paragraph (d–1) is added as follows:

§ 815.651 Steps in the termination of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. • • •

(b) Termination and settlement of subcontracts. The prime contractor will take steps forthwith upon receipt of the termination notice to terminate subcontracts and purchase orders in compliance with such notice, to obtain inventories, accounting data and cost statements and proposals for a negotiated settlement of any lump sum subcontracts and purchase orders. (See § 815.325 (c).) In the case of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontracts, the prime contractor will obtain the accounting data and vouchers necessary (1) to permit final determination and payment of the reimbursable costs under such subcontract, and any necessary adjustment of the fixed fee thereunder, or (2) the negotiation of a settlement of such subcontract if that is appropriate.

(c) Settlement of fixed price (lump sum) subcontracts, purchase orders and obligations. • • •

(2) • • •

(iii) if the settlement in question is approved by the contracting officer as reasonable and proper and in the best interest of the Government, or if the settlement will call for the payment of not more than $10,000 (without deducting disposal credits) and has been made by the prime contractor (or a subcontractor) pursuant to an authorization to settle given in accordance with § 815.437a.

• • • • •

(d–1) Subcontractors' and suppliers' claims; investigation, aproval and authorizations to make settlements. In connection with the settlement of terminated cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, the provisions of §§ 815.437 and 815.437a apply to the investigation and approval of subcontractors' claims and to authorizations to prime contractors and subcontractors to make subcontract settlements involving payments of not more than $10,000.

• • • • •

(g) Negotiation of settlement with prime contractor. (1) The contracting officer may negotiate a settlement with the prime contractor covering the whole or any part of the following:

(i) Costs incurred prior to the effective date of notice of termination for which the contractor has not been reimbursed, including, among others, any unreimbursed overhead or administrative costs, but not including any cost which is the subject of a General Accounting Office suspension cleared by deduction or remaining uncleared;

(ii) Settlements with subcontractors and suppliers;

(iii) Allowable post termination expenses;

(iv) Adjustment of the fixed fee.

Such negotiations shall be conducted substantially in the manner outlined in Subpart B of this part for settlement negotiations under lump sum supply contracts. For the purpose of this paragraph, advance, progress or partial payments shall not be considered to constitute reimbursement of any costs.

(2) If the contracting officer is unable to negotiate a settlement of the whole amount due to the prime contractor for the several items specified in subparagraph (1) above, he will determine the amount due to the contractor therefor under the contract substantially in accordance with the procedures set out in § 815.560 et seq.

(3) If the chief of the technical service concerned is of the opinion that it will expedite the settlement of the contract to include in the negotiations (i) any item or items of cost for which the contractor has been reimbursed, including those which may be in dispute, (ii) any item which is the subject of a General Accounting Office suspension cleared by deduction or remaining uncleared, and (iii) any item claimed by the contractor other than those specified in subparagraph (1), he may request authority from the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, to effect such a negotiated settlement. Any such request by the chief of the technical service will be accompanied by his recommendations and a sufficiently complete statement of the facts to permit full consideration of the request.

2. Section 815.654 (a), is amended by the deletion of subparagraph (3).

3. Section 815.655 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.655 Final and partial settlement agreements. Upon the settlement of the total amount due to the contractor in connection with the termination of the contract, including any amount due the contractor as payment of the fixed fee, the contracting officer and the contractor may execute a final settlement agreement,[1] in the form of a supplemental agreement to the contract (see § 815.934). Such supplemental agreement will set forth the amount of such final payment, will state the terms of any adjustment of the fixed fee, will state that all Government property under the contract and theretofore undisposed of has been delivered to the Government, will list such property or will incorporate a list thereof by reference, will normally embody a general release by the contractor and the Government of all claims against each other, and will state in detail all the exceptions to said release (see, for list of such possible deductions, exceptions and reservations, § 815.537 (b)). The chief of a technical service may authorize the execution of partial settlement agreements in appropriate cases in a manner consistent with § 815.550.

[1] No such final settlement agreement need be entered into where, as in the case of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee construction contract, the problems incident to the termination are relatively simple and the terms of the termination article are self-operating.

Cost-Plus-A-Fixed-Fee Construction Contracts

4. Section 815.664 is amended by designating the existing text paragraph (a) and by adding paragraph (b), as follows.

§ 815.664 Stop orders. (a) • • •

(b) In the issuance of stop orders, care should be exercised that the contractor is not unintentionally released from his contract through the provision of the act which gives the contractor the election to treat the contract as terminated for the convenience of the Government if a Government-ordered cessation or suspension of work extends for thirty days or more. (See § 815.315 quoting the act on this point.)

SUBPART F—REPORTS

1. Section 815.802 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.802 Matters to be covered. The report will cover all terminations of contracts for the convenience of the Government, regardless of the type or amount of the contract, but will exclude reductions in quantity made in accordance with § 815.306 (c). It will cover all such terminations completed during the month and those still in process. If no such terminations have been completed and none are in process, a negative report will be made. When a final settlement has been made with a contractor and reflected in a monthly report, it will not be reflected in subsequent reports. Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract terminations will be reported separately. "Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee" will be typed immediately below the report title of such reports. Any portion of a supply contract pertaining to facilities to be acquired for Government account will be excluded from from each column of the report. (If no definite segregation is made in the contract, this instruction may be waived as to Column 7).

2. In § 815.806 paragraphs (h) and (i) are added, as follows:

§ 815.806 Instructions with respect to the report form. • • •

(h) Suspended termination settlements. In preparing the Monthly Contract Termination Status Report, the procurement office will segregate, under the heading "Suspended Termination Settlements," any case which has not been settled if:

(1) The terminated contract is in litigation; or

(2) The terminated contract is before the War Department Board of Contract Appeals, or another appeal agency; or

(3) The procurement office lacks authority to settle or is awaiting decision or action by authority higher than the technical service involved; or

The decision of the procurement office to segregate any case on the report is subject to aproval by the chief of the technical service at the time the report is forwarded. Status of each segregated case will continue to be reported on the status report until finally settled.

(i) Subcontract claims assumed by Government. Where the prime contractor's claim has been completely settled except for the obligations to one or more subcontractors which have been assumed by the Government for direct settlement, the prime contract and all settled subcontract claims will be reported as settled uder the heading "Terminations Completed." Each of the obligations assumed by the Government will be reported as a separate termination made upon the effective date of the notice of termination from the higher tier contractor.

SUBPART F–1—REMOVAL OF PROPERTY FROM CONTRACTORS' PLANTS

1. Section 815.850 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.850 Introductory. (a) This subpart contains instructions to be followed by the technical services in carrying out the provisions of section 12 of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 for the expeditious removal from the plants of war contractors of property not to be retained or sold by them. General policies and procedures for the removal and storage of "termination inventory" are set forth in §§ 15.851–15.858; special instructions for fixed-price prime contracts are provided in §§ 15.859–15.863, for fixed-price subcontracts in § 15.864, and for cost-plus-a-fixed-fee supply contracts in § 15.867. § 15.868 is reserved for instructions to be issued with respect to Government-owned machinery, tools or equipment which are held under provisions of terminated contracts specifically governing their retention, storage, maintenance or disposition, or which become excess to the needs of the contractor other than by termination of war contracts.

(b) The instructions are designed primarily to implement the prescribed policies for prompt clearance of a contractor's plant prior to final settlement. Special instructions, however, have also been prescribed with reference (1) to the removal or storage of property which is to be taken over at the time of execution of the final settlement agreement, and (2) to the certification of final payment vouchers in so far as property which has been removed or stored is concerned.

2. Section 815.851 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.851 Provisions of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 on removal and storage. Section 12 of the act reads as follows:

(a) It is the policy of the Government, upon the termination of any war contract, to assure the expeditious removal from the plant of the war contractor of the termination inventory not to be retained or sold by the war contractor.

(b) Any war contractor may submit to the contracting agency concerned or to any other Government agency designated by the Director, one or more statements showing the materials which such war contractor claims to be termination inventory under one or more war contracts and desires to have removed by the Government. Such statements shall be prepared in such form and detail, shall be submitted in such manner, through the prime contractor or otherwise, and shall be supported by such certificates or other data, as may be prescribed under this act.

(c) Within sixty days after the submission of any such statement by a war contractor, or such shorter period as may be prescribed under this act, or within such longer period as the war contractor may agree, the Government agency concerned (1) shall arrange, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed, for the storage by the war contractor on his own premises or elsewhere of all such claimed termination inventory which the war contractor does not retain or dispose of, except any part which may be determined not to be allocable to the terminated war contract or contracts, or (2) shall remove from the plant or plants of the war contractor all of such claimed termination inventory not retained, disposed of, or stored by the war contractor or determined not to be allocable to the terminated war contract or contracts.

(d) Upon the failure of the Government so to arrange for storage by the war contractor or to remove any termination inventory within the period specified under subsection (c) of this section, the war contractor, subject to regulations prescribed under this Act, may remove some or all of such termination inventory from his plant or plants and may store it on his own premises or elsewhere for the account and at the risk and expense of the Government, using reasonable care for its transportation and preservation. It any war contractor intends so to remove any claimed termination inventory, he shall deliver to the Government agency concerned written notice of the date fixed for removal and a statement showing the quantities and condition of the materials so to be removed, certified on behalf of the war contractor to have been prepared in accordance with a concurrent physical inventory of such materials. Such notice and statement shall be delivered at least twenty days in advance of the date fixed for removal and may be delivered before or after the expiration of the period specified under subsection (c) of this section. If the Government agency fails to check such materials, at or before the time of their removal by the war contractor, a certificate of the war contractor specifying the materials shown on such statement which were so removed, and filed with the Government agency concerned within thirty days after the date fixed for removal, shall constitute prima facie evidence against the United States as to the quantities and condition of the materials so removed, and the fact of their removal.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, but subject to subsection (h) of this section, the contracting agency concerned or the Director, or any Government agency designated by him, on behalf of the United States, may, by the exercise of any contract rights or otherwise, acquire and take possession of any termination inventory of any war contractor, and any materials removed by the Government or stored for its account under subsections (c) and (d) of this section, whether or not such materials are finally determined not to constitute termination inventory. With respect to any such materials, the Government shall be liable to any war contractor concerned only for their return to such war contractor or for their disposal value at the time of their removal or for the proceeds realized by the Government from their disposal, at the election of the Government agency concerned, unless the Government agency and the war contractor agree or have agreed on a different basis. Any amount so paid or payable to a war contractor for materials allocable to a terminated war contract shall be credited against the termination claim under such contract but shall not otherwise affect the amount due on the claim, unless the Government agency concerned and the war contractor agree or have agreed otherwise. Any materials to which the Director takes title under this section shall be delivered for disposal to any appropriate Government agency authorized to make such disposal.

(f) No contracting agency shall postpone or delay any termination settlement beyond the period specified in subsection (c) of this section for the purpose of awaiting disposal by the war contractor or the Government of any termination inventory reported in accordance with subsection (b) of this section.

(g) Whenever any war contractor no longer requires, for the performance of any war contract, any Government-owned machinery, tools, or equipment installed in his plant for the performance of one or more war contracts, the Government agency concerned, upon written demand by the war contractor, and within sixty days after such demand or such other period may be prescribed under this Act, and upon such conditions as may be so prescribed, shall remove or provide for the removal of such machinery, tools, or equipment from such plant, unless the Government agency concerned and the war contractor, by facilities contract or otherwise, have made or make other provisions for the retention, storage, maintenance, or disposition of such machinery, tools, or equipment. The Government agency concerned may waive or release on behalf of the United States any obligation of the war contractor with respect to such machinery, tools, or equipment upon such terms and conditions as the agency deems appropriate. Upon the failure of the Government so to remove or provide for removal of any such machinery, tools, or equipment, the war contractor, subject to regulations prescribed under this Act, may remove all or part of such machinery, tools, or equipment from his plant and may store it on his own premises or elsewhere, for the account and at the risk and expense of the Government, using reasonable care for its transportation and preservation.

(h) Nothing in this Act shall limit or affect the authority of the War Department, Navy Department, or Maritime Commission, respectively, to take over any termination inventories and to retain them for their use for any purpose or to dispose of such termination inventories for the purpose of war production, or to authorize any war contractor to retain or dispose of such termination inventories for the purpose of war production.

(i) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the removal and storage of any termination inventory by any war contractor, at his own risk, at any time after termination of any war contract to which it is allocable.

It is provided in section 20 (e) of the act that any war contract, or term or provision thereof otherwise valid is not impaired or modified by the act.

3. Sections 815.853 and 815.854 are amended to read as follows:

§ 815.853 Removal of property upon demand of the contractor. (a) Termination inventory located in a plant of a war contractor not disposed of as provided in the preceding paragraph will, within sixty days or such longer period as the war contractor may agree, after demand of the war contractor accompanied by tender of title (see § 815.863) and by satisfactory inventory lists (see § 815.856) and unless the contract otherwise provides, be removed by the technical service concerned from the plant of the war contractor or a storage agreement entered into with him. (Certain special provisions with respect to subcontractors and cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contractors are contained in §§ 15.864 and 15.867.)

(b) Such removal or storage of property does not entitle the war contractor to direct payment for the property by the government. In the case of fixed-price prime contracts, the transfer of property allocable to the terminated portion of the contract is made by the contractor pursuant to his obligation under the Termination Article and payment is effected through the settlement of his termination claim. In the case of fixed-price subcontractors, the subcontractor is paid through settlement of his termination charge for the allocable property removed or stored. In turn, the settlement of the termination charge of the subcontractor is included in the termination charges of intervening subcontractors, if any, and of the applicable prime contractor—payment is thus accomplished through settlement of termination charges in the usual manner. Where the property is determined not to be allocable to the terminated prime contract, then the government will be liable to the war contractor concerned only for the return of the property to such war contractor or for its disposal value at the time of its removal or for the proceeds realized by the Government from its disposal, all at the election of the technical service concerned, unless the technical service and the contractor agree or have agreed on a different basis.

(c) A fixed-price prime or subcontractor may, unless the contract otherwise provides, at any time after receipt of notice of termination, remove the property and store it at his own risk and expense.

§ 815.854. Arrangements for storage of property. Property taken over from contractors and not otherwise disposed of may be stored (a) with the contractors concerned under a storage agreement entered into by the technical service terminating the contract; (b) in government-owned or leased installations available, or which are made available, to the technical services for storage purposes; (c) in commercial warehouses or other storage space on other contractors' premises under contracts to be negotiated by the technical service terminating the contract; or (d) in premises leased for storage purposes under current regulations. Any contract involving the acquisition of an interest in real estate will be executed by the Division Engineer in accordance with existing regulations. It is recognized that available warehouse space is wholly insufficient to store the large volume of property which may be involved in contract termination, and that appropriate contractual arrangements in most cases will have to be made for the storage of such property by the contractors whose contracts are terminated.

The technical services are authorized to enter into contracts for the storage of property with such contractors. Where this cannot be accomplished, the technical services will make arrangements for storage space and its operation in accordance with the applicable provisions of ASF Circular No. 214, 11 July 1944, concerning surplus and industrial storage space requirements. The use of commercial warehouse services for storage of surplus property will be kept to a minimum and technical services are authorized to enter into such contracts only where other necessary storage space is not available. In this connection, the technical services may obtain information on such available storage space, prevailing storage rates and commercial warehousing practices from commercial warehouse officers in regional Quartermaster and Army Service Forces depots. The technical services will consult with these officers before entering into contracts with commercial warehouses solely for the purposes of storage provided that such action will not unduly delay clearance of the contractor's plant. The Storage Branch, Storage & Distribution Division, Office of the Quartermaster General, Washington, D. C., will furnish the name and address of any or all of the commercial warehouse officers upon request. Both the contracts executed with contractors and those for warehouse services will be financed from funds available to the technical services concerned. To the extent, if any, that the provisions hereof are in conflict with ASF Circulars No. 65 (Section VIII) and No. 71 (Section III), 1944, the provisions hereof shall govern. Open storage will be utilized wherever consistent with the proper care and preservation of the property. Transportation and drayage costs will be kept to a minimum.

4. Section 815.856 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.856 Inventory lists to be submitted by contractors. (a) The war contractor will be required to submit with his demand for removal inventory lists of the property requested to be removed. The inventory lists will be prepared on Inventory Schedules Numbers C–1, C–2 and C–3 (Forms, W. D., A. G. O. 247, 248 and 249) and will be certified as prescribed thereon adding to the certificate a statement that the property listed is on hand on the date thereof. In order to avoid unnecessary duplication of work, contractors should be encouraged to prepare these forms in as many copies as is anticipated will be needed by both the government and themselves in the termination proceedings.

(b) The contracting officer will require the contractor to submit with his demand for removal as many copies of the inventory lists as is anticipated will be needed to meet reasonable government requirements. As a minimum, five copies of the lists will normally be required for property disposition and property accounting purposes. The contracting officer will retain one copy for filing in the War Department's permanent file relating to the contract termination settlement and will furnish the other four copies to the designated accountable property officer for use as follows: One copy for use by government personnel in checking the accuracy of the lists and for filing in the accountable property officer's jacket file (see § 815.858 (a)); where required, one copy to be receipted in accordance with the provisions of § 815.860 (b) and returned to the contractor for retention by him; and two copies for forwarding to the appropriate government agencies charged with disposal of property.

(c) Where several contracts with the same contractor are grouped for termination settlement purposes, the inventory lists need not segregate contractor-owned property by contracts, but only by locations.

Special Instructions With Respect to Fixed-Price Prime Contracts

5. In § 815.862 a new paragraph (b) is added, and former paragraph (b) is redesignated (c).

§ 815.862 Procedures with respect to property neither removed from the contractor's premises nor stored with him pursuant to agreement. * * *

(b) In the event a contractor who is entitled to have property removed by the Government (see § 815.853 (a)) gives notice of his election to exercise the privilege accorded him under the act to remove any such property and store it for the account and at the risk and expense of the Government (see § 815.851 (d)), the technical services will, in the exceptional event it is impossible to remove the property or arrange to store it with the contractor pursuant to agreement, check the quantities and condition of the property at the time of its removal by the contractor in accordance with the policies expressed in § 815.860 (a).

(c) * * *

Policies and Procedures With Respect to Fixed-Price Subcontracts

6. Section 815.864 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.864 Property in the hands of fixed-price subcontractors. (a) The foregoing policies and procedures will apply to property in the hands of fixed-price subcontractors of any level under War Department fixed-price or cost-plus-a-fixed-fee prime supply contracts (when the property is not to be retained or disposed of by the prime contractor or a subcontractor) whenever the subcontractor's required inventory lists (accompanied by a certificate of the prime contractor as hereinafter provided or other satisfactory evidence of allocability) are submitted to the contracting officer of the applicable prime contract, together with the subcontractor's demand for removal. The form of storage agreement set forth in § 815.951, appropriately modified, will be used if the property is stored with the subcontractor. Such certificate of the prime contractor involved shall be to the effect that the subcontract had been terminated by reason of the termination of the prime contract and that the property involved is believed to be properly allocable to the prime contract, i. e., includible in the settlement of the prime contractor's claim. The lists must be forwarded to the prime contractor by the interested subcontractor through intermediate subcontractors, if any, unless the contracting officer otherwise directs. Contracting officers are authorized in their discretion to permit the lists to be forwarded directly to the contracting officer accompanied by such evidence of allocability other than the certificate of the prime contractor as the contracting officer deems satisfactory.

(b) The contracting officer under the terminated prime contract will require such physical check of the accuracy of the lists to be made by representatives of the Government as he deems necessary in accordance with policies expressed in § 815.860 (a) hereof. In determining what physical check of the accuracy of a subcontractor's lists shall be made by representatives of the government, the contracting officer shall give due consideration to the checks made by the superior subcontractor or by the prime contractor.

Policies and Procedures With Respect to Cost-Plus-a-Fixed-Fee Supply Contracts

7. In § 815.867 paragraphs (a) and (d) are amended to read as follows:

(a) Government-owned property located in the plant of a war contractor that is not otherwise disposed of within sixty days (or such longer period as the contractor may agree) after its removal has been requested in the prescribed manner by the contractor will be removed or a storage agreement entered into with the contractor for its storage unless the terminated contract otherwise provides. Contracting officers will arrange for the taking of the joint inventory by the Government and the contractor as prescribed in section X of the War Department Industrial Property Accounting Manual before the property is removed or a storage agreement entered into. Where the property is to be removed or a storage agreement entered into with the contractor within a reasonable period after termination, then for purposes of convenience to both the government and the contractor the joint inventory prescribed in the Manual may be delayed until the date that the property is removed or the storage agreement is executed.

* * * * *

(d) If property which the contractor is entitled to have removed by the Government under the provisions of paragraph (a) above, is not removed or stored with him pursuant to agreement, then the contractor may remove and store such property under the provisions and upon the conditions set forth in paragraph 12 (d) of the act, provided the contractor, regardless of any terms of the terminated contract providing for a lesser degree of responsibility for the care and preservation of property during performance of the contract, takes reasonable precautions for the protection of the property.

SUBPART C—FORMS

1. Paragraph (a) of § 815.912 is amended to read as follows:

Notice of Termination

§ 815.912 Lump sum supply or construction contracts—(a) Form of termination notice to prime contractor. In all cases where a lump-sum contract is to be terminated for the convenience of the Government, and even though a previous notice of termination has been given by telegram or otherwise, a termination notice in substantially the following form will be sent to the contractor by registered mail:

XYZ CORPORATION
New York, New York.

TERMINATION NOTICE

1. You are hereby notified that your Contract No. ------ is hereby terminated for the convenience of the Government. Such termination will be effective.

[Here insert either "immediately upon your receipt of this notice" or "on ---------- 194---" (inserting the date), or "as soon as you have delivered under the Contract the following number of each of the items listed below, including those heretofore completed, to wit: ----------," or "on ----------, 194---, on which date you are hereby directed to reduce the rate of delivery under the Contract as follows:" (here insert instructions as to reduced rate of delivery).]

2. The date on which such termination becomes effective shall be the "date fixed for termination" of the Contract for the purposes of Section 6 (f) of the Contract Settlement Act of 1944 relating to the payment of interest on termination claims.

3. A copy of "Instructions to Contractors", which summarizes your principal rights and obligations arising out of the termination of the Contract, is inclosed herewith.

4. You are hereby instructed, immediately upon receipt of this notice

(a) To stop all work and the placing of any orders in connection with the Contract, except (i) to the extent necessary to perform any portion thereof not terminated by this notice, or (ii) to the extent that you may wish to retain and continue any work in process for the cost of which you will make no claim against the Government, or (iii) as provided in subparagraph 6a of the enclosed Instructions, relating to work in process which you think it inadvisable to stop immediately; and

(b) To give notice of such termination to each of your immediate subcontractors (including suppliers) who will be affected thereby, (i) giving him the number of the Contract, (ii) stating that it has been terminated for the convenience of the Government, (iii) giving him the name and address of the office in charge of the settlement of your claim, as set forth below, (iv) instructing him to stop all work, to place no more orders, and to terminate all subcontracts, in connection with his subcontract with you, except to the extent necessary to enable him to perform any portion of such subcontract not terminated by the notice so given to him, and (v) requesting him to give similar notice and instructions to his immediate subcontractors.

5. You are authorized to retain or dispose of all property applicable to the terminated portion of the Contract in accordance with subparagraphs 10 (a) and 10 (b) of the inclosed Instructions, except for the following property:

Similar authority should be extended to all subcontractors, except as to property of the class or classes listed above.

6. You are also required to settle with all your immediate subcontractors as promptly as possible. Each such settlement will be subject to the approval or ratification of the Contracting Officer, except as set forth in the inclosed Instructions.

7. The Government desires to settle your claim arising out of the termination of the Contract by negotiation, and on such terms as will speedily and fairly compensate you therefor. You are accordingly urged to prepare and submit as promptly as possible your Settlement Proposal and supporting papers, including inventory statements, to the following office, which will be in charge of the settlement of your claim:

Name of office

Address

8. The directions in this notice and in the inclosed Instructions may be modified from time to time, except as to any in reliance on which you have theretofore materially changed your position in a manner for which compensation cannot reasonably be given in your termination settlement.

9. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice by signing the original and one copy and returning them to this office at once. The other copy is for your files.

MAJOR JOHN DOE, Contracting Officer.

The undersigned hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the foregoing notice on ----------, 194--

XYZ CORPORATION.
By ----------,
President.

Partial Payments

2. In § 815.921 footnote 4 is amended to read as follows:

4 Insert at this point in place of the first sentence of paragraph 2 the following sentence "In consideration of such payment said Subcontractor and the parties hereto, other than the United States, agree that, to the extent of such payment, they severally do release the United States and each of the other parties hereto against whom they severally have claim based upon said Subcontract or the termination thereof, retaining any such claim based upon said Subcontract only to the extent that such claim may be found by the Contracting Officer under Contract W------ord------ to exceed such payment. If such payment exceeds the amount finally determined to be payable to said Subcontractor in connection with said termination, said Subcontractor agrees to repay the excess to the Government on demand together with penalty thereon at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date of receipt of such excess payment by said Subcontractor to the date of the repayment of such excess.

3. Section 815.922 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.922 Form of supplemental agreement for partial payments when effected through controlled account.

Supplemental agreement entered into this ------ day of ----------, 194--, by the United States of America, hereinafter called "the Government," represented by the contracting officer executing this agreement, and ----------, hereinafter called "the Contractor,"

Witnesseth that: Whereas, on ------ day of ----------, 194--, the parties hereto entered into Contract No. ------, and

Whereas, notice of termination of said contract has been given pursuant to Article ---------- thereof, and

Whereas, under the First War Powers Act, 1941, Executive Orders Numbers 9001 and 9112, and the Contract Settlement Act of 1944, payments may be made to the contractor in advance of final determination of the amount to which the contractor will be entitled by reason of such termination and

Whereas, the contractor hereby represents to the Government that at least the sum of $------ is due the contractor by reason of the termination of said contract and the Government desires to make a payment to the contractor pending the final determination of the amount payable by reason of such terminations:

ARTICLE I. Upon the execution of this supplemental agreement by the parties hereto, and upon the contractor's submission of a proper voucher therefor, the Government will pay to the contractor, subject to the provisions of Article IV, hereof, the sum of $------.

ARTICLE II. The payment provided for herein, together with any prior payments received by the contractor in connection with such termination shall be without prejudice to the right to receive any additional amounts to which the contractor may be entitled as a result of such termination.

ARTICLE III. Said payments shall be applied against the amount finally determined to be payable by the Government to the contractor in connection with such termination. If such payments exceed the amount finally determined to be payable to the contractor in connection with such termination, the contractor agrees to repay the excess to the Government on demand together with penalty thereon at the rate of 6% per annum from the date of receipt of such excess payment by the contractor to the date of the repayment of such excess. In the event that an excess payment results from credits arising in favor of the Government by reason of the retention or disposition of property by the contractor, the amount of penalty shall be computed from the date when such credits resulted in an excess payment.

ARTICLE IV. All funds advanced to the contractor as payments hereunder, together with the proceeds of the sale of any property related to the uncompleted portion of the contract, shall be deposited by the Government and the contractor in a special bank account or accounts at a member bank or banks of the Federal Reserve System, or any "insured bank" within the meaning of the Act creating the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (Act of July 23, 1935; 49 Stat. 684) as amended (12 U.S.C. 264) separate from the contractor's general or other funds. Such special bank account or accounts shall be so designated as to indicate clearly to the bank their special character and purpose, and the balances in such account or accounts shall be used by the contractor exclusively as a fund for meeting costs incurred in performance of the contract prior to receipt of termination notice, or thereafter as directed by the contracting officer. Withdrawals from such special account or accounts shall be subject to the prior written approval of the contracting officer and to countersignature of the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative to the extent that he shall notify the bank that it is required by him. Such countersignature may be of blanket checks to cover a number of approved expenditures. Any balances from time to time in such account or accounts shall secure the repayment of the advances in connection with which the account or accounts are opened, and the Government shall have a lien on such balances to secure the repayment of such advances, which lien shall be superior to the lien of the bank, or any other person, upon such account or accounts, by virtue of assignment to it of the principal contract or otherwise. The contractor hereby authorizes and instructs the bank to transfer, without notice of the contractor and without liability of any kind or nature for such action, the balance of funds on deposit in such special account at any time to the Government upon the written request of the contracting officer to the bank for such transfer. Upon receipt by the bank of any written directions from the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative, the bank shall act thereon and be under no liability to any party thereto for any action taken in accordance with said written directions. Any instructions or written directions received by the bank through the contracting officer upon War Department stationery and purporting to be signed by or by the direction of the contracting officer, or his duly authorized representative, shall, in so far as the rights, duties and liabilities of the bank are concerned be conclusively deemed to have been properly issued and filed with the bank by the contracting officer or his duly authorized representative.

In witness whereof, The parties hereto have executed this agreement as of the day and year first above written.

Instructions to Contractors

6. Section 815.936 is amended to read as follows:

§ 815.936 Fixed-price contractors. Instructions to Contractors in substantially the following form will accompany each notice of termination of a fixed-price supply contract for the convenience of the Government (see § 815.912 (a)):

INSTRUCTIONS TO CONTRACTORS IN REGARD TO TERMINATION OF FIXED PRICE (LUMP SUM) SUPPLY CONTRACTS

SECTION 1—INTRODUCTION

1. Necessity for termination. The constant changes in the requirements of our armed forces make it necessary to terminate certain contracts from time to time. Your contract is among these, and its termination is accordingly not to be taken as an indication that the War Department is in any way dissatisfied with your performance.

2. Termination procedure policy. It is the intention of the War Department to make a proper adjustment with you in accordance with customary commercial practice and the termination article in your contract. However, since public funds are involved, you must submit adequate accounting data to support your request for an adjustment based on the termination. This must be done before payment can be made. When this accounting data is received, the War Department will cooperate with you in endeavoring to reach a speedy and equitable negotiated settlement.

3. Necessity for prompt action. To expedite payment of your claim, you should submit to the Contracting Officer, as speedily as possible, your Settlement Proposal on the applicable Standard Forms and in accordance with the General Instructions for use of Standard Contractor's Proposal Forms in Presenting Settlement Proposals Arising From Total or Partial Termination of Fixed-Price Supply Contracts. A copy of these General Instructions is inclosed herewith, and copies of the Standard Forms, for your own use or for the use of your subcontractors, may be obtained by application to the Contracting Officer.

You should also, without awaiting the preparation of your Settlement Proposal, see to it that the taking of inventories is begun at once, and that schedules of charges and complete or partial inventory schedules are prepared as promptly as possible by your company and submitted to the Contracting Officer. You should also promptly submit to him for approval any partial settlement proposals relating to claims of subcontractors or to disposal of property. Submission of these papers in advance will enable you to pay your subcontractors more rapidly and will also hasten your own final settlement.

4. Confirmation of oral approval. Wherever in these instructions, or in the termination article which forms a part of your contract, the approval of the Contracting Officer is required as to any action to be taken by you, you should, for your records, require written confirmation of any such approval which has been given orally.

5. Purpose and application of these instructions. These instructions summarize your principal rights and duties arising from the termination of your contract. In general, they apply to subcontractors as well as prime contractors, except that the subcontractor stands in the same relationship to the contractor to or for whom he is delivering materials or performing services as that in which the prime contractor stands to the Government. To assist in effecting termination settlements, the War Department has prepared Procurement Regulation No. 15 and the Termination Accounting Manual (TM-14-1005) for Fixed-Price Supply Contracts, copies of both of which may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C.

SECTION 2—ACTION TO BE TAKEN UPON RECEIPT OF NOTICE OF TERMINATION

6. Cessation of work and notification to suppliers. Immediately upon receipt of the Notice of Termination (with which these Instructions are sent) you should take the following steps:

a. On the effective date of the Notice, stop all the work and the placing of any orders in connection with the contract except to the extent necessary to perform any portion thereof not terminated by the Notice or to the extent that you may wish to retain and continue any work in process which the Government does not wish to take over and for the cost of which you will make no claim. If you believe it inadvisable for any reason to stop any portion of the work as required by the Notice, you should so advise the Contracting Officer immediately by telephone or personal conference, and obtain his instructions. Any delay in complying with the above directions will be at your own risk.

b. Notify all of your immediate subcontractors (including suppliers) who will be affected by the termination that your contract has been terminated for the convenience of the Government, give them the number of the contract and the name and address of the office charged with the settlement of your termination claim, order them (to the extent necessitated by the termination) to make no further commitments in connection with their subcontracts and request them to give similar notice to their immediate subcontractors. You should also request them to submit their inventory schedules and settlement proposals as promptly as possible in order to speed up settlement of their termination charges; and you should use your best efforts to arrive at negotiated settlements of their claims as quickly as possible.

c. Notify the Contracting Officer of the number of articles completed under the contract and still on hand, and arrange with him for their delivery or disposal.

d. Notify the Contracting Officer of any pending legal proceedings with respect to any subcontracts or purchase orders related to the terminated contract. (The Contracting Officer should also be promptly notified of any such proceedings brought after receipt of the Notice.)

7. Initial conference with representatives of contracting officer. As soon as possible after receipt of the Notice, you should arrange for a conference with the representatives of the Contracting Officer, at which you should be prepared to present a rough estimate of your inventory and of the principal items of your claim, and to indicate, as fully as possible, what property you desire to retain, what can be sold to others and what, in your opinion, should be scrapped. At this conference the basis of settlement should be at least tentatively determined, and a clear understanding should be reached as to what information is to be furnished by you, what methods are to be followed in disposing of property, what accounting or other investigation is to be undertaken, and what interim financing, if any, you will require.

8. Notice to workers and cooperation with War Manpower Commission. Contractors are urged by the Government, and requested to urge their subcontractors, in all cases where the termination is likely to result in the release of any substantial number of workers, to include a statement of the reasons for the cutback in a notification to the workers and their union representatives, if any, and to cooperate with the War Manpower Commission by making known their new net labor requirements and allowing the United States Employment Service representative to conduct job interviews at the plant if a considerable number of workers are to be displaced.

SECTION 3—DISPOSAL OF INVENTORIES

9. Preparation of inventory schedules. It is expected that in most cases inventory schedules on the applicable Form (See subparagraph 14a of these Instructions) can be prepared and submitted before submission of the Settlement Proposal. The inventory schedules prepared by your company should include all materials owned by it even if located in the plants of subcontractors, unless there is some special reason for following a different procedure. For the purpose of this Section 3, the term "materials" includes work in process and completed articles on hand. A separate schedule, or separate schedules, should be made of the materials located in each plant; and separate schedules should also be made of all Government-owned materials. No item, however, in respect of which no charge is to be made to the Government need be included in these schedules.

10. Methods of disposing of inventories. It is the policy of the War Department, so far as possible, to dispose of inventories through normal commercial channels. Disposal will ordinarily be handled in one of the following ways:

a. Materials to be retained by you or sold to others and as to which you will seek no reimbursement from the Government. Except as otherwise explicitly directed by the Contracting Officer in the Notice or in some other written communication, you are authorized, subject to the existing regulations of the War Production Board and other Government agencies, to retain or sell all materials applicable to the terminated portion of the contract, title to which has not passed to the Government, if you are willing to seek no reimbursement from the Government with respect to the cost of such materials.

b. Materials to be returned to suppliers for full credit. You are also authorized, subject to the same limitations set forth in paragraph 10, to return any such materials to your suppliers if you are willing to seek no reimbursement from the Government with respect to their cost except for the freight charges for shipping such materials to you and their return to the suppliers, plus reasonable packing and handling charges.

c. Materials to be retained by you, or sold to others, at less than cost. None of the materials applicable to the uncompleted portion of the contract should, except as set forth in paragraph 10a and 10b, be retained for your own use or otherwise disposed of without the written approval of the Contracting Officer. Accordingly, if you propose to sell or retain any such materials, or to permit their retention by subcontractors, and to seek reimbursement from the Government for any part of their cost or for any part of such cost in excess of the price at which you propose to sell them, or in excess of the freight, packing and handling charges in the case of materials returned to your suppliers, you should first (unless the proposed sale or other disposition of such materials is covered by a general authorization previously given by the Contracting Officer) submit to him the following information:

(1) A complete description of the materials proposed to be retained or sold;

(2) The cost, or estimated cost, of such materials as shown by your books;

(3) The price at which you propose to retain or sell them; and

(4) A brief statement as to your reasons for believing that their disposition at the price stated would be for the best interest of the Government.

11. Diversion of property or orders to other contracts. It is desirable that all materials, equipment and supplies acquired for the performance of the contract, and which have become surplus because of its termination, be diverted so far as possible to other war production. If you have diverted any such property to the performance of another war contract, you will, to the extent that it is properly allocable to such other contract, be entitled to reimbursement from the Government if that contract is later terminated for its convenience. In order to effect a saving to the Government, where a diversion of property from a terminated contract to a continuing contract necessitates the cancellation of orders already given for the performance of the continuing contract, you may cancel such orders and either take the reasonable cost to you of such cancellations into consideration when calculating the amount at which such property is to be retained for the continuing contract, or, with the approval of the contracting officer, include such cost in the settlement of the terminated contract. You should also, whenever you can effect a saving to the Government by so doing, allow orders originally given in respect of a terminated contract to remain in effect and apply the property delivered thereunder to the performance of a continuing contract; and if this necessitates the cancellation of orders under the continuing contract, the reasonable cost to you of such cancellation may also be included in the settlement of the terminated contract.

12. Obligations of contractors with respect to disposal of inventory. By the terms of clause (b) (7) of the Uniform Termination Article, the contractor is obligated, after receipt of the notice, to "use his best efforts to sell, in the manner, to the extent, at the time, and at the price or prices directed or authorized by the contracting officer," the fabricated or unfabricated parts, work in process, completed work, supplies and other material produced as a part of, or acquired in respect of the performance of, the work terminated by the contract," except that the contractor is not required to extend credit to any purchaser, and may retain any such property at a price or prices approved by the contracting officer. The Government accordingly expects you to do everything within reason to aid in disposing of inventory as quickly as it may be feasible to do so.

13. Plant clearance. You may from time to time submit to the Contracting Officer one or more inventory lists in the prescribed form describing materials applicable to the terminated portion of the contract, together with your written statement that you wish to have such materials removed by the Government; and the Government is obligated, unless the contract otherwise provides, within 60 days thereafter either to arrange upon such terms as may be agreed on, for the storage of such materials by you on your premises or elsewhere, or for their removal from your plants. If the Government fails to arrange for the storage or removal of such materials within the 60 day period, you may at any time thereafter remove them from your plants and store them on your premises or elsewhere for the account and at the risk of the Government, using reasonable care for their transportation and preservation, but only if you have first given to the Contracting Officer at least 20 days' notice of your intention to do so on a specified date, accompanied by a statement showing the quantities and condition of the materials so to be removed, certified on your behalf to have been prepared in accordance with a concurrent physical inventory. You are also authorized, at any time after receipt of the Notice of Termination, to remove and store at your own expense and risk any materials applicable to the terminated portion of the contract.

SECTION 4—PREPARATION OF SETTLEMENT PROPOSAL

14. Submission of proposal and supporting papers. Work on your Settlement Proposal should be begun as promptly as possible after receipt of the Notice. The various papers which will make up your Proposal may be submitted to the Contracting Officer as prepared, and it is desirable to follow this procedure in most cases as a means of expediting settlement.

a. Particular forms to be used. If your Settlement Proposal is for less than $500, you may submit it on Form A–4. If it is for more than $500, but less than $10,000 before deducting disposal or other credits, you may use either Form A–2 or Form A–3. No additional inventory schedules on the Standard Forms will be required in the case of Settlement Proposals submitted on Form A–2, Form A–3, or Form A–4. If your Settlement Proposal is for more than $10,000, Form A–1 must be used; and this Form may also be used in the case of Settlement Proposals for less than $10,000 if you find it more convenient. If Form A–1 is used, it must be supported by a schedule of your own charges with respect to the terminated portion of the contract to date of termination, on Form B–1 or Form B–2, which in turn must be supported by inventory statements on Forms C–1, C–2 and C–3.

b. Contractor's own charges. A statement of the amount which you expect to claim for your own charges should be prepared as soon as possible after your receipt of the Notice, and be delivered to the Contracting Officer for checking purposes as soon as it is prepared. This statement will include the entries to appear, upon submission of your Settlement Proposal, on Schedule B–1 or B–2 if the Proposal is to be on Form A–1, on items 1 through 7 if it is to be on Form A–2, and on items 1 through 8 if it is to be on Form A–3. You will be required to certify to the correctness of this statement when it becomes a part of your Settlement Proposal.

c. Other charges. Other charges to be used in computing the amount of your Settlement Proposal should be determined as promptly as possible. These will normally include approved settlements with your subcontractors, costs incurred by you after termination, and the contract unit price of any articles completed by you in accordance with the terms of the contract, without unreasonable anticipation of production schedules, and for which you have not previously been paid.

SECTION 5—SUBCONTRACTORS AND SUPPLIERS

15. Notification of subcontractors and suppliers. No costs will be allowed to you in connection with the settlement which arises from failure on your part effectively to notify your immediate subcontractors (including your suppliers) of the complete or partial termination of their subcontracts or sales commitments, within a time which is found by the Contracting Officer to be reasonable under the circumstances.

16. Statements and other papers to be obtained from subcontractors. You should require from your immediate subcontractors the same type of statements covering inventories and expenses applicable to the termination, and the same type of settlement proposals, which the Government requires from you. Subcontractors, although not required to use the Standard Forms in submitting their proposals, should be urged to do so.

17. Review of settlement proposals of subcontractors. It is your primary responsibility to review or examine all statements of changes and settlement proposals delivered to you by your immediate subcontractors. Your duty in this regard is similar to that of the Government in passing upon the statements and settlement proposals submitted by you. You will be required at least to cause an office review to be made, by qualified accounting personnel in your employ, of each such statement and proposal; and you will also be required to cause a written report of each such office review to be made, and to be furnished to the Government upon its request. You should in every case make such examination as is reasonable under all the circumstances, and you will be held to the standard of scrutiny that a prudent business man would ordinarily employ in the conduct of his own affairs. You will not be required to warrant the accuracy of the facts presented by the subcontractors; but you will be required to certify that, on the basis of a review or examination which you believe to be adequate, you are of the opinion that settlements with your immediate subcontractors are fair and reasonable, and would be made by you if reimbursement by the Government were not involved.

18. Settlement of subcontractors' claims. You are required to settle all claims arising out of the termination of orders and subcontracts, subject to the ratification or approval of the Contracting Officer when required. The Contracting Officer may authorize you, or one or more subcontractors, to make final settlements of termination claims by your or their immediate subcontractors in cases where the settlement will not involve more than $10,000. Except in cases covered by such authority, you are required to submit to the Contracting Officer for his approval or ratification all settlements with your immediate subcontractors, and any settlement made by any subcontractor involving more than $25,000; and the Contracting Officer may require the submission to him of any settlement made by any subcontractor.

19. Disposal of inventories by subcontractors. Subcontractors are authorized to retain, return, sell, or otherwise dispose of inventory, subject to the same restrictions placed upon your company by the provisions in Paragraph 10.

SECTION 6—INTERIM FINANCING

20. It is the policy of the Government, pending the settlement of your claim, to provide you with adequate interim financing, within 30 days after proper application. Such financing may be effected by one or more of the following methods.

a. For contractors still in war production guaranteed V and VT Loans are now available which may be utilized to provide financing in the event of termination;

b. It is expected that a new simplified type of guaranteed T Loan, solely for use on termination, will shortly be made available;

c. Contractors will be given liberal partial payments while their terminated contracts are in process of settlement, which may be either (1) immediate payments based on an estimate of the amount due, or (2) cost-supported payments based on a statement of costs;

d. Advance payments authorized prior to termination may, with the approval of the Contracting Officer, be used to pay for items reimbursable under the termination article in your contract.

NOTE: For further information as to interim financing, reference is made to §§ 815.500 to 815.512.

SECTION 7—EXPENSES SUBSEQUENT TO TERMINATION

21. Approval of expenditures. You should submit to the Contracting Officer for his approval all costs incurred by you after the effective date of the Notice

a. For the protection of Government property, or

b. For other expenditures in connection with the terminated contract. (See the termination article in your contract.)

You must take adequate precaution to protect property in your possession in which the Government has or may have an interest.

SECTION 8—PRESERVATION OF RECORDS

22. Penal provisions. Section 19 (a) of the Contract of Settlement Act of 1944 makes it a crime, punishable by fine and imprisonment, to secrete, mutilate, obliterate or destroy

"(1) any records of a war contractor relating to the negotiation, award, performance, payment, interim financing, cancelation or other termination, or settlement of a war contract of $25,000 or more; or

"(ii) any records of a war contractor and any purchaser relating to any disposition of termination inventory in which the consideration received by any war contractor or any Government agency is $5,000 or more,

"until (1) five years after such disposition of termination inventory by such war contractors or Government Agency, or (2) five years after the final settlement of such war contract, or (3) five years after the termination of hostilities in the present war as proclaimed by the President or by a concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress, whichever applicable period is longer."

SECTION 9—NEGOTIATION OF SETTLEMENT

23. "Contracting officer." The term "Contracting Officer," as used in the foregoing instructions, refers to the Contracting Officer as the office charged with the settlement of your termination claim, as designated in the Notice. In most cases, he will act through the members of his staff, and will probably appoint one of them as the negotiator in charge of your settlement, who will not be authorized to agree finally on the terms of settlement, but will endeavor to obtain answers to any questions you may have and will advise you as to procedure. He will have such authority as may be delegated to him by the Contracting Officer to approve dispositions of property, settlements with subcontractors, and other terms of final settlement.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-596]

RELIANCE MANUFACTURING CO.

Joseph A. Smith and Harry Shatkin are co-partners doing business as Reliance Manufacturing Company at 158 Pine Street, Providence, Rhode Island. Between February 22 and April 25, 1944, they purchased and accepted delivery of approximately 15,000 ounces fine of Treasury silver and put all but a small portion of this silver into process in the manufacture of expansion watch bracelets in violation of Conservation Order M-199. During the first quarter of 1944, they purchased and accepted delivery of 6,100 ounces fine of domestic silver, and during the second quarter of 1944 they purchased and accepted delivery of 415 ounces fine of domestic silver; they subsequently returned 1,343 ounces to their supplier but put most of the remainder of this domestic silver into process for the manufacture of expansion watch bracelets in violation of Conservation Order M-199. They had no quota as defined in Conservation Order M-199 for the receipt or use of silver for this purpose, and their appeal for a quota was denied by the War Production Board on January 15, 1944. Notwithstanding the denial of this appeal and their knowledge of Conservation Order M-199 they engaged in the actions above described in wilful violation of Conservation Order M-199.

These violations of Conservation Order M-199 have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing, It is hereby ordered, That:

§ 1010.596 Suspension Order No. 596. (a) For a period of four months from the effective date of this suspension order, neither Joseph A. Smith nor Harry Shatkin, doing business as Reliance Manufacturing Company or otherwise, their and its successors or assigns, shall purchase, accept delivery of, or put into process any silver as defined in or governed by Conservation Order M-199.

(b) Neither Joseph A. Smith nor Harry Shatkin, doing business as Reliance Manufacturing Company or otherwise, their and its successors or assigns, shall put into process or process any silver as defined in or governed by Conservation Order M-199 for the manufacture of expansion bracelets for watches, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Joseph A. Smith and Harry Shatkin, doing business as Reliance Manufacturing Company, their and its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

Issued this 2d day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3133—PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[Limitation Order L-240, Supp. 1, as Amended Aug. 3, 1944]

NEWSPAPERS

Section 3133.6a General Limitation Order L-240, Supplement No. 1 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3133.6a General Limitation Order L-240, Supplement No. 1—(a) Purpose of appeal clause. The serious shortage in the supply of print paper available for newspapers makes it necessary for publishers to reduce their consumption substantially, as provided in Order L-240. Such reductions may create serious hardships which, however, are unavoidable in time of war. Appeals are not granted to ameliorate, in individual cases, hardships applicable to an entire industry. They are granted only to provide relief, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b) to (g), from certain undue and excessive hardships which would be created if the order were applied without modification to an exceptional set of circumstances. Appeals which do not establish such hardships shall be denied.

(b) No automatic adjustments. Paragraph (f) of this supplement describes the types of hardships for which quota adjustments shall be made by the War Production Board on appeal. These adjustments, however, are not automatic. A publisher who believes that his case is covered by one of the subparagraphs of paragraph (f) may not make his own adjustment of his consumption quota. No publisher may use any paper in excess of his consumption quota, computed in accordance with paragraphs (j) to (m) of Order L-240, unless he files an appeal for such relief and a grant is made in writing signed by the Recording Secretary of the War Production Board.

(c) Adjustments of base tonnages. Wherever appropriate, grants on appeal shall be made in the form of adjustments of a publisher's base tonnage which shall continue to be effective in future quarters, subject to re-examination and modification at any time by the War Production Board.

(d) Effective date of base tonnage adjustments. Adjustments of base tonnages are not retroactive. A publisher whose base tonnage is adjusted, on appeal, does not receive, by virtue of such adjustment, a "carry-over of unused tonnage" from any quarter before the issuance of the appeal grant.

(e) Application of curtailments. Constructive base tonnages granted on appeal are subject to the curtailments required by paragraph (k) of Order L-240 as amended from time to time.

(f) Types of hardship for which relief shall be granted. In passing upon appeals under Order L-240 the following standards shall govern:

(1) Extraordinary population increase accompanied by circulation increase. Where there has been extraordinary growth of population in a newspaper's trading area since December 31, 1942, its consumption quota shall be adjusted in order to permit the maintenance of adequate newspaper service in that trading area. The amount of tonnage to be granted shall be determined as follows: (i) the percentage of population growth in the newspaper's trading area since December 31, 1942 and the percentage of the newspaper's circulation growth in that area measured by the average for the first two quarters of 1944 over the average for the year of 1942, shall be ascertained. (ii) The newspaper's consumption quota shall be increased to the extent that the lower of these two figures exceeds 7½%. In other words, a newspaper must absorb the first 7½% of both population and circulation increase, and it will be granted ex-quota paper only to the extent that population or circulation increase exceeds 7½%, whichever percentage increase is smaller.

Population increase shall be determined on the basis of the best available evidence. In making such determination consideration may be given not only to census figures but also to ration book records, estimates of military authorities, local government officials, postal authorities, telephone, gas and electric companies, housing authorities, employment and labor agencies, transportation agencies, Chambers of Commerce and others. In trading areas where evidence of population increase is inconclusive, weight may be given to circulation increase as evidence of population increase. Increased circulation resulting from promotional sales efforts shall not be included.

Additional adjustment shall be made for newspapers in trading areas whose population has increased more than 50% since the last decennial census, in order to maintain adequate newspaper service in the trading area.

(2) Extraordinary circulation increase. Where a newspaper's average circulation for the second quarter of 1943 exceeds its average circulation for the year 1942 by more than 10%, the newspaper's consumption quota shall be increased to the extent of such circulation increase in excess of 10%, without the necessity of establishing any population increase. Increased circulation resulting from promotional sales efforts shall not be included.

(3) Discontinuance or merger of newspapers. Adjustments in consumption quota shall be made in order to maintain adequate newspaper service in a community where there has been a discontinuance or merger of newspapers.

(4) Supplements added in 1941 or 1942. Adjustments in consumption quota shall be made for newspapers which added supplements in 1941 or 1942. Such adjustments shall be made only to the extent that the newspaper's total content was increased by the addition of the supplements and such increase was not reflected in its base tonnage.

(5) Increased news content. Adjustments in consumption quota shall be made for newspapers which substantially increased their news content in 1941 or 1942 and maintained such increased news content continuously until December 31, 1942.

(6) Temporary suspension. Newspapers which were forced to suspend publication temporarily during 1941 because of strikes, fires, or similar conditions shall be granted compensatory increases in their base tonnages, to the extent that it was impracticable to continue operations at another plant.

(7) Change in roll size. Publishers who reduced the width of their newsprint rolls in 1941 shall be granted compensatory increases in their base tonnages.

(8) Increased frequency of issuance. Publishers who increased the frequency of issuance of their newspapers in 1941 and 1942 shall be granted adjustments of their base tonnages to permit continued publication at the frequency of issuance established before Order L-240 was issued, on December 31, 1942.

(9) Extraordinary hardships. Appeal tonnage shall not be recommended by either the administrator or the Division Appeals Committee or granted by the Appeals Board for causes other than those enumerated in subparagraphs (1) to (8) of this paragraph (f) except where unforeseen, unusual, extraordinary or emergency conditions constituting undue and excessive hardship are proved. Certain factors which shall not be recognized as grounds for the granting of appeal tonnage are described in paragraph (g).

(g) Factors which shall not be considered as grounds for granting appeals. The following is a list of some of the factors which shall not be considered as grounds for the granting of tonnage on appeal. This list is not exclusive.

(1) The nature of a newspaper's contents.

(2) Diminished base period consumption because of financial conditions.

(3) Suspension of publication in 1941 or 1942 except as provided in paragraph (f) (6).

(4) Population or circulation increase, except as provided in paragraph (k) (2) of Order L-240 or paragraphs (f) (1) or (f) (2) of this supplement.

(6) Conservation of paper at any time except as provided in paragraph (f) (7).

(7) Change in amount of news content at any time, except as provided in paragraphs (f) (3), (f) (4), and (f) (5).

(8) Change in number of advertising lines at any time, except as provided in paragraphs (f) (3) and (f) (4).

(9) Unsold copies or circulation returns.

(10) Special events such as war bond drives, recruiting drives, war news, political news, etc.

(11) Inability to maintain or increase advertising lines under existing quotas.

(13) Request to use in a newspaper started since December 31, 1942, more tonnage than that permitted in paragraph (m) of Order L-240.

(14) Consumption of print paper in violation of Order L-240, whether or not such violation was wilful.

Procedure

(h) How appeals are submitted. Appeals from Order L-240 may be filed by addressing a letter in duplicate to the War Production Board, Printing and Publishing Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: L-240.

(i) Form of appeals. The letter of appeal need not follow any particular form. It should state informally, but completely, the particular provision appealed from, the precise relief desired, the subdivision of paragraph (f) upon which the appellant relies, and the reasons why denial of the appeal would result in undue and excessive hardship.

(j) Denials by administrator. Appeals may be denied in the first instance by the administrator of the order.

(k) Re-appeal from denial by administrator. When an appeal has been denied by the administrator of the order, the appellant may re-appeal, within 15 days after the letter of denial is mailed, by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Printing and Publishing Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: L-240. This letter may contain simply a request that the case be forwarded to the Appeals Board of the War Production Board. Any additional information which the appellant cares to submit at this time will also be forwarded to the Appeals Board.

(l) Grant of appeals. Although the administrator of the order may deny an appeal in the first instance, only the Appeals Board has the power to grant relief in individual cases from the provisions of the order.

(m) Recommendation of grant by the administrator. The administrator of the order may recommend that an appeal be granted in whole or in part. In that event the case shall be forwarded to the Appeals Board with the written recommendation of the administrator and the written concurrence or non-concurrence of each member of the Division Appeals Committee, consisting of himself, the administrators of Orders L-241, L-244, and L-245, the Assistant Director of the Printing and Publishing Division for Labor, and representatives of the Office of Civilian Requirements and the Conservation Division.

(n) Optional reference to Appeals Board by administrator. The administrator of the order may, if he desires, refer a case to the Appeals Board with a recommendation of denial or with no recommendation at all.

(o) Hearings by Appeals Board. If the Appeals Board desires to obtain additional facts not contained in the file it may, in its discretion, hold a public hearing on any appeal. To the extent consistent with the necessity for emergency relief, a schedule of hearings shall be made up in advance. Information concerning the time and place of any scheduled hearing shall be available at the office of the Appeals Board at any time during business hours.

(p) Conduct of hearing. Hearings by the Appeals Board are open to the public. All interested parties may attend and, in the discretion of the Board, may be heard. The hearings are informal and the Board is not bound by legal rules of evidence. It is not necessary for an appellant to be represented by counsel although he may do so if he wishes.

(q) Decision by Appeals Board. The Appeals Board may grant or deny an appeal in whole or in part. It may also attach conditions to a grant.

(r) Finality of decisions. The decisions of the Appeals Board shall be final, unless that Board elects to reopen the case.

(s) Publication of grants. Grants on appeals shall be announced publicly at least every two weeks.

(t) Announcement of grounds of decision. Whenever a grant is made for "unforeseen, unusual, extraordinary or emergency conditions" under paragraph (f) (9), a brief memorandum of the basis of the decision shall be made public by the Appeals Board within two weeks, and the decision shall be treated as a precedent in future situations of an identical character.

(u) Amendment of supplement. Whenever a new standard is developed, the supplement shall be amended to set forth that standard.

(v) Public files. Public files shall be set up in all cases, including those filed before as well as after October 7, 1943, whether or not they resulted in a grant. They shall be available for public inspection at any time during the business hours of the War Production Board. The public files shall include:

1. All papers filed by the appellant in support of the appeal except those portions which contain confidential data.
2. All memoranda by War Production Board officials containing recommendations for or against the allowance of the appeal.
3. Copy of all letters of grant or denial.
4. A transcript of the record of any public hearing (or if the stenographic notes of the hearing have not been transcribed, a memorandum referring to the notes and stating how a transcript may be obtained).

(w) False representations. All grants on appeal are conditional upon the validity of the statements submitted in support thereof. Any person who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in connection with an appeal, whether orally or in writing, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both, as provided in section (35) (A) of the United States Criminal Code.

Issued this 3d day of August 1944.

PART 3133—PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[Limitation Order L-244, Supp. 1, as Amended Aug. 3, 1944]

MAGAZINES

Section 3133.15a General Limitation Order L-244, Supplement No. 1 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3133.15a General Limitation Order L-244, Supplement No. 1—(a) Purpose of appeal clause. The serious shortage in the supply of print paper available for magazines makes it necessary for publishers to reduce their consumption substantially, as provided in Order L-244. Such reductions may create serious hardships—which, however, are unavoidable in time of war. Appeals are not granted to ameliorate, in individual cases, hardships applicable to an entire industry. They are granted only to provide relief, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (b) to (g), from certain undue and excessive hardships which would be created if the order were applied without modification to an exceptional set of circumstances. Appeals which do not establish such hardships shall be denied.

(b) No automatic adjustments. Paragraph (f) of this supplement describes the types of hardship for which quota adjustments shall be made by the War Production Board on appeal. These adjustments, however, are not automatic. A publisher who believes that his case is covered by one of the subparagraphs of paragraph (f) may not make his own adjustment of his consumption quota. No publisher may use any paper in excess of his consumption quota, computed in accordance with paragraphs (j) and (k) of Order L-244, unless he files an appeal for such relief and a grant is made in writing, signed by the Recording Secretary of the War Production Board.

(c) Adjustment of base tonnages. Wherever appropriate, grants on appeal shall be made in the form of adjustments of a publisher's base tonnage which shall continue to be effective in future quarters, subject to re-examination and modification at any time by the War Production Board.

(d) Effective date of base tonnage adjustments. Adjustments of base tonnages are not retroactive. A publisher whose base tonnage is adjusted on appeal does not receive, by virtue of such adjustment, a "carry-over of unused tonnage" from any quarter before the issuance of the appeal grant.

(e) Application of curtailments. Constructive base tonnages granted on appeal are subject to the curtailments required by paragraph (j) of Order L-244 as amended from time to time.

(f) Types of hardship for which relief shall be granted. In passing upon appeals under Order L-244 the following standards shall govern:

(1) New magazines issued by new publishers in 1942. If a publisher first caused paper to be used in printing a magazine in 1942 (and did not publish any other magazine throughout that entire year) he shall be granted a constructive base tonnage. This shall be determined by averaging the tonnage of paper consumed in each issue printed in 1942 and multiplying this average tonnage by a factor representing the magazine's established frequency of issuance.

(2) Publishers who used 25 tons or less in the first quarter of 1943. If a publisher used 25 tons of paper or less in the first quarter of 1943 under that provision of Order L-244 (eliminated as of April 1, 1943) which exempted users of 25 tons per quarter or less, he shall be granted a constructive base tonnage, not to exceed 25 tons per quarter. This shall be determined by averaging the tonnage of paper used in the issues of each magazine printed during the first quarter of 1943 and multiplying this average tonnage by a factor representing the magazine's established frequency of issuance.

(3) Reduction in basis weight and trim size. Publishers who reduced the basis weight or trim size of their magazines in 1942 shall be granted compensatory increases in their base tonnages.

(5) Unusual seasonal variations. Publishers whose schedules have unusual seasonal variations shall be granted permission to redistribute their quarterly consumption quotas within a calendar year.

(6) Inter-company transfers. Transfers of quotas under Order L-244 shall be permitted between corporations which have occupied the relationship of parent and wholly-owned subsidiary, or affiliates wholly owned by the same person prior to December 31, 1942, and continuously thereafter.

(7) Temporary suspension. Magazines which were forced to suspend publication temporarily during 1942 because of strikes, fires or similar conditions shall be granted compensatory increases in their base tonnage to the extent that it was impracticable to continue operations at another plant.

(8) Extraordinary hardships. Appeal tonnage shall not be recommended by either the administrator or the Division Appeals Committee or granted by the Appeals Board for causes other than those enumerated in subparagraphs (1) to (7) of this paragraph (f) except where unforeseen, unusual, extraordinary or emergency conditions constituting undue and excessive hardship are proved. Certain factors which shall not be recognized as grounds for the granting of appeal tonnage are described in paragraph (g).

(g) Factors which shall not be considered as grounds for granting of tonnage on appeals. The following is a list of some of the factors which shall not be considered as grounds for the granting of appeals. This list is not exclusive.

(1) The nature of a magazine's contents.
(2) Diminished base period consumption because of financial conditions.
(3) Suspension of publication in 1942, except as provided in paragraph (f) (7).
(4) Consumption of more paper in any quarter of 1942 than in other quarters.
(5) Consumption of less paper in 1942 than in other years.
(6) Decrease in circulation, number of advertising pages, or number of editorial pages in 1942.
(7) Increase in trim size, basis weights, circulation, cover or subscription price, number of advertising pages, number of editorial pages, or other expansion measures in 1942 or thereafter.
(8) Publication of a new magazine in 1942 by a publisher who was in the magazine publishing business throughout that year.
(9) Special events such as war bond drives, recruiting drives, war news, political news, etc.
(10) Inability to maintain or increase advertising pages, editorial pages, or circulation under existing quotas.
(11) Increased demand for a magazine, even though it is published by a membership organization whose constitution requires that a copy be sent to every member.
(12) Request to use in a magazine publishing business commenced after May 31, 1944 more than 1¼ tons of paper per calendar quarter, as provided in paragraph (j) (2) of Order L-244.

(13) The fact that additional tonnage was granted on appeal to a competitor.

(14) Consumption of paper in violation of Order L-244, whether or not such violation was wilful.

Procedure

(h) How appeals are submitted. Appeals from Order L-244 may be filed by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Printing and Publishing Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: L-244.

(i) Form of appeals. The letter of appeal need not follow any particular form. It should state informally, but completely, the particular provision appealed from, the precise relief desired, the subparagraph of paragraph (f) upon which the appellant relies, and the reasons why denial of the appeal would result in undue and excessive hardship.

(j) Denial by administrator. Appeals may be denied in the first instance by the administrator of the order.

(k) Re-appeal from denial by administrator. When an appeal has been denied by the administrator of the order, the appellant may re-appeal, within 15 days after the letter of denial is mailed, by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Printing and Publishing Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: L-244. This letter may contain simply a request that the case be forwarded to the Appeals Board of the War Production Board. Any additional information which the appellant cares to submit at this time will also be forwarded to the Appeals Board.

(l) Grant of appeals. Although the administrator of the order may deny an appeal in the first instance, only the Appeals Board has the power to grant relief in individual cases from the provisions of the order.

(m) Recommendation of grant by the administrator. The administrator of the order may recommend that an appeal be granted in whole or in part. In that event the case shall be forwarded to the Appeals Board with the written recommendation of the administrator and the written concurrence or non-concurrence of each member of the Division Appeals Committee, consisting of himself, the administrators of Orders L-240, L-241 and L-245, the Assistant Director of the Printing and Publishing Division for Labor, and representatives of the Office of Civilian Requirements and the Conservation Division.

(n) Optional reference to Appeals Board by administrator. The administrator of the order may, if he desires, refer a case to the Appeals Board with a recommendation of denial or with no recommendation at all.

(o) Hearings by Appeals Board. If the Appeals Board desires to obtain additional facts not contained in the file, it may, in its discretion, hold a public hearing on any appeal. To the extent consistent with the necessity for emergency relief, a schedule of hearings shall be made up in advance. Information concerning the time and place of any scheduled hearing shall be available at the office of the Appeals Board at any time during business hours.

(p) Conduct of hearing. Hearings by the Appeals Board are open to the public. All interested parties may attend and, in the discretion of the Board, may be heard. The hearings are informal and the Board is not bound by legal rules of evidence. It is not necessary for an appellant to be represented by counsel, although he may do so if he wishes.

(q) Decision by Appeals Board. The Appeals Board may grant or deny an appeal in whole or in part. It may also attach conditions to a grant.

(r) Finality of decision. The decisions of the Appeals Board shall be final, unless that Board elects to reopen the case.

(s) Publication of grants. Grants on appeal shall be announced publicly at least every two weeks.

(t) Announcement of grounds of decision. Whenever a grant is made for "unforeseen, unusual, extraordinary or emergency conditions" under paragraph (f) (8), a brief memorandum of the basis of the decision shall be made public by the Appeals Board within two weeks, and the decision shall be treated as a precedent in future situations of an identical character.

(u) Amendment of supplement. Whenever a new standard is developed, the supplement shall be amended to set forth that standard.

(v) Public files. Public files shall be set up in all cases, including those filed before as well as after October 7, 1943 whether or not they resulted in a grant. They shall be available for public inspection at any time during the business hours of the War Production Board. The public files shall include:

(1) All papers filed by the appellant in support of the appeal except those portions which contain confidential data.

(2) All memoranda by War Production Board officials containing recommendations for or against the allowance of the appeal.

(3) Copies of all letters of grant or denial.

(4) A transcript of the record of any public hearing (or if the stenographic notes of the hearing have not been transcribed, a memorandum referring to the notes and stating how a transcript may be obtained).

(w) False representations. All grants on appeal are conditional upon the validity of the statements submitted in support thereof. Any person who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in connection with an appeal, whether orally or in writing, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both, as provided in section 35A of the United States Criminal Code.

PART 3133—PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[Limitation Order L-245, Supp. 1, as Amended Aug. 3, 1944]

BOOKS AND BOOKLETS

Section 3133.17a General Limitation Order L-245, Supplement No. 1 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3133.17a General Limitation Order L-245, Supplement No. 1—(a) Purpose of appeal clause. The serious shortage in the supply of print paper available for books makes it necessary for publishers to reduce their consumption substantially, as provided in Order L-245. Such reductions may create serious hardships—which, however, are unavoidable in time of war. Appeals are not granted to ameliorate, in individual cases, hardships applicable to an entire industry. They are granted only to provide relief, subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) to (g), from certain undue and excessive hardships which would be created if the order were applied without modification to an exceptional set of circumstances. Appeals which do not establish such hardships shall be denied.

(b) No automatic adjustments. Paragraph (f) of this supplement describes the types of hardship for which quota adjustments shall be made by the War Production Board on appeal. These adjustments, however, are not automatic. A publisher who believes that his case is covered by one of the subparagraphs of paragraph (f) may not make his own adjustment of his consumption quota. No publisher may use any paper in excess of his consumption quota, computed in accordance with paragraphs (j) and (k) of Order L-245, unless he files an appeal for such relief and a grant is made in writing signed by the Recording Secretary of the War Production Board.

(c) Adjustment of base tonnages. Wherever appropriate, grants on appeal shall be made in the form of adjustments of a publisher's base tonnage which shall continue to be effective in future quarters, subject to re-examination and modification at any time by the War Production Board.

(d) Effective date of base tonnage adjustments. Adjustments of base tonnages are not retroactive. A publisher whose base tonnage is adjusted on appeal does not receive, by virtue of such adjustment, a "carry-over of unused tonnage" from any year before the issuance of the appeal grant.

(e) Application of curtailments. Constructive base tonnages granted on appeal are subject to the curtailments required by paragraph (j) of Order L-245 as amended from time to time.

(f) Types of hardship for which relief shall be granted. In passing upon appeals under Order L-245 the following standards shall govern:

(1) Incomplete base period. If a person entered the book publishing business in 1942 by causing paper to be put into process in the production of books for the first time in that year, he shall be granted a constructive base tonnage. This shall be determined by averaging his consumption of paper in each of the calendar quarters of 1942 in which he caused paper to be put into process. This average shall be multiplied by the number of calendar quarters of 1942 in which he did not cause paper to be put into process. The total shall be added to his actual consumption in 1942, to determine his constructive base tonnage.

However, ex-quota tonnage shall not be granted under this subparagraph to a publisher whose business is of such a nature that he would normally cause paper to be put into process in only a portion of a calendar year.

(2) The "intermittent" publisher. An "intermittent" publisher is one who issues a particular type of publication, such as an encyclopedia, a multi-volume set, etc., which, as a matter of established business practice, is produced at regular intervals less frequent than annual. Ex-quota tonnage shall be granted to permit the continued issuance of such a publication, to the extent that the publisher's consumption quota is inadequate.

(3) Abnormal base period. A publisher who demonstrates that in 1942 he consumed an abnormally low tonnage of paper because of conditions beyond his control shall be granted a constructive base tonnage. This shall be determined by averaging his consumption in the years 1940, 1941, and 1942. If he consumed no paper in one of these three years, the adjustment shall be based on his average consumption in the remaining two years.

(4) Temporary suspension. A publisher whose consumption of paper in 1942 was reduced by temporary suspension of publication as the result of strikes, fires or similar conditions shall receive a compensatory increase in his base tonnage, to the extent that it was impracticable to continue operations at another plant.

(5) Disproportionate commitments made prior to the issuance of Order L–245. Appeal tonnage shall be granted to a publisher who demonstrates that his base tonnage is inequitable because of the following circumstances existing prior to the issuance of L–245 on January 8, 1943:

(i) Capital expenditures;

(ii) Advances on author royalties and publishing rights;

(iii) Expenditures in the manufacture of books;

(iv) Administrative and advertising expenses.

Adjustments under this paragraph (f) (5) shall not be made unless the publisher demonstrates that his quota, upon the issuance of Order L–245, was inadequate to produce conservative first printings sufficient to liquidate such prior commitments.

(6) Inter-company transfers. Transfers of quotas under Order L–245 shall be permitted between corporations which have occupied the relationship of parent and wholly-owned subsidiary, or affiliates wholly owned by the same person, prior to January 8, 1943, and continuously thereafter.

(7) Extraordinary hardships. Appeal tonnage shall not be recommended either by the administrator or the Division Appeals Committee or granted by the Appeals Board for causes other than those enumerated in subparagraphs (1) to (6) of this paragraph (f) except where unforeseen, unusual, extraordinary or emergency conditions constituting undue and excessive hardship are proved. Certain factors which shall not be recognized as grounds for the granting of appeal tonnage are described in paragraph (g).

(g) Factors which shall not be considered as grounds for granting appeals. The following is a list of some of the factors which shall not be considered as grounds for the granting of appeals. This list is not exclusive.

(1) The nature of a book's contents.

(2) Diminished base period consumption because of financial conditions.

(3) Suspension of publishing activities, except as set forth in paragraph (f) (4).

(4) Increased demand for books, even though published by a membership organization whose constitution requires that a copy be sent to every member.

(5) Request to use in a book publishing business commenced after May 24, 1944 more than 5 tons of paper per calendar year as provided in paragraph (j) (2) of Order L–245.

(6) The fact that additional tonnage was granted on appeal to a competitor.

(7) Consumption of paper in violation of L–245, whether or not such violation was wilful.

Procedure

(h) How appeals are submitted. Appeals from Order L–245 may be filed by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Printing and Publishing Division, Washington 25, D. C.: Ref: L–245.

(i) Form of appeal. The letter of appeal need not follow any particular form. It should state informally, but completely, the particular provision appealed from, the precise relief desired, the subdivision of paragraph (f) upon which the appellant relies, and the reasons why denial of the appeal would result in undue and excessive hardship.

(j) Denial by administrator. Appeals may be denied in the first instance by the administrator of the order.

(k) Re-appeal from denial by administrator. When an appeal has been denied by the administrator of the order, the appellant may re-appeal, within 15 days after the letter of denial is mailed, by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Printing and Publishing Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: L–245. This letter may contain simply a request that the case be forwarded to the Appeals Board of the War Production Board. Any additional information which the appellant cares to submit at this time will also be forwarded to the Appeals Board.

(l) Grant of appeals. Although the administrator of the order may deny an appeal in the first instance, only the Appeals Board has the power to grant relief in individual cases from the provisions of the order.

(m) Recommendation of grant by the administrator. The administrator of the order may recommend that an appeal be granted in whole or in part. In that event the case shall be forwarded to the Appeals Board with the written recommendation of the administrator and the written concurrence or non-concurrence of each member of the Division Appeals Committee, consisting of himself, the administrators of orders L–240, L–241, and L–244, the Assistant Director of the Printing and Publishing Division for Labor, and representatives of the Office of Civilian Requirements and the Conservation Division.

(n) Optional reference to Appeals Board by Administrator. The administrator of the order may, if he desires, refer a case to the Appeals Board with a recommendation of denial or with no recommendation at all.

(o) Hearings by Appeals Board. If the Appeals Board desires to obtain additional facts not contained in the file it may, in its discretion, hold a public hearing on any appeal. To the extent consistent with the necessity for emergency relief, a schedule of hearings shall be made up in advance. Information concerning the time and place of any scheduled hearing shall be available at the office of the Appeals Board at any time during business hours.

(p) Conduct of hearing. Hearings by the Appeals Board are open to the public. All interested parties may attend and, in the discretion of the Board, may be heard. The hearings are informal and the Board is not bound by legal rules of evidence. It is not necessary for an appellant to be represented by counsel, although he may do so if he wishes.

(q) Decision by Appeals Board. The Appeals Board may grant or deny an appeal in whole or in part. It may also attach conditions to a grant.

(r) Finality of decision. The decisions of the Appeals Board shall be final, unless that Board elects to reopen the case.

(s) Publication of grants. Grants on appeals shall be anounced publicly at least every two weeks.

(t) Announcement of grounds of decision. Whenever a grant is made on the basis of "unforeseen, unusual, extraordinary or emergency conditions" under paragraph (f) (7), a brief memorandum of the basis of the decision shall be made public by the Appeals Board within two weeks, and the decision shall be treated as a precedent in future situations of an identical character.

(u) Amendment of supplement. Whenever a new standard is developed, the supplement shall be amended to set forth that standard.

(v) Public files. Public files shall be set up in all cases, including those filed before as well as after October 7, 1943 whether or not they resulted in a grant. They shall be available for public inspection at any time during the business hours of the War Production Board. The public files shall include:

1. All papers filed by the appellant in support of the appeal except those portions which contain confidential data.
2. All memoranda by War Production Board officials containing recommendations for or against the allowance of the appeal.
3. Copies of all letters of grant or denial.
4. A transcript of the record of any public hearing (or if the stenographic notes of the hearing have not been transcribed, a memorandum referring to the notes and stating how a transcript may be obtained).

(w) False representations. All grants on appeal are conditional upon the validity of the statements submitted in support thereof. Any person who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in connection with an appeal, whether orally or in writing, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both, as provided in section 35A of the United States Criminal Code.

Issued this 3d day of August 1944.

14. Provisions of Article III of Food Products Regulation No. 1 applicable to this supplement.

ARTICLE IV—PRICING APPENDICES

15. Appendices for packed vegetables priced under Pricing Method No. 1.
16. Appendices for packed fruits priced under Pricing Method No. 1.

AUTHORITY: Secs. 1 to 16, inclusive, (§ 1351.394) issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

ARTICLE I—EXPLANATION OF THE SUPPLEMENT

SECTION 1. Explanation of the supplement—(a) What products are covered by this supplement. In general, this supplement establishes maximum prices for the 1944 and later packs of the canned fruits, berries and vegetables listed below, and others which may be added from time to time. It also covers other closely related packed food products. However, this supplement does not apply to any listed product which is packed and sold as "baby food", as "junior food", or as "soup". It covers most of the products which were covered by Maximum Price Regulation 306[2], Certain Packed Food Products plus certain additional products.

The general pricing provisions relating to all of the products covered by this supplement will be found in the section listed in Column 3 of the following table. Special pricing provisions which are applicable to particular products or groups of products are set forth in the sections and appendices listed in Column 4.

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3	Column 4
Item No.	Product	Section	Section	Appendix
1	Spinach	5	15	A
2	Asparagus	5	15	B
3	Cherries (red sour pitted).	5	16	A

The provisions of this supplement apply to products packed during the year 1944 (and after), except that as to products on which a subsidy is payable the supplement applies to products packed during the period March 1, 1944 to April 30, 1945 (see section 5 (a) (1) (iii)). If the major portion of the pack of any product, other than a product on which a subsidy is payable, was packed during 1944, the product shall be deemed to be of the 1944 pack.

In addition, the supplement provides maximum prices for resale of earlier years' packs which have been purchased from the government (see section 8).

(b) What sellers are covered by this supplement. This supplement applies to sales by all persons except wholesalers and retailers.

However, sales and deliveries of products covered by this supplement by a processor in any calendar year in which his total volume of sales of the products does not exceed 1,500 quarts (or an equivalent amount in other container sizes) are not subject to the maximum prices or other requirements imposed by this supplement.

(c) Where this supplement applies. This supplement applies in the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(d) What this supplement supersedes. This supplement supersedes the provisions of all other maximum price regulations and orders as to the commodities and sellers covered.

The "effective date" of this supplement as to any product covered by it shall be the date when the pricing provisions of the supplement first became applicable to it.

SEC. 2. Applicability of Food Products Regulation No. 1. Important: Not all of the provisions affecting the maximum prices of the listed packed food products are stated in this supplement. Those which are not specifically set forth here are stated in Food Products Regulation No. 1, and they are just as much a part of this supplement as if they were printed here. The "explanation of the regulation" is also a part of this supplement.

The particular sections of Food Products Regulation No. 1 which are applicable to this supplement are listed in appropriate places in the following sections (in each case, the section number set forth in parentheses is the appropriate section number of Food Products Regulation No. 1). When any applicable section of the regulation is amended, the amendment also is applicable to this supplement.

SEC. 3. Definitions. (a) When used in this supplement the term:

"Packed" means processed and enclosed in any container, whether or not hermetically sealed. However, the term does not include any product when processed by freezing, drying or dehydrating, or brining, nor does it include any of the packed products known as preserves, relishes or pickles.

"Packed fruits" means any specified packed fruit, mixture of fruits, juice and nectar or any mixture of juices, or products made from specified fruits.

"Packed berries" means any specified packed berry, mixture of berries, juice and nectar or any mixture of juices, or products made from specified berries.

"Packed vegetables" means any specified packed vegetable, mixture of vegetables, juice or any mixture of juices, or products made from specified vegetables.

"Secondary processor" means a processor who purchases the kind of processed product being priced in bulk, barrels or other large containers and further processes and repacks it in containers other than the original container in which the commodity was shipped to him.

"Price range" means the range of prices named in the applicable appendix for a particular grade, variety and container type and size of product within which all maximum prices for processors of items of that description must fall.

"F. O. B. shipping point" means f. o. b. factory in cases where the processor sold the item being priced on an f. o. b. factory basis during the applicable base period. It means f. o. b. branch warehouse in cases where he sold it from branch warehouses during that period.

(b) The definitions of the following terms, set forth in the designated sections

ARTICLE II—PRICING PROVISIONS

SEC. 4. Explanation of pricing methods for processors. Processors' maximum prices for the products covered by this supplement are figured under two general methods.

(a) Pricing Method No. 1. Under Pricing Method No. 1, as set forth in section 5, the processor in most cases figures his maximum price by taking his weighted average selling price for the item being priced during the first 60 days after the beginning of the 1941 pack (or other base period named in the applicable appendix) and adding a specified permitted increase. The resulting figure is the processor's "gross maximum price" (that is, the maximum price before subtraction of any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product), provided that it falls within the price range fixed for the item in the appendix. If it is higher than the highest price named in the price range, the processor's gross maximum price is the highest price named in the price range. Likewise, if it is lower than the lowest price named in the price range, the processor's gross maximum price is the lowest price named in the price range.

For sales to government procurement agencies, the processor figures his maximum price by taking 96% of his gross maximum price. (Gross maximum prices, it should be remembered, must fall within the applicable price range).

If the processor sold the particular product during the base period, but only in a grade, style, or container type or size which is different from the one being priced, or for which no price range is provided, he figures his maximum price by the same general pricing method, supplemented by the use of conversion factors (for different container types and sizes, different styles, and different grades). In each case the conversion factors to be used are set forth in the appendix applicable to the product.

If the processor was not in business during 1941 or if he made no sales of the product during the base period, he figures his gross maximum price for the item being priced by using as his gross maximum price the specific dollars-and-cents price named in the applicable appendix. In cases where a specific dollars-and-cents price is not provided for the item, he figures his gross maximum price by applying the appropriate conversion factors to the specific dollars-and-cents price named for the nearest container size, style and grade of the product.

For any item of a product on which a direct subsidy is payable, the processor figures his maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies by subtracting from his gross maximum price the amount of the subsidy payable per unit of the finished product. The amount of the subsidy to be subtracted is specifically set forth in the applicable appendix for each container size for which a price range is established, and the amount of the subsidy for any other container size being priced must be figured by applying the appropriate conversion factors named in the appendix.

(b) Pricing Method No. 1. Products which are not priced under Pricing Method No. 1 will be priced under Pricing Method No. 2, to be set forth in section 6. The details of this pricing method will be announced later.

SEC. 5. Maximum prices for sales by processors—Pricing Method No. 1; products covered by Pricing Method No. 1. The products covered by Pricing Method No. 1 are listed below:

Packed fruits:
Apples.
Applesauce.
Apricots.
Cherries (red sour pitted).
Cherries (sweet).
Fruit cocktail.
Peaches.
Pears.
Prunes (packed from fresh prunes).
Packed vegetables:
Asparagus.
Beans (snap).
Beets.
Corn (sweet).
Peas.
Spinach.
Tomatoes.
Tomato juice.

NOTE: Not all of the packed fruits and vegetables above are covered by this supplement as originally issued. Others will be added later. A listed product may be priced under this supplement only on and after the effective date of the supplement or amendment (as the case may be) which provides an appendix covering that product (see section 1 for the list of products which this supplement covers).

(a) Maximum prices for sales by processors to purchasers other than government procurement agencies of products sold during the base period. For products sold in any form during the base period, the processor figures his maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies under this paragraph (a), under the particular subparagraph listed below which is applicable to the item being priced:

To price items sold during the base period and for which price ranges are provided. (See subparagraph (1) below).

To price items sold during the base period but for which price ranges are not provided. (See subparagraph (2) below).

To price items not sold during the base period but for which price ranges are provided. (See subparagraph (3) below).

To price items not sold during the base period and for which price ranges are not provided. (See subparagraph (4) below).

The processor who performs the wholesale or retail function with respect to the item being priced (that is by warehousing and selling it in less-than-carload quantities, from a branch warehouse owned or controlled by him, to retailers, or to commercial, industrial or institutional users) shall, in each case, figure his maximum price for sales in this manner under the general pricing methods of this paragraph (a) except that he shall not apply the limitations of the price range in any situation covered by this paragraph.

(1) To price items sold during the base period and for which price ranges are provided. For sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, of an item which he sold during the base period, and for which a price range is provided, as follows. He shall:

(i) Determine the base price. First, the processor shall figure his weighted average price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for the item being priced during the first 60 days after the beginning of the 1941 pack or other base period named in the appendix covering the particular product. (This average price will be called the "base price"). "Weighted average price" means the total gross sales dollars charged for the item during the base period divided by the number of dozens of containers or other units of that item sold. All sales made in the regular course of business during the base period shall be included, regardless of the date of delivery, except sales made to the armed forces of the United States. Sales contracts made at times other than during the base period shall not be included, even though delivery was made during the base period. The processor shall figure a separate weighted average price for each item, except that a single weighted average price shall be figured for items which differ only in brand name. (Subgrades shall also be ignored.)

(ii) Add the permitted increase. Next, the processor shall add to the base price the permitted increase named for the item in the applicable appendix. The resulting figure is the processor's "gross maximum price" per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies: Provided, That it falls within the applicable price range. However, if it is higher than the highest price named in the price range, the processor's gross maximum price is the highest price named in the price range. Likewise, if it is lower than the lowest price named in the price range, the processor's gross maximum price is the lowest price named in the price range.

(iii) Subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product. Finally, as to any product for which a subsidy is payable, the processor shall subtract from his gross maximum price the amount of the direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies.

NOTE: The Commodity Credit Corporation's subsidy program covers certain canned foods as defined in the Definitions and Standards of Identity issued under the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, packed from tomatoes, green peas, sweet corn and snap beans grown during the calendar year 1944 and sold and delivered to canners for canning during the period March 1, 1944 to April 30, 1945, inclusive.

Illustrations of how maximum prices are figured under subparagraph (1). Pricing items sold during the base period and for which price ranges are provided. The permitted increase provided in Table 3 of Appendix A (section 15) for processors whose factories are located in Area 3 for No. 2½ size cans of spinach is $.32. The range of prices in Table 3 for fancy spinach packed in No. 2½ size cans in this area is: lower limit of range $1.47 and upper limit of range $1.54.

Example 1. The X Canning Company whose factory is located in Arkansas has figured a weighted average price during the first 60 days after the beginning of the 1941 spring and fall packs of $1.27 per dozen for fancy spinach packed in No. 2½ size cans. To this figure the company adds $.32, the permitted increase named in Appendix A ($1.27 plus $.32 equals $1.59). Since this resulting figure of $1.59 is higher than the upper limit of the price range ($1.54), the X Canning Company's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies is $1.54 per dozen. (No subsidy is payable as to this product).

Example 2. The Y Canning Company whose factory is also located in Arkansas has figured a weighted average price during the first 60 days after the beginning of the 1941 spring and fall packs of $1.05 per dozen for fancy spinach, packed in No. 2½ cans. To this figure the company adds the permitted increase of $.32 ($1.05 plus $.32 equals $1.37). Since the resulting figure of $1.37 is lower than the lowest price named in the price range, the Y Canning Company's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies is $1.47 per dozen. (No subsidy is payable as to this product).

Example 3. The Z Canning Company whose factory is located in Arkansas has figured a weighted average price during the first 60 days after the beginning of the 1941 spring and fall packs of $1.18 per dozen for No. 2½ size cans of fancy spinach. To this figure the company adds $.32 ($1.18 plus $.32 equals $1.50). Since the resulting figure of $1.50 falls within the range of prices named for fancy spinach packed in No. 2½ cans in this area, the Z Canning Company's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies for No. 2½ size cans of fancy spinach is $1.50 per dozen. (No subsidy is payable as to this product.)

NOTE: In making conversions for grade, for style of pack, and for container type and size under subparagraph (2), (3) or (4), as a general rule steps in figuring the maximum price are to be taken in the following order (any variation from this order will be explained in the applicable appendix):

1. Convert for container type and size
2. Convert for style
3. Convert for grade
4. Add the permitted increase
5. Apply the limitations of the price range
6. Convert for grade
7. Convert for style
8. Convert for container type and size
9. Subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product.

For sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, of an item which he sold during the base period, and for which a price range is not provided, as follows. He shall:

(i) Construct a base price. First, the processor shall figure his weighted average price for the item being priced in the manner provided in paragraph (a) (1) (i), above. He shall then convert this weighted average price (by container type and size, by style and by grade, in the order named) to a base price for an item with an established price range which is nearest in container size to the item being priced, by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

(ii) Add the permitted increase. Next, the processor shall add to the constructed base price the appropriate permitted increase named in the applicable appendix and apply to this figure the limitations of the applicable price range.

(iii) Convert to a gross maximum price for the item being priced. Next, the processor shall convert the price so figured (by grade, by style and by container type and size, in the order named) to a gross maximum price for the item being priced, by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

(iv) Subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product. Finally, the processor shall subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies.

Illustrations of how maximum prices are figured under subparagraph (2)—Pricing items sold during the base period but for which price ranges are not provided:

Example 4. The B Canning Company whose factory is located in New York sold RSP cherries packed in water in No. 303 cans during the base period. It is now pricing RSP cherries in water in No. 303 cans. Since Table 3 in Section 16, Appendix A, does not provide a permitted increase and price range for No. 303 cans, the company must convert its weighted average price for the No. 303 size cans of the product to a base price for the nearest container size for which a price range is provided, which in this case is the No. 2 size cans. The company has figured a weighted average price during the base period for RSP cherries packed in No. 303 cans of $1.25. To convert this figure to a No. 2 size can, it multiplies it by 1.15 the conversion factor named in Table 5 of Appendix A ($1.25 times 1.15=$1.4375). To this figure the company adds $.53 the permitted increase named in Table 3. ($1.4375 plus $.53=$1.9675). Since this figure is lower than the lowest price named in the price range for No. 2 size cans of the product, it uses $1.97 the lowest price in the range, to continue its computations. It now converts the figure $1.97 to a maximum price for the No. 303 size can by multiplying it by .87 the conversion factor named in Table 5 for converting to a No. 303 size can ($1.97 times .87=$1.7139). The B Canning Company's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies for No. 303 cans of RSP cherries in water is $1.71. (Subparagraph (iv) is not used in figuring the maximum price as to this product as no subsidy is payable on it).

(3) To price items not sold during the base period but for which price ranges are provided. (See note at beginning of subparagraph (2)). For sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, of an item which he did not sell during the base period, but for which a price range is provided, as follows. He shall:

(i) Construct a base price. First, the processor shall select from the items of the product which he sold in the base period that item which is nearest in container size to the item being priced and figure its weighted average price in the manner provided in subdivision (a) (1) (i), above. He shall then convert this weighted average price (by container type and size, by style and by grade, in the order named) to a base price for the item being priced, by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

(ii) Add the permitted increase. Next, the processor shall add to the constructed base price the appropriate permitted increase named in the applicable appendix and apply to this figure the limitations of the applicable price range.

(iii) Subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product. Finally, the processor shall subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies.

Illustrations of how maximum prices are figured under subparagraph (3)—Pricing items not sold during the base period but for which price ranges are provided:

Example 5. The C Canning Company whose factory is located in Michigan is now pricing standard, water pack RSP cherries packed in No. 2 cans. During the base period 1941 this company sold RSP cherries of the following grades, styles of pack, and container types and sizes:

Fancy RSP cherries 30° syrup in 303 cans.
Standard RSP cherries in water in #10 cans.

The C Company selects the No. 303 size cans of RSP cherries because it is the nearest in container size to the No. 2 size can which it is now pricing and figures its weighted average price to be $1.52. The company then converts this weighted average price for the No. 303 can to a base price for the No. 2 can by multiplying it by 1.15 the conversion factor named in Table 5 of Appendix A for converting from a No. 303 can to a No. 2 can. ($1.52 times 1.15=$1.7480). The resulting figure $1.7480 is a base price for No. 2 size cans of Fancy RSP cherries, 30° syrup. However, since the company is pricing #2 size can of Standard, Water pack RSP cherries, it must subtract from $1.7480 the differentials for syrup and grade specified in Tables 6 and 7 of Appendix A. (These are $0.20 for grade differences between fancy and standard; and $0.15 for syrup.) ($1.7480 minus $0.35=$1.3980.) To this base price the C Company adds $0.72 the permitted increase named in Table 3 of Appendix A for Area 2 ($1.3980+$0.72=$2.1180). Since the resulting figure is within the price range for Area 2, the company's maximum price is $2.12 for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies. (Subtraction of a subsidy is not involved as to this product.)

(4) To price items not sold during the base period and for which price ranges are not provided. (See note at beginning of subparagraph (2)).

Two different situations are involved when pricing under this subparagraph.

For sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, of an item not sold during the base period, and for which a price range is not provided, as follows.

First situation: If during the base period the processor sold any of the items (of the same product) for which price ranges are provided, he shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, as follows. He shall:

(i) Construct a base price. First, the processor shall select from the items sold during the base period that item for which a price range is provided which is nearest in container size to the item being priced and figure its weighted average price in the manner provided in subdivision (a) (1) (i), above.

(ii) Add the permitted increase. Next, the processor shall add to the constructed base price the appropriate permitted increase and apply to this figure the limitations of the applicable price range.

(iii) Convert to a gross maximum price for the item being priced. Next, the processor shall convert the price so figured for the selected item (by grade, by style, and by container type and size, in the order named) to a gross maximum price for the item being priced, by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

(iv) Subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product. Finally, the processor shall subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies.

Second situation. If during the base period the processor did not sell any of the items (of the same product) for which price ranges are provided, he shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit f. o. b. shipping point, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, as follows. He shall:

(i) Construct a base price. First, the processor shall select from the items of the product which he sold in the base period that item which is nearest in container size to the item being priced and figure its weighted average price in the manner provided in subdivision (a) (1) (i) above. He shall then convert this weighted average price (by container type and size, by style and by grade, in the order named) to a weighted average price for the item nearest in container size for which a price range is provided by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

(ii) Add the permitted increase. Next, the processor shall add to the constructed base price the appropriate permitted increase named in the applicable appendix and apply to this figure the limitations of the applicable price range.

(iii) Convert to a gross maximum price for the item being priced. Next, the processor shall convert the price so figured for the selected item (by grade, by style, and by container type and size, in the order named) to a gross maximum price for the item being priced, by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

(iv) Subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product. Finally, the processor shall subtract any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies.

Illustrations of how maximum prices are figured under subparagraph (4). Pricing items not sold during the base period and for which price ranges are not provided:

First situation

Example 6. The E Canning Company whose factory is located in Oregon is now pricing No. 1 (picnic) cans of standard spinach. During the base period 1941, this company sold spinach of the following grades, and container types and sizes:

Fancy spinach packed in No. 2 cans.

Fancy spinach packed in No. 10 cans.

The E Company selects the No. 2 can because it is the nearest container size for which a price range is provided to the No. 1 (picnic) can which is being priced. It then figures the weighted average price for the No. 2 can to be $.95 per dozen. To this figure the company adds $.38 the permitted increase named in Table 3, Appendix A, of section 18, ($.95 plus $.38=$1.33). Since this figure is lower than the lowest price named for fancy spinach in Area 2, the company uses $1.36, the lowest price in the price range, to continue its computation. The company subtracts $.10, the difference between Fancy and Standard grades of spinach named in Table 7 of Appendix A, from $1.36, ($1.26 minus $.10=$1.26). This figure is then converted to a maximum price for the No. 1 (picnic) can being priced by multiplying it by .65 the conversion factor named in Table 5, Appendix A for converting from a No. 2 to a 1 (picnic) can. ($1.26 times .65 = $.8190). The E Company's maximum price for No. 1 (picnic) cans of Standard spinach is $.82 per dozen for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies. (Subtraction of a subsidy is not involved as to this product).

Second situation

Example 7. The D Canning Company whose factory is located in Oregon is now pricing 8 ounce size cans of Fancy spinach. During the base period, 1941, this company sold spinach of the following grades, and container types and sizes.

Fancy spinach packed in No. 2½ cans.

Standard spinach packed in No. 1 (picnic) cans.

The D Company selects the No. 1 (picnic) can because it is nearest in container size to the 8 ounce size can which it is now pricing and figures its weighted average price to be $.70 per dozen. The company then converts this weighted average price for the No. 1 (picnic) can to a constructed base price for the No. 2 can by multiplying it by 1.54 the conversion factor named in Table 5, Appendix A, of section 18 for converting from a No. 1 (picnic) can to a No. 2 can ($.70 times 1.54=$1.0780). The resulting figure is a base price for No. 2 size cans of Standard spinach. To this figure the company adds $.10 ($1.078 plus $.10=$1.1780) the differential between grades named in Table 7 of Appendix A. Next the company adds $.38 the permitted increase named in Table 3 for Area 2. ($1.1780 plus $.38=$1.5580.) Since this figure falls within the price range for fancy spinach packed in No. 2 cans, the company uses it to continue its computation. The company then converts this figure for the No. 2 size can to a maximum price for the 8 ounce size can which is being priced by multiplying it by .60 the conversion factor named in Table 5 of Appendix A for converting from a No. 2 can to an 8 ounce size can. ($1.5580 times .60=, $.9348). The resulting figure is the D Company's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies. (Subtraction of a subsidy is not involved as to this product.)

(b) Products not sold during the base period. For any product which was not sold in the base period, the processor shall figure his maximum price per dozen containers or other unit of the item, f. o. b. factory, for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, in the following manner:

(1) Grades, styles and container types and sizes for which specific dollars-and-cents prices are provided. If the grade, style and container type and size of the item being priced is one for which a specific dollars-and-cents price is provided, the processor shall in each case;

(i) Take the specific dollars-and-cents price named for the item in the applicable appendix (this figure is the processor's gross maximum, f. o. b. factory), and

(ii) Subtract from it any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies. For a processor who performs the wholesale or retail function, this price shall be considered a "dollars-and-cents" maximum price for the purpose of section 10 (b).

(2) Grades, styles and container types and sizes for which specific dollars-and-cents prices are not provided. If the grade, style and container type and size of the item being priced is one for which a specific dollars-and-cents price is not provided, the processor shall in each case,

(i) Take the specific dollars-and-cents price named in the applicable appendix for that container size (of the same product) which is nearest in size to the item being priced.

(ii) Convert the resulting figure (by grade, by style and by container type and size, in the order named) to a gross maximum price for the item being priced, by applying the conversion factors named in the applicable appendix.

(iii) Subtract from it any direct subsidy payable per unit of the finished product.

The resulting figure is the processor's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies. For a processor who performs the wholesale or retail function, this price shall be considered a "dollars-and-cents" maximum price for the purpose of section 10 (b).

(c) Maximum prices figured on the basis of subgrades. A processor who meets the conditions of section 11 (a) as to any item may, if he elects, figure maximum prices for the item on the basis of subgrades. Any such election applies only to that part of the pack which he has not sold and delivered prior to the filing of his election. When he makes this election as to any item, the processor may sell it at whatever prices he pleases, subject to the following limitations:

(1) The maximum price for his entire pack of the item shall not be higher than his maximum price for the item figured without regard to subgrades multiplied by the number of units sold.

(2) No selling price for any subgrade of the item shall be higher than the top of the price range applicable to the item.

(3) The processor shall not sell on the basis of subgrades, at prices higher than his maximum price for the item figured without regard to subgrades, until he has filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a statement of his election naming (i) each subgrade and the proportion of his pack of the item which he elects to sell under it, (ii) the highest price at which he elects to sell each subgrade, (iii) the actual or anticipated amount of his pack of the item, and (iv) his maximum price for the item figured without regard to subgrades. If he names an anticipated amount of pack, he shall file a supplementary statement showing his actual pack of the item, within 10 days after its completion.

(4) The number of units sold in the highest-priced subgrade shall not exceed the total number of units included in that subgrade in the seller's statement of election, and the maximum price for the entire subgrade shall be the price stated therein for that subgrade multiplied by the number of units sold. The number of units sold in the next highest-priced subgrade shall not exceed the total number of units included in that subgrade in the seller's statement of election, plus the number of units, if any, included for the highest-priced subgrade which are sold at or below the price stated for the next highest-priced subgrade, and the maximum price for the entire subgrade, plus such additional units, if any, shall be the price stated for that subgrade multiplied by the number of units sold, plus such additional units, if any. The above rule shall apply to determine the total number of units which may be sold in any lower-priced subgrade and to determine the maximum price for any such subgrade.

SEC. 6. Maximum price for sales by processors—Pricing Method No. 2. The details of Pricing Method No. 2 and the products covered by it will be announced later.

SEC. 7. Maximum prices for secondary processors and repackers. The secondary processor or repacker shall figure his maximum prices per dozen containers or other unit, f. o. b. shipping point, for those products which are purchased by him in bulk, barrels or other large containers and further processed or repacked in other containers, in each case by adding to his maximum price for the item being priced, as established under the General Maximum Price Regulation, the difference between his customary supplier's maximum price under § 1499.2 of that regulation and his maximum price for the item, f. o. b. shipping point, as figured under this supplement, converted to the same units and adjusted where necessary to include incoming freight.

SEC. 8. Maximum prices for sales by processors of prior years' packs of listed products which have been sold to them by government agencies. The maximum price for sales by a processor, to purchasers other than government procurement agencies, of that portion of an item of any product listed in section 5 or 6 of this supplement, which was packed prior to 1944 and which has been sold to the processor by a government agency, shall be that processor's maximum price, f. o. b. shipping point, as established under this supplement for the same item when packed in 1944. However, differences in brand shall be ignored.

SEC. 9. Label and labor allowances. (a) Label and labor allowances shall be made by processors in the following circumstances and in the following amounts:

(1) When the processor sells any item covered by this supplement, unlabeled or labeled with labels supplied by the purchasers, in containers no greater in content than a No. 10 can, the maximum price established under this supplement shall be reduced by $1.50 per thousand labels used (label allowance).

(2) When any item covered by this supplement is sold unlabeled in containers no greater in content than a No. 10 can, the maximum price established under this supplement shall be reduced by one cent per case (labor allowance) in addition to the allowance provided in subparagraph (1), above.

(b) In each sale to a purchaser other than a government procurement agency, where a processor makes an allowance for labels or labor under this section, he shall separately state the selling price and the amount and nature of the allowance on the invoice accompanying the sale.

SEC. 10. Provisions of Article II of Food Products Regulation No. 1 applicable to this supplement. The following provision of Food Products Regulation No. 1 are applicable to this supplement:

(a) Maximum prices for products in new container types or sizes (sec. 2.2 of FPR 1). This section shall also apply to secondary processors.

(b) Adjustment of dollars-and-cents maximum prices for processors who perform the wholesale or retail function (sec. 2.3 of FPR 1). This section applies to maximum prices figured under Section 5 (b).

(c) Elective pricing method for processor (sec. 2.4 of FPR 1). The maximum "mark-up percentage" figure is 175%.

(d) Individual authorization of maximum prices (sec. 2.5 of FPR 1). This section shall also apply to secondary processors.

(e) When the seller must figure a delivered price (sec. 2.6 of FPR 1). However, when figuring a delivered price, any processor whose transportation charges during the period January 1, 1941 to March 17, 1942 was based on the use of his own trucks, or on the use of ocean freight, and who is now compelled to use a common or contract carrier, or a different type of common or contract carrier, may add transportation charges by the new means of transportation to the same destination but under the freight tariff classification, and at the rate in effect during that period.

(f) Uniform prices where the processor or repacker has more than one factory (sec. 2.7 of FPR 1).

(g) Uniform delivered prices where the seller has customarily been selling on an f. o. b. shipping point basis (sec. 2.8 of FPR 1).

(h) Maximum prices for sales by primary distributors (sec. 2.9 of FPR 1). The maximum markup is 8%.

(i) Maximum prices for sales by distributors who are not primary distributors, wholesalers or retailers (sec. 2.10 of FPR 1).

(j) Payment of brokers (sec. 2.11 of FPR 1).

(k) Maximum prices for sales to government procurement agencies in certain cases (sec. 2.12 of FPR 1). The amount of the subsidy payable per unit of the finished product is set forth in the appendix covering the product.

(l) Special packing expenses which may be reflected in maximum prices for sales to government procurement agencies (sec. 2.13 of FPR 1).

(m) Treatment of federal and state taxes (sec. 2.14 of FPR 1).

ARTICLE III—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SEC. 11. Grades and invoices. This section applies to all sellers covered by this supplement whether the goods are packed by them or purchased by them for resale.

(a) "Grade" means the established grade as commercially understood—for example, in the case of canned peas, standard, extra-standard and fancy. The Price Administrator finds that the most accurate and complete description of each of these grades is contained in the United States Standards for Grades of processed fruits and vegetables published by the United States Department of Agriculture. The sale of any processed fruit, vegetable, or berry at a price no higher than the seller's maximum price for the claimed grade thereof shall constitute compliance with this regulation, therefore, if the goods conform to the United States Standards for that grade. Failure of such goods to conform to the United States Standards for such grade shall constitute a violation of this regulation: Provided, however, That despite such failure the sale shall not constitute a violation of this regulation if it appears that the standards as generally understood in the trade differ in any material respect from the United States Standards and that the goods meet the requirement of the claimed grade as so understood in the trade.

"Subgrade" means a subdivision of a grade, determined in each case according to the regularly established way, during the base period, in which the particular processor reflected differences in quality (within that grade) in different selling prices for the item. Whether the processor had such a practice during the base period shall be determined from his invoices, and no processor who does not meet these conditions shall figure maximum prices for the item on the basis of subgrades.

If the particular processor's individual subgrade falls into more than one grade, as defined above, the individual subgrade shall be divided according to the commercial grades into which it falls.

(b) In the case of canned fruits packed in California, Oregon or Washington, paragraph (a) shall apply, except that the count range of the Canners League of California Specifications for California Canned Fruits shall be an element in grade determination for pricing purposes.

(c) A person who purchases from a processor shall not be subject to any criminal penalty or civil enforcement action under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, in connection with the resale of any item for failure of the item to conform to the grade

(and subgrade, if any) designated on the invoices, provided he can establish that he relied in good faith upon the grade designation on the invoice furnished him by the processor.

(d) On and after July 31, 1944, each processor shall furnish the purchaser, other than a government procurement agency, at or before the time of delivery, with an invoice describing the item and separately stating its grade and subgrade, if any. In addition, he shall also show the syrup or packing medium of any fruits or berries sold.

(e) Nothing in this supplement shall be construed to change any of the requirements of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, or any regulation issued under it.

SEC. 12. Container sizes. When used in this supplement the containers named below refer to containers of the dimensions or overflow capacity indicated.

APPENDIX B—ASPARAGUS

Explanation and example of how maximum prices are figured for asparagus. In making conversions for grade, for style of pack, and for container type and size, under subparagraph (2), (3) or (4) of the supplement in the case of asparagus the order in which the steps in figuring the maximum price are to be taken differ from those specified in the note at the beginning of section 5 (a) (2) of the supplement. In figuring a maximum price under subparagraph (2), (3) or (4) for asparagus steps are to be taken in the order indicated below in all cases, although in many cases not all of the steps are necessary. In all cases, where the processor is figuring a maximum price for a different style of pack of asparagus than packed in the base period, he must add the permitted increase for the same style of pack as packed in the base period before converting for the change in style for the reason that the permitted increases for all styles of pack are different.

Order in which steps are to be taken in figuring a maximum price for asparagus under subparagraph (2), (3) and (4) of section 5 (a).

1. Convert for container type and size.
2. Add permitted increase specified in Table 8 for style of pack sold in base period.
3. Convert for style.
4. Convert for grade.
5. Apply the limitations of the price range.
6. Convert for container types and size.

Example. The A Canning Company whose factory is located in Washington sold Fancy, All Green Colossal Asparagus Spears in #1 picnic cans during the base period. This company is now pricing Standard All Green Cut Spears in 8 oz. cans.

The A company figures its weighted average price for No. 1 picnic cans during the base period to be $1.95 per dozen. The company then converts this figure to a base price for a No. 2 can, the nearest container size for which a price range is provided by multiplying it by 1.60 the conversion factor named in Table 5 (part 2) for converting from a No. 1 picnic to a No. 2 can ($1.95×1.60=$3.12). To this figure the company adds the permitted increase of $.90 specified in Table 8 (part 2) for this area for all Green Colossal Spears in No. 2 cans. ($3.12 plus 90¢=$4.02). From this figure the company subtracts $.50 the style difference between All Green Colossal Spears and Cut Spears specified in Table 6 (part 2) ($4.02−50¢=$3.52). From the resulting figure the company subtracts 20¢ the grade difference between Fancy and Standard specified in Table 7. ($3.52−20¢=$3.32). The company then checks this figure to see if it falls within the price range specified in Table 8 (part 2) for All Green Cut Spears, Standard Grade in No. 2 cans for Area 2. Since the resulting figure is higher than the highest price named in the range for this item, the company used $2.79 the highest price named in the price range, to continue its computation. The company then converts this figure to a maximum price for the 8 oz. size can which is being priced by multiplying it by .46 the conversion factor named in Table 5 (part 2) for converting from No. 2 can to an 8 oz. can ($2.79 times .46=$1.2834). The A company's maximum price for sales to purchasers other than government procurement agencies for All Green Cut Spears Standard Grade packed in 8 oz. cans is $1.28 per dozen.

PART 1420—BREWERY, WINERY AND DISTILLERY PRODUCTS

[MPR 445,[1] Amdt. 17]

DISTILLED SPIRITS AND WINES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 445 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1.11 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 1.11 Dates on which this article shall apply. This article shall apply to all sales or offers to sell of bulk or packaged imported distilled spirits and wine made by an importer on and after August 30, 1943: Provided, That this article shall not apply to any sale which an importer is required by statute, ordinance or regulation to make at a price posted or listed prior to August 14, 1943, with a state or other public authority (if the price so posted or listed is greater or less than that established by this article for such sale) until on and after the first effective date for prices so posted or listed at the

Maximum prices set forth in columns 2 and 4 also include the amount of United States excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1943

4. Section 2.3 (i) is added to read as follows:

(i) Maximum prices for bulk domestic gin and bulk domestic vodka. Any seller's maximum price per proof gallon of bulk domestic gin and bulk domestic vodka for sales in any quantity to a customer of any class shall be the total of the following amounts applicable to the quantity being priced.

(1) Seller's price. 69½¢ per proof gallon, naked, f. o. b. seller's premises. This amount for bulk domestic gin includes Federal rectification taxes.

(2) Container cost. If the seller furnishes the containers in which the bulk domestic gin or bulk domestic vodka is packed and such containers become the property of the customer upon delivery of such gin or vodka, the seller may make a separate charge for the containers not in excess of his maximum price therefor.

(3) Freight. For sales on a delivered basis, the seller may add transportation charges per proof gallon from his point of shipment to the place of delivery at the rate actually paid (exclusive of expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of such point of place).

(4) Tax paid sales. (i) With respect to bulk domestic vodka, the amount of United States excise taxes and Federal rectification taxes paid by the seller to the taxing authority or to a prior vendor.

(ii) With respect to bulk domestic gin, the amount of United States excise taxes paid by the seller to the taxing authority or the prior vendor.

NOTE: The maximum price set forth above includes all excise and processing taxes of any state or subdivision thereof at rates in effect on November 2, 1942 and storage and all other charges applicable to the quantity being priced and accrued to date of sale together with brokerage commissions, if any, paid by the seller incident to the particular sale.

5. Section 2.4a is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2.4a Maximum prices for bulk domestic neutral spirits produced from any material and bulk domestic high wines manufactured from cane or grain. (a) Any seller's maximum price to any class of customers for sales of bulk domestic neutral spirits produced from any material except grain or for sales of bulk domestic high wines manufactured from cane or grain (as defined in section 7.12 (a) (44) and (48) shall be his maximum price therefor established under § 1499.2 (a) (1) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Sellers who are unable to establish maximum prices for these items pursuant to § 1499.2 (a) (1) of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall determine their maximum prices by application pursuant to section 2.2 (c).

(b) Any seller's maximum price per proof gallon for sales of bulk domestic neutral spirits produced from grain in any quantity to any class of customers shall be the total of the following amounts applicable to the quantity being priced:

(1) Seller's price. 59½¢ per proof gallon, naked, f. o. b. seller's premises.

(2) Container cost. If the seller furnishes the containers in which the bulk domestic neutral spirits are packed and such containers become the property of the customer upon delivery of such spirits, the seller may make a separate charge for the containers not in excess of the following amounts:

(i) 2½¢ per proof gallon, where barrels are used; or

(ii) 3½¢ per proof gallon where steel drums are used.

(3) Freight. For sales on a delivered basis the seller may add transportation charges per proof gallon from his point of shipment to the place of delivery at the rate actually paid (exclusive of expense of hauling, draying or handling within the metropolitan area of such point or place.

NOTE: Maximum prices set forth above include all excise and processing taxes of any state or subdivision thereof at rates in effect on November 2, 1943 and storage and all other charges applicable to the quantity being priced and accrued to date of sale together with brokerage commissions, if any, paid by the seller incident to the particular sale.

6. Section 2.6a is added to read as follows:

SEC. 2.6a Grain neutral spirits acquired by custom processing. If a person acquires grain neutral spirits for which maximum prices are established by this regulation by separately purchasing the raw material and the service by which the raw material is converted into grain neutral spirits, the total amount paid by him for the raw material and the service may not exceed the maximum price that would apply if the grain neutral spirits were sold to him by the person furnishing the service.

7. Section 2.7 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2.7 Dates on which this article shall apply. This article shall apply to all sales, and offers to sell and deliveries of the commodities specified therein made on and after October 7, 1943: Provided, That this article shall not apply to deliveries made on and before October 21, 1943 pursuant to sales or contracts to sell made prior to October 1, 1943: And provided further, That an amendment to this article shall not apply to any deliveries made prior to the effective date of such amendment.

8. Section 3.2 (a) (3) of Article III is revoked and a new section 3.2 (a) (3) is substituted therefor to read as follows:

(3) For domestic gin and domestic vodka only, the processor may elect to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price determined as provided in Appendix H; or

9. Section 3.2 (a) (4) of Article III is added to read as follows:

(4) For all classifications of domestic distilled spirits (except where a maximum price can be established under Appendix A or where the processor elects or is required to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price under either Appendix E or Appendix H), the special maximum price by authorization determined as provided in Appendix F.

9a. Section 3.2 (b) (2) is amended by adding the words "domestic vodka" following the words "domestic gin".

10. Section 3.2 (b) (5), to but not including the note, is revoked and the note is transferred following section 3.2 (b) (6), and a new section 3.2 (b) (5) is substituted to read as follows:

(5) For domestic gin and domestic vodka only, the processor may elect to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price determined as provided in Appendix H.

11. Section 3.2 (b) (6) is added to read as follows:

(6) For all classifications of domestic distilled spirits (except where a maximum price can be established under appendices B through D, inclusive, or where the processor elects or is required to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price under Appendix E or Appendix H, the special maximum price by authorization determined as provided in Appendix F.

12. Section 3.2 (c) (2) is revoked and a new section 3.2 (c) (2) is added to read as follows:

(2) For domestic gin and domestic vodka only, the prescribed uniform maximum prices determined as provided in Appendix H.

13. Section 3.2 (c) (3) is added to read as follows:

(3) For all classifications of domestic distilled spirits (except for sales of domestic whiskey, for which maximum prices can be established under Appendix E, and domestic gin and domestic vodka, for which maximum prices can be established under Appendix H), the special maximum price by authorization determined as provided in Appendix F.

14. Section 3.3 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Article III provides several pricing methods for processors sales of items of packaged domestic distilled spirits. Those pricing methods are set forth in detail in appendices A through H and specific rules are provided therein for each pricing method. One of those methods requires processors of items of domestic whiskey of a brand name not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price for the item. That method, set forth in Appendix E, applies only to items of domestic whiskey. Another method, which applies only to items of domestic gin and domestic vodka, requires processors of these commodities of a brand name, not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price for the items under Appendix H. From time to time appendices will be added in which prescribed uniform maximum prices will likewise be provided for items of other classifications of domestic distilled spirits such as brandy, rum, cordials and liqueurs. Until such time as prescribed uniform maximum prices for these classifications are added to this article, processors of items of those classifications, of a brand name not sold or offered for sale during March 1942 must establish special maximum prices by authorization in accordance with the provisions of Appendix F.

15. Section 3.3 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Processors of items of a brand name, container size and formula (including proof) which they sold or offered for sale during March 1942, regardless of the classification thereof, are required to establish March 1942 maximum prices under Appendix A for sales to customers of a particular class to which the item was sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942. Where the sale is to a customer of a different class, the processor must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F. However, for items of domestic whiskey, the processor may elect to establish prescribed uniform maximum prices under Appendix E and for items of domestic gin and domestic vodka the processor may elect to establish prescribed uniform maximum prices under Appendix H. Where the processor elects to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price for any item of domestic whiskey, domestic gin or domestic vodka he must, after making a sale at such price, establish prescribed uniform maximum prices for all sales thereafter to any purchaser of any item of the same classification bearing the same brand name.

16. Section 3.3 (c) (1) (iii) is amended by adding the phrase "or appendix H" following the words "Appendix E" in the third line.

17. Section 3.7 is amended by adding the clause "And provided further, That an amendment to this article shall not apply to any deliveries made prior to the effective date of such amendment."

17a. Paragraphs (a) (1), (a) (2) and (a) (3) of Appendix G are amended by inserting the words "or Appendix H," following the word "inclusive" which appears in each such paragraph.

18. "Appendix H" is added to read as follows:

APPENDIX H—PRESCRIBED UNIFORM MAXIMUM PRICES

(a) Rules for establishing maximum prices under Appendix H. (1) The prescribed uniform maximum prices provided in this appendix are applicable only to items of domestic gin and domestic vodka. All other classifications of domestic distilled spirits must be priced under other applicable provisions of Article III.

(2) All items of domestic gin and domestic vodka of a brand name not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 must be priced under this appendix. Any item of domestic gin or domestic vodka whether or not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 may be priced under this appendix. However, after once making a sale of an item of domestic gin or domestic vodka at a prescribed uniform maximum price provided in this appendix, maximum prices for all sales thereafter of any item of the same classification bearing the same brand name, of any proof or in any container size must be established under this appendix.

(3) Any change whatsoever in the brand name of an item of domestic gin or domestic vodka sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 shall be deemed to be a new brand name, and the item so changed must be priced under this appendix.

(4) Prescribed uniform maximum prices are applicable only to the particular classes of customers specified in this appendix. For all other classes of customers a special maximum price by authorization must be established under Appendix F.

(b) Procedures for establishing prescribed uniform maximum prices. The processor's maximum price per case, for sales of an item of packaged domestic gin or packaged domestic vodka to customers of the classes specified below, shall be the prescribed uniform maximum prices determined as follows:

(1) Processors' sales to wholesalers and monopoly states (i) Ascertain from Table I (for gin) or Table II (for vodka) the applicable maximum price per case of quarts or fifths, respectively at 80° proof.

NOTE: The prices shown in Tables I and II are at 80° proof in quarts and fifths. They are completed prices for items at 80° proof in quarts and fifths, except for applicable state and local taxes for which see (iv) below.

(ii) Where the proof of the item to be priced is greater than 80°, ascertain from Table I (for gin) or Table II (for vodka) the applicable proof adjustment in accordance with the container size, and multiply such proof adjustment figure by a figure equal to the difference between 80 and the number of degrees of proof of the item to be priced. Add the resulting figure to the amount determined in (i).

(iii) Where the container sizes to be priced are either pints or half-pints, add to the resulting figure in (ii) per case of quarts $.60 if pints are to be priced and $1.35 if half-pints.

(iv) Where state or local excise taxes apply, add to the figure obtained in (i), (ii) or (iii), the applicable amount of any state or local excise tax in effect on November 2, 1942: Provided, That the amount of such tax imposed is actually paid or has accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority or to any prior vendor: And provided further, That the amount of such tax once so added shall not again be added to the maximum prices established under subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph (b).

The resulting figure in (i), (ii), (iii) or (iv), as the case may be, is the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price, f. o. b. bottling plant, for sales to wholesalers and monopoly states of an item of packaged domestic gin or packaged domestic vodka.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increase effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(2) Processors' sales to primary distributing agents. The processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case, f. o. b. bottling plant, of packaged domestic gin or packaged domestic vodka for sales to primary distributing agents shall be the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case, f. o. b. bottling plant, for sales of the item to wholesalers and monopoly states (determined as provided in subparagraph (1) above), subject to any discount, allowance or price differential agreed upon by the particular processor and primary distributing agent.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increase effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(3) Processors' sales to retailers—(i) Sales of items shipped directly to the retailer's premises from the bottling plant. The processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case of packaged domestic gin or packaged domestic vodka for sales of an item shipped directly to the retailer's premises from the bottling plant shall be figured by the processor as follows:

(a) Determine the prescribed uniform maximum price per case, f. o. b. bottling plant, in accordance with subparagraph (1) above, for his sales of the item to wholesalers and monopoly states (excluding, however, the increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes or new or increased state or local excise taxes effective after November 2, 1942).

(b) Add to the figure so obtained the applicable amount of any state or local excise tax at rates in effect on November 2, 1942: Provided, That the amount of such tax is actually paid by the processor.

(c) Multiply the resulting figure in (b) by the percentage markup provided in section 5.4 (b) (1) (i) of Article V for sales of packaged gin and vodka by wholesalers to retailers.

(d) Add to the resulting figure in (c) the actual amount of transportation charges paid by the processor if such charges are prepaid by him.

The resulting figure in (c) or (d), as the case may be, is the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case for sales of an item shipped directly to the retailer's premises from the bottling plant.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(ii) Sales of items shipped to the retailer's premises from the processor's zone warehouse. The processor's prescribed uniform maximum price for sales of an item of packaged domestic gin or vodka shipped to the retailer's premises from the processor's zone warehouse shall be figured by the processor as follows:

(a) Determine the prescribed uniform maximum price per case, f. o. b. bottling plant, in accordance with subparagraph (1) above, for his sales of the item to wholesalers and monopoly states (excluding, however, the increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes or new or increased state or local excise taxes effective after November 2, 1942).

(b) Add to the figure so obtained the actual amount of transportation charges paid by the processor for shipment from the bottling plant to his zone warehouse. No amount shall be included for local hauling, loading, unloading, drayage or other handling.

(c) Add to the resulting figure in (b), the applicable amount of any state or local excise tax at rates in effect on November 2, 1942: Provided, That the amount of such tax is actually paid by the processor.

(d) Multiply the resulting figure in (c) by the percentage markup provided in section 5.4 (b) (1) (i) of Article V for sales of packaged gin and vodka by wholesalers to retailers.

The resulting figure in (d) is the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case, delivered to the retailer's premises, for his sales of an item to a retailer located within the area of the processor's zone warehouse, and it is also the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case, f. o. b. zone warehouse, for sales of an item to a retailer located outside of the metropolitan area of such warehouse.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(4) Processors' sales to consumers. The processor's prescribed uniform maximum price provided in subparagraph (1) for sales of the item to wholesalers and monopoly states (excluding, however, the increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes or new or increased state or local excise taxes effective after November 2, 1942) plus the additions provided in section 5.3 (b) (2) and (3) (i) of Article V and the total thereof multiplied by the percentage markup provided in section 5.5 (b) (1) (i) of Article V for sales of packaged gin and vodka by retailers to consumers, shall be the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price for sales of the item to consumers.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increase effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(c) Reports required to be filed. On or before the date of making the first sale of an item at a prescribed uniform maximum price established under this appendix, the processor shall, by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., report the maximum price so established. The letter-report shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the processor filing the report.

(2) A statement that the report is filed under Appendix H to Article III of MPR 445.

(3) The brand name, container size and proof of the item which is the subject of the report. (Attach front and back labels to letter-report.)

(4) The prescribed uniform maximum price for the item which is the subject of the report, and a statement showing the steps taken by the processor to figure such price, in accordance with the procedures provided in this appendix.

(5) A list of all items of the same brand name sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, if any.

Neither acceptance nor failure to act upon a letter-report filed under this paragraph shall constitute approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum prices so reported.

TABLE I—PROCESSORS' PRESCRIBED UNIFORM MAXIMUM PRICES FOR PACKAGED DOMESTIC GIN

	3 gallon case of quarts	2.4 gallon case of fifths
Price at 80° proof	$19.28	$15.72
Adjustment per degree of proof	.2222	.1778

NOTE: The prices in Table I include applicable Federal excise taxes in effect on November 2, 1942 and Federal Rectification Tax. These prices do not include any local or state taxes or the increase in Federal excise taxes effective April 1, 1944.

TABLE II—PROCESSORS' PRESCRIBED UNIFORM MAXIMUM PRICES FOR PACKAGED DOMESTIC VODKA

	3 gallon case of quarts	2.4 gallon case of fifths
Price at 80° proof	$20.09	$16.37
Adjustment per degree of proof	.2324	.1859

NOTE: The prices in Table II include applicable Federal excise taxes in effect on November 2, 1942 and Federal Rectification Tax. These prices do not include any local or state taxes or the increase in Federal excise taxes effective April 1, 1944.

(d) Determining amount of increase effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes. The amount of the increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes which a processor may add to prescribed uniform maximum prices determined under this appendix shall, in each instance, be figured by multiplying $3.00 by the number of proof gallons in the case being priced.

19. Section 4.12 (c) is amended by adding a sentence thereto to read as follows: "An amendment to this article shall not apply to any deliveries made prior to the effective date of such amendment."

20. Section 5.3 (b) (3) (i) (a) is added to read as follows:

(a) With respect to purchases by a wholesaler from another wholesaler, state and local excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942 of the state in which either the purchasing wholesaler or the selling wholesaler has his principal place of business, whichever is lower.

21. Section 5.4 (b) (1) is amended by adding the phrase "except from another wholesaler" following the word "supplier."

22. Section 5.11 is amended by adding the following clause: "And provided further, That an amendment to this article shall not apply to any deliveries made prior to the effective date of such amendment."

23. Section 7.12 (a) is amended by adding subparagraphs (51) and (52) to read as follows:

(51) "Domestic gin" means gin (either distilled or compound) as defined in Article II, Class 3 of Regulations No. 5[1] produced within the continental United States.

(52) "Domestic vodka" means vodka as defined under the terms of Article III, section 34, of Regulations No. 5, so labeled, and produced within the continental United States.

This amendment shall become effective August 1, 1944.

Issued this 1st day of August 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

For the reasons set forth in the accompanying statement of considerations, and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328, I find that the level of maximum prices for packaged gin established by the accompanying amendment is necessary to correct a gross inequality, and hereby authorize its issuance.

Economic Stabilization Director.

PART 1439—UNPROCESSED AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

[MPR 426,[1] Amdt. 46]

FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES FOR TABLE USE, SALES EXCEPT AT RETAIL

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 15 of Maximum Price Regulation 426 is amended in the following respects

1. Appendix D is revoked.

2. Appendix K is amended in the following respects:

a. In paragraph (a) the word "Grapes" is added under the word "Peaches".

b. Paragraph (b) (3) is amended by adding an undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

"Standard container" in the case of grapes means (i) a closed lug box (WPB L232 No. 46), packed with table grapes produced in Riverside or Imperial County, California, or in Arizona, with a net weight of 24 pounds or more, or (ii) a closed lug box (WPB L232 No. 46), packed with table grapes produced in any other area, with a net weight of 28 pounds or more.

c. Paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) are amended to read as follows:

(c) Classification of standard containers—(1) As to peaches. For the purpose of this appendix, standard containers shall be classified as follows:

Class A	(1) Bushel basket of 2150.42 cu. in. capacity (2) One-half bushel basket of 1075.71 cu. in. capacity	Closed and packed "fairly tight" or tighter.
Class B	(1) Fruit box (WPB L232 No. 35) (2) Fruit box (WPB L232 No. 36) (3) Sanger Lug Box (WPB L232 No. 46)	Closed with a net weight within applicable weight ranges in Column 2 of the applicable table in paragraph (f).

(2) As to grapes. For the purposes of this appendix, standard containers shall be classified as follows:

Class C	(1)	A closed lug box (WPB L232 No. 46), packed with table grapes produced in Riverside or Imperial County, California, or in Arizona, with a net weight of 24 pounds or more.
	(2)	A closed lug box (WPB L232 No. 46), packed with table grapes produced in any other area, with a net weight of 28 pounds or more.

(d) Marking requirements. The grower-packer shall plainly mark each container sold by him in accordance with the requirements of State and Federal Grades and Standards Laws and of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, and

(1) As to standard containers in Class A. The grower-packer shall plainly mark each standard container in Class A sold by him to show the following:

(1) The name and address of the grower-packer.

(2) The volume of the contents.

(2) As to standard containers in Class B. The grower-packer shall plainly mark each standard container in Class B sold by him to show the following:

(1) The name and address of the grower-packer.

(2) A minimum net weight. This may be lower, but in no case higher, than the actual weight at the time of shipment from the shipping point.

The grower-packer may determine the actual net weight of contents of standard containers noted in Class B and mark the actual net weight in pounds on each container. Some grower-packers may not wish to weigh each container before marking and selling it. In order to make possible the use of reasonable estimated net weights, weight ranges have been provided for the standard containers listed above in Class B within which maximum prices do not vary. However, a grower-packer who sells without weighing all containers takes the risk that the estimated minimum net weight may exceed the actual net weight, which would be a violation of the regulation. Subsequent sellers, however, may rely on the minimum net weight marked on the container and figure their maximum prices on the basis of it.

(3) As to standard containers in Class C. The grower-packer shall plainly mark each standard container in Class C sold by him to show the following:

(1) The name and address of the grower-packer.

(2) A minimum net weight. This may be lower, but in no case higher, than the actual weight at the time of shipment from the shipping point. Subsequent sellers, however, may rely on the minimum net weight marked on the container and figure their maximum prices on the basis of it.

(4) As to non-standard containers. If a container would be a standard container in Class A except for the fact that it is not packed "fairly tight" or tighter, or if a container would be a standard container in Class B except for the fact that it has a net weight not within the weight ranges for the particular container, or if a container would be a standard container in Class C except for the fact that it has a net weight less than that specified for that particular container, or if the fruit is in any other closed container, the grower-packer shall mark the container to show the following:

(2) A minimum net weight. This may be lower, but in no case higher than the actual weight at the time of shipment from the shipping point. Subsequent sellers, however, may rely on the minimum net weight marked on the container and figure their maximum prices on the basis of it.

The weight marking requirement does not apply to open containers. (Section 14a (a) does not apply to this appendix.)

(e) How maximum prices are figured—(1) Standard containers in Class A. For standard containers in Class A, the maximum price in each case is named in columns 5 or 6 of the applicable table in paragraph (f). However, the maximum price for any container which would be a standard container except for the fact that it is not packed "fairly tight," or tighter, shall in no event be greater than the maximum price for the standard container.

(2) Standard containers in Class B. A grower-packer obtains his maximum price for any of the types of containers listed in Class B by first determining whether the net weight of the container being priced falls within any of the weight ranges established by the appendix for that type of container. If the net weight falls within an applicable weight range, the maximum price named in the price table for that container is on a container basis and it applies to all weights within that range. On the other hand, if the net weight falls outside the applicable weight ranges, the maximum price is figured by the seller on the basis of actual net weight.

(3) Standard containers in Class C. A grower-packer obtains his maximum prices for any of the types of containers listed in Class C by first determining whether the minimum net weight of the container being priced complies with the minimum net weight established by the appendix for that type of container. If it does, the maximum prices named in the price table for that container apply. On the other hand, if the net weight falls below the minimum net weight requirement, the maximum price is figured by the seller on the basis of actual net weight.

(4) Non-standard container. (i) All fruit offered for sale in closed containers which do not meet the requirements of standard containers in Class A, Class B or Class C shall be sold on the basis of actual net weight.

(ii) All fruit offered for sale in bulk or open containers shall be sold on a basis of actual net weight.

(5) The weight requirements provided in this Appendix are based on weights existing at the time of shipment from the shipping point, in the case of closed containers, and at the time of sale, in the case of open containers, unless otherwise specifically provided.

d. In paragraph (f) Table 2 is added to read as follows:

[1] A carlot distributor who resells on an f. o. b. basis may add the markup named in column 4 to the maximum f. o. b. price (see column 5 of the applicable table in paragraph (F)).

[2] The column 4 markup may be used only by a person who has purchased the grapes being priced from any person other than a grower or grower-packer selling direct or through a broker and sells in unbroken carlots or unbroken trucklots. A person who has purchased the grapes being priced from a grower or grower-packer selling direct or through a broker, and sells in unbroken carlots or unbroken trucklots shall use the markups named in the applicable columns in Table A for sales by a "shipping point distributor."

This amendment shall become effective as to maximum prices f. o. b. shipping point on 12:01 a. m., August 4, 1944, and as to all other maximum prices as follows:

(1) On August 18, 1944 for all states wholly east of the Mississippi River except Illinois and Wisconsin;

(2) On August 13, 1944 for all other states except California, Oregon and Washington;

(3) On August 7, 1944 for California, Oregon and Washington.

Issued this 2d day of August 1944.

JAMES G. ROGERS, Jr.,
Acting Administrator.

Approved July 31, 1944.

MARVIN JONES,
War Food Administrator.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, I hereby approve the prices established by the foregoing amendment and find that they are necessary as an aid to the effective prosecution of the war.

PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 120, Amdt. 114[1]]

BITUMINOUS COAL DELIVERED FROM MINE OR PREPARATION PLANT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 is amended in the following respects:

1. In § 1340.226 (b) (1), the table of production group numbers, prices and size group numbers, is amended by adding a new production group No. 14, and prices for all size groups as follows:

Production Group No.	Prices and Size Group Nos.
	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
14	590	590	590	560	------	460	------	335	420	225	------	------	------	290	------

2. In § 1340.226 (b) (2), the period at the end of the paragraph is deleted and a comma and the following are added to read as follows:

, except that such prices for Production Group No. 14 shall be:

Prices and Size Group Nos.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15
510	510	510	460	------	410	------	285	270	240	------	------	------	215	----

3. In § 1340.226 (b) (3), the table of Size Group Numbers, prices and production group numbers is amended by adding a new production group, No. 14, and prices for sizes of coal, as follows:

	Prices and Production Group Nos.
Sizes of coal	14
Railroad locomotive fuel (any size not specifically listed below)	270

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. G-568]

UNITED NATURAL GAS COMPANY

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 3, 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on July 31, 1942, United Natural Gas Company, a Pennsylvania corporation having its principal place of business in Oil City, Pennsylvania, filed with the Federal Power Commission its application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, for authority to construct and operate approximately 37½ miles of 12¾-inch O. D. pipe line beginning at the point of delivery of gas to it near the Ellwood City compressing station of The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company in Beaver County, Pennsylvania, and extending in a northerly direction to Applicant's Mineral compressing station in Venango County, Pennsylvania.

Applicant asserts that The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company heretofore filed an application with the Federal Power Commission, Docket No. G-510, for authority to construct and operate certain facilities, which would, among other things, permit the sale and delivery of ten million cubic feet of natural gas daily to Applicant, and that on July 22, 1944, an order was entered authorizing such sale. Applicant claims that the facilities described above will be required in order that it may receive and transport such gas.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 19th day of August 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by paragraph (f) of Second Revised Service Order No. 210 of July 22, 1944, permission is granted for any common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act:

To provide standard refrigeration on refrigerator cars loaded with peaches originating in North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia and West Virginia, and to fill the bunkers to capacity when initial icing or reicing such cars of peaches.

This general permit shall become effective at 6:00 p. m., August 1, 1944, and shall apply on cars loaded or rolling at that time.

The waybills shall show reference to this general permit.

A copy of this general permit has been served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and notice of this permit shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

[Vesting Order 3918]

COPYRIGHTS OF CERTAIN FOREIGN NATIONALS

In re: Copyright interests held by certain foreign-nationals.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that each person whose name, nationality, and last known address where established, is listed at the top of each page of Exhibit A attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, if an individual is a resident or citizen of, or if a business organization is organized under the laws of, and holds the nationality designated after the name of such person;

2. Finding that the persons listed in said Exhibit A jointly or severally own or control the property hereinafter described in subparagraph 3;

3. Determining that the property described as follows:

a. All right, title, interest and claim of whatsoever kind or nature, under the statutory and common law of the United States and of the several States thereof, of each person whose name, nationality, and last known address, where established, is designated at the top of each page of said Exhibit A in, to and under the following:

1. Every copyright, claim of copyright and right to copyright, or rights related thereto, in each and all of the works described in each page of said Exhibit A under the name of such person;

2. Every license, agreement, privilege, power and right of whatsoever nature arising under or with respect to any or all of the foregoing; excepting the rights of any person to renew any or all of the copyrights arising in, from or under any or all of the foregoing;

3. All monies and amounts, and all right to receive monies and amounts, by way of royalty, share of profits or other emolument, accrued or to accrue, whether arising pursuant to law, contract or otherwise, with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

4. All rights of reversion or revesting, if any, in any or all of the foregoing;

5. All causes of action accrued or to accrue at law or in equity with respect to any or all of the foregoing, including but not limited to the right to sue for and recover all damages and profits and to ask and receive any and all remedies provided by common law or statute for the infringement of any copyright or the violation of any right or the breach of any obligation described in or affecting any or all of the foregoing; is property of, or is property payable or held with respect to copyrights or rights related thereto, in which interests are held by and such property itself constitutes interests held therein by, nationals of one or more foreign countries.

4. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive Order or Act or otherwise; and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 3, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

5. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on July 11, 1944.

[MPR 64, Order 153]

KING STOVE AND RANGE CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 153 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 64. Domestic cooking and heating stoves. Approval of maximum prices for sales of a magazine type coal heater manufactured by King Stove and Range Company.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, and in accordance with sections 7 and 11 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 64, It is ordered:

(a) King Stove and Range Company, Sheffield, Alabama, may sell and deliver the model No. 160 King-O-Heat magazine coal heater which it manufactures at prices no higher than the following:

To wholesale distributors, $19.10 each in carload lots.

To wholesale distributors, $21.87 each in less than carload lots.

To retailers, $21.00 each in carload lots.

To retailers, $24.39 each in less than carload lots.

These prices are for sales and deliveries made within the area described in paragraph (e) below and include delivery to the distributor or retailer. These prices are also subject to terms, discounts, and allowances no less favorable than those granted with respect to the comparable model No. 19 King Oak heater.

(b) Any wholesale distributor may sell and deliver to retailers the model No. 160 King-O-Heat magazine coal heater manufactured by the King Stove and Range Company at a price no higher than $25.39 each. This price is for sales and deliveries made within the area described below in paragraph (e) and includes delivery to the retailer.

(c) Any person may sell and deliver at retail the model No. 160 King-O-Heat magazine coal heater manufactured by King Stove and Range Company at a price no higher than $39.50 each. This price is for sales made within the area described below in paragraph (e).

(d) At the time of or prior to the first invoice for a sale of the stove listed in this order to each purchaser for resale, on and after the effective date of this order, King Stove and Range Company, and every wholesale distributor, shall notify the purchaser, in writing, of the maximum prices and conditions set by this order for resale by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form. In addition King Stove and Range Company shall, before delivering any stove for which maximum prices are established by this order, attach securely to each stove a tag or label which plainly states the retail ceiling price established by this order for the particular model. This tag or label shall be attached to the front of each stove.

(e) The maximum prices established by this order are for sales and deliveries of the model No. 160 King-O-Heat magazine coal heater only within the District of Columbia and all States except Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, California, Arizona, Washington, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, Oregon, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, and Montana.

This order shall become effective August 4, 1944.

Issued this 3d day of August 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

BOYPOWER, INC.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 1994 under § 1499.158 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Approval of maximum prices for sales of a nest of tables manufactured by Boypower, Inc.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended and Executive Order Nos. 9250 and 9328, It is ordered:

(a) This order establishes maximum prices for sales and deliveries, of a nest of tables manufactured by Boypower, Inc., 1940 South Main, Los Angeles, California.

(1) (i) For all sales and deliveries since the effective date of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, by the manufacturer to retailers, and by the manufacturer to persons, other than retailers, who resell the article from the manufacturer's stock, the maximum prices are those set forth below:

Article	Model No.	Maximum price to persons, other than retailers, who resell from manufacturer's stock	Maximum price to retailers
		Each	Each
Nest of tables		$17.04	$20.05

These prices are f. o. b. factory, and subject to a cash discount of one percent for payment within ten days, net thirty days.

(ii) For all sales and deliveries by the manufacturer to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, the maximum prices shall be those determined by applying to the prices specified in subparagraph (1) (i) of this paragraph (a), the discounts, allowances, and other price differentials made by the manufacturer, during March 1942, on sales of the same type of article to the same class of purchaser and on the same terms and conditions. If the manufacturer did not make such sales during March 1942 he must apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., under the fourth pricing method, § 1499.158, of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, for the establishment of maximum prices for those sales, and no sales or deliveries may be made until authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) (i) For all sales and deliveries on and after the effective date of this order to retailers by persons, other than the manufacturer, who sell from the manufacturer's stock, the maximum price is that set forth below, f. o. b. factory:

Article	Model No.	Maximum price to retailers
		Each
Nest of tables		$20.05

This price is subject to a cash discount of one percent for payment within ten days, net thirty days.

(ii) For all sales and deliveries by persons who sell from the manufacturer's stock, to any other class of purchaser or on other terms and conditions of sale, the maximum prices shall be those determined under the applicable provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) At the time of or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser, other than a retailer, who resells from the manufacturer's stock, the manufacturer shall notify the purchaser for resale of the maximum prices and conditions established by subparagraph (a) (2) of this order for such resales. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(c) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective on the 4th day of August 1944.

Issued this 3d day of August 1944.

(2) When yard sales of the sizes, kinds and quantities of solid fuels specified in the price schedule appearing in paragraph (b) (1) above are made to consumers, the maximum prices for such sales shall be the prices established by that price schedule, minus $1.00 per ton.

(3) When yard sales of the sizes, kinds and quantities of solid fuels specified in the price schedule appearing in paragraph (b) (1) above are made to resellers, the maximum prices for such sales shall be the prices established by that price schedule, minus $2.00 per ton.

(4) When commercial sales of the sizes, kinds and quantities of solid fuels specified in the price schedule appearing in paragraph (b) (1) above are made, the maximum prices for such sales shall be the prices established by that price schedule, minus 50 cents per ton.

(5) When industrial sales of the sizes, kinds and quantities of solid fuels specified in the price schedule appearing in paragraph (b) (1) above are made, the maximum prices for such sales shall be the prices established by that price schedule, minus $1.00 per ton.

(c) Service charges. Immediately below and as a part of this paragraph (c) is a schedule of service charges which sets forth maximum prices which a dealer may charge for the special services described, when rendered in connection with sales of solid fuel covered by this appendix. These charges may be made only if the buyer requests such service of the dealer and only when the dealer renders the service pursuant to such request. These service charges shall be separately stated in the dealer's invoice.

Schedule of Service Charges

	Per ton
Carry from curb	$0.55
Carry up or down stairs	.55
Double carry or wheel-in	1.10

(d) Discounts for payment upon delivery. The maximum prices provided for in this appendix shall be reduced by 50 cents per ton if payment is made upon delivery.

(e) Definitions. When used in this appendix, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below.

(1) "Commercial sales" include the following:

(a) Sales for apartment buildings having from 3 to (and including) 6 units and having a single heating plant.

(b) Sales to business establishments using twenty-five tons or less annually.

(2) "Industrial sales" refers to sales to users of more than twenty-five tons annually.

(3) "Double carry or wheel-in" refers to the movement of fuel in those situations where the buyer's bin or storage space is so located within the building or structure, that the fuel cannot be moved from the vehicle to the bin or storage space in one operation, but must be carried or wheeled to the building, dropped within it, and must then be picked up and wheeled or carried to the bin or storage space.

This Appendix No. II to Order No. G–16 shall become effective July 29, 1944.

[Region I Order G–72 Under RMPR 122]

Beehive Oven Coke in Boston Region

Order No. G–72 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Beehive oven coke sold by dealers in Region I.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region I of the Office of Price Administration by § 1340.259 (a) (1) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 and the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Region I Order No. G–72 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 is hereby issued.

(a) What this order does. This order establishes maximum prices for all sales of beehive oven coke, both fresh and reclaimed, by dealers in Region I (the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut) when such coke is sold for use as fuel, or for resale as fuel. It provides a pricing method which is to be used in place of the pricing rules which are set forth in § 1340.254 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, but all other provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 remain applicable to sales by dealers of these solid fuels. The maximum prices for all sales pursuant to which the purchaser takes delivery of the beehive coke in Region I must be determined hereunder.

(b) Maximum price. The maximum prices for the sales and deliveries of beehive oven coke (fresh or reclaimed) described in paragraph (a) hereof shall be the sum of:

(1) The net cost, f. o. b. supplier's shipping point (exclusive of the $.04 per net ton referred to in section 11 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 77, when the supplier adds that $.04);

(2) The actual transportation cost from supplier's shipping point to the dealer's yard, dock or other terminal facility, when such transportation is by common or contract carrier; or the actual cost of such transportation, not to exceed the truck common carrier rate for an identical shipment, when the dealer transports the coke in his own trucks; and

(3) The margin over delivered cost on the dealer's similar sale of Pennsylvania Anthracite most nearly like the sale of the coke for which a maximum price is being calculated hereunder, taking into account the size, use and quantity of fuel, class of purchaser, method of purchase and delivery and terms of delivery.

Provided, That when the coke is purchased f. o. b. truck and delivered directly to the purchaser, item (2) shall be eliminated and the maximum price shall be the sum of item (1) and item (3), using as item (3) the margin on a sale of Pennsylvania Anthracite which is so purchased and delivered.

(c) Determination of margin in certain cases. If the dealer does not himself handle Pennsylvania anthracite and so has no actual margin from his own experience for use under paragraph (b) hereof, he may nevertheless price hereunder. In such case, the margin to be used shall be determined as follows:

(1) If there is an area price order under § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 which establishes specific maximum prices for the type of sale of Pennsylvania anthracite which is similar to the proposed sale of coke the margin shall be that which the dealer would obtain were he to deal in Pennsylvania anthracite.

(2) If there is no such area price order in effect, and if the dealer handles other kinds of coke from the prices of which an appropriate margin could be determined, the dealer may at his option either:

(i) Use such coke margin; or

(ii) May apply by letter to his District Office of the Office of Price Administration, stating that he does not handle Pennsylvania anthracite and giving the name and address of his most closely competitive dealer of the same class who does handle it. The District Office will then notify the dealer by letter of the margin he may use.

(3) If no margin is available from an area price order, the dealer cannot or does not wish to use the margin on another coke, and the dealer cannot find a closely competitive dealer who handles Pennsylvania anthracite, the dealer shall apply to his District Office of the Office of Price Administration stating why he is unable to price under the other provisions of this order, and a margin for his use hereunder will be supplied by letter.

(d) Records and reports. (1) Every dealer who prices beehive coke under paragraph (b) of this order shall preserve all invoices and other records of his purchases of said coke, and shall keep a record of all sales showing the date, the name and address of the buyer (if known), the price charged and the coke sold. The record shall also separately state each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(2) Every dealer who prices beehive coke under this order, shall within ten days after he determines or redetermines any maximum price hereunder file a report with his District Office of the Office of Price Administration containing a description of the coke, the maximum price thereof to each class of purchaser to whom it is sold and a detailed showing of the method of computation of said maximum prices, including each item entering into such computation. Separate reports must be filed for each purchase which varies in cost from any beehive coke previously reported by the dealer.

(e) Terms of sale and charges for services. Terms of sale and charges for services shall be those applicable to the sale of the anthracite (or, if a coke margin is used under paragraph (c) (2) (i), the coke) which is used to determine the margin to be used in calculating the maximum price under this order.

(f) Transportation tax. Under section 11 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 77, a producer of beehive oven coke is permitted to add to his maximum price an amount not in excess of $0.04 per net ton of coke, to the extent that he incurred a tax on the transportation of coal under section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942, and if he separately states the amount thereof in sales to purchasers other than governmental agencies. Distributors and other resellers are permitted to pass that charge on to their purchasers, either under said section of Maximum Price Regulation No. 77 or under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Any dealer subject to this order may collect said $0.04 per net ton, in addition to the maximum prices established by this order, to the extent and in the manner provided by § 1340.265 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(g) Definitions. When used in this Order G–72, the term:

(1) "Beehive oven coke" means all coke made in beehive ovens, including beehive oven coke reclaimed from dumps.

(2) A dealer's "District Office of the Office of Price Administration" shall mean the respective District Offices in the case of dealers located in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island and Connecticut, and the Regional Office for Region I, Boston, Massachusetts, in the case of dealers located in Massachusetts.

(3) "Margin over delivered cost on the dealer's similar sale of Pennsylvania anthracite coal" shall mean the difference between (a) the dealer's maximum price of Pennsylvania anthracite of the most nearly similar size to the same class of purchaser, and (b) the total of (i) the dealer's supplier's maximum price for that anthracite (gross, before any cash or other discounts), and (ii) the actual transportation cost to the dealer's yard, dock or other terminal facility (net after compensatory adjustment if the dealer is eligible for compensator; adjustment on anthracite coal under Revised Compensatory Adjustment Regulation No. 1). In the case of beehive coke purchased f. o. b. truck at the yard of another dealer and delivered direct to the purchaser, the margin used shall be the margin available on anthracite which is so purchased and delivered. "Taking into account class of purchaser, method of delivery and terms of delivery" means, by way of illustration, that there shall be taken into consideration differences in maximum prices for sales of anthracite delivered to consumers, sold at the yard to consumers, and sold at the yard to other dealers, both equipped and unequipped; and differences in margins available on sales of anthracite purchased f. o. b. mine and received by rail or barge at the dealer's yard or dock, and on sales of anthracite purchased at the yard of another dealer and delivered to the consumer. In no case, however, shall the dealer use a margin available on a Pennsylvania anthracite coal which has a mine price higher than those set forth in § 1340.200 (a) (1) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 112, if that margin differs from his margin on anthracite which is priced under that section at the mines; nor shall he use any higher margin which is available on any separately named and priced anthracite which is priced under that section at the mines.

(4) Except as is otherwise specifically provided herein, and unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.225 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(h) Lower prices permitted. Lower prices than those provided for herein may be charged, paid or offered.

(i) This order may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time.

This Order No. G–72 shall become effective August 7, 1944: Provided, however, That it shall become effective immediately as to any dealer who elects to price hereunder prior to said date.

NOTE: The reporting and record keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[District of Columbia Order G–1 Under MPR 165]

LAUNDRY SERVICES IN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA AREA

Order No. G–1 under § 1499.114 (d) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, Services, Adjustment of laundry service prices in Washington, D. C. area.

An application for permission to increase its present maximum prices for all its laundry linen supply, dry cleaning and storage services, as established under Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, Services, has been filed with the District of Columbia District Office of the Office of Price Administration by National Laundry Company, Inc., of 21 Pierce Street, N.W., Washington, D. C., which supplies such services in the Washington, D. C. area. After due consideration of this application and other available information, it has been decided that the application should be granted in part and denied in part for the reasons set forth in the accompanying Opinion.

Accordingly, pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and § 1499.114 (d) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, Services, It is hereby ordered:

(a) The application of the National Laundry Company, Inc. is granted to the extent that it is permitted to increase its present legal maximum prices for all its laundry, linen supply, dry cleaning, and related services, including commercial services, by the amount of six (6%) per cent.

(b) The applicant is permitted to add to its present legal maximum price to agent drivers and retail hand laundry establishments supplied by it the percentage price increase granted to it in paragraph (a). Agent drivers and retail hand laundry establishments, any of whose laundry services are supplied by the applicant, are permited to add to their retail prices for such services one-half only of the percentage increase herein granted to their supplier, in the manner provided by paragraph (c) of this order. They shall be subject to all the other provisions of this order which are applicable to their circumstances.

(c) The percentage increases permitted to any laundry establishment by this order shall be applied only to the total amount of the bill rendered to each customer for any service afforded (as it would be computed under existing lawful maximum prices). Such increases may not be applied to individual items of service. Existing price lists shall not be altered. If the increased prices so arrived at include a fraction of a cent less than one-half, the price that may be charged shall be reduced to the next lower cent. If, however, the increased price includes a fraction equal to or more than one-half cent, the seller shall be permitted to charge the next higher cent.

(d) The applicant and any retail hand laundry establishment and any driver agent of the applicant which has been granted a price increase by this order shall give notification of such price increase as follows: (1) furnish each customer within 15 days after the effective date of this order with a statement describing its services, and specifying its lawful ceiling prices, and the percentage increase permitted it by the order; (2) file a copy of the same statement with the District of Columbia District Office of the Office of Price Administration within 15 days after the effective date of this order, together with a statement signed by a responsible official of the laundry establishment certifying that the applicant has complied with section (1) above; (3) indicate on each bill rendered the amount of the permitted increase either in terms of the percentage plus the dollar amount or in dollar amount without stating the percentage; and (4) give all new customers as acquired the same notification as hereinabove provided for existing customers.

(e) In addition, the applicant shall immediately advise its agent driver and retail hand laundry customers of the amount of permitted price increase which the latter may add to their total bills under the provisions of paragraph (c) of the order, and of the manner in which such permitted increase shall be computed.

(f) Customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials may not be changed by any of the laundry service suppliers named or otherwise referred to in this order, unless such change results in prices lower than the prices permitted by this order, after applying the supplier's customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials; and all laundry service suppliers named or otherwise referred to herein shall maintain all of their legal current pricing and other business practices.

(g) The applicant shall keep this order and the accompanying opinion in its establishment, together with the statement required by § 1499.108 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended, and make them available for inspection by any person during business hours.

(h) Except as expressly provided by this order, the applicant shall remain in all respects subject to all of the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 165, as amended.

(i) This order may be revoked or amended by the District Director, the Regional Administrator of Region II, or the Price Administrator through the issuance at any time hereafter of any order or price regulation, or amendment or supplement thereto.

(j) Any relief requested by the applicant not expressly granted herein is denied. To the extent that the application has been denied, the applicant may, within sixty (60) days after the date on which this order was issued, request the Regional Administrator of Region II to review such order of denial in the manner provided by Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

This order shall become effective June 29th, 1944.

Issued June 19th, 1944.

[Region III Order G–4 Under MPR 188]

SHALE AND CLAY BUILDING BRICK IN CUYAHOGA COUNTY, OHIO

Order No. G–4 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Order adjusting maximum prices for shale and clay building brick produced in Cuyahoga County, Ohio.

An opinion accompanying this order, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region III of the Office of Price Administration, by § 1499.161 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 and § 1499.18 (c) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, It is hereby ordered:

(a) (1) On and after July 26, 1944, any manufacturer located in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, producing standard size shale and clay building brick (smooth, sanded or wire cut) may increase his maximum prices established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 and in effect on June 14, 1943, by an amount not in excess of $3.00 per thousand on sales f. o. b. plant or delivered to destination except, however, if the manufacturer had an established differential in price during the month of March 1942 for non-standard sizes of building brick he may convert the adjustment granted herein for standard size brick, to non-standard size brick on the basis of the conversion factors or formula in use by him during March 1942 in establishing a price differential between the standard size brick and the non-standard size brick.

(a) On and after July 26, 1944, any person who purchases shale and clay building brick for the purpose of resale from any manufacturer located in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, whose maximum price has been adjusted pursuant to subdivision (1) may increase his maximum prices f. o. b. yard or delivered, established by the General Maximum Price Regulation in effect on June 14, 1943, by an amount not in excess of the dollar-and-cent increase in cost to him resulting from the adjustment permitted herein to producers.

(b) Every producer of shale and clay building brick, taking advantage of the adjustment permitted in this order, shall invoice his customers at prices in effect on June 14, 1943 and shall show on such invoices, separately stated, any amount charged in addition thereto under the provisions of this order.

(c) Every producer of shale and clay building brick, taking advantage of the adjustment permitted in this order, shall, with or prior to the first delivery of shale and clay building brick to any person who purchases the same for resale, advise the purchaser of the contents of paragraphs (a) (2) and (f) of this order.

(d) The maximum prices fixed herein shall be subject to at least the same extension of cash, quantity, and other discounts, transportation allowances, and the same rendition of transportation and other services as the seller extended or rendered on comparable sales to purchasers of the same class during the month of March 1942.

(e) Any adjustments granted by the Office of Price Administration subsequent to June 14, 1943, and prior to July 26, 1944, adjusting maximum prices for any manufacturers located in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, producing shale and clay building brick and building tile, are hereby revoked insofar as all such orders are applicable to shale and clay building brick and building tile.

(f) Any adjustments granted by the Office of Price Administration subsequent to June 14, 1943 and prior to July 26, 1944, adjusting maximum prices for resale of shale and clay building brick and building tile purchased from manufacturers located in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, are revoked insofar as such orders are applicable to shale and clay building brick and building tile.

This order may be modified, amended or revoked by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

This order shall become effective July 26, 1944.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 4-84]

INTERNATIONAL HYDRO-ELECTRIC SYSTEM

ORDER TEMPORARILY PROHIBITING SOLICITATION, PENDING HEARING, AND DESIGNATING DATE FOR HEARING TO DETERMINE WHETHER SOLICITATION SHALL BE PROHIBITED

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 1st day of August 1944.

The Commission having applied, pursuant to section 11 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, to the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, and said Court after hearing on said application having entered its decree on October 11, 1943, to enforce compliance with an order of this Commission dated July 21, 1942, directing that International Hydro-Electric System, a registered holding company, liquidate and dissolve in accordance with the requirements of section 11 (b) of the act; and said Court by said decree for the purpose of enforcement of the Commission's order of July 21, 1942 having taken and retained exclusive jurisdiction of International Hydro-Electric System and the assets thereof wherever located and having permitted International Hydro-Electric System to retain possession of its assets and to continue the operation of its business through its directors, officers and employees in accordance with its Declaration of Trust, except as otherwise provided by the decree or any subsequent decree or order thereafter entered by said Court; and International Hydro-Electric System having filed with the Commission and with the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, under date of July 13, 1944, a certified copy of a resolution adopted by its board of directors as follows:

Whereas the legal custody and administration of the affairs of this Trust are now subject to the jurisdiction and control of the United States District Court, and whereas it is the consensus of opinion of this Board that in view of the present situation it is for the best interest of the administration of the Trust that no meeting of shareholders be now held, now therefore be it

Resolved: That no date now be fixed or call issued for a meeting of shareholders until further action by this Board or direction in respect thereto by the Court; and that the proper officers be authorized to file a copy of this resolution with the Court having jurisdiction and with the Securities and Exchange Commission and to incorporate notice of this action in the Annual Report to the shareholders.

It now appearing to the Commission that International Hydro-Electric System has not set a date or issued a call for a meeting of shareholders for the election of directors or other action of such shareholders; that the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts has not determined or directed that any such meeting of shareholders be held; and that a certain shareholder of International Hydro-Electric System is proposing to solicit proxies and authorizations for the election of a new board of directors and has submitted pursuant to Rule U-61 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and particularly section 12 (e) of the act, solicitation material with a view to imminent transmission thereof to shareholders of International Hydro-Electric System; and

It further appearing to the Commission that it may be appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that no person solicit or permit the use of his or its name to solicit, by use of the mails or any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, or otherwise, any proxy, power of attorney, consent, or authorization regarding the voting of any security of International Hydro-Electric System unless and until such time as the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts may determine or direct that a meeting of shareholders be held for the purpose of election of directors or other action of such shareholders; and

The Commission deeming it appropriate that a hearing be held to determine whether or not it should issue an order under the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the Rules thereunder, particularly section 12 (e) of the act and Rule U-100, prohibiting any person to solicit, or permit the use of his or its name to solicit, any proxy, power of attorney, consent, or authorization regarding the voting of any security of International Hydro-Electric System except by order of this Commission unless and until the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts may determine or direct that a meeting of shareholders be held for the election of directors or for some other purpose, and to determine whether Rule U-61 should not be withdrawn or modified in its application to any such solicitation.

Notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held for the purpose of making this determination indicated in the preceding paragraph of this order. Said hearing will be held on August 22, 1944 at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t. in the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., in such room as may be designated by the hearing room clerk in Room 318. All persons desiring to be heard in the proceeding shall notify the Commission on or before August 17, 1944;

Notice is also given and, It is ordered, That pending said hearing and pending further order of the Commission after said hearing all persons are prohibited from soliciting, or permitting the use of their names to solicit, by use of the mails or any means of instrumentality of interstate commerce, or otherwise, any proxy, power of attorney, consent, or authorization regarding the voting of any security of International Hydro-Electric System unless and until the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts may determine or direct that a meeting of shareholders be held for the election of directors or for some other purpose, and Rule U-61 shall be and hereby is withdrawn in its application to any such solicitation; and

It is further ordered, That Henry C. Lank, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice; and

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of this Commission shall serve a copy of this order by registered mail on all parties and participants in the proceeding entitled "In the Matter of the Application of the Securities and Exchange Commission to Enforce Compliance with an Order under section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 with Respect to International Hydro-Electric System" being Civil Action No. 2430 in the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

By the Commission.

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATIONS

PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1945 MAINLAND CANE SUGAR CROP

Pursuant to the provisions of section 302 of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9322, issued March 26, 1943, as amended by Executive Order No. 9334, issued April 19, 1943, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.26g Proportionate shares for the mainland cane sugar area for the 1945 crop—(a) Farm proportionate share. The proportionate share for the 1945 crop for each sugarcane farm in the mainland cane sugar area shall be the number of acres planted thereon for the production of sugarcane to be marketed (or processed by the producer) for the extraction of sugar or liquid sugar during the 1945 crop season.

(b) Tenant and sharecropper protection. Notwithstanding the establishment of a proportionate share for any farm under paragraph (a) above, eligibility for payment of any producer on the farm shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) That such producer shall not have entered into any leasing or cropping agreement for the purpose of diverting to himself or other producers any payment to which tenants or sharecroppers would be entitled if their 1944 leasing or cropping agreements were in effect.

(2) That such producer shall not have interfered with any contracts entered into by tenants or sharecroppers for the sale of their sugarcane or their share of the sugarcane produced on the farm.

(Sec. 302, 50 Stat. 910; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed. 1132; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423)

PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1944–1945 SUGARCANE CROP IN PUERTO RICO

Pursuant to the provisions of section 302 of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9322, issued March 26, 1943, as amended by Executive Order No. 9334, issued April 19, 1943, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.46e Proportionate shares for sugarcane farms in Puerto Rico for the 1944–45 crop—(a) Farm proportionate share. The proportionate share for each farm in Puerto Rico for the 1944–45 crop shall be the amount of sugar, raw value, commercially recoverable from sugarcane grown on such farm and marketed (or processed by the producer) for the extraction of sugar during the 1944–45 crop season.

This determination supersedes the "Determination of Proportionate Shares for Sugarcane Farms in Puerto Rico, Pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1937, as Amended," issued December 31, 1942, insofar as that determination related to proportionate shares for the 1944–45 crop.

(Sec. 302, 50 Stat. 910; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed. 1132; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 3d day of August 1944.

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATIONS

PROPORTIONATE SHARES FOR 1945 SUGARCANE CROP IN THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

Pursuant to the provisions of section 302 of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9322, issued March 26, 1943, as amended by Executive Order No. 9334, issued April 19, 1943, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.50c Proportionate shares for sugarcane farms in the Virgin Islands for the 1945 crop—(a) Farm proportionate share. The proportionate share for each sugarcane farm in the Virgin Islands for the 1945 crop shall be the amount of sugar, raw value, commercially recoverable from sugarcane grown on the farm and marketed (or processed by the producer) for the extraction of sugar during the 1945 crop.

(b) Tenant and sharecropper protection. The provisions of this determination are subject to the following conditions:

(1) That no change shall have been made in the leasing or cropping agreements for the purpose of, or which shall have the effect of, diverting to any producer, any payments to which tenants or sharecroppers would be entitled if the 1943–44 leasing or cropping agreements were in effect.

(2) That there shall have been no interference by any producer with contracts entered into by tenants or sharecroppers for the sale of their sugarcane.

(c) Designation of agent. The Chief, or the Acting Chief, of the Sugar Branch of the Office of Distribution, and the Officer in Charge of the San Juan Office of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, or the Acting Officer in Charge thereof, are hereby designated to act, jointly or severally, as agents of the War Food Administrator in administering the provisions of this determination.

(Sec. 302, 50 Stat. 910; 7 U.S.C., 1940 ed. 1132; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 3d day of August 1944.

PART 802—SUGAR DETERMINATION

FARMING PRACTICES FOR 1945 SUGAR CANE CROP IN VIRGIN ISLANDS

Determination of farming practices to be carried out in connection with the production of sugarcane during the 1945 crop year in the Virgin Islands, pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (e) of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9322, issued March 26, 1943, as amended by Executive Order No. 9334, issued April 19, 1943, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 802.55c Farming practices to be carried out in connection with the production of sugarcane during the 1945 crop year. The requirements of section 301 (e) of the Sugar Act of 1937, as amended, shall be deemed to have been met with respect to any farm in the Virgin Islands if the tops and trash cut from the sugarcane during the 1945 harvest season are applied to the land from which the sugarcane is harvested.

(Sec. 301, 50 Stat. 910; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 1131; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423)

Issued at Washington, D. C. this 3d day August 1944.

Chapter X—War Food Administration (Production Orders)

[WFO 14, Rev. Supp. Order 6]

PART 1202—FARM MACHINERY AND EQUIPMENT

NEW SHEET METAL WATER WELL CASING

Supplementary Order No. 6 (8 F.R. 16776) to War Food Order No. 14 (formerly Food Production Order No. 14) (8 F.R. 17456, 9 F.R. 4319, 7739) is hereby revised and amended in its entirety to read as follows:

§ 1202.451 Purpose of this supplementary order. This supplementary order explains the procedure to be followed in rationing new sheet metal water well casings (which are rationed farm equipment as defined in War Food Order No. 14) for agricultural use and it also sets forth the requirements of the rationing program which are of special importance to persons desiring such equipment. This supplementary order should be read in conjunction with War Food Order No. 14 which establishes the general rationing program, and which contains definitions of certain terms used herein.

§ 1202.453 Transfer of water well casing for agricultural use. (a) No person other than a Federal agency shall make a transfer or accept a transfer of new sheet metal water well casing for agricultural use, except pursuant to a purchase certificate issued by a county farm rationing committee: Provided, however, That no purchase certificate shall be required when the transfer is for an amount of casing with a retail price of $100.00 or less and such casing is all that is needed for one well.

(b) If an application is approved, a purchase certificate shall be issued to cover the full amount of casing needed for one well. No purchase certificate will be issued, however, for this purpose unless the applicant can show to the satisfaction of the county farm rationing committee that he has or will have pumping and power facilities necessary to operate the well in which the casing is to be used.

§ 1202.454 Transfers to Federal agencies and for non-agricultural use. (a) Purchase certificates will not be issued to Federal agencies for new sheet metal water well casing. If a Federal agency wants such casing for agricultural use in the United States, it must obtain a written authorization from the Director. If a Federal agency wants such casing for non-agricultural use, or for export, it must comply with War Production Board Order No. L–257, as amended, or L–257a, as amended (9 F.R. 6218), and any other applicable War Production Board regulations.

(b) If any person other than a Federal agency wants new sheet metal water well casing for non-agricultural use, he must comply with War Production Board Order No. L–257, as amended, and any other applicable War Production Board regulations.

§ 1202.455 Manufacturers' reports. Each manufacturer of new sheet metal water well casing shall, on or before October 10, 1944, January 10, 1945, April 10, 1945, and July 10, 1945, submit a written report to the Director, setting forth the quantity (in pounds of steel) of such casing transferred by him into each State during the three calendar months preceding the month in which the report is made. (This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.)

§ 1202.456 Communications. All communications concerning this supplementary order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the Director of the Office of Materials and Facilities, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: WFO 14, Supp. 6.

§ 1202.457 Incorporation into War Food Order No. 14. This Supplementary Order No. 6 shall be added to and become a part of War Food Order No. 14, and any violation of this Supplementary Order No. 6 shall be deemed to be a violation of War Food Order No. 14.

Issued this 3d day of August 1944.

Chapter XI—War Food Administration (Distribution Orders)

[WFO 54-4, Amdt. 3]

PART 1401—DAIRY PRODUCTS

DRIED SKIM MILK

War Food Order No. 54-4, issued by the Acting Director of Distribution on May 1, 1944 (9 F. R. 4675), as amended, is further amended as follows:

By deleting the provisions of § 1401.179 (b) and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(b) Percentages of dried skim milk to be set aside. Each person who is required to set aside dried skim milk pursuant to the provisions of WFO 54 shall set aside in the calendar months of August and September 1944, (1) a quantity of spray dried skim milk equal to 60 percent of all spray dried skim milk produced by such person during each such month, and (2) a quantity of roller-dried skim milk equal to 35 percent of all roller dried skim milk produced by such person during each such month.

This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., August 1, 1944. With respect to any violation of said War Food Order No. 54-4, as amended, rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken thereunder, prior to the effective time of this amendment, said War Food Order No. 54-4 shall continue in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any suit, action or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, liability, or appeal.

Issued this 3d day of August 1944.

LANDING OF HALIBUT CATCH IN ALASKA BY CANADIAN VESSELS

WAIVER OF PROVISION GOVERNING VESSELS EMPLOYED IN COASTING TRADE FOR FISHERIES[1]

AUGUST 2, 1944.

Section 4311 R. S. (46 U.S.C. 251) waived to extent necessary to permit Canadian halibut fishing vessels to land catch of halibut in Alaska.

Upon the written recommendation of the Secretary of State and by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 501 of the Second War Powers Act, 1942 (Public Law 507, 77th Congress), I hereby waive compliance with the provisions of section 4311 R. S. (46 U.S.C. 251) to the extent necessary, for the duration of the calendar year 1944, to permit Canadian fishing vessels engaging in the North Pacific halibut fishery only to land their catch of halibut in ports of entry in Alaska upon compliance with the applicable customs laws. I deem that such action is necessary in the conduct of the war.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VIII—Foreign Economic Administration

[Administrative Order 49]

PART 800—ORDERS AND DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

APPEARANCES OF EMPLOYEES AND FORMER EMPLOYEES AS REPRESENTATIVES OF THIRD PERSONS

JULY 18, 1944.

§ 800.79 Appearances of employees and former employees as representatives of third persons—(a) Purpose. The purpose of this order is to regulate appearances before the Foreign Economic Administration of employees and former employees as representatives of third persons.

(b) Prohibition against appearance of employees and former employees before the Foreign Economic Administration. No individual shall appear or be permitted to appear before the Foreign Economic Administration as the agent, attorney or representative of any person, if such individual:

(1) Is, or at any time within one year prior thereto was, a full-time or part-time, compensated or uncompensated officer or employee of the Foreign Economic Administration or any of its predecessor or constituent agencies; or

(2) Has at any time been officially associated with the specific case or matter to which such appearance relates, as a full-time or part-time, compensated or uncompensated officer or employee of the Foreign Economic Administration or any of its predecessor or constituent agencies.

(c) Special exceptions. Notwithstanding the prohibition contained in paragraph (b) hereof, any officer specially designated for the purpose by the Administrator may, in exceptional cases and upon receipt of a sworn written application setting forth the facts, grant to a former officer or employee disqualified under paragraph (b) (1) written permission to appear before the Foreign Economic Administration on behalf of another person for a specific or limited purpose, where in his opinion such permission is necessary to prevent an injustice or unnecessary hardship.

(d) Definitions. As used herein:

(1) The term "person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group or body of persons, however designated, but shall not include the United States or any department or agency thereof or any foreign government.

(2) The words "appear before the Foreign Economic Administration" mean (i) the submission of applications for export licenses, release certificates, or other documents required to be filed with the Foreign Economic Administration, or the execution of same; (ii) conferences or other communication with officers or employees of the Foreign Economic Administration for the purpose of soliciting or expediting approval by the Foreign Economic Administration of applications for export licenses, release certificates or other documents pertaining to matters within the jurisdiction of the Foreign Economic Administration; (iii) participation with officers or employees of the Foreign Economic Administration in the preparation, negotiation or execution of contracts pertaining to any matter within the jurisdiction of the Foreign Economic Administration; (iv) participation in any proceeding pending before the Foreign Economic Administration involving the requisitioning of property in behalf of the United States or involving charges of violation of the Act of July 2, 1940, as amended (Export Control Law), or the rules and regulations adopted thereunder.

LEO T. CROWLEY,
Administrator.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 933—COPPER

[Conservation Order M-9-c, as Amended May 26, 1944, Amdt. 4]

Section 933.4 Conservation Order M-9-c is hereby amended as follows:

(a) By amending paragraph (g) (2) to read as follows:

(2) Insect screening. This order does not restrict the sale or delivery of used or second-hand insect screening. However, no person shall sell or deliver to any one person more than 50 sq. ft. of any other copper or copper base alloy insect screening unless the sale or delivery is made to: (i) A jobber, wholesaler or retailer; (ii) the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast Guard, any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941 entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), or Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Corporation or any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended (except Defense Plant Corporation) or any person acting as agent of any such corporation (except Defense Plant Corporation); or (iii) any person upon specific authorization of the War Production Board. Applications for specific authorization shall be made by letter addressed to the War Production Board, Copper Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-9-c. Nothing contained in this paragraph (g) (2) affects the prohibitions on the manufacture, processing, assembling or finishing of insect screening with copper products or copper base alloy products under paragraph (a) and the combined list. (See the item "insect screening" under the heading "Miscellaneous" on the combined list.)

(b) By changing the item on the combined list under the heading "Building Supplies" which now reads:

Doors, door and window frames and sills and parts excluding door handles and knobs. For door handles and door knbs, see under the heading "Hardware".

to read as follows:

Doors, windows, door and window frames and sills and parts excluding door handles and knobs. (This does not prohibit the use of copper or copper base alloy insect screening to make or repair screen doors or window screens if the only copper or copper base alloy used is insect screening). For door handles and knobs, see under the heading "Hardware". For prohibition on manufacturing of copper or copper base alloy insect screening, see "Insect screening" under the heading "Miscellaneous" on this list.

(c) By adding at the end of the list of articles enumerated in paragraph (g) (3), the following:

Gold filled and rolled gold plate governed by Direction 2 to Order M-199.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

PART 1226—GENERAL INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT

[General Limitation Order L-292, as Amended Aug. 4, 1944]

FOOD PROCESSING MACHINERY

The fulfillment of the requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials used in the production of food processing machinery, for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1226.77 General Limitation Order L-292—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Processor" means any person engaged in the business of preparing, processing, canning, packing or packaging human or animal foods or tobacco for distribution, including the operation of a food processing plant on a farm. It does not include (i) a person to the extent that he engages in the production or raising of crops, livestock, or other farm produce; or (ii) a person to the extent that he prepares food for consumption on the premises (such as a hotel or restaurant), or distributes it at retail (such as a grocery or retail meat market); or (iii) governmental agencies processing food for governmental use, hospitals, charitable institutions processing food for their own use, or educational institutions.

(2) "Food processing machinery" means new machinery and equipment, of the kinds specified in Schedule A with a retail sales value of $50 or more for each machine or piece of equipment, excluding (i) refrigerating machinery and equipment as defined in Limitation Order L-38, (ii) machinery and equipment used on a farm for production of food or tobacco or on a fishing vessel for handling food, prior to delivery to a processor, (iii) scales and balances as defined in limitation Order L-190, (iv) conveying machinery as defined in Limitation Order L-193, (v) machinery and equipment used for packaging, filling or labelling containers, except as otherwise indicated in Schedule A, (vi) oil processing machinery and equipment used in processing animal, fish and vegetable fats, oils and greases, and (vii) water filters as water-treating equipment.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the making or assembling of food processing machinery; and includes his subsidiaries and affiliates in the same business.

(4) "Dealer" means any person except a manufacturer engaged in the business of buying and reselling food processing machinery.

(5) "Approved order" means any order for delivery (under sale, lease, consignment or otherwise) of food processing machinery bearing (i) a rating of AA-5 or higher assigned on any WPB Form listed in paragraph (c) or (ii) a CMP Regulation 5 or 5A rating applied to replace an existing piece of machinery of substantially the same size and capacity, worn out or damaged beyond repair.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries. (1) No person shall deliver or accept delivery of food processing machinery except on an approved order. Any person who places an approved order shall in addition to the certification used in applying the rating (Priorities Regulation 3 or 7) give the form number upon which he received the rating, or if the rating was assigned by CMP Regulation 5 or 5A, he shall add to the certification a statement substantially as follows: "This rating was assigned by CMP Regulation 5 (or 5A) and the machinery is ordered to replace other machinery of substantially the same size and capacity, worn out or damaged beyond repair."

(2) The restrictions of subparagraph (1) above shall not apply to: (i) deliveries to a manufacturer or dealer to enable him to fill approved orders which he has actually received, or to replace in inventory machinery delivered by him to fill approved orders, (ii) delivery of food processing machinery to be used directly by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration, or (iii) delivery to a manufacturer of food processing machinery to be incorporated into other food processing machinery.

(c) Instructions for obtaining an approved order other than pursuant to a CMP Regulation. (1) Processors seeking food processing machinery for delivery within the United States or Canada, in order to get a rating should file:

(i) Form WPB–617 with the War Production Board for any food processing machinery which is to be installed as part of a project approved under Order L–41.

(ii) Form WPB–748 with the War Food Administration for all other dairy, egg or poultry processing equipment.

(iii) Form WPB–576 with the War Food Administration for all other canning machinery or equipment.

(iv) Form WPB–3155 with the War Food Administration for all other meat canning, meat packing and meat processing machinery or equipment.

(v) Form WPB–541 with the War Production Board for any other food processing machinery.

(2) All persons, other than processors, seeking any food processing machinery for delivery within the United States or Canada should file Form WPB–541 with the War Production Board.

(3) All persons, including processors, seeking any food processing machinery for export by them to other than Canada should file Form WPB–541 with the War Production Board.

(d) Restrictions on manufacture. No manufacturer shall make or assemble any new food processing machinery or equipment of the kinds listed on Schedule B except as permitted by production quotas assigned under paragraph (f) of this order. The limitations and restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to the manufacture of any food processing machine or piece of equipment for which parts weighing, in the aggregate, not less than 75% of the weight of the finished machine or piece of equipment were made before June 5, 1943.

(e) Conservation of critical materials. No person shall use stainless steel or tin, copper or copper base alloys, secondary copper-nickel alloys (white metal) made from scrap or remelt, nickel or chromium, in the manufacture or assembly of any food processing machinery except in contact parts or corrosion points. (As used herein "contact parts" means those parts which come in direct contact with any food products. "Corrosion points" mean those parts or fittings, stationary or movable, which are exposed to corrosive action from food products, water or brine and which, if corroded, will interfere with the normal operation of the machinery or equipment.) These restrictions on the use of materials shall not apply to repair parts for food processing machinery produced before June 30, 1943, if parts made of other material would not be interchangeable with the parts to be repaired or replaced. This paragraph also does not restrict the use of copper and copper-base alloys in electrical conductors, bearings, valves, instruments, motors, worm driven gears, and cappers.

(f) Production quotas. The War Production Board may at any time issue schedules as amendments to this order, fixing production quotas for certain types of food processing machinery. From the effective date of any such schedule no manufacturer may carry on production except as permitted by the schedule or schedules applicable to the food processing machinery made or assembled by him. The reference to "quota provisions of paragraph (g) (2) (ii) of Order L–292" in schedules issued by the War Production Board before March 11, 1944 shall, for the purpose of such schedules, mean this paragraph (f) of Order L–292.

(g) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Reports. On or before the 20th day of each calendar month, each manufacturer shall file a report on Form WPB–2721. This reporting requirement has been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(2) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(3) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(4) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, in triplicate, referring to the particular provisions appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal. The letter must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(5) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–292.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE A

Machinery and equipment included in definition of "Food Processing Machinery" under paragraph (a) (2).

1. Baking and macaroni processing machinery and equipment. This term includes all preparation and processing machinery and equipment, and slicing and wrapping machinery used in commercial bakeries.

2. Brewing and winery machinery and equipment, including bottling, bottle capping and bottle labeling machinery and equipment but excluding refrigeration machinery and equipment.

3. Canning machinery and equipment. This term includes all preparation machinery and equipment, filling, labeling and casing machinery, and change parts for different can or container sizes, used in the canning, freezing, and fresh packing of fruits, vegetables, fishery products including fishery by-products) and all other human or animal food. It also includes preparation machinery and equipment used for dehydrating such foods. It does not include (i) preparation equipment for meat and meat products (ii) home canning and home dehydrating equipment (iii) container sealing and closing and jar capping machines (iv) refrigerating equipment, and (v) steam jacketed kettles regardless of any use to which they may be put, which are designed to use steam at working pressures of less than 90 pounds per square inch, as governed by Limitation Order L–182. (Machinery for filling, labeling and casing dehydrated foods is covered by Order L–332.)

4. Coconut shredding and processing equipment.

5. Coffee, tea, cocoa, and spice grinding and processing equipment, 1 H. P. and larger.

6. Confectionery machinery and equipment.

7. Dairy, egg and poultry processing machinery and equipment used in the commercial processing of milk and milk products, eggs and poultry, including bottling, bottle capping and bottle labeling machinery and equipment and wrapping machinery but excluding (i) machinery or equipment used on a farm for the production and handling of milk, eggs or poultry prior to delivery to a processor and (ii) machinery or equipment covered by the provisions of Limitation Order L–257.

8. Flour, grain, feed milling and processing machinery and equipment and seed cleaning equipment.

9. [Deleted Nov. 22, 1943]

10. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]

11. Meat canning, meat packing and meat processing machinery and equipment. This term includes power-driven disc and blade saws (of fractional horsepower or more), band saws (1 horsepower or more), slicers (1 horsepower or more), and grinders (1 horsepower or more), and all other machinery and equipment used in the preparation and processing of meat products, filling, labelling and casing machinery, except (i) home canning equipment, (ii) container sealing and closing and jar capping machines, and (iii) refrigeration equipment.

12. Non-alcoholic beverage manufacturing machinery and equipment including bottling, bottle capping and bottle labelling machinery and equipment but excluding refrigeration machinery and equipment.
13. Sugar processing machinery and equipment.
14. Tobacco processing machinery and equipment, including wrapping machinery.
15. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]

SCHEDULE B

Food Processing Machinery and Equipment which cannot be manufactured unless specifically provided for under the terms of paragraph (f).
1. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
2. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
3. All coconut shredding and processing equipment.
4. Coffee, tea, cocoa and spice grinding and processing equipment except equipment by and for the direct use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission and War Shipping Administration, and except equipment used in the manufacture of soluble and dehydrated coffee.
5. All confectionery machinery.
6. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
7. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
8. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
9. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
10. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
11. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
12. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
13. [Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]
14. Tobacco processing machinery and equipment, including wrapping machinery.

SCHEDULE C

[Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]

SCHEDULE D

[Deleted Mar. 11, 1944]

INTERPRETATION 1

FOOD PROCESSING MACHINERY

Paragraph (a) (5), in defining "approved orders" for food processing machinery, includes orders bearing a preference rating of AA-5 or higher assigned on certain specified forms (WPB-617, 576, 748, etc.). These forms in some cases call for the name and address of the supplier.

In these cases, the information intended is the name and address of the probable supplier. Provided the model actually obtained is substantially identical in value, quality, size, operation and function with that named in the application form, the preference rating may be used to get the product from any manufacturer, dealer or processor who has the product on hand or is authorized to manufacture or acquire it. For example, a rating assigned to purchase a 1" centifugal sanitary pump may ordinarily be used to purchase that size pump from any manufacturer if the value is substantially the same as that of the pump described in the application. On the other hand, a rating assigned for a 6-can-per-minute dairy can washer costing $1000 may not be used to get a 6-can-per-minute can washer costing $2500. Similarly, a rating for a copper lined cheese vat may not be used to get a stainless steel cheese vat.

Approval of the form does not operate to authorize the supplier, whether or not named, to manufacture or acquire the product if that is otherwise prohibited. [Issued March 31, 1944.]

FOOD PROCESSING MACHINERY

In accordance with paragraph (f) of General Limitation Order L-292, as amended, certain quota schedules have been established limiting the amount of controlled materials which may be used in manufacturing certain classes of food processing machinery during a specified quota period. The quota is a percentage of the average annual amount of such material consumed during a specified base period. The percentage applies to each controlled material (steel, copper or aluminum) separately. No part of the percentage of one controlled material shall be added to the total percentage of another. However, the permitted percentage of a particular controlled material may be divided in any way between the several categories of such material. For example: where a manufacturer is permitted to consume during the quota period 110% of the average annual amount of steel and copper he consumed during the base period, he is not permitted to apply part or all of his steel quota to his copper quota and thereby exceed his copper quota of 110%. However, he may consume during the quota period such amount of carbon steel and such amount of alloy steel as he chooses provided the aggregate does not exceed 110% of the average annual amount of steel consumed during the base period. This rule is subject to the restriction of any order of the War Production Board against the use of a higher grade or larger quantity of material than is necessary (for example, see paragraph (c) (1) of Order M-9-c, dealing with copper). [Issued April 3, 1944.]

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

Interpretation 23 is amended to read as follows:

Definition of steel. The word "steel" as used in CMP regulations has the same meaning as "steel" as defined in Order M-21, as amended from time to time, except that it includes only those forms and shapes listed in Schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 9A, Interpretation 3 as Amended Aug. 4, 1944]

PURCHASE OF LUMBER UNDER ORDER L-335

The following interpretation is issued with respect to CMP Regulation 9A:

(a) A repairman using lumber on a construction job he does for another person is not entitled to certify his lumber orders that he places with lumber suppliers. Under Order L-335, which governs the distribution of lumber, a contractor doing construction for another person is not considered the consumer of the lumber that he uses. The person for whom the construction work is being done is considered the consumer of the lumber and he is the one that is entitled to place the certification on the lumber order that the contractor places with his supplier. This provision also applies to a repairman that does construction work for another person. Construction means the putting up, altering or repairing of any sort of a structure including a building, road, bridge, dam, sewer and similar jobs. It also includes the installation of equipment or fixtures in such a structure. A consumer may authorize the contractor or repairman to act as his agent in certifying a lumber delivery order and in such a case the contractor or the repairman signs the required certification "as duly authorized official" of the consumer. The contractor does not use his rating but the rating of the person for whom the construction work is being done. Even though a repairman may himself have a rating he cannot use it to get lumber for that construction job. After August, the effective date of Order L-335, repairmen placing orders for lumber required on construction jobs they do for other persons must either certify as agents for the persons for whom they do the work or have their lumber order certified by such persons. Lumber distributors have been allocated a small amount of lumber for civilian repairs and maintenance work and this lumber can be sold on uncertified and unrated orders. Repairmen may buy that type of lumber from lumber distributors the same as any other person, but only a limited amount of such lumber is available to distributors.

(b) A repairman doing other repair which is not construction, may use the CMP-9A rating and the certification under paragraph (q) (1) of L-335 to get lumber needed for such repairs, provided he does not get more than 50,000 board feet a calendar quarter for all purposes (except construction). In such a case, he should apply on Form WPB-3640.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Limitation Order L-317 as Amended Aug. 4, 1944]

FIBRE SHIPPING CONTAINERS; MANUFACTURE AND USE

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created shortages in the supply of materials entering into the production of fibre shipping containers for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3270.6 Limitation Order L–317—(a) "Fibre shipping container". For purposes of this order, the term "fibre shipping container" means the following items:

(1) Any box, crate, case, basket, inner carton, hamper or sleeve in set-up or knock-down form which is made in whole or in part from solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre and which is used for the delivery or shipment of materials. This does not include the following: trunks, luggage, or military locker boxes; fibre cans, tubes or drums. It also does not include combination wood-and-fibre shipping containers consisting of fifty per cent or more wood (by area).

(2) Any solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre sheet or any corrugated fibre roll to be used for wrapping, packaging, or otherwise protecting a product or material for shipment. This does not include corrugated or solid fibre sheets produced for delivery to plants, of the type commonly referred to in the container manufacturing industry as "sheet plants" for their use in manufacturing fibre shipping containers. It also does not include corrugated or solid fibre sheets produced for delivery to cleated box manufacturers for use in manufacturing shipping containers made of corrugated or solid fibre sheets attached to wooden cleats.

(3) Any solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre interior fitting which is cut to size for use in any type of container to provide content protection, structural strength, or both. This includes, but is not limited to, the following: partitions; pads; liners; sun bursts; corrugated wrappers (single-faced, double-faced, double-walled).

(b) "User". The term "user" means any person who uses fibre shipping containers for the shipment or delivery of materials in connection with his business.

(c) "Containerboard content". The term "containerboard content" means the amount of solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre containerboard in a fibre shipping container. This amount is computed both in terms of weight and in terms of square feet.

Manufacture and Delivery Prohibitions

(d) General. No person shall manufacture or deliver any new fibre shipping container which he has reason to believe will be used or accepted in violation of any provision of this order. No person shall deliver any new fibre shipping container (including "reshippers" defined in paragraph (m)) to any user except the Army or Navy unless the user furnishes with each purchase order a certification, signed as provided in Priorities Regulation 7, in substantially the following form:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies, subject to criminal penalties for misrepresentation, that he is familiar with Order L–317 of the War Production Board, and that the fibre shipping containers (or reshippers) covered by this purchase order will not be accepted or used in violation of the terms of that order.

If the user places a rated order, instead of the foregoing certification he may add to the certification of the rating (paragraph (v) of P–146) the following sentence: "The undersigned also certifies that the fibre shipping containers (or reshippers) covered by this purchase order will not be accepted or used in violation of the terms of Order L–317". The person receiving either certification shall be entitled to rely on it as a representation of the user unless he knows or has reason to know that it is false. The standard certification in Priorities Regulation 7 may not be used instead of the certification required by this paragraph.

(e) Prohibited types (Schedule I). No person shall manufacture, from solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre, any container of the types listed in Schedule I of this order.

Use Prohibitions

(f) Prohibited uses—(1) Schedule II. Schedule II of this order lists certain products which may not be packed in new fibre shipping containers and certain other products which may not be packed in less than specified quantities, in new fibre shipping containers. No user shall accept or use any new fibre shipping container for any product in violation of Schedule II. This restriction does not apply to (i) containers used for wholesalers' or retailers' deliveries (as defined in Schedule III of this order), (ii) empty containers used by the Army or Navy, or (iii) containers which are quota exempt under paragraph (t) below.

(2) Carlining. No person shall use in the shipping of any product any new solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre sheet or roll as carlining except where needed for door-blocking. When such sheet or roll is used for door-blocking, only the necessary practicable minimum quantity shall be used.

(g) V-boxes. No user shall use any new V-box for packing any product except for delivery against military or Lend-Lease orders which specify that V-boxes be used. No user shall accept delivery of any V-boxes unless he has reason to believe that he will need them for the use permitted in this paragraph. The restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to empty V-boxes used by the Army and Navy. The term "V-boxes" means shipping containers of the types designated as V–1, 2 and 3, in Army Specification O. Q. M. G. No. 93, dated December 2, 1942, and of the similar types described in Navy Department Specification 53B11 (INT.) and in Food Distribution Administration Specification 1742–C.

Quota Restrictions

(h) Quota products (Schedule III). Schedule III of this order lists certain products, and certain types of container uses. Beginning as of October 1, 1943, users are permitted to accept delivery of or use only a limited amount of new fibre shipping containers for packing any of the listed products (or for any of the listed uses), during each 3-month period (exclusive of amounts which are quota-exempt under paragraph (t) below). The limited amounts are called "quotas". The 3-month periods are called "quota periods". As explained below, there are two types of quotas—"footage quotas" and "tonnage quotas".

(h–1) [Deleted Aug. 4, 1944.]

(i) Quota restriction. During any 3-month quota period, the total containerboard content of the new fibre shipping containers accepted or used by any user for packing any Schedule III product (or for any Schedule III use) shall exceed neither his footage quota nor his tonnage quota. Quotas are to be computed in accordance with the next five paragraphs below. (The restrictions of this paragraph shall not apply to empty containers used by the Army or Navy or to containers which are quota-exempt under paragraph (t) below).

(i–1) General rules pertaining to quota computations—(1) Interchanging of quotas. Quotas are not interchangeable as between separately listed Schedule III items. However, where several products are included within the same Schedule III item (as for instance "CDGS–651–Jewelry, Toilet Sets, Cigarette Holders, etc.—50%") the user may distribute his quota for that item among those products as he sees fit. In computing his quota for any Schedule III item (other than "retailers' or wholesalers' deliveries" as defined in Schedule III) the user must not include in his base, the amount of containerboard used during the base period for packing any Schedule II product which is included in the item.

(2) Quota bases. It will be noted that alternative quota bases may be selected under paragraphs (j) through (m). A user must use the same quota base for all purposes, for the same Schedule III item. For instance, he cannot use the corresponding calendar quarter of the base year for figuring his footage quota under paragraph (j) and twenty-five per cent of the entire base year for the purpose of figuring his tonnage quota for the same item under paragraph (k). Likewise a user may not change his method of computing his quota in the course of any calendar year except that he may switch from the quarterly to the calendar year base for the third and fourth quarters of 1944; Provided, That he does this for both quarters.

(j) Computing footage quotas. A user's "footage quota" for any calendar quarter for any Schedule III item (or use) shall be computed by applying the quota percentage listed in Schedule III for that item (or use) to either of the two following bases at the user's option:

(1) The containerboard content (in terms of square feet) of the new fibre shipping containers, used by him during the corresponding three-month period in 1942 (or other year if specified) for packing all of the products included in the item (or for that use).

(2) Twenty-five per cent of the containerboard content (in terms of square feet) of the new fibre shipping containers used by him during all of 1942 (or other year if specified) for packing all of the products included in the item (or for that use).

(k) Computing tonnage quota. A user's "tonnage quota" for any calendar quarter for any Schedule III item (or use) shall be computed by applying the quota percentage listed in Schedule III for that item (or use) to either of the two following bases at the user's option:

(1) The containerboard content (in terms of weight) of the new fibre shipping containers used by him during the corresponding three-month period in 1942 (or other year if specified) for packing all of the products included in the item (or for that use).

(2) Twenty-five per cent of the containerboard content (in terms of weight) of the new fibre shipping containers used by him during all of 1942 (or other year if specified) for packing all of the products included in the item (or for that use).

In the case of a Schedule III item, the amount resulting from the computation required by this paragraph may be increased to the extent permitted in the next paragraph.

(l) Minimum-pack allowance. In order to take advantage of this paragraph a user must waive the privilege, given to him by paragraph (i–1) of this order, of distributing his quota for an item among the several products included in the item as he sees fit. He must distribute his quota (both footage and tonnage) among those products in exactly the same proportion as he did during the base period he has selected. If he does this, and if his tonnage quota for any particular product (within the item) is not enough for a "minimum pack" of that product, his tonnage quota for that product is increased to the extent needed for a "minimum pack". However, the footage quota for that product is not increased.

"Minimum pack" means the amount of a particular Schedule III product (within an item) packed in new fibre shipping containers by the user, during the corresponding three-month period of the base year applicable to that product (or twenty-five per cent of the amount so packed during the entire base year if he has chosen this base for his tonnage and footage quotas) multiplied by the quota percentage listed in Schedule III for that product.

(m) Adjustments for "reshippers". For quota purposes, "reshippers" shall be treated as though they were new fibre shipping containers. Accordingly, the containerboard content of all reshippers used by a user during the corresponding quarter of the base year (or twenty-five per cent of that used by him during the entire base year if he has chosen this method of computing his footage and tonnage quotas) for packing the products included in a Schedule III item may be included in figuring his footage and tonnage quotas for that item (paragraphs (j) and (k) above). Likewise, the containerboard content of all reshippers accepted or used by a user during any quota period for packing the products in any Schedule III item shall be charged to his footage and tonnage quotas for that item. The term "reshippers" means new fibre shipping containers in which empty inner containers (such as glass jars, cans, etc.) are shipped to a packer and which are then used by the packer for shipping or delivering inner containers packed by him with some product. Paragraph (d) prohibits any person from delivering reshippers to any user unless the user furnishes with each purchase order the certification required by that paragraph.

Packing specifications

(m–1) Packing specifications for certain products—Schedule IV. Schedule IV lists products which may only be packed in new fibre shipping containers in accordance with the provisions of that schedule. No user (except a "small user"—see paragraph (s)) shall pack those products in new fibre shipping containers except in accordance with those provisions.

Furthermore, no user shall use for packing any Schedule IV item, any new fibre shipping container of a style or design requiring the use of more containerboard, per unit packed, in its manufacture than those he most commonly used for that item during the season when he last packed it. The only exceptions to this paragraph (m–1) are the following:

1. Until September 1, 1944, any fibre shipping container which was in process of manufacture on or before August 4, 1944 may be used to pack any Schedule IV product without regard to the provisions of that schedule or of this paragraph.

2. The provisions of this paragraph and those of Schedule IV do not apply to the use of fibre shipping containers to make deliveries to the Army, the Navy, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration or any United States agency making Lend-Lease purchases, when packaging specifications received in connection with such deliveries require deviations from the standards set forth in that schedule.

3. The provisions of this paragraph and of Schedule IV do not apply to the use of empty containers by the Army or the Navy.

Inventory Restrictions

(n) Inventory restrictions. No person shall accept delivery of, or have set aside for his account, any containers which will increase his inventory of unfilled new fibre shipping containers (including those held by others for his account as well as those he has on hand) to more than his maximum permitted inventory. He may figure his maximum permitted inventory in either (but not both) of two ways—"over-all" basis or "individual-item" basis.

(o) Over-all basis. On the over-all basis, his maximum permitted inventory of all sizes and types shall be no more than a combined total of 1½ carloads.

(p) Individual-item basis. On the individual-item basis he figures a separate inventory for each "container item class." In each class he figures how many he will need to meet his reasonably anticipated requirements in the next 30 days (as restricted by a quota on Schedule III, if any). If that is more than 1200 complete sets of that class his inventory for that class is his 30-day requirement; if not, it is 1200. The total of all his classes figured in this way will be his maximum permitted inventory, which he may divide among his several sizes and types as he sees fit. A "container item class" includes all new fibre shipping containers of the same or similar sizes and types currently being used by him. (A variation in size or type which does not make a container unsuitable for shipping the same amount of a product in substantially the same shape and form shall not be considered as representing a different size or type.)

(q) Seasonal-foods and military exceptions. The 30 day supply maximum in paragraph (p) above shall not apply to requirements for packing seasonal foods or to the Army's or Navy's requirements for empty new fibre shipping containers. Instead the "practicable minimum working inventory" provision in § 944.14 of Priorities Regulation 1 (and Interpretation 1a of that regulation) shall apply in those cases.

Multiple-Unit Organizations

(r) Multiple-unit organizations. Any user who uses new fibre shipping containers at more than one place may choose to apply the quota and inventory restrictions and the percentage specifications of Schedule IV of this order either to the operations of each place separately or to the collective operations of all his places. The same choice as to the inventory restrictions is available to any container-distributor who deals in new fibre shipping containers at more than one place. After making his choice, no person shall thereafter change it unless authorized by the War Production Board. Any user or container-distributor organization which consists of a parent corporation and one or more wholly-owned subsidiary corporations may consider itself as a single user or distributor for the purposes of this paragraph.

Exceptions and Exemptions

(s) Small-user exception. The quota restrictions of paragraph (i) and the packing specifications of paragraph (m–1) above do not apply to any user during any calendar year in which he accepts no more than a total of $500 worth (cost price to him) of new fibre shipping containers for all products (whether or not on Schedule III or IV).

(t) Use and quota exemptions for certain government orders. The use prohibitions of paragraph (f) above and the quota restrictions of paragraph (i) above do not apply to new fibre shipping containers which are used by any user (whether a manufacturer or a distributor) for delivering any product to any of the following persons or which are used by any user for delivering any product to be redelivered by another party (without further processing, fabrication, or incorporation into any other product, exclusive of wholesalers' and retailers' minor finishing or decorative operations as mentioned in Schedule III) to any of the following persons:

(1) The U. S. Army or Navy (exclusive of post exchanges or ship's service departments located within the 48 states and the District of Columbia).

(2) The Maritime Commission; the War Shipping Administration; or to other persons pursuant to authorization by the Maritime Commission on Form WPB–646 (formerly PD–300).

(3) Any U. S. agency making Lend-Lease purchases.

New fibre shipping containers used for those purposes may be regarded as being in addition to the user's quota for the product involved.

(u) Exceptions for stocks in transit or on hand. Any user may use for the purpose for which he acquired them any new fibre shipping containers which were in his possession or which were in transit to him on or before October 11, 1943. In the case of any product added to Schedule II after that date he may use for that product the containers which he had acquired or which were in transit to him for that product on or before the date on which the item was added to the schedule. These exceptions are subject to the quota restrictions of paragraph (i).

Miscellaneous Provisions

(v) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal.

(w) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Containers Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–317.

(x) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(y) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE I—PROHIBITED TYPES OF CONTAINERS

Paragraph (e) of Order L–317 prohibits the manufacture of the following types of containers from solid fibre (.045 or heavier) or corrugated fibre.

a. Bottle and can carry-outs
b. Counter boxes
c. Display-shippers
d. Laundry boxes and laundry shells
e. Retail gift boxes

SCHEDULE II—PROHIBITED USES

[NOTE: Schedule II amended 8–4–44.]

Pursuant to paragraph (f) of Order L–317, users' acceptance or use of new fibre shipping containers for packing the products listed below (or, where specified below, for packing less than a specified quantity of certain products listed below) is prohibited. Some exceptions from this prohibition are allowed in paragraphs (t) and (u) of the order. In addition, paragraph (f) specifies that its prohibition does not apply to containers used for wholesalers' or retailers' deliveries (as defined in Schedule III). However, new fibre shipping containers so used for any product below must be charged to the wholesaler's or the retailer's over-all quota under Schedule III.

a. Paper products:
  Catalogues.
  Magazines, including house organs.
  Posters.
  Punch boards.
b. Fresh fruits and vegetables, except apples, grapes, limes, mushrooms, pears and rhubarb.
c. Building Materials:
  Building brick (except glass brick).
  Cement—except household.
  Corks—except pipe coverings and insulation board.
  Flooring, wood, molding, mopboards, trim and wainscoting.
  Insulation board, rigid (except insulating tile and panel and cork insulation board.
  Non-rigid insulation—(except blocks, batts, blankets, and formed and/or metal-encased insulation)
  Plaster—cement, lime, gypsum (this does not include dental, orthopedic, and industrial-mold grades)
  Sash and doors, except glazed, not finished further than primed
  Shingles (except asbestos siding shingles and asphalt shingles which are on Schedule III)
  Tile—except acoustical, asphalt, and glazed or unglazed floor, wall or facing tile
d. Textiles (except clothing):
  Awnings
  Blankets and comforters—less than 6 per package
  Carpets and carpeting
  Mattresses—less than 4" thick
  Rugs
  Tents Waste wiping rags
e. Hardware:
  Buckets and pails—wood or metal (except metal pails manufactured solely for use as dairy and milk pails and except porcelain-enameled pails)
  Cans—refuse, garbage
  Garden and farm tools, 18" or more in length—including but not limited to: Hose, rakes, shovels Handles, 18" or more in length—including but not limited to: shovels, picks, axes, etc.
  Wash tubs—wood or metal
f. Glass products:
  1-pt. home canning jars—less than 24 per case

g. Horticultural items:
Bulbs
Ornamental shrubs
Seeds (flower)
h. Miscellaneous:
Advertising displays of all kinds, including but not limited to floor, window and counter displays, dispenser type displays and sign boards.
Athletic uniforms
Ball bats
Baskets—wicker, splint, etc.
Bridles
Brooms and broom handles, except as listed on Schedule III.
Charcoal—except activated carbon Coal
Cones—fir or pine
Fertilizers
Furniture—lawn and porch (except glass parts)
Furniture—unfinished, set-up (except glass parts)
Horse collars
Hose—rubber and fabric, except wire inserted
Ironing boards
Ladders
Linoleum and printed floor coverings—rugs and rolls
Mops—except oil mops
Nuts: unshelled, except soft shelled English Walnuts (of Mayette, Willson Wonder, Klondike, Bijou, and Momnoth Mayette varieties), Schley Pecan and Non-pareil Almonds.
Peanuts, unshelled
Peat moss
Playground equipment—wood, metal
Rope, string and twine
Saddles
Trunks (in carload lots)
Whips and crops

Schedule III—Products and Uses Subject to Quotas

[Note: Schedule III amended 8-4-44.]

Paragraph (i) of Order L-317 places quotas on the amount of new fibre shipping containers (including reshippers as defined in paragraph (m) of the order) that may be accepted or used for packing the products or for the types of uses listed below. The percentage listed opposite the item is to be used in figuring the quotas. The base year is 1942, unless another year is specified in the schedule, for example, "Mirrors (1943)". As explained in paragraphs (i-1) through (m), alternative bases (100 per cent of the corresponding three-month period in the base year or twenty-five per cent of the entire base year) may be selected for quota computations.

Code numbers in front of some items (for example, CDGS-429 Batteries: dry cell) refer to the code numbers on the Official CMP Product List set out in "Products and Priorities" published monthly by the War Production Board, the latest copy of which may be found in any War Production Board office or obtained from the United States Government Printing Office. Each such item covers every product listed under that code number and group name in the list. In order to find out whether any product is covered by a code number, follow the directions in the front of "Products and Priorities". The restrictions of this order apply to the product even though it may not contain copper, steel or aluminum (controlled materials). An asterisk indicates that there is no code number for the product.

Quotas must be computed and kept separately for each separately listed item in this Schedule. They may not be transferred from one such item to another. However, where a listed item covers several different products (as is the case with most code numbered items and some asterisked items) quotas may be computed for the item as a whole and distributed among the various products within the item as the user sees fit. For further rules which must be followed in figuring and making charges against quotas, see paragraphs (h) through (m).

The products listed below do not include repair parts, which are not restricted by the order.

Note: Items marked with an asterisk cover products that are not covered by code numbers.

Restricted Uses	Quota (percent)
Wholesalers' deliveries	70
Retailers' deliveries: mail, express and common carrier	70
Retailers' deliveries: other than mail, express and common carrier	60

These "restricted uses" items relate only to deliveries made by persons who have not produced the products delivered nor done any fabrication or processing work on them other than minor finishing or decorative operations usually performed by wholesalers and retailers (such as assembly of knocked-down furniture, monogramming of linen and jewelry, alteration of clothing). "Retailers' deliveries" means deliveries made by any such person who sells exclusively or predominantly at retail. "Wholesalers' deliveries" means deliveries made by any such person who sells exclusively or predominantly at wholesale. The quota for each type of use represents the maximum total amount of containers which can be so used for all products (whether or not listed in Schedule III). The quota takes the place of a separate quota for each Schedule III product.

SCHEDULE IV—PACKING SPECIFICATIONS

TABLE I—SPECIFICATIONS OF FIBRE SHIPPING CONTAINERS (SOLID OR CORRUGATED) PERMITTED FOR PACKING MEAT AND OTHER PACKING HOUSE PRODUCTS

A user may choose to limit himself to a quota of 85 per cent of his 1943 new fibre shipping container usage (computed in accordance with paragraphs (h) through (m) of this order) for packing all of the products listed in this table. If he does this, he need not pay any attention to the rest of this schedule; but can pack said products in fibre shipping containers of any "specification" and size he sees fit. Users must decide, once and for all, whether they will limit their usage of fibre shipping containers under this paragraph or under the balance of this table; for they may not change from one method of operation to another.

Subject to the preceding paragraph and the exceptions listed in paragraph (m–1) of this order, the products listed below may only be packed in fibre shipping containers in accordance with the provisions of this table. The provisions listed under "Class A" apply to all shipments from processing or manufacturing units to units other than retail stores, and the provisions listed under "Class B" apply to all shipments to retailers from processing or manufacturing units. Except where otherwise specified, listed percentages and other provisions of this table are applicable to each class separately.

Unless an exception is provided in Column 7, the products listed in this table may not be shipped in new fibre shipping containers in any amounts except those listed for the product in Columns 1 and 4. Likewise they may not be packed in new fibre shipping containers exceeding the maximum specifications in Columns 2 and 5. However, solid fibre containers may be substituted for corrugated wherever the former have an equivalent or lower Mullen test than those of the specified corrugated containers. (In this connection, attention is called to Direction 2 to Order M–290 which restricts the manufacture of solid fibre containers.)

No containerboard interior packing or fittings may be used except as specifically indicated in Column 7.

Percentage figures appearing in Columns 3 and 6 mean that no more than the indicated percentage of the amount of the affected product which a user packs in new fibre shipping containers during the period between August 4 and September 30, 1944, and during each calendar quarter after that, may be packed in new fibre shipping containers of the capacity and specifications to which the percentage applies. Attention is called to various exceptions from this table set forth in paragraph (m–1) of Order L–317. Percentages should be computed without regard to any shipments made in accordance with these exceptions.

"Specifications" indicate the Mullen test and type of containerboard which may be used. "COR" means corrugated fibre. "F" means solid fibre.

By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

INTERPRETATION 1

The restrictions of L-317 (§ 3270.6) are applicable only to new fibre shipping containers. A question has arisen as to the status of such containers which have been rejected during the course of manufacture or upon delivery because of errors in size, printing, etc. Such containers are new containers and subject to the restrictions contained in the order until they have been used for the packing of a product (Issued Nov. 6, 1943)

INTERPRETATION 2

APPLICABILITY OF INVENTORY RESTRICTIONS TO V-BOXES

(a) Applicability of inventory restrictions to V-boxes. It has been called to the attention of the War Production Board that there is, in certain quarters, a misimpression to the effect that V-boxes are exempted from the Inventory Restrictions of Order L-317. This impression is completely unfounded. Inventories of V-boxes are controlled to the same extent as other fibre shipping containers by the provisions of paragraph (n) through (q) of Order L-317 and paragraph (b) of Direction 1 of that order.

(b) Cancellation of excessive V-box orders. V-box orders are also subject to the restrictions against placing excessive orders set forth in paragraphs (c) and (d) of Direction 1 of Order L-317. Therefore, all orders for V-boxes in excess of the amount which a person would be entitled to receive within these inventory limitations must be cancelled immediately.

(c) Responsibility of box manufacturers. Attention is called to the fact that box manufacturers share responsibility for seeing to it that no V-boxes (as well as other fibre shipping containers) are delivered which will cause a customer to exceed his permitted inventory, because under paragraph (d) of Order L-317 they are prohibited from manufacturing, selling, or delivering any new fibre shipping containers which they know or have reason to believe will be used or accepted in violation of the order. (Issued May 26, 1944)

PART 3284—BUILDING MATERIALS

[Limitation Order L-326, Schedule I, as Amended Aug. 4, 1944]

SOLID TOOTH CIRCULAR SAWS FOR CUTTING WOOD

§ 3284.117 Schedule I to Limitation Order L-326—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures or in any way fabricates circular saws.

(2) "Saw" means a solid tooth circular saw designed and manufactured for the cutting of wood. This schedule does not apply to metal cutting saws.

(b) Simplified practices. (1) After November 23, 1943, no producer may begin the manufacture or fabrication of any saw which does not conform to the kinds, diameters, gages, numbers and types of teeth, and numbers of grades set forth in Appendix A of this schedule. Notwithstanding this provision, however, a producer may manufacture and fabricate non-conforming saws to fill orders which were on his books before November 23, 1943. Non-conforming saws may not be delivered or shipped by a producer after May 23, 1944.

(c) Exemptions. The following are exempt from the restrictions established by this schedule:

(1) Inserted tooth saws.

(2) Segment saws.

(3) Solid tooth circular saws less than 8 inches in diameter which are ⅛ inch or less thick.

(4) Fillers for dado heads which are already in use on November 23, 1943.

(5) Concave saws and chamfering saws for use with concave saws.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,

APPENDIX A

Gage designations and gage tolerances. Gages given herein are Birmingham or Stubs' wire gages.

Flat ground saws are designated by a single gage number, which sets the thickness of every part of the saw. Some saws over 38 inches in diameter, including bolters, head or log saws, and some common rip saws, are approximately one gage heavier at the center than at the rim, and are designated by two gage numbers. Shingle and heading saws are flat ground on one side and taper on the other from the collar to the rim, and are designated by two gage numbers. Resaws, which are tapered on both sides from the collar to the rim, and in some instances are flat on one side and tapered on the other, are also designated by two gage numbers.

Hollow ground saws, which are ground thinner in back of the rim for clearance, are designated by three gage numbers: gage at rim, gage at thinnest circle, and gage at collar.

The gages specified are subject to the following tolerances, except where otherwise provided.

Flat ground saws—

38 inches in diameter and less: Plus or minus ½ gage.

Over 38 inches in diameter: Rim—plus or minus ½ gage.

Center—plus one gage, minus 0.010 inch.

Shingle, heading, head or log saws, and resaws—

Rim—plus or minus ½ gage.

Center—plus one gage, minus 0.010 inch.

Hollow ground saws—

Rim—plus or minus ½ gage.

Thinnest circle—plus or minus ½ gage.

Collar—plus two gages, minus ½ gage.

Diameter tolerances. Except where otherwise provided, the diameters specified herein are subject to the following tolerances: Plus or minus ⅛ inch for saws 24 inches or less in diameter, and plus or minus 3/16 inch for saws more than 24 inches in diameter.

Kinds of saws. All varieties of saws permitted to be produced under this schedule are identified in the following tables by diameter, gage or gages, number of teeth and type of teeth, or, in the case of certain kinds which are less restricted, they are described in more general terms. No other kinds or varieties may be produced.

Types of teeth. Permitted types of teeth are identified in the tables by letters which refer to illustrations shown at the end of this appendix.[1] The profiles of teeth made by individual producers may vary slightly from those illustrated, but this permissible variation shall not be construed as permitting any producer to put more than one shape of tooth on any one size and gage saw of a given kind.

Grades. Certain saws designated herein by an asterisk are permitted to be made in two grades. No producer shall make any of the saws so designated in more than two grades, or any of the remainder in more than one grade.

Cut-in-half saws. Any rip, cut off, or smooth trimmer saw may be furnished cut in half, with or without collar.

Slots. The rims of any saws may be provided with expansion slots.

TABLE 1—RIP SAWS, COMMON

NOTE: Table 1 amended Aug. 4, 1944.

All common rip saws are to be made with type A or type E teeth, or both, except those designated by letter to take type B, C, or D. Saws designated to take type B teeth may also be made with type E teeth.

PART 3284—BUILDING MATERIALS

[Limitation Order L-326, Schedule II, as Amended Aug. 4, 1944]

WIDE BAND SAWS

§ 3284.118 Schedule II to Limitation Order L-326—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures or in any way fabricates wide band saws.

(2) "Saw" means a band saw two or more inches wide designed and manufactured for the cutting of wood. This schedule does not apply to metal cutting saws.

(b) Simplified practices. (1) After November 23, 1943, no producer may begin the manufacture or fabrication of any saw which does not conform to the kinds, widths, gages, numbers and types of teeth, and numbers of grades set forth in Appendix A of this schedule. Notwithstanding this provision, however, a producer may manufacture and fabricate non-conforming saws to fill orders which were on his books before November 23, 1943. Non-conforming saws may not be delivered or shipped by a producer after May 23, 1944.

Issued this 4th day of August, 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX A

NOTE: Appendix A amended by deleting paragraph entitled "Length of Saws," Aug. 4, 1944.

Gage designations and gage tolerances. Gages given herein are Birmingham or Stubs' wire gages. Thicknesses are subject to a tolerance of plus or minus 0.002 inch.

Width tolerances. The widths specified herein are subject to a tolerance of plus ⅛ inch, minus 0.010 inch.

Grades. Saws designated herein by an asterisk are permitted to be made in two grades. No producer may make any of the saws so designated in more than two grades, or any of the remainder in more than one grade.

Kinds of saws. All saws permitted to be produced under this schedule are identified in the following table by width, gage, and type of teeth. No other kinds or varieties may be produced, except that any of the saws listed may be furnished with the same type of teeth on both edges, with sliver teeth, or with perforations.

Types of teeth. Permitted types of teeth are identified in the table by letters which refer to illustrations[1] shown at the end of this appendix. A producer's standard profile for any type of tooth specified herein may vary slightly from the contours illustrated, but no producer shall have more than one profile for any type of tooth specified herein.

[Limitation Order L–326, Schedule III, as Amended Aug. 4, 1944]

NARROW BAND SAWS

§ 3284.119 Schedule III to Limitation Order L–326—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who manufactures or in any way fabricates narrow band saws.

(2) "Saw" means a band saw less than two inches wide designed and manufactured for the cutting of wood. This schedule does not apply to metal cutting saws or hard edge flexible back band as defined in Schedule VIII to Limitation Order L–216.

(b) Simplified practices. (1) After November 23, 1943, no producer may begin the manufacture or fabrication of any saw which does not conform to the kinds, widths, gages, numbers and types of teeth set forth in Appendix "A" of this schedule. Notwithstanding this provision, however, a producer may manufacture and fabricate non-conforming saws to fill orders which were on his books before November 23, 1943. Non-conforming saws may not be delivered or shipped by a producer after May 23, 1944.

NOTE: Appendix A amended Aug. 4, 1944.

Gage designations and gage tolerances. Gages given herein are Birmingham or Stubs' wire gages. Thicknesses are subject to a tolerance of plus or minus 0.002 inch.

Width tolerances. The widths specified herein are subject to a tolerance of plus or minus 10 percent.

Grades. No producer shall make any of the saws permitted under this schedule in more than one grade.

Varieties of saws. All varieties of saws permitted to be produced under this schedule are identified in the following table by width, gage, and types of teeth and number per inch. No other varieties may be produced.

Type of teeth. All narrow band saws shall have teeth of the type illustrated at the end of this appendix.[1]

PART 3284—BUILDING MATERIALS

[Limitation Order L–327, as Amended Aug. 4, 1944]

AIRCRAFT LIGHTING EQUIPMENT

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials used to produce aircraft lighting equipment for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3284.48 Limitation Order L–327—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order "aircraft lighting equipment" means any light or lamp assemblies (whether portable or not) specifically designed or constructed for use on aircraft, either for purposes of illumination or indication. The term includes all parts, equipment, and devices specifically designed or constructed for use in conjunction with such light or lamp assemblies. The following are examples of types of assemblies included in this definition:

(1) "Landing light," meaning a light or lamp assembly, including any retractable mechanism or adapter, designed to illuminate the ground or other area for the purpose of facilitating the landing of aircraft;

(2) "Position light," meaning a light or lamp assembly used on aircraft to indicate its position and direction of motion;

(3) "Anchor or riding light," meaning a light or lamp assembly used on floating aircraft to indicate its position when anchored;

(4) "Formation light," meaning a light or lamp assembly used to facilitate formation flying;

(5) "Recognition light," meaning a light or lamp assembly used for the identification of friendly aircraft;

(6) "Instrument light," meaning a light or lamp assembly used to illuminate or irradiate aircraft instruments;

(7) "Cabin light," meaning a light or lamp assembly designed for the purpose of illuminating the interior of aircraft;

(8) "Signal light," meaning a light or lamp assembly designed to be operated manually for the purpose of signaling from aircraft;

(9) "Indicator light," meaning a light or lamp assembly which indicates a condition or the functioning of a device or indicates some action taken or to be taken;

(10) "Approach light," meaning a light or lamp assembly mounted on aircraft and designed for the purpose of facilitating the landing of aircraft on aircraft carriers.

The term "aircraft lighting equipment" does not include pyrotechnic devices, gunsights or bombsights, indicator lights incorporated as an integral part of radio and radar apparatus, or aviation ground lighting equipment as defined in Order L–235.

(b) Restrictions on manufacture, sale, and delivery. On and after April 10, 1944, no person may manufacture, assemble, sell or deliver any aircraft lighting equipment except:

(1) Aircraft lighting equipment certified by The Aeronautical Board of the United States, Washington, D. C., as conforming to specifications or drawings issued by such Board, or

(2) Aircraft lighting equipment certified by the Matériel Command of the Army Air Forces of the United States, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, as conforming to specifications or drawings issued by or acceptable to such Command, to the extent that Aeronautical Board specifications or drawings are not applicable, or where Aeronautical Board specifications or drawings are applicable, pending the completion of qualification tests and issuance of notice to that effect by The Aeronautical Board, or

(3) Aircraft lighting equipment certified by the Bureau of Aeronautics of the Navy Department of the United States, Washington, D. C., as conforming to specifications or drawings issued by or acceptable to such Bureau, to the extent that Aeronautical Board specifications or drawings are not applicable, or where Aeronautical Board specifications or drawings are applicable, pending the completion of qualification tests and issuance of notice to that effect by The Aeronautical Board, or

(4) Aircraft lighting equipment certified by the Civil Aeronautics Administration of the U. S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C., as conforming to the Civil Air Regulations, or

(5) Aircraft lighting equipment to be used only for purposes of experimentation, research and development, or test, or

(6) Aircraft lighting equipment specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board. (Each person filing a request for authorization pursuant to this subparagraph shall provide information by letter in triplicate, including the following: Description of lighting equipment and/or accessories, giving type, specification, drawing numbers, and value; quantity; customer's name and location; purchase order number and date received; delivery schedule; prime contract number; and reasons why equipment certified under paragraphs (b) (1), (b) (2), (b) (3), or (b) (4) of this order cannot be used), or

(7) Parts required for the maintenance and repair of existing aircraft lighting equipment, and complete assemblies where required for replacement of aircraft lighting equipment damaged beyond repair, to the extent that equipment certified under paragraphs (b) (1), (b) (2), (b) (3), or (b) (4) of this order is impracticable for such replacement.

(c) Restrictions on installation. On and after April 10, 1944, no person may install any aircraft lighting equipment unless the manufacture, assembly, sale, and delivery of such equipment is permitted under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this order or unless specific authorization to install such equipment has been obtained from the War Production Board in the manner prescribed in paragraph (b) (6) of this order.

(d) Table of acceptable aircraft lighting equipment.[1] The table supplementing this order lists certain types, drawings, and specifications of acceptable aircraft lighting equipment and manufacturers whose products have been certified under paragraphs (b) (1), (b) (2), (b) (3), and (b) (4) of this order. This table will be brought up to date from time to time to include new certifications granted subsequent to the latest revision of this table.

(e) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected by it are subject to all present and future regulations of the War Production Board.

(f) Appeals. Any appeal under the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of appeal.

(g) Communications. All communications and appeals concerning this order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Building Materials Division, Lighting and Fixtures Section, Washington 25, D C., Ref: L–327.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[Conservation Order M–328B, Direction 2]

CHILDREN'S SNOW SUITS PLAN NO. 1

The following direction is issued pursuant to M–328B:

1. The time within which persons who were assigned a preference rating under Children's Snow Suits Plan No. 1 of Schedule A are required to purchase materials for which a preference rating was assigned is hereby extended to September 1, 1944.

2. The time within which persons who were assigned a preference rating under Children's Apparel Plan No. 2 of Schedule A are required to purchase materials for which a preference rating was assigned is hereby extended to August 15, 1944; and the time within which they are required to produce and accept and fill orders for the garments they are required to manufacture from such materials is hereby extended to September 15, 1944.

3. The time within which persons who were assigned a preference rating under Supplements I, II, III or IV of Schedule A are required to purchase materials for which a preference rating was assigned is hereby extended to September 15, 1944; and the time within which they are required to produce and accept and fill orders for the garments they are required to manufacture from such materials is hereby extended to October 30, 1944.

4. All individual directions heretofore issued under the above mentioned Special Programs are hereby amended to conform with the above.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

PART 3291—CONSUMERS DURABLE GOODS

[Limitation Order L–71, as Amended Aug. 4, 1944]

DRY CELL BATTERIES AND PORTABLE ELECTRIC LIGHTS OPERATED BY DRY CELL BATTERIES

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of materials and certain facilities used in the production of dry cell batteries, zinc shells for dry cell batteries and portable electric lights for defense for private account and for export and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3291.125 Limitation Order L–71—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Circular C435" means Circular C435 of the National Bureau of Standards, issued February 18, 1942, entitled "American Standard Specification for Dry Cells and Batteries."

(2) "Dry cell battery" means any primary cell or assembly of cells in which the electrolyte is nonspillable and in which electric current is produced by electrochemical action.

(3) "Portable electric light" means any flashlight or other portable electric light operated by one or more dry cell batteries. It does not include bulbs, dry cell batteries, electric flares covered by L–158, aviation ground lighting equipment covered by L–235, aircraft lighting equipment covered by L–327, or devices specifically designed and built for use in military operations, marine navigation or lifesaving.

(4) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of making or assembling dry cell batteries, zinc shells for dry cell batteries or portable electric lights.

(b) Restrictions on use of materials in the manufacture of portable electric lights. No manufacturer shall use any metal or crude, reclaimed or synthetic rubber in the manufacture of portable electric lights or parts for portable electric lights, except

(1) Iron and steel, provided that no steel except tin mill blackplate rejects and wasters is used in the manufacture of tubes for flashlight cases.

(2) Aluminum.

(3) Copper and copper base alloy for plating current carrying parts other than cases.

(4) Tin in solder.

(5) Zinc for plating, electrical contact fittings and reflectors.

(c) General restrictions on production and delivery. (1) No manufacturer shall make or deliver any dry cell batteries or portable electric lights except according to a quota authorized by the War Production Board on Form WPB–2719 (formerly PD–880).

(2) Each manufacturer must file this form with the War Production Board on or before the 10th day of March, June, September and December, showing his proposed production and delivery.

(3) Manufacture of portable electric lights will be authorized to qualified manufacturers so that total production will not exceed the approved War Production Board program and so that production in any one plant or labor requirements therefor will not interfere with the war production in that plant or in any plant located in the same area.

(4) The War Production Board when assigning quotas on Form WPB–2719 (formerly PD–880) or at any other time, may direct any manufacturer in writing to distribute specified amounts of his production for certain purposes or for certain end uses. If at any time the War Production Board finds that the supply of zinc shells for the production of dry cell batteries authorized under paragraph (c) (1) is not sufficient to complete that production, it may direct any manufacturer of dry cell batteries to reduce or cancel his orders for zinc shells, or it may limit the number and type of zinc shells which may be received and used by such manufacturer.

(d) Special restrictions on delivery. (1) No manufacturer shall sell any new portable electric lights except to fill orders rated AA–5 or higher.

(2) No person shall resell any new portable electric lights which he bought from a manufacturer after July 18, 1944, except to fill orders rated AA–5 or higher or orders certified under Priorities Regulation No. 19 as amended from time to time.

(3) No manufacturer shall sell any dry cell batteries knowing or having reason to believe that they will ultimately be used in a radio set designed primarily for the reception of broadcasts on standard wave lengths 550 to 1500 KC, except (i) Batteries having cells designated "D" in Table 1 of Circular C435 with modifications as permitted in section 2.2 of that circular, or larger sized cells than those designated "D", (ii) "C" batteries as described in Table 8 of Circular C435.

(e) Special exemptions. The restrictions contained in paragraphs (b) and (d) do not apply to the manufacture or sale of dry cell batteries or portable electric lights made to fill specific orders calling for delivery to or for the account of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Office of Scientific Research and Development, Panama Canal, Coast and Geodetic Survey, or orders approved by the Maritime Commission on Form WPB–646 (formerly PD–300).

(f) Applicability of other orders and regulations. This order and all transactions affected by this order are subject to the applicable regulations of the War Production Board. If any other orders of the War Production Board limits the use of any material in the production of dry cell batteries or portable electric lights to a greater extent than does this order, the other order shall govern unless it states otherwise.

(g) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be filed on Form WPB–1477 in triplicate with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the appellant to which the appeal relates.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making, or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board. Consumers Durable Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–71.

(j) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports as the War Production Board may specify from time to time, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–575, Stay of Execution]

ATLAS FURNACE & ENGINEERING, INC.

The Atlas Furnace & Engineering, Inc., of Minneapolis, Minnesota, has appealed the provisions of Suspension Order No. S–575, issued the 15th day of July 1944 (§ 1010.575), and has requested a stay on the ground that irreparable harm would be done its business if the suspension order were not stayed. The Chief Compliance Commissioner has directed that the provisions of the suspension order be stayed pending final determination of the appeal or until further order by the Chief Compliance Commissioner. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered, That:

The provisions of Suspension Order No. S–575, issued July 15, 1944, are hereby stayed pending final determination of the appeal or until further order by the Chief Compliance Commissioner.

Issued this 3d day of August 1944.

Subchapter C—Director of War Utilities

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 4500—POWER, WATER, GAS AND CENTRAL STEAM HEAT

[Utilities Order U–7, as Amended Aug. 4, 1944]

NATURAL GAS

Whereas, increased gas requirements for war production and civilian uses, coupled with scarcity of materials for the construction of pipelines and other facilities, have resulted in shortages of natural gas in certain areas of the United States and are threatened in others; during periods of adverse weather conditions the demand for natural gas in almost all areas increases beyond the capacity of existing facilities to meet such demands; and the following order is deemed necessary to conserve existing reserves of natural gas and to safeguard deliveries to war industries and essential civilian services, and in other respects is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the war effort;

§ 4500.10 Utilities Order U–7—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Natural gas" means any combustible natural gas or gases and fuel gas derivatives of natural gases, fuel gas derivatives of petroleum produced as by-products in the production, refining or processing of petroleum, or mixtures of any of the aforesaid gases with blue gas, carburetted water gas, coke oven gas, producer gas, blast furnace gas, oil gas, or any other manufactured gas; but does not include liquefied petroleum gas in the liquid phase.

(3) "Utility" means any person supplying natural gas for general use by the public.

(4) "Non-utility supplier" means any person supplying or capable of supplying natural gas or who owns or operates natural or manufactured gas production, transmission, or distribution facilities and who is not included in the definition of "utility" in paragraph (a) (3): Provided, That no person engaged in the production, refining or processing of petroleum or natural gas shall be considered a non-utility supplier, except as to the use or disposition of natural gas as a combustible fuel gas after completion of such production, refining or processing.

(5) "Consumer" means any ultimate user of gas produced, transmitted or distributed by any "utility" or "non-utility supplier", including any utility or non-utility supplier which is itself an ultimate user of gas.

(6) "Stand-by facilities" means equipment capable of utilizing electrical energy, oil, coal or any other fuel or energy to replace natural gas and for the operation of which a supply of such fuel or energy is obtainable or could have been obtained in the exercise of reasonable diligence.

(7) "Premises" means any building or structure and its adjuncts: Provided, That in the case of "consumer" who receive deliveries of gas for the operation of equipment not contained within a building, any delivery point and the confines of the area supplied with natural gas from such delivery point shall be deemed a "premises".

(8) "Residential consumer" means any "consumer" receiving natural gas for the operation of space heating, hot water heating, cooking or refrigeration equipment used for residential purposes, where the total input capacity of the space heating equipment does not exceed 250,000 B. T. U. per hour.

(9) "Non-residential consumer" means any "consumer" other than a residential consumer as defined in (a) (8).

(b) Integration of gas system operations. (1) Each utility or non-utility supplier shall, as far as practicable, so operate and maintain its transmission, storage, distribution and gas manufacturing facilities as to achieve maximum deliverability of natural gas in any area or areas in which a shortage exists or is imminent and to conserve existing gas reserves; and no utility or non-utility supplier shall abandon any such facilities except upon specific authorization of the War Production Board. Where necessary for such purposes, the War Production Board may, from time to time, issue specific directions as to the operation of gas manufacturing, transmission, storage and distribution facilities.

(2) Each utility or non-utility supplier shall maintain in operating condition all gas manufacturing facilities owned or operated by such utility or non-utility supplier which were in operating condition on November 12, 1942. Each utility or non-utility supplier shall repair and maintain in operating condition such other facilities including gas manufacturing facilities owned or operated by such utility or non-utility supplier as the War Production Board may, from time to time, direct. Wherever repair and maintenance of gas facilities requires the use of materials in excess of those available under any order issued by the War Production Board, application for authority to use or acquire such materials should be made to the War Production Board in accordance with established procedures.

(3) The War Production Board may, from time to time, issue specific directions respecting the delivery of natural gas from one utility or non-utility supplier to another or to any consumer, and respecting the interconnection of any facilities; and no utility or non-utility supplier shall deliver or accept or fail to deliver or accept deliveries of gas or fail to interconnect facilities in violation of any such direction. Subject to such directions and to the provisions of paragraph (b) (5), each utility or non-utility supplier shall so interchange natural gas with its interconnected utilities or non-utility suppliers as to achieve, directly or indirectly, the maximum deliverability in any area or areas in which a shortage exists or is imminent.

(4) Upon specific direction of the War Production Board, utilities or non-utility suppliers shall curtail gas deliveries to specified classes of consumers on their systems if necessary in order to make available gas for delivery to utilities or non-utility suppliers on whose systems there exists a shortage which adversely affects or threatens service to war producers or other essential consumers. Any utility or non-utility supplier may request the War Production Board to direct another utility or non-utility supplier to deliver gas to it, on the ground that such delivery will safeguard service to war producers or essential consumers, or will otherwise be in the interest of the war effort.

(5) No utility shall deliver natural gas to any other utility or non-utility supplier not theretofore regularly supplied by such utility (except emergency deliveries to relieve a shortage resulting from the failure or breakdown of gas production, transmission or distribution facilities), without specific approval of the War Production Board. Any utility making such emergency deliveries shall report directly to the War Production Board, Office of War Utilities, Natural Gas Division, Ref.: U–7, the nature of the emergency and the amount and duration of such deliveries.

(6) Each non-utility supplier in any area served by any utility with which such non-utility supplier is interconnected or is capable of being interconnected, shall upon notice from the War Production Board so order its operations as to make available to such utility, or to any essential war producer or other consumer, all natural or manufactured gas which it is capable of producing or supplying in excess of the minimum requirements of its own essential operations. Any non-utility supplier which on October 1, 1943 was supplying natural gas to a utility in an area in which a shortage exists or is imminent shall not discontinue deliveries to such utility without the approval of the War Production Board, unless it is no longer capable of making such deliveries, or pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) (1).

(c) Operations during gas shortages. (1) In the event of an existing or imminent gas shortage in any area, each utility or non-utility supplier supplying such area shall conduct its operations and reduce deliveries to non-residential consumers in accordance with the following schedule, subject to such further or special directions as the War Production Board may from time to time issue: Provided, That to the extent, if any, required by the emergency nature of the shortage such utility or non-utility supplier may, in the first instance, reduce deliveries without regard to such schedule, but shall, as soon as possible thereafter, readjust its operations and deliveries to conform in all respects to such schedule during the continuance of the gas shortage period. The utility or non-utility supplier shall:

(i) First, within the limit of contractual rights, reduce deliveries to all consumers purchasing natural gas under contracts permitting the supplier to interrupt deliveries: Provided, That deliveries of gas to exempted consumers, as defined in paragraph (c) (6), shall be reduced only to the extent that the fuel requirements of such consumers can be supplied from the consumer's stand-by facilities: And provided, That deliveries shall be maintained to any consumer to the minimum extent necessary to prevent permanent damage to production and service facilities, except that such deliveries shall be interrupted under paragraph (c) (1) (v) below.

(ii) Second, if such action has not previously been taken, operate utility's or non-utility supplier's stand-by gas manufacturing facilities up to their maximum operating capacity: Provided, That any utility may request the War Production Board to direct the operation of specific consumer stand-by facilities (in addition to those provided above) prior to the operation of such utility's stand-by manufacturing facilities, upon the ground that such action would relieve the gas shortage more expeditiously, or with less use of critical fuels, or would otherwise be in the interest of the war effort.

(iii) Third, reduce deliveries without regard to the supplier's contractual rights or those of any consumer to all remaining consumers having stand-by facilities, to the extent of the capacity of stand-by facilities.

(iv) Fourth, if such action has not previously been taken, notify all domestic and other consumers by radio, newspaper, or any other available means of general communication, that a temporary gas emergency in the area exists or is imminent and appeal for the immediate institution of voluntary curtailment by all gas consumers, to be maintained until notification that the emergency has passed.

(v) Fifth, interrupt deliveries within the limits of contractual rights to any consumers purchasing gas under contracts permitting the supplier to interrupt deliveries, who have not been fully curtailed under previous steps: Provided, That deliveries of gas to exempted consumers shall be reduced only to the extent that the full requirements of such consumers can be supplied from the consumers' stand-by facilities.

(vi) Sixth, reduce deliveries to all consumers not fully curtailed under previous steps, without regard to the supplier's contractual rights or those of any consumer or the non-existence of stand-by facilities: Provided, That deliveries of gas to exempted consumers shall be reduced only to the extent that the full requirements of such consumers can be supplied from the consumers' stand-by facilities.

(vii) Seventh, reduce deliveries to exempted consumers on a uniform proportionate basis so far as practicable pending receipt of special directions from the War Production Board.

(2) A "gas shortage" shall be deemed to exist whenever (i) a utility or non-utility supplier finds it necessary to reduce deliveries to its consumers, or (ii) the utility or non-utility supplier is able to maintain full deliveries to all consumers only by excessive withdrawals from storage or reserves which impair its ability to meet its forthcoming peak-day requirements to the usual extent, or (iii) the War Production Board notifies a utility or non-utility supplier that it considers a shortage to exist on such system.

(3) Deliveries to residential consumers during gas shortages shall be made pursuant to such directions as the War Production Board may from time to time issue: Provided, That any utility may at any time submit to the War Production Board a practicable program for the curtailment of its domestic consumers during such gas shortages and request that it be declared operative by the War Production Board among consumers of such utility.

(4) Except as set forth in the proviso of the first paragraph of paragraph (c) (1), or pursuant to special directions of the War Production Board, deliveries to any consumer in the respective groups defined above in paragraphs (c) (1) (i) to (c) (1) (vii) inclusive, shall not be reduced until deliveries to all consumers in prior groups have been fully suspended in accordance with the specific provisions of such paragraph: Provided, That deliveries to consumers in any group who consume less than 3000 mcf of gas per month need not be suspended before commencing curtailment of successive groups where such consumers are scattered or for other reasons not susceptible of speedy curtailment. Reductions to consumers defined in paragraph (c) (1) (i) shall be on such basis as will relieve the shortage most expeditiously; reduction to consumers within all groups defined in paragraph (c) (1) (iii) to (c) (1) (vii) inclusive shall so far as practicable be made on a uniform proportionate basis: Provided, That any utility or non-utility supplier may request the War Production Board to approve a specific program for such interruptions within any class of consumers, on a geographic or other basis which will relieve gas shortages more expeditiously.

(5) Each utility or non-utility supplier shall classify each of its non-residential consumers subject to probable curtailment within the applicable grouping set forth in paragraphs (c) (1) (i) to (c) (1) (vi), inclusive. Certain utility or non-utility suppliers will be required by the War Production Board to submit such a classification of non-residential consumers using 3000 MCF or more per month on Form WPB–619, together with the other data relative to operations during shortages required by such form. Only the War Production Board can classify consumers as 'exempted consumers'. Unless modified or revised by direction of the War Production Board, such consumer classification lists submitted on Form WPB–619 shall determine the grouping of each consumer in the application of the curtailment schedule set forth in paragraph (c) (1). At the direction of the war Production Board specific consumers or classes of consumers may at any time be classified in any of the groups defined in paragraphs (c) (1) (i) to (c) (1) (vii), inclusive, or in any special group, without regard to size, nature, or terms of delivery, whenever such action will assist in relieving gas shortage more expeditiously, or with less use of critical fuels, or in other respects will be in the interest of the war effort.

(6) An "exempted consumer" means a non-residential consumer whose operations have been determined by the War Production Board to be so important that an interruption of gas deliveries would seriously impair the war effort. The War Production Board will from time to time provide each supplier with a list of the exempted consumers on its system.

[Note: Paragraphs (7), (8), (9) formerly (6), (7), (8) redesignated 8–4–44.]

(7) Whenever, pursuant to any of the provisions of this order, or any special direction of the War Production Board, a utility or non-utility supplier is required to reduce deliveries to any consumer, it shall notify such consumer accordingly. Upon receipt of such notification each consumer shall reduce his acceptance of gas deliveries in accordance therewith.

(8) Notwithstanding any provisions of this order, if the War Production Board, after investigation, shall determine that any consumer having stand-by facilities, has failed to provide himself with an adequate supply of fuel for the operation of such stand-by facilities despite the availability of such fuel, the War Production Board may prohibit deliveries of gas to, and acceptances of gas by, such consumer to the extent that his requirements of gas could have been decreased through the operation of such stand-by facilities.

(9) The following reports shall be filed with the War Production Board relative to gas shortages:

(i) Whenever any utility or non-utility supplier reduces deliveries of gas to any consumer pursuant to paragraph (c) (1) (v) above or any subsequent subparagraph of (c) (1), such utility or non-utility supplier shall immediately notify the War Production Board, Office of War Utilities, Natural Gas Division, Ref.: U–7, by telegram, of the extent of such reduction.

(ii) On or before the 15th day of each month following a calendar month during which reductions in delivery have occurred, each affected utility or non-utility supplier shall submit a report on Form WPB–620 of the aggregate volumes of natural gas conserved by such reductions in delivery and the volumes of natural gas replaced by consumer stand-by facilities and by utility or non-utility supplier gas manufacturing stand-by facilities.

(iii) On or before the 15th day of each month, each utility or non-utility supplier in certain areas specifically designated by the War Production Board shall submit on Form WPB–2077 a report of natural gas underground storage operations, summarizing such operations for the calendar month preceding the date of reporting.

(d) Restrictions on deliveries of natural gas to non-residential consumers. (1) No utility or non-utility supplier shall deliver natural gas to any non-residential consumer for the operation of any gas-fired equipment (including space heating equipment) and no non-residential consumer shall accept such deliveries, in any area listed on Exhibit B or Exhibit C, except in cases described in paragraphs (d) (2) or (d) (3) below, or unless:

(i) Such equipment was installed and in regular operation at the same premises prior to November 30, 1942: Provided, Deliveries of natural gas for the operation thereof were not prohibited prior to that date by Limitation Order L–31, or

(ii) Such equipment was converted from some other fuel to natural gas, and such conversion was completed and in regular operation at the same premises prior to November 30, 1942: Provided, That deliveries of natural gas for the operation thereof were not prohibited prior to that date by Limitation Order L–31, or

(iii) Such equipment replaces gas-fired equipment of equal or greater capacity previously installed and regularly operated at the same premises for the same purposes: Provided, That non-space heating equipment is not replaced with space heating equipment, or

(iv) Such deliveries have been specifically approved by the War Production Board: Provided, That deliveries of natural gas may be made where necessary for the operation of oil well or gas well drilling equipment.

(2) In any area listed on Exhibit B, a utility or non-utility supplier may deliver and any non-residential consumer may accept deliveries of natural gas for the operation of any gas-fired equipment when all of the following conditions are met:

(i) The aggregate input capacity of such equipment plus the aggregate input capacity of all other gas-fired equipment installed on the premises of the consumer since March 1, 1942 is less than 500,000 Btu per hour; .

(ii) Such equipment is not used primarily for space heating purposes;

(iii) Such equipment cannot, for technological reasons, utilize fuel other than natural gas or liquefied petroleum gases;

(iv) Such equipment does not replace, and is not intended to replace, equipment utilizing fuels other than natural gas;

(v) Such equipment has not been converted from some other fuel to natural gas unless such conversion was completed prior to November 1, 1943, at the same premises and deliveries of natural gas for the operation thereof were not prohibited prior to that date.

(3) In any area listed on Exhibit C, a utility or non-utility supplier may deliver and any non-residential consumer may accept deliveries of natural gas for the operation of any gas-fired equipment when all of the following conditions are met:

(i) The aggregate input capacity of such equipment plus the aggregate input capacity of all other gas-fired equipment installed on the premises of the consumer since March 1, 1942 is less than 1,500,000 Btu per hour;

(ii) Such equipment is not used primarily for space heating purposes;

(iii) Such equipment does not replace, and is not intended to replace, equipment utilizing a fuel other than natural gas;

(iv) Such equipment has not been converted from some other fuel to natural gas unless such conversion was completed prior to November 1, 1943, at the same premises and deliveries of natural gas for the operation thereof were not prohibited prior to that date.

[Note: Paragraph (4) formerly (2) redesignated Aug. 4, 1944.]

(4) The War Production Board may, by specific direction, establish monthly delivery quotas, limit increases in or require decreases of the monthly volume of natural gas which may be delivered to or accepted by any non-residential consumer in certain gas shortage areas, whenever it is determined that such action is necessary or appropriate; and upon the issuance of such directions no person shall make or accept deliveries which are not in conformance therewith.

(e) Restrictions on deliveries of natural gas to residential consumers. No utility or non-utility supplier shall deliver to any residential consumer, and no residential consumer shall accept delivery of natural gas for the operation of any space heating equipment, unless:

(1) In any area listed on Exhibit B:

(i) Such equipment was installed and in regular operation at the same premises prior to December 2, 1942: Provided, That deliveries of natural gas for the operation of such equipment were not prohibited prior to the same date by Limitation Order L–31; or

(ii) Such equipment was converted from some other fuel to natural gas, and such conversion was completed and in regular operation at the same premises prior to December 2, 1942: Provided, That deliveries of natural gas for the operation of such equipment were not prohibited prior to the same date by Limitation Order L–31; or

(iii) In the case of new construction, such equipment was specified in the construction contract and was installed prior to March 1, 1943: Provided, That deliveries of natural gas for the operation thereof were not prohibited prior to that date by Limitation Order L–31; or

(iv) Such equipment replaces gas-fired equipment of equal or greater input capacity installed and regularly operated at the same premises, whether by the same or another consumer; or

(v) Such deliveries have been specifically approved by the War Production Board.

(2) In any area listed on Exhibit C, any of the five conditions set forth in (e) (1) above exists, or the utility, after investigation, certifies on the applicant's Form WPB–3314 that

(i) The equipment was installed in new residential premises whose foundation was completed after May 31, 1944; or

(ii) The existing heating equipment using a fuel other than natural gas has become worn out or unavoidably damaged beyond repair.

(3) In any area listed on Exhibit B or Exhibit C, the utility certifies that on the basis of information submitted by applicant on Form WPB–3314, the case falls into one of the following categories:

(i) Applications from persons transferring from one place of residence to another, who have owned gas-fired equipment which had been installed in the previous premises where its operation was permissible under Limitation Order L–31 or Utilities Qrder U–7: Provided, That the new premises in which the equipment is to be installed are piped for gas and are not presently equipped with other space-heating equipment capable of utilizing a fuel other than natural gas.

(ii) Applications from persons moving into residential premises not equipped with any space-heating equipment, and which can be heated only by gas-fired equipment either because the premises lack flues or fuel storage facilities necessary for the operation of space-heating equipment utilizing a fuel other than natural gas, or because such alternative equipment as would be practicable is not procurable in the locality.

(iii) Applications from persons moving into residential premises already piped for gas, whether or not such premises are equipped with other space-heating equipment, in cases where the applicant owns a room-size space heater having an input capacity not in excess of 25,000 BTU per hour, which the applicant had owned and operated in the previous premises and the operation of which was permitted under Limitation Order L–31 or Utilities Order U–7. (This category does not apply in the State of California.)

(iv) Applications from persons owning or leasing a structure which has been, or is being, converted into dwelling units which have no space-heating facilities and cannot be practicably heated with equipment using a fuel other than natural gas: Provided, That the total input capacity of the equipment covered by the application plus the capacity of all other gas-fired space-heating equipment supplying the residential portion of the premises, does not exceed 250,000 BTU per hour.

(4) In any area listed on Exhibit B or Exhibit C an application is filed by the consumer with the utility supplier on Form WPB–3314 and is supported by the following certifications to and by the utility:

(i) A certification by the physician in attendance that the household has no member or employee physically able, or able without injury to health, to tend coal-fired heating equipment; and

(ii) A certification by the applicant on the Form WPB–3314 application that the hardship claimed cannot be relieved by a partial conversion to gas or the installation of an auxiliary single-room gas-fired heater or circulator; and

(iii) A certification by the utility on the Form WPB–3314 application that the case has been investigated, that the facts alleged by the applicant are correct and that it is not possible to alleviate the hardship claimed by installing auxiliary heating equipment using a smaller quantity of gas.

(f) Conversions and prohibited installations. (1) No person shall install or cause to be installed gas-fired equipment designed to receive deliveries of natural gas from any utility if such deliveries are prohibited by paragraphs (d) or (e) of this order.

(2) If the War Production Board, after investigation, shall determine:

(i) That the gas-fired equipment owned or operated by any person can, without exceptional expense or hardship to such person, be converted to the use of, or be replaced by equipment using, a less critical fuel of which a supply is available, and

(ii) That such conversion or replacement will contribute to the alleviation of actual or prospective gas shortages, or to the maintenance of gas deliveries to war producers or essential civilian services, the War Production Board may upon sufficient notice to permit such conversion or replacement, prohibit further deliveries or acceptances of natural gas for the operation of such gas-fired equipment.

(g) Conservation for war needs. When the War Production Board by special direction prohibits or limits the use of natural gas for specific purposes in order to safeguard essential gas supplies in the interest of the war effort, no person shall use, deliver, or accept natural gas in violation of restrictions thus established.

(h) Appeals and applications. (1) Any person affected by this order, or any direction issued thereunder, who considers that compliance therewith or the operation thereof would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship, or would in other respects be prejudicial, may appeal for relief by letter to the War Production Board.

(2) Any person who considers that any reduction in or prohibition of deliveries of natural gas made, or proposed to be made pursuant to any provision of this order, or any direction issued thereunder, interferes or will interfere materially with war production or essential civilian service, may apply to the War Production Board for relief by letter communication setting forth all relevant details.

(3) In areas listed on Exhibit B or Exhibit C, applications for new deliveries of gas under paragraphs (d) and (e) shall be filed with the utility or non-utility supplier on Form WPB–3314.

(i) New deliveries to non-residential consumers which are clearly permissible under the provisions of paragraph (d) may be made by the utility without referring the application to the pipe line supplier or the War Production Board, but such applications shall be kept in the utility's file with the action taken indicated under Item 15 for inspection by the War Production Board. All other applications for new non-residential deliveries not clearly permissible under the provisions of paragraph (d) must be referred to the pipe line supplier for transmittal to the War Production Board after completion of Item 16 on Form WPB–3314.

(ii) New deliveries to residential consumers which are clearly permissible under the provisions of paragraph (e) may be made by the utility without referring the application to the pipe line supplier or the War Production Board but such applications shall be kept in the utility's file with the action taken indicated under Item 15 for inspection by the War Production Board. All other applications for new residential deliveries which are not clearly permissible under the provisions of paragraph (e) must be sent to the War Production Board for approval before deliveries can be made, but such applications need not be referred to the pipe line supplier for completion of Item 16 on Form WPB–3314.

(4) Any utility affected by this order which considers that the gas situation in its area warrants a change in classification with respect to Exhibits B and C may apply for such reclassification by a letter addressed to the War Production Board, Ref: U–7, stating the reasons therefor, including its system supply and demand data.

(i) Reports and information. (1) Each utility and non-utility supplier shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning deliveries of natural gas to consumers or to other utilities or non-utility suppliers. Such records shall be subject to inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(2) All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall, from time to time request.

(j) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Office of War Utilities, Washington 25, D. C. Ref.: U–7.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or any direction issued hereunder, or who, in connection with such order or direction wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

NOTE: The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(Sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727)

PART 302—CONTRACTS WITH VESSEL OWNERS AND RATES OF COMPENSATION RELATING THERETO

SPECIAL REQUISITION TIME CHARTER FOR DRY CARGO VESSELS

§ 302.49 Special time charter for requisitioned dry cargo vessels "Warshiptime (Special)". In accordance with "Revised Program of Ship Requisition, Charter and Operation" Notice of October 15, 1943, as revised November 24, 1943, (8 F.R. 14251, 16089, 16491) and pursuant to the terms of the uniform letter agreement, Form No. 2, attached to and a part of said notice, the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, adopts the following standard form of special time charter for requisitioned dry cargo vesels, to be effective from the date of delivery of subject vessels to the termination date provided by said charter, said charter to be known as "WARSHIPTIME (Special)":

Form No. 101 Contract No._____
Warshiptime (Special)

Bale capacity of refrigerated cargo space in cubic feet, about_____

• • • • •

Owner agrees to let and CHARTERER agrees to hire the VESSEL, from time of delivery for trading subject to the following terms:

PART I

A. Period of charter. From the time of delivery to the time of expiration of the voyage current at the end of the emergency proclaimed by the President May 27, 1941; Provided, That after August 15, 1944, either party may sooner terminate this Charter (the Vessel to be redelivered as hereinafter provided) upon not less than 30 days' written or telegraphic notice.

B. Trading limits. World-wide.

C. Port and date of delivery.

D. Rate—Option I A. The hire, from the time of delivery to and including November 30, 1943, shall be $_____ per calendar month or pro rata for any portion thereof.

The hire stated above has been computed by the Administrator so as to include an allowance of $125 per diem for the Owner's overhead expense.

Option II A. 75 per centum of the full rate stated in Option I A above and such further sum, if any, judicially determined, as added to such 75 per centum will make up such amount as will be just compensation under the applicable laws and the Constitution of the United States, for the use of the Vessel and the services required under the terms of this Charter.

Option I B. The hire, from and including December 1, 1943, shall be $_____ per calendar month or pro rata for any portion thereof.

The hire stated above has been computed by the Administrator so as to include an allowance of $63 per diem for the Owner's overhead expense.

Option II B. 75 per centum of the full rate stated in Option I B above and such further sum, if any, judicially determined, as added to such 75 per centum will make up such amount as will be just compensation under the applicable laws and the Constitution of the United States, for the use of the Vessel and the services required under the terms of this Charter.

E. War risk insurance valuation—Option I. The sum of $_____ effective from the date of execution of this Charter by the Owner, provided, however, that if no valuation is set forth in this Option I, or, if the Vessel has been lost prior to the date of execution hereof by the Owner, then Option I shall not be in effect and Option II shall apply.

If Option I is effective, the Owner may place additional insurance at Owner's expense in commercial or other markets beyond the amount of the foregoing valuation, but the cost of such insurance shall not be the basis of any claim against the Administrator, nor shall the existence of such additional coverage be construed as evidence as to the value of the Vessel. All such additional coverage shall be reported to the Administrator as soon as practicable. The Administrator, by written notice, may terminate in whole or in part, the foregoing provisions with respect to such additional coverage for the period subsequent to execution hereof.

Option II. Just compensation to be determined in accordance with the applicable laws and the Constitution of the United States for any loss or damage due to the operation of a risk assumed by the Charterer under the terms of this Charter to the extent the person entitled thereto is not reimbursed therefor through policies of insurance against such loss or damage.

For the purposes of this Charter and any insurance undertaken by the Charterer, if the Vessel is subject to the provisions of Section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, the Vessel shall be valued as of the date of loss at the actual depreciated construction cost of the Vessel (together with the actual depreciated cost of capital improvements thereon, but excluding the cost of national defense features), less the depreciated amount of construction-differential subsidy theretofore paid incident to the construction or reconditioning of such Vessel, or the fair and reasonable scrap value of such Vessel as determined by the Charterer, whichever is greater. In computing the depreciated value of the Vessel depreciation shall be computed on the schedule adopted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for income-tax purposes.

By mutual agreement the valuation provisions of this Clause D may be superseded as of the date of loss or any other mutually agreeable date in the event that the Charterer shall adopt any plan with respect to replacement of vessels which is applicable to this vessel.

F. Port of redelivery. Not less favorable to either party than the port of delivery, unless otherwise agreed.

G. Notice of redelivery. Fifteen (15) days.

H. Uniform terms. 1. This charter consists of:

(b) Part II of the Uniform Time Charter Terms and Conditions for Dry Cargo Vessels, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of May 16, 1942.

(c) The Uniform Addendum to Time Charter Covering Adjustments of Certain Disputed Questions published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 31, 1944, as corrected by Orders published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 18, 1944, and June 8, 1944, which addendum shall be deemed to have been executed by the parties hereto simultaneously with the execution of this Part I.

2. Unless in this Part I otherwise expressly provided, all of the provisions of said Part II and of said Uniform Addendum to Time Charter shall be part of this Charter and shall have the same effect as though fully incorporated and set forth herein.

3. The provisions of this Charter shall supersede all agreements, charters or other arrangements heretofore made for the use of the Vessel for the period covered by this Charter and all sums heretofore received as payments in advance or on account of charter hire shall be accounted for hereunder;

I. Revised time charter program. 1. If in accordance with paragraph 4 of the letter dated April 15, 1944, from the Secretary of the War Shipping Administration to the Owner or by other mutual agreement the Owner shall have agreed to accept or shall agree to accept the standard form of Addendum (Amended Time Charter) set forth in General Order 11, Supplement 3, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 8, 1944, then, unless otherwise agreed, on the effective date specified in Clause J, Part I, of said Addendum (Amended Time Charter), the terms of this Charter shall be deemed amended to the extent provided for by said Addendum as corrected by Order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of May 11, 1944, and as amended by Order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 6, 1944, except for the second and third "Whereas" recitals thereof, which shall be deemed deleted. As soon as practicable the Administrator shall transmit to the Owner for execution a form of such Addendum, as so corrected and amended, and concurrently therewith, in conformity with said paragraph 4 of said letter, shall tender for Owner's election to acceptance or non-acceptance a statement of the rate which in the Administrator's judgment will be just compensation for the use of the Vessel and for the services required under the terms of said Addendum commencing with the effective date and subject to all of the terms thereof and subject to the terms of said Addendum, shall also tender a statement of the valuation of the Vessel which in the opinion of the Administrator will constitute just compensation for the loss of or damage to the Vessel occurring after said effective date.

2. If the Owner shall not have accepted or agreed to accept said Addendum, operation and payment of hire under this Charter shall terminate, unless otherwise agreed or sooner terminated on the date fixed in Clause J, paragraph 6.

J. Special provisions. 1. Part II hereof shall be deemed to include a provision under which the costs incurred by the Owner on and after December 1, 1943, by applying the provisions of Operations Regulation No. 64 of the War Shipping Administration to the Vessel, will be for the account of the Charterer.

2. Nothing in this Charter shall be construed as an admission or agreement by the Owner as to the applicability of the Renegotiation Act to this Charter or to any other Charter executed by the Owner except where such Charter specifically provides therein for renegotiation: Provided, however, That all rights, if any, which the Administrator may have to renegotiate any Charter hire or other sums are hereby reserved by the Administrator.

3. The insurance on the Vessel to be provided or assumed by the Charterer pursuant to Clause 20 (1) of Part II hereof shall be the full form of Standard Hull War Risk Insurance Policy of the War Shipping Administration as set forth in General Order 6, Revised, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 20, 1943.

4. The rate of hire and the war risk insurance valuation, if any, set forth in this Charter are tendered to the Owner with the understanding that acceptance by the Owner of either such rate of hire or such insurance valuation shall not be deemed to be an agreement or admission that either such hire or such valuation constitute the proper standards of the just compensation to which the Owner is entitled under the laws and the Constitution of the United States, and an acceptance thereof shall not be used as the basis or standard for determining such just compensation or allocation of any portion of hire as overhead under any other Charter heretofore or hereafter made by the Owner with the United States acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration.

In witness whereof, the Owner has executed this Charter in quadruplicate the _____ day of _____, 1944, and has elected Hire Options _____ and Valuation Options _____ and the Charterer has executed this Charter in quadruplicate the _____ day of _____, 1944.

As to execution for Owner.

Owner agrees to let and charterer agrees to hire the vessel, from time of delivery for trading subject to the following terms:

PART I

A. Period of charter: From the time of delivery to the time of expiration of the voyage current at the end of the emergency proclaimed by the President May 27, 1941; Provided, That after August 15, 1944; either party may sooner terminate this Charter (the vessel to be redelivered as hereinafter provided) upon not less than 30 days' written or telegraphic notice.

B. Trading limits: World-wide.

C. Port and date of delivery:

D. Rates:

Option I A. The hire, from the time of delivery to and including November 30, 1943, shall be $_____ per calendar month or pro rata for any portion thereof.

Option II A. 75 per centum of the full rate stated in Option I A above and such further sum, if any, judicially determined, as added to such 75 per centum will make up such amount as will be just compensation under the applicable laws and the Constitution of the United States, for the use of the Vessel and the services required under the terms of this Charter.

Option I B. The hire, from and including December 1, 1943, shall be $_____ per calendar month or pro rata for any portion thereof.

Option II B. 75 per centum of the full rate stated in Option I B above and such further sum, if any, judicially determined, as added to such 75 per centum will make up such amount as will be just compensation under the applicable laws and the Constitution of the United States for the use of the Vessel and the services required under the terms of this Charter.

E. War risk insurance valuation—Option I. The sum of $_____ effective from the date of execution of this Charter by the Owner: Provided, however, That if no valuation is set forth in this Option I, or, if the Vessel has been lost prior to the date of execution hereof by the Owner, then Option I shall not be in effect and Option II shall apply.

If Option I is effective, the Owner may place additional insurance at Owner's expense in commercial or other markets beyond the amount of the foregoing valuation, but the cost of such insurance shall not be the basis of any claim against the Administrator, nor shall the existence of such additional coverage be construed as evidence as to the value of the Vessel. All such additional coverage shall be reported to the Administrator as soon as practicable. The Administrator, by written notice, may terminate in whole or in part the foregoing provisions with respect to such additional coverage for the period subsequent to execution hereof.

Option II. Just compensation to be determined in accordance with the applicable laws and the Constitution of the United States for any loss or damage due to the operation of a risk assumed by the Charterer under the terms of this Charter to the extent the person entitled thereto is not reimbursed therefor through policies of insurance against such loss or damage.

For the purposes of this Charter, and any insurance undertaken by the Charterer, if the Vessel is subject to the provisions of Section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, the Vessel shall be valued as of the date of loss at the actual depreciated construction cost of the Vessel (together with the actual depreciated cost of capital improvements thereon, but excluding the cost of national defense features), less the depreciated amount of construction differential subsidy theretofore paid incident to the construction or reconditioning of such Vessel, or the fair and reasonable scrap value of such Vessel as determined by the Charterer, whichever is greater. In computing the depreciated value of the Vessel, depreciation shall be computed on the Vessel on the schedule adopted by the Bureau of Internal Revenue for income tax purposes.

By mutual agreement the valuation provisions of this Clause D may be superseded as of the date of loss or any other mutually agreeable date in the event that the Charterer shall adopt any plan with respect to replacement of vessels which is applicable to this Vessel.

F. Port of Redelivery. Not less favorable to either party than the port of delivery unless otherwise agreed.

G. Notice of Redelivery. Fifteen (15) days.

H. Uniform terms. 1. This Charter consists of:

(a) This Part I.

(b) Part II of the Uniform Time Charter Terms and Conditions for Tank Vessels published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 19, 1942.

(c) The Uniform Addendum to Time Charter Covering Adjustments of Certain Disputed Questions published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 31, 1944, as corrected by Orders published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 18, 1944, and June 8, 1944, which Addendum shall be deemed to have been executed by the parties hereto simultaneously with the execution of this Part I.

2. Unless in this Part I otherwise expressly provided, all of the provisions of said Part II and of said Uniform Addendum to Time Charter shall be part of this Charter and shall have the same effect as though fully incorporated and set forth herein.

3. The provisions of this Charter shall supersede all agreements, charters or other arrangements heretofore made for the use of the Vessel for the period covered by this Charter and all sums heretofore received as payments in advance or on account of the charter hire shall be accounted for hereunder.

I. Revised time charter program. 1. If in accordance with paragraph 4 of the letter dated April 15, 1944, from the Secretary of the War Shipping Administration to the Owner or by other mutual agreement, the Owner shall have agreed to accept or shall agree to accept the standard form of Addendum (Amended Time Charter) set forth in General Order 11, Supplement 4, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 8, 1944, then, unless otherwise agreed, on the effective date specified in Class J, Part I of said Addendum (Amended Time Charter) the terms of this Charter shall be deemed amended to the extent provided for by said Addendum, as corrected by Order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of May 11, 1944, as amended by Order published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of June 6, 1944, except for the second and third "Whereas" recitals thereof, which shall be deemed deleted. As soon as practicable, the Administrator shall transmit to the Owner for execution a form of such Addendum as so corrected and amended, and, concurrently therewith, in conformity with said paragraph 4 of said letter, shall tender for Owner's election as to acceptance or non-acceptance, a statement of the rate which in the Administrator's judgment will be just compensation for the use of the Vessel and for the services required under the terms of said Addendum commencing with the effective date and subject to all the terms thereof, and subject to the terms of said Addendum, shall also tender a statement of the valuation of the Vessel which in the opinion of the Administrator will constitute just compensation for the loss of or damage to the Vessel occurring after said effective date.

2. If the Owner shall not have accepted or agreed to accept said Addendum, operation and payment of hire under this Charter shall terminate, unless otherwise agreed or sooner terminated on the date fixed in Clause J, Paragraph 8.

J. Special provisions. 1. Part II hereof shall be deemed to include a provision under which the costs incurred by the Owner on and after December 1, 1943, by applying the provisions of Operations Regulation No. 64 of the War Shipping Administration to the Vessel, will be for the account of the Charterer.

2. Nothing in this Charter shall be construed as an admission or agreement by the Owner as to the applicability of the Renegotiation Act to this Charter or to any other Charter executed by the Owner except where such Charter specifically provides therein for renegotiation: Provided, however, That all rights, if any, which the Administrator may have to renegotiate any Charter hire or other sums are hereby reserved by the Administrator

3. The insurance on the Vessel to be provided or assumed by the Charterer pursuant to Clause 20 (i) of Part II hereof shall be the full form of Standard Hull War Risk Insurance Policy of the War Shipping Administration as set forth in General Order 6, Revised, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of March 20, 1943.

4. The rate of hire and the war risk insurance valuation, if any, set forth in this Charter are tendered to the Owner with the understanding that acceptance by the Owner of either such rate of hire or such insurance valuation shall not be deemed to be an agreement or admission that either such hire or such valuation constitute the proper standards of the just compensation to which the Owner is entitled under the laws and the Constitution of the United States, and an acceptance thereof shall not be used as the basis or standard for determining such just compensation or allocation of any portion of hire as overhead under any other Charter heretofore or hereafter made by the Owner with the United States acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration.

In witness whereof, the Owner has executed this Charter in quadruplicate the _____ day of _____, 1944, and has elected Hire Options _____ and Valuation Options _____ and the Charterer has executed this Charter in quadruplicate the _____day of _____ 1944.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

PART 63—EXTENSION OF LINES AND DISCONTINUANCE OF SERVICE BY CARRIERS

DISCONTINUANCE, REDUCTION AND IMPAIRMENT OF TELEGRAPH SERVICE

The Commission, pursuant to oral argument in Docket No. 6608, on July 26, 1944, effective immediately, adopted a new § 63.31, which reads as follows:

§ 63.31 Publication and posting of notices. (a) For the purposes of this section the following definitions shall apply:

(1) "Class 1 telegraph office." Company-operated direct office, which is only office or principal office in the community.

(2) "Class 2 telegraph offices." Company-operated branch office subordinate to a Class 1 office in the same community.

(3) "Class 3 telegraph office." Same as Class 2 but located in adjacent separate municipality.

(b) Upon the filing of an application for authority to close a Class 1, 2 or 3 public telegraph office (except an office located at the site of a United States Army camp when such camp has been closed or moved) or to reduce hours of telegraph service at such an office, the applicant shall post a public notice at least two feet (2') by three feet (3') with letters of commensurate size in a conspicuous place at the office affected for at least fourteen (14) days, which notice shall be in the following form:

(Date of first posting of notice)

Notice is hereby given, that application was made on the _____day of_____, 19_____, by_____ Company to the Federal Communications Commission to close this office (or reduce the hours of service from the present hours of service _____m. to _____m. to the hours _____m. to _____m.) If the application is granted, substituted service will be available from _____m. to _____m. at the _____ office, located at _____ (or give other appropriate general description of substituted service). Any member of the public desiring to protest or support the closing of this office (or the reduction of the hours of service) may communicate in writing, with the Federal Communications Commission, Washington 25, D. C. on or before _____ (fill in date which is 20 days after the date of the first posting of notice).

(c) The applicant shall also cause to be published a notice not less than four (4) column inches in size containing information similar to the notice form specified in (b) above at least once during each of two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the community or part of the community affected.

(d) Upon the filing of an application for authority to close a telegraph office of any other class (except an office located at the site of a United States Army camp when such camp has been closed or moved) or to reduce the hours of telegraph service at such an office, applicant shall post a public notice at least eleven inches (11") by seventeen inches (17") as provided in (b) above or, in lieu thereof, applicant shall cause to be published a newspaper notice as provided in paragraph (c).

(e) When such posting and publication have been completed, applicant shall certify such fact to the Commission, stating the name of the newspaper in which publication was made and the dates of publication and posting.

(Sec. 4 (i), 48 Stat. 1068; 47 U.S.C. 154 (i), Sec. 214, 48 Stat. 1075; 47 U.S.C. 214)

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

MOVEMENT OF GRAIN AT DENVER, COLO., APPOINTMENT OF AGENT

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of August, A. D. 1944.

Upon further consideration of the provisions of Service Order No. 80, as amended (codified as § 95.19 of Title 49 CFR):

It is ordered, That F. R. Houlton of the Denver Grain Exchange Association is hereby designated and appointed as Agent of the Commission to issue permits for the movement of grain under the terms of this order at the Denver, Colorado, market in lieu of H. G. Mundhenk. The appointment of H. G. Mundhenk is hereby vacated. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901, 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)-(17))

And it is further ordered, That this amendment shall become effective August 10, 1944; that copies of this amendment be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this amendment be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C.

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

UTILIZATION OF ROUGH BOX CARS FOR LOADING SHINGLES FROM OREGON AND WASHINGTON

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of August, A. D. 1944.

Upon further consideration of the provisions of Service Order No. 221 of July 29, 1944, and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That Service Order No. 221 of July 29, 1944, be, and it is hereby, amended by substituting the following paragraph in lieu of paragraph (e) thereof:

(e) Rates to be applied. The rates to be applied on shipments loaded pursuant to this order shall be the tariff rates on cedar shingles in connection with the tariff minimum weight of 34,000 pounds now provided when cars are loaded to full visible capacity.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective 12:01 a. m., August 5, 1944; that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

THAMES BROADCASTING CORP.

NOTICE OF HEARING

In re application of Thames Broadcasting Corporation (WNLC), date filed April 24, 1944; for construction permit; class of service, broadcast; class of station, broadcast; location, New London, Connecticut; operating assignment specified: Frequency, 1240 kc.; power, 250 w.; hours of operation, unlimited.

You are hereby notified that the Commission has examined the application in the above-entitled case and has designated the matter for hearing for the following reasons:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would gain primary service from the operation of Station WNLC, as proposed, and what other broadcast services are available to these areas and populations.

2. To determine the extent of any interference which would result from the simultaneous operation of Station WNLC, as proposed, and Stations WGBB, Freeport, N. Y., and WOCB, West Yarmouth, Mass.

3. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to lose primary service, particularly from Stations WGBB and WOCB should Station WNLC operate as proposed, and what other broadcast services are available to those areas and populations.

4. To determine whether the granting of this application would tend toward a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service as contemplated by Section 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934 as amended.

5. To determine whether the granting of this application would be consistent with the policy announced by the Commission in its memorandum opinion dated April 27, 1942, or any subsequent modifications thereof.

6. To determine whether, in view of the facts adduced under the foregoing issues, public interest, convenience or necessity would be served through the granting of this application.

The application involved herein will not be granted by the Commission unless the issues listed above are determined in favor of the applicant on the basis of a record duly and properly made by means of a formal hearing.

The applicant is hereby given the opportunity to obtain a hearing on such issues by filing a written appearance in accordance with the provisions of § 1.382 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Persons other than the applicant, unless already made a party to this proceeding, who desire to be heard must file a petition to intervene in accordance with the provisions of § 1.102 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The applicant's address is as follows: Thames Broadcasting Corporation, Radio Station WNLC, Mohican Hotel, 281 State Street, New London, Connecticut.

The following were made parties to this proceeding and are subject to the provisions of § 1.141 of the Commission's rules: Harry H. Carman, Radio Station WGBB, 44 South Grove Street, Freeport, New York; E. Anthony & Sons, Inc., Radio Station WOCB, 575 Pleasant Street, New Bedford, Mass.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. G-545]

MISSOURI WESTERN GAS CO.

NOTICE OF AMENDMENT TO APPLICATION

AUGUST 3, 1944.

On June 28, 1944, a hearing was held in the above-entitled matter in Kansas City, Missouri, concerning the application of Missouri Western Gas Company for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to authorize the construction and operation of approximately 21 miles of 3½ and 4-inch diameter pipe line extending from Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company's measuring station located 1½ miles north of Harrisonville, Cass County, Missouri, to the 4-inch transmission pipe line of applicant at Adrian, Missouri, together with a regulator station.

The evidence adduced at the hearing showed that the following facilities were abandoned and partially removed without first having obtained authorization from this Commission for such abandonment under section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act:

(a) A transmission pipe line extending west from the Town of Amoret to the Missouri-Kansas State line, across such State line to a point on U. S. Highway 69, then, in a northwesterly direction to a point two miles south of La Cygne, Kansas;

(b) A transmission pipe line extending from said point on Highway 69 southwesterly to the point of connection with the Commercial Gas Pipeline Company near Pleasanton, Kansas.

On July 3, 1944, applicant filed a supplement to its application for the purpose of conforming it to the evidence presented at the hearing with respect to the facilities described in (a) and (b) and requested permission and approval of the Commission to abandon such pipe lines.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with respect to the abandonment and removal of the aforesaid pipe lines should, on or before the 21st day of August 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 4, 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on July 31, 1944, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by United Gas Corporation ("applicant"), a Delaware corporation authorized to do business in the State of Texas, and having its operating division office at Houston, Texas, seeking a Presidential Permit, pursuant to Executive Order No. 8202, for the construction, operation and maintenance at the International Boundary of the United States of facilities for the exportation of natural gas to the Republic of Mexico.

Applicant has heretofore been operating and maintaining facilities for the exportation of natural gas to the Republic of Mexico at Laredo, Texas, for distribution in the City of Nuevo Laredo, State of Tamaulipas, and environs, pursuant to a Presidential Permit issued to it on September 5, 1940. Said Presidential Permit authorized applicant to operate and maintain two four-inch natural gas pipe lines, one extending from a point on the American shore in the City of Laredo, Texas, and thence on and along The Texas Mexican Railway Company's railroad bridge across the Rio Grande River to the International Boundary Line of the United States and the Republic of Mexico, and the other extending from applicant's distribution system in the City of Laredo, Texas, and thence along Salinas and Water Streets in said city to a point on the north bank of the Rio Grande, and authorized a physical connection at the border of the United States and Mexico with pipe lines of the Compania de Gas de Nuevo Laredo, S. A., a Mexican corporation domiciled in the City of Nuevo Laredo, Mexico. Such operation, maintenance and connection of facilities for the exportation of natural gas was authorized by said Presidential Permit in accordance with the terms of an original contract for the purchase and sale of natural gas dated September 30, 1931, between Texas Border Gas Company (predecessor of applicant) as seller and Compania de Gas de Nuevo Laredo, S. A., as buyer, as amended by letter dated October 10, 1934, to Compania de Gas de Nuevo Laredo, S. A., from United Gas Public Service Company (predecessor of applicant).

The application recites that Applicant proposes to enter into a new contract with Compania de Gas de Nuevo Laredo, S. A., which is to replace and supersede its previous contract; that the present facilities are inadequate to supply the present and the increased loads expected to be added by the Compania de Gas de Nuevo Laredo, S. A.; and that Applicant desires to replace that portion of the four-inch line extending from a point at Lincoln and Vidaurri Streets in the City of Laredo with a six-inch line extending from the same point to The Texas Mexican Railway Company's railroad bridge and thence paralleling the present four-inch line on and along the bridge to the International Boundary.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application, should, on or before the 21st day of August, 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

Secretary.

[Docket No. G-422]

WEST TEXAS GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 3, 1944.

On September 17, 1942, West Texas Gas Company filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of the following described facilities:

(2) A 500 B. H. P. compressor station located near the northeast corner of the southeast quarter of section 113, block 6, I. & G. N. Survey, Randall County, Texas, together with appurtenant facilities.

The applicant stated that such facilities were required to render adequate service to its present customers.

By order entered October 10, 1942, the Commission issued a limited certificate authorizing the construction and operation of the aforesaid facilities. The loop line and the compressor station were placed in operation on February 8, 1943, and June 27, 1943, respectively.

Pursuant to the Commission's order of June 1, 1944, entered In the Matter of West Texas Gas Company, Docket Nos. G-489 and G-550, and after appropriate notice thereof had been given, a public hearing was held at Ft. Worth, Texas, on June 23, 1944. At such hearing evidence was adduced with respect to the above-described facilities in addition to the facilities involved in Docket Nos. G-489 and G-550.

Any person desiring to be heard, or to make any protest with respect to the application in Docket No. G-442 should, on or before the 21st day of August 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

[S. O. 200, Gen. Permit 15]

REICING OF POTATOES IN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN NEW MEXICO

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by paragraph (e) of the first ordering paragraph (§ 95.337, 9 F.R. 4402) of Service Order No. 200 of April 22, 1944, permission is granted for any common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act:

To reice once any refrigerator car loaded with potatoes originating at points in Quay, Curry and Roosevelt Counties, New Mexico, the reicing may be accorded at stations designated by shippers, or at carriers' option, at the first station on either side of such designated station. This general permit shall apply to all such cars billed or moving on the effective date hereof.

This general permit shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., August 3, 1944, and shall expire at 12:01 a. m., September 15, 1944.

The waybills shall show reference to this general permit.

A copy of this general permit has been served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and notice of this permit shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of August 1944.

COPYRIGHTS OF CERTAIN FOREIGN NATIONALS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that each and all of the identified persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof (the names of which persons are listed (a) in Column 3 of said Exhibit A as the authors of the works, the titles of which are listed in Column 2, and the copyright numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (b) in Column 4 of said Exhibit A as the owners of the copyrights, the numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, and the titles of the works covered by which are listed in Column 2, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (c) in Column 5 of said Exhibit A as others owning or claiming interests in such copyrights) are nationals of one or more foreign countries;

2. Determining, therefore, that the property described as follows: All right, title, interest and claim of whatsoever kind or nature, under the statutory and common law of the United States and of the several States thereof, of each and all of the identified persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of said Exhibit A, and also of each and all other unidentified individuals who, as of the date of this order, are residents of, and of each and all other unidentified corporations, partnerships, associations or business organizations of any kind or nature which, as of the date of this order, are organized under the laws of, or have their principal places of business in, Germany, Italy, Japan, Bulgaria, Hungary, Rumania and/or any territory occupied by one or more of such six named countries, whether or not such unidentified persons are named elsewhere in this order or in said Exhibit A, in, to and under the following:

a. Each and all of the copyrights, if any, described in said Exhibit A;

b. Every copyright, claim of copyright and right to copyright in each and all of the works described in said Exhibit A and in every issue, edition, publication, republication, translation, arrangement, dramatization and revision thereof, in whole or in part, of whatsoever kind or nature, and of each and all other works designated by the titles therein set forth, whether or not filed with the Register of Copyrights or otherwise asserted, and whether or not specifically designated by copyright number;

c. Every license, agreement, privilege, power and right of whatsoever nature arising under or with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

d. All monies and amounts, and all right to receive monies and amounts, by way of royalty, share of profits or other emolument, accrued or to accrue, whether arising pursuant to law, contract or otherwise, with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

e. All rights of renewal, reversion or revesting, if any, in any or all of the foregoing;

f. All causes of action accrued or to accrue at law or in equity with respect to any or all of the foregoing, including but not limited to the right to sue for and recover all damages and profits and to ask and receive any and all remedies provided by common law or statute for the infringement of any copyright or the violation of any right or the breach of any obligation described in or affecting any or all of the foregoing;

is property payable or held with respect to copyrights, or rights related thereto, in which interests are held by, and such property constitutes interests held therein by, nationals of one or more foreign countries;

3. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise; and

4. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 2, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special accounting pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on June 22, 1944.

f. All causes of action accrued or to accrue at law or in equity with respect to any or all of the foregoing, including but not limited to the right to sue for and recover all damages and profits and to ask and receive any and all remedies provided by common law or statute for the infringement of any copyright or the violation of any right or the breach of any obligation described in or affecting any or all of the foregoing;

is property payable or held with respect to copyrights, or rights related thereto, in which interests are held by, and such property constitutes interests held therein by, nationals of one or more foreign countries;

3. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise; and

4. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 2, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on July 11, 1944.

COPYRIGHTS OF CERTAIN FOREIGN NATIONALS

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that each and all of the identified persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof (the names of which persons are listed (a) in Column 3 of said Exhibit A as the authors of the works, the titles of which are listed in Column 2, and the copyright numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (b) in Column 4 of said Exhibit A as the owners of the copyrights, the numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, and the titles of the works covered by which are listed in Column 2, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (c) in Column 5 of said Exhibit A as others owning or claiming interests in such copyrights) are nationals of one or more foreign countries;

2. Determining, therefore, that the property described as follows: All right, title, interest and claim of whatsoever kind or nature, under the statutory and common law of the United States and of the several States thereof, of each and all of the identified persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of said Exhibit A, and also of each and all other unidentified individuals who, as of the date of this order, are residents of, and of each and all other unidentified corporations, partnerships, associations or business organizations of any kind or nature which, as of the date of this order, are organized under the laws of, or have their principal places of business in, Germany, Italy, Japan, Bulgaria, Hungary, Rumania and/or any territory occupied by one or more of such six named countries, whether or not such unidentified persons are named elsewhere in this order or in said Exhibit A, in, to and under the following:

a. Each and all of the copyrights, if any, described in said Exhibit A;

b. Every copyright, claim of copyright and right to copyright in each and all of the works described in said Exhibit A and in every issue, edition, publication, republication, translation, arrangement, dramatization and revision thereof, in whole or in part, of whatsoever kind or nature, and of each and all other works designated by the titles therein set forth, whether or not filed with the Register of Copyrights or otherwise asserted, and whether or not specifically designated by copyright number;

c. Every license, agreement, privilege, power and right of whatsoever nature arising under or with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

d. All monies and amounts, and all right to receive monies and amounts, by way of royalty, share of profits or other emolument, accrued or to accrue, whether arising pursuant to law, contract or otherwise, with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

e. All rights of renewal, reversion or revesting, if any, in any or all of the foregoing;

f. All causes of action accrued or to accrue at law or in equity with respect to any or all of the foregoing, including but not limited to the right to sue for and recover all damages and profits and to ask and receive any and all remedies provided by common law or statute for the infringement of any copyright or the violation of any right or the breach of any obligation described in or affecting any or all of the foregoing;

is property payable or held with respect to copyrights, or rights related thereto, in which interests are held by, and such property constitutes interests held therein by, nationals of one or more foreign countries;

3. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise; and

4. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 2, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation:

1. Finding that each and all of the identified persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of Exhibit A attached hereto and made a part hereof (the names of which persons are listed (a) in Column 3 of said Exhibit A as the authors of the works, the titles of which are listed in Column 2, and the copyright numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (b) in Column 4 of said Exhibit A as the owners of the copyrights, the numbers, if any, of which are listed in Column 1, and the titles of the works covered by which are listed in Column 2, respectively, of said Exhibit A, and/or (c) in Column 5 of said Exhibit A as others owning or claiming interests in such copyrights) are nationals of one or more foreign countries;

2. Determining, therefore, that the property described as follows: All right, title, interest and claim of whatsoever kind or nature, under the statutory and common law of the United States and of the several States thereof, of each and all of the identified persons to whom reference is made in Column 5 of said Exhibit A, and also of each and all other unidentified individuals who, as of the date of this order, are residents of, and of each and all other unidentified corporations, partnerships, associations or business organizations of any kind or nature which, as of the date of this order, are organized under the laws of, or have their principal places of business in, Germany, Italy, Japan, Bulgaria, Hungary, Rumania and/or any territory occupied by one or more of such six named countries, whether or not such unidentified persons are named elsewhere in this order or in said Exhibit A, in, to and under the following:

a. Each and all of the copyrights, if any, described in said Exhibit A;

b. Every copyright, claim of copyright and right to copyright in each and all of the works described in said Exhibit A and in every issue, edition, publication, republication, translation, arrangement, dramatization and revision thereof, in whole or in part, of whatsoever kind or nature, and of each and all other works designated by the titles therein set forth, whether or not filed with the Register of Copyrights or otherwise asserted, and whether or not specifically designated by copyright number;

c. Every license, agreement, privilege, power and right of whatsoever nature arising under or with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

d. All monies and amounts, and all right to receive monies and amounts, by way of royalty, share of profits or other emolument, accrued or to accrue, whether arising pursuant to law, contract or otherwise, with respect to any or all of the foregoing;

e. All rights of renewal, reversion or revesting, if any, in any or all of the foregoing;

f. All causes of action accrued or to accrue at law or in equity with respect to any or all of the foregoing, including but not limited to the right to sue for and recover all damages and profits and to ask and receive any and all remedies provided by common law or statute for the infringement of any copyright or the violation of any right or the breach of any obligation described in or affecting any or all of the foregoing;

is property payable or held with respect to copyrights, or rights related thereto, in which interests are held by, and such property constitutes interests held therein by, nationals of one or more foreign countries;

3. Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise; and

4. Deeming it necessary in the national interest;

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property hereinbefore described in subparagraph 2, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in a special account pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on July 11, 1944.

[SEAL] JAMES E. MARKHAM,
Alien Property Custodian.

B. F. HUNTLEY FURNITURE CO.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 3 under Order No. 1052 under § 1499.159b of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Adjustment of maximum prices for sales of wood household furniture manufactured by B. F. Huntley Furniture Company.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328, It is ordered:

(a) This order permits the manufacturer, B. F. Huntley Manufacturing Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, to adjust its maximum prices for sales of wood household furniture (as defined in Order No. 1052) established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 188 by the amount specified below. This order also authorizes purchasers for resale of these articles of wood household furniture to adjust their maximum prices by adding the dollar-and-cents amount of the adjustment granted the manufacturer by this order and for which they have become obligated.

(1) Manufacturer's maximum prices. B. F. Huntley Furniture Company may adjust its maximum prices for sales and deliveries of wood household furniture (as defined in Order No. 1052) of its manufacture by an amount not to exceed 1% of its maximum prices for such sales established in Order No. 1052. The permitted adjustment of 1% may be made only if separately stated.

(2) Maximum prices of purchasers for resale. Any purchaser for resale of an article of wood household furniture for which the manufacturer's maximum price has been thus adjusted may add to his properly established maximum price, in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this order, the dollar-and-cents amount of the adjustment charge allowed by this order for which he has become obligated, provided the amount of such adjustment is separately stated on sales to persons other than ultimate consumers.

(b) At the time of or prior to the first invoice to each purchaser (other than an ultimate consumer) of an article covered by this order, the seller must furnish such purchaser with a written notice stating the number of this order and fully explaining its terms and conditions. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

(c) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective on the 5th day of August 1944.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

KATHLINE WYATT

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 2 under § 6.32 (g) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation. Commodities and services. Approval of maximum prices for sales of Gloria hand-hooked cotton rugs.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register and pursuant to the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders No. 9250 and 9328, It is ordered:

(a) Miss Kathline Wyatt, Lake Lure, North Carolina, may sell and deliver to jobbers the "Gloria" line of hand-hooked cotton rugs as described in the application (and as evidenced by samples submitted to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.) packed suitable for freight shipment at maximum prices no higher than 58¢ per square foot. This maximum price is net f. o. b. Asheville, North Carolina.

(b) On and after the effective date of this order, the maximum price for all sales and deliveries at wholesale by jobbers of the "Gloria" hand-hooked cotton rugs as described in paragraph (a) above shall be 78¢ per square foot. This maximum price is f. o. b. jobber's place of business and is subject to a cash discount of 4% for payment within 10 days, 60 days extra, net 70 days.

(c) On and after the effective date of this order, any person may sell and deliver at retail "Gloria" hand-hooked cotton rugs as described in paragraph (a) above at $1.28 per square foot. This maximum price includes all services furnished by the seller. On retail sales West of the Mississippi River, a freight charge may be added as follows: 10¢ for sizes 24" x 48" or smaller; 20¢ for larger sizes up to but not including 48" x 72" and 35¢ for size 48" x 72".

(d) This Order No. 2 does not supersede the provisions of section 6.32 other than paragraphs (a), (e) and (f) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(e) At the time of the first invoice, Miss Kathline Wyatt, Lake Lure, North Carolina, shall notify in writing each purchaser who buys from her of the maximum prices established by this order for resales by the purchaser. Since this order, also, establishes maximum prices for sales by all jobbers and retailers, each jobber who resells the commodity by this order must notify the purchaser of the maximum price established by this order for sales by the purchaser. These written notices may be given in any convenient form.

Issued this 4th day of August 1944.

[Region II Order G–2 Under MPR 280 and SR 15]

FLUID MILK IN PINE TOWNSHIP, MERCER COUNTY, PA.

Order No. G–2 under Maximum Price Regulation 280, as amended, maximum prices for specific food products, and § 1499.75 (a) (9) of Supplementary Regulation 15 to the General Maximum Price Regulation. Adjusted maximum prices for the sale of fluid milk in glass or paper containers and in bulk to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions in Pine Township, Mercer County, Pennsylvania.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration under § 1351.807 of MPR 280, as amended, and § 1499.75 (a) (9) of Supplementary Regulation 15 to the GMPR, It is hereby ordered:

(a) The maximum price of fluid milk sold and delivered at retail and at wholesale in Pine Township, Mercer County, Pennsylvania, shall be as follows:

(1) For sales in glass or paper containers at retail and for sales in glass or paper containers at wholesale to any person (including sub-dealers and industrial or commercial users) other than the ultimate consumer, the seller's maximum price shall be his maximum price as determined under § 1499.2, General Provisions, of the GMPR, or the applicable adjusted maximum price specified in Schedule A, hereto annexed, whichever is higher.

(2) For sales in other than glass or paper containers at wholesale to stores, hotels, restaurants and institutions, the seller's maximum price shall be his maximum price as determined under § 1351.803 (a) of MPR 280, as amended, or the applicable adjusted maximum price specified in Schedule A, hereto annexed, whichever is higher.

(b) This order is subject to revocation or amendment by the Regional Administrator or by the Price Administrator at any time hereafter, either by special order or by price regulation issued hereafter, or by supplement or amendment hereafter issued as to any price regulation, the provisions of which may be contrary hereto.

(c) Where the adjusted maximum price is a unit figure containing a fraction of a cent, the seller must multiply such fractional unit figure by the total number of units in each sale or series of sales for which a single collection is made. Where the resulting amount contains a fraction of a cent, or where only one unit is sold, the seller shall adjust the maximum price to the nearest full cent, except that if the fraction should be a half cent, the seller shall adjust the maximum price to the next higher full cent (for example, a maximum price of 15½¢ for one unit shall be adjusted to 16¢ for one unit, 31¢ for two units, 47¢ for three units, etc.; a maximum price of 14¼¢ for one unit shall be adjusted to 14¢ for one unit, 29¢ for two units, 43¢ for three units, etc.).

(d) Where fluid milk is sold and delivered in a container larger than the largest size of the specified unit container for which an adjusted maximum price is specified in Schedule A hereof, the seller's adjusted maximum price for the sale and delivery of fluid milk in such larger container shall be increased proportionately.

(e) Geographical applicability. This order applies to all sales and deliveries of fluid milk as specified in paragraph (a) hereof in Pine Township, Mercer County, Pennsylvania.

(f) The adjusted maximum prices established herein replace and supersede the adjusted maximum prices established in Order G–3 issued February 1, 1943 under § 1499.18 (c) of the GMPR and § 1351.807 of MPR 280 for the sale and delivery of fluid milk in Pine Township, Mercer County, Pennsylvania, described in said Order No. G–3 as being situated in the "State-Wide Milk Marketing Area".

(g) Definitions. When used in this order the term:

(1) "Sub-dealer" means any milk dealer handling milk within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, who sells all such milk to consumers or stores in the same containers as those in which he purchased it from other milk dealers.

(2) "Fluid milk" means cow's milk produced, processed, distributed and sold for human consumption in fluid form as whole or skim milk.

This order shall become effective May 8, 1944.

Issued this 5th day of May 1944.

DANIEL P. WOOLLEY,
Regional Administrator.

NORTHERN STATES POWER CO. (DEL.), ET AL.

NOTICE OF ORAL ARGUMENT

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 2nd day of August 1944.

In the matter of Northern States Power Company (Delaware), File Nos. 43–156 and 56–4; Northern States Power Company (Wisconsin), File No. 32–94, and Northern States Power Company (Minnesota), File No. 46–102.

Notice of filing of application for supplemental order and of motion to dismiss same and order setting said application and motion for oral argument.

Notice is hereby given that on July 27, 1944, Standard Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company and the owner of substantially all of the Class B common stock of Northern States Power Company (Delaware), filed an "Application for Supplemental Order" in the above-styled and numbered proceeding; that said application seeks primarily a modification of that portion of the order of the Commission entered in said proceedings on December 27, 1938, reading as follows:

It is further ordered, That all the outstanding shares of Class B common stock of Northern States Power Company, a Delaware corporation, shall be cancelled not later than January 1, 1944, and, for the purpose of facilitating such cancellation all certificates for said shares of Class B common stock shall be surrendered to said corporation not later than January 1, 1944 for cancellation, UNLESS on or prior to said date this Commission shall have entered an order finding that during any period of twelve consecutive calendar months ending after January 1, 1939, and prior to January 1, 1944, the consolidated net income of the Delaware Company and its subsidiaries available for dividends after provision for fair and reasonable depreciation shall have exceeded the sum of (a) the dividend requirements for such period and dividends in arrears at the end of such period on any stock of the Company and of any of its subsidiaries entitled to a preference in the distribution of earnings (other than stock owned by the Company or any of its subsidiaries) and (b) the net income applicable to minority interests in the common stocks of its subsidiaries.

by amending said paragraph to read substantially as follows:

It is further ordered, That all the outstanding shares of Class B common stock of Northern States Power Company, a Delaware corporation, shall be cancelled not later than the date specified in the next sentence and, for the purpose of facilitating such cancellation all certificates for said shares of Class B common stock shall be surrendered to said corporation not later than such date for cancellation, unless on or prior to said date this Commission shall have entered an order finding that during any period of twelve consecutive calendar months ending after January 1, 1939, and prior to January 1, 1944, the consolidated net income of the Delaware Company and its subsidiaries available for dividends after provision for fair and reasonable depreciation shall have exceeded the sum of (a) the dividend requirements for such period on any stock of the Company and of any of its subsidiaries entitled to a preference in the distribution of earnings (other than stock owned by the Company or any of its subsidiaries) and (b) the net income applicable to minority interests in the common stock of its subsidiaries: Provided, That at the first day of such period of twelve months, the consolidated earnings subsequent to dates of recapitalization of the Delaware Company and its subsidiaries shall have exceeded all dividends in arrears at such date on any such preferred stock. The date specified in the foregoing sentence for cancellation of said stock and within which the specified finding shall be made shall be the date of the issuance of the Findings and Opinion and Order approving or disapproving, in whole or in part, the liquidation plan filed by Northern States Power Company (Delaware) et al., (File No. 54–54) or until the further order of the Commission.

that in the alternative, said application requests that the Commission enter an order that the provisions and restrictions contained in said order of December 27, 1938, as modified by an order of November 30, 1943, have been satisfied and fulfilled in each of the calendar years 1940 and 1941.

Notice is further given that on July 31, 1944, E. M. Calkin, attorney for the Public Utilities Division of the Commission, filed a motion to dismiss the said application on the grounds (a) that said application does not allege facts sufficient to entitle the applicant to the requested relief, and (b) that the Commission is without statutory authority to grant the relief requested by said application.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that oral argument be heard by the Commission with respect to the matters raised by aforesaid application for supplemental order and motion to dismiss;

It is ordered, That an oral argument on the matters raised by the aforesaid application for supplemental order and motion to dismiss be heard in conjuction with the oral argument on the issues in the proceedings on amended plan, filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of of 1935, for the liquidation of Northern States Power Company (Delaware) and related matters (File Nos. 54–54, 70–559 and 59–50) and that such oral argument be held on August 17, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such oral argument will be heard.

By the Commission.

SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE CO., ET AL.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE AND GRANTING APPLICATIONS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 3d day of August, A. D. 1944.

In the matter of Southwestern Public Service Company, Gulf Public Service Company, File No. 70-869; in the matter of Glenn C. Hyde, File No. 70-872.

Southwestern Public Service Company, a registered holding company, and its wholly owned subsidiary company, Gulf Public Service Company, having filed declarations with the Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and particularly sections 12 (d) and 12 (c) thereof, and Rules U-44 and U-46 of the general rules and regulations thereunder, regarding the proposed sale by Southwestern Public Service Company of all the outstanding securities of Gulf Public Service Company, consisting of $2,800,000 principal amount of 5% Unsecured Notes, due October 1, 1966, and 3,000 shares of common stock, par value $100 per share, to Glenn C. Hyde, an individual, for a base consideration of $4,660,000 in cash, subject to certain adjustments to the date of sale, and the proposed payment by Gulf Public Service Company to Southwestern Public Service Company of a dividend, in the amount of its net current assets, to be charged, in part, to Gulf Public Service Company's capital surplus account:

Said Southwestern Public Service Company having incorporated in said declarations an application for an order exempting said proposed sale of securities, pursuant to paragraph (a) (5) of Rule U-50, from the competitive bidding requirements of paragraph (b) of said rule;

Said Glenn C. Hyde having filed an application with the Commission, pursuant to sections 9 (a) (2) and 10 of said act, for approval of the acquisition by him of the securities so proposed to be sold by Southwestern Public Service Company for the consideration hereinabove recited;

Proceedings upon said declarations and application of Southwestern Public Service Company and Gulf Public Service Company and upon said application of Glenn C. Hyde having been consolidated for the purpose of hearing, a public hearing on such consolidated proceedings having been held after appropriate notice, and the Commission having considered the record and having made and filed its findings and opinion herein;

It is ordered, That the said declarations of Southwestern Public Service Company and Gulf Public Service Company be, and hereby are, permitted to become effective forthwith; and that the said applications of Southwestern Public Service Company and of Glenn C. Hyde be, and hereby are, granted, subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered and recited, That the sale and transfer by Southwestern Public Service Company of all the outstanding securities of Gulf Public Service Company, consisting of $2,800,000 principal amount of 5% Unsecured Notes, due October 1, 1966, and 3,000 shares of common stock, par value $100 per share, is necessary and appropriate to the integration and simplification of the Southwestern Public Service holding company system, and is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

By the Commission.

SOUTHERN UNION GAS COMPANY, ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 3rd day of August, A. D. 1944.

Notice is hereby given that declarations or applications (or both) have been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Southern Union Gas Company ("Southern Union"), its subsidiary, Southern Union Production Company ("Production Company"), and certain stockholders of Southern Union in the form of an amendment designated as Amendment No. 14 to the application of Southern Union, heretofore filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of a Plan to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act. This Commission, by order dated September 19, 1942, and subsequent supplemental orders, has approved said Plan as heretofore modified.

All interested persons are referred to said Amendment No. 14, which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

As a step in further compliance with the order of the Commission dated September 19, 1942, Southern Union and Production Company propose to divest themselves of all interest in, and all ownership and control of, the physical properties and other assets located in southeastern Texas used in connection with the operation of the natural gas distribution system, termed the "South Texas District", serving eight cities and towns located in the counties of Austin, Washington, Grimes, Waller, and Colorado, Texas.

Southern Union proposes to acquire all of the capital stock of a new corporation ("New Company") to be organized under the laws of Texas, being 97,170 shares of common stock, par value $1, for a cash consideration of $350,000. Southern Union then proposes to sell to the New Company the South Texas properties for a cash consideration of $800,000 and Production Company will assign all its rights and interests under its existing gas purchase contracts and reservations used in connection with the South Texas District to the New Company for a nominal consideration. The New Company proposes to secure additional funds for the purchase of the physical properties and other assets from Southern Union and Production Company by the issuance and sale of $500,000 principal amount of first mortgage 3¾% sinking fund bonds.

Southern Union further proposes to declare a dividend of the 97,170 shares of common stock of the New Company distributable to the holders of its common stock in the ratio of one share of the New Company for each ten shares of Southern Union common stock. The amendment states that the New Company will agree to distribute its common stock to the Southern Union stockholders after irrevocable instructions and transfer of its stock have been made by Southern Union. Such instructions will provide that the New Company may pay cash at the rate of $3.50 per share in lieu of issuing certificates for fractional shares of stock in making the distribution.

Southern Union further proposes to deposit the entire consideration received from the sale of the properties with the Trustees for its bonds for retirement of bonds, independently of the sinking fund, in accordance with the provisions of the indenture.

Five stockholders of Southern Union, who by virtue of their individual holdings of more than 5% of the common stock of Southern Union are affiliates of said company under the act, have joined in the filing made by Southern Union for approval of the acquisition of the securities of the New Company distributable to them under the proposed transaction.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held in respect to such matters; and that said declarations shall not become effective nor said applications be granted except pursuant to further order of this Commission:

It is ordered, That the proceedings in this matter be reconvened and a hearing under the applicable provisions of said Act and the Rules of the Commission thereunder be held on August 18, 1944 at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locusts Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such date the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. All persons desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in the proceedings should notify the Commission in the manner provided by the rules of practice, Rule XVII, on or before August 14, 1944;

It is further ordered, That William W. Swift or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings at such time. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all power granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to the trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues, particular attention will be directed at such hearing to the following matters:

1. Whether the proposed formation of the New Company and distribution of the common stock of the New Company is in furtherance of, and not inconsistent with, the order of this Commission dated September 19, 1942, and is necessary to enable Southern Union to comply with the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act.

2. Whether the proposed acquisition of the stock of the New Company by the stockholders of Southern Union, who are affiliates of such company, meet the standards of section 10, particularly subsections (b) and (c) thereof.

3. Whether the proposed payments in cash, in lieu of issuing fractional shares, are fair and equitable to the common stockholders of Southern Union and the stockholders of the New Company.

4. Whether the proposed accounting entries and adjustments on the books of Southern Union and the New Company are appropriate.

5. Generally, whether, in any respect, the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or to the interest of investors or consumers or will tend to circumvent any provisions of the act or the rules, regulations or orders promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That notice of this hearing be given to the applicants or declarants, and to all other persons, said notice to be given to the applicants or declarants and to the Railroad Commission of Texas by registered mail, and to all other persons by general release of this Commission which shall be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Commission.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD.

CHARLES HAMAD

CONSENT ORDER

Charles Hamad is engaged in the business of processing hatters furs, fur and textile by-products and in the cutting of rabbits' skins and other fur by-products. On or about April 1, 1944, he began construction of a factory on East Franklin St., Danbury, Conn., the estimated cost of which would be in excess of the $5000. limit permitted by Conservation Order L-41, and with a factory floor space to be in excess of 10,000 sq. ft. Mr. Charles Hamad admits this violation but denies that it was wilful and does not care to contest the issue of wilfulness and has consented to the issuance of this order.

Wherefore, upon the agreement and consent of Charles Hamad, the Regional Compliance Chief and the Regional Attorney, and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) Charles Hamad, his successors and assigns, shall not directly or indirectly order, purchase, accept delivery of, withdraw from inventory, or in any other manner secure or use material or construction plant in order to continue or complete construction on the premises at East Franklin Street, Danbury, Conn., unless such construction is hereafter specifically authorized by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Charles Hamad, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on the 3d day of August 1944.

Issued this 3d day of August 1944.

§ 12.302 Policy. It is the duty of every administrator to curtail his working force whenever he has a surplus of employees. Reduction-in-force regulations do not make this task easier but they help to give proper weight to the different factors which must be considered. These regulations were prepared with a great deal of care and are issued with the hope that they provide an answer to most of the problems that will arise. They are complex because there are so many factors which must be considered. Underlying policies should be kept in mind in applying the rules to individual cases. The most important policies are as follows:

(a) Looking ahead for changes in work loads, available funds and employee turnover, and restricting appointments in certain lines of work may prevent a surplus in workers which would otherwise occur. It is better practice to keep a working staff down to the number required than to cut down an oversize staff of employees.

(b) Employees who are not giving satisfactory service should be separated by appropriate methods or shifted to positions where they can give satisfactory service before it is necessary to reduce the force. Employees who are separated in a reduction in force should not be made to feel that their work has been unsatisfactory.

(c) When it can be seen that a reduction in force seems to be necessary, this fact should be made known to workers in each group where there is a surplus to give them an opportunity to take up the slack by voluntary resignations or transfers. At the same time, shifts in personnel should be planned which will enable the organization to work on the reduced basis. Frankness in dealing with employees will avoid many controversies later.

(d) All plans should provide for the return of members of the working force who are absent on furlough in the military services or in the Merchant Marine, and employees transferred with reemployment rights to other departments where their services are more vital to the war effort. Many of these employees will return to claim their former positions and there should be no delay in restoring those with proper claims.

(e) When involuntary separations are necessary in order to reduce the working force those with the least claims to retention should be separated first in any group where there is a surplus of workers. Career employees should not be separated as long as any employees who are not in the career service are retained in positions which the career employees can fill.

(f) Congress has specified that employees who have risked their lives by serving their country in the military services, the widows of veterans, and the wives of disabled veterans, must be given preference for retention in civilian positions, whenever there is a reduction in force.

(g) More outstanding employees must be preferred for retention over employees who are not so outstanding in a reduction in force.

(h) Those who have served faithfully for long periods of years should have preference over those who have served for shorter periods of time, in a reduction in force.

(i) The foregoing rules can be applied only when the area of competition is broad enough to permit interchange of personnel to protect career workers, to safeguard veteran preference, to keep the best workers, and to give proper consideration to seniority.

(j) Employees who are in danger of losing their positions in a reduction in force should have as much notice as possible and should be fully informed as to the reasons why they were selected for separation while others are retained. Frankness in dealing with employees is always a good policy.

(k) There must be an opportunity for employees who feel that their rights have been violated to have appeals considered by an impartial department. The Commission has been designated as the agency to consider such appeals.

§ 12.303 Definitions. For the purpose of these regulations, the following definitions are given for the words, terms, and phrases listed below.

(a) "Reduction in force" means the involuntary separation from the rolls of a department, or furlough in excess of ninety days, of one or more employees in order to reduce personnel. Reduction of personnel may have to be made because of lack of funds, personnel ceilings, reorganization, or decrease of work, to make a position available for a former employee with established reemployment or restoration rights, or for other reasons.

(b) "Career employee" means: (1) the occupant of a position which is in the classified (competitive) service who has a classified (competitive) civil service status, unless he is serving under an appointment limited to one year or less. For the purpose of these regulations, recalled annuitants, employees continued beyond the involuntary retirement age, and employees appointed on a when-actually-employed (WAE) basis (see § 12.319), are not considered as career employees.

(2) The occupant of a position which is excepted from the classified (competitive) service who has the maximum permanency of tenure, not conditioned upon the war period or other circumstances, attainable in his agency.

(c) "Transitory employee" means (1) The occupant of a position which is in the classified (competitive) service who does not have a classified (competitive) status but who is serving under an indefinite probational, or trial-period appointment. This includes status quo employees and war service appointees, unless otherwise specified. However, the term does not apply to employees whose appointments are limited to one year or less, to recalled annuitants, to employees continued beyond the involuntary retirement age, or to employees appointed on a when-actually-employed (WAE) basis; for these special cases see § 12.319.

(2) The occupant of a position which is excepted from the classified (competitive) service who is serving under an appointment not limited to one year or less, but whose appointment is conditioned upon the war period or other circumstances.

(d) "Temporary employee" means an employee who is serving under an appointment limited to a specific period of one year or less, regardless of whether he may have a classified (competitive) civil service status as a result of prior service.

(e) "Veteran preference employee" means an employee entitled to veteran preference under the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944 (Public Law 359, 78th Congress, 2d Session). Such persons are:

(1) Those ex-service men and women who have served on active duty in any branch of the armed forces of the United States and have been separated therefrom under honorable conditions and who have established the present existence of a service-connected disability or who are receiving compensation, disability retirement benefits, or pension by reason of public laws administered by the Veterans' Administration, the War Department, or the Navy Department;

(2) The wives of such service-connected disabled ex-service men as have themselves been unable to qualify for any civil service appointment;

(3) The unmarried widows of deceased ex-servicemen who served on active duty in any branch of the armed forces of the United States during any war or in any campaign or expedition (for which a campaign badge has been authorized), and who were separated therefrom under honorable conditions;

(4) Those ex-service men and women who have served on active duty in any branch of the armed forces of the United States during any war or in any campaign or expedition (for which a campaign badge has been authorized), and have been separated therefrom under honorable conditions; and

(5) Those who on the date upon which the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944 (Public Law 359, 78th Congress, 2d Session) became effective, June 27, 1944, were entitled to veteran preference and were in Federal employment or on an eligible register of the Commission or other department authorized to compile eligible registers.

(f) "Restoration or reemployment rights" means the legal right of an employee to be restored to or reemployed in his prior position or a position of like seniority, status, and pay, or similar rights granted under published regulations.

(g) "Department" means an executive department, parent organization, independent establishment, government-owned or government-controlled corporation of the Federal Government, the municipal government of the District of Columbia, or any other such organization or separate governmental agency of the executive branch of the Federal Government created by act of Congress or Executive order.

(h) "Governmental entity" means an executive department, bureau of an executive department, parent organization, constituent agency, independent establishment, entire field installation, regional office, or field station, a department of the municipal government of the District of Columbia, or any other such organization or separate governmental agency of the Federal Government created by act of Congress or Executive order.

(i) "Competitive level" means all positions allocated to the same class, service, and grade, and all positions of the same grade (although designated by different titles) that are sufficiently alike for interchange of personnel to be feasible.

(j) "Occupational group" means all ungraded positions at the same level in the same trade or occupation (for example: in the trade of electrician, at the level of helper, at the level of journeyman, etc.) although there may be two or more rates of pay in such occupational level.

§ 12.304 Preventive measures. In the public interest and in the interest of employees, it is the distinct responsibility of heads of departments and governmental entities always to be alert to evidences of overstaffing, diminishing work loads, appropriation and allotment restrictions, and other indications that reductions in force may be necessary. Wherever possible, they should take remedial action which will avoid the more drastic action of making a reduction in force. Some of the measures which are effective in avoiding reductions in force are restrictions on new appointments, shifting of personnel to meet changes in work loads, and encouraging employees whose services can be spared to seek transfers. Representatives of the Commission will cooperate in these activities.

§ 12.305 Use of transfer processes. Many employees in groups where there is a surplus of workers may be shifted to other work assignments where their services are needed, in the same department, or in other departments. Personnel officers in each department are expected to arrange transfers for the benefit of these employees whenever this can be done within the department. Representatives of the Commission both in Washington and in the field will work with designated representatives of each department in transferring employees who are declared available to other departments wherever their services are needed and they can be utilized effectively by other departments. Special efforts must be made to retransfer to their former positions all employees transferred under War Service Regulations to positions where their services were more vital to the war effort, who are no longer needed in the positions to which transferred.

§ 12.306 Completion of employee records. Departments shall take immediate steps to complete all records of employees which do not fully indicate their status, veteran preference, or entire Federal employment. After a careful examination of the personnel records in the department, including Form 2806, inquiries may have to be made of the Commission concerning doubtful cases. No inquiry should be made concerning those about whom there is complete information. For example, no inquiry need be made about a war-service appointee who had no prior Federal service and no military service; he is clearly without a classified (competitive) civil service status or veteran preference, and his length of service is shown in the department's records. It would be impractical for the Commission to check the status, veteran preference or service of all employees of every department. Therefore, it is necessary that careful screening be done so that requests for additional information will be limited to cases in which items are missing from the department's records. In the interest of avoiding a last-minute rush, departments are urged to begin now to examine the records of their employees.

Department records no doubt show that veteran preference has been granted in many cases. However, there may be many employees who have had military service but have not filed a claim for veteran preference. Departments are urged to circularize their employees in order to locate those who have had military service but have not been granted veteran preference. Every such employee should be urged to submit proof of separation from active service in the armed forces of the United States to his personnel officer. For reduction-in-force purposes, and no other, the Commission hereby authorizes personnel officers to record veteran preference on the personnel records of employees who present proof of honorable separation from last military service. (See § 12.303 (e) of this part.) Proof other than the certificate of honorable discharge or the certificate of satisfactory service, and all claims of wives and widows of veterans, should be forwarded to the Commission's Central Office or the appropriate regional office with the employee's claim to preference (Form 14) for official action. (Claims may be submitted to branch offices, representatives of regional offices and rating boards of the Commission who have authority to handle the majority of preference claims.)

Verification of classified (competitive) civil service status and length of service will be facilitated if the following groupings are made: (a) those who clearly have a classified civil service status but whose records of service are incomplete; (b) those who clearly do not have a classified civil service status but whose records of service are incomplete; (c) those whose status is unknown but whose records of service are complete; and (d) those whose records are incomplete as to status and service.

Departments desiring to obtain information from the Commission regarding employees' status, veteran preference, and service shall use Standard Form 66, which is available at the Government Printing Office and may be procured from that office in the usual manner. The department will complete section A of this form, check the items requested, supply the name and birth date of the employee concerned, enter service if verification is needed, and forward the form to the Commission, Service Record Division, Washington 25, D. C. The question concerning veteran preference should be checked only when military service is shown unless wife or widow preference is claimed. The Commission will complete section B in accordance with the information requested and return the form to the department. Verification by the Commission of service claimed by employees will hereafter be limited to that shown in the Commission's records. Requests for verification (Form 66) need no longer be submitted in duplicate. In any case in which the Commission is unable to verify service from its records it will be the responsibility of the department to obtain verification from the department in which the unverified service is claimed. In such cases it is requested that the verification be obtained in duplicate and that one copy be forwarded to the Commission, attention Service Record Division, for incorporation into the employee's service record. For reduction-in-force purposes where no service prior to March 16, 1942 is claimed, except military service, departments may rely on statements by employees when supported by affidavit.

Departments shall also make certain that their records of employees clearly indicate the present and former employees who have restoration or reemployment rights in the department and the employees who have restoration rights in other departments.

§ 12.307 Determination of restoration, reemployment and retention rights; statutory. Certain employees who left positions other than temporary to serve in the armed forces or Merchant Marine and who are returning to civilian employment have statutory rights to return to the government service. They must have been members of land or naval reserve components ordered into active duty before May 1, 1940, or must have been in active military service after that date. Employees who entered the Merchant Marine after May 1, 1940, also have statutory rights to restoration. Under existing policy, these employees must be considered first for assignment to positions to which they would have been promoted or for restoration to the positions they left. Failing that, they are entitled to reemployment in positions of like seniority, status, and pay. The statutory right to return includes the right to be retained in the service for one year from the date of restoration to duty, unless discharged for cause.

§ 12.308 Determination of restoration and reemployment rights under regulations. By regulations, certain employees who transferred from nontemporary positions to private industry or between departments where their services were determined to be more vital to the war effort were given rights to return to their former positions, or to positions similar as to seniority, status and pay, at the same location in the same department.

§ 12.309 Determination of restoration, reemployment and retention rights; priorities. Restoration and reemployment rights of returning veterans and merchant seamen and those entitled by regulation to reemployment may conflict with each other and will conflict with the rights of other employees. These conflicts must be resolved in deciding which position is to be filled by a returning employee in deciding what assignments are to be made as a matter of placement, transfer, or promotion, and in deciding whether a reduction in force is necessary. In resolving the conflicts, the following order of priority shall be recognized, those in higher priority groups having superior rights to those in any lower priority groups:

(a) Career employees with statutory restoration, reemployment, or retention rights. Priority for this group extends for one year from the date of restoration. Within the group, those who served in the armed forces have priority over those who served in the Merchant Marine.

(b) Transitory employees (not including war-service appointees) with statutory restoration, reemployment, or retention rights. Priority for this group extends for one year from the date of restoration. Within the group, those who served in the armed forces have priority over those who served in the Merchant Marine.

(c) Career employees who have veteran preference, other than those in group (a).

(d) Career employees who do not have veteran preference.

(e) Transitory employees who have veteran preference, other than those in group (b).

(f) Transitory employees who do not have veteran preference.

The rights of competing employees, having been determined according to the above priority groups, establish the position which a particular employee shall occupy. This does not necessarily result in the separation of a displaced incumbent from the service. Retention of any displaced incumbent in the department will then depend upon the possibilities of placement in other positions or upon the order of selection established in these regulations in other positions or upon the order of selection established in these regulations governing reduction in force. The so-called "tagging" of positions, which has been followed in some departments, may also identify a specific position to which an employee with restoration or reemployment rights may be returned.

§ 12.310 Clearance of plans of competitive areas for future use. Departments shall give immediate consideration to the governmental entities which are the minimum areas of competition for reductions in force. If there is doubt as to the size and scope of these governmental entities, or if it is desired to establish smaller areas of competition as a standard practice for reductions in force, departments shall submit proposed plans of such competitive areas within sixty days after the issuance of these regulations, to the Central Office of the Commission, for the attention of the Personnel Classification Division. When approved, subsequent clearance with the Commission will not be necessary unless (a) a proposed competitive area does not conform to the plan, (b) department reorganization has affected the plan, or (c) the facts upon which the plan was originally based differ from the facts at the time of the reduction in force.

§ 12.311 Preliminary decisions. Consideration of the factors motivating a reduction in force necessarily is an administrative responsibility of the department concerned. Such factors include nature and location of function to be curtailed, number of personnel to be released, nature and extent of any reorganization and related subjects.

§ 12.312 Determination of competitive area. When it is administratively determined that a reduction in force must be effected, it becomes the duty of the department to establish, in accordance with these regulations, the area within which the mechanics of the reduction procedure shall operate and have uniform application. The area over which the reduction-in-force procedure is to apply and operate should be a governmental entity as defined in § 12.303 (h) of this part. No reduction in force affecting career or transitory employees shall be made in any smaller area without obtaining prior approval from the Central Office of the Commission in the Washington, D. C., area, or from the appropriate regional office of the Commission outside the Washington, D. C., area. Approval by the Commission of any proposed smaller area will be given if the area is large enough to prevent the loss of highly efficient employees, to allow true competition to exist, and to require the retention of career employees and employee entitled to veteran preference. In approving or disapproving any such smaller area, consideration will be given to whether any employees of the competitive level or occupational group to be affected are outside the area, whether the area has independence of operation, work functions, and personnel administration (although policies may be established in higher department levels), whether the staff of the area is separately organized and clearly distinguishable from other areas of the governmental entity, and whether it is geographically situated within local commuting distance of other areas of the governmental entity.

Questions concerning competitive areas for reduction-in-force purposes in the Washington, D. C., area, whether the positions are field or departmental service, shall be submitted to the Personnel Classification Division of the Commission's Central Office for clearance and approval. Outside the Washington, D. C., area, such questions shall be submitted to the appropriate regional office of the Commission, whether the positions are field or departmental, except that when a plan of competitive areas for the department has been cleared in advance with the Central Office of the Commission, questions concerning them shall be referred through administrative channels to the Central Office.

§ 12.313 Determination of competitive level or occupational group. Within the determined competitive area, there shall be further determined the competitive level or occupational group in which the contemplated reduction in force is to be made. If the reduction in force is to be made in more than one level or group, each level or group shall be treated separately.

Each employee whose official position is in such competitive level or occupation group shall be considered in competition for reduction-in-force purposes, whether he is in a duty or leave status, pay or nonpay status, or actually engaged on work in another department, another competitive area, or in another competitive level or occupational group; except that there shall be excluded the names of persons in the active military service of the United States or in the merchant marine, persons on furlough to private industry or public enterprise under provisions of § 18.9 (d) of this chapter, persons on terminal leave, and persons regarding whom action to be taken has been determined as a result of prior reduction in force.

§ 12.314 Determination of veteran preference. Employees entitled to veteran preference are those included in § 12.303 (e) of this part. It is incumbent upon the department to ascertain which among the employees affected are entitled to veteran preference. Such preference accorded in the department will not be questioned by the Commission unless challenged by employees adversely affected.

§ 12.315 Determination of length of service. The length of service shall be the total of all periods of service that are eligible for consideration for civil service retirement purposes, without regard to whether the employee is eligible or will be eligible, actually to receive retirement benefits. This service includes active military service, whether or not veteran preference is given therefor. Total service shall consist only of full years of creditable service; however, fractions of a year shall be considered in arriving at the total.

§ 12.316 Reassignment of career employees to permanent positions. Before any formal application of the reduction-in-force procedures, each career employee in a competitive area in which a reduction in force is necessary, who has been transferred or promoted in the department on a temporary or war-service basis and whose services in his present assignment is no longer necessary, shall be transferred to a position that is to be continued, at the same geographical location wherever possible, with seniority, status and pay at least equal to that of the permanent position from which transferred on a temporary or war-service basis (see § 12.332 of this part).

§ 12.317 Informal notice to employees. In order that employees may have an opportunity to make personal adjustments, information that a reduction in force is anticipated shall be made known to employees generally in competitive areas likely to be affected. Such general information should be given as soon as a department has reason to anticipate a curtailment of personnel, with a suggestion that employees interested in finding other employment will be given all possible assistance. Statements of availability and releases should be furnished to any employees requesting them.

§ 12.318 Special provisions relating to consolidations and mergers. Before any reduction in force is made as the result of the transfer of any or all of the functions of one department to another continuing department, all preference employees, all permanent or indefinite employees serving their first year after restoration following war service in the merchant marine, and all other career employees who are qualified to perform the duties of any noncareer employee in the continuing department shall be transferred to such continuing department.

§ 12.319 Termination at administrative discretion. Because of the type of their appointments, certain employees may be separated at administrative discretion within certain limits. Accordingly, temporary employees, when-actually-employed (WAE) employees, annuitants who have been recalled from a retired status, and employees continued beyond the involuntary retirement age may be separated whenever their services are no longer required. However, in separating the above types of employees to reduce personnel, they shall be separated with thirty days' notice (see § 12.333 of this part) before any other employees, and in the following order:

(a) Recalled annuitants and employees continued beyond the involuntary retirement age shall be the first to go, and then temporary and when-actually-employed (WAE) employees;

(b) Employees without veteran preference shall be separated before veteran-preference employees serving under similar types of appointment;

(c) Subject to the foregoing, less efficient employees shall be separated before more efficient employees;

(d) As between persons of equal preference and efficiency, length of service shall determine the order of separation.

§ 12.320 Categories of competition. Within each determined competitive level or occupational group in each determined competitive area, all employees referred to in § 12.319 of this part shall be separated first unless special or exceptional circumstances warrant the retention of particular employees. If any further reduction in force is necessary, (a) transitory and (b) career employees shall be considered in the order named. These two categories shall constitute separate and distinct categories of competition. Employees within each category shall be in competition only with other employees in the same category. Seasonal employees shall be considered in competition only with other seasonal employees in the same line of work. Reduction in force within this group shall be effected in the order of categories above prescribed.

§ 12.321 Sequence of selection; where an efficiency rating system approved by the Commission is used. Within each of the respective categories, the sequence of selection for action shall be determined by consideration of veteran preference and reduction credits based on efficiency ratings and length of service with the Federal Government, including active military service. The order of reduction in force within each category shall be:

First, employees without veteran preference who have "Fair" efficiency ratings, in ascending order of reduction credits.

Second, employees with veteran preference who have "Fair" efficiency ratings, in ascending order of reduction credits.

Third, employees without veteran preference who have efficiency ratings of "Good" or better, in ascending order of reduction credits.

And last, employees with veteran preference who have efficiency ratings of "Good" or better, in ascending order of reduction credits.

(a) Reduction credits shall be computed by giving a numerical value of 80 for a "Good" efficiency rating, 88 for a "Very Good" efficiency rating, and 96 for an "Excellent" efficiency rating, and adding one credit for each full year of service with the Federal Government, including active military service. No numerical value shall be given for a "Fair" efficiency rating, but reduction credits for length of service shall be given as above.

(b) The efficiency rating used shall be the current appropriate official rating. In accordance with section 5 of the Efficiency Rating Manual (Civil Service Commission Form 3823, Revised [1]) as clarified by section 2 of Departmental Circular No. 474 [1] and by section 2 of Departmental Circular No. 486,[1] special ratings shall be given to each employee whose performance is evaluated under the uniform efficiency rating system approved by the Commission whenever such employee does not have a current official efficiency rating based on performance in a position of the competitive level or occupational group in which the reduction in force is being made. If a reduction in force necessitates the separation of all employees in a category of competition, the making of special ratings for employees in such category is not required.

(c) No credits shall be allowed for dependency, official conduct, or like factors. They shall be considered, however, when two or more employees are tied for position in the order of reduction in force and one or more but not all employees so tied for position are to be reached for action. If they are still tied, the date of entrance on duty shall be considered.

§ 12.322 Sequence of selection; where an efficiency rating system is used under administrative authority and provides evaluations comparable to approved systems. The procedure outlined in § 12.321 of this part shall be followed. Reduction credit shall be given, and the order of reduction in force within each category shall be determined upon the basis of ratings evaluated according to the following efficiency rating definitions:

"Fair": Performance that conforms generally to that reasonably required, with certain deficient performance not compensated by other outstanding performance.

"Good": Performance that conforms generally to that reasonably required with deficient performance in any phases compensated by outstanding performance in other phases.

"Very Good": Performance that is distinctly better than that reasonably required in at least half of the especially important phases, provided no deficient performance is present in any phase.

"Excellent": Performance that is distinctly better than that reasonably required in all especially important phases, provided no deficient performance is present in any phase.

§ 12.323 Sequence of selection; where no efficiency rating system is used or where the system used does not provide evaluations comparable to approved systems. The order of reduction in force within each category shall be:

First, employees without veteran preference, in ascending order of length of service.

And then, employees with veteran preference, in ascending order of length of service.

In computing length of service, one credit shall be given for each full year of service with the Federal Government, including military service.

§ 12.324 Sequence of selection; exceptions, statutory retention rights. Whenever a restored employee having the statutory retention rights indicated in § 12.307 of this part is reached for action in a reduction in force which is to become effective within one year from the date of his restoration to service, he shall be retained in preference to employees who are higher in sequence of selection but who are in a lower priority group as indicated in § 12.309 of this part.

§ 12.325 Sequence of selection; exceptions, special cases. Except as provided in § 12.324 of this part, no employee shall be retained in preference to an employee higher in the sequence of selection except under the following conditions: If the position of an employee is not to be abolished and its duties cannot be satisfactorily performed by any available employee higher in the sequence of selection after a reasonable training period, he may be retained in preference to such employee. In such case, a brief statement of the facts must be made in the "Remarks" column on the reduction-in-force list for consideration in connection with postaudits and appeals.

§ 12.326 Preparation of reduction-in-force list; requirements. A reduction-in-force list shall be prepared in triplicate for each determined competitive level or occupational group in each determined competitive area in which a reduction in force affecting transitory and career employees is to be made. It shall list all employees in categories (a) transitory employees, and (b) career employees, as provided in § 12.320 of this part, in the order in which action is to be taken. The categories shall be arranged on the list in descending order; that is, the category of career employees at the top and the category of transitory employees at the bottom. However, if only employees in category (a) are affected, the names of employees in category (b) need not be listed. The names of employees shall be so arranged that those first to be reached for action shall be at the bottom of the list. The list shall not contain the names of employees separated in accordance with § 12.319 of this part, "Terminations at Administrative Discretion"; but if any employees subject to such termination are retained under special circumstances warranting such retention and action is to be taken on employees in categories (a) or (b), their names and the reasons for the retention shall be reported to the Commission at the time the list is submitted.

§ 12.327 Preparation of reduction-in-force list; itemized information. The list shall contain:

(a) The heading. This shall show (1) the occupational or class title, (2) the department, and (3) the competitive area and its address.

(b) Name of employee. (List names in the order in which action is to be taken, placing at the bottom of the list the name of the employee first to be reached for action.)

(e) Position title. This should be shown only where the customary office or shop title is different from the class or occupational title shown in the heading.

(d) Salary rate. (Basic rate, excluding overtime.)

(e) Veteran preference. (Enter the word "Yes" where applicable. No entry need be made for employees not entitled to veteran preference.)

(f) Efficiency rating. ("E" for excellent, "VG" for Very Good, "G" for Good, "F" for Fair.)

(g) Service (years). (Total of creditable service, including active military service.)

(i) Action. (Enter the letter "S" if the employee is to be separated, "F" if the employee is to be furloughed, and "D" if employee is to be demoted to a position of lower competitive level or occupational group. If the employee is to be retained in preference to other employees, enter an asterisk. To indicate any other type of action, use any convenient symbol, and explain it on the form.)

(j) Remarks. (Enter brief explanations or references to footnotes or separate memoranda, regarding basis for breaking ties, retention in preference to employees higher on the list, special efficiency ratings, or any other matters which should be clarified.)

The names of recalled annuitants, employees continued beyond the involuntary retirement age, temporary employees, when - actually - employed (WAE) employees, shall not be listed, but if any such employees are being retained their names must be shown at the bottom of the list with explanations as to the reasons for their retention.

§ 12.328 Reduction - in - force certificate. The reduction-in-force list shall bear substantially the following certificate by the head of the department or some person authorized to act for him:

I certify that I have complied with all the provisions of regulations governing reductions in force and that the foregoing list contains all of the information required by such regulations.

The actions indicated in the list submitted herewith will be effective upon the expiration of accrued leave after the last day of active duty, which will be ----------, 19----, unless otherwise indicated. The employees affected were notified of the action to be taken in their cases on ----------, 19----.

(Date)

Actions may be made effective on the date indicated in the certificate without the prior approval of the Commission, but they will be subject to a postaudit, in the Commission's discretion, and they will be subject to appeal to the Commission by any transitory or career employee or by any employee subject to termination at administrative discretion who feels that his rights under veteran preference laws have been violated. Any department desiring to do so may request the Commission to preaudit the reduction in force and approve the actions proposed thereunder. In so far as possible, and upon request, the Commission will assist departments in planning a reduction in force to insure compliance with these regulations.

§ 12.329 Reduction-in-force actions; separations and demotions. Where the reduction in force is permanent, as nearly as can reasonably be determined administratively, the affected employees shall be separated unless they have restoration rights to lower-grade positions or unless there is an administrative policy to demote employees in higher-grade positions to lower-grade positions, in either of which cases they may be demoted. If demotions and separations are to be made in a particular competitive level or occupational group, selections of those to be demoted in lieu of separation shall be determined in accordance with the priorities indicated in § 12.309 of this part. Employees who are separated shall be furnished statements of availability.

§ 12.330 Reduction-in-force actions; furloughs. Employees may be furloughed in excess of ninety days if the reduction is the result of a temporary condition that will exist for less than one year. Employees placed on furlough shall be furnished statements of availability. Where tenure is limited by the type of appointment, the furlough period shall not exceed the unexpired portion of the period of appointment and in no case shall the furlough period exceed one year. In the event that vacancies are to be filled in positions of the competitive level or occupational group and competitive area from which employees have been furloughed, the furloughed employees shall be given opportunity to return to duty before any original appointments are made to such positions. The order in which offers of recall to duty are made shall be the reverse of the list order in which the employees were furloughed. Employees who are not recalled to duty within the furlough period shall be separated from the service.

§ 12.331 Reduction-in-force actions; exceptions, statutory retention. Whenever a restored employee having the statutory retention rights indicated in § 12.307 of this part is reached for action in a reduction in force which is to become effective within one year from the date of his restoration to service, he shall be placed in some other position of like seniority, status, and pay elsewhere in the department if his position is being abolished or if he cannot be retained in preference to employees higher in sequence of selection as provided in § 12.324 of this part.

§ 12.332 Reduction-in-force actions; exceptions, career employees. Whenever it is finally determined in a reduction in force that a career employee reached for action is to be separated from the rolls or furloughed in excess of ninety days, and there is within the department at the same geographical location a position not occupied by a career employee which the career employee so reached is qualified to fill, the career employee so reached shall be transferred or assigned to such position.

Retention on the rolls of the department of an employee who is displaced by a career employee will then depend upon the possibilities of placement in other positions, or upon the sequence of selection established in these regulations governing reduction in force.

§ 12.333 Reduction in force actions—notice to employees. Each employee affected by a reduction in force shall be given individual notice in writing at least thirty days before the action becomes effective. Wherever possible, this notice shall be given thirty days before the employee is relieved from active duty, and the employee shall be continued in a pay status until his accrued annual leave is exhausted. Where there is insufficient work to continue the employee in an active-duty status for thirty days, he shall have the greatest notice possible before he is relieved from active duty, and shall thereafter be carried in a pay status until his accrued leave is exhausted. If the period of active duty after notice is given and the period of accrued leave total less than thirty days, the employee shall be carried in a nonpay status for the remainder of the thirty day period. In no case shall an employee be taken off the rolls in a reduction in force without thirty days' notice in advance of such separation. Besides specifying the nature of the action and the date of termination of active duty, the notice shall inform the employee of:

(b) The proper office or official of the organization through which the employee may examine a copy of these regulations and inspect the reduction-in-force list and records,

(c) His right to appeal the proposed action to the Commission (Washington employees to the Central Office and others to the appropriate regional office) within ten days from the receipt of the notice, and

(d) Any restoration or reemployment-list rights he may have, and the channels (departmental and field) through which the employee may apply for other government employment.

§ 12.334 Submission of reduction-in-force list to the Commission. As soon as employees are notified of the proposed action, and within the ten day period allowed for the filing of appeals, two signed copies of the reduction-in-force list and the names and reasons for retention of employees who are subject to termination at administrative discretion and have not been so terminated, shall be transmitted to the appropriate office of the Commission (Central Office in the case of employees stationed in Washington and vicinity, and regional office in the case of employees stationed outside of Washington and vicinity).

Whenever a department finds it necessary to separate, demote or furlough employees whose names with complete information, have already appeared on a reduction-in-force list that has been certified to the Commission during the same efficiency rating period in connection with action on other cases, it shall be necessary only for the department to notify the Commission regarding such cases, referring to the list on which the names appear, and certifying as to the notices to employees.

§ 12.335 Rights of employees to inspect reduction-in-force list and records and to appeal action taken. Employees affected by a reduction in force are entitled to full compliance with these regulations, and to appeal to the Commission within ten days of receipt of notice of any action which they believe to be in violation of these regulations. In order that they may be informed of the facts on which action is based they shall have the right to examine a copy of these regulations and to inspect the records and the reduction-in-force list on which their names appear. No appeal will be entertained by the Commission from employees who are subject to termination at administrative discretion except in cases of specific allegations of violation of veteran preference requirements.

§ 12.336 Appeals. Any transitory or career employee who feels that his rights under the veteran preference laws, or under these regulations have been violated, and any employee subject to termination at administrative discretion who feels that his rights under veteran preference laws have been violated, may appeal to the Commission (Central Office in the case of Washington employees, and otherwise to the appropriate regional office) within ten days from the receipt of notice of the action to be taken. This time limit may be extended only upon a showing by the employee that circumstances beyond his control prevented him from filing his appeal within the prescribed ten days.

§ 12.337 Resulting action after appeal or postaudit. Whenever the Commission, as the result of a postaudit or by a decision on the appeal of an employee, disapproves the action taken under these regulations, the head of the department shall cancel the notice of such action if the employee is still carried on the rolls in an active duty status, leave status, or nonpay status. Where the employee is in a leave or nonpay status, he shall be restored to active duty.

(a) If the employee has been separated from the rolls before the department is advised of the disapproval of the action by the Commission, the head of the department shall promptly restore the employee to the position from which separated.

(b) In the case of the disapproval of a demotion, the employee shall be restored to the position from which he was demoted.

(c) In the case of the disapproval of a furlough in excess of ninety days, restoration to active duty shall take place as follows: (1) if the furlough has been in effect for ninety days—immediately; (2) if the furlough has not been in effect for ninety days—within ninety-one days of the time the employee entered a nonpay status.

(d) If additional separations, demotions, or furloughs in excess of ninety days are necessary as a result of disapproval of cases by the Commission, they shall be made in accordance with these reduction-in-force regulations.

With respect to reductions in force outside of the Washington, D. C., area, the decision of the Commission's regional director is the decision of the Commission on appeals and postaudits.

NOTE: Miscellaneous information. Commission points of contact. Inquiries and correspondence concerning reductions in force outside the Washington, D. C., area, except matters involving an established plan of competitive areas for the department, shall be addressed to the appropriate regional office of the Commission.

Departments and employees desiring to contact the Central Office of the Commission for information concerning these regulations shall address inquiries and correspondence as follows:

Questions regarding transfer processes—Civil Service Representative of Department, Room 11, 820 7th Street NW., Washington 25, D. C.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter X—War Food Administration (Production Orders)

[WFO 9-6, Amdt. 11]

PART 1220—FEED

LIMITATIONS ON MIXED FEED MANUFACTURERS

War Food Order No. 9-6 (9 F.R. 1481, 4319) is hereby revised and amended in its entirety to read as follows:

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the War Food Order No. 9 (formerly Food Production Order No. 9 (8 F.R. 16960, 9 F.R. 3475, 4319, 8767)), issued on December 18, 1943, to effectuate the purposes of such order pertaining to the use of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feeds and to promote the orderly distribution of protein meal; it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1220.8 Quarterly limitation on the use of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feed. During any quarter (beginning January 1, April 1, July 1 or October 1) of the calendar year 1944, no mixed feed manufacturer shall use any quantity of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feeds in excess of (1) the average quantity of protein meal used by such manufacturer in the manufacture of mixed feeds in the corresponding quarters of the calendar years 1942 and 1943, or (2) 30 percent of the maximum quantity of protein meal which the manufacturer is permitted to use in the manufacture of mixed feeds during the calendar year 1944 under the provisions of paragraph (d) of War Food Order No. 9, whichever is greater: Provided, however, That, in computing the maximum quantity of protein meal which may be used by a manufacturer, during the quarter beginning July 1, 1944, in the manufacture of mixed feeds under this order, any protein meal used in the manufacture of cubes or pellets containing not less than 30 percent protein for the feeding of cattle or sheep on the range, which is in excess of the average quantity of protein meal used for such purpose during the corresponding quarters of the years 1942 and 1943, need not be taken into account: Provided, further, That this order shall not apply to any mixed feed manufacturer who uses no more than 60 tons of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feeds during the calendar year 1944. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit any mixed feed manufacturer, during the calendar year 1944, to use any quantity of protein meal in the manufacture of mixed feeds in excess of the maximum quantity permitted under paragraph (d) of War Food Order No. 9.

PART 1220—FEED

SET ASIDE REQUIREMENTS FOR PROCESSORS OF OILSEED FOR SEPTEMBER 1944

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by War Food Order No. 9 (8 F.R. 16960, 9 F.R. 3475, 4319, 8767), issued on December 18, 1943, and to effectuate the purposes of such order pertaining to set aside requirements for oilseed meal produced by processors, and to secure an equitable distribution of such oilseed meal, it is hereby ordered, that § 1220.15 Set aside requirements for processors of oilseed for September 1944—(a) Amount to be set aside. Each processor shall set aside at each processing plant operated by him 20 percent of his production of cottonseed, soybean, linseed and peanut oil meal, cake or pellets (hereinafter called "oilseed meal"), during September 1944. The amount of production upon which the quantity of oilseed meal set aside is based shall not include any oilseed meal produced for the Commodity Credit Corporation under the provisions of contracts designated "CCC Soybean Form 106, 1943 Crop," and this order shall not apply to oilseed meal produced under such contracts.

(b) Sale and delivery of oilseed meal set aside. (1) Oilseed meal set aside pursuant to this order shall not be sold or delivered by any processor except to a buyer named in a Certificate of Designated Buyer issued by the Agricultural Conservation Committee for the State or county in which the buyer's farm or establishment is located or by the Chief of the Feed Management Branch, Office of Production, War Food Administration. The certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

(2) Agricultural Conservation Committees may commence issuing Certificates of Designated Buyers pursuant to this order during August 1944, and processors may commence delivery of oilseed meal pursuant to such certificates during August 1944. A processor shall be entitled to credit such deliveries made in August 1944 against the quantity of oilseed meal which he is required to set aside in September 1944, if he makes the report provided for in paragraph (d) (1) hereof.

(3) Shipment of any oilseed meal, set aside pursuant to this order must be made by a processor within twelve days of the receipt of any such certificate.

(4) The original and the processor's copy of appropriately executed certificates shall be sent by the person responsible for their issuance directly to the processor and a copy shall be sent to the designated buyer. The designated buyer and the processor shall arrange the details of transfer of materials designated on the certificate, using such intermediary parties as the processor may designate. The processor who delivers such oilseed meal pursuant to a certificate shall file such certificate as required under the provisions of paragraph (d) (2).

(5) No processor shall be required to honor a Certificate of Designated Buyer for oilseed meal set aside pursuant to this order unless the designated buyer furnishes the processor or his agent with (i) shipping intructions, and, in the case of a designated buyer other than a feeder, (ii) the statement required by paragraph (h) of War Food Order No. 9 before midnight of the expiration date shown on the certificate. If a processor elects not to honor a Certificate of Designated Buyer pursuant to this paragraph, he shall return such certificate to the issuing officer and he may dispose of the oilseed meal covered by such certificate free from the restrictions of this order. The expiration date for any Certificate of Designated Buyer issued under this order shall be not later than September 15, 1944, unless a later date (but in no event later than September 20, 1944) is authorized by the Chief of the Feed Management Branch, Office of Production, War Food Administration. No processor, however, shall be required to honor any certificate bearing an expiration date later than September 15, 1944, unless required to do so by notice from the Chief of the Feed Management Branch received before midnight of that date. In such case, the processor will be required to honor Certificates of Designated Buyers bearing expiration dates later than September 15, 1944, but not later than September 20, 1944. Any oilseed meal set aside pursuant to this order for which the processor has received no certificate before midnight of September 15, 1944 (or later, but not later than September 20, 1944, if the notice provided for herein is received from the Chief of the Feed Management Branch), may be disposed of by the processor free from the restrictions of this order: Provided, however, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to oilseed meal required to be set aside by this order which has not heretofore been reported to the Director.

(c) Existing contracts. If this order makes it impossible for a processor to fill all of his contracts for the delivery of oilseed meal, which are in existence on the date of the issuance of this order, he shall not, by reason of this order, refuse to make delivery of more than 20 percent of the oilseed meal covered by any such contract.

(d) Processor's reports—(1) Report of tonnage for August delivery for credit against September set aside. If a processor wishes to make deliveries of oilseed meal pursuant to this order in August 1944 for credit against his set aside in September 1944, he must report to the Director in writing (or by telegraph) not later than August 25, 1944, the estimated tonnage of each kind of oilseed meal which will be available at each of his processing plants for delivery in August 1944 for such credit. Each processor may also submit such additional information as he deems pertinent to the allocation or distribution of oilseed meal to be set aside under this order.

(2) Report of tonnage set aside and deliveries made. Each processor subject to this order shall file a report with the Director on FPA Form 2 not later than October 10, 1944, for each plant operated by him. Certificates of Designated Buyers, pursuant to which oilseed meal has been delivered, shall be attached to and made a part of FPA Form 2.

(e) Certificates issued by County Agricultural Conservation Committees. No County Agricultural Conservation Committee shall issue Certificates of Designated Buyers unless authorized to do so by its State Agricultural Conservation Committee:

(f) Release of oilseed meal set aside under prior orders. Any processor who has on hand oilseed meal, which has been reported pursuant to any set aside order prior to War Food Order No. 9–11 (9 F.R. 7639) as set aside for sale and delivery to designated buyers and for which the processor has received no shipping instructions from the designated buyers prior to the issuance of this order, may sell and deliver such oilseed meal free from the restrictions of the order under which it was set aside.

(g) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order, unless instructions to the contrary are issued, shall be addressed to the Director of Production, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: WFO 9–12.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Chapter XI—War Food Administration (Distribution Orders)

[War Food Orders, Amendments[1]]

Amendment of Violations Paragraph in Certain Orders

The paragraph entitled "Violations" in each of the War Food Orders numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 11, 13, 15, 16, 18, 19, 21, 22, 25, 29, 30, 35, 37, 38, 39, 42, 43, 44, 45, 47, 48, 50, 51, 53, 54, 66, 67, 69, 70, 72, 76, 80, 81, 82, 86, 87, 89, 90, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 101, 102, and 103, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Violations. Any person who violates any provision of this order may, in accordance with the applicable procedure, be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using the material subject to priority or allocation control pursuant to this order. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., August 7, 1944.

Part 1401—Dairy Products

Frozen Dairy Foods and Mix

War Food Order No. 8, as amended (8 F.R. 953, 12163, 9 F.R. 4321, 4319, 4735, 5333, and 5767), is further amended to read as follows:

1. By deleting therefrom § 1401.31 (b) (3).

2. By deleting therefrom § 1401.31 (a) (8) and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(8) The term "Director" means the Director of Distribution, War Food Administration.

3. By inserting therein, after § 1401.31 (a) (10), the following:

(11) "Dairy and Poultry Branch Field Representative" means the person in charge of the appropriate Dairy and Poultry Branch field office as follows:

(i) For the States of California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Arizona, Wyoming, Utah, Idaho, and Montana:

Western Field Office,
Dairy and Poultry Branch,
Office of Distribution,
821 Market Street,
San Francisco, California.

(ii) For the States of Arkansas, Colorado, Kansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Texas, and Oklahoma:

Southwest Field Office,
Dairy and Poultry Branch,
Office of Distribution,
425 Wilson Building,
Dallas, Texas.

(iii) For the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia:

Southern Field Office,
Dairy and Poultry Branch,
Office of Distribution,
Western Union Building,
Atlanta, Georgia.

(iv) For the States of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, and Wisconsin:

Midwest Field Office,
Dairy and Poultry Branch,
Office of Distribution,
5 South Wabash Avenue,
Chicago, Illinois.

(v) For the States of Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, and West Virginia:

Northeast Field Office,
Dairy and Poultry Branch,
Office of Distribution,
150 Broadway,
New York, New York.

4. By deleting therefrom § 1401.31 (d) and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(d) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the War Food Administration that every processor shall make equitable distribution among those persons supplied by such processor during the base period of the frozen dairy foods and mix manufactured by such processor. All processors shall observe such policy in selling or distributing the frozen dairy foods and mix which they process. In the event the Director finds that the distribution made by a processor in any particular instance is not equitable, the Director may prohibit the particular processor from making any further distribution of such frozen dairy foods and mix except such as may be specified by the Director as being equitable. Any failure to observe such a direction by the Director shall be a violation of this order.

5. By deleting therefrom § 1401.31 (f) and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(f) Records and reports. (1) The Director shall be entitled to obtain such information from, and require such reports and the keeping of such records by, any person, as may be necessary or appropriate, in the Director's discretion, for the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(2) Every person subject to this order shall, for at least two years (or for such period of time as the Director may designate), maintain an accurate record of his production and transactions in frozen dairy foods and mix.

6. By deleting therefrom § 1401.31 (i) and (j) and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(i) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order, who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him, may file a petition for relief with the Dairy and Poultry Branch Field Representative serving the area in which such person resides or does business. Petitions for such relief shall be in writing, and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. If such person is dissatisfied with the action taken on the petition by the Dairy and Poultry Branch Field Representative, he may, by requesting the Dairy and Poultry Branch Field Representative therefor, secure a review of such action by the Director. The Director may, after such review, take such action as he deems appropriate, and such action shall be final.

(j) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder shall be addressed in conformity with the instructions specified in the respective form required to be submitted. All other communications concerning this order shall, unless instructions to the contrary are issued by the Director, be addressed to the Dairy and Poultry Branch Field Representative serving the area in which the person affected by this order resides or does business.

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., August 5, 1944. With respect to violations, rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said War Food Order No. 8, as amended, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, the provisions of said War Food Order No. 8, as amended, in effect prior to the effective time hereof shall be deemed to continue in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with regard to any such violation, right, liability, or appeal.

Note: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by, and subsequent reporting and record-keeping requirements will be subject to the approval of, Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423; E.O. 9392, 8 F.R. 14783)

Issued this 5th day of August 1944.

Ashley Sellers,
Assistant War Food Administrator.

TITLE 10—ARMY: WAR DEPARTMENT

Chapter VIII—Procurement and Disposal of Equipment and Supplies

[Procurement Regs. 3, 6, 7, 9, 11, 13, 15]

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The following amendments and additions to the regulations, contained in Parts 803, 806, 807, 809, 811, 813, and 815 are hereby prescribed. These regulations are also contained in War Department Procurement Regulations dated 5 September 1942 (9 F.R. 8363) as amended by change 39, 4 August 1944,[1] the particular regulations amended being Nos. 3, 6, 7, 9, 11, 13, and 15.

In section numbers the figures to the right of the decimal point correspond with the respective paragraph numbers in the procurement regulations.

AUTHORITY: Section 5a, National Defense Act, as amended, 41 Stat. 764; 54 Stat. 1225; 10 U.S.C. 1193–1195, and the First War Powers Act 1941, 55 Stat. 838; 50 U.S.C. Sup. 601–622.

[SEAL] ROBERT H. DUNLOP,
Brigadier General,
Acting The Adjutant General.

[Procurement Reg. 3]

PART 803—CONTRACTS

SUBPART A—GENERAL

In § 803.303a the first paragraph is designated (1) and the second paragraph is designated (2) and amended to read as follows:

§ 803.303a Letters of intent and letter orders—(1) Use. • • •

(2) Report on letters of intent, etc. (i) On or before the 10th of each month the chief of each technical service will file with the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, a report of each letter of intent, letter order, letter purchase order, etc. outstanding at the close of the preceding month. This report is titled "Letters of Intent, Etc. Outstanding" and assigned Control Approval Symbol PDS–16. The first report shall be due 10 August 1944 for the period ending 31 July 1944. This report does not conflict with the reports of negotiated purchase actions in excess of $10,000, Control Approval Symbol ICY–33, required by § 802.293.

(ii) The reports of letters of intent, etc. outstanding, Control Approval Symbol PDS–16, will be submitted, original only, on an unclassified basis. Negative reports and letters of transmittal will not be submitted. Chiefs of technical services, where necessary, will obtain appropriate data from their procurement district offices using the same reporting method as required for their report to the Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. These reports shall set forth the following information:

(c) Amount of expenditure authorized under the letter of intent, letter order, letter purchase order, etc. (Only the amount authorized to be obligated is desired. The amount which it is estimated will be finally obligated under the definitive contract should not be reported.)

(d) A brief description of the item or items being procured.

(e) Date of letter of intent, letter order, letter purchase order, etc.

(f) A brief statement of the reasons why a letter of intent, letter order, letter purchase order, etc. was issued in the first place. (Applies only to agreements made after 30 June 1944.)

(g) A brief statement of the reasons why each letter of intent, etc. which had been outstanding more than 60 days as of the end of the reporting period had not been converted into a definitive contract.

(iii) It is intended that letters of commitment (see W. D. Contract Form No. 28 and §§ 802.222 (g) and 813.1328) will be included in these reports but they will either be listed separately or clearly marked to indicate their nature.

SUBPART C—FORMALITIES IN CONNECTION WITH EXECUTION OF CONTRACTS AND MODIFICATIONS THEREOF

In § 803.309, paragraph (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 803.309 Numbering contracts. • • •

(d) Effect of War Department Fiscal Code. (1) Under date of 1 January 1944, the War Department Fiscal Code was issued as TM 14–700.

(2) Chapter 8 of the aforementioned code sets forth list of procurement station numbers presently prescribed. These station numbers are to be used in numbering contracts (as required by paragraph (b) (2) of this section and by § 803.318b (e) (1) (ii)).

(3) It is to be noted that Chapter 7 of the aforementioned code contains code numbers designating the various technical services as well as the various service commands. These code numbers are not to be substituted, in the numbering of contracts, for the letters used to designate the technical services and the service commands (as required by paragraph (b) (3) of this section and by § 803.318b (e) (1) (iii)), since symbol letters used in the numbering of contracts to designate the technical services must be approved, prior to their use, by the Comptroller General of the United States.

SUBPART H—MANDATORY AND OPTIONAL CONTRACT PROVISIONS

In § 803.338, paragraph (j) of the plant protection clause is amended to read as follows:

• • •

(j) The Contractor, upon request of the Contracting Officer, shall suspend from access to work under this contract any officer or employee whose continued employment is deemed by the Contracting Officer to endanger the security of the war effort.

[Procurement Reg. 6]

PART 806—INTERBRANCH AND INTERDEPARTMENTAL PURCHASES

SUBPART B—INTERBRANCH PROCUREMENT

Section 806.605d is amended to read as follows:

§ 806.605d Indefinite quantity contracts executed by the Office of the Quartermaster General. The tabulation set forth below contains certain information with respect to all indefinite quantity contracts executed by the Office of the Quartermaster General, which are applicable to purchases made by activities outside the jurisdiction of the Quartermaster General. More complete information as to these contracts is contained in the War Department supply bulletins referred to in the tabulation. These supply bulletins are available at Adjutant General Depots.

Household and quarters furniture	(Part 2)	August 1, 1944 to January 31, 1945.

[Procurement Reg. 7]

PART 807—DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY

SUBPART A—GENERAL

In § 807.103, paragraph (a) is added as follows:

§ 807.103 Statement of the War Department policy. • • •

(a) War Department policy on direct sales. Under regulations prescribed by the Surplus War Property Administration pursuant to Executive Order No. 9425, general responsibility for disposal of surplus Government property has been assigned to certain disposal agencies, as more fully explained in Subpart G of this part. It is the policy of the War Department to have these disposal agencies dispose of surplus War Department property to the fullest extent provided by the regulations of the Surplus War Property Administration, and to limit direct disposal by the War Department to those categories for which the War Department is clearly responsible. Accordingly, sales by the War Department will be limited to the following:

(1) Sales of termination inventories as provided in Subpart B of this part.

(2) Sales of nominal quantities of surplus property as provided in § 807.701.

(3) Sales to War Contractors, other government agencies and other limited classes of transferees as provided in Subpart C of this part.

(4) Sales of salvage, scrap and waste.

SUBPART B—DISPOSITION OF TERMINATION INVENTORIES

1. In § 807.206 paragraph (d) is added, as follows:

§ 807.206 Specific price regulations. • • •

(d) Consultation with Regional Offices of Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Regional Managers of Reconstruction Finance Corporation (see paragraph § 807.907 for names and addresses) are available at all times for consultation as to the application of the price policies set forth in this section. Their advice should be obtained by contracting officers, Disposal Boards and other War Department representatives concerned with disposal of termination inventories in all cases of doubt.

2. Section 807.211 is added as follows:

§ 807.211 Inter-service relationship with respect to selected contractors. (a) In furtherance of the declared policy of the War Department (see § 807.205) to effect prompt disposition of termination inventory, the Director, Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, may, from time to time, in accordance with § 815.223, select a contractor holding several War Department prime and subcontracts and assign it for purposes of this section to the chief of a particular technical service.

(b) The chief of a technical service to which such contractor is assigned will be responsible for the prompt disposal of all its termination inventory (held by it as prime contractor or subcontractor) arising from the termination of contracts by any technical service of the War Department, and is authorized to take such action for the disposal thereof as the chief of the technical service terminating the prime contract is authorized to take under applicable regulations. The prices at which any such termination inventory may be retained or disposed of by a contractor with the approval of the chief of the designated technical service or his duly authorized representative under authority of this paragraph will be recognized and accepted for all purposes, including any termination settlement made with a contracting officer of another technical service. No authorization which might otherwise be exercised by prime contractors under § 815.437a (relating to accounting examinations and approval of property disposals in subcontract settlements involving less than $10,000) should be exercised in settling a subcontract of a contractor now or hereafter assigned to a designated technical service pursuant to § 815.223, except with the approval of that service; but if any action has been taken pursuant to such authorization, it will nevertheless be valid and binding.

(c) Significant items included in a termination inventory will be submitted to the chief of the technical service terminating the contract for determination as to whether such items may be utilized within that service for military supply or industrial or other purposes. However, as provided in § 807.203, such reference will not be permitted to delay or limit local disposition.

(d) Responsibility for the storage or removal of property transferred to the Government in accordance with applicable regulations remains in the chief of the technical service terminating the prime contract.

SUBPART D—DISPOSITION OF NON-REPAIRABLE PROPERTY

In § 807.410, paragraph (c) is added, as follows:

§ 807.410 Pricing policies on sales of non-repairable property included in termination inventory. • • •

(c) Consultation with Regional Office of Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Metals Reserves Company agents in the Regional Offices of Reconstruction Finance Corporation are authorized to act as consultants in connection with scrapping determinations and disposal of scrap included in termination inventories. Advisory panels have been established to provide technical information and assistance to these agents. Metals Reserve Company agents and their advisory panels should be consulted by contracting officers, Disposal Boards, and other War Department representatives concerned with scrapping determinations and disposal of scrap included in termination inventories in all cases of doubt. To the fullest extent practicable, local disposal agencies of the War Department should arrange with Metals Reserve Company agents for "on the spot" assistance. Requests for consultation and assistance should be communicated to Metals Reserve Company agent, in care of Regional Manager of Reconstruction Finance Corporation (see § 807.207 for addresses).

[Procurement Reg. 9]

PART 809—LABOR

SUBPART G—WAGE AND SALARY STABILIZATION

In § 809.980d, subparagraphs (28) to (31) are added to General Order No. 4, as follows:

§ 809.980d General Order No. 4. • • •

(d) • • •

(28) Firms in the automotive repair and tire industry in Region X of the National War Labor Board, embracing the States of California, Nevada and Arizona (approved, July 4, 1944).

(29) Jewelry stores and watch repair establishments in Region IX, embracing the States of Colorado, Montana, New Mexico, Wyoming, Utah and Idaho (approved, July 11, 1944).

(30) Jewelry industry in Region X (approved July 11, 1944).

(31) All contractors in the building and construction industry in the United States (approved, July 7, 1944).

[Procurement Reg. 11]

PART 811—MISCELLANEOUS PURCHASE INSTRUCTIONS

SUBPART B—PATENTS

In § 811.1112 paragraphs (a) through (t) are amended, and paragraphs (u) to (aa) are added; §§ 811.1113 and 811.1114 are added, as follows:

§ 811.1112 Adjustment of royalties for use of inventions.—(a) Definitions. Where used in §§ 811.1112 to 811.1114 hereof, inclusive, the following terms have the meanings here assigned to them:

(1) "The act" means the Royalty Adjustment Act 1942 (Public No. 768, 77th Congress; 35 U.S.C. 89–96).

(2) "Notice" means the written notice specified in section 1 of the act and described in paragraph (c) below.

(3) "Order" means the order of the Secretary of War specified in section 1 of the act and described in paragraph (d) below.

(4) "Director" means the Director (or in his absence the Acting Director), Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces. In respect of any action taken by the Army Air Forces, the term "Director" means the Special Representative of the Under Secretary of War (see subparagraph (2) of § 801.108 (d)).

(5) "Delegate" means the offices and boards specified in paragraph (i) and in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (j), together with any other office, board or individual to whom any of the powers, duties and authorities of the Secretary of War under the act have been or may be delegated.

(6) "Originating technical service" means (i) the technical service (as defined in subparagraph (2) of §801.108 (d)) of the delegate which has given notice under the act, or (ii) the technical service which has been directed by the Director to take necessary action in relation to a notice contemplated or given.

(7) "Licensor" includes the grantor in a patent license agreement as well as the transferor of the entire right, title and interest in and to a patented or unpatented invention upon consideration including future payments based upon the extent of manufacture, use, sale or other disposition of the invention.

(8) "Licensee" includes the grantee in a patent license agreement as well as the transferee of the entire right, title and interest in and to a patented or unpatented invention upon consideration including future payments based upon the extent of manufacture, use, sale or other disposition of the invention.

(b) Basic statute. The act makes provision for adjusting royalties for the use of inventions for the benefit of the United States, in aid of the prosecution of the war, and for other purposes. Paragraphs (c) to (h) inclusive, contain a summary of the provisions of the Act as applied to the War Department. Sections 811.1112 (i) to 811.1114 (b), inclusive, contain the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder for exercise of such of the powers, duties and authorities of the Secretary of War under the Act as have been or may hereafter be delegated by him.

(c) Applicability and notice. Whenever an invention, whether patented or unpatented, is manufactured, used, sold or otherwise disposed of for the United States under the conditions set forth in the Act and the license includes provisions for the payment of royalties, the rates or amounts of which are believed to be unreasonable or excessive by the Secretary of War, the Secretary of War shall give notice of such fact to the licensor and the licensee. By definition, the manufacturer, use, sale or other disposition of an invention, whether patented or unpatented, by a contractor, subcontractor, or any person, firm, or corporation for the Government and with the authorization or consent of the Government is construed as manufacturer, use, sale or other disposition for the United States.

(d) Fixing of rates and order. The act further provides that within a reasonable time after the effective date of the notice, in no event less than ten days, the Secretary of War shall by order fix and specify such rates or amounts of royalties, if any, as he shall determine are fair and just, taking into account the conditions of wartime production, and shall authorize the payment thereof by the licensee to the licensor on account of such manufacture, use, sale or other disposition. Either the licensor or the licensee may, if he so requests within ten days from the effective date of the notice, present within thirty days from the date of his request, in writing or in person, any facts or circumstances which may in his opinion have a bearing upon the rates of amount of royalties, if any, to be determined, fixed, and specified as aforesaid. Any order fixing the rates and amounts of any royalties shall be issued within a reasonable time after such presentation.

(e) Prohibition against payment of excessive royalties. The licensee shall not after the effective date of the notice (upon receipt of notice, or five days after the mailing thereof, whichever date is earlier) pay to the licensor, nor charge directly or indirectly to the United States, a royalty in excess of that subsequently specified in the order. It is provided that, whenever a reduction in the rates or amounts of royalties is effected by order, the reduction shall inure to the benefit of the Government by way of a corresponding reduction in the contract price to be paid directly or indirectly for such manufacture, use, sale, or other disposition of such inventions, or by way of refund if already paid to the licensee.

(f) Remedies of licensor. The act contains certain provisions as to the remedies of the licensor, which, in general, limit him to a suit against the United States in the Court of Claims or a District Court of the United States.

(g) Settlement of claims. The Secretary of War is authorized, before suit has been instituted against the United States, to enter into an agreement with the owner or licensor of an invention, in full settlement and compromise of any claim accruing under the provisions of the Act or any other law, and for compensation to be paid such owner or licensor based upon future manufacture, use, sale, or other disposition of said invention.

(h) Authority of Secretary of War to delegate powers and issue regulations under act. The Secretary of War is authorized in his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to delegate any powers conferred by the act to such qualified and responsible officers, boards, agents or persons as he may designate or appoint. He is also authorized to issue such rules and regulations and to require such information as may be necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of the act. In accordance with the provisions of the act, rules and regulations have been issued, the terms of which are set forth in the succeeding paragraphs.

(i) Delegations. The Secretary of War has delegated to each of the following:

a. Commanding General, Army Service Forces.
b. Commanding General, Army Air Forces.
c. Assistant Chief of Air Staff, Material and Services.
d. Chief, Procurement Division, Office of Assistant Chief of Air Staff, Material and Services.
e. Commanding General, Material Command, Army Air Forces.
f. Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.
g. Chiefs of the Technical Services, Army Service Forces.
h. Royalty Adjustment Board, Material Command, Army Air Forces.

in the matters properly before them and for action under the direction of the Under Secretary of War, the following powers, duties and authorities conferred upon him by the act:

(1) To determine that notice should be given and to give notice of the fact that the rates or amounts of royalties are believed to be unreasonable or excessive;

(2) To receive and hear such facts and circumstances as may be presented by the licensee or licensor, and such other facts and circumstances as are relevant to an evaluation of the factors specified in paragraph (k), and to recommend appropriate action;

(3) To negotiate voluntary adjustments of royalties or settlements of infringement claims against the United States, before suit against the United States has been instituted, and to withdraw any notice given under subparagraph (1) above, provided that no such notice shall be withdrawn unless the licensor(s) shall have first agreed substantially as follows:

> The undersigned hereby consents to the withdrawal of the notice issued ------ [date of notice] ------ under the Royalty Adjustment Act 1942 (Public No. 768, 77th Congress; 35 U.S.C. 89–96) and in consideration of such withdrawal hereby releases any and all claims or demands now held by the undersigned against the United States, or any officer or agent thereof, arising out of the issuance of said notice.

but in particular cases for good cause shown the Director may authorize substantial deviation from or omission of the foregoing consent and release.

(4) To fix and specify, by order, fair and just rates or amounts of royalties, and to authorize the payment thereof, if any royalty be allowed, by the licensee to the licensor, subject, however, to the approval of such order by the Director; and

(5) To enter into an agreement, before suit against the United States has been instituted, with the owner or licensor of an invention, or of the Letters Patent therefor, effecting a voluntary adjustment of royalties charged or chargeable to the United States, or in settlement and compromise of any claim against the United States accruing to such owner or licensor under the provisions of the Act or any other law by reason of the manufacture, use, sale or other disposition referred to in paragraph (c) or for compensation to be paid such owner or licensor based upon future manufacture, use, sale or other disposition of such invention, subject, however, to the approval of the Director in each case where that approval is required by subparagraphs (4) or (5) of § 811.1113 (c), subparagraph (1) of § 811.1113 (g) or § 811.1114 (a) hereof.

(j) Further delegations. (1) The Secretary of War has further delegated the powers, duties and authorities described in subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph (i) for action in matters properly before them and under the direction of the Under Secretary of War, to each of the following:

a. All Division Engineers of the Corps of Engineers.
b. Assistant Aid Judge Advocate, Headquarters, Army Air Forces.
c. Chief, Legal Division, Office of the Chief of Transportation.
d. Assistant Chief, Engineering and Technical Service, Office of the Chief Signal Officer.
e. Royalty Adjustment Board, Office of the Surgeon General.

(2) The Secretary of War has further delegated to certain individual officers and to certain specially created boards substantially the powers, duties and authorities referred to in subparagraphs (2) and (4) of paragraph (i), but limited to the exercise thereof in respect of the particular inventions or license agreements specified in each such delegation and, insofar as concerns the powers, duties and authorities referred to in subparagraph (4) of paragraph (i), subject also to the approval of the chief of the technical service concerned.

(3) If the chief of any technical service desires that further delegation be made of the powers, duties and authorities of the Secretary of War either (a) as set forth in subparagraph (1) above, or (b) as set forth in subparagraph (2) above in respect of any specified inventions or license agreements, a request to that effect may be transmitted to the Director specifying the delegate to which such delegation is to be made and the extent of the delegation desired. Requests under (a) above will specify the proposed delegate by the name of an office or board and not by the name of any individual or individuals occupying the same. Requests under (b) above may specify one or more individuals by name.

(4) In each case where the powers, duties and authorities referred to in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), (4) or (5) of paragraph (i) have been or may hereafter be delegated to a board designated as a "Royalty Adjustment Board," the said board shall, unless otherwise expressly provided in the instrument of delegation, consist of three qualified and responsible officers designated by the chief of the service or command concerned, who shall have power from time to time to remove any such officer and to fill any vacancy occurring in said board. Unless otherwise provided in the instrument of delegation, (a) a majority of said board shall determine its action, (b) all notices and recommendations of the board may be signed in its name by any member if duly authorized thereto by a majority of such board, and (c) any two members of such board shall constitute a quorum.

(5) The powers, duties and authorities referred to in paragraph (i) and in this paragraph shall not be redelegated by any delegate under the general authority to redelegate conferred in § 801.107 (i).

(k) Factors to be considered before notice is given and in the making of an order. Before notice is given there will be taken into account so far as practicable, and in the making of any order there will be taken into account, the following factors:

(1) The conditions of wartime production;
(2) The production and use of the invention prior to any increase due to wartime procurement, including
(i) Any established royalty rate,

(ii) The volume on which royalty was paid,

(iii) The yearly aggregate royalty paid, and

(iv) The circumstances under which the licensing and the establishment of the royalty rate occurred;

(3) The character of the invention and any patent protection therefor, the value of its contribution to the art in which it is used, and the character and expense of research and development that have been devoted to the invention;

(4) The extent of use and proposed use of the invention by other departments or agencies of the Government and the amounts of royalties involved in the aggregate in such use; and

(5) All other considerations which are ordinarily and properly taken into account in determining fair and just royalties or which appear to be appropriate to the particular case.

(l) Duties of the technical services. Subject to the rules and regulations set forth in §§ 811.1112 to 811.1114 (b), inclusive, the chiefs of the technical services are, in matters properly before them and acting under the direction of the Under Secretary of War, under the duty of causing the powers, duties and authorities delegated under the act to be exercised in such manner and at such times as may be necessary to prevent unreasonable or excessive royalties from being charged to the War Department. This duty may be discharged pursuant to such instructions as may be issued by the chiefs of the technical services for the guidance of their respective services.

(m) Policy of the War Department in the administration of the act. The policy of the War Department is (a) that, so far as practicable, a licensor shall not be subjected to duplicating interrogation by two or more technical services in relation to his royalty receipts from the use of a particular invention or series of related inventions; and (b) that, so far as practicable, each licensor shall, where such royalties are believed to be unreasonable or excessive, be given fair opportunity to effect a voluntary adjustment thereof before notice is given. The regulations set forth in paragraph (n) and §§ 811.1113–811.1113 (k), inclusive, are designed to effectuate this policy.

(n) Procedure in the giving of notice. (1) An initial inquiry may be sent to a licensor or a licensee requesting all or any part of the following and no more—(a) the names and addresses of licensor and licensee(s), (b) a copy of the license agreement, (c) a list of patents and patent applications involved, and (d) a statement of the royalties received (or paid) under such license during each year for the years 1936 to date of inquiry. Such inquiry shall include a provision to relieve the addressee from compiling information previously supplied upon an inquiry of any other branch of the War Department or of any other department or agency of the Government by permitting the addressee to respond by sending a copy of the reply to the previous inquiry or the name and address of the person who made the previous inquiry. Such inquiry to a licensee shall not be sent to any contractor who has furnished the relevant patent royalty information upon the War Department Standard Procurement Form (§ 813.1327 (b) or in renegotiation proceedings.

(2) If, upon consideration of the reply to the initial inquiry, further investigation is believed by the delegate to be advisable he shall, prior to making such further investigation, request from the Director clearance to do so, and the office of the Director may grant such clearance as appears proper in the light of the information which the records of that office contain regarding the issuance by any other technical service of the War Department or by any other department or agency of the Government of a notice in the same matter, or the consideration which has been or is being given to the issuance of such a notice. The request for clearance shall state the name and address of licensor, and the inventive subject matter, and so far as known and practicable the name(s) and address(es) of the licensee(s) and the numbers of the patent(s) and patent application(s) concerned. A clearance once given remains in force till modified or revoked by the Director.

(3) If, upon such investigation as appears proper (after clearance from the Director), the delegate having the matter in hand believes that the royalties in question are not unreasonable or excessive, he shall transmit to the Director a report (in triplicate) stating his findings and conclusions, including so far as practicable the data specified in paragraph (aa).

(4) If, upon such investigation as appears proper (after clearance from the Director), the delegate having the matter in hand believes that the royalties are unreasonable or excessive, he shall (unless he has previously been expressly authorized by the Director to omit such action) afford licensor fair opportunity to effect a voluntary adjustment thereof. Where, in the opinion of the delegate, fair opportunity has been afforded and a satisfactory adjustment cannot be effected, such delegate thereupon may issue notice in respect of the royalties in question, subject however to the requirements of paragraphs (o) and (p) hereof. Where, however, the delegate believes that circumstances exist making it necessary or desirable in the interests of the War Department that notice should be given without first affording licensor an opportunity to effect a voluntary adjustment, the delegate may issue notice in such case provided he has first obtained from the Director authority to do so.

(5) Promptly upon the giving of notice under the act, the delegate who issued the notice shall transmit to the Director a report (in triplicate) giving the names and addresses of licensor and licensee and three copies of each notice issued.

(o) Procedure when a department or agency, other than the War Department, is concerned. Inasmuch as any order entered by or under the authority of the Secretary of War affects only those royalties which are charged or chargeable to the War Department, every reasonable effort shall be made, before and after the giving of any notice, to determine what, if any, departments or agencies of the Government other than the War Department are or may be concerned in the payment of royalties for the same invention. If, at any time after clearance has been given as provided in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (n), it appears that a department or agency other than the War Department is so concerned, the service having the matter in hand shall forthwith communicate with such other department or agency and shall thereafter coordinate all further proceedings with such department or agency.

(p) Procedure when more than one technical service of the War Department is concerned. Any delegate to whom the authority referred to in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (i) has been or may hereafter be delegated shall exercise such authority, under the direction of the Director, in respect to all such royalties which are charged or chargeable to any and all technical services of the War Department. If, at any time after clearance has been given to a technical service as provided in subparagraph (2) of paragraph (n), it appears that more than one technical service of the War Department is concerned, that fact shall be reported forthwith to the Director and shall be accompanied by a recommendation of the reporting service as to the service believed to be in the best position to carry on the proceeding. The Director may thereupon give directions as to how, and by whom, the authority referred to in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) of paragraph (i) shall be exercised on behalf of the Secretary of War.

(q) Form of the notice. The following form of notice is approved for use subject to such deviations as may be necessary or appropriate in any given case:

[Letterhead of Delegate]

NOTICE

In the Matter of ——————, [et al.] Licensor(s)
and
——————————, [et al.] Licensee(s)

To: Licensor(s) and Licensee(s): You and each of you will hereby take notice, that:

Pursuant to the Royalty Adjustment Act 1942 (Public No. 168, 77th Congress; 35 U.S.C., 89–96), notice is hereby given that the royalties which are charged or chargeable directly or indirectly to the War Department on account of the manufacture, use or sale to or for the United States of the alleged inventions relating to ———— [subject-matter] ————, by virtue of the license agreement(s) between ——————, as licensor, and the following licensees, are believed to be unreasonable or excessive:

[Names of all licensees]

——————————————————————

——————————————————————

This Notice becomes effective upon its receipt by you or five (5) days after the mailing hereof, whichever date is the earlier.

The licensor or any licensee, if he so requests within ten (10 days from the effective date of this Notice, may within thirty (30) days from the date of such request present in writing or in person any facts or circumstances which may, in his opinion, have a bearing upon the rates or amounts of royalties, if any, to be determined, fixed and specified.

From and after the effective date of this notice and until the making of an order under said act, each licensee is hereby directed (a) not to pay to licensor any royalties under said license(s) which are charged or chargeable directly or indirectly to the War Department and (b) to segregate said royalties from licensee's general funds and safely keep the same until such time as the disposition thereof is directed by such order.

The foregoing Notice is hereby given in behalf of the Secretary of War.

By direction of the Under Secretary of War:

.....

[Signature (and title) of delegate]

The foregoing notice is directed to the following:

[Names and addresses of all licensors and licensees]

.....

.....

.....

The foregoing notice shall be forwarded by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of each licensee and licensor named therein.

(r) Forwarding of copies of notice. Copies of all notices issued shall be forwarded forthwith to:

(1) The Chief of each technical service of the War Department.

(2) The Director (in triplicate).

(s) Withdrawal of notice previously given. (1) Notice under the act once given by any delegate shall not be vacated or withdrawn, in whole or in part, otherwise than under the provisions of and in the manner prescribed in subparagraph (3) of paragraph (i). Upon execution by a licensor of the form of consent and release specified in subparagraph (3) of paragraph (i), three copies of the instrument vacating and withdrawing the notice and one copy duly executed by the licensor of the said form of consent and release shall be promptly transmitted to the Director.

(2) In the event a licensor refuses to execute said form of consent and release or an approved deviation therefrom and the Director has not authorized the omission thereof, an order shall be made and submitted for approval in the manner hereinafter specified.

(t) Form of the order. The following form of order is approved for use subject to such deviations as may be necessary or appropriate in any given case and subject to the instructions contained in paragraph (u).

Whereas, pursuant to authority contained in the Royalty Adjustment Act 1942, Public No. 768, 77th Cong.; 35 U.S.C., 89–96, written notice was given on or about the .....

[Insert name of each licensor] .....

[Insert name of each licensee] .....

(individually and collectively hereinafter called "Licensee") that the royalties, provision for the payment of which by Licensee to Licensor is included in the [license(s) dated .....] [licenses specified in Column 4 of Schedule A annexed hereto and by this reference made a part hereof],[1] and which said royalties are charged or chargeable directly or indirectly to the War Department for or on account of the manufacture, use or sale to or for the United States of certain alleged inventions [pertaining to .....] [specified in Columns 1, 2 and 3 of said Schedule A], were believed to be unreasonable or excessive, and that until the making of an order herein no royalties were to be paid by Licensee to Licensor under the license(s) above referred to which are charged or chargeable directly or indirectly to the War Department, and

Whereas, Licensor and Licensee, upon their request, have presented in writing and in person such facts and circumstances as they desired having a bearing upon the rates or amounts of royalties to be determined, fixed and specified by order pursuant to said Act;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the authority of and for the purposes set forth in said Act, and upon taking into account the facts and circumstances presented as aforesaid, the conditions of wartime production, and such other facts and circumstances as are proper to be considered in determining a fair and just rate or amount of royalties in the premises, it is hereby Ordered as follows, viz:

(1) that fair and just rates or amounts of royalties for the manufacture, use, sale or other disposition for the War Department of the said alleged inventions are hereby determined, fixed and specified to be [.....] [the rates or amounts set forth in Column 5 of said Schedule A];

(2) that, until further order, Licensee is hereby authorized to pay to Licensor, on account of the manufacture, use, sale or other disposition of said alleged inventions for the War Department heretofore occurred, or hereafter occurring while Sections 1 and 2 of said Act remain in force, royalties, if any, at the rates or in the amounts determined, fixed and specified in paragraph (1) hereof, and no more, under

(a) the said license(s) [dated .....] [identified in Column 4 of said Schedule A], [and]

(b) any license between them, entered into on or after the effective date of said notice and so long as Sections 1 and 2 of said Act remain in force, which in any respect continues, supplements, modifies or supersedes [the license] [any of the licenses] referred to in subparagraph (a) hereof, [and

(c) any license between them, entered into on or after the effective date of said notice and prior to the date of this Order, which grants rights to practice the said alleged inventions;][2]

[Alternate A]

(3) that Licensee is hereby directed to pay over to the Treasurer of the United States (through .....) the balance, in excess of the payments authorized by paragraph (2) next above, of all royalties specified in the licenses referred to in said paragraph (2) which were due to Licensor and were unpaid on the effective date of said notice, and which since said date have or may hereafter become due to Licensor, for or on account of the manufacturer, use, sale or other disposition of said alleged inventions for the War Department heretofore occurred or hereafter occurring while Sections 1 and 2 of said Act remain in force, and demand is hereby made for payment forthwith of the monies so directed to be paid; and

[Alternate B]

(3) that Licensee is hereby directed

(a) to pay over to the Treasurer of the United States (through .....) the balance, in excess of the payments authorized by paragraph (2) next above, of all royalties specified in the licenses referred to in said paragraph (2) which were due to Licensor and were unpaid on the effective date of said notice, and which since said date have accrued or may hereafter accrue in respect of supplies, equipment, materials or parts thereof delivered to or for the War Department prior to the tenth (10th) day next following the receipt of this order by the Licensee, and demand is hereby made for payment forthwith of the monies so directed to be paid; and

(b) to reduce the contract price of all supplies, equipment, materials and parts thereof delivered to or for the War Department on and after the tenth (10th) day next following the receipt of this order by the Licensee, to the extent necessary to secure to the Government the full benefit of the reduction in royalties effected by this order; and

(4) that reservation is hereby expressly made of the right to amend, modify, revoke or extend this Order and of the right of the head of any department or agency of the Government, including but not limited to the War Department, to take such other, further and different action as may be authorized by any statute of the United States with respect to the subject matter.

It is recommended that the Secretary of War make the foregoing Order.

.....

[Signature (and title) of the delegate who recommends the making of the order, if different from the delegate who signs next below]

The foregoing Order is hereby made.

.....

[Signature (and title) of a delegate specified in paragraph 1112.9]

The foregoing Order is hereby approved in behalf of the Secretary of War.

[1] As to use of Schedule A see paragraph (u) (1) of this section.

[2] As to use of subclause (c), see paragraph (u) (5) of this section.

By direction of the Under Secretary of War:

[Leave two lines blank]
Director, Purchases Division Headquarters, Army Service Forces[1]
Dated: Washington, D. C.
----------, 194--.

(u) Preparation of the order. The following instructions are prescribed for use in the preparation of suitable orders in various types of cases, based upon use of the form of order set forth in paragraph (t), without prejudice to such other deviations from that form as may be necessary and appropriate in any given case.

(1) Schedule A is to be used only when it is impracticable to include the same information in the text of the order.

(2) To the extent that the licensee is a War Department prime contractor, the order shall (unless the Director otherwise directs) be drawn in such manner as to require that the benefits of any adjustment of royalties accruing after the date of the order will inure to the War Department in the form of a corresponding price reduction. To accomplish this purpose, Alternate B of clause (3) of the form of order as given in paragraph (t) would be used. Clauses (1), (2) and (4) would be used substantially as set forth.

(3) To the extent that the licensee is a subcontractor for the War Department, or for the War Department and other departments, the order may be drawn in such manner as either (i) to effect reduction of the price paid to the licensee for articles or services furnished by licensee to or for War Department contractors or subcontractors where by reason of contract provisions or otherwise there is assurance that the benefits of the order will be transmitted by such contractors or subcontractors to the War Department, or (u) to effect running recapture of excess royalties from the licensee by direct payment by him to the Treasurer of the United States when and as royalty payments fall due. In either case provision will be made requiring the licensee to pay over to the Treasurer of the United States the balance, in excess of royalty payments allowed by the order, of the accumulated fund in the hands of the licensee on the date of the order.

(4) In a case of the kind mentioned in subparagraph (3) above,

(i) If it is believed preferable to effect price reductions, Alternate B of clause (3) of the form given in paragraph (t) would be used.

(ii) If it is believed preferable to make running recapture of excess royalties from the licensee when and as royalty payments fall due, without price reduction, Alternate A of clause (3) of the form given in paragraph (t) would be used.

In either of these cases clauses (1), (2) and (4) of the form would be used substantially as set forth.

(5) Normally subclause (c) of clause (2) of the form given in paragraph (t) would be omitted. Subclause (c) is intended for use solely in those cases where the identified license specified in subclause (a) is limited by its terms so as to convey rights for the performance of one or more specified War Department contracts and no others, or is for a fixed term expiring during the pendency of proceedings, and where it is deemed likely that prior to issuance of the order another license has been or will be entered into between licensor and licensee conveying rights under the same inventions for the performance of subsequent War Department contracts.

(6) Appropriate provisions may be inserted in special cases, for example, where there are a plurality of licensees and the amount of royalties found to be fair and just is a fixed maximum sum to be received by licensor within each specified (e. g. annual) period, or where the War and Navy Departments make contemporaneous orders each referring to the other, etc.

(v) Submission of order for approval. In submitting an order to the Director for approval, the delegate or originating technical service shall prepare and transmit to the Director the following papers:

(1) A memorandum of transmittal showing action taken in compliance with the applicable requirements of paragraph (n);

(2) Two copies of each notice issued (additional to any copies previously transmitted);

(3) Two copies of the transcript or minutes of the hearing if any held on the request of; and two copies of any papers not incorporated in such transcript submitted by, licensor or licensee;

(4) Two copies of any additional data basically relied upon;

(5) Three copies of an official report, statement or memorandum containing the following information:

(i) The date on which the notice is found to have become effective under the statute;

(ii) The manner in which and the extent to which the invention is being utilized by or for the War Department;

(iii) If the invention is patented, or the subject of a patent application, the number of all patents and patent applications pertaining thereto;

(iv) The identifying number of each War Department contract, so far as known, whose price is reduced by the order;

(v) The parties, terms, date and a copy, if obtainable (unless a copy is included among the papers mentioned in subparagraph (3) above), of each instrument of license which is affected by the order;

(vi) The facts and circumstances upon which are based the conclusion set forth in the order that the rates or amounts of royalty, if any, fixed in the order are deemed fair and just taking into account the conditions of wartime production and other pertinent facts and circumstances;

(vii) A statement of estimated savings or benefits to the War Department if the order be approved; and

(viii) A statement of reasons why it is deemed desirable under the circumstances that the future benefits of the order shall inure to the War Department in the form (as the case may be) of price reduction or running recapture of excess royalties from the licensee; and a statement of the methods proposed for supervision and control of the course adopted.

(6) The order signed by the delegate or delegates exercising authority in the matter.

(w) Copies to the Chief, Patents Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General. One copy of each of the documents mentioned in subparagraphs (1), (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) of paragraph (v) shall be forwarded to the Chief, Patents Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General, concurrently with the transmittal of copies of the same documents to the Director.

(x) Procedure upon approval of an order. Upon approval and execution of an order by the Director, the following procedure will be observed subject to such deviation as may be necessary and proper:

(1) The Director will transmit to The Adjutant General the original order, and sufficient copies thereof for certification, together with one copy of each of the papers mentioned in subparagraphs (2), (3), (4) and (5) of said paragraph (v).

(2) The Adjutant General will retain, as the War Department's permanent file in the matter, the original of the order (subparagraph (6) of paragraph (v)) and the copies transmitted to him of the papers mentioned in subparagraphs (2), (3), (4) and (5) of said paragraph; and he will certify the required number of copies of the order (one for each party named therein as licensor or licensee) and transmit the same to the Director, who will forward them to the originating technical service or delegate.

(y) Monies recovered from licensees or licensors. Monies received by any technical service of the War Department from any source, either as a result of an order or pursuant to an agreement effecting a voluntary adjustment of royalties, shall be paid to the Treasurer of the United States and deposited to the credit of Miscellaneous Receipts under Treasury Symbol No. 214238, "Refund of Royalties". Provision may be made in any order, or any contract adjusting royalties (see § 811.1113) for transmittal of remittances through any designated officer.

(z) Rehearing or reconsideration. Any delegate who recommended or made an order may reconsider such order, permit the licensor or licensee to present further facts or circumstances having a bearing upon the matters dealt with therein, and recommend or make an order supplemental thereto within the scope of the delegate's existing authority as set forth in paragraphs (i) or (j).

(aa) Action required upon a determination that royalties are fair and reasonable. (1) In every case which has been cleared for investigation under subparagraph (2) of paragraph (n) where the delegate having the matter in hand finds upon investigation that the royalties in question are fair and reasonable, a closing report shall be transmitted to the Director (in triplicate), including so far as practicable the following information:

a. Name(s) and address(es) of licensor(s).
b. Name(s) and address(es) of licensee(s).
c. Identification of patents or applications for patent, or other rights involved.
d. Brief description of the subject matter of the invention involved.
e. If several patents or applications are involved, which, if any, dominate the Government procurement involved and which, if any, are not involved therein.
f. Date of the license agreement, a copy thereof or a brief summary of its provisions, including the scope and limitations of grant, all royalty provisions and price fixing provisions, if any.
g. Summary of any pertinent interviews or correspondence with or statements submitted by the licensor, or a statement that the licensor was not interrogated.
h. Statements of:
(1) Total royalties received, preferably annually from 1936 to the latest period available.
(2) Segregation of royalties between Government and non-Government, during the period when the licensed subject matter was affected by wartime production, so far as readily obtainable from the licenses concerned.
i. Reasons for concluding that royalties are fair and reasonable, and a statement of any relevant facts in support thereof.

§ 811.1113 Voluntary adjustments of royalties effected before an order is made—(a) Available procedures for voluntary adjustment. The delegate or technical service having the matter in hand may, subject to the conditions set forth in paragraphs (b), (c) and (g), negotiate a voluntary adjustment of royalties before an order is made, in any of the following manners:

(1) Before notice under the act has been given:

(i) By receiving a copy of a supplemental agreement entered into between licensor and licensee(s) and executed by each of them;

(ii) By accepting a unilateral agreement executed by licensor (see paragraph 1113.9); or

(iii) By causing the United States to enter into a contract with licensor alone, or with licensor and all licensees materially affected, in the manners provided in paragraphs (g) and (h).

(2) After notice under the act has been given (but before an order is made):

In any of the manners above set forth provided, in addition, the notice is withdrawn in the manner provided in subparagraph (3) of § 811.1112 (i).

(b) Delegate not to prejudice the Government's rights. Where prior to the making of an order the licensor voluntarily agrees to reduce the rates or amounts of any royalties which are charged or chargeable to the War Department, and the Government does not execute the agreement which effects such reduction, the delegate or technical service having the matter in hand shall not, in correspondence or otherwise, purport to agree that the Secretary of War or the head of any other department or agency of the Government will for any period forbear to exercise his powers under the act.

(c) Voluntary adjustments executed by the Government—(1) Contracts which effect a voluntary adjustment of royalties may, provided no order has been made under the act and under the conditions stated in the following subparagraphs, be executed on behalf of the United States. Such contracts may be prepared in substantial conformity with War Department Contract Form No. 29 (see § 813.1329 hereof). The following subparagraphs apply whether or not that form is used.

(2) If entered into before a notice under the act has been given, such contract (a) may include as parties (in addition to the United States) either the licensor alone, or the licensor and all licensees materially affected, (b) shall be executed on behalf of the United States by a delegate having authority in the matter, and (c) does not require approval of the Director except where that approval is expressly required by subparagraphs (4) or (5) below or by subparagraph (1) of paragraph (g). If the contract is with licensor alone, the provisions of paragraph (h) apply; if the contract is with licensor and licensee(s), the provisions of paragraph (g) apply.

(3) If entered into after a notice under the act has been given (but before an order is made), such contract is subject to the provisions of subparagraph (2) above, and in addition shall contain or be accompanied by a signed consent or release substantially conforming to the form thereof set forth in subparagraph (3) of § 811.1112 (i), unless the Director has authorized a deviation from or omission of the same.

(4) No such contract shall, without the approval of the Director, contain any provision which would prejudice or impair in any way the right of the head of any department or agency of the Government to make other or further adjustment of the rate or amount of royalties specified in the original license or in the contract adjusting the royalties.

(5) Any such contract containing provision whereby, in consideration of substantial reduction in royalties, the Secretary of War agrees not to make further adjustment of the rates or amounts of the royalties in question is subject to the written approval of the Director, and may be approved by him provided the total amount of royalties which will be charged to the War Department while the Secretary of War is thus bound is a fixed amount or an amount determinable at the time the contract is executed, and there is reason to believe that such amount is not and will not become unreasonable or excessive.

(d) Contract articles providing for royalty refund or price reduction. (1) It is contemplated that, in the use of War Department Contract Form No. 29, the royalty adjustment would ordinarily take effect as of some convenient past date (for example, the beginning of one of the quarterly royalty periods provided in the license) and that the adjustment will apply to all government royalties accruing since that date. Provision is made in Form No. 29 for a definition of the term "subject royalties" in such manner that, when the agreed past date is inserted in one of the definitions forming a part of the contract (see especially subparagraphs (e) and (f) of § 813.1329, Art. 1), the term "subject royalties" may then be used in other articles of the contract without repeating the definition. The contract articles appearing below are intended for use only when accompanied by the definitions set forth in § 813.1329, Art. 1, with an agreed date inserted.

(2) The following contract articles providing for royalty refund or price reduction, when accompanied by the definitions of terms used therein as set forth in § 813.1329, Art. 1, are appropriate for use in the manner set forth in paragraphs (g) to (i) below:

ARTICLE ____ Refund of royalties. A. Licensor agrees forthwith to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensor showing the amount and manner of computation of that part of the subject royalties which have prior to the date of this contract been received by Licensor and, at the same time and place, to pay to the Treasurer of the United States so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

B. Licensor agrees that, forthwith upon receipt by Licensor on or after the date of this contract of any of the subject royalties, Licensor shall (a) deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensor showing the amount and manner of computation of said royalties, and (b) pay to the Treasurer of the United States so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

C. Licensor agrees forthwith to direct and hereby authorizes Licensee [or, the licensee named in said license] to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of that part of the subject royalties which are due for payment to Licensor and have not been paid prior to the date of this contract and, at the same time and place, to pay to the Treasurer of the United States so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

D. Licensor agrees forthwith to direct and hereby authorizes Licensee [or, the licensee named in said license], as and when any of the subject royalties fall due for payment to Licensor on or after the date of this contract, (a) to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of the said subject royalties and (b) at the same time and place, to pay to the Treasurer of the United States so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

E. Licensee agrees forthwith to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of that part of the subject royalties which are due for payment to Licensor and have not been paid prior to the date of this contract and, at the same time and place, to pay to the Treasurer of the United States so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

F. Licensee agrees that, as and when any of the subject royalties fall due for payment to Licensor on or after the date of this contract, Licensee (a) shall forthwith deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of the said subject royalties and (b) at the same time and place, shall pay to the Treasurer of the United States so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

ARTICLE _____. Refund of royalties and price reduction. G. (a) Licensee agrees (i) to deliver to [name and address of officer or board] a written report signed by Licensee showing the amount and manner of computation of that part of the subject royalties not heretofore paid to Licensor, which have heretofore accrued or may hereafter accrue in respect of supplies, equipment, materials or parts thereof delivered prior to _____, 194_ [date when price reduction is to become effective] and (ii) at the same time and place, to pay to the Treasurer of the United States so much of the said subject royalties as are in excess of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof.

(b) Licensee agrees (1) to reduce the contract price of all supplies, equipment, material and parts thereof delivered to the Government on and after the date set forth in clause (a) of this Article, to the extent necessary to secure to the Government the full benefit of the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof, and (ii) to pay or credit to the Government, as the Contracting Officer concerned may direct, the amount of such price reduction.

(e) Contract articles providing for release of infringement claims. In preparing royalty adjustment contracts which contain a definition of the term "said inventions" (see clauses (a) and (b) of § 813.1329, Art. 1), the following contract articles are appropriate for release of infringement claims in the cases specified below:

(1) If the license whose royalties are being adjusted is non-exclusive, the following contract article is appropriate whether or not licensee is a party to the contract:

ARTICLE _____. Release of past infringement. Licensor hereby releases each and every claim and demand which Licensor now has or may hereafter have against the Government, its officers, agents, servants and employees, for infringement of any patent covering the said inventions by reason of the manufacture, use or sale of any article or material or the use of any process prior to the date of this contract or the use or sale thereafter of any article or material so manufactured.

(2) If the licensee, whose royalties are being adjusted is exclusive, the following contract article is appropriate provided both Licensor and Licensee are parties to the contract:

ARTICLE _____. Release of past infringement. Licensor and Licensee hereby jointly and severally release each and every claim which they or either of them now have or may hereafter have against the Government, its officers, agents, servants and employees, for infringement of any patent covering the said inventions by reason of the manufacture, use or sale of any article or material or the use of any process prior to the date of this contract or the use or sale thereafter of any article or material so manufactured.

(f) Mandatory contract articles in royalty adjustment agreements executed by the Government. (1) The "Officials not to Benefit" article (§ 803.322) and the "Covenant against Contingent Fees" article (§ 803.323) are required in every royalty adjustment contract which is executed by the Government.

(2) The "Anti-discrimination" article (§ 803.325) is required in contracts executed by the Government except where the performance of the contract does not involve the employment of persons (see subparagraph (8) of § 809.994a (a)).

(3) The "Assignment of Rights" article (§ 803.355) is required if the contract is executed by the Government and provides for payments by the Government aggregating $1,000 or more (see §803.-355).

(g) Contracts between the Government, the licensor and the licensee. (1) Where the licensee uses the licensed inventions solely in connection with articles which he sells directly to the Government, and the licensee is party to the contract adjusting the royalties, the contract shall (unless the Director otherwise directs) provide that the future benefits of the royalty adjustment shall inure to the Government in the form of a corresponding price reduction. In such case the appropriate contract articles are articles A and G of paragraph (d).

(2) Where the licensee uses the licensed inventions solely in connection with articles which he sells to contractors or subcontractors for the Government, the contract may provide either (a) for price reduction (using articles A and G of paragraph (d), the latter suitably modified in subclause (b) thereof to provide that the price reduction applies to deliveries "to contractors and subcontractors for the Government"), or (b) to effect running recapture from licensee of excess royalties (using articles A, E and F of paragraph (d).

(3) If licensee uses the licensed inventions in part in connection with articles which he sells directly to the Government and in part in connection with articles which he sells to contractors and subcontractors for the Government, the contract may provide either (i) for segregation by licensee of the two aspects of his business, with price reduction applied to the first-mentioned part and running recapture from licensee of excess royalties applied to the second-mentioned part, or (ii) for running recapture from licensee of excess royalties in respect of both parts without price reduction or segregation. In such cases the appropriate contract articles are those mentioned in subparagraphs (1) and (2) above, suitably modified as circumstances require.

(4) Attention is called to the provisions of paragraphs (e) and (f) relating to release of infringement claims and mandatory articles in royalty adjustment contracts to which both the licensee and the Government are party.

(h) Contracts between the Government and the licensor which are not executed by the licensee. (1) Where the excessive portion of the future royalties is to be refunded by the licensor, and the licensee is not a party to the contract, the appropriate contract articles are articles A and B of paragraph (d).

(2) Where the excessive portion of future royalties is to be refunded by the licensee, and the licensee is not a party to the contract, the appropriate contract articles are articles A, C and D of paragraph (d).

(3) Contracts executed by the Government and the licensor, and not executed by the licensee, are not appropriate where the license is exclusive and a release of past infringement claims is to be obtained, since an exclusive licensee should join in giving such a release.

(4) Attention is called to the provisions of paragraph (f) relating to the use of mandatory articles in royalty adjustment contracts to which the Government is a party.

(i) Unilateral agreements executed by licensor alone. Voluntary adjustments of royalty may be informally and expeditiously accomplished by a form of unilateral agreement executed by the licensor alone and not by the licensee or the Government. Such agreements may be prepared using War Department Contract Form No. 29 as a basis, subject to the following modifications:

(1) The preamble and "Now, Therefore" clauses should be rewritten in form appropriate to a unilateral agreement.

(2) The first "Whereas" clause of § 813.1329 should be modified to substitute the name and address of licensee in place of the word "Licensee".

(3) The second and third "Whereas" clauses of § 813.1329 should be used without substantial change. It is advisable to recite (as in the third "Whereas" clause) that licensor has requested the Secretary of War to forebear from giving notice under the Act, in order that there will be consideration for the licensor's promise.

(4) The fourth "Whereas" clause of § 813.1329 should be omitted.

(5) In § 813.1329, Art. 3 the appropriate articles would be those specified in subparagraphs (1) or (2) of paragraph (h).

(6) The provisions of § 813.1329, Articles 5 and 7 should be omitted.

(7) Provision should be made at the foot of the contract for execution by licensor alone.

(j) Action required when royalties have been voluntarily adjusted. When royalties chargeable to the War Department have been voluntarily adjusted with the participation of any delegate, he or the chief of the technical service concerned shall promptly report the adjustment to the Director. Such report is required whether or not the United States is party to any contract in connection therewith, and whether or not the Director's approval is required for such contract. The report shall include:

(1) A memorandum of facts (in triplicate), containing so far as practicable and appropriate the information listed in § 811.1112 (aa) and, in addition, a statement of:

(i) The nature and extent of the adjustment.

(ii) Estimated benefits to the Government.

(iii) Methods proposed for supervision or control of the Government's interest.

(iv) Future action contemplated.

(2) Sufficient copies of the agreement for distribution by the Director to interested agencies (a total number equal to the number of licensors and licensees, plus three).

(3) Three copies of the withdrawal of notice (if a notice had previously been given) and three copies (one duly executed by the licensor) of the consent and release specified in subparagraph (3) of § 811.1112 (i).

(4) If the adjustment is embodied in a contract executed on behalf of the Government and requiring approval of the Director, the contract shall be transmitted in form ready for signature by the Director accompanied by the recommendations of the delegate or technical service having the matter in hand.

(k) Copies to the Chief, Patents Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General. In the case only of an adjustment which is embodied in a contract executed on behalf of the Government and requiring approval of the Director, a copy of each document required in that case by paragraph (j) to be transmitted to the Director, shall be forwarded to the Chief, Patents Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General, concurrently with the transmittal of the originals thereof to the Director.

§ 811.1114 Agreements in settlement and compromise after an order is made and before suit against the United States has been instituted. (See § 811.1112 (g).)

(a) Approval required. Every agreement in settlement and compromise of a claim against the United States accruing in consequence of the making of an order under the Act is subject to the approval of the Director.

(b) Submission for approval. (1) The contract in an appropriate number of copies each executed by all necessary parties and by a delegate on behalf of the United States, shall be transmitted to the Director ready for execution by him, accompanied by a report containing:

(i) A full statement of all relevant facts and circumstances, and

(ii) The recommendations of the chief or deputy chief of the originating technical service that the contract be approved.

(2) One copy of the proposed agreement and of the report accompanying the same shall be forwarded to the Chief, Patents Division, Office of The Judge Advocate General, concurrently with the transmittal of the originals thereof to the Director.

SUBPART H—MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

In § 811.1188 paragraph (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 811.1188 Advertising. • • •

(c) Ratification. Prior to the promulgation on 3 September 1943 of paragraph (b), the chiefs of the technical services had not expressly been delegated authority to authorize advertising. The Judge Advocate General, however, in the opinion referred to in paragraph (a) expressed the view that the delegations set forth in § 801.107 (f) gave the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces authority to approve advertising; and that the action of the chiefs of the technical service in authorizing advertising may "be ratified by the Director of the Purchases Division, if it is determined that such action facilitated the prosecution of the war". Accordingly, if any advertising was done subsequent to 29 June 1942 and prior to 3 September 1943, without approval of the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces (or some higher authority) a request may be made to said Director that such advertising be ratified; the request should be accompanied by a full statement of the facts and a determination by the chief of the technical service that such advertising facilitated the prosecution of the war. Advertising done on or subsequent to 3 September 1943 may be authorized or ratified by the Chiefs of the technical services, without the necessity of submission to the Director, Purchases Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces.

----
[1] a partnership consisting of ----------

----
[1] an individual trading as ----------, ----------, of the City of ----------, in the State of ---------- witnesseth that

Whereas, on or about the ---------- day of ----------, 19----, Licensor and Licensee entered into an instrument of license, a copy of which is annexed hereto and marked Schedule A, which provides for the payment to Licensor of royalties at the rates or in the amounts therein specified;

Whereas, said royalties are charged or chargeable to the Government in connection with procurement of supplies, equipment or materials delivered or to be delivered to or for the War Department, and the Secretary of War has made inquiry whether said royalties are unreasonable or excessive and contemplates giving notice under the Royalty Adjustment Act in respect thereto [or, the Secretary of War believing said royalties to be unreasonable and excessive has, on or about the ------ day of ----------, 19----, given notice in respect thereto under the Royalty Adjustment Act];

Whereas, Licensor has requested the Secretary of War to forbear from giving notice under the Act [or, has requested the Secretary of War to forbear from making an order under the Act] and, in consideration of and during the continuance of such forbearance, Licensor is willing to adjust the rates or amounts of said royalties in the manner and to the extent herein set forth; and

Whereas, this contract is authorized by Sec. 3 of the Royalty Adjustment Act;

Now, therefore, the parties have agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1. Definitions. Where used in this contract, the following terms have the meanings here assigned to them, viz:

(a) "said license" means the instrument of which a copy is annexed hereto and marked Schedule A;

(b) "said inventions" means each and all of the inventions whose practice is licensed in and by said license;

(c) "the Act" and "Royalty Adjustment Act" means the Royalty Adjustment Act 1942 (Public No. 768, 77th Congress; 35 U. S. C. 89–96);

(d) "notice under the Act" means the notice contemplated by Section 1 of the Act;

(e) "period of this agreement" means the period of time beginning the _____ day of _____ 19____ [date as of which the royalty adjustment is to take effect] and ending when the head of any department or agency of the Government gives notice under the Act that the reduced royalties specified in this contract are believed to be unreasonable or excessive, but in any event ending when Sections 1 and 2 of the Act are no longer in force;

(f) "subject royalties" means royalties at the rates or in the amounts specified in said license, and in any other license heretofore granted by Licensor, accruing in respect to the practice of said inventions during the period of this agreement, which said royalties are charged or chargeable to the Government; and

(g) "Secretary of War" includes any officer or board exercising the powers, duties and authorities of the Secretary of War under the Act in respect of said license or said inventions.

ART. 2. Royalty reduction. Licensor agrees that the subject royalties shall be and they are hereby reduced to _____% [or, reduced to an amount not exceeding $_____ in any calendar year], and Licensor acknowledges that the reduced royalties herein specified are fair and just taking into account the conditions of wartime production.

ART. 3. Royalty refund (see § 811.1113 (d), (g) and (h)).

ART. 4. Release of past infringements (see § 811.1113 (e)).

ART. 5. Withdrawal of notice and release (for use only if a notice under the Act has previously been given).

The notice under the Act, heretofore on or about the _____ day of _____, 19____ issued on behalf of the Secretary of War in respect of the royalties specified in said license, is hereby withdrawn and Licensor consents to such withdrawal and, in consideration thereof, hereby releases any and all claims or demands now held by the Licensor against the United States, or any officer or agent thereof, arising out of the issuance of said notice.

ART. 6. Reserved rights.

Nothing herein contained shall limit the right of the head of any department or agency of the Government, including but not limited to the Secretary of War, to give notice [or, further notice] under the Act if at any time it is believed that the reduced royalties specified in Article 2 hereof are unreasonable or excessive, nor shall the Government be deemed to have approved the rates or amounts of said reduced royalties or be estopped at any time to contest the validity or scope of, or the title to, any patent in respect of which said royalties are payable.

ART. 7. General provisions.

(a) Officials not to benefit (see subparagraph (1) of § 811.1113 (f)).

(b) Covenant against contingent fees (see subparagraph (1) of § 811.1113 (f)).

(c) Anti-discrimination (see subparagraph (2) of § 811.1113 (f)).

(d) Assignment of rights hereunder (see subparagraph (3) of § 811.1113 (f)).

ART. 8. Successors and assigns. This agreement shall be binding upon the parties, their successors and assigns, and shall not be affected in the event that any provision of the Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have executed this contract as of the day and year first above written.

PART 815—TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT

SUBPART A—POLICY AS TO TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS AND SUPERVISION OF TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS FOR THE CONVENIENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT

Organization and Responsibility for Terminations

Section 815.223 is added, as follows:

§ 815.223 Inter-service relationship in settlement of terminated contracts. (a) In order to avoid duplication of effort on the part of Government and contractor personnel, complete responsibility for accounting examinations and for approving disposition of termination inventory in the settlement of terminated contracts of selected contractors may be assigned by the Readjustment Division, Headquarters, Army Service Forces, to designated technical services. A list of contractors now assigned to designated technical services is set forth in § 815.492 (j). Further assignments will be made after consultation with the chiefs of the technical services concerned.

(b) The designated technical service will (1) make all accounting examinations and (2) approve all dispositions of termination inventory (prior to any acquisition of title by the Government), in connection with settlement proposals of the particular contractor arising from the termination of its prime contracts with the War Department or subcontracts which it holds under prime contracts of the War Department. The nature of the accounting examination to be required in each particular case will be determined by the designated technical service, in the absence of specific instructions of the contracting officer having jurisdiction of the terminated contracts or subcontract (see § 815.424).

(c) Contracting officers of the War Department, prime contractors of the War Department, and subcontractors under prime contracts of the War Department, will rely on accounting reports made under authority of this paragraph, and the prices at which termination inventory is retained or disposed of by a contractor with the approval of the chief of the designated technical service under authority of this paragraph, or his duly authorized representative, will be recognized and accepted for all purposes, including any termination settlement made with a contracting officer of another technical service. No authorization which might otherwise be exercised by prime contractors under § 815.437a (relating to accounting examinations and approval of property disposals in subcontract settlements involving less than $10,000) will be exercised in settling a subcontract of a contractor now or hereafter assigned to a designated technical service pursuant to this paragraph, except with the approval of that service; but if any action has been taken pursuant to such authorization, it will nevertheless be valid and binding.

(d) Instructions relating to accounting examinations and to disposition of termination inventory as authorized under this paragraph, are set forth in § 815.492 et seq. and §807.211, respectively.

(e) The chief of a technical service to which a contractor is assigned under this paragraph may designate a district or depot or other local office to carry out the duties imposed under this paragraph. Any such district, depot or other local office may—to the extent authorized by the chief—communicate directly with other contractors, contracting officer, or procurement offices in connection with any matters arising from the terminated contracts or subcontracts of the contractor in question.

(f) A. S. F. Circular No. 80, dated 21 March 1944, Part Two, Section V, sets forth a memorandum dated 18 March 1944, signed by (then) Acting Secretary of the Navy Forrestal and the Under Secretary of War, on the subject of joint contract termination field accounting representatives for the War and Navy Departments. The foregoing memorandum is in no way modified or superseded by this section; but it is intended that the program outlined in this paragraph shall go forward as between the technical services of the War Department.

SUBPART B—PROCEDURES RELATING TO TERMINATION OF LUMP SUM SUPPLY CONTRACTS

Preparation and review for contractors' and subcontractors' accounting statements and proposals for settlements: Accounting guides to a negotiated settlement

Section 815.492 is added, as follows:

§ 815.492 Accounting examinations under interservice plan—(a) Initiation of accounting examination. The technical service to which a particular contractor has been assigned pursuant to § 815.223 should proceed with an accounting examination whenever it is

---

[1] To be added if the contract is subject to approval by the Director, see subparagraph (2) of § 811.1113 (c). Agreements originating in the Army Air Forces should carry the legend specified for an order, see § 812.1112 (t).

satisfied that a termination claim of such contractor under a war contract of the War Department has arisen. Also at the request of any contracting officer of a technical service which has terminated a contract with such a contractor, the technical service to which the contractor has been assigned will proceed at once with such accounting examination.

(b) When accounting reports should be submitted. (1) When a proposal for settlement of a prime contract is to be reviewed, the report of the accounting examination may properly be prepared and submitted to the contracting officer having jurisdiction, subject to later application of disposal credits. Where termination inventory is disposed of after the making of a report, the contracting officer may request a supplemental report showing the application of disposal credits and the adjusted net amount of the settlement proposal.

(2) Where a proposal for settlement of a subcontract is to be reviewed, the report of the accounting examination should not, in general, be submitted to the contracting officer until (i) all termination inventory has been disposed of by the contractor or (ii) an agreement has been reached for storage or removal of such inventory pursuant to Subpart F–1 of this part. A preliminary report may, however, be requested at any time by a contracting officer as an aid to negotiation or in connection with the making of a partial payment, or for any other purpose. A preliminary report may also be prepared for the contracting officer when, in the opinion of the chief of the responsible technical service, such action will expedite settlement. The extent to which information, contained in such reports, should be transmitted to the purchaser named therein, will, in cases of doubt, be determined by the contracting officer.

(c) Allowance of profit in settlement proposals of subcontractors. Each settlement proposal of a subcontractor will indicate the amount of profit, if any, which is sought by the subcontractor, and the accounting report, without passing upon its reasonableness, will contain clear reference thereto. The amount of profit to be allowed will be the subject of negotiation between the subcontractor and his customer (see § 815.436), and is subject to the approval of the contracting officer in conformity with the provisions of § 815.437.

(d) Uniform rates of profit recommended. The technical service to which a particular contractor has been assigned pursuant to § 815.223 should, where possible, secure from such contractor a statement of policy with respect to the rates of profit to be claimed by it under its prime contracts and under its subcontracts. Any such statement, together with the recommendation of the designated technical service as to the reasonableness of the rate or rates claimed, should be communicated to the contracting officers concerned. The setting of uniform rates of profit on comparable contracts will, it is believed, expedite approvals by contracting officers. With respect to the setting of rates of profit to be claimed on subcontracts, the principles set forth in § 815.436 will be observed.

(e) Reports of accounting examinations of prime contractors' claims. (1) Reports of accounting examinations of claims arising from termination of prime contracts will be made in the manner and form prescribed in TM 14–1005, chapter 4, section 11 "Reports." Copies of such reports should be submitted to the contracting officer.

(2) Every effort should be made to resolve all questions of an accounting nature prior to making the report of the accounting examination. Consultation with the contracting officer may eliminate questions which would otherwise delay or qualify the report.

(f) Reports of accounting examinations of subcontractors' claims. (1) Ordinarily it will be possible to prepare an unqualified short form report of the accounting examination made of a claim arising from termination of a subcontract. Copies of such reports should be submitted directly to the subcontractor and the contracting officer having jurisdiction. The subcontractor may then transmit its settlement proposal to its customer, accompanied by the accounting report on which the customer is authorized by § 815.223 to rely. The contracting officer will retain his copy of the report for use in the event that the settlement is submitted to him for approval or ratification in conformity with § 815.437.

(2) As in the case of reports relating to prime contracts every effort should be made, in consultation with the contracting officer if necesary or desirable, to resolve all questions of an accounting nature prior to making the report of the accounting examination.

(3) A short form report of accounting examination in substantially the following form will be acceptable:

REPORT OF ACCOUNTING EXAMINATION OF SUBCONTRACT

An accounting review has been made of the settlement proposal of _____ in the amount of $_____ arising from termination of purchase order No. _____ issued by _____ to _____ dated _____, the same being stated by claimant to be a subcontract under a prime contract between the United States and _____ bearing No. W _____. In respect to costs, the settlement proposal appears to have been prepared on an acceptable accounting basis. Profit of $_____ is claimed, but no opinion is here expressed regarding the reasonableness of such claimed profit. The inclusion of any amount agreed upon in settlement of this subcontract, in a termination settlement of a prime contract with the Government, is contingent upon the establishment of its relationship through intervening contracts and upon any required approval of the contracting officer administering the prime contract. Contracting officers and intervening contractors are authorized to rely on this report without instituting an additional accounting examination.

In making its settlement proposal, the buyer named above will rely upon this report and may qualify accordingly his own certificate as to the extent of his examination of this settlement proposal.

Signature of person authorized by responsible technical service to execute this report.

Date _____

(4) In the event that the settlement proposal of a subcontractor with respect to a subcontract includes items not susceptible of an accounting determination, the accounting report should be prepared in the form and manner prescribed for reports of accounting examinations of settlement proposals relating to prime contracts. (See paragraph (e) above).

(g) Identification of contracts. The coding in a contract number may be utilized as a means of indicating the contracting agency concerned. War Department contracts are numbered to indicate the technical service involved by use of letter designations as follows:

Transportation Corps	(TC)
Medical Corps	(MD)
Signal Corps	(SC)
Chemical Warfare Service	(CWS)
Quartermaster	(QM)
Engineer Corps	(Eng.)
Ordnance	(Ord.)
Army Air Forces	(AC)

In addition War Department contracts are numbered in a manner to indicate the contracting office involved as identified in Chapter 8 of the War Department Fiscal Code.

An example of numbering war contracts by the technical services follows:

W 30—075 Eng. 123

Interpreting the above example, "W" represents War Department, the digits "30" signify the State of New York, the digits "075" signify District Engineer, New York City; the abbreviation "Eng." signifies Corps of Engineers, and the digits "123" the number allotted to the contract, either by the district or a sub-office. The first and second digits will always be the same for a district, regardless of the number of sub-offices in that district. Except for training school contracts, Army Air Forces contract numbers will not indicate the district to which the contract is applicable, making it necessary to review the contents of the contract to determine the district involved. Copies of the War Department Fiscal Code (TM 14–700) may be obtained by requisitioning the appropriate local Adjutant General or Air Service Command Depot.

(h) Control records. Appropriate control records will be maintained covering the individual settlement proposals processed for each contractor assigned. Suggested information to record may include:

Serial number of claim assigned by field auditor.
Identification number assigned contractor.
Number of Government prime contract affected.
Contractor's job order number.
Name of service.
Name and address of Contractor's customer.
Customer's purchase order or contract number.
Date contract terminated.
Amount of gross charges.
Date received for accounting review.
Date review of gross charges completed.
Date receipt of property disposition data.
Amount of net settlement proposal reviewed.
Date net settlement proposal reviewed.
Date report released.

(i) Administrative reports. Reports of progress for each contractor assigned to a technical service pursuant to § 815.223 will be prepared in accordance with prescribed instructions of that service and will be delivered to an office or officer designated by the chief of that service, so as to be available for review by higher authority. It is contemplated that reports of progress should be required at least monthly and should include the following as a minimum:

(1) Number and dollar volume of settlement proposals.

(i) On hand at the beginning of the month;

(ii) Received during the current month;

(iii) Covered by reports released during month;

(iv) On hand at end of the month.

(2) Segregation of settlement proposals on hand at end of the month ((1) (v) above) as follows:

(i) Number and dollar volume of settlement proposals for which accounting reviews have been made but on which final report is being held, pending receipt of property disposition data.

(ii) Number and dollar volume of settlement proposals for which accounting reviews of gross charges have not been completed. These proposals should be aged for number and dollar amount from the date received in accordance with the following classifications: Under thirty days; thirty to sixty days; and over sixty days.

(i) Schedule of contractors. The contractors named in the following schedule have been assigned to the technical services designated for operation of the plan described in the preceding paragraphs and in §§ 815.223 and 807.211.

Contractor, Technical Service, Contracting Office, and Effective Date
AC Spark Plug Div., General Motors Corp., Flint, Mich.; Ordnance Department; Detroit Ordnance District; 8 Feb. 1944.
Allis Chalmers Mfg. Corp., West Allis, Wis.; Ordnance Department; Chicago Ordnance District; 27 Jan. 1944.
Aluminum Co. of America, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Army Air Forces; Eastern Procurement District; 1 Feb. 1944.
A. O. Smith Corp., Milwaukee, Wis.; Army Air Forces; Mid-Central Procurement District; 1 June 1944.
American Car and Foundry Co., Berwick, Pa.; Ordnance Department; Philadelphia Ordnance District; 1 Apr. 1944.
Bendix Aviation Corp., Philadelphia Division, Philadelphia, Pa.; Army Air Forces; Eastern Procurement District; 15 Feb. 1944.
Bendix Aviation Corp., Eclipse Pioneer Div., Teterboro, N. J.; Army Air Forces; Eastern Procurement District; 1 Feb. 1944.
Bendix Aviation Corp., South Bend, Ind.; Army Air Forces; Mid-Central Procurement District; 25 Jan. 1944.
Eaton Manufacturing Co., Cleveland, Ohio; Army Air Forces; Central Procurement District; 15 Apr. 1944.
Goodrich Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio; Ordnance Department; Cleveland Ordnance District; 15 May 1944.
Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio; Army Air Forces; Central Procurement District; 15 Apr. 1944.
International Harvester Co., Chicago, Ill.; Ordnance Department; Chicago Ordnance District; 17 Apr. 1944.
Pump Engineering Service Co., Cleveland, Ohio; Army Air Forces; Central Procurement District; 15 Apr. 1944.
Sperry Gyroscope Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.; Army Air Forces; Eastern Procurement District; 15 Aug. 1944.
Thompson Products Co., Cleveland, Ohio; Army Air Forces; Central Procurement District; 15 Apr. 1944.
Wright Aeronautical Co., Paterson, N. J.; Army Air Forces; Eastern Procurement District; 15 Aug. 1944.
Zenith Radio Corp., Chicago, Ill.; Signal Corps; Philadelphia Procurement District; 1 June 1944.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 4693]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

RUDOLF LESCH FINE ARTS, INC., ET AL.

§ 3.24 (d) Combining or conspiring—To enhance, maintain or unify prices. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of art pictures, prints, etchings, reproductions of paintings, and allied products, and on the part of the six respondent corporations, and their officers, etc., entering into, continuing, cooperating in, or carrying out any planned common course of action, agreement, understanding, combination, or conspiracy between or among any two or more of said respondents, or between any one or more of said respondents and others not parties to this proceeding, to (1) fix or establish uniform discounts, or adhere to or maintain any discounts so fixed or established; (2) establish or maintain classifications of customers or prospective customers, or fix or maintain discounts predicated upon such classifications; (3) circulate or exchange among themselves lists showing classifications of customers or prospective customers; (4) hold meetings or otherwise confer among themselves for the purpose of establishing or maintaining uniform discounts or classifications of customers or prospective customers; or (5) engage in any act or practice substantially similar to those set out in this order with the purpose or effect of establishing or maintaining uniform discounts or classifications of customers or prospective customers; prohibited. (Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b) (Cease and desist order, Rudolf Lesch Fine Arts, Inc., et al., Docket 4693, July 19, 1944)

[1] The revocation of § 815.868 was effected by Change 28, 9 July 1944.

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of July, A. D. 1944.

In the Matter of Rudolf Lesch Fine Arts, Inc., a Corporation, New York Graphic Society, Inc., a Corporation, Erich S. Herrmann, Inc., a Corporation, David Ashley, Inc., a Corporation, Raymond & Raymond, Inc., a Corporation, International Art Publishing Company, Inc., a Corporation, Reinthal & Newman, Inc., a Corporation, and International Frame and Picture Company, Inc., a Corporation

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answers thereto, testimony and other evidence taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, report of the trial examiner upon the evidence, brief in support of the complaint, and briefs in opposition thereto on behalf of respondents Rudolf Lesch Fine Arts, Inc., and International Frame and Picture Company, Inc. (oral argument not having been requested); and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that certain of the respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That respondents Rudolf Lesch Fine Arts, Inc., New York Graphic Society, Inc., Erich S. Herrmann, Inc., David Ashley, Inc., Raymond & Raymond, Inc., and International Art Publishing Company, Inc., corporations, and their officers, agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of art pictures, prints, etchings, reproductions of paintings, and allied products in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from entering into, continuing, cooperating in, or carrying out any planned common course of action, agreement, understanding, combination, or conspiracy between or among any two or more of said respondents, or between any one or more of said respondents and others not parties to this proceeding, to do or perform any of the following acts or things:

1. Fixing or establishing uniform discounts, or adhering to or maintaining any discounts so fixed or established.

2. Establishing or maintaining classifications of customers or prospective customers, or fixing or maintaining discounts predicated upon such classifications.

3. Circulating or exchanging among themselves lists showing classifications of customers or prospective customers.

4. Holding meetings or otherwise conferring among themselves for the purpose of establishing or maintaining uniform discounts or classifications of customers or prospective customers.

5. Engaging in any act or practice substantially similar to those set out in this order with the purpose or effect of establishing or maintaining uniform discounts or classifications of customers or prospective customers.

It is further ordered, That these respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

It is further ordered, That the complaint herein be, and it hereby is, dismissed as to respondents Reinthal & Newman, Inc., and International Frame and Picture Company, Inc.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] OTIS B. JOHNSON,
Secretary.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VI—Selective Service System

[Amdt. 250, 2d Ed.]

PART 622—CLASSIFICATION

IDENTIFICATION OF CERTAIN REGISTRANTS

Pursuant to authority contained in the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, Selective Service Regulations, Second Edition, are hereby amended in the following respect:

Amend § 622.81 to read as follows:

§ 622.81 Identifying classified registrants over 38 years of age and under 45 years of age. Whenever a classified registrant, except certain registrants in Class IV-E described below, has reached or hereafter reaches the thirty-eighth anniversary of the day of his birth and has not attained the forty-fifth anniversary of the day of his birth, he shall be identified in all records by following his classification with the letter "(H)." For example: If such registrant is in Class I-A, he shall be identified thus, "Class I-A (H)." If such registrant is in Class II-B, he shall be identified thus, "Class II-B (H)." The identification "(H)" shall be used for each such registrant regardless of his classification except that a registrant in Class IV-E who has been assigned to work of national importance under civilian direction shall not be so identified prior to his release from such assignment.

The foregoing amendment to the Selective Service regulations shall be effective within the continental United States immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register and shall be effective outside the continental limits of the United States on the 30th day after the date of filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 3, Interpretation 1 to Direction 8]

RATINGS FOR FLAT WICK LAMP BURNERS

The following interpretation is issued with respect to Direction 8 of Priorities Reg. 3:

Direction 8 of Priorities Regulation 3 invalidates all preference ratings lower than AA-3 issued for the purchase of flat wick lamp burners. It specifically states that persons receiving orders bearing such ratings may fill them as unrated orders. This includes orders for flat wick lamp burners with ratings lower than AA-3 received prior to the date of the direction as well as orders subsequently received. In other words, if the flat wick lamp burners had not been shipped by the date of the direction, the unfilled orders rated lower than AA-3 must be treated as unrated.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 6, Schedule A, as Amended August 7, 1944]

CONSTRUCTION LIMITATIONS

§ 3175.6a Schedule A of CMP Regulation 6—(a) Principles governing war-time construction. The principles governing war-time construction are defined in the Directive for War-Time Construction, dated May 20, 1942. The War Production Board and the Army-Navy Munitions Board interpret these principles as limiting all construction to a design of the simplest type consistent with structural stability and sufficient only to meet the immediate minimum functional requirements.

The guiding principle should always be to utilize those materials which are most plentiful and which, in the ultimate analysis, will cause the least interference with the production of combat matériel and the utilization of transportation and power.

(b) What these construction limitations do. These construction limitations apply to construction authorized on Form GA-1456. They do not apply to any other kind of construction. Construction authorized on Form GA-1456 must be performed in accordance with the provisions of Appendix I and Appendix II (which are part of this schedule) unless a waiver is granted on the authorization.

These construction limitations restrict the use of the materials and equipment listed, including materials to be incorporated in products where the materials are purchased through a fabricator or supplier by using the assigned allotment symbol or preference rating. They do not apply to:

The use of used materials except where specifically restricted.

The use by manufacturers of materials directly allocated to manufacturers for incorporation into "B" products (as defined in CMP Reg. 1).

The use of materials incorporated in "A" products of the kind required to be listed in section III of Form WPB-617 (manufacturing, processing or service equipment).

(c) Amendments to construction limitations. The Construction Limitations may be amended from time to time. When a restriction on the use of an item is changed or removed by an amendment to the Construction Limitations issued after an authorization, the builder may, if he chooses, disregard the old restriction and follow the new provision. This applies to builders who have received authorizations on Form GA-1456, subject to the Construction Limitations dated February 1, 1944, or subject to Schedule A to CMP Regulation 6. It does not apply to changes made in Appendix II (formerly Appendix A) of the Construction Limitations.

(d) Exceptions. If any exceptions to the restrictions are required, the exceptions must be stated and justified in the application for authority to acquire or construct facilities (WPB-617). Authorization will be made on Form GA-1456 or GA-1456A.

(e) Structural design. All building construction using more than 5 tons of structural steel or more than 5 tons of reinforcing steel (including mesh) or any stress grade lumber shall be designed in accordance with the applicable provisions of the War Production Board Directive No. 8 "National Emergency Specifications for the Design, Fabrication and Erection of Structural Steel for Buildings" as amended, and/or Directive No. 9 "Design of Reinforced Concrete Buildings" as amended, and/or Directive No. 29 "Design, Fabrication and Erection of Stress Grade Lumber and its Fastenings for Buildings" as amended. If any waiver of the provisions of the above directives is required, the reasons for requesting such waiver must be stated in the application.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX I—RESTRICTIONS

NOTE: Appendix I amended Aug. 7, 1944.

A. Structural steel.

Construction requiring the use of structural steel should not be employed when masonry or plain or reinforced concrete using forms as called for under K-3 below can be used.

1. Junior beams may not be used.

B. Steel plates.

1. Plates may not be used except for:
a. Closed pressure tanks.
b. Structural connections.
c. Column bases and bearing plates.
d. Where necessary for connections and reinforcing when used for repair and strengthening of bridges.

C. Steel sheet and strip (produced from a sheet or strip mill).

1. The use of steel sheet and strip, plain or formed, is prohibited except for the following:

a. Evacuation tubes, superimposed upon fans, not exceeding 30 feet in height.

2. The use of the following manufactured items (purchased as such) when made from sheet or strip is prohibited:

Bins
Bookstacks
Bridge Splash Guards
Culverts
Concrete Pile Casings
Corner, door and column guards
Flooring
Joists
Portable Buildings
Roofing and Siding
Shower Stalls
Scuppers
Smoke Stacks
Termite Shields heavier than No. 24 U. S. gauge
Trench Covers
Ventilation and heating ducts except for transitions, fittings, connections, and changes in direction, and for straight runs where metal is required by applicable building codes

D. Railroad track and craneways.

1. Except for operating railroads, the following are prohibited:
a. New rails over 60 pounds per yard.
b. New metal ties and tie plates.
c. Used tie plates, except for rails weighing 60 pounds or less per yard, and turnouts, crossovers, curves of more than 4 degrees, and bridge track of any weight.

E. Hardware.

1. The use of checking floor hinges and hydraulic door closers is prohibited except as follows:
a. Where self-closing function is required by applicable fire regulations.
b. For exterior entrance and exterior exit doors of public and industrial buildings.
c. Where essential in hospitals.

F. Metal lath.

1. The use of metal plastering base and accessories is prohibited for exterior use, except as permitted in paragraph 3 below.

2. The use of metal plastering base and accessories is prohibited for interior use except:
a. Cornerite, stripite, corner bead and flush base screed
b. In hospitals, detention, asylum and school buildings
(1) Under wood joists subject to fire hazard (as defined by applicable building codes), and under bar or concrete joists, and where furred ceilings are required
(2) For resistance to earthquakes where required by applicable codes
(3) For chases, pipe furring and wood stairways
(4) Where Portland cement plaster is used as a functional requirement

3. The restrictions in 1 and 2 above do not restrict the use of (1) combination form and reinforcement for cast-in-place slabs (2) woven or welded steel wire, cloth, fabric or netting without paper or other backing for exterior stucco base.

G. Aluminum.

1. The use of aluminum and aluminum products is prohibited:
a. For ornamental and decorative work
b. In any of the forms and shapes described as a controlled material in CMP Regulation 1 except:
(i) For electric bus bars, electrical conductors and current carrying accessories for conductors.
(ii) Where essential for processing.

H. Copper and copper-base alloys.

The use of copper and copper-base alloys (new or used) is prohibited for the following:

1. Pipe or tubing including fittings except:
a. Where essential for processing
b. Solder nipples or ferrules

2. Building materials, whether fabricated or unfabricated, as follows:
Access panels
Anchors and dowels
Cornices
Drip pans
Fences and gates
Cooling towers, except for current carrying parts and bearings and worm gears for speed reducers and heat exchangers
Decorative metal work
Flashings and flashing valley lining
Gravel stops and snow guards
Grilles, grids and gratings
Gutters, leaders, downspouts, sheet metal expansion joints and accessories thereto
Lightning rods, cables and accessories
Louvers and marquees
Mouldings and trim
Nails, bolts, screws, nuts, rivets, washers and expansion shields
Ornamental metal work Partitions
Railings
Reglets
Radiator shields and covers
Roofs, roofing and other roofing items
Sheet, roll, strip and rod for construction
Sinks and drain boards
Stair treads, nosing and edgings
Store fronts
Strip for laying linoleum
Terrazzo strip
Termite shields
Thresholds and saddles
Tie rods
Ventilators and skylights
Vents
Weatherstripping and insulation
Window frames and sills

I. Tin. The use of tin and tin products is prohibited except as follows:

1. Solder:

a. Not over 40% tin in solder (i) for wiping water service pipe, connecting the piping of a structure with the outside water main, (ii) for assembly and repair of galvanized iron or zinc tanks.

b. Not over 35% tin in solder (i) for assembly and repair of galvanized iron items (except tanks) where the assembly is done with a "soldering iron", (ii) for wiping lead sheathed cable joints or lead pipe joints.

c. Solder for electrical connections may be used only to the extent that solderless connectors; not containing copper or copper-base alloys, will not serve, and then not over 35% tin content.

d. Not over 30% tin in solder for all other uses not covered above, and then only to the extent that substitution of either a less critical material or use of less tin content is impracticable.

2. Roofing—but only terne plate for repair purposes.

3. Fuses, fuse plugs, and sprinkler head fuses.

J. Zinc. 1. The use of zinc and zinc products is prohibited:

a. For ornamental and decorative work

b. In the form of sheet, strip and rod except:

(i) Where essential for processing

(ii) Where the use of chemicals requires it.

K. Lumber and lumber products. Construction requiring the use of lumber 2" nominal thickness or less for framing of walls, floors, partitions, ceilings, and roofs should not be employed where other types of construction can be used.

1. The use of lumber is prohibited for the following:

a. Sheathing of walls and roofs.

b. Facing of partitions and ceilings.

c. Siding.

d. Fencing.

e. Sub-floors.

2. Forms for concrete construction are restricted to the use of metal forms, used lumber, reusable forms (including traveling), and highly water resistant plywood (see 5 below). To the extent that these types of forms are not available, lumber in any size may be used subject to the provisions of the next paragraph.

3. Where the use of lumber is not prohibited by these limitations or when an exception to a restricted use specified in K1 or K2 is authorized by the War Production Board, all lumber 2" nominal thickness less than 8" nominal width and all lumber less than 2" nominal thickness shall only be obtained from cutting local wood lots or from resawing or ripping sizes larger than 2 x 6 specifically for the project, unless a specific exception to this paragraph is granted in the authorization. (This restriction does not apply to the use of less than 2,500 board feet nor does it apply to finished flooring, mill work and trim.)

4. All lumber less than 2" nominal thickness, other than that used for finished floor, mill work and trim, shall be square edge.

5. The use of common grades of any kind of wood is prohibited for mill work and trim.

6. The use of end grain block flooring is prohibited except for repair and maintenance of existing floors of this type.

7. The use of Hardboard is prohibited.

8. The use of softwood plywood is prohibited except highly water resistant type when used for concrete forms (maximum reuse), but the use of softwood or hardwood plywood of any type is prohibited for concrete form liner.

The salvage of all reusable lumber, not specifically incorporated in a structure, is mandatory and its destruction is prohibited. Such lumber shall be made immediately available for reuse.

L. Plumbing and heating. 1. The use of pipe of weights heavier than required to meet maximum working pressure at the site is prohibited.

2. The use of metal sewer pipe outside the building is prohibited except for:

a. Vents
b. Within 5 feet of the building
c. Cast iron pressure mains

3. The use of valves over 2" size with brass or bronze bodies is prohibited.

4. The use of condensate and vacuum pumps is prohibited except that a single pump is permitted on any heating system where the condensate cannot return to the boiler by gravity or when the design of the heating system requires that a high vacuum must be maintained.

M. Mechanical ventilation. 1. The use of mechanical ventilation is prohibited except for:

a. Areas without natural ventilation
b. Hospital spaces
c. Spaces where industrial processes make its use mandatory.
d. Interior toilet rooms and kitchens where gravity ventilation will not suffice

2. Ventilation systems for winter operation in locations as outlined above shall be of the re-circulatory type, with quantity of make-up and exhaust air reduced to the minimum required to meet health requirements.

N. Electrical work. 1. The use of electrical wire and cable in sizes larger than the minimum size permitted by the 1940 National Electrical Code as amended is prohibited.

2. The use of rigid metallic conduit is prohibited except for the minimum sizes permitted by the 1940 National Electrical Code as amended and then only:

a. In any size when the installation is in a hazardous location as defined by the 1940 National Electrical Code, Classes 1 to 4 inclusive.

b. In sizes over 2".

(1) For safety purposes as protection against mechanical injury.

(2) In wet locations as defined in Article 100 of the 1940 National Electrical Code.

(3) Where electrical conductors are to be enclosed within concrete or masonry.

c. In sizes 2" and under to suspend an industrial lighting fixture.

3. The use of electrical metallic tubing is prohibited except for the minimum sizes permitted by the 1940 National Electrical Code as amended and then only:

a. For safety purposes as protection against mechanical injury.

b. Where electrical conductors are to be enclosed within concrete or masonry.

c. When run in elevator hoistways for elevator power, control and signal wiring.

d. In wet locations as defined in Article 100 of the 1940 National Electrical Code.

e. To suspend an industrial lighting fixture.

4. The use of flexible metallic conduit or tubing is prohibited except for the minimum sizes permitted by the 1940 National Electrical Code as amended and then only:

a. To provide a flexible enclosure for:

(1) Electric wire or cable which is a component part of a machine.

(2) Electric wire or cable extending less than twelve (12) feet from electrical systems to current consuming devices or control equipment.

5. Armored cable (BX cable) may be used only for:

a. Uses permitted for flexible metallic conduit in Item N-4.

b. Remodeling and conversion of fireproof structures.

c. Control systems in connection with boilers.

6. Exterior lighting is prohibited except when mounted on buildings.

O. Standby and emergency equipment. Standby and emergency equipment is prohibited.

Appendix II—Equipment Requiring Specific Approval Including Equipment for Which a Special Application Form is Required

Note: Appendix II amended Aug. 7, 1944.

A. All equipment, except equipment used in building services such as plumbing, heating, ventilating, lighting, and similar fixed installations, required for the project must be listed in section III of the application form. Incidental items of equipment costing less than $500 for each item may be grouped in section III under general descriptive headings. Authorization to purchase or install items so grouped will be limited to the dollar value approved. Items shown under B and C of this appendix must be specifically listed as directed and may not be grouped.

B. For the following equipment the separate application form shown must be used and authority to purchase must be secured under the terms of the governing order. Such equipment must also be listed in section III of the application form. The special application form designated should be prepared and filed with the project application form whenever possible.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[General Allocation Order M–300, Schedule 14, as Amended Aug. 7, 1944]

PINE TAR

§ 3293.1014 Schedule 14 to General Allocation Order M–300—(a) Definition. "Pine tar" means the liquid pine tar and tar oil, of all grades and weights which is obtained by distillation of pine wood by the retort or kiln process.

(b) General provisions. Pine tar is subject to allocation under General Allocation Order M-300, as an Appendix A material. The initial allocation date is May 1, 1944. The allocation period is the calendar month. The small order exemption is fifty-four gallons per person per month.

(c) Special exemption. Any producer who produces less than 500 gallons in any month after the initial allocation date, except by toll arrangement, and any person who purchases pine tar from such a producer shall be exempt for that month from the requirement of obtaining authorization from the War Production Board for the delivery, acceptance of delivery or use of any pine tar so produced or of any stocks of pine tar in the hands of such producer on the initial allocation date.

(d) Suppliers' applications on Form WPB–2946. (1) Each supplier seeking authorization to deliver pine tar shall file application on Form WPB–2946 (formerly PD–601) on or before the 20th day of the month preceding the month in which delivery is proposed.

(2) Form WPB–2946 should be completely filled in. The unit of measure is gallons.

(3) List individually the names of customers who have ordered more than the quantity permitted for small orders. No such order shall be listed or filled unless the customer has filed with the supplier the required Form WPB–2945. An aggregate quantity may be requested for "small orders" without listing the names of the individuals placing the small orders.

(4) Normally the War Production Board will issue its authorizations and directions for delivery by returning Form WPB–2946 to the supplier showing the amount which may be delivered to each customer and the aggregate amount which may be delivered to fill small orders.

(e) Customers' applications on Form WPB–2945. (1) Each person (including any supplier) seeking authorization to use or accept delivery of pine tar shall file application on Form WPB–2945 (formerly PD–600) on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month in which acceptance of delivery or use is proposed. Form WPB–2945 should be completely filled in. The unit of measure is gallons. Three copies (one certified) should be sent to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–300, Schedule 14; one copy should be sent to the supplier; and one copy should be retained.

(2) Normally the War Production Board will issue its authorizations and directions for acceptance of delivery or use by returning Form WPB–2945 showing the amount of pine tar which may be accepted or used during the month.

(f) Communications to War Production Board. Reports and communications concerning this schedule shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–300, Schedule 14.

NOTE: Forms WPB–2945 and WPB–2946 and the instructions in this schedule and in the appendices of Order M–300 for applications and reports regarding pine tar have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[General Allocation Order M–300, Schedule 15 as Amended Aug. 7, 1944]

GLYCOLS

§ 3293.1015 Schedule 15 to General Allocation Order M–300—(a) Definition. "Glycols" means ethylene glycol, triethylene glycol, and physical mixtures containing ethylene glycol or triethylene glycol mixed with each other or mixed with propylene glycol or diethylene glycol. Special provisions for straight propylene and diethylene glycols are contained in paragraph (h) below.

(b) General provisions. Glycols are subject to the provisions of General Allocation Order M–300 as Appendix C materials. The initial allocation date is October 1, 1942, when glycols were first put under allocation by Order M–215 (revoked). The allocation period is the calendar month. The small order exemption per person per month is each and all of the following:

NOTE: "Propylene glycol" and "diethylene glycol" deleted from list Aug. 7, 1944.

	Pounds
Ethylene glycol	5,000
Triethylene glycol	600
Mixed glycols	1,000

Customers must furnish use certificates when ordering glycols in amounts described in paragraph (g) and must file on Form WPB–2945 when ordering glycols in amounts described in paragraph (f).

(c) [Revoked Aug. 7, 1944.]

(d) Special anti-freeze provisions. The restrictions of Order M–300 and of this schedule shall govern the use of glycols by any supplier in the manufacture of anti-freeze or motor coolant preparations, provided that:

(1) Any supplier may deliver completed anti-freeze or motor coolant preparations containing glycols without specific authorization under this order; and

(2) Nothing contained in this order shall be construed to permit the manufacture of anti-freeze in violation of General Limitation Order L–51 (§3293.11).

(e) Supplier's applications on Form WPB–2947. Each supplier seeking authorization to deliver glycols shall file application on Form WPB–2947. The filing date is the 19th of the month preceding the proposed delivery month. Send three copies (one certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–300–15. The unit of measure is pounds. File a separate set of forms for each kind of glycol. A consolidated set of forms for each kind of glycol may be filed for all plants. In Table I, first list in Column 1 the names of customers who have filed WPB–2945 forms with the applicant and in Column 1a specify "WPB–2945"; second, list in Column 1 the names of customers who have filed use certificates with the applicant and in Column 1a transcribe the uses stated in such certificates; third, specify in Column 1 "aggregate small deliveries" and leave Column 1a blank; fill in other columns as indicated. Leave columns blank relating to rolling stock requirements. Fill in Table II as indicated. Inventory of glycol previously allocated for the supplier's own manufacturing use should not be reported on Form WPB–2947 (but should be reported in Table II of Form WPB–2945).

(f) Customers' applications for authorization on WPB–2945. Each person seeking delivery of glycols in excess of the following amounts shall file application for authorization on Form WPB–2945:

NOTE: "Propylene glycol" and "diethylene glycol" deleted from list Aug. 7, 1944.

	Pounds
Ethylene glycol	75,000
Triethylene glycol	2,600
Mixed glycols	5,000

The filing date is the 12th of the month preceding the month for which allocation is requested. Send three copies (one certified) to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–300–15, one copy (reverse side blank) to the supplier and retain one copy. The unit of measure is pounds. File a separate set of forms for each kind of glycol. In Column 3 specify primary product according to the following classifications:

Anti-freeze (specify military or civilian in Col. 4)
Air for gas dehydration
Brake, hydraulic and de-icer fluids
Cellophane plasticizer
Coolant (specify in Col. 4 military or industrial) Cosmetics
Cutting oils

Dentifrices and mouth washes
Drugs
Dynamite
Foods and flavors
General plasticizer (specify in Col. 4: cork crowns, cork gaskets, adhesives, coatings, glue or other)
General textile manufacture (specify in Col. 4: coupling agent, soluble oil, dye solvent, softener, rayon yarn processing, or other)
Molding and binder
Radio condenser fluid
Synthetic resin or chemical manufacture (identify product in Col. 3 and use in Col. 4)
Tobacco humectant
Wood stain
Export (as glycol)
Inventory (as glycol)
Miscellaneous (describe briefly in Col. 4)
Resale (as glycol)

Leave Column 4 blank except as noted above.

Fill in Table II as indicated, specifying inventory on a physical basis regardless of authorizations or exemptions. However, a supplier who keeps separate inventories of glycol, both physically and on his books, for the purpose of sale and for his own manufacturing use, shall report in Table II only his inventory for his own use. Leave Tables III, IV and V blank.

(g) Certified uses with purchase orders. Each person placing purchase orders for delivery of glycols between the following amounts per month in the aggregate from all suppliers, shall furnish each supplier with a certified statement of proposed use in the form prescribed in Appendix D of General Allocation Order M-300, and describing proposed use as shown in paragraph (f) above:

NOTE: "Propylene glycol" and "diethylene glycol" deleted from list Aug. 7, 1944.

	Pounds
Ethylene glycol	5,000–75,000
Triethylene glycol	600– 2,600
Mixed glycols	1,000– 5,000

(h) Production reports and directions regarding diethylene and propylene glycols. (1) Each producer of diethylene glycol or propylene glycol shall file a report in triplicate on Form WPB–2947 with the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: M–300–15, on or before the 19th day of each month, commencing with August 19, 1944. The heading of the form shall be filled in, Table I shall be left blank, and in Table II the producer shall specify diethylene glycol and propylene glycol and shall fill in Columns 9 through 14 accordingly. This report may be filed separately or may be included in any report filed under paragraph (e) above.

(2) The War Production Board may from time to time issue special directions with respect to production of diethylene or propylene glycol.

NOTE: Paragraphs (i) and (j), formerly (h) and (i), redesignated Aug. 7, 1944.

(i) Approval of reporting requirements. The above reporting provisions have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(j) Communications to War Production Board. Reports and communications concerning this schedule shall be addressed to War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–300–15.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[General Allocation Order M–300, Schedule 19, as Amended Aug. 7, 1944]

POLYSTYRENE AND POLYDICHLOROSTYRENE

§ 3293.1019 Schedule 19 to General Allocation Order M–300—(a) Definitions. (1) "Polystyrene" means the polymers of styrene (vinyl benzene), but does not include the copolymers of styrene with other monomers such as butadiene or methyl methacrylate. The term "Polystyrene" does not include fabricated forms of polystyrene such as sheets, rods, tubes, molded parts, fibers, filaments or coated fabric, and does not include polystyrene scrap or polystyrene consisting entirely of reprocessed scrap.

(2) "Polydichlorostyrene" means the polymers of dichlorostyrene, but does not include the copolymers of dichlorostyrenes with other monomers such as butadiene or methyl methacrylate. The term "polydichlorostyrene" does not include fabricated forms of polydichlorostyrene such as sheets, rods, tubes, molded parts, fibers, filaments or coated fabric, and does not include polydichlorostyrene scrap or polydichlorostyrene consisting entirely of reprocessed scrap.

(b) General provisions. Polystyrene and polydichlorostyrene are subject to the provisions of General Allocation Order M–300 as Appendix A materials. The initial allocation date for polydichlorostyrene is June 1, 1944, and for polystyrene is May 1, 1943, when polystyrene first became subject to allocation under Order M–170–a (revoked). The allocation period is the calendar month, and the small order exemption per person is 100 lbs. of polystyrene and 5 lbs. of polydichlorostyrene.

Small order quantities may be received in addition to allocated quantities for experimental use and also to complete current jobs for which polystyrene or polydichlorostyrene has been allocated, notwithstanding paragraph (p) (2) of Order M–300. There shall be no limitations on duration of authority for use under this schedule, notwithstanding paragraph (v) of Order M–300.

NOTE: Paragraphs (c) through (f), formerly (d) through (g), redesignated, and former paragraph (c) revoked August 7, 1944.

(c) Suppliers' applications on Form WPB–2946. Each supplier seeking authorization to deliver polystyrene or polydichlorostyrene shall file application on Form WPB–2946 (formerly FD–601). The filing date is the 22nd day of the month before the proposed delivery month. Send three certified copies to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference M–300–19. File separate sets of forms for polystyrene and polydichlorostyrene. The unit of measure is pounds. Specify grade or physical form as stated in the customer's application. An aggregate quantity may be requested, without specifying individual customers' names for delivery on exempt small orders. Fill in Table II.

(d) Customers' applications on Form WPB–2945. Each person seeking authorization to use or accept delivery of polystyrene or polydichlorostyrene shall file application on Form WPB–2945 (formerly PD–600). Filing date is the 15th day of the month before the requested allocation month. Send three certified copies to the War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–300–19, and one copy (reverse side blank) to the supplier if any. File separate sets of forms for polystyrene and polydichlorostyrene, and for each different supplier. The unit of measure is pounds.

In Column 3 specify each primary product, or specify "resale" or "Exports", if the polystyrene or polydichlorostyrene is to be resold or exported as such. In Column 4 specify the end use of each primary product, giving military contract numbers if practicable. In the case of exports specify the country of destination and export license number. Fill in the balance of Table I and fill in Tables II and III as indicated. Leave Tables IV and V blank.

(e) Budget Bureau approval. The above reporting requirements have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(f) Communications to War Production Board. Communications concerning this schedule shall be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Bureau, Washington 25, D. C., Reference: M–300–19.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

PART 3294—IRON AND STEEL PRODUCTION

[Conservation Order M-126 as Amended Aug. 7, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of iron and steel for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3294.63 General Conservation Order M-126—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) The term "iron or steel" does not include "tin plate" and "terne plate" as defined by Supplementary Order M-21—(e), as amended, or screws, nails, rivets, bolts, wire, strapping or small hardware for joining or other similar essential purposes. The term does include stainless steel.

(2) The term "stainless steel" means corrosion or heat resistant alloy iron or alloy steel containing 10 per cent or more of chromium with or without nickel and/or other alloying elements.

(3) "Process" means cut, draw, machine, stamp, melt, cast, forge, roll, turn, spin or otherwise shape.

(4) "Put into process" means the first change by a manufacturer in the form of material from that form in which it is received by him.

(5) The term "assemble" does not include the putting together of an article after delivery to a sales outlet or consumer in knockdown form pursuant to an established custom. The term "assemble" also does not include adding finished parts to an otherwise finished article when the location of one or more of the added parts, or the size or type of one or more of the added parts, is determined by the use to which the ultimate consumer is to put the article.

(6) The term "Bessemer processed steel" means steel made by a process, in which air is blown through molten cast iron contained in a converter.

(7) The term "top cut" means that portion of a steel ingot rejected because it is not of sufficiently high quality for use on the order for which the ingot was melted, but which is normally used for some other purpose.

(b) Restrictions with respect to List A products—(1) Raw material deliveries. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of any iron or steel (including stainless steel) which he knows or has reason to know will be used to make any item on List A, any part thereof or repair part therefor.

(2) Fabrication: prohibition. No person shall process any iron or steel (including stainless steel) to make any item on List A, any part thereof or repair part therefor.

(3) Assembly. No person shall assemble any item on List A, any part thereof or repair part therefor, if it contains any iron or steel (including stainless steel).

(4) Finished item deliveries. No person shall deliver or accept delivery of any item on List A, any part thereof or repair part therefor, which he knows or has reason to know was made, assembled or delivered in violation of any applicable provisions of this order as amended from time to time.

(c) Exemption for Army-Navy-Maritime orders—(1) List C items. In the case of any item on List C ordered by or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission and the War Shipping Administration, or to other persons pursuant to the authorization by the Maritime Commission on Form WPB-646 (formerly PD-300) or ordered for physical incorporation into material to be purchased by or for the account of such agencies, the kind and amount of iron or steel required by the specifications (including performance specifications) applicable to the purchase order or contract may be delivered for and used in the manufacture of the item unless List C says otherwise. However, no stainless steel shall be used unless List C specifically says that it may.

(2) Other items. In the case of all articles or parts not governed by List A or C (including those articles and parts excepted from List A), when specifications (including performance specifications) of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration call for a particular kind or amount of iron or steel (including stainless steel) the iron or steel specified may be used.

(d) Restrictions on manufacture when the use of iron and steel is not elsewhere prohibited in this order. No person shall use any iron or steel to make any article or part for which it would be practicable to use other less scarce material.[1] No person shall use more iron or steel in making any article or part than is necessary. No person shall use any alloy steel (including stainless steel) to make any article or part for which it is practicable to use carbon steel or iron (other than iron included under the definition of stainless steel).

(e) Restrictions with respect to other scarce materials. No person shall use as a substitute for any iron or steel (including stainless steel) any material more critical[1] than the material which he is prevented from using by this order.

(f) Disposition of frozen and excessive inventories. The disposition of frozen and excessive inventories containing iron or steel (including stainless steel) shall be subject to the applicable provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 13 (§ 944.34).

(g) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order must be made on Form WPB-1477 (formerly Form PD-500) and must be filed with the field office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates.

(3) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply whether the items are ordered or manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior to, on, or subsequent to May 5, 1942, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating or allotment insofar as any other order of the War Production Board may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided the use of any material in the production of any item, the limitations of such order shall be observed.

(4) Intra-company deliveries. The restrictions of this order with respect to deliveries prohibit or restrict deliveries not only to other persons, including affiliates or subsidiaries, but also from one branch, division, or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(6) Installation. The restrictions of this order shall not apply to the installation of an item or part for the ultimate consumer on his premises or to any putting into process, processing or assembling of the item or part incidental to the installation when done on the premises of the ultimate consumer.

(7) Repair. The restrictions of this order (other than those contained in paragraph (d)) shall not apply to a person repairing a used article on or off the premises of the owner, if the person making the repair does not use iron or steel weighing in the aggregate more than 25 pounds and if any putting into process, processing or assembling done by such person is for the purpose of making the specific repair. This paragraph (g) (7) does not limit the manufacture of repair and maintenance parts when List A permits the making of such parts.

(8) Restrictions on manufacturing in certain labor areas. When List A indicates that the manufacture of a particular item is subject to this paragraph (g) (8), no person shall put into process, process, or assemble any iron or steel (including stainless steel) to make any such item or any part thereof, unless such processing or assembling is to take place in a manufacturing establishment located in groups 3 or 4 of the labor market areas as may be from time to time designated by the War Manpower Commission.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,

Recording Secretary.

LIST A

NOTE: List A amended August 7, 1944.

"A" Frames and booms for lighters of 15 ton capacity and under.
Access panels—except as required by Underwriters Codes.
Accessories, soda fountain.*
Acoustical ceilings.
Advertising novelties.
Air-conditioning systems—except as may be permitted under Limitation Orders L–38 and L–126.
Amusement park devices and roller coasters.*
Area walls.
Ash sieves—except as may be permitted under limitation orders in the L–30 series.
Asparagus tongs.
Atomizers, perfume-boudoir.
Attic fans.
Automotive accessories—except those items the production of which as automotive replacement parts is permitted under Limitation Order L–158, as amended from time to time, whether produced as replacement parts or as original or optional equipment for new vehicles.
Automotive heaters—except when produced as replacement parts under Limitation Order L–158.
Awning frames and supports—except that a person may process during the year 1944, in the manufacture of all awning frames and supports not more than 75% of the amount of iron and steel used by him in making awning frames and supports during the year 1941. All iron and steel used must be from idle or excessive inventories reported to Steel Recovery Corporation or to the War Production Board, or must be scrap.
Bag, purse and pocketbook frames—except when made from material in the inventory of the manufacturer which was put into process to make this item on or before June 18, 1942, and then only subject to the provisions of paragraph (g) (8) of this order.
Balers, paper, for household use.
Ball park equipment including but not limited to:
  Cages.*
  Fences.
  Lighting systems—except lamp bulbs.
  Metal bases.
  Protective netting.*
  Railings.
  Rollers.
  Score boards.
  Screens.*

Pulp, paper, paper products and converter machinery and equipment*—(i) except graphic arts machinery or equipment when its production is permitted under Limitation Order L-226; and (ii) except paper mill machinery as defined in Limitation Order L-83 and container machinery of the types listed on Schedule A of Limitation Order L-332.
Pumps, fresh water—(i) except industrial; and (ii) except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with any applicable orders of the War Production Board.
Push carts.
Push plates and kick plates, door.
Race track apparatus and equipment,* including but not limited to:
  Mutuel ticket machines.
  Pari-mutuel boards.
  Race finish photographic equipment.
  Starting gates.
Racks, display.
Racquets.
Radiator enclosures.
Radio antennas—except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel.
Radio antenna poles*—except on preference ratings of AA-5 or higher.
Railings and barriers—(i) except for industrial use; (ii) except for metal fire escapes and fire towers; (iii) except for railing as may be permitted by the War Housing Critical List; (iv) except for the maintenance and repair of bridges; and (v) except for use in connection with a construction project that has been authorized by the War Production Board, and in such case the purchaser should place the following certification (in addition to the certification in Priorities Regulation No. 7): Delivery approved on Form GA-1456 (or on Form WPB-2774 in the case of utilities).
Railroad rail joint angle bars over 24" in length*—(i) except for replacement on used rails; and (ii) except for rail weighing more than 110 lbs. per yard.
Reading stands.
Reels, cable and rope.
Refrigerator boxes, walk-in—except as may be permitted under Limitation Orders L-38 and L-126.
Refrigerator containers and trays, household.
Refrigerator and refrigeration equipment—(i) except essential machinery parts; and (ii) except for parts other than essential machinery parts when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel. This item is subject to the provisions of the two previous items on this List.
Regalia.
Registers, hand tally.
Rodeo equipment, including but not limited to:
  Animal trappings.
  Fences.
  Gates.*
Rolling boardwalk chairs.*
Rolling pins—except as may be permitted under Limitation Orders in the L-30 series.
Rotary door bells.
Rubber moulds—except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with any applicable orders of the War Production Board.
Rug scrubbing and shampooing machines.*
Safety zone posts, rails, cables and platforms.
Salesmen's display cases and sales kits.
Salt and pepper holders—except as may be permitted under Limitation Orders in the L-30 series.
Sample boxes.
Sand boats.
Scaffolding—except for use in shipyards and industrial plants.
(Scales, coin operated.)*
Scenery and stage hardware equipment* (except lamp bulbs) for dramatic, theatrical and operatic use, including but not limited to:
  Battens.
  Cables.
  Lighting equipment.
  Stage drops.
Score boards.
Screen frames—(i) except for industrial processing; and (ii) except when made from material in the inventory of the manufacturer which was put into process to make this item on or before June 18, 1942, and then only subject to the provisions of paragraph (g) (8) of this order.
Scrubbing boards.
Semaphores, traffic signal—except railroad.
Service food trays.
Sewer pipe, exterior installations*—(i) except for vents and within 5 feet of buildings; (ii) except for cast iron pressure mains; and (iii) except for reinforcing for concrete made from iron or steel in the form of re-rolled rail stock, "top cuts", or discard steel.
Shades, window and roller type—(i) except for railroad passenger cars, street cars, and busses; and (ii) except for roller mechanism on shades for all uses.
Sheet iron or hoop iron packings for cookies and sweet goods.
Shelves for domestic ice refrigerators, as defined by Limitation Order L-7-c.
Shelves, other than shelves for domestic ice refrigerators—except as may be made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with any applicable orders of the War Production Board.
Shirt and stocking dryers.
Shoe cleaning kits.
Shoe ornaments.
Show window lighting and display equipment.
Shower receptors and stalls—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-42.
Shutters, window *—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-142.
Sidewalk scrapers.
Sign hanger frames.
Sign posts.
Signets.
Silos—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-257.
Sinks, sink aprons and sink legs—(i) except scullery sinks; and (ii) except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-42.
Sink drainboards, both integral and removable—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-42.
Siphon chargers—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order M-233.
Sitz baths—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-42.
Skates, roller and ice, except when ordered by a public skating rink.
Skating rink apparatus and equipment.*
Skewers, all types.
Ski racks.
Sleds and sleighs—except runners.
Slide fasteners—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-68.
Slides, loops and slide-loops for work clothing—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-68.
Smokers' accessories—except pipe cleaners.
Snow shovels and pushers, hand—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-157.
Sod lifters.
Spading forks—children's.
Special industrial machinery of the following types:
  Ceramic making machinery*—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-123.
  Collapsible tube filling machines.*
  Cosmetic machinery.
  Coupon inserting machines.
  Cut and monumental stone machinery.
  Milk can machinery.*
  Steel drum machinery—except for export purposes.
  Tobacco machinery.*
Spittoons—except as may be permitted under Limitation Orders in the L-30 series.
Spools, for cord, ribbon or tape—except for adhesive tape and inked ribbon.
Spools for wire—(i) except traverse spools and spools used in industrial processing; (ii) except spools for solder; and (iii) except other spools when made from strip or sheet classified as seconds or rejects, or from idle and excessive inventories reported to Steel Recovery Corporation or the War Production Board.
Sporting and athletic goods—(i) except cleats and spikes for athletic shoes; (ii) fishing tackle as permitted under Limitation Order L-92; and (iii) gymnasium equipment for programs approved by the United States Office of Education. Fully fabricated skates may be attached to athletic shoes without restrictions since the order does not regulate such assembly (see paragraph (a) (5)).
Spray containers, household.
Sprinkling cans, garden.
Stadiums.*
Stair and threshold treads,* household, institutional and commercial buildings—except for fire escape, fire towers and essential industrial use.
Stamped bakery equipment—except as may be permitted under Limitation Orders in the L-30 series.
Stands, all types—(i) except for essential industrial use; and (ii) except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-54-c and L-199, and Schedule 3 of Limitation Order L-214.
Staple removers—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L-73.
Staples—except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with any applicable orders of the War Production Board.

*Maintenance and repair parts excepted.

*The items in parenthesis have been deleted. Their manufacture is prohibited or regulated by Limitation Order L-236 in the case of "Marine hardware for pleasure boats" and by Limitation Order L-190 in the case of "Scales, coin operated."

Starter shingle strips.
Statues.
Stokers, after August 31, 1943—except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with Limitation Order L–75.
Storage racks, racks, cabinets or lockers—except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with any applicable orders of the War Production Board.
Store display equipment and show cases.
Store fronts.
Stretchers, carpet.
Stretchers, glove, sock and sweater.
Subway turnstiles.*
Sugar cube dryer trays.
Sugar holders—except as may be permitted under Limitation Orders in the L–30 series.
Sun dials.
Sun lamps and infra-red lamps—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–259.
Swimming pool equipment*, including but not limited to:
Diving boards.
Diving stands.
Ladders.
Slides.
Table name-card holders.
Table tops for household use—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–62.
Tablets.
Tags and badges, key; name; price; identification—(i) except personnel identification tags or badges where metal tags or badges are required for the protection of government agencies provided they are made with iron or steel other than stainless steel; (ii) except personnel identification tags or badges containing not more than ¾ ounce of iron and steel where metal tags or badges are required for protection of industrial plants provided they are made with iron or steel other than stainless steel; (iii) except metal tags required for identification of livestock and poultry and products made therefrom provided they are made with iron or steel other than stainless steel; (iv) except pin attached or wire attached tickets for price marking of soft goods; (v) except metal tags for marking and identification of metals in its production, shipment and application provided they are made with iron or steel other than stainless steel; (vi) except license tags for pets; (vii) except name, data, identification and instruction plates for machinery and equipment provided they are made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with any applicable orders of the War Production Board; and (viii) except for laundry and dry cleaning identification.
Tanks (strapping excluded) for agricultural use—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–257.
Tanks, storage (strapping excluded) for beer.
Tanks (strapping excluded) for water*—(i) except for use in tropical climates; (ii) except of a height in excess of 100 feet; (iii) except for range boilers and hot water storage; and (iv) except pneumatic pressure tanks.
Tank towers (i) except over 20 feet in height supporting more than 100 tons; and (ii) except over 50 feet in height.
Teapots—except as may be permitted under Limitation Orders in the L–30 series.
Telephone bell boxes—except bases and where required for safety.
Telephone booths.
Telescopes—except for U. S. Government Agencies.
Tent frames and supports.
Termite shields—except as may be specified by the War Housing Critical List.
Terrazzo spacers and decorative strips—except hospital operating rooms.

*Maintenance and repair parts excepted.

Textile machinery—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–215.
Thermometer bases, household—except when made from iron or steel classified as seconds or rejects or from iron or steel taken from idle or excessive inventories listed with Steel Recovery Corporation or the War Production Board.
Thermos or insulated jugs and bottles over one quart size.
Thimbles, sewing.
Tickers, stock.
Ticket vending machines*—except for public transportation.
Tile, steel-back.
Toilet floats, cistern and low water-floats—except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with Limitation Order L–42.
Tongs, for food handling or for household use.
Tool boxes and cases—except for industrial use.
Tool handles—except for power driven tools and hand tools.
Traffic lane markers.
Trailer bodies—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–253.
Transplanting trowels—except when made from material in the inventory of the manufacturer which was put into process to make this item on or before August 14, 1942, and then only subject to the provisions of paragraph (g) (8) of this order.
Trophies.
Truck bodies—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–253.
Trunks*—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–284.
Tub covers.
Tubs, washing—except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with Limitation Orders of the L–30 series.
Turf edgers.
Typewriter mechanism for pedestal and drop-head desks.
Umbrellas, garden—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–62.
Urinals—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–42.
Valve handles—except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel.
Vanity cases—except when made from material in the inventory of the manufacturer which was put into process to make this item on or before August 14, 1942, and then only subject to the provisions of paragraph (g) (8) of this order.
Vending machines for sanitary napkins*—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–27.
Ventilators other than louver ventilators of the residential type, for use in walls,—except when made with iron or steel other than stainless steel and in accordance with Limitation Order L–142 and other applicable orders of the War Production Board.
Ventilators, louver, for use in walls, residential type—except when made from shop shearings or trimmings.
Vibrators, electric—except for industrial use.
Voting machines.
Wagon bodies and frames—(i) except for construction use; and (ii) except for agricultural use as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–257.
Wardrobe trunks—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–284.
Waste paper receptacles.
Watch straps.
Water color paint boxes.
Water stills, household.
Water troughs—except as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–257.
Weather stripping—except for railroad cars.
Weather vanes.
Weed cutters and pullers, including dandelion, thistle and dock cutters and pullers—except when made from steel in the form of re-rolled rail stock or from idle or excessive inventory listed with Steel Recovery Corporation.
Wheelbarrow* (parts other than wheels) except for farm and dairy use; food processing; fish handling; coal yards and mines; for handling chemicals; hot materials, forgings and castings.
Wheel chairs—except frames and wheels.
Whiskey service sets.
Window display advertising.
Window shade rollers. See item "Shades xxx" on List A hereof.
Window stools.
Window ventilators—except for industrial and hospital use.
Wine coolers.
Wine service sets.
Wire parcel handles and holders.
Wire racks—(i) except for animal cages for biological work; (ii) except for industrial use; (iii) except for scientific laboratory equipment; (iv) except for agricultural use as may be permitted under Limitation Order L–257; and (v) except as may be permitted under Limitation Orders L–23–c and L–182, and under Directions to Orders in the L–30 series.
Work benches—(i) except for shipboard use; and (ii) except for industrial use where required for safety.

List C

Note: List C amended Aug. 7, 1944.

Access panels—for use on board ship, on military vehicles and artillery items and where climatic or safety conditions make necessary.
Access panels of stainless steel for radio equipment.
Accessories, soda fountain—for use on board ship.
Acoustical ceilings—for use on board ship.
Attic fans*—where climatic conditions make necessary.
Automotive accessories.
Automotive heaters—where specified for military vehicles.
Awning frames and supports—for use on board ship, military repair units, hospital installations, and military construction units.
Barber chairs—for use on board ship.
Barber shop supplies.
Baskets*—for cooking and manufacturing uses and for ordnance operations.
Baths, steam—for use on board ship.
B–B shot—for training and shot blast cleaning purposes.
Bench legs.
Binoculars.
Bird cages—for carrier pigeons.
Bird feeders—for carrier pigeons.
Bleachers and grandstands—but only straps and necessary fasteners for demountable wooden bleachers and grandstands.
Boat hooks.
Bobbin heads of non-nickel bearing stainless steel—for use on board ship.
Boiler casings of stainless steel*—for use on board destroyers and where required for corrosion or heat resistance on board ship.
Bottle holders—for use on board ship and in hospitals.
Boxes, meter, and covers.
Brush-backs for bore brushes.
Buckets and pails.
Buildings, portable.
Cabinets* for mobile units such as maintenance company equipment (truck mounted), spare parts trucks and mobile reproduction units, and for electrical installations, and as may be permitted under Limitation Orders L–13–a, L–62, L–91, and Schedule 3 of L–214.
Cabinets of stainless steel for radar equipment.
Cable terminals, fittings and turnbuckles of stainless steel—for aircraft and use on board ship.

Stainless steel also permitted but only where required for corrosion or heat resistance or non-magnetic properties.

Canopies, hoods, and supports.
Cash boxes.
Ceilings—for use on board ship.
Chains and cables.
Cigarette lighters—when ordered by the Army Exchange Service, the Quartermaster Corps, the Bureau of Naval Personnel and the Marine Corps, for use by the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, U. S. Maritime Commission, and War Shipping Administration.
Clock bases.
Clothes hampers—for use on board ship.
Clothing trim.
Control levers of stainless steel for aircraft.
Conveyor and conveyor chutes for artillery equipment—stainless steel permitted where required.
Counter tops and edgings—for use on board ship.
Covers and frames, manhole.
Covers, meter frame.
Culverts—for airports, for use outside continental limits of the U. S., and where certified to the manufacturer or supplier as necessary by the Army or Navy engineer in charge.
Cups of all kinds, drinking.
Door stops.
Dust collecting systems and equipment.
Dust covers and enclosures—when specified for military vehicles and artillery items.
Erasing knives.
Pans of stainless steel—for use on board ship and where required for corrosion resistance.
Fences, including chain link, weighing not more than 2 pounds per lineal foot and not more than 0.33 pound per square foot.
Fence posts produced from iron or steel in the form of re-rolled rail stock, top cuts or discard billets, or from idle or excessive inventories reported to Steel Recovery Corporation or the War Production Board.
First aid kit boxes.
Flag holders.
Flag staffs and flag masts—for use on board ship, and on military vehicles.
Flashlights and portable electric lights on fire control instruments.
Fountains, portable, of stainless steel—for use on board ship.
Furniture—for use on board ship.
Galley and mess equipment of stainless steel as follows:
  Canteens.
  Coffee urns.
  Cold storage space on board ship.
  Compartment mess trays.
  Dishwashing machines.
  Kettles, steam jacketed.
  Meat cans and covers.
  Metal sponges.
  Portable water coolers, liners only.
  Pressure cookers.
  Sinks and dresser tops for use on board ship and aircraft.
  Steam tables, warming pans and inserts.
  Stock pots.
Games.
Gates for fences.
Grilles—sewer.
Hand seals for documents.
Harness and saddlery fittings.
Hat frames, wire and gimps.
Hat-making machinery, but only—
  Blocking machines with complete sets of blocks.
  Sets or dies for cutting parts.
Hose clamps of stainless steel—for aircraft.
Hose reels.
Hot water heater tanks and coils of stainless steel—for aircraft and military vehicles.
Ice cube trays.
Incinerators.
Instrument dials and cases of stainless steel.
Ironing boards and stands—for use on board hospital ships.
Ladders, step.
Ladders and hoists of stainless steel—for aircraft.
Lavatories and lavatory equipment of stainless steel—for aircraft and for use on board ship.
Lighting equipment (i) for theatres and recreational buildings for the armed forces; and (ii) of stainless steel for aircraft.
Lighting poles and standards for fire control instruments.
Lockers—for office equipment as limited under Limitation Order L-13-a, for use on board ship, military vehicles, outside continental limits of U. S. and in ordnance plants.
Mail boxes—for use on board ship.
Measuring pumps and dispensers for gasoline stations and garages, including but not limited to—
  Air pumps.
  Gasoline dispensing pumps.
  Grease guns.
  Grease pumps.
  Kerosene pumps.
  Oil pumps.
Mechanical drawing and drafting equipment of stainless steel.
Metal cloths.
Mirrors, hand—for signal use.
Motion picture cameras, projectors and projection equipment—stainless steel permitted for sprockets and aperture plates.
Motion picture screen stands.
Motion picture sound reproducing equipment.
Music stands—for use on board ship.
Name, data and instruction plates for machinery, equipment and aircraft—stainless steel permitted.
Paint spray outfits—stainless steel permitted for nozzle tips and needle valves.
Partitions—for use in hospitals and on board ship.
Partition studs for radar equipment.
Pegs, tent.
Phonograph motors, hand wound.
Phonograph record blanks.
Photographic equipment and accessories.
Pipe posts.
Pitchers.
Plates, light switch, for use on board ship and for artillery and mobile items.
Pneumatic tube delivery systems.
Portable bathtubs.
Pumps, fresh water, for use on board ship.
Pump shafts of stainless steel.
Push carts—for ordnance and combat organizations.
Radiator enclosures for use on board ship, on military vehicles and on artillery items.
Radio antenna of stainless steel.
Radio antenna poles—stainless steel permitted for submarines and aircraft.
Railings—for use on board ship.
Reels, cable and rope—for combat and field training purposes and for use on board ship.
Scaffolding—for use in airfields and other places where use of wood scaffolding is impracticable.
Screen frames.
Sewer pipe for pressure lines in exterior installations—cast iron only may be used.
Shirt and stocking dryers of cast iron only.
Sink drainboards, both integral and removable—for use on board ship and where required for sterilization.
Skewers, all types.
Spools for wire—for combat and field training purposes.
Sporting and athletic goods.
Stair and threshold treads—for use on board ship.
Swimming pool equipment for training purposes.
Tags—
  For marking ammunition and military equipment.
  Identification tags and badges for personnel.
Tanks, storage, water—but only for use on board ship, mobile units, range boilers and water storage, of a height in excess of 100 feet, or for pneumatic pressure tanks, or for use outside continental limits of U. S.
Tanks, water storage, of stainless steel—for use in aircraft.
Telephone bell boxes—for use on board ship or where climatic or safety conditions make necessary.
Telephone booths, acoustically treated—for use on board ship.
Tent frames and supports.
Termite shields—for use outside continental limits of U. S.
Thermos or insulated jugs and bottles—stainless steel permitted.
Tile, steel back—for ladder treads, step plates and use off board ship.
Tool boxes and cases
Tool handles.
Typewriter mechanism for pedestal and drophead desks—for use on board ship.
Waste paper receptacles—for hospital use.
Water troughs—frame and support only.
Wheel barrows.
Wire racks.
Workbenches.

Stainless steel also permitted but only where required for corrosion or heat resistance or non-magnetic properties.

PART 3286—MISCELLANEOUS MINERALS

[Conservation Order M-199, Direction 2]

MANUFACTURE OF ROLLED GOLD PLATE AND GOLD FILLED STOCK CONTAINING MORE THAN ½ OF 1% OF SILVER BY WEIGHT, EXCLUSIVE OF THE SILVER CONTENT OF THE KARAT GOLD, IF ANY

The following direction is issued pursuant to Conservation Order M-199:

This direction tells how rolled gold plate and gold filled stock, which come within the definition of "silver" under Conservation Order M-199, may be made. It places restrictions upon the use of copper and copper base alloy in such manufacturing.

(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this direction:

(1) "Rolled gold plate and gold-filled stock" include only materials of that description which contain more than ½ of 1% of silver by weight exclusive of the silver content of the karat gold, if any.

(2) "Karat gold" means alloyed gold produced in accordance with U. S. Commercial Standard CS67-33 (issued by the National Bureau of Standards).

(3) "Copper" means unalloyed copper.

(4) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy metal in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40% of the total weight of the alloy. It shall include metal alloy made from scrap. Copper base alloy does not include "karat gold."

(5) "Inter-liner" means any copper or copper base alloy used between karat gold and silver or other metal in the manufacture of gold filled stock and rolled gold plate.

(b) Restrictions covering rolled gold plate and gold filled stock. After August 7, 1944, no person shall make, sell, accept delivery of, or use rolled gold plate or gold filled stock, in which the base metal is copper or copper base alloy or in which the copper or copper base alloy inter-liner or inter-liners equals or exceeds 10% of the total weight of the finished rolled gold plate or gold filled stock, for any purpose for which the use, delivery or acceptance of delivery of copper is prohibited by Orders M–9–c, M–9–c–2, or any other War Production Board order. Rolled gold plate or gold filled stock in which the base is not copper or copper base alloy, and in which the total weight of the inter-liner or inter-liners is less than 10% of the total weight of the finished rolled gold plate or gold filled stock, shall not be considered a copper material and hence shall not be subject to Orders M–9–c, or M–9–c–2, or other War Production Board orders relating to copper or copper base alloy, but the use of copper base alloy containing tin for such inter-liner is prohibited in any event.

(c) Application of other orders. After August 7, 1944, the provisions of this Direction with respect to rolled gold plate and gold filled stock shall govern in any case where they are inconsistent with the provisions of Order M–9–c, M–9–c–2, or any other order of the War Production Board restricting the use of copper or copper base alloy. In all other respects, any more restrictive provisions of an order of the War Production Board shall prevail. Particular attention is called to the provisions of Limitation Order L–45 relating to jewelry. No provision of this direction shall be deemed to relieve any person from complying with any of the restrictions of Order M–199.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

Recording Secretary.

PART 1309—COPPER

[RPS 12,[1] Amdt. 9]

BRASS MILL SCRAP

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Price Schedule No. 12 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1309.18 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Brass mill scrap includes all kinds and grades of non-ferrous scrap materials which are the waste or by-product of any kind of fabrication of new sheet, tube, rod or other brass mill products. It also includes any unused sheet, tube, rod or other brass mill products sold for remelting whether such brass mill products are in the form originally sold by the brass mill or have been further fabricated, processed, altered or assembled. However, it does not include any material which meets the foregoing provisions of this definition but is unsuitable for brass mill use.

This amendment shall become effective August 10, 1944.

Issued this 5th day of August 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[Restriction Order 7]

KEROSENE IN PUERTO RICO

Preamble: According to the information obtained from the Petroleum Supply Committee for Latin America the quantity of kerosene that will be available for Puerto Rico during the calendar year 1944 will not be sufficient to cover the island needs. Kerosene is an extremely important commodity in Puerto Rico because the great majority of the population use kerosene exclusively for lighting and for cooking. The increase in the demand for kerosene in Puerto Rico has been caused mainly by the increase in the price of charcoal commonly used for cooking, by an increase in the purchasing power of the people, and by the use of kerosene in many cases as a substitute for gasoline, which has been rationed since 1942. This order restricts the monthly deliveries of kerosene to be made by importers, wholesalers and retailers in Puerto Rico, and it is thereby hoped that an equitable distribution of kerosene will be assured which will make consumer rationing unnecessary.

RESTRICTION ORDER 7—KEROSENE IN PUERTO RICO

ARTICLE I—HOW KEROSENE IS TRANSFERRED

Sec.
1.1 Restriction on transfers of kerosene.
1.2 Exceptions to limitation of transfers of kerosene.

ARTICLE II—REPORTS

2.1 Importer's initial report.
2.2 Importer's monthly report.
2.3 Customer's initial report.
2.4 Wholesaler's monthly report.
2.5 Customer may not acquire kerosene if he does not file his initial report.
2.6 Wholesaler may not acquire kerosene if he does not file his monthly report.

ARTICLE III—PROHIBITED ACTS

3.1 Discrimination.
3.2 Transfers in violation of Restriction Order No. 7.
3.3 False statements or entries.
3.4 Offer, attempt or agreement to violate this order.

ARTICLE IV—ENFORCEMENT

4.1 Suspension order.

ARTICLE V—SCOPE OF ORDER

5.1 Territorial Limitations.
5.2 Fuel covered by this order.

ARTICLE VI—DEFINITIONS

6.1 Terms explained.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1.1 to 6.1, inclusive, (1394.2002) issued under Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89, 421, and 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871, WPB Directive 1, Supp. Dir. 1–J, 7 F.R. 562, 5043, 8731; Rev. Gen. Order 20, 8 F.R. 2516.

ARTICLE I—HOW KEROSENE IS TRANSFERRED

SECTION 1.1 Restriction on transfer of kerosene. (a) No importer or wholesaler shall transfer kerosene to any person who was not his customer during any of the first five (5) months of the calendar year 1944, and shall not transfer to any one of his customers for any one given month more than eighty-five (85) per cent of the average monthly transfers made to that customer during the first five months of the calendar year 1944, unless authorized in writing by the Office of Price Administration for Puerto Rico.

(b) No retailer shall transfer to any one of his customers for any one given month more than eighty (80) per cent of the average monthly transfers made to that customer during the first five (5) months of the calendar year 1944, and shall not transfer among new customers who did not acquire transfers of kerosene from such retailer during the first five (5) months of the calendar year 1944, more than five (5) per cent of the quantity of kerosene transferred to such retailer by the importer or wholesaler: Provided, That if no new customers apply for transfer of kerosene from a retailer, said retailer may transfer for any one given month to the customers who acquired kerosene from him during the first five (5) months of the year 1944, eighty-five (85) per cent of the average monthly transfers made to such customers during said period.

SEC. 1.2 Exceptions to limitation of transfers of kerosene—(a) Transfer in excess of monthly quota. Whenever an importer's or wholesaler's distribution system of kerosene is made on the basis of a certain unit, such as a drum of 53 or 54 gallons, and the monthly quota of a customer is less than such unit, the importer or wholesaler may nevertheless transfer to such customer a full unit. However, the amount of kerosene transferred in excess of the customer's monthly quota, shall be charged to his succeeding monthly quota and no further transfers of kerosene shall be made to him until the quantity of kerosene transferred has been used in accordance with his monthly allowable quota.

(b) Allocation of quota not delivered to customer. When a customer for any reason fails to take delivery of any quantity of kerosene which he is entitled to obtain during any one given month, the importer, wholesaler or retailer may transfer that customer's allocation to one or more of his customers for delivery during the month immediately following, if such transfer will not result in the acquisition by such customer for any one given month of more than one hundred (100) per cent of the average monthly transfers of kerosene made to him during the first five months of the calendar year 1944. An importer or wholesaler who transfers to one or more of its customers the allocation of kerosene which another customer failed to take delivery of, shall notify the Office of Price Administration in writing of such transfers.

(c) Exempt agencies. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to limit the quantity of kerosene which may be transferred to the Army and Navy of the United States, United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Commission for Aeronautics and the Office of Scientific Research and Development.

(d) Director may grant authorizations for the acquisition of kerosene. A person who must use kerosene for the performance of services essential to the welfare of the community or the war effort, and who prior to the effective date of this order was not a kerosene consumer, or who can not perform said essential services with the allotted quantity of kerosene to which he is entitled, may be authorized by the Director to acquire the kerosene required by him for the performance of such essential services. Applications by such consumers shall be made in writing to the Office of Price Administration at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

ARTICLE II—REPORTS

SEC. 2.1 Importer's initial report. Every importer must file an initial report with the Office of Price Administration at San Juan, Puerto Rico, indicating the name of its kerosene customers and the quantity of kerosene transferred to each one of them during the first five months of the calendar year 1944.

SEC. 2.2 Importer's monthly report. Every importer must file with the Office of Price Administration at San Juan, Puerto Rico, not later than the fifth day of every month after the effective date of this order, a monthly report indicating the names of its kerosene customers and the quantity of transfers of kerosene made to each one of them during said month.

SEC. 2.3 Customer's initial report. Every customer of any importer must file, through the importer, an initial report on OPA Form PR–R–198, indicating the transfers of kerosene obtained by him from such importer during the first five months of the calendar year 1944, and stating whether he is a wholesaler, retailer or consumer. If such customer is a wholesaler he shall state in his report the names of his customers during the first five months of the calendar year 1944; if he is a retailer, he shall state the manner in which his sales are made; and if he is a consumer, he shall state the use made of the kerosene. The information given by such customer as to the transfers of kerosene obtained during the first five months of the calendar year 1944 shall be certified as correct by the importer.

SEC. 2.4 Wholesaler's monthly report. Every wholesaler must file with the Office of Price Administration at San Juan, Puerto Rico, not later than the fifth day of every month after the effective date of this order, a report on OPA Form PR–R–199, indicating the name of his supplier and the quantity of kerosene obtained by him during said month, the names of his customers and the quantity of kerosene transferred to each one of them during said month.

SEC. 2.5 Customer may not acquire kerosene if he does not file his initial report. No customer of an importer shall obtain his allowable quota of kerosene unless he files his initial report.

SEC. 2.6 Wholesaler may not acquire kerosene if he does not file his monthly report. No wholesaler shall obtain his monthly allowable quota unless he files the monthly reports required of him by this order.

ARTICLE III—PROHIBITED ACTS

SEC. 3.1 Discrimination. No importer, wholesaler or retailer shall discriminate in the transfer of kerosene among customers entitled to receive transfers under this order.

SEC. 3.2 Transfers in violation of this order. No importer, wholesaler or retailer shall transfer kerosene except in accordance with this order.

SEC. 3.3 False statements or entries. No person shall make any false statement or entry in any document or record required to be filed or kept by him under this order.

SEC. 3.4 Offer, attempt or agreement to violate this order. No person shall offer, solicit, attempt or agree to do or do any act in violation of this order.

ARTICLE IV—ENFORCEMENT

SEC. 4.1 Suspension order. Any person who violates this order may by administrative suspension order be prohibited from receiving or making any transfer of kerosene or in any way using or disposing of kerosene or any other rationed commodity. Proceedings for suspension orders shall be instituted and governed by the provisions of Procedural Regulation 4 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

ARTICLE V—SCOPE OF ORDER

SEC. 5.1 Territorial limitations. This order shall apply to the Territory of Puerto Rico.

SEC. 5.2 Fuel covered by this order. The fuel covered by this order is kerosene.

ARTICLE VI—DEFINITIONS

SEC. 6.1 Terms explained. When used in this order, the term (a) "Kerosene" means refined mineral oil known as (but not limited to) kerosene oil, coal oil, refined oil and gas used mainly as fuel for lighting, cooking, in some internal combustion engines and in the concoction of insecticides.

(b) "Importer" means any person who imports kerosene into the Territory of Puerto Rico.

(c) "Wholesaler" means any person except an importer who sells kerosene to any person other than a consumer.

(d) "Retailer" means any person who sells kerosene to a consumer.

(e) "Consumer" means any person acquiring kerosene for use, including use as a component part of any manufactured article, material or compound.

(f) "Transfer" means sell, give, exchange, lend, deliver, supply or furnish.

(g) "Director" means the Director of the Office of Price Administration for Puerto Rico, any person duly authorized to act in his place, or any person to whom he may delegate his authority to act hereunder.

Effective date. This order shall become effective at 8:00 a. m. July 6, 1944.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 8th day of August 1944.

JORGE L. CORDOVA,
Territorial Director,
Puerto Rico.

Approved:

JAMES P. DAVIS,
Regional Administrator,
Region IX.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Rev. SR 14 to GMPR, Amdt. 156]

WOOD ROSIN SIZE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 4.27 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4.27 (a) (1) (ii) (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Direct material cost per 100 pounds during the first quarter of 1944, except as noted below with respect to purchased wood rosin. In computing the cost of the quantity of the grade of wood rosin contained in 100 pounds of the wood rosin size being priced, a weighted average, based on the percentage of that grade of wood rosin the manufacturer purchased and the percentage the manufacturer himself produced during the second calendar month preceding date of mailing the report required by (c) below, shall be used. The cost per 100 pounds of such grade of wood rosin purchased shall be the delivered price per 100 pounds in the customary quantities and containers the manufacturer is currently required to pay (not in excess of the supplier's maximum price plus transportation costs, if any). The cost per 100 pounds of such grade of wood rosin the manufacturer himself produced shall be the lowest price per 100 pounds f. o. b. plant he charged for such grade of wood rosin during the first quarter of 1944 (not in excess of his maximum price), less his selling and administrative expense per 100 pounds during the first quarter of 1944.

2. Section 4.27 (a) (1) (ii) (c) (1) (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Amount used in size being priced during second calendar month preceding date of mailing report required by this subdivision (c) broken down as follows:

This amendment shall become effective August 10, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 5th day of August 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PART 1351—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[FPR 1,[1] Amdt. 1 to Supp. 7]

PACKED FRUITS, BERRIES AND VEGETABLES OF THE 1944 AND LATER PACKS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment to Supplement 7 to Food Products Regulation No. 1, has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

1. Section 11 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 11. Grades and invoices. This section applies to all sellers covered by this supplement whether the goods are packed by them or purchased by them for resale.

(a) "Grade" means the established grade as commercially understood, for example, in the case of canned peas, standard, extra-standard and fancy.

(b) "Subgrade" means a subdivision of a grade, determined in each case according to the regularly established way, during the base period, in which the particular processor reflected differences in quality (within that grade) in different selling prices for the item. Whether the processor had such a practice during the base period shall be determined from his invoices, and no processor who does not meet these conditions shall figure maximum prices for the item on the basis of subgrades.

If the particular processor's individual subgrade falls into more than one grade, as defined above, the individual subgrade shall be divided according to the commercial grades into which it falls.

(c) A person who purchases from a processor shall not be subject to any criminal penalty or civil enforcement action under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, in connection with the resale of any item for failure of the item to conform to the grade (and subgrade, if any) designated on the invoices, provided he can establish that he relied in good faith upon the grade designation on the invoice furnished him by the processor.

(d) On and after July 31, 1944, each processor shall furnish the purchaser, other than a government procurement agency, at or before the time of delivery, with an invoice describing the item and separately stating its grade and subgrade, if any. In addition, he shall also show the syrup or packing medium of any fruits or berries sold.

(e) Nothing in this supplement shall be construed to change any of the requirements of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, of any regulation issued under it.

2. In the first paragraph of section 5 (c) the reference to section 11 (a) is amended to refer to section 11 (b).

This amendment shall be become effective as of July 31, 1944.

Issued this 5th day of August 1944.

PART 1314—RAW MATERIALS FOR SHOES AND LEATHER PRODUCTS

[MPR 145,[1] Amdt. 8]

PICKLED SHEEPSKINS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 145 is amended in the following respects:

1. The second sentence of § 1314.151 is amended to read as follows: "Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, imported pickled sheepskins purchased pursuant to a written contract executed prior to August 7, 1944 in accordance with the provisions of this regulation may be sold and delivered at the maximum prices in effect on August 6, 1944, Provided, That delivery thereof is made prior to November 10, 1944.

2. Section 1314.153 (a) is amended by inserting after the words "maximum prices for resales of pickled sheepskins" the words "other than the brands specified in §§ 1314.164 and 1314.165" and by deleting from subparagraph (2) the words "or § 1314.164, whichever is applicable".

3. Section 1314.164 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Maximum prices for sales, deliveries or purchases. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the maximum prices at which any person may sell, offer to sell, deliver or purchase certain specified brands of New Zealand pickled sheepskins are set forth below. In addition, the domestic purchaser or his agent may pay to the producer or foreign seller the amount by which the actual charges incurred by the producer or foreign seller for inland or coastal transportation to the present port of loading exceeds the current cost of an identical shipment to his customary port of loading.

The prices listed are per dozen skins, net cash, f. o. b. New Zealand port of shipment, New Zealand currency, conversion to be based on the rate of $3.26 to the New Zealand pound.

4. Section 1314.164 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Buying commission. A maximum buying commission of 2½% of the purchase price (not to exceed the applicable maximum price set forth in paragraph (a) of this section) may be paid by a domestic purchaser to a dealer or broker acting as his agent. Such purchases may be financed by the domestic purchaser.

5. Section 1314.164 (c) is redesignated § 1314.164 (d) and is amended by deleting from the subparagraph designated "Step 3" the words "for the applicable brand set fourth in Column B of § 1314.164 (b)", and substituting therefor the words, "for a spot sale of the applicable brand computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section", and by deleting from the example the parenthetical phrase "(Column 'B' price of $5.50)" and substituting therefor the parenthetical phrase "(spot sale price of $5.50)."

6. A new § 1314.164 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) Maximum prices for spot sales. The term "spot sale", as used in this paragraph, means a sale of New Zealand pickled sheepskins of the brands specified in paragraph (a) of this section, made by a domestic dealer or importer who purchased them for his own account and financed their importation into the continental United States and who sells them after they are loaded on a vessel for shipment to the continental United States, payment by the purchaser to be made not before delivery to him of the inland bill of lading or delivery order.

The maximum prices for spot sales by a domestic dealer or importer shall be the sum of: (i) The applicable maximum price set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, (ii) an amount not in excess of 5% of such price, (iii) the amount by which the actual charges incurred by the producer or foreign seller for inland or coastal transportation to the present port of loading exceeds the current cost of an identical shipment to his customary port of loading, (iv) ocean freight charges actually paid, (v) war risk and marine insurance premiums actually paid and (vi) inland freight charges actually paid from the continental United States or Canadian port of entry to the domestic dealer's or importer's receiving point.

7. Section 1314.164 (d) is redesignated § 1314.164 (e).

8. Section 1314.165 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Maximum prices for sales, deliveries or purchases. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the maximum prices at which any person may sell, offer to sell, deliver or purchase certain specified brands of South American pickled sheepskins are set forth below.

The prices listed are per dozen skins, net cash, c. & f. continental United States or Canadian port of entry, and include customs fees, wharfage and all other charges, except that the amounts actually paid for war risk and marine insurance premiums may be added. These prices are based on an ocean freight rate of $20 per long ton plus 35% surcharge and must be adjusted to reflect any change in the cost of ocean freight.

9. Section 1314.165 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Buying commission. A maximum buying commission of 2½% of the purchase price (not to exceed the applicable maximum price set forth in paragraph (a) of this section) may be paid by a domestic purchaser to a dealer or broker acting as his agent. Such purchases may be financed by the domestic purchaser.

10. Section 1314.165 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) Maximum prices for spot sales. The term "spot sale", as used in this paragraph, means a sale of South American pickled sheepskins of the brands specified in paragraph (a) of this section, made by a domestic dealer or importer who purchased them for his own account and financed their importation into the continental United States and who sells them after they are loaded on a vessel for shipment to the continental United States, payment by the purchaser to be made not before delivery to him of the inland bill of lading or delivery order.

The maximum prices for spot sales by a domestic dealer or importer shall be the sum of: (i) The applicable maximum price set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, (ii) an amount not in excess of 4% of such price, (iii) war risk and marine insurance premiums actually paid and (iv) inland freight charges actually paid from the continental United States or Canadian port of entry to the domestic dealer's or importer's receiving point.

This amendment shall become effective August 12, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

[RO 1B,[1] Amdt. 9]

MILEAGE RATIONING: TIRE REGULATIONS FOR PUERTO RICO

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 1B is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2.4 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Notwithstanding the above provisions, a certificate may be issued for Grade I tires and new passenger-type tubes to equip a light truck which can be efficiently operated with such type of tires and tubes.

2. Section 2.23 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Vehicles subject to inspection. Every person controlling the use of a vehicle equipped with truck-type tires shall be issued a Tire Inspection Record (OPA Form PR-R-534) executed in accordance with the instructions thereon, the Part B of which shall be duly certified and filed with the Local Board, and shall have the tires mounted on such vehicle inspected by a tire inspector appointed by the Director upon the recommendation of a Board. The record must be kept with the vehicle when in operation, unless its removal is permitted by Office of Price Administration order or authorization, and must be presented for inspection at any time to, and at the request of, an inspector of the Office of Price Administration or of any person whom the Director may designate for that purpose. Upon transfer of any motor vehicle to which the provisions of this section apply, the record pertaining to the vehicle, and Parts D for tires mounted on the vehicle, must be transferred with it. The tires, at the time of inspection, shall be mounted on the vehicle for which the Tire Inspection Record has been issued. The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(1) Vehicles operated solely on special gasoline rations.

(2) Vehicles not registered for use on the highway.

(3) Farm tractor, farm implements, road-graders, earthmovers, or other industrial, mining or construction equipment not designed primarily for use on the highway.

(4) Vehicles operated by the armed forces of the United States.

(5) Tires reported on OPA Form PRR-17 by any person required to file such form.

(6) Tires obtained pursuant to section 2.7.

3. Section 2.23 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Time of inspection. The time for periodic inspection shall be as follows:

Type of coupon book issued	Inspections must be made within 2 week period as follows:
S-2	July 31-Aug. 12, 1944; Oct. 23-Nov. 4, 1944.
S-3 and S-4 (except vehicles equipped with passenger-type tires).	Aug. 14-26, 1944; Nov. 6-18, 1944.
S-5 (except vehicles equipped with passenger-type tires).	Sept. 11-23, 1944; Dec. 4-16, 1944.
Bulk (except vehicles equipped with passenger-type tires).	According to type of ration identification.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

4. Sections 2.23 (e) and (f) are added to read as follows:

(e) Every person controlling the use of a vehicle equipped with passenger-type tires shall keep the periodic tire inspection record already issued to the same. The record must be kept with the vehicle when in operation, unless its removal is permitted by Office of Price Administration order or authorization, and must be presented to the Board whenever any of the tires therein declared are replaced by a tire for which a certificate has been issued. The Board shall then issue a new tire inspection record.

(f) Every person who acquires a vehicle equipped with passenger-type tires, shall turn in the tire inspection record of the prior owner to the Board at which application for a gasoline ration is made and thereupon a new tire inspection record shall be issued by the Board to such transferee: Provided, That if no tire inspection record has been issued, the transferee shall submit to the Board a sworn statement from the transferor specifying the serial numbers of the tires mounted on the vehicle, and the reasons for not having obtained a tire inspection record: Provided further, That the owner of a vehicle equipped with passenger-type tires for which no tire inspection record has been issued shall submit to the Board at which application for a gasoline ration is made, a sworn statement specifying the serial numbers of the tires mounted on the vehicle, and the reasons for not having obtained a tire inspection record. If the Board is satisfied that there is good cause for not having obtained a tire inspection record, the Board may thereupon issue a new tire inspection record to such transferee or owner.

5. Section 2.24 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) In addition to the periodic inspection, every consumer who acquires a vehicle equipped with truck-type tires, if such vehicle is not exempted under section 2.23 (a), shall have the tires inspected within ten days after they have been acquired. The Tire Inspection Record of the transferor shall be turned in by the transferee to the Board to which application for a gasoline ration is made and thereupon a new Tire Inspection Record may be delivered by the Board to such transferee: Provided, That if such tires are mounted on a vehicle equipped with truck-type tires for which no Tire Inspection Record has been issued, the transferee shall present to the Board a statement from the transferor specifying the serial numbers of the tires mounted on the vehicle. The Board may thereupon issue a new Tire Inspection Record to such transferee.

6. Section 2.26 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Prohibition. No person shall mount on any passenger automobile or commercial motor vehicle to which the provisions of section 2.23 apply any tire not duly entered upon the Tire Inspection Record for such vehicle, or acquired in exchange for a certificate issued to equip such vehicle, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c), or as authorized in writing by the Director.

This amendment shall become effective as of August 1, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

[RMPR 169,[1] Amdt. 45]

BEEF AND VEAL CARCASSES AND WHOLESALE CUTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1364.405 (f) (1) is amended to read as follows:

1. Any person who has increased production or has actually undertaken the production of frozen boneless beef (Army Specifications) at the request of a War Procurement Agency, and who shows by records covering his production of frozen boneless beef (Army Specifications) for a period of not less than two weeks that: (1) his direct labor costs are higher than the average of the direct labor costs heretofore filed with the Office of Price Administration by representative and substantial suppliers of frozen boneless beef (Army Specifications) and (2) such higher direct labor costs incurred in the increased or new production of frozen boneless beef (Army Specifications) are caused by the use of inexperienced labor or overtime work, may file an application in duplicate for adjustment either of the applicable maximum f. o. b. boning plant price established in § 1364.452 (m) or the maximum price for government contract boning established in § 1364.405 (e) to cover such excess of direct labor costs. Such application shall be made on Form No. 636–590, a copy of which is contained in § 1364.531 of this regulation, and shall be filed with the appropriate regional office of the Office of Price Administration. The Regional Administrator shall, within 21 days after receipt of the application, issue an order either denying the application or granting it, in whole or in part. In no event shall an adjustment be granted for more than $1.00 per cwt. under § 1364.452 (m) or $0.72 per cwt. under § 1364.405 (e). Such order shall be issued for a period of not more than 90 days. At the end of 60 days from the issuance thereof, the applicant, if he desires a further adjustment, shall file another application in duplicate on a form similar to Form 636–590 in which he shall submit his operating records for the 60 day period. The Regional Administrator shall, within 21 days after receipt of such application, issue an order either denying the application or granting it, in whole or in part as he deems appropriate, but in no event shall the adjustment be granted for more than $1.00 per cwt. under § 1364.452 (m) of $0.72 per cwt. under § 1364.405 (e). In determining the appropriate adjustment to be made, the Regional Administrator shall give consideration only to direct labor costs. The direct labor costs that may be appropriately considered are wages paid for breaking and boning of carcasses, trimming, grinding, packing, strapping, stapling, labeling, weighing, utility work in the boning rooms, and other labor directly involved in preparation of the boneless beef for freezing. Applicants operating more than one plant shall file separately for each plant at which adjustment is sought. Following the issuance of an order pursuant to this paragraph (f) the Regional Administrator shall forward to the Administrator at Washington, D. C. for review a copy of the application together with a copy of the order and such other data as were considered in connection with the application. After review, the Regional Administrator shall modify, or revoke the order if the Administrator deems such modification or revocation appropriate. However, the provisions of the Regional Administrator's order shall remain in full force and effect until such time as they are modified or revoked.

2. Section 1364.406 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) A payment by a buyer to a broker of not to exceed $0.125 per cwt. in excess of the maximum prices fixed by this regulation for services rendered by the broker to the buyer in connection with a sale of beef and veal carcasses and wholesale cuts shall not be deemed an evasion if the broker has no business affiliation with the seller, and if the total compensation received by the broker from both buyer and seller in connection with the sale does not exceed $0.125 per cwt.

3. The date "February 24, 1944" contained in paragraph (e) (2) of § 1364.407 is amended to read "September 1, 1944."

4. The words "other than to war procurement agencies" contained in subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of paragraph (e) (2) in § 1364.407 are hereby deleted and the words "other than to contract schools" are substituted therefor.

5. Section 1364.407 (f) is amended as follows:

(f) Whenever used in this paragraph (f), the term "shipment" shall mean all commodities which are consigned to a single buyer as part of a single freight car or truck movement for delivery to the place of business or warehouse of the buyer, other than a consignment for delivery of the entire content of a common carrier freight car or truck to a war procurement agency.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (f) (2) of this § 1364.407, every person making a sale of any beef carcass, beef wholesale cut, veal carcass, veal wholesale cut, processed product or other meat item subject to this revised regulation, shall furnish to the purchaser at the time of delivery a written statement setting forth the name and address of the buyer and seller; identifying each such item sold; setting forth the quantity, grade, including sex identification of beef as to stag or bull, the weight thereof, and the price charged and/or received therefor, including a separate statement of the transportation and local delivery charge as required by § 1364.454 (a) (7).

(2) (i) In the case of any shipment made to a buyer located within a radius of 25 miles from the seller's distribution point, and in the case of any C. O. D. shipment made, irrespective of the distance, each person shipping any of the meat items subject to this revised regulation, shall send with each such shipment, a copy of the written statement referred to in paragraph (f) (1) hereof.

(ii) In the case of a shipment made to a buyer located beyond a radius of 25 miles from the seller's distribution point, other than a C. O. D. shipment, each person shipping any of the meat items subject to this regulation, shall send with each such shipment, a copy of the written statement referred to in paragraph (f) (1) hereof: Provided, however, That if the shipment made to the buyer is commenced before 12 o'clock noon, that portion of the statement with respect to the price charged or received therefor, and the separate statement of the transportation and/or local delivery charge, may be omitted but must be mailed to the buyer on the same day. If the shipment made to the buyer is commenced after 12 o'clock noon that portion of the statement with respect to the price charged or received therefor, and the separate statement of the transportation and/or local delivery charge may be omitted but must be mailed to the buyer before 12 o'clock noon of the following business day.

(iii) Where the shipment made constitutes the entire content of a common carrier freight car or truck, the copy of the statement referred to in paragraph (f) (1) shall be posted in the freight car or truck near or on the door. Where the shipment made constitutes only a part of the content of a common carrier freight car or truck, the copy shall be securely attached in a conspicuous place to one of the items included within the shipment. Where the shipment made is by a vehicle other than a common carrier, the copy referred to shall be given to and carried by the driver and he shall be authorized to display it to enforcement officers on request.

(iv) Every person transferring any of the meat items subject to this regulation to a business establishment or warehouse controlled or operated by him, which constitute the entire content of a vehicle, shall send with each vehicle making such transfer, a statement showing the name and address of the owner, the point of destination and that the meat items are not being transferred to a buyer in connection with a sale. The transfer must be identified in the same manner as required in the foregoing subparagraph (2) (iii) of this paragraph (f) except that the statement with respect to price or transportation and/or local delivery charge shall not be required.

6. The introductory paragraph of § 1364.411 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Duty to identify product by sex marks. The sex identification shall be stamped on all bull and stag carcasses and wholesale cuts. The prescribed sex identification of each beef carcass and wholesale cut as to stag or bull and the grade of each beef carcass and wholesale cut and veal carcass and wholesale cut must appear on the seller's invoice.

7. Section 1364.413 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) Any order issued prior to August 7, 1944, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 1364.415 is revoked as of August 31, 1944, and each Regional Administrator shall notify every person affected by this paragraph of the revocation.

8. The words "other than to war procurement agencies" contained in paragraph (a) of § 1364.415 are hereby deleted and the words "other than to contract schools (in no event shall a war procurement agency be deemed to be a purveyor of meals)", are substituted therefor.

9. Section 1364.415 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Any selling establishment which has established a quota pursuant to paragraph (a) of this § 1364.415, may, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, redetermine its quota for sales to purveyors of meals for each three month quota period beginning September 1, 1944, on the basis of its sales to purveyors of meals during the corresponding three month period of 1942, Provided, That such selling establishment shall fix its quotas for each three month quota period thereafter, other than the period beginning December 1, by reference to sales made by it during the corresponding three month period of 1942. For the three month quota period beginning December 1, such selling establishment shall determine its quota on the basis of its sales to purveyors of meals during the three month period beginning December 1, 1941. Any selling establishment which elects to fix its quotas for sales to purveyors of meals, pursuant to the alternative method stated herein, shall file not later than September 1, 1944, the reports required under § 1364.407 (e) for each three month period beginning December 1, 1941, and ending November 30, 1942. The right to elect the alternative method of computing quotas shall be exercised on or before September 1, 1944, and such election shall be made by the filing of the alternative quota data required herein. After September 1, 1944, no selling establishment may elect the alternative quota and any selling establishment which has failed to file the alternative quota reports as required herein shall remain subject to the quota computed by reference to sales made from September 15, 1942, through December 15, 1942. Sales or deliveries by any selling establishment during the three month quota period beginning September 1, shall not exceed the quota fixed on the basis of sales made from September 15, 1942, through December 15, 1942, unless the alternative method of computation has been elected through the timely filing of the alternative quota computations and such computations permit a higher quota. If the alternative quota computation for the three month period beginning September 1, is less than the quota computed by reference to sales made by it from September 15, through December 15, 1942, sales during the quota period beginning September 1, shall not exceed the lower quota.

10. The first paragraph immediately following the table contained in § 1364.452 (d) (2) is amended to read as follows:

The applicable zone 4 price of each cow carcass or wholesale cut of cutter and canner grade, utility grade, commercial grade or good grade, shall be the same as the zone 4 price of the carcass or corresponding wholesale cut of steer or heifer of the same grade.

11. The first paragraph immediately following the introductory paragraph of § 1364.452 (d) (3) is amended to read as follows:

The applicable zone 4 price of each kosher cow wholesale cut of cutter and canner grade, utility grade, commercial grade or good grade shall be the same as the zone 4 price of the corresponding kosher wholesale cut of steer and heifer of the same grade.

12. Section 1364.452 (l) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) The maximum delivered [10a] price for boneless beef for Army canned meat in each of the following price zones shall be:

Price zone:	Zone price per cwt. frozen and boned [1]
1	$19.50
2	18.75
3	17.75
4	18.25
5	18.50
6	18.75
7	19.00
8	19.25
9	19.50
10

[1] If packed in a V-1, full telescope, weatherproof fiber board box, with a minimum of .100 caliper inches and a minimum dry bursting strength of 750 pounds per square inch, $0.25 additional boxing charge may be made.

[10a] If boneless beef for Army canned meat is sold on an f. o. b. boning plant basis, the seller shall reduce the price specified above for the zone in which the boning plant is located by 25 cents per cwt. and the result shall be the seller's f. o. b. boning plant price.

12a. Section 1364.452 (l) (5) is hereby revoked.

12b. Section 1364.452 (l) (6) is hereby redesignated (l) (5).

13. Section 1364.452 (m) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) "Frozen boneless beef (Army specifications)" as used in this paragraph (m) means beef, frozen and boneless, derived from steers and heifers of the grades choice, good, commercial or utility and satisfying the specifications and requirements contained in "C. Q. D. No. 11 K—Specifications for Beef, Boneless, Frozen" issued March 24, 1944 by the Chicago Quartermaster Depot of the United States Army. Any frozen boneless beef which has been rejected by the purchasing agency of a war procurement agency shall not be sold as frozen boneless beef (Army specifications).

14. Section 1364.452 (m) (6) is amended to read as follows:

(6) "Frozen boneless beef (hindquarters) (Army specifications)" as used in this paragraph (m) means hindquarters of beef, frozen and boneless, derived from steers and heifers of the grades choice, good or commercial and satisfying the specifications and requirements contained in "C. Q. D. No. 11 K—Specifications for Beef: Boneless, Frozen", issued March 24, 1944, by the Chicago Quartermaster Depot of the United States Army. Any frozen boneless beef (hindquarters) which has been rejected by the purchasing agency of a war procurement agency shall not be sold as frozen boneless beef (Army specifications).

15. Section 1364.452 (n) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) On and after August 12, 1944, regardless of any contract agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any boneless processing beef, and no person shall buy or receive any boneless processing beef at a price higher than the maximum price permitted therefor in paragraph (n) (2) of this section.

16. Section 1364.452 (n) (2) is amended by the addition of a footnote 10b to read as set forth below and the reference to footnote 10b to appear after the word "delivered" in the subparagraph immediately preceding the table headnote, all to read as follows:

(2) The maximum delivered 10b price for each of the following items of boneless processing beef shall be:

[10b] If boneless processing beef is sold on an f. o. b. boning plant basis, the seller shall reduce the price specified above for the zone in which the boning plant is located by 25 cents per cwt., and the result shall be the selling f. o. b. boning plant price.

17. Section 1364.452 (o) (10) is amended by the addition of footnote 10c to read as set forth below and the reference to footnote 10c to appear immediately preceding the table headnote.

[10c] The zone prices for ground beef and miscellaneous beef items applicable in zones 3 and 4 for sales by a hotel supply house to any purchasing agency of a war procurement agency are specified in § 1364.452 (p) (3). Any hotel supply house which sells or delivers ground beef or miscellaneous beef items to a war procurement agency at a zone price in excess of the zone prices specified in § 1364.452 (p) (3) shall no longer be deemed to be a hotel supply house and shall thereafter use the prices specified in § 1364.452 (o) (5) on sales or deliveries of fabricated beef cuts to purveyors of meals.

18. Section 1364.452 (p) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Subject to the pricing instructions contained in paragraph (a) of § 1364.451, the maximum price for ground beef or each grade of each miscellaneous beef item shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of said paragraph (a) of § 1364.451 and specified in paragraph (p) (3)

hereof, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in this paragraph (p) and in Schedule II (§ 1364.453) applicable to beef carcasses and wholesale cuts, plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in this paragraph (p) and in Schedule III (§ 1364.454).

19. In the table of § 1364.452 (p) (3), the heading to columns I and II and footnotes 1 and 2 are amended to read as follows:

I	II	• • •
Ground beef, quick frozen and packaged in fiber or wooden containers.[1]	Ground beef patties, quick frozen and packaged in fiber or wooden containers.[2]

[1] If ground beef is not quick frozen, the applicable zone price shall be reduced 75 cents per cwt. If ground beef is unpackaged or packaged otherwise than in fiber or wooden containers, the applicable zone price shall be reduced 25 cents per cwt.

[2] If ground beef patties are not quick frozen, the applicable zone price shall be reduced 75 cents per cwt. If ground beef patties are unpackaged or packaged otherwise than in fiber or wooden containers, the applicable zone price shall be reduced 25 cents per cwt. For ground beef patties, quick frozen and packaged in double corrugated cartons containing 10 or 20 pounds of product which is wrapped in white wax paper and shipped with dry ice to assure delivery in a frozen condition, $1.00 per cwt. may be added to the applicable zone price.

20. Section 1364.454 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) For transportation from the point at which the meat was slaughtered in Price Zone 3 or 4 to a distribution point located in either of those price zones other than another slaughtering or packing plant owned or controlled by the same seller, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, but in no event more than 75 cents per hundredweight.

21. Section 1364.454 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) For transportation from the point at which the meat was slaughtered in Price Zone 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10 to a distribution point located in the same price zone as the slaughter point, other than another slaughtering or packing plant owned or controlled by the same seller, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, but in no event more than 25 cents per hundredweight.

22. Section 1364.454 (a) (6) is redesignated (a) (7) and the first sentence thereof is amended to read as follows:

(7) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of paragraph (a) (1) to (a) (6), inclusive, of this Section 1364.454, nothing therein contained shall be construed to permit a total charge for transportation and/or local delivery from the point at which the meat was slaughtered to the place of business or receiving point of a retail seller, purveyor of meals, war procurement agency, other government agency or commercial user of more than 50 cents per cwt. in Price Zone 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, inclusive, or $1.00 per cwt. in Price Zones 3 and 4.

23. Section 1364.454(a) (6) is added to read as follows:

(6) If the seller is a packer's branch house, wholesaler or hotel supply house, who has paid a charge under paragraph (a) of this section for local delivery and/or transportation, he may upon the resale of beef carcasses and/or beef wholesale cuts upon which the charge has been made, add the amount of such charge up to $.50 per cwt. on sales made from a distribution point located in Price Zones 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10 inclusive, and up to $1.00 per cwt. in Price Zones 3 and 4.

24. Section 1364.454(e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Freezing and/or packaging for war procurement agencies. On sales of beef carcasses and/or beef wholesale cuts to a war procurement agency, the seller may add for packaging or wrapping (U. S. Government Specifications) 15 cents per cwt. and/or for freezing, 35 cents per cwt.

25. Section 1364.454(g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) Peddler-truck selling addition. On a peddler-truck sale involving delivery of not more than 100 pounds of beef in a total delivery of not more than 150 pounds of meats and meat products in any one day from such peddler-truck to any buyer's store door, a peddler may add to the prices specified in § 1364.452 (Schedule I), the sum of $1.25 per cwt. If such sale involves a delivery of more than one hundred pounds of beef or a total delivery of more than 150 pounds of meats and meat products, the peddler may add to the prices specified in § 1364.452 (Schedule I) an amount not in excess of 75 cents per cwt. applicable to the total delivery of beef in the one day from such peddler-truck to the buyer's store door. These additions shall be in lieu of any local delivery and/or transportation addition permitted in §1364.454.

26. Section 1364.455 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) "Hotel supply house" means a separate selling establishment which is not physically attached to a packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment; which is engaged in the fabrication of meat cuts and the sale of fabricated meat cuts to purveyors of meals, including the sale of beef carcasses and/or beef wholesale cuts, ground beef and miscellaneous beef items, variety meats and edible by-products and sausage to purveyors of meals, and in the sale of retail meat cuts, variety meats and edible by-products and/or processed meat products to ultimate consumers pursuant to the provisions of § 1364.416 of this regulation; and which during the period of September 15, through December 15, 1942, sold and/or delivered to purveyors of meals, not less than 70 percent of the total volume by weight of all meats, variety meats and edible by-products and/or sausage and similar products thereof, sold or delivered by it, other than to war procurement agencies. The status of any selling establishment as a hotel supply house shall not be affected where such establishment is physically attached to a packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment, but is not owned or controlled by, or does not own or control such packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment. "Own or control" within the meaning of this definition means to own or control directly or indirectly a partnership equity or in excess of 10% of any class of outstanding stock or to have made loans or advances in excess of 5% of the other person's monthly sales. Any selling establishment which satisfies the definition herein contained and which in addition sells or delivers frozen boneless beef (Army Specifications) and/or ground beef and miscellaneous beef items to any purchasing agency of a war procurement agency shall nevertheless be deemed to be a hotel supply house.

27. Item (vii) of the Table contained in § 1364.467 (d) (2) is amended to read as follows:

29. Section 1364.467 (m) (2) is redesignated § 1364.467 (m) (3), and the first paragraph thereof is amended to read as follows:

(3) The applicable zone price for each boneless or miscellaneous veal cut, in each price zone shall be:

30. Section 1364.467 (m) (2) is added to read as follows:

(2) Subject to the pricing instructions contained in paragraph (a) of § 1364.466, the maximum price for boneless and miscellaneous veal cuts shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of said paragraph (a) of § 1364.466 and specified in paragraph (m) (3) hereof, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule V (§ 1364.468) applicable to veal carcasses and wholesale cuts, plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in Schedule VI (§ 1364.469).

31. Section 1364.469 (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) For transportation from the point at which the calf or calves were slaughtered in Price Zone 4 to a distribution point located in this price zone other than another slaughtering or packing plant owned or controlled by the same seller, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, but in no event more than 75 cents per hundredweight.

32. Section 1364.469 (a) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) For transportation from the point at which the calf or calves were slaughtered in Price Zone 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10 to a distribution point located in the same price zone as the slaughter point other than another slaughtering or packing plant owned or controlled by the same seller, the seller may add the actual cost of transportation computed at the lowest common carrier rate for the method of transportation used, but in no event more than 25 cents per hundredweight.

33. Section 1364.469 (a) (6) is redesignated as (a) (7) and the first sentence thereof is amended to read as follows:

(7) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of paragraphs (a) (1) to (6), inclusive of this § 1364.469, nothing therein contained shall be construed to permit a total charge for transportation and/or local delivery from the point at which the meat was slaughtered to the place of business or receiving point of a retail seller, purveyor of meals, war procurement agency, other government agency or commercial user of more than 50 cents per hundredweight in Price Zone 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, or $1.00 per hundredweight in Price Zone 4.

34. Section 1364.469 (a) (6) is added to read as follows:

(6) If the seller is a packer's branch house, wholesaler or hotel supply house who has paid a charge under paragraph (a) of this section for local delivery and/or transportation, he may upon the resale of the veal carcasses and/or veal wholesale cuts upon which the charge has been made add the amount of such charge up to 50 cents per hundredweight on sales made from a distribution point located in Price Zone 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, or 10, inclusive, and up to $1.00 per hundredweight in Price Zone 4.

35. Section 1364.469 (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Peddler-truck selling addition. Where the seller makes a peddler-truck sale involving delivery of not more than 100 pounds of veal in a total delivery of not more than 150 pounds of meat and meat products in any one day from such peddler-truck to any buyer's store door, he may add to the price specified in § 1364.467 (Schedule IV) the sum of $1.25 per cwt. If such sale involves a delivery of more than 100 pounds of veal or a total delivery of more than 150 pounds of meat and meat products, the peddler may add to the prices specified in § 1364.467 (Schedule IV), an amount not in excess of 75 cents per cwt. applicable to the total delivery of veal in the one day from such peddler truck to the buyer's store door. These additions shall be in lieu of any local delivery and/or transportation addition permitted in § 1364.469.

36. Section 1364.470 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) "Hotel supply house" means a separate selling establishment which is not physically attached to a packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment; which is engaged in the fabrication of meat cuts and the sale of fabricated meat cuts to purveyors of meals, including the sale of veal carcasses and/or veal wholesale cuts, boneless and miscellaneous veal cuts, variety meats and edible by-products and sausage to purveyors of meals, and in the sale of retail meat cuts, variety meats and edible by-products and/or processed meat products to ultimate consumers pursuant to the provisions of § 1364.416 of this regulation; and which during the period of September 15, 1942 through December 15, 1942, sold and/or delivered to purveyors of meals not less than 70% of the total volume by weight of all meats, variety meats and edible by-products and/or sausage and similar products thereof, sold or delivered by it, other than to war procurement agencies. The status of any selling establishment as a hotel supply house shall not be affected where such establishment is physically attached to a packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment, but is not owned or controlled by, or does not own or control such packing or slaughtering plant, packer's branch house, wholesaler's or other selling establishment. "Own or control" within the meaning of this definition means to own or control directly or indirectly a partnership equity or in excess of 10% of any class of outstanding stock or to have made loans or advances in excess of 5 percent of the other person's monthly sales. Any selling establishment which satisfies the definition herein contained and which in addition sells or delivers frozen boneless beef (Army Specifications) and/or ground beef and miscellaneous beef items to any purchasing agency of a war procurement agency shall nevertheless be deemed to be a hotel supply house.

This amendment shall become effective August 12, 1944.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Rev. SR 14, Amdt. 157]

DOMINION ELECTRICAL MFG., INC.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 is amended in the following respect:

Section 6.54 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 6.54 Maximum prices for resales of an electric iron manufactured by Dominion Electrical Mfg. Inc.—(a) Maximum prices. This section fixes maximum prices for resales of the Model No. 242A "Handyhot" electric iron with aluminum alloy sole plate manufactured by Dominion Electrical Mfg. Inc., Mansfield, Ohio, as follows:

(1) For all sales and deliveries on and after August 12, 1944, by the Chicago Electric Manufacturing Company, 6333 West 65th Street, Chicago 38, Illinois, the maximum prices are those set forth below, inclusive of Federal Excise Tax:

	Each
To jobbers	$3.04
To retailers	3.982

These prices are f. o. b. Chicago, Illinois or Galion, Ohio, and are subject to terms, discounts, and allowances no less favorable than those in effect during March 1942 on sales of similar articles by the seller.

(2) For all sales and deliveries on and after August 12, 1944, by jobbers to retailers, the maximum price shall be $3.982 each, inclusive of Federal Excise Tax. This price is f. o. b. seller's place of business and is subject to terms, discounts, and allowances no less favorable than those in effect during March 1942 on sales of similar articles by the seller.

(3) For all sales and deliveries by any person at retail, the maximum price is $6.50 each, inclusive of Federal Excise Tax.

(b) Tagging. To every Model 242A "Handyhot" electric iron which it delivers on and after August 12, 1944 Chicago Electric Manufacturing Co. shall attach a tag or label which plainly states the retail ceiling price established by this section. A statement in the following form will be satisfactory:

O. P. A. Retail Ceiling Price..... $6.50

(c) Notification. At the time of or prior to the first invoice on and after August 12, 1944, covering a sale of the electric iron described above, Chicago Electric Manufacturing Co. and every jobber shall notify, in writing, their purchasers for resale of the maximum prices and conditions set by this section for resales by the purchaser. This notice may be given in any convenient form.

This section shall become effective on the 12th day of August 1944.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

MUSSEL SHELLS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 is amended in the following respects:

Section 6.45 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 6.45 Mussel shells. Diggers of mussel shells used in the production of pearl buttons may sell and deliver "Pigtoe", "Washboard", "Niggerhead" and "Sandshell" shells secured along the banks of the Tennessee River and Ohio River at prices not to exceed the following maximum prices:

For "Pigtoe" shells, 125% of the maximum prices established under the General Maximum Price Regulation, or $40.00 per ton, whichever is lower, f. o. b. river bank.

For all "Washboard" shells: 125% of the maximum prices established under the General Maximum Price Regulation, or $18.75 per ton, whichever is lower, f. o. b. river bank.

For "Niggerhead" shells: 125% of the maximum prices established under the General Maximum Price Regulation, or $62.50 per ton, whichever is lower, f. o. b. river bank.

For "Sandshell" shells: 125% of the maximum prices established under the General Maximum Price Regulation, or $75.00 per ton, whichever is lower, f. o. b. river bank.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1944.

This amendment shall become effective August 5, 1944.

Issued this 5th day of August 1944.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[S.O. 200, Amdt. 2]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

REFRIGERATION OF POTATOES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 4th day of August, A. D. 1944.

Upon further consideration of the provisions of Service Order No. 200 (9 F.R. 4402) of April 22, 1944, as amended (9 F.R. 5960), and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That Service Order No. 200 of April 22, 1944, be, and it is hereby, further amended by adding the following exception to paragraph (a) (1) of § 95.337, thereof:

Exception: Bunkers may be filled for the first or initial icing, except on refrigerator cars originating in Quay, Curry and Roosevelt Counties, New Mexico, or in the Hereford District of the Texas Panhandle (Cochran, Hockley, Lubbock, Crosby, Dickens, King Counties and north thereof), the first or initial icing shall be limited to the amount of ice that will fill each bunker to not more than three-fourths of that bunker's capacity.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective 12:01 a. m., August 5, 1944, and shall expire at 12:01 a. m., September 15, 1944; that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the State Commission of each State specified in the exception herein; that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL,
Secretary.

LEARNER EMPLOYMENT CERTIFICATES

ISSUANCE TO VARIOUS INDUSTRIES

Notice of issuance of special certificates for the employment of learners under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Notice is hereby given that special certificates authorizing the employment of learners at hourly wages lower than the minimum rate applicable under section 6 of the act are issued under section 14 thereof and § 522.5 (b) of the regulations issued thereunder (August 16, 1940, 5 F.R. 2862) to the employers listed below effective as of the date specified in each listed item below.

The employment of learners under these certificates is limited to the terms and conditions as designated opposite the employer's name. These certificates are issued upon the employers' representations that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available for employment and that they are actually in need of learners at subminimum rates in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. The certificates may be cancelled in the manner provided for in the regulations and as indicated on the certificate. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of the certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. G-562]

CONSOLIDATED GAS UTILITIES CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 4, 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on July 31, 1944, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by Consolidated Gas Utilities Corporation ("Applicant"), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, for a temporary and a permanent certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize the Applicant to construct and operate a 6⅝ inch O. D. natural gas pipe line approximately 2½ miles in length, extending in a generally northerly direction from a gas well known as the Ben Gralapp et al. Collinson No. 1, located in Section 29, Township 34 South, Range 3 East, Cowley County, Kansas, to a point of connection with Applicant's existing double 6-inch line in Section 17, Township 34 South, Range 3 East, Cowley County, Kansas, together with necessary appurtenant facilities and a measuring station to be located adjacent to the above well, or in the alternative, that the Commission determine that it has no jurisdiction over the proposed construction.

Applicant asserts that, in order to adequately supply the needs of its customers on its system during the 1944-1945 heating season, it is necessary that the line be completed by November 1, 1944.

Applicant further recites that the gas transported through the proposed pipe line will be used for general service, but principally to supply the city of Winfield, Kansas, and the United States Army Air Base near Winfield, Kansas.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 24th day of August, 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

[Project No. 1903]

CONCORD ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER GRANTING REHEARING AND STAY

AUGUST 1, 1944.

Upon application filed July 20, 1944, by Concord Electric Company for rehearing on the Commission's order of June 22, 1944, authorizing issuance of a license (major) for the constructed Sewalls Falls project located on the Merrimack River at Concord, New Hampshire, Project No. 1903; and

It appearing that the petitioner requests a rehearing with respect to its contentions that:

(a) The finding that the existing power plant is obsolete should be eliminated from the Commission's order of June 22, 1944;

(b) The requirement for a fish ladder should be modified to require its construction only when substantial alterations or repairs are made to the dam;

(c) The requirement that the licensee shall reconstruct the project upon order of the Commission should be eliminated;

The Commission finds that: Upon the circumstances it is necessary and appropriate to grant the application for rehearing and to stay the Commission's order of June 22, 1944, as hereinafter provided;

It is ordered, That: (A) The application for a rehearing on the Commission's order of June 22, 1944, be and it is hereby granted, such rehearing to be held at a time and place to be hereafter fixed by the Commission;

(B) The order of June 22, 1944, be and it is hereby stayed until further order of the Commission.

By the Commission.

[Docket No. G-560]

CONSOLIDATED GAS UTILITIES CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 4, 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on July 28, 1944, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by Consolidated Gas Utilities Corporation ("Applicant"), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, for a temporary and a permanent certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize Applicant to install and operate at its Pitsch compressor station in Wheeler County, Texas, a 400 H. P. gas compressor unit, and water and gas cooling coils and other auxiliary equipment to supplement its principal cooling facilities and other necessary miscellaneous equipment.

Applicant asserts that the installation of the additional facilities in its Pitsch compresor station is required to enable Applicant to maintain general gas service to its existing customers served from its pipe line system having as its termini Wheeler County, Texas, and Lyons, Kansas, due to the fact that the wells in the east end of the Panhandle Gas Field have declined in pressures since the original installation of the Pitsch compressor station.

It is further asserted by the Applicant that it is imperative that the proposed installation of the facilities above referred to commence as soon as possible in order to increase the deliverability of its Pitsch compressor station to meet the demands upon its system during the 1944–1945 heating season.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 24th day of August, 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

[Supp. Order ODT 3, Rev. 12, Amdt. 1]

ALTHAUSER EXPRESS AND VAN CO., ET AL.

REGISTRATION OFFICE AT NEW YORK, NEW YORK, FOR HOUSEHOLD GOODS MOTOR CARRIERS

Harry Althauser and Catherine Althauser, doing business as Althauser Express and Van Co., et al.

Upon consideration of a petition for amendment of Supplementary Order ODT 3, Revised-12 (8 F.R. 1046), filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the president of New York Movers Registration Office, Inc., which registration office was created pursuant to the above-named supplementary order, and good cause appearing therefor,

It is hereby ordered, That the first paragraph of item 1 of Supplementary Order ODT 3, Revised-12, be, and it hereby is, amended to read as follows:

1. The carriers, and each of them, named in the appendix hereof (hereinafter collectively called "carriers"), respectively, in the transportation of household goods as a common carrier by motor vehicle or in the collection of shipments of household goods which will be transported by rail, water, freight forwarder, or air, shall establish an office (hereinafter referred to as "registration office") at New York, New York, to facilitate the movement of shipments of household goods, in the following manner:

[Special Order ODT B-56]

QUAKER CITY BUS CO.

SUSPENSION OF OPERATIONS BETWEEN NEW YORK, N. Y., AND BOSTON, MASS.

Pursuant to the act of May 31, 1941, as amended by the Second War Powers Act, 1942, Executive Orders 8989, as amended, and 9156, and War Production Board Directive 21; and in order to secure maximum use of existing transportation facilities; to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, material, and supplies; to prevent possible traffic congestion, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war; and being satisfied that the fulfilment of requirements for the defense of the United States will result in a shortage of transportation materials and facilities for defense and for private account, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. Quaker City Bus Co., Camden, New Jersey (hereinafter called "carrier"), in the transportation of passengers as a common carrier by motor vehicle, shall suspend operations between New York, New York, and Boston, Massachusetts, and to, from or between points intermediate thereto.

2. The carrier shall file a copy of this order forthwith with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and shall likewise file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on one day's notice.

3. Communications concerning this order should be addressed to the Highway Transport Department, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington 25, D. C., and should refer to "Special Order ODT B–56".

This Special Order ODT B–56 shall become effective August 10, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of August 1944.

HOOPER CONSTRUCTION CO., ET AL.

ESTABLISHMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES AND PRICE CLASSIFICATIONS

Order No. 895 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 120. Bituminous coal delivered from mine or preparation plant.

For the reasons set forth in an accompanying opinion, and in accordance with § 1340.210 (a) (6) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120, It is ordered:

Producers identified herein operate named mines assigned the mine index number, the price classifications and the maximum prices in cents per net ton, for the indicated uses and shipments as set forth herein. All are in District No. 13. The mine index numbers and the price classifications assigned are permanent but the maximum prices may be changed by an amendment issued after the effective date of this order. Where such an amendment is issued for the district in which the mines involved herein are located and where the amendment makes no particular reference to a mine or mines involved herein, the prices shall be the prices set forth in such amendment for the price classifications of the respective size groups. The location of each mine is given by county and state. Each producer is subject to all provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 120.

R. G. WRIGHT CO., INC.

ESTABLISHMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Order No. 264 Under Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended. Machines and parts, and machinery services. R. G. Wright Company, Inc. (Docket No. 3136-460).

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328, and pursuant to § 1390.25a of Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended; It is ordered:

(a) The maximum prices for sales of the dairy equipment listed below by the R. G. Wright Company, Inc., Buffalo, New York, shall be determined as follows:

(1) The manufacturer shall determine the maximum price for all sales, except those made to users, by multiplying the net price he had in effect to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941, by the applicable percentage set forth below:

Item:	Percentage
Coolers	108
Pasteurizers	114
Weigh cans	111
Wash sinks	128
Rotary can washers	125
Straightway can washers	119
Bottle washers	119

(2) The manufacturer shall determine the maximum price for sales to users by adding to the net price he had in effect to users on October 1, 1941, the amount by which this order permits him to increase his October 1, 1941, net price to that class of resellers which received the longest discount on October 1, 1941.

(b) Resellers of dairy equipment manufactured by the R. G. Wright Company, Inc., shall determine their maximum prices for the dairy equipment, listed in (a), as follows:

The reseller shall add to his net price in effect to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941, the same dollar amount by which the reseller's costs have been increased due to the adjustment granted the R. G. Wright Company, Inc., by this order.

(c) The R. G. Wright Company, Inc., shall notify those customers who buy dairy equipment for resale of the amount by which this order permits resellers to increase their maximum net selling prices.

(d) All requests not granted herein are denied.

(e) This order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

This order shall become effective August 7, 1944.

Issued this 5th day of August 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

MEAT RATION CO., ET AL.

ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES

Revised Order No. 4 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 367. Horsemeat. Docket No. N6363-2367-4-7. Establishing maximum prices for sale of "Doggies' Meat Loaf Meal" by Meat Ration Company and other sellers.

Order No. 4 under MPR 367 is revised and amended to read as follows:

On May 25, 1944, Meat Ration Company, 459 Como Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota, filed in the form of a letter its application for revision of Order No. 4 under section 10 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 367. Due consideration has been given to the petition, and an opinion in support of this Revised Order No. 4 has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, the Stabilization Act of 1942, as amended, E.O. 9250 and E.O. 9328; It is hereby ordered:

(a) Meat Ration Company may sell and deliver, and agree, offer, solicit and attempt to sell and deliver, the kinds and grades of "Doggies' Meat Loaf Meal" set forth in paragraph (b) of this order to peddler truck operators, wholesalers or retailers at prices not in excess of those stated therein. Any person who is a peddler-truck operator, a wholesaler or a retailer may buy and receive, and agree, offer, solicit and attempt to buy and receive such kinds and grades of "Doggies' Meat Loaf Meal" at such prices from Meat Ration Company.

(b) The maximum price for "Doggies' Meat Loaf Meal" shall be:

(1) For sales made by Meat Ration Company as follows:

(i) to peddler-truck operators, wholesalers, or retailers, 1-pound loaf, 10 cents; 2-pound loaf, 19 cents.

(ii) to wholesalers or retailers, delivered to their place of business, 1-pound loaf, 10½ cents; 2-pound loaf, 20 cents.

(2) For sales made by a peddler truck operator shall be as follows:

(i) 1 pound loaf, 12½ cents plus actual freight costs incurred by the peddler truck operator in acquiring the product, the total to be rounded to the nearest one-half cent.

(ii) 2 pound loaf, 24 cents plus actual freight costs incurred by the peddler truck operator in acquiring the product, the total to be rounded to the nearest one-half cent.

(3) For sales made by a wholesaler shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 421.

(4) For sales made by a retailer in Group 3 or Group 4 shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 422.

(5) For sales made by a retailer in Group 1 or Group 2 shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 423.

(c) The permission granted to Meat Ration Company in this Revised Order No. 4 is subject to the following conditions:

(1) The pet food product sold under the name of "Doggies' Meat Loaf Meal" must conform to the formula specifications set forth in its application for the determination of maximum prices therefor, filed in the National Office of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

(2) Meat Ration Company shall provide each peddler truck operator, wholesaler, or retailer making his initial purchase of "Doggies' Meat Loaf Meal" with a notice in the following form:

The Office of Price Administration has authorized Meat Ration Company to sell "Doggies' Meat Loaf Meal" at or below the following maximum prices:

To peddler-truck operators, wholesalers, or retailers, f. o. b. our plant, 1 pound loaf, 10 cents; 2 pound loaf, 19 cents.
To wholesalers or retailers, delivered to their place of business, 1 pound loaf, 10½ cents; 2 pound loaf, 20 cents.

If you are a peddler-truck operator the maximum prices at which you may sell "Doggies' Meat Loaf Meal" are:

1 pound loaf: 12½ cents plus actual freight costs incurred by the peddler truck operator in acquiring the product, the total to be rounded to the nearest one-half cent.
2 pound loaf: 24 cents plus actual freight cost incurred by the peddler-truck operator in acquiring the product, the total to be rounded to the nearest one-half cent.

If you are a wholesaler or retailer, you shall determine your maximum selling price for "Doggies' Meat Loaf Meal" in accordance with the provisions of Maximum Price Regulations No. 421, No. 422, or No. 423, whichever is appropriate.

(d) All prayers of the application not granted herein are denied.

(e) This Revised Order No. 4 may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires the definitions set forth in section 14 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 367 shall apply to terms used herein.

This Revised Order No. 4 shall become effective August 8, 1944.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

GEORGIA POWER AND LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 4th day of August 1944.

Notice is hereby given that Georgia Power and Light Company, a subsidiary of General Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, has filed an application or declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

All interested persons are referred to said document, which is on file in the offices of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Georgia Power and Light Company proposes to issue and sell, at private sale, to Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, $2,500,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds, the proceeds of which, together with other corporate funds, are to be used to redeem or otherwise retire a like principal amount of the company's outstanding first mortgage bonds, 5% series, due 1978. (At the time of redemption it is contemplated that this will be the total aggregate amount of such bonds outstanding. In connection with pending proceedings involving the recapitalization of Georgia Power and Light Company (File No. 54–95), provision is made for reducing Georgia's present indebtedness to $2,500,000 principal amount.) The proposed purchaser, owning at the present time in excess of $850,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds, 5% series due 1978, of Georgia Power and Light Company, has agreed to buy the $2,500,000 principal amount of new first mortgage bonds at 103½% of par, and with an interest rate of 3⅝% per annum.

Section 6 (b) of the act has been designated in the filing as applicable to the proposed issue and sale, and an exception is requested from the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said matters and that said filing should not be granted or permitted to become effective except pursuant to further order of this Commission;

It is ordered, That a hearing on said matters under the applicable provisions of said act and the rules of this Commission promulgated thereunder, be held on August 29, 1944, at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held. Any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or otherwise wishing to participate shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before August 24, 1944, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobingier or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearings in such matters. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by such filing, particular attention be directed at such hearing to the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the issue and sale of the proposed first mortgage bonds are solely for the purpose of financing the business of Georgia Power and Light Company and have been expressly authorized by the Public Service Commission of Georgia;

2. Whether compliance with the requirements of paragraphs (b) and (c) of Rule U-50 is not necessary or appropriate under the circumstances in respect to the proposed issue and sale of the securities;

3. Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consumers to impose terms or conditions in connection with the proposed issue and sale of securities.

By the Commission.

MISSISSIPPI POWER & LIGHT CO. AND ELECTRIC POWER & LIGHT CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 4th day of August, A. D. 1944.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application and declaration has been filed with this Commission under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and particularly under sections 6, 7, 9, 10, and 12 and Rule U–50 promulgated thereunder, by Electric Power & Light Corporation ("Electric"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, Mississippi Power & Light Company ("Mississippi"), a public utility company.

All interested persons are referred to said document which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a statement of the transactions therein propcsed, which are summarized as follows:

Pursuant to a condition contained in the order of this Commission of May 13, 1944, in Electric Power & Light Corporation, File No. 70–752, permitting Electric to acquire shares of the $6 preferred stock of Mississippi, Electric will transfer to Mississippi 20,182 shares of such stock, being all of the shares so acquired, and in return, Mississippi, upon its acquisition and cancellation of such stock, will change the stated value of its presently outstanding 500,000 shares of common stock, all of which is owned by Electric, from $2,500,000 to $4,750,000, by transferring to the common capital account $2,018,200, the present stated value of the above preferred stock, $680, comprising all of Mississippi's present capital surplus and $231,120 of its earned surplus.

Mississippi will issue and sell at public sale, pursuant to the competitive bidding provisions of Rule U–50, $12,000,000 principal amount of First Mortage Bonds to mature in 1974, the bid or bids for such bonds to fix the interest rate and the price to be paid to the company. In addition, Mississippi will issue and sell at private sale $2,000,000 principal amount of promissory notes, payable in 20 equal semi-annual installments.

The proceeds of the sale of the above securities are to be applied, together with treasury cash to redeem all of Mississipi's First Mortgage Gold Bonds, 5% Series due 1957, in the principal amount of $15,000,000 at the redemption price of 102½% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date of redemption.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that a hearing be held with respect to said application and that said application shall not be granted except pursuant to further order of the Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on said application under the applicable provisions of the act and the rules of the Commission thereunder be held on August 16, 1944 at 10:00 a. m., e. w. t., in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room in which such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at such hearing. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's rules of practice.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve by registered mail, a copy of this order on the applicants and declarants herein; and that notice of said hearing be given to all other persons by publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings, or proposing to intervene herein, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before August 14, 1944, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of issues presented by said application, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed mortgage bonds and promissory notes are reasonably adapted to the earning power and the security structure of Mississippi and are necessary and appropriate to the economical and efficient operation of the business or businesses in which Mississippi is presently engaged.

(2) Whether the fees, commissions, or other remunerations to be paid in connection with the issue, sale or distribution of said securities are reasonable.

(3) Whether the terms and conditions of the issue of said securities are detrimental to the public interest or the interests of investors or consumers.

(4) Generally whether the proposed transactions comply with the applicable provisions of the act and the rules, regulations and orders promulgated thereunder.

(5) Whether in the event the application and declaration shall be granted and permitted to become effective, it is necessary to impose any terms or conditions to assure compliance with the standards of the act.

By the Commission.

NORTHERN INDIANA PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 3d day of August 1944.

Northern Indiana Public Service Company, a subsidiary of Clarence A. Southerland and Jay Samuel Hartt, Trustees of the Estate of Midland Utilities Company, a registered holding company, having filed an amendment to an application-declaration under section 6 and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, with respect to the refinancing of 220,078 shares of its $100 par value cumulative preferred stock (69,858 shares of the 7% series, 124,505 shares of the 6% series, and 25,715 shares of the 5½% series) as follows:

1. The present holders of such stock will be offered the opportunity to exchange each share of such stock for one share of $100 par value 5% cumulative preferred stock of the company, plus a cash payment in an amount representing the difference between the redemption prices of the stocks outstanding at present and $102, with proper adjustments for accrued dividends upon the stock to be surrendered and upon the shares to be issued;

2. Any shares not surrendered by way of exchange will be called for redemption at redemption prices, plus accrued dividends;

3. Such number of the 220,078 shares of the $100 par value 5% cumulative preferred stock as have not been issued by way of exchange will be issued and sold either pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 or at private sale if an exception is granted from the competitive bidding requirements of such rule; and

4. In connection with the foregoing program, Northern Indiana Public Service Company proposes to engage The First Boston Corporation to form and manage a group of security dealers, including itself, for the purpose of effecting the exchanges and that, as compensation, The First Boston Corporation and the dealers receive certain specified fees and expenses.

Northern Indiana Public Service Company having requested that the Commission enter an order finding that, with respect to such number of the 220,078 shares of its $100 per value 5% cumulative preferred stock as are issued by way of exchange, compliance with paragraphs (b) and (c) of Rule U-50 is not necessary or appropriate; and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice, the Commission having considered the record in this matter and having made and filed its supplemental findings and opinion herein; and

The Commission finding that, with respect to such number of the 220,078 shares of the $100 per value 5% cumulative preferred stock of the company as are issued by way of exchange, an exception from the requirements of Rule U-50 is appropriate;

It is ordered, That said amendment to the application-declaration be and hereby is granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and is hereby reserved over:

1. The issuance and sale of such number of the 220,078 shares of the $100 par value 5% cumulative preferred stock of Northern Indiana Public Service Company as are not issued by way of exchange for shares of its $100 par value 7%, 6%, and 5½% series cumulative preferred stock; and

2. The payment of any fees and expenses to Stone & Webster and Blodget, Inc.; Harriman, Ripley & Co., Inc; and to Willkie, Owen, Otis, Farr & Gallagher, as counsel for The First Boston Corporation and as independent counsel for prospective bidders.

By the Commission.

NORTH AMERICAN CO.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 4th day of August 1944.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The North American Company, a registered holding company.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 18, 1944, at 5:30 P. M., e. w. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter, said declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may be granted, as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of the said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

The North American Company proposes to pay on October 2, 1944, a dividend to its holders of common stock of record on September 1, 1944. Such dividend will be payable in the common stock of Pacific Gas and Electric Company having a par value of $25 per share, owned by The North American Company at the rate of one share of common stock of Pacific Gas and Electric Company on each 100 shares of the common stock of The North American Company outstanding. No certificates will be issued for fractions of shares of stock of Pacific Gas and Electric Company, but, in lieu thereof, cash will be paid at the rate of 33 cents for each 1/100th of a share of stock of Pacific Gas and Electric Company, this rate being based on the approximate market price as of July 28, 1944, the date the proposed dividend was declared. The North American Company estimates that the payment of the above-mentioned dividend will involve the distribution of not more than 75,000 shares of the 1,639,804 shares of common stock of Pacific Gas and Electric Company owned by it and use of not more than $450,000 of cash; and that the payment of such dividend will result in a charge of approximately $2,850,000 to earned surplus.

The North American Company has requested that the Commission enter an order permitting said declaration to become effective or granting said application on or before August 28, 1944.

By the Commission.

AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO., ET AL.

MEMORANDUM FINDINGS, OPINION AND ORDER

In the matter of American Gas and Electric Company, Indiana & Michigan Electric Company, St. Joseph Heating Company, File No. 70-918.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 3d day of August, A. D. 1944.

American Gas and Electric Company ("American Gas"),[1] a registered holding company, Indiana & Michigan Electric Company ("Indiana & Michigan"), an electric utility subsidiary, and St. Joseph Heating Company ("St. Joseph"), a non-utility subsidiary, have filed applications and declarations and amendments thereto pursuant to sections 9, 10 and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 requesting permission to consummate the following transactions:

(1) St. Joseph will sell and Indiana & Michigan will purchase all of the physical property owned by St. Joseph used or held for use in the distribution of steam for heating and other purposes at a price equal to the cash cost incurred by St. Joseph in the organization of the company and the construction of such properties less accrued depreciation as shown on the books of St. Joseph at the close of the month preceding the sale or at a price of $35,000, whichever is the lower. At April 30, 1944 such cost amounted to $191,675.18 and the depreciation reserve amounted to $165,879.44 or a net amount of $25,795.74.

(2) St. Joseph will sell and Indiana & Michigan will purchase a depreciation fund in the amount of $165,879.44 accumulated by St. Joseph in the operation of the steam heating property and consisting of cash in the amount of $56,764.09, U. S. Treasury Bonds with a carrying value of $76,983.94, Indiana & Michigan 7% preferred stock of a par value of $31,000, and miscellaneous items amounting to $1,131.41. Such fund will be purchased for an amount equivalent to the cash therein plus the cost or market value, whichever is lower, of the securities as of the close of the month preceding the date of the sale.

(3) St. Joseph will thereupon liquidate the remainder of its assets, discharge its obligations to its creditors (other than to American Gas) and dissolve, transferring its assets, to consist of cash in the estimated amount of $218,690.85 and preferred stock of Indiana & Michigan, having a par value of $3000, to American Gas in satisfaction of advances in the amount of $222,400.98 and in exchange for all its capital stock having a stated value of $300.

A public hearing on said joint applications and declarations, as amended, was duly held and having considered the record we make the following findings:

Indiana & Michigan is an electric utility company organized under the laws of the State of Indiana engaged in the generation, transmission, distribution and sale of electric energy in the cities of South Bend, Indiana and Benton Harbor, Michigan and adjacent communities. It is subject to the jurisdiction of the Indiana Public Service Commission, the Michigan Public Service Commission and the Federal Power Commission. American Gas is the corporate parent of Indiana & Michigan owning all of the outstanding common stock in which is vested all normal voting power.

St. Joseph, organized under the laws of the State of Indiana, owns and operates steam heating distribution properties in the city of South Bend, Indiana subject to the jurisdiction of the Indiana Public Service Commission. All of its outstanding securities, consisting of three shares of capital stock having a par value of $100, are owned by American Gas.

St. Joseph's operations consist exclusively of supplying steam for heating purposes to approximately 175 customers within reach of its distribution system. St. Joseph does not now have nor has it ever had facilities for the production of steam. It obtains the steam which it distributes from the main header at the South Bend generating station of Indiana & Michigan, maintained by Indiana & Michigan as "secondary plant capacity".

The record indicates that American Gas presently has an investment in St. Jospeh of $222,400.98 consisting of a nominal amount of $1 in the capital stock and a balance of open account cash advances made to St. Joseph over the course of the years since American Gas acquired the property. The record indicates that after the sale of the physical property and depreciation fund to Indiana & Michigan and the discharge of certain current liabilities there will remain $218,690.85 in cash and $3,000 par amount of Indiana & Michigan 7% Preferred Stock to apply on the loan account of American Gas in the foregoing amount of $222,400.98. American Gas will charge the estimated loss of $710.13 on its investment to its earned surplus account.

It is estimated that expenses in connection with the proposed transactions, including all counsel fees, will not exceed $500. The proposed transactions have been approved by the Public Service Commission of Indiana.

Under all the circumstances, we will approve the presently proposed step of eliminating St. Joseph as an unnecessary corporate complexity and the vesting of the title to the assets used in the distribution of steam directly in Indiana & Michigan as constituting an acquisition not detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of section 11 and therefore in compliance with section 10 (c) (1) of the act. The proposed purchase prices and the estimated fees do not appear to be unreasonable and we make no adverse findings under Section 10 (b) (2). We also conclude that no adverse findings are necessary under the other applicable provisions of section 10 (b) nor the provisions of section 12 (c) and 12 (f).

The acquisition by American Gas of the remaining assets of St. Joseph, consisting of cash and 30 shares of the 7% Preferred Stock of Indiana & Michigan, in final liquidation of the latter company, and the acquisition by such latter company of its own securities likewise comply with the requirements of section 10 and require no adverse findings under section 12 (f).

It is therefore ordered, That said applications and declarations, as amended, are granted and permitted to become effective subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 promulgated pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

By the Commission.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD.

SYDNEY PLUMBING SUPPLY CO.

CONSENT ORDER

J. T. Sydney is the sole owner and proprietor of Sydney Plumbing Supply Company, and is engaged in the wholesale plumbing business at 12 Jackson Street, Providence, Rhode Island. He is charged by the War Production Board with violations of CMP Regulation 9A, Direction 1, and Conservation Order M-9-c-4 in that between January 3, 1944, and March 24, 1944, he purchased copper tubing in excess of permitted amounts and sold such copper tubing to unauthorized persons without certification and for unauthorized uses.

J. T. Sydney, trading as Sydney Plumbing Supply Company, admits that in the first calendar quarter of 1944 he purchased 1568 pounds of copper tubing in excess of the limit permitted by CMP Regulation 9A and that he sold such copper tubing to unauthorized persons and without certificates in violation of the Regulation, and further that during said period he sold such copper tubing for uses prohibited by Order M-9-c-4 in violation of the order.

Wherefore, upon the agreement and consent of J. T. Sydney, trading as Sydney Plumbing Supply Company, and the Regional Compliance Chief, and the Regional Attorney and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) J. T. Sydney, trading as Sydney Plumbing Supply Company, his successors or assigns, shall not purchase, receive, sell, or deliver any pipe or tubing containing copper or copper base alloy, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve J. T. Sydney, trading as Sydney Plumbing Supply Company, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provisions contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 4, 1944, and shall expire on December 31, 1944.

Issued this 28th day of July 1944.

DISTRIBUTION OF FOOD STORES TO ALLIED OCEAN VESSELS

APPROVAL OF FORM OF CONTRACT

The ATTORNEY GENERAL:

I submit herewith a copy of a form of contract [1] proposed to be entered into by the United States, represented by the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration, with certain group representatives of ship's stores suppliers for the purpose of carrying out a program for the distribution of food stores to ocean vessels under the flag or control of the United States or the United Nations.

For the purposes of section 12 of Public Law No. 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), I approve the proposed form of contract; and after consultation with you, I hereby find and so certify to you that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in accordance with the program above referred to and in compliance with the terms of a contract the substantive provisions of which are those of the form submitted herewith, is requisite to the prosecution of the war.

"ADIOS"

DETERMINATION OF VESSEL OWNERSHIP

Notice of determination by War Shipping Administrator pursuant to section 3 (b) of the Act approved March 24, 1943, (Public Law 17, 78th Congress).

Whereas on June 16, 1942, title to the vessel "Adios," (236433), (including all spare parts, appurtenances and equipment) was requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended; and

Whereas section 3 (b) of the act approved March 24, 1943 (Public Law 17, 78th Congress), provides in part as follows:

> (b) The Administrator, War Shipping Administration, may determine at any time prior to the payment in full or deposit in full with the Treasurer of the United States, or the payment or deposit of 75 per centum, or just compensation therefor, that the ownership of any vessel (the title to which has been requisitioned pursuant to section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, or the Act of June 6, 1941, (Public Law 101, Seventy-Seventh Congress), is not required by the United States, and after such determination has been made and notice thereof has been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than the title to such vessel shall be deemed to have been requisitioned for all purposes as of the date of the original taking; Provided, however, That no such determination shall be made with respect to any vessel after the date of delivery of such vessel pursuant to title requisition except with the consent of the owner. • • • and whereas no portion of just compensation for the said vessel has been paid or deposited with the Treasurer of the United States; and

Whereas the ownership of the said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States; and

Whereas the former owner of the vessel has consented to this determination and to the return of the vessel and the conversion of the requisition of title therein to a requisition of use thereof in accordance with the above-quoted provision of law;

Now therefore, I, Emory S. Land, Administrator, War Shipping Administration, acting pursuant to the above-quoted provisions of law, do hereby determine that the ownership of said vessel, spare parts, appurtenances and equipment is not required by the United States, and that, from and after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the use rather than title thereto shall be deemed to have been requisitioned, for all purposes, as of the date of the original taking.

Dated: August 4, 1944.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs

[T. D. 51107]

PART 4—VESSELS IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC TRADES

CREW AND PASSENGER LISTS

AUGUST 5, 1944.

The third sentence of paragraph (b), § 4.9, Customs Regulations of 1943 (8 F.R. 8121), is hereby rescinded and the following is substituted therefor:

The collector may give the master a certificate of deposit on customs Form 1370. If the collector gives the master such a certificate, it shall be exchanged for the vessel's document upon clearance of the vessel, or upon its departure if clearance is not required. (Secs. 434, 435, 624, 46 Stat. 711, 759, sec. 301, 49 Stat. 527; 19 U.S.C. 1434, 1435, 1624. E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

The first sentence of paragraph (a) of § 4.50, Customs Regulations of 1943 (8 F.R. 8130), is hereby amended to read as follows:

The master of every vessel arriving at a port of the United States from foreign territory and required to make entry shall submit for inspection to the customs officer who first makes a demand therefor, and shall subsequently deliver with his inward foreign manifest on entry of the vessel, a correct list in duplicate on customs Form 1440, signed and verified under oath by the master, of all passengers on board, specifying the name of each passenger; the age of each child of 8 years or under; sex; whether married or single; location of compartment or space occupied during the voyage, if the passenger be other than a cabin passenger; whether a citizen of the United States; and the number of pieces of his baggage. (R.S. 161, sec. 9, 22 Stat. 189, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, sec. 1, 33 Stat. 711, sec. 1, 37 Stat. 736, sec. 431, 46 Stat. 710; 5 U.S.C. 22, 19 U.S.C. 1431, 46 U.S.C. 2, 158, E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter VII—War Manpower Commission

[General Order 1, Amdt. 8]

PART 901—TRANSPORTATION OF WORKERS

TRANSPORTATION OF WORKERS TO NON-FERROUS METAL AND LUMBER PRODUCING AREAS

Section 901.6 of the "Regulations Governing Transportation of Workers to Non-Ferrous Metal and Lumber Producing Areas" (7 F.R. 8457, 10253; 8 F.R. 839, 4943, 17339) promulgated by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission on October 17, 1942, pursuant to the letter of the President dated October 8, 1942, allocating certain sums from the Emergency Fund for the President to the War Manpower Commission, as amended by Amendment No. 1, dated December 4, 1942, Amendment No. 2, dated January 14, 1943, Amendment No. 3, dated April 14, 1943, and Amendment No. 4, dated December 22, 1943 is further amended by adding at the end of said § 901.6 two new paragraphs (f) and (g) as follows:

(f) Notwithstanding anything in these regulations to the contrary, any worker:

(1) Who has heretofore been transported to the place of employment under a contract of employment which conforms to the provisions of section 2 of these regulations, and

(2) Who by reason of the failure of the War Manpower Commission to provide transportation in accordance with its obligations under the contract, or in reliance upon erroneous instructions or information received from the office of the United States Employment Service of the War Manpower Commission concerning the prescribed procedure for obtaining transportation of dependents or household effects at government expense has, at his own expense, provided transportation for his dependents designated in the contract of employment or household effects described in the contract of employment, and

(3) Who would have been entitled to such transportation at government expense, or to reimbursement for the cost thereof, if the prescribed procedure under these regulations had been observed, shall be reimbursed for the cost of such transportation upon presentation to the United States Employment Service office nearest to the place of employment, on or before October 15, 1944, of a standard voucher setting forth in detail the actual transportation thus provided and the cost thereof. Such reimbursement shall be paid only after certification by an officer or employee of the United States Employment Service that the transportation was provided and that payment should be made; and, in no event, shall payment be made pursuant to this subsection in excess of the cost which would have been incurred by the government had such transportation been afforded pursuant to the prescribed procedure therefor.

(g) Paragraph (f) of this section shall be effective August 15, 1944, and shall be applicable only to transportation which was provided at the worker's own expense prior to August 15, 1944.

PAUL V. MCNUTT,
Chairman.

Chapter IX—War Food Administration (Agricultural Labor)

PART 1100—REGULATIONS RELATIVE TO SALARIES AND WAGES OF AGRICULTURAL LABOR

ESTABLISHMENT OF WAGE CEILINGS

The regulations relative to salaries and wages of agricultural labor issued by the War Food Administrator on January 17, 1944 (9 F.R. 655) and amended on June 1, 1944 (9 F.R. 6011) and on July 1, 1944 (9 F.R. 7378) are hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 1100.8 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1100.8 Procedure for recommending establishment of wage ceilings. Whenever it is requested in writing, by petition or otherwise, by a majority of the producers of any commodity in a particular area which would be affected by a specific wage ceiling regulation relative to that particular commodity and area, the wage board having jurisdiction over that area shall hold a public hearing for the purpose of aiding the Administrator in establishing a specific wage ceiling regulation, as described in § 1100.7 hereof, Provided, however, That a wage board may, without receiving such a prior request from such producers, hold a hearing for the purpose of establishing such a specific wage ceiling regulation, if, after such a hearing and before the wage board recommends a particular specific wage ceiling regulation to the Administration, a majority of such producers request in writing a specific wage ceiling regulation for such commodity in such area.

For the purpose of such a hearing a member of the staff of the Office of Labor, sitting as a non-voting member of the board, may be appointed. The board shall give public notice of such hearing at least three days prior to the hearing. Such public notice shall be given by posting in prominent places in the area to be affected, and by publication in local newspapers of general circulation. The hearing shall be conducted by two or more members of the board as the board shall direct. The hearing shall be informal. Testimony shall be taken concerning the type of work to be controlled, the exact areas to be subject to control, the crop or crops to be affected, the wage rates paid, and all related matters relative to the establishment of a wage ceiling. All interested persons may appear and testify. A transcript of the record shall be kept. The presiding officer shall open the hearing with a statement of its purpose and the rules which will govern. As soon as possible after the hearing is concluded, the board shall prepare its recommendations (which must be approved by at least a majority of the board) as to the type of employment, wage rates to be paid, crop or crops to be affected, the extent of the area to be subject to control, and other related matters, and forward the report together with the transcript of the hearing to the Administrator. Neither the testimony received nor the recommendations of the board are binding upon the Administrator in establishing a specific wage ceiling regulation. Any interested person may file a petition for reconsideration of a specific wage ceiling regulation with the wage board administering the regulation or with the Administrator. If such petition is filed with a wage board, such board shall forward the petition together with its recommendations to the Administrator.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter VI—Selective Service System

[Amdt. 251, 2d Ed.]

PART 619—CANCELLATION OF REGISTRATION

Pursuant to authority contained in the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, Selective Service Regulations, Second Edition, are hereby amended in the following respect:

Amend the regulations by adding a new part to be known as Part 619 to read as follows:

Sec. DUPLICATE REGISTRATIONS

619.1 Cancellation when registrant inducted.
619.2 Cancellation when registrant found unacceptable for service.
619.3 Cancellation when registrant enlisted or inducted while registered with another local board.
619.4 Cancellation when registrant improperly registered.
619.5 Cancellation when registrant prosecuted and convicted for delinquency.
619.6 Notification to State Director of Selective Service.

CANCELLATION BY DIRECTOR OF SELECTIVE SERVICE

619.11 When cancellation authorized by Director of Selective Service.

AUTHORITY: §§ 619.1 to 619.11, inclusive, issued under 54 Stat. 885, as amended; 50 U.S.C. App., and Sup. 301–318.

DUPLICATE REGISTRATIONS

§ 619.1 Cancellation when registrant inducted. If a registrant who is registered with two or more local boards has responded to an Order to Report for Induction (Form 150) and has been inducted from one of such local boards, the other local board or local boards with which he is registered, upon learning of his induction, shall (1) cancel his registration and write across the face of his Registration Card (Form 1) "Cancelled — Duplicate Registration — Inducted Local Board No. _____ (identify the local board from which inducted) Date _____," (2) take up and cancel the Registration Certificate (Form 2) if issued and available, and (3) report the cancellation on Local Board Action Report (Form 110). The cancelled Registration Card (Form 1) and Registration Certificate (Form 2) shall be retained in the files of the local board which cancels them, but the remainder of the registrant's file shall be transmitted to the local board from which he was inducted for inclusion in the registrant's Cover Sheet (Form 53) with that local board.

§ 619.2 Cancellation when registrant found unacceptable for service. If a registrant who is registered with two or more local boards has responded to an Order to Report—Preinduction Physical Examination (Form 215) or to an Order to Report for Induction (Form 150) from one of such local boards and has been found disqualified for military service, the other local board or local boards with which he is registered, upon learning of his rejection for service, shall (1) cancel his registration and write across the face of his Registration Card (Form 1) "Cancelled — Duplicate Registration — Delivered Local Board No. _____ (identify the local board which delivered him) Date _____, and Rejected," (2) take up and cancel the Registration Certificate (Form 2) if issued and available, and (3) report the cancellation on Local Board Action Report (Form 110). The cancelled Registration Card (Form 1) and Registration Certificate (Form 2) shall be retained in the files of the local board which cancels them, but the remainder of the registrant's file shall be transmitted to the local board from which he was delivered and rejected for inclusion in the registrant's Cover Sheet (Form 53) with that local board.

§ 619.3 Cancellation when registrant enlisted or inducted while registered with another local board. If a registrant enlists or is inducted in the armed forces while registered with one local board and, upon being separated from the armed forces, registers with another local board or local boards, the local board or local boards with which he registered after being separated from the armed forces, upon learning that he had enlisted or been inducted while registered with another local board, shall (1) cancel his registration and write across the face of his Registration Card (Form 1) "Cancelled—Duplicate Registration—Enlisted (or Inducted) Local Board No. _____ (identify the local board with which he was registered when enlisted or inducted) Date _____," (2) take up and cancel the Registration Certificate (Form 2) if issued and available, and (3) report the cancellation on Local Board Action Report (Form 110). The cancelled Registration Card (Form 1) and Registration Certificate (Form 2) shall be retained in the files of the local board which cancels them, but the remainder of the registrant's file shall be transmitted to the local board with which he was registered when he enlisted or was inducted for inclusion in the registrant's Cover Sheet (Form 53) with that local board.

§ 619.4 Cancellation when registrant improperly registered. If a registrant has registered improperly with a local board at a time when he was not required by law to present himself for and submit to registration and such registrant subsequently registers properly with another local board which has jurisdiction over his place of residence at a time when he is required by law to present himself for and submit to registration, the local board with which he registered improperly, upon learning that such registration was improper and that he has properly registered with another local board, shall (1) cancel his registration and write across the face of his Registration Card (Form 1) "Cancelled—Duplicate Registration—Improperly Registered—Properly Registered Local Board No. _____ (identify the local board at which he has properly registered) Date _____," (2) take up and cancel the Registration Certificate (Form 2) if issued and available, and (3) report the cancellation on Local Board Action Report (Form 110). The cancelled Registration Card (Form 1) and Registration Certificate (Form 2) shall be retained in the files of the local board which cancels them, but the remainder of the registrant's file shall be transmitted to the local board at which he is properly registered for inclusion in the registrant's Cover Sheet (Form 53) with that local board.

§ 619.5 Cancellation when registrant prosecuted and convicted for delinquency. If a registrant who is registered with two or more local boards has become delinquent with one such local board and has been prosecuted and convicted for such delinquency, the other local board or local boards with which he is registered, upon learning of his prosecution and conviction, shall (1) cancel his registration and write across the face of his Registration Card (Form 1) "Cancelled—Prosecuted and Convicted for Delinquency from Local Board No. _____ (identify the local board from which he was prosecuted and convicted) Date _____," (2) take up and cancel the Registration Certificate (Form 2) if issued and available, and (3) report the cancellation on Local Board Action Report (Form 110). The cancelled Registration Card (Form 1) and Registration Certificate (Form 2) shall be retained in the files of the local board which cancels them, but the remainder of the registrant's file shall be transmitted to the local board from which he was prosecuted and convicted for inclusion in the registrant's Cover Sheet (Form 53) with that local board.

§ 619.6 Notification to State Director of Selective Service. A local board shall report immediately to the State Director of Selective Service its action in cancelling the registration of a registrant under any of the foregoing sections of this part of these regulations, and such action shall constitute a determination by the local board subject to appeal under § 627.1.

CANCELLATION BY DIRECTOR OF SELECTIVE SERVICE

§ 619.11 When cancellation authorized by Director of Selective Service. The Director of Selective Service may authorize the cancellation by a local board of the registration of any person whenever the Director of Selective Service determines that such registrant is either a person not required by law to be registered or a person properly registered with another local board. The local board so authorized shall (1) cancel the registration of such registrant and write across the face of his Registration Card (Form 1) "Cancelled—Authorized by Director—(if registered with another local board, so state and identify such local board) Date _____," (2) take up and cancel the Registration Certificate (Form 2) if issued and available, (3) report the cancellation on Local Board Action Report (Form 110), and (4) retain the entire file of the registrant unless specifically instructed by the Director of Selective Service to transmit such file, or some portion thereof, to another local board with which the registrant has also registered.

The foregoing amendment to the Selective Service regulations shall be effective within the continental United States immediately upon the filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register and shall be effective outside the continental limits of the United States on the 30th day after the date of filing hereof with the Division of the Federal Register.

LEWIS B. HERSHEY, Director.

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-527, Amdt. 2]

BLOOMFIELD MFG. CO.

Upon further consideration of the appeal of the Bloomfield Manufacturing Company, the Chief Compliance Commissioner has directed that Suspension Order No. S-527, as amended June 17, 1944, be amended. In view of the foregoing: It is hereby ordered that:

Section 1010.527 Suspension Order No. S-527, issued April 25, 1944, as amended June 17, 1944, be and hereby is amended, by striking out paragraph (f) and substituting therefor the following:

(f) The provisions of this suspension order shall not apply to contracts or purchase orders bearing preference ratings of AA-1 or higher.

Issued this 7th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 1044—CADMIUM

[General Preference Order M-65, as Amended Aug. 8, 1944]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of cadmium for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1044.1 General Preference Order M-65—(a) Scope of this order. This order controls deliveries of cadmium from a producer or distributor. No producer or distributor shall deliver cadmium to any person, and no person shall accept delivery of cadmium from any producer or distributor, except as provided in this order. The order also restricts the use which may be made of cadmium or cadmium products. The permitted uses will be found listed below in paragraphs (d) and (e).

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Cadmium" means all grades of metallic cadmium, oxide, or plating salts produced directly from ores, concentrates or other primary materials, or redistilled or remelted from cadmium scrap or any secondary cadmium-bearing material; or cadmium-bearing materials suitable for the manufacture of pigments.

(2) "Cadmium product" means an electroplated coating of cadmium.

(3) "Distributor" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying cadmium and selling the same in forms suitable for general fabrication or electroplating. It also includes laboratory supply houses to the extent they are engaged in buying and selling cadmium in any form to laboratories.

(c) Deliveries of cadmium. Producers and distributors may deliver cadmium, and persons may accept delivery of cadmium from a producer or distributor in the following cases only:

(1) Small order delivery. Deliveries of cadmium from a producer or distributor may be made and accepted without the necessity of obtaining any specific authorization from the War Production Board if (i) The delivery in question, combined with all other deliveries of cadmium to the purchaser during that calendar month, from whatever source, will not aggregate more than 100 pounds of contained cadmium; (ii) The purchaser has not requested from the War Production Board authorization for that particular month to accept delivery of cadmium in any quantity—see paragraph (c) (5) below (a request to the War Production Board shall be deemed a request within the meaning of this paragraph, regardless of whether it has been granted or denied); (iii) The cadmium purchased will be used only as permitted in paragraphs (d) and (e) of this order and not for resale; (iv) The inventory of the purchaser is not, and will not upon acceptance of the delivery become, in excess of a 30-day supply on the basis of his current method and rate of operation; and (v) The producer or distributor may make deliveries without any specific authorization from the War Production Board unless he knows or has reason to believe, that the delivery will be in violation of this paragraph (c) (1) or that the cadmium delivered is to be used in violation of the restrictions of this or other applicable orders of the War Production Board.

(2) Deliveries to distributors. Deliveries of cadmium may be made to and accepted by distributors.

(3) Deliveries to Metals Reserve Company. Deliveries of cadmium may be made to and accepted by Metals Reserve Company for the sole purpose of stockpiling or redistribution.

(4) Deliveries to laboratories. Deliveries of cadmium may be made to and accepted by laboratories.

(5) WPB Authorization. Other deliveries of cadmium may be made only on specific authorization of the War Production Board and in accordance with an authorization certificate issued by the War Production Board on Form WPB-945. Deliveries so specifically authorized shall take precedence over any preference rating which may be assigned to deliveries on other contract or orders. Authorization certificates will be issued on or about the first of each month for this purpose: An authorization certificate will authorize the holder to accept from a producer or distributor deliveries of specified amounts of cadmium shipped during the month for which the certificate is issued. The producer or distributor may ship on notification from the purchaser of the date and serial number of the authorization certificate. Any person wishing to apply for an authorization certificate should file an application on Form WPB-945 not later than the fifteenth day of the month preceding the month in which the authorization to purchase is desired.

(d) Restrictions on the use of cadmium. No person may use in any fashion any cadmium except for one or more of the following purposes, and then only to the extent necessary to meet applicable specifications or for the proper service performance of the end product, and to maintain a thirty-day supply of the cadmium containing item on the basis of current rate of deliveries for permitted uses. No person who uses cadmium may deliver the cadmium containing item to any person except on receipt by him, directly or through a dealer, from the person who will receive delivery of the cadmium containing item, of a certification substantially in the form prescribed by Priorities Regulation No. 7 that the cadmium containing item to be delivered will be used for one or more of the following purposes:

(1) For the manufacture of pigments for the following:

Luminescent paint for military uses
Luminescent printing ink for military uses
Luminescent paper for military uses
Luminescent plastic for military uses
Signal and illuminating glass ware for safety, religious, military and industrial uses only Thermometer tubing
Rubber sea buoys
Dental rubber
Artist's colors
X-ray fluoroscopic screens for medical purposes
Luminescent glass for cathode ray tubes.

(2) For the manufacture of silver brazing alloys containing no more than 11% by weight of cadmium to be used for military and industrial purposes to the extent that the use of a less critical material is impracticable except that silver brazing alloys containing up to 19% may be manufactured for applications specifically required by the Armed Services and for identical industrial applications.

(3) For the manufacture of copper base alloys containing no more than 1¼% by weight of cadmium for the following:

(i) Current carrying parts of electrical current interruption devices to the extent that sufficient contact pressure cannot be maintained in service with other less critical materials.

(ii) Parts inside electronic tubes.

(iii) Resistance welding electrodes.

(iv) Overhead electrical contact wire for repair and replacement in railway, street car and trolley bus systems.

(v) Multistrand railroad signal bond wire.

(vi) Shunt wire leads for motors and generators.

(vii) Flexible terminals of resistors, condensers and field coils.

(4) For the manufacture of bearings for the following:

(i) Internal combustion engines for the propulsion of naval vessels when specifically required by the U. S. Navy.

(ii) In radio and radar equipment.

(5) For the manufacture of low melting point alloys for the following:

(i) On dry type rectifier elements.

(ii) In fire protective systems, safety devices and electrical fuses.

NOTE: Subdivisions (iii) and (iv), formerly (iv) and (vi), redesignated, and former subdivisions (iii) and (v) deleted Aug. 8, 1944.

(iii) Plugs for screwless fasteners in rimless metal spectacles.

(iv) Dental use.

(6) For the manufacture of low melting point alloys containing no more than 10% by weight of cadmium for the following:

(i) In plastic fire control instruments for the mounting of optics.

(ii) Seals between brass and glass parts of liquid high voltage fuses.

(iii) In the manufacture of inspection gauges.

(iv) Bending of thin wall tubes.

(v) Bending of finished roll-formed and extruded shapes.

(7) For the manufacture of low melting point alloys containing no more than 6.5% by weight of cadmium for the following:

(i) Anchorage for bushings in drill jigs and punch press dies.

(ii) Location of control points and surfaces (except floor grouting) in construction of fixtures.

(8) For the manufacture of zinc base alloy, containing no more than .5% by weight of cadmium, for rolling.

(9) For the manufacture of type metal containing no more than .5% by weight of cadmium.

NOTE: Paragraphs (10) through (17) formerly (6) through (13) redesignated Aug. 8, 1944.

(10) For the manufacture of a lead base alloy containing no more than 3% by weight of cadmium for the coating of copper wire;

(11) For the manufacture of any cadmium product permitted by paragraph (e).

(12) For the manufacture of items classified as secret, to the extent that certification of engineering necessity issued by the Armed Services has been filed with the first request for allocation for this use on Form WPB–945.

(13) For the manufacture of standard cells.

(14) For the manufacture of electrolytic testers for storage batteries.

(15) For the manufacture of cadmium impregnated carbon or of cadmium-silver alloys for use as contacts in electric current interruption devices.

(16) For use in laboratories for research, control, analysis, assaying, or educational work.

(17) For the manufacture of cadmium chemicals.

(e) Restrictions on the use of cadmium products. No person may use in any fashion any cadmium product except as permitted in subparagraphs (1) to (22), and then only to the extent necessary to meet applicable specifications or for the proper service performance of the end product:

(1) On functional parts which in service are subjected to frequent and extended periods of alternate immersion in sea water or wet spray of sea water to the extent that other finishes cannot be used for reasons of close tolerance or performance;

(2) On heddles and pin boards used in textile plants to the extent that corrosive action makes the use of other materials impracticable;

(3) On ferrous hardware parts in direct contact with fabric or leather when used on the following:

Aircraft parachutes.
Aircraft safety belts.
Aircraft shoulder harnesses.
Aircraft bomb slings.

(4) On moving parts which require close tolerances for proper functioning and on parts adjacent to such moving parts, to the extent that the tolerances cannot be maintained in service with other finishes because of mechanical or electrical interference by the products of corrosion or wear.

(5) On electric controllers and switches incorporated into underground mining machinery as required by the safety regulations of the Bureau of Mines;

(6) On the following ferrous parts which in service reach a temperature of 500° F. or higher and on parts in contact with such ferrous parts:

(i) Aircraft parts requiring corrosion protection;

(ii) Functional parts subject to the combined effect of corrosion and stress.

(7) On parts which serve to maintain an electrical contact for the suppression of radio interference to the extent that one of the contacted surfaces is aluminum, magnesium or their alloys;

(8) On electrical contact parts of aircraft ignition harnesses and propeller hubs;

(9) On parts of electrical equipment to the extent that they, for performance reasons, must be soldered with the use of noncorrosive fluxes and other finishes do not provide required corrosion protection.

(10) On the following parts of electronic equipment when required by the Armed Services, the Maritime Commission and War Shipping Administration:

(i) Surfaces involved in unsoldered butt joints which must remain constant in electrical and radio frequency resistance or both.

(ii) Surfaces which require good conductivity for radio frequency current.

(iii) Non-ferrous parts in contact with aluminum parts for prevention of electrolytic corrosion.

(11) On ferrous nuts, bolts, machine screws and washers for use in aircraft except for self-locking nuts designed for application below 250° F;

(12) On nuts, bolts, machine screws and studs having threads ⅝ inch diameter and smaller and/or having sixteen or more threads per inch for use by the United States Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration and for use by the United States Army in ship construction.

(13) On parts subject to frictional contact at least one of which is a moving part, to the extent that other finishes of required thickness and corrosion protective value cause gouging, seizure or binding.

(14) On parts which in service are subjected to the corrosive action of chlorine except on items which contact chlorine only during laundry operations.

(15) On parts of items classified as secret, to the extent that certification of engineering necessity issued by the Armed Service has been filed with the first request for Allocation for this use on Form WPB–945.

(16) On high carbon steel springs and on parts which of necessity have been assembled with such springs before the plating operation, to the extent that the springs are subject to both alternating stresses of a magnitude approaching the fatigue limit of the steel and to corrosive influences requiring a high degree of corrosion protection, if the springs fall in one of the following categories:

(i) Flat springs of a thickness of 3/32 inch or less;

(ii) Springs made of wire of a diameter of ⅛ inch or less;

(iii) Valve springs for marine Diesel engines; or

(iv) Springs for aircraft landing gear.

(17) On ferrous springs and on parts which of necessity have been assembled with such springs before the plating operation, to the extent that the springs are subject to corrosive influence requiring a high degree of corrosion protection, if the springs fall in one of the following categories:

(i) Detent springs of fuses when cadmium is specifically required by the cognizant Armed Service;

(ii) Spring parts of cowl fasteners for aircraft use;

(iii) Snap rings of a wire diameter of ⅛ inch or less for military and industrial uses; or

(iv) Lock washers and lock clips of a thickness of 3/32 inch or less for military and industrial uses.

(18) On carburetor and magneto parts for aircraft engines.

(19) On external parts of engines for combat aircraft, excluding attachments which are not integral parts of the engine proper, such as clips, clamps, and lugs, and further excluding such parts on which alternative finishes have proven satisfactory in service and newly designed parts performing similar functions.

(20) On hydraulic fitting coupling sleeves made of copper alloys for use in aircraft.

(21) On electrical contact parts which touch parts of aluminum, magnesium or their alloys.

(22) On torpedo parts.

(f) Certification on purchase orders. No person shall place an order for, deliver or accept delivery of any cadmium or cadmium product, unless the purchaser shall have certified in substantially the form set forth in Priorities Regulation No. 7 that the cadmium products to be delivered will be used for a purpose permitted by this order.

(g) Appeals. Any person may appeal from the provisions of paragraphs (d) and (e) of this order. Only prohibited items should be included in an appeal. Appeals should be made in letter form, in triplicate, and must be filed with the Field Office of the War Production Board for the district in which is located the plant to which the appeal relates, setting forth essentially the following information:

(1) Period of time, not exceeding six months, for which relief is requested;

(2) Monthly schedule of the amount of contained cadmium required;

(3) Description (and for cadmium containing alloys also the alloy composition), function, number, and cadmium requirement of each part or of each group of parts fulfilling related functions;

(4) Prime contract number, including symbol, if the item on appeal is covered by an Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration contract;

(5) Justification, including the reasons why substitutes are unsatisfactory because of performance, lack of facilities or manpower. An unsupported opinion is seldom sufficient justification.

The reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(h) Special directions. The War Production Board may, from time to time, issue special directions to any person as to the sources, destination, or amounts of cadmium or cadmium products to be shipped and delivered by any producer or distributor or received by any person, and the War Production Board may also specifically direct the manner and quantities in which such cadmium or cadmium product may be processed.

(i) Reports. All producers, distributors and consumers of cadmium shall file reports with the War Production Board, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942, at such time and in such manner and form as it may prescribe, showing inventory, production, purchases, sales and consumption and such other information that the War Production Board may require.

(j) Communications. All applications, statements or other communications filed pursuant to this order or concerning the subject matter hereof, other than appeals from the provisions of paragraphs (d) and (e), shall be addressed to: War Production Board, Tin, Lead and Zinc Division WPB Dept. 7512, Washington 25, D. C.; Ref.: M-65.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 8th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 1046—SUPPLIERS

[Limitation Order L-63, as Amended Aug. 8, 1944]

§ 1046.1 Suppliers' Inventory Limitation Order L-63—(a) Definitions. (1) "Supplies" means all the supplies listed below:

(i) Automotive supplies.
(ii) Aviation supplies.
(iii) Builders' supplies.
(iv) Construction supplies.
(v) Dairy supplies.
(vi) Electrical supplies.
(vii) Farm supplies.
(ix) Grain elevator supplies.
(x) Hardware supplies.
(xi) Industrial supplies.
(xii) Plumbing & heating supplies.
(xiv) Restaurant supplies.
(xv) Textile mill supplies.
(xvii) Welding & cutting supplies.

even though such items or materials may be "consumers' goods" within the meaning of that term as used in Limitation Order L-219; but supplies shall not be deemed to include any of the items or materials set forth in List A.

(2) "Supplier" means any person (other than a producer) located in the 48 states or the District of Columbia, whose business consists, in whole or in part, of the sale from stock or inventory of supplies. "Supplier" includes wholesalers, distributors, jobbers, dealers, retailers, branch warehouses of producers and other persons performing a similar function.

(3) "Producer" means any person including any branch, division or section of any enterprise, which manufactures, processes, fabricates, assembles or otherwise physically changes any material.

(4) "Sales" means sales from stock, including consigned stocks and excluding direct shipments (i. e., excluding sales made by a supplier of supplies which such supplier has never received delivery of but has ordered from the producer thereof with instructions that they be shipped directly to the supplier's customer).

(5) "Seasonal lines" means any line of supplies in which a minimum of 40% of the supplier's total annual sales are made during a period of 90 days, or less.

(6) "Maximum permissible inventory" means:

(i) In the case of a supplier located in Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Utah, Washington, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas, an inventory (owned or consigned to him) of supplies of a total dollar value at cost (by physical or book inventory, at the option of the supplier) equal to the sales of such supplies at net sales figures, shipped from his inventory, during the four preceding calendar months.

(ii) In the case of a supplier located in the District of Columbia or any of the forty-eight states not enumerated in paragraph (a) (6) (i) above, an inventory (owned or consigned to him) of supplies of a total dollar value at cost (by physical or book inventory, at the option of the supplier) equal to sales of such supplies at net sales figures shipped from his inventory during the three preceding calendar months.

(b) Limitation of supplier's inventories. (1) Except as provided in paragraph (b) (3), (4), (5), and (6), no supplier shall accept any delivery of supplies from any person which will effect an increase in the inventories of the supplier above his maximum permissible inventory; and

(2) Except as provided in paragraphs (b) (3), (4), (5) and (6), no person shall make to any supplier any delivery of supplies which such person knows or has reason to believe will effect an increase in such supplier's inventory of supplies above the supplier's maximum permissible inventory.

(3) Any supplier, regardless of where located, shall be permitted to purchase and store an amount of seasonal lines equal to those which he purchased in the peak period of a comparable period of the previous year, but this peak period shall not exceed 120 days.

(4) A supplier may accept delivery of supplies which will increase his stock above the maximum permissible inventory, if such supplier's inventory of supplies is at the time of delivery less than his maximum permissible inventory and the delivery of the minimum quantity of such supplies that can be commercially procured.

(5) A supplier may accept delivery of specific items of supplies when his stock of all items in the aggregate exceeds, or will by virtue of such acceptance exceed, his maximum permissible inventory, but only to the extent necessary to bring such supplier's inventory of those specific items (owned or consigned to him) up to a total dollar value equal to the sales of such items shipped from such supplier's inventories during the preceding month.

(6) The War Production Board may, from time to time, exempt specified suppliers or classes of suppliers from the provisions of this order, subject to such restrictions as the War Production Board may impose application for exemption should be made by letter.

(7) The provisions of this order shall not apply to any supplier whose total inventory at cost, including consigned stocks, of all supplies is less than $35,000.

(c) Provisions of other orders. No provision of this order shall be construed to permit the accumulation of inventories of any item of material in contravention of the provisions of any other applicable order or orders issued by the War Production Board or heretofore issued by the Office of Production Management.

(d) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(e) Records and reports. Each supplier (other than those who are exempt under paragraph (b) (6) or (b) (7)) must keep an up-to-date record of his total net monthly sales of supplies from stock, and his total inventory of supplies at the end of each month. He need not keep a separate record of his sales and inventory of each type of supplies. A record of his sales and inventory of all kinds of supplies in the aggregate will be satisfactory. In preparing his sales record he should use net selling prices, including sales from consigned stock and excluding direct shipments. His inventory record may be based either on book inventory or physical count. Inventory valuations must be at cost and must include consigned stock. The sales and inventory data required by this paragraph must be preserved for a period of at least two years, available for inspection by authorized representatives of the War Production Board. This record keeping plan has the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942. Subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, the War Production Board may at any time ask for the submission of this data.

(f) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(g) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to War Production Board, Wholesale and Retail Trade Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L–63.

Issued this 8th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

LIST A

The types of material set forth below are not deemed to be supplies within the meaning of paragraph (a) (1). Accordingly, these materials may be excluded from the monthly report required by paragraph (e), and are not subject to the inventory restrictions required by paragraph (b), provided that sales of such materials are not included in computing maximum permissible inventory as defined in paragraph (a) (6).

(1) All General Steel Products listed in Schedule A of General Preference Order M–21–b–1 and all Merchant Trade Products listed in Schedule I of General Preference Order M–21–b–2.

(2) Materials made of aluminum, provided such materials were acquired by the supplier pursuant to allocation or other specific authorization of the War Production Board.

(3) Automotive replacement parts as defined in Limitation Order L–158, and Automotive replacement batteries as defined in Limitation Order L–180.

(4) Replacement parts specially designed to fit only one model and brand of machinery or equipment, and adaptable to no other use: Provided, That in no event shall the supplier accept delivery of any such parts where his inventory thereof is, or will by virtue of such delivery become in excess of six times his sales of such parts during the second preceding calendar month;

(5) Machinery or equipment which is purchased by the supplier at a cost per unit in excess of $500;

(6) Any material which is subject to rationing by the Office of Price Administration;

(7) The following building materials: Portland and natural cement, lime, gypsum and gypsum products, bituminous roofing materials, concrete pipe, cut stone, sand and gravel, crushed stone, clay products, insulation board, acoustical materials, mineral wool, paving materials, concrete products, glass, lumber wooden mill work.

(8) Domestic mechanical refrigerators, as defined in Limitation Order L–5–d.

(9) Bare or insulated wire or cable for electrical conduction made from copper or copper base alloy.

(10) Industrial materials and finished products sold to the supplier by a special sale under Priorities Regulation No. 13.

(11) Repair and replacement parts for commercial and industrial refrigeration equipment.

INTERPRETATION 1

"Supplies" as listed in paragraph (a) (1) of Limitation Order L–63 do not include seeds, plants, livestock, fertilizer, clocks, watches, sporting goods, furniture, pottery, china, or glassware. (Issued May 15, 1942.)

PART 3281—PULP AND PAPER [1]

[Limitation Order L–279, as Amended Aug. 8, 1944]

PAPER SHIPPING SACKS

§ 3281.91 [1] Limitation Order L–279—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Paper shipping sack" means any new single-wall, duplex, or multi-wall paper sack designed for use as (a) a primary container for packing a particular commodity for storage or shipment, (b) a container shipping sack for combining a number of packages of a particular commodity into a single shipping unit, or (c) an overslip shipping sack for covering a single package of a particular commodity for shipment. This does not include the following: sacks designed as liners for outer containers, combination textile-paper bags (bags made of textile laminated with paper), grocers and variety bags (as defined in Order L–261), bags made wholly from cellophane, glassine, parchment, or waxed paper, or flat envelope types of containers made on envelope machines (such as lithographic seed envelopes).

(2) "Single-wall sack", "duplex sack", and "multi-wall sack" mean, respectively paper shipping sacks made with one wall, with two walls, and with more than two walls.

(3) "Sack manufacturer" means any person engaged in the business of manufacturing paper shipping sacks for sale or for his own use in packing any commodity produced or processed by him.

(4) "Commercial user" means any person who uses paper shipping sacks for packing any commodity produced or processed by him.

Restrictions

(b) Restrictions on manufacture and use—(1) Restrictions on use of pulp and on deliveries of shipping sack papers. All pulp allocated on Form WPB–2973, Sub-Schedule D–2 Items #054100 and #054900 must be used only for the manufacture of shipping sack paper. No paper manufacturer shall deliver shipping sack paper if he knows or has reason to know that it will be used other than in the manufacture of paper shipping sacks. No sack manufacturer or commercial user may receive or use shipping sack paper for any purpose other than to manufacture paper shipping sacks.

(2) Restrictions on paper manufacture. No sack manufacturer shall manufacture any paper shipping sack made of shipping sack paper which does not conform to all applicable restrictions of each schedule of this order.

(3) Restrictions on use. No commercial user may use a paper shipping sack made of shipping sack paper for any other purpose than those listed on Appendix A. However, any commercial user who used paper shipping sacks made of shipping sack paper prior to August 8, 1944, to package any commodity not listed on Appendix A may continue to use them for such purpose for 45 days after August 8, 1944. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to paper shipping sacks used for delivery to the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration, nor to the Foreign Economic Administration for empty shipping sacks when shipped to or for the Armed Forces of the United States.

(c) Restrictions on users' inventories. No commercial user shall, at any time, accept delivery of paper shipping sacks which will increase his supply to more than the larger of the following amounts (this restriction applies to all paper shipping sacks, whether or not of the sizes and styles or for the commodities specifically mentioned in any schedule of this order):

(1) A total of 1½ carloads of all sizes and styles for all commodities (exclusive of sacks then in transit to him); or

(2) Reasonably anticipated requirements of each size and style for any particular non-seasonal commodity during the next 60 days after the delivery of the sacks or any particular seasonal commodity during the next 120 days after the delivery of the sacks (with a ½-car leeway in either case, where necessary to round out a full car).

(d) Inventories of multiple-unit organizations. Any commercial user who maintains an inventory of paper shipping sacks at more than one location may, at his option, apply the inventory restrictions of paragraph (c) above either to the inventory of each such location separately or to the collective inventory of all such locations.

Wet Strength Paper Markings

(e) Wet strength paper markings after December 1, 1943. All wet strength paper used in the manufacture of single-wall, duplex and multi-wall paper shipping sacks must be distinctly colored, stained, printed or marked for identification purposes with longitudinal stripes, spaced not less than 2" nor more than 10" centers across the paper width and each stripe is to be not less than ⅛" in width. No other grade of paper used in such shipping sacks is to be striped as above. When wet strength paper is used as the outer ply of the shipping sacks, the identification must appear on the external surface. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to stocks on hand on October 27, 1943.

Miscellaneous Provisions

(f) Certification to the seller of paper shipping sacks by the buyer. No commercial user may order or accept delivery of paper shipping sacks, and no person may deliver paper shipping sacks to a commercial user unless the buyer furnishes, or has previously furnished, to the person making delivery, certification in substantially the following form, signed manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7 (§ 944.27) by an official duly authorized for such purpose.

> The undersigned certifies, subject to the penalty of section 35A of the U. S. Criminal Code, to the seller and to the War Production Board that he is familiar with the order L-279 and that all purchases by him of items regulated by that order, as amended from time to time, will be in compliance therewith.

The above certificate must be used and the certification provided for in Priorities Regulation Number 7 may not be used in its place and stead.

This is a one-time certification and need not accompany each individual order for paper shipping sacks.

NOTE: Paragraphs (g), (h), (i) and (j) formerly (f), (g), (h) and (i) redesignated Aug. 8, 1944.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds for the appeal.

(h) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Paper Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L-279.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(j) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

Issued this 8th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

SCHEDULE I: General Restrictions—(a) Applicability. Except as otherwise specifically stated in this schedule, the provisions of this schedule shall apply, on and after July 19, 1943, to the manufacture of any paper shipping sack designed for packing the following:

(1) Sugar and lime in any quantity of 25 lbs. or more.

(2) Flour and cereal products in any quantity over 50 lbs.

(3) Any other commodity in any quantity over 25 lbs.

These restrictions are in addition to all other applicable restrictions of this order and all schedules of this order.

(b) Prohibited paper finishes. No paper with embossed, super-calendared, or special machine finish shall be used for the sacks of the kinds described in paragraph (a) of this schedule.

(c) [Deleted, Oct. 27, 1943]

(d) Permitted paper grades. No paper of any grade except the following shall be used for the sacks of the kinds described in paragraph (a) of this schedule.

Plain natural kraft and colored kraft.
Kraft-and-hard fibre combinations (for single-wall and duplex sacks only).
Mildew-proof paper.
Oil-treated paper.
Water-repellent paper.
Wet-strength paper.
Paper especially processed for protecting commodities (such as asphalt, chemicals, molten rosin) which, because of their physical or chemical characteristics, require the protection of such paper.

NOTE: "Asphalted paper * * *", "Paraffined paper" deleted from paragraph (d) Aug. 8, 1944.

(e) Permitted paper grades for Appendix B. Asphalted paper (paper laminated, impregnated, coated or infused with asphaltic compounds), paraffined paper and moisture-proof paper may only be used for paper shipping sacks to package the items listed on Appendix B.

(f) Permitted basis weights. Basis weights shall be computed on the basis of 500 24" x 36" sheets per ream, with a tolerance of 5% (plus or minus).

(1) For single-wall and duplex sacks. No plain natural kraft, plain bleached kraft, kraft-and-hard-fibre combination, or wet-strength paper of any basis weight except the following shall be used for single-wall and duplex sacks of the kinds described in paragraph (a) of this schedule:

30, 40, 50, 60, 70, 80, 90, 100, 110, 120, 125, 130 lbs., and, for packing carbon black only, 35 lbs. also.

(2) Multi-wall sacks. No plain natural kraft or wet-strength paper of any basis weight except the following shall be used for multi-wall sacks of the kinds described in paragraph (a) of this schedule:

40, 50, 60, and 70 lbs. only.

(g) [Deleted, Oct. 27, 1943]

SCHEDULE II: Additional restrictions for certain sacks—(a) Applicability. The restrictions of this Schedule are in addition to any other applicable restrictions of this order and all schedules of this order.

(b) Restrictions on sack sizes. No sack manufacturer shall manufacture any paper shipping sack designed for packing any commodity listed below, except in any size of more than 100 lbs. or in any of the sizes specified below for that commodity:

Sack designed for packing commodity specified (1)	Sack size (net weight capacity unless otherwise specified) (2)
Beans	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs.
Cement (standard portland).	94 lbs.
Flour (milled wheat) [1]	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs.
Meal	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs.
Plaster (gypsum)	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs. (gross weight).
Potatoes	2-5-10-15-25-50-100 lbs.
Processed feed (mixed, mill).	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs.
Rice	2-3-5-10-15-25-50-100 lbs.
Salt	2-4-10-25-50-100 lbs.
Seeds [2]	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs. 1, 2 bu.
Starch (corn)	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs.
Sugar (refined cane, beet).	2-5-10-25-50-100 lbs.

[1] "Flour (milled wheat)" means any flour product produced by milling wheat, including blends of wheat flours and bleached, bromated, enriched, phosphated, and self-rising flours, but excluding durum wheat products (semolina), farina, pancake flour, and cake flour.

[2] Additional sizes are permitted as follows: ½ bu. for hybrid seed corn: 3 bu. for cotton seed.

(c) Exceptions. The size restrictions of paragraph (b) above shall not apply to the manufacture of paper shipping sacks which are:

(1) To be exported, empty, by the sack manufacturer.

(2) Ordered by a user for packaging any listed commodity to be exported by him, provided the sack manufacturer receives from the user a statement on the purchase order that the sacks ordered for the packing of the listed commodities are for export.

(3) Manufactured to meet the packaging specifications of and for delivery to, or for the account of, the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, or any agency procuring for delivery pursuant to the Act of Congress of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(4) Of the container or overslip types of sacks.

(d) [Deleted, Oct. 27, 1943]

APPENDIX A

AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

NOTE: Appendix A added Aug. 8, 1944.

Alfalfa meal, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Apples fresh or dry, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Baking powder, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Barley, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.

Beans and peas—Not less than 50 lbs. when packed in container shipping sacks.
Beet pulp, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Blood, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Candy (export liners only), bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Cereals, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Cigars and cigarettes (export liners only), bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Coco, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Cocoa, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Coffee, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Copra meal, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Corn-dry, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Corn flour cereal binder, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Corn meal—Not less than 50 lbs. when packed in container shipping sacks.
Corn sugar, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Cotton seed, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Cottonseed meal, cake and hulls, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Distillers dried grains and solubles, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Dough improver, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Doughnut mix, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Fat, hard, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Feed or food:
Pet—Not less than 50 lbs. when packed in container shipping sacks.
Livestock and poultry—Not less than 50 lbs. when packed in container shipping sacks.
Mineral—Not less than 50 lbs. when packed in container shipping sacks.
Oyster shell grits—Not less than 50 lbs. when packed in container shipping sacks.
Flour—Not less than 50 lbs. when packed in container shipping sacks.
Goldenrod, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.
Linseed meal, bulk, 25 lbs. or more.

APPENDIX B—ASPHALTED, PARAFFINED AND MOISTURE-PROOF PAPER

NOTE: Appendix B added Aug. 8, 1944.

These types of paper may only be used in the manufacture of paper shipping sacks designed to package the following products:

NOTE: Asphalted, paraffined and moisture-proof papers may be used in any paper shipping sack used for the shipment of any commodity by or to the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission and War Shipping Administration for either domestic or export shipment. The use of these papers is permitted in paper shipping sacks used to ship commodities for commercial export.

These papers may be used by Foreign Economic Administration in any empty shipping sack shipped by Foreign Economic Administration to or for the Armed Forces of the United States. All other Foreign Economic Administration requirements for empty paper shipping sacks are subject to the restrictions of Appendix B.

PART 3288—PLUMBING AND HEATING EQUIPMENT

[General Limitation Order L-199 as Amended Aug. 8, 1944]

PLUMBING AND HEATING TANKS

§ 3288.6 General Limitation Order L-199—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Tank" means any metal expansion tank, metal hot water storage tank and metal range boiler, if the tank or range boiler is used in hot water supply systems or in hot water space heating systems. The term does not include any tank used as an integral part of a direct fired water heater or indirect water heater, the manufacture of which is covered by Limitation Order L-185.

(2) "Hot water supply system" means any system for supplying hot water used in whole or in part for bathing, washing, cleaning, cooking or other similar purposes. The term does not include any system for supplying hot water for specialized industrial or agricultural purposes.

(3) "Hot water space heating system" means any system which is designed for the purposes of heating the interior of a building or other structure (including ships) by utilizing the heat of hot water.

(4) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy metal in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40% of the total weight of the alloy.

(5) "Base period" means the calendar year 1941.

(b) Use of copper, stainless steel, and monel metal in manufacture. No person shall use in the manufacture, fabrication or assembly of any tank, any copper, copper base alloy, stainless steel, or monel metal except:

(1) For repair parts;

(2) For temperature, pressure, and vacuum safety valves;

(3) For tank spuds or tappings.

(c) Restrictions on sizes and design of tanks. No person may fabricate, manufacture, or assemble black iron, galvanized iron, or porcelain enameled range boilers or black iron or galvanized iron expansion tanks, except in accordance with the specifications in Schedules A, B and C.

(d) Use of non-ferrous tanks for replacement. No person may deliver or install copper, copper base alloy or monel metal tanks in existing inventories except to replace a non-ferrous tank of similar capacity or larger.

(e) Restrictions on production. No person shall manufacture or assemble more tanks than his quota, which, for each calendar year, shall be determined by the percentage indicated below of his base period unit production of the same classification of tanks. However, regardless of the number of tanks he may have produced before June 2, 1944, the quota for the period from that date through December 31, 1944 shall be 7/12 the quota for each calendar year:

	Percent
Range boilers and expansion tanks	70
Storage tanks	75

Any person may request authorization to exceed his quota by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Division, Washington 25, D. C., stating his proposed additional production in units per quarter, and the War Production Board may authorize additional production on Form GA-1850, if additional production is necessary to fulfill the approved War Production Program. Where the applicant will need controlled materials in order to produce the additional equipment, the letter requesting authorization should be accompanied by an application on Form CMP-4B for the controlled materials.

(f) General exceptions. The restrictions of paragraphs (b) and (c) do not apply to the production of articles or parts not available in the producer's inventory for use in ships, boats, planes or advance bases when required by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, or Coast Guard, or by rules and regulations promulgated by the Coast Guard for merchant vessels.

(g) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be filed on Form WPB-1477 (formerly PD-500) with the field office of the War Production Board, for the district in which is located the plant or branch of the person filing the appeal.

(h) Communications. All communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Division, Washington 25, D. C., Reference L-199.

(i) Reports. Each producer shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports as the War Production Board may specify from time to time, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

Issued this 8th day of August 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[MPR 220,[1] Amdt. 17]

CERTAIN RUBBER COMMODITIES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 220 is amended in the following respects:

1. The following sections are amended by substituting "§§ 1315.1556, 1315.1557, 1315.1557b, or 1315.1557c" for "§§ 1315.1556 or 1315.1557" wherever the latter appear in: §§ 1315.1552 (a) (2); 1315.1558 (a); and 1315.1559 (a).

2. Section 1315.1557b is added to read as follows:

§ 1315.1557b Maximum manufacturers' prices for elastic webbing, braid, and cord—(a) Applicability of this section. This section, and not §§ 1315.1553 to 1315.1557, inclusive, establishes maximum prices for sales by manufacturers of elastic webbing, braid, and cord.

(b) Maximum prices. The maximum price for a sale of elastic webbing, braid, or cord by a manufacturer shall be the sum total of direct labor and materials costs, waste and gross margin, computed in accordance with paragraph (c).

(c) Computation of the maximum price—(1) Direct labor costs. Direct labor costs shall be those labor costs which were treated as such in the manufacturer's accounting system in effect on March 1, 1942, and shall be determined by multiplying the estimated number of hours of each type of labor required in the manufacture of the elastic webbing, braid, or cord being priced, by the highest wage rate in effect in the manufacturer's plant during March 1942 for that type of labor. If the manufacturer did not employ a given class of labor during March 1942, he shall use the wage rate paid during March 1942 by the nearest employer operating under comparable conditions who employed that class of labor during that period.

(2) Direct materials costs. Direct materials costs shall be those materials costs which were treated as such in the manufacturer's accounting system in effect on March 1, 1942, and shall be determined by multiplying the estimated quantity of each type of material required in the manufacture of the elastic webbing, braid, or cord, by the following material prices:

(i) For synthetic rubber, the manufacturer shall use the net price, not to exceed the maximum price, for the material in effect to him on the date on which he calculates his maximum price;

(ii) For all other materials, the manufacturer shall use the highest net materials prices in effect to him, or, if no price was in effect to him, the highest net materials price in effect to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer, during March 1942. If there was no March 1942 price of any such material, the materials cost to be used in determining the maximum price shall be the first ascertainable net price (not exceeding the maximum price) in effect to the manufacturer after March 31, 1942.

(3) Waste. Waste costs shall be determined by applying the same methods as were used by the manufacturer in similar production during October 1, 1941, adjusted to reflect the estimated quantity of waste in the production of the elastic webbing, braid, or cord being priced.

(4) Gross margin. Gross margin, other than waste, shall be calculated by the methods and rates used by the manufacturer on October 1, 1941, for his sales of elastic webbing, braid, or cord. These methods and rates shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section.

(d) Recomputation of the maximum price. If an elastic webbing, braid, or cord priced under paragraph (c) is produced or supplied by the manufacturer for a period of two months after being priced, its maximum price shall be redetermined by substituting actual labor hours and actual quantity of materials for the estimated hours and estimated quantity of materials used in the original computation of the maximum price. This redetermination of the maximum price shall be made between 60 and 75 days after the manufacturer begins production of the commodity. At the time of recomputation, the redetermined maximum price, and the details of its computation, shall be reported to the Office of Price Administration. If the manufacturer's production experience during the first two months of production is inadequate to determine his costs accurately, he may request and receive approval from the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for a further period for recomputation. This request must be made at the time of the first recomputation.

(e) Reports. Every manufacturer subject to the provisions of this section shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.:

(1) On or before August 28, 1944, the price determining methods and rates in effect in each of his plants on October 1, 1941, for the determination of gross margin on elastic webbing, braid, or cord.

(2) On or before August 28, 1944, all discounts and other allowances in effect in each of his plants on October 1, 1941, for sales of elastic webbing, braid, or cord to each class of purchaser.

(3) Within 10 days after a purchaser first agrees to buy an elastic webbing, braid, or cord, the maximum price of which must be determined under paragraph (c) of this section, a description of the elastic webbing, braid, or cord being priced, the maximum price of each such article and the calculations used in the determination of the maximum price, including the dates on which the prices and rates used in the calculations were in effect in each of his plants.

(f) Approval of reported prices. The manufacturer may not accept payment for any elastic webbing, braid, or cord priced under paragraph (c) until the reported price has been approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration, or until 15 days have elapsed after the mailing of the report without the Office of Price Administration objecting to the maximum price reported. Within this 15-day period, the price so reported shall be subject to adjustment by the Price Administrator. Subsequent to this 15-day period, such price shall be subject to adjustment (not to apply retroactively) at any time by the Price Administrator.

(g) Elastic webbing, braid, or cord which cannot be priced under paragraphs (b) and (c). The maximum price for any elastic webbing, braid, or cord which cannot be priced under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of § 1315.1558.

3. Section 1315.1557c is added to read as follows:

§ 1315.1557c Maximum wholesalers' prices for elastic webbing, braid, and cord—(a) Applicability. This section establishes maximum prices for all sales by wholesalers of elastic webbing, braid, and cord.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Maximum wholesalers' prices for elastic webbing, braid, or cord which the wholesaler buys from a manufacturer—(1) How the wholesaler calculates the maximum price. The maximum price for a sale by a wholesaler of any elastic webbing, braid, or cord which the wholesaler buys from the manufacturer thereof, shall be calculated by multiplying the percentage determined in accordance with subparagraph (2) by:

(i) The wholesaler's net invoiced cost before cash discounts of the commodity, if available, not to exceed the applicable maximum price; or

(ii) If actual cost is not available, the net invoiced cost before cash discounts of the commodity as estimated by the wholesaler's supplier: Provided, That the wholesaler has no reason to believe that the price so estimated exceeds the maximum price.

(iii) If the cost determined under subparagraphs (i) or (ii) above is not on a delivered basis, the wholesaler shall add the actual cost of transportation to his place of business.

(2) How the wholesaler determines the percentage which must be used in determining the maximum price. The percentage which the wholesaler must use in determining the maximum price shall be determined as follows:

(i) The wholesaler shall first determine what elastic webbing, braid, or cord he must use in determining the percentage. This shall be the first applicable of the following which he sold or offered for sale on October 1, 1941:

(a) The elastic webbing, braid, or cord which is the same as the one being priced;

(b) The elastic webbing, braid, or cord which has the same use as the one being priced. If there are more than one which have the same use as the commodity being priced, the wholesaler shall use that one whose purchase price is nearest to the purchase price of the commodity being price. The purchase price shall be determined in accordance with subparagraph (1) above;

(c) The elastic webbing, braid, or cord whose purchase price is nearest to the purchase price of the commodity being priced. The purchase price shall be determined in accordance with subparagraph (1) above.

(ii) The wholesaler shall then determine the price at which on October 1, 1941, he was offering to sell that elastic webbing, braid, or cord to a purchaser of the same class.

(iii) The wholesaler shall then determine the percentage by dividing this selling price by the purchase price in effect to him on the date on which he established this selling price.

(3) Reports of proposed maximum prices. The wholesaler shall file a report with the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration for the region in which he is located within 5 days after he first offers for sale an elastic webbing, braid, or cord, the maximum price of which must be established under paragraph (b) of this section. This report shall contain:

(i) A description of the elastic webbing, braid, or cord being priced;

(ii) The purchase price of such commodity and the name of the supplier; and

(iii) A description of the elastic webbing, braid, or cord which he must select in accordance with paragraph (b) (2) of this section for purposes of determining his percentage margin, and the reasons for the selection of this commodity.

(4) Approval of reported prices. The wholesaler may not accept payment for any elastic webbing, braid, or cord priced under paragraph (b) until the reported price has been approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration, or until 21 days shall have elapsed after the mailing of the report without the Office of Price Administration objecting to the maximum price reported. Within this 21-day period, the price so reported shall be subject to adjustment by the Price Administrator or the Regional Administrator. Subsequent to this 21-day period, such price shall be subject to adjustment (not to apply retroactively) at any time by the Price Administrator or the Regional Administrator. However, orders may be accepted and invoices issued at the proposed price subject to approval or adjustment by the Office of Price Administration. A notation that the price is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration must be made on all quotations and invoices until the proposed price is approved or adjusted. The wholesaler shall prepare and send to the customers affected corrected invoices in all cases where the price approved by the Administrator or the Regional Administrator differs from the price proposed by the wholesaler.

(c) Wholesale maximum prices which cannot be determined under paragraph (b). The wholesale maximum price for any elastic webbing, braid, or cord which cannot be priced under paragraph (b) above, shall be a price consistent with the level of maximum prices established by this regulation, specifically authorized by the Office of Price Administration. Prior to first offering the commodity for sale, the wholesaler shall submit to the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration for the region in which he is located, a report applying for a specific authorization of the maximum price. The report shall contain:

(1) A description in detail of the commodity;

(2) A statement of the facts which make it necessary to price a commodity under this paragraph;

(3) A proposed pricing method and the price for the commodity determined in accordance with this method; and

(4) A statement of the reasons why the wholesaler believes that the use of this method results in prices which are in line with the level of prices established by this regulation.

The Price Administrator or any Regional Administrator may approve or disapprove, and may at any time after approval correct maximum prices proposed or established under this paragraph, so as to make them consistent with the level of maximum prices otherwise established by this regulation.

(d) Reports of base period selling prices and purchase costs. Every wholesaler subject to the provisions of this section shall file with the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration for the region in which he is located, on or before August 28, 1944:

(1) A list of the elastic webbings, braids, or cords which he was offering to sell on October 1, 1941, and the price at which he was offering to sell each on that date to each class of purchaser.

(2) The purchase price of each such elastic webbing, braid, or cord in effect to the wholesaler at the time the price listed in subparagraph (1) above was established.

4. Section 1315.1567 (d) (6) is revoked.

5. In § 1315.1567 (f), items (12) and (13) are revoked.

6. Section 1315.1567 (h) (5) is amended to read as follows:

(5) Elastic webbing, braid, and cord.

This amendment shall become effective August 14, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued this 8th day of August 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

PETROLEUM PRODUCTS SOLD AT RETAIL ESTABLISHMENTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 137 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 5 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Adjustments because of Fair Trade Acts. Maximum prices established under this regulation may be adjusted in the case of any seller at retail who shows:

1. Either that his maximum price for any commodity established under this regulation is less than the minimum price at which he was lawfully required to sell the commodity during March 1942 pursuant to the provisions of a State Fair Trade Act; or that he has been permanently enjoined by a court from selling the commodity at less than such minimum price; and also

2. That the commodity was generally sold at retail during March 1942 at prices no lower than such minimum price within the locality in which his selling establishment is located.

In such cases, the maximum price of the seller will be increased to such minimum price. Applications for adjustment shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

Each Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration and such District Directors of the Office of Price Administration as may be designated by the appropriate Regional Administrator are hereby authorized to make adjustments or act upon applications for adjustment under this paragraph (b).

2. Section 9 (b) (6) is amended to read as follows:

(6) NEW JERSEY

(i) Within the counties of Union, Middlesex, Essex, Hudson, Bergen, and Passaic, State of New Jersey, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil, also known as stove oil, shall be 14.0 cents per gallon.

(ii) Within the counties of Morris and Sussex, State of New Jersey, the maximum price for sellers at retail establishments of kerosene, No. 1 fuel oil and range oil, also known as stove oil, shall be 14.5 cents per gallon.

This amendment shall become effective August 14, 1944.

Issued this 8th day of August 1944.

CHESTER BOWLES,
Administrator.

ARTICLE I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1.1 Prohibition against dealing in fats and oils at prices above the maximum. No person shall sell, offer to sell, deliver, or transfer, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive, fats or oils at prices higher than the maximum prices, except that contracts entered into prior to December 13, 1941, providing for a higher price than the maximum prices may be carried out at the contract price. The maximum prices shall include commissions and all other charges. Lower prices than the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

[NOTE: Revised Supplementary Order No. 34 (8 F.R. 12404) permits, under certain conditions, the addition of extra packing expenses to maximum prices on sales to procurement agencies of the United States.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894, 8 F.R. 1313, 8702) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

SEC. 1.2 Exempt sales. Sales of fats and oils products in the finished form, sales of refined fats and oils (except coconut oil) destined for use or consumption without further processing or packing by the buyer, and sales of lard destined for human consumption without further processing are exempt from the operation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, unless a maximum price for such fats or oils product, or refined fat or oil, or lard, is enumerated in terms of dollars and cents, or a method for computing a maximum price for such fats or oils product, or refined fat or oil, or lard, is set forth in Article II or any subsequent article of this regulation.

[2] Statements of consideration are also issued simultaneously with amendments. Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 42 (8 F.R. 4968) provides that no price regulation of the Office of Price Administration shall apply to sales or deliveries of any commodity or service made to Government agencies pursuant to secret contracts or subcontracts.]

SEC. 1.3 Exempt Governmental purchases of foreign fats and oils. All purchases of fats and oils located in any foreign country by the United States Government or any agency thereof, or by an agent, broker or other representative purchasing for the account of the United States Government or any agency thereof, shall be exempt from the operation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, whether the purchase is made directly in the foreign country or through an agent, broker or other representative of the foreign seller located in the United States. Where fats and oils located in a foreign country are purchased by an agent, broker or other representative of the United States Government or any agency thereof who has a contract to resell the fats and oils so purchased to the United States or any agency thereof, such resale shall be exempt from the operation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53. This provision shall have no application to purchases by the United States Government or any agency thereof of fats and oils located in the United States which have been imported into this country without a contract to resell the fats and oils so imported to the United States Government or any agency thereof.

SEC. 1.4 Application for determination of a maximum price. If the maximum price on a particular fat or oil covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 cannot be determined under the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, the affected party shall file an application with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., containing:

(a) A description of the fat or oil and showing wherein it is impossible to determine a maximum price therefor;

(b) A statement of the facts of all transactions since January 1, 1941, of the applicant and all information he may have obtained concerning transactions of others from said date in the fat or oil in question in any form or state of processing including transactions in the oil bearing material, raw product, and crude oil.

(c) (1) An itemized statement of the applicant's total cost of said fat or oil (including any manufacturing or processing costs), (2) the applicant's maximum price for that commodity presently sold by the applicant that has a maximum price presently determinable and that is most nearly similar to the fat or oil for which a maximum price is sought and (3) an itemized statement of the applicant's total cost of such most nearly similar commodity (including any manufacturing or processing costs).

Upon receipt of such application the Office of Price Administration will proceed to fix a maximum price or instruct the applicant as to the method of determining the same and for reporting the price he may determine. Any price fixed or determined under this paragraph shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

SEC. 1.5 Imports and exports, adjustment of maximum prices caused by variances in freight and insurance charges. (a) The maximum prices hereinafter established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 for fats and oils shipped into the United States by ocean transportation shall include the charges prevailing on October 1, 1941, for freight, war risk insurance, and marine insurance connected with such transportation.

Increase in such charges may be added only if such charges have been actually incurred by the seller on such sale. Decreases in such charges shall be subtracted from the maximum prices hereinafter established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

(b) The maximum prices at which a person may export fats and oils for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 outside the continental limits of the United States shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation [3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[Sec. 1.5 amended by Am. 26, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7-8-44]

SEC. 1.6 Brokers' commissions paid by buyers. (a) Where the buyer pays a broker or other person a commission or other contingent compensation for services in bringing about, or otherwise connected with, any purchase, sale, delivery, acquisition, or other transfer of any fats or oils for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, (1) the maximum total price that the buyer may pay for the fats or oils and as such commission or other contingent compensation, shall be the maximum prices for such fats or oils specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, and (2) the maximum price that the seller may receive for the fats or oils sold shall be that sum which, when added to such commission or other contingent compensation paid by the buyer, equals the maximum prices for such fats or oils specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

(b) Exception. The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section 1.6 shall not apply to purchases made from the United States Government, or any state, municipal or other governmental unit, or any agencies of any of them, where the buyer customarily has paid broker's commissions or fees during the two years preceding the month of March 1942; in such case the buyer, in addition to paying the broker's commissions or fees, may pay the seller, and the seller may receive, the maximum prices specified in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

SEC. 1.7 Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom the authority to grant such authorization has been delegated. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

SEC. 1.8 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1.[4]

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665; 8 F.R. 6173, 6174) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Revised Supplementary Order No. 9 (8 F.R. 6175) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, excepting those which expressly prohibit such applications, and certain specific regulations listed in Revised Supplementary Order No. 9.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

SEC. 1.9 Evasion—(a) General. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 shall not be evaded whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with a purchase, sale, delivery, or transfer of fats or oils, or by way of premium, commission, service, transportation or other charge, or by any other trade understanding or by any other means.

(b) By purchasing oil-bearing materials and paying for processing. The purchase of oil-bearing materials from a processor who is to process the oil-bearing materials for the purchaser is forbidden, if the combined cost of (1) the oil-bearing materials and (2) the processing toll exceeds the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 for the type and quantity of oil produced from the oil-bearing materials. If the meal or other by-products produced from the oil-bearing materials are to be retained by the processor, the value of the meal or other by-product retained must be considered in determining the cost of the processing toll.

SEC. 1.10 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that war procurement agencies and governments whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States shall be relieved of liability, civil or criminal, imposed by price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.]

SEC. 1.11 Records and reports. Every person making any sale of fats or oils, except sales exempted under sections 1.2 and 1.3 shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than one year complete and accurate records of each such sale, including the date thereof, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or received, and the grade, quality and amount sold.

Every person affected by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may from time to time require, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget.

SEC. 1.12 Geographic applicability of the regulation. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 53 shall apply in, and only in, the District of Columbia and the forty-eight states of the United States.

SEC. 1.13 Definitions. When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, the term:

(a) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of the foregoing.

(b) "Fats and oils" means all of the raw, crude, and refined fats and oils, their by-products and derivatives, and greases, except "essential oils", mineral oils, butter, cocoa butter, and poultry fat.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 18, 9 F.R. 2087, effective 2-15-44.]

(c) "Fats and oils products in the finished form" means those products the whole or substantial part of which are manufactured from fats or oils, which are sold for use or consumption without further processing and the manufacturing process of which includes more than filtering, refining, or deodorizing, or splitting, or dividing into component parts, for example, shortening, soap, paint, margarine, salad dressing, and mayonnaise.

(d) "Refined fats and oils" means those fats and oils which have been cleaned, deodorized, or purified by settling, straining, filtering, distilling, treating with chemicals, or by any other means, and which at the conclusion of the refining process do not contain any added substance other than is necessary as a preservative, for example, margarine oil, salad oil, prime summer yellow, and/or bleachable cottonseed oil, oleo oil, and oils used for the technical and protective coating trades.

(e) In the phrase, "similar amount to a similar purchaser," the word "similar" means that amount and that type of purchaser with respect to which the same price did apply or would have applied under the seller's trade practices on October 1, 1941.

SEC. 1.14 Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1[*] licensing all persons who makes sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

[Sec. 1.14 added by Supplementary Order 72, 8 F.R. 13244, effective 10-1-43]

ARTICLE II—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR FATS AND OILS FOR WHICH NO MAXIMUM PRICES IN TERMS OF DOLLARS AND CENTS ARE PROVIDED

SEC. 2.1 Maximum prices. (a) The maximum price for any kind, grade or quality of fat or oil for which a maximum price is not specifically provided in any of the following articles of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53, shall be the highest price at which the seller sold such kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality in a similar amount to a similar purchaser on October 1, 1941, for delivery within sixty days.

(b) If the maximum price of such fat or oil cannot be determined under paragraph (a) of this section 2.1, the maximum price shall be the highest price at which the seller sold the same kind of fat or oil of a different grade or quality or in a different amount or to a different type of purchaser on October 1, 1941, for delivery within sixty days, making the necessary adjustments for differences in grade, quality, amount or type of purchaser in accordance with the seller's practice for determining price differentials existing on October 1, 1941.

(c) If the maximum price cannot be determined under either paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section 2.1, the maximum price shall be the price at which such kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality in a similar amount to a similar purchaser was sold in the locality of the seller's shipping point on October 1, 1941, for delivery within sixty days.

(d) If the maximum price cannot be determined under paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of this section 2.1, the maximum price shall be the price at which such kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality in a similar amount to a similar purchaser was sold in the nearest market in which such sale was made on October 1, 1941, making adjustments for the customary differential between the price in such markets and the price in the locality of the seller's shipping point.

(e) If the maximum price determined under the above paragraphs of this section 2.1 is less than 111 percent of the price at which the same kind of fat or oil of the same grade and quality was sold by the seller, or was sold in the locality of the seller's shipping point, or in the nearest market, as the case may be, in a similar amount and to a similar purchaser on November 26, 1941, for delivery within sixty days, the maximum price shall be 111 percent of such November 26 price.

SEC. 2.2 Inclusion of transportation and other charges in maximum prices. The maximum prices for both domestic and imported fats and oils determined under section 2.1 hereof, shall include at least the same absorption of transportation and other charges as were or would have been absorbed by the seller on comparable shipments to the same place of destination on October 1, 1941.

SEC. 2.3 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in section 2.1 hereof, shall not be evaded by making the discounts given or other terms and conditions of sale more onerous to the purchaser than those available or in effect on October 1, 1941, or by any other direct or indirect means.

ARTICLE III—COTTONSEED OIL

SEC. 3.1 Maximum prices. The maximum prices of cottonseed oil shall be the following prices:

(a) Crude cottonseed oil. F. o. b. mill, in tank cars in cents per pound, as follows:

California (except Los Angeles)	13.125
Los Angeles, California	13.40
Arizona	12.875
Illinois, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Crittenden and Mississippi Counties, Arkansas, New Madrid and Scott Counties, Missouri, Morgan County, Alabama	12.75

Oklahoma (except Muskogee and Tulsa Counties), Texas (except Bowie, Dallas, El Paso and Tarrant Counties)	12.50

(1) These crude cottonseed oil maximum prices shall be adjusted on a 99% settlement basis as provided in Rule 142 of the 1942-1943 rules of the National Cottonseed Products Association, Inc.

(2) Where (i) crude cottonseed oil is sold and delivered to a buyer to whom it may be shipped for no more than a switching charge, and (ii) where prior to price control it was customary for such oil to take a premium when sold by a seller in that locality to a buyer located within that locality's switching limits, the maximum price shall be the prices set forth above, plus the premium that customarily prevailed in that locality on such sales prior to price control.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 6, 8 F.R. 12642, effective 9-16-43.]

(b) Refined cottonseed oil and bleachable cottonseed oil stearine, produced from cottonseed obtained from the 1942-1943 cotton crop, delivered in tank cars, as follows:

[Table corrected, 8 F.R. 12873; amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 11739, effective 8–28–43.]

(1) Discounts for prompt payment. The above prices are before any discounts for prompt payment. Sellers shall continue to allow the same discounts for prompt payment as those they customarily allowed prior to May 21, 1943.

[Subparagraph (1) added by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 15670, effective 11-22-43; former (1), (2) and (3) redesignated (2), (3) and (4) respectively by Am. 9.]

(2) Grade differentials. The usual or normal differential for types or grades with specifications other than those listed above shall continue to apply.

(3) Crushers' container and quantity differentials—(i) Returnable drums, carlots. The maximum delivered prices of the above linseed oil products delivered by crushers in Zone 1, in returnable drums, carlot quantities, shall be the prices set forth above, plus .4¢ per pound.

(ii) Returnable drums in less than carlot quantities—(a) Delivered by crushers in city in which seller has a warehouse. The maximum delivered prices of the above linseed oil products delivered by crushers, in returnable drums in less than carlot quantities, in Zone 1 within the corporate limits of a city in which the seller has a warehouse, shall be the prices set forth in section 7.1 (a) above, plus the differentials hereinafter set forth for the particular quantity sold:

	Differential to be added to specified prices (Cents per pound)
Quantity sold (returnable drums):
Carlots, in more than one delivery of 10 drums each	0.6
5 to 9 drums, one delivery	1.0
1 to 4 drums, one delivery	1.4

(b) Delivered by crushers outside city in which seller has a warehouse. The maximum delivered prices of the above linseed oil products, delivered by crushers, in returnable drums in less than carlot quantities, in Zone 1 outside of the corporate limits of the city in which the seller's nearest warehouse is located, shall be the maximum prices provided in the preceding subparagraph hereof (section 7.1 (a) (3) (ii) (a)), plus the actual cost of transporting said linseed oil products from the seller's nearest warehouse to the buyer.

(iii) Other containers. When linseed oil products are sold by crushers in containers other than tank cars or returnable drums, the maximum delivered prices for such oil products in such other containers, delivered in Zone 1, shall be the tank car price specified above, plus the usual or normal differential for the type of container in which the oil is sold.

(iv) Other quantities. When linseed oil products are sold by crushers in quantities other than those listed in section 7.1 (a) (3) above, the usual or normal differential for the particular quantity sold shall continue to apply.

[Subparagraph (3), formerly (2), amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12022, effective 9-4-43.]

(4) Container and quantity differentials for sellers who are not crushers. The maximum delivered prices of the above linseed oil products sold by sellers who are not crushers, shall be the tank car prices set forth above, plus the seller's usual and normal differential for such linseed oil products when delivered in the container and quantity that is being delivered. In and only in those cases where sellers who are not crushers customarily sold on an f. o. b. basis, there may also be added the actual cost of delivery to the buyer.

[Subparagraph (4), formerly (3), added by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12022, effective 9-4-43.]

(b) Raw linseed oil and linseed oil products, delivered in zones 2 to 9, inclusive. To determine his maximum delivered price for the above enumerated linseed oil products delivered in Zones 2 to 9, inclusive, the seller shall,

(1) Calculate his maximum price for such linseed oil products under the preceding paragraphs of this Article VII—(section 7.1 (a)), assuming for the purpose of such calculation that the delivery is being made in Zone 1.

(2) Add to the maximum price thus arrived at the differentials hereinafter set forth for the particular zone in which the oil actually is being delivered:

Zone:	Differentials to be added Cents per pound
2	0.2
3	.4
4	.6
5	.5
6	.5
7	.6
8	.5
9	None

(3) In those cases, and only those cases, where such linseed oil products are being delivered by crushers, in returnable drums in less than carlot quantities, within the corporate limits of the cities of Los Angeles, Calif., San Francisco, Calif., Portland, Ore., Seattle, Wash., and Spokane, Wash., add the actual cost of transporting such linseed oil product from the seller's nearest warehouse to the buyer.

The total thus arrived at shall be the seller's maximum delivered price at the place where delivery actually is made.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12022, effective 9-4-43.]

(c) Sales to agencies of the United States that require prices on an f. o. b. basis. Where, and only where, linseed oil products are sold to any agency of the United States that specifies that bids to, and contracts with, it shall be made on an f. o. b. basis, the maximum price of such linseed oil shall be on an f. o. b. basis. The maximum price of such linseed oil product, f. o. b. producer's plant, shall be equal to the maximum delivered price of a similar linseed oil product, in similar containers, sold in similar quantities to any other purchaser in the city in which the seller has his plant, minus .3 cents per pound.

(d) Definitions. When used in this Article VII, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Zone 1" means the area included in the states of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and Wisconsin.

(2) "Zone 2" means the area included in the states of Michigan, Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia, in all that portion of New York west of and including the counties of Niagara, Erie, and Cattaraugus, and in that portion of Pennsylvania west of and including the counties of McKean, Cameron, Clearfield, Cambria and Somerset.

(3) "Zone 3" means the area included in the states of Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland, in all that portion of New York east of and including the counties of Orleans, Genesee, Wyoming, Allegany, and in all that portion of Pennsylvania east of and including the counties of Potter, Clinton, Centre Blair and Bedford and in the District of Columbia.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 12022, effective 9-4-43.]

(4) "Zone 4" means the area included in the state of Florida, and also the following port cities: Charleston, South Carolina; Savannah, Georgia; Brunswick, Georgia, and Mobile, Alabama.

(5) "Zone 5" means the area included in the states of Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama (except Mobile), Georgia (except Savannah and Brunswick), and South Carolina (except Charleston).

(6) "Zone 6" means the area included in the states of Montana, North Dakota, Wyoming, South Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado and Kansas.

(7) "Zone 7" means the area included in the states of New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Texas, and Louisiana.

(8) "Zone 8" means the area included in the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, Utah and Arizona.

(9) "Zone 9" means the area included in the state of California.

ARTICLE VIII—OLIVE OIL

SEC. 8.1 Maximum prices of domestic olive oil. The maximum prices of the following described domestic olive oils shall be the following prices:

(a) Pure pressed edible domestic olive oil, f. o. b. producer's plant in returnable drums, carlots or less than carlots, as follows:

Percent F. F. A. (Max.):	Dollars per gallon
.50	4.80
1.00	4.70
1.41 (U. S. P.)	4.60

1.75	4.55
2.00	4.50
2.25	4.45
2.50	4.40
2.75	4.35
3.00	4.30

(b) Pure pressed domestic olive oil, f. o. b. producer's plant, in returnable drums, carlots or less than carlots, as follows:

Percent F. F. A. (range):	Dollars per gallon
3.01 to 3.50	4.25
3.51 to 4.00	4.20
4.01 to 5.00	4.15
5.01 to 6.00	4.10
6.01 to 7.00	4.05
7.01 to 8.00	4.00
8.01 or more	4.00, less 12¢ for each 1% or fraction of 1% of F. F. A. over 8%.

(c) Refined, bleached, and deodorized domestic olive oil, f. o. b. producer's plant, in returnable drums, carlots or less than carlots, as follows:

Percent F. F. A. (max.):	Dollars per gallon
.50	4.75

SEC. 8.2 Differentials. The maximum prices of domestic olive oil when sold in the following described containers, shall be the prices set forth above for such oil in returnable drums, plus not more than, or minus at least, the differentials set forth below:

Container:	Differential
Tankcars	6½¢ per gallon less than olive oil in returnable drums.
Wooden barrels	10¢ per gallon more than olive oil in returnable drums.
Drums or other metal containers holding less than 55 gallons and more than 6 gallons.	None.
Tin or other metal containers holding less than 7 gallons and more than 1 gallon.	10¢ per gallon more than olive oil in returnable drums.
Glass containers holding less than 7 gallons and more than 1 gallon.	15¢ per gallon more than olive oil in returnable drums.

SEC. 8.3 Maximum prices of imported olive oil. The maximum price of imported olive oil, in drums with duties and taxes paid, f. o. b. port of entry, shall be the maximum price, in returnable drums at the producer's plant, of domestic olive oil of the same F. F. A., plus 61½¢ per gallon.

SEC. 8.4 Differentials. The maximum price of imported olive oil when sold in the following described containers, shall be the price set forth above for such oil in drums, plus the differentials set forth below:

Container:	Differential
Drums or other metal containers holding less than 55 gallons and more than 6 gallons.	None.
Tin or other metal containers holding less than 7 gallons and more than 1 gallon.	10¢ per gallon more than such oil in drums.
Glass containers holding less than 7 gallons and more than 1 gallon.	15¢ per gallon more than such oil in drums.

SEC. 8.5 Limitation. The maximum prices for domestic olive oil and for imported olive oil established by this Article VIII are the maximum prices for such olive oils when sold in containers holding more than one gallon; they are not the maximum prices for such olive oils when sold in containers holding one gallon or less.

ARTICLE IX—IMPORTED VEGETABLE OILS

ARTICLE X—SHORTENING AND COOKING AND SALAD OILS

SEC. 10.1 Maximum prices of processors. The maximum prices of processors for the following shortenings and cooking and salad oils shall be the following prices:

(a) Standard shortening. The maximum delivered prices of Swift's "Jewel" and "Sanco"; Armour's "Vegetole"; Lookout's "Domino"; Wilson's "Advance"; Atlantic Lard's "Royal Aster"; Procter and Gamble's "Flakewhite" and "Fluffo"; Southern's "Scoco" and "Kneedit"; South Texas' "Crustene"; Gulf and Valley's "Blue Plate"; Interstate's "Mrs. Tucker"; Lever Brothers' "Hydora" and Humko's "Humko" and all other brands of standard shortening manufactured or distributed by the processors of these brands shall be the following prices:

	North	South	Pacific coast
Drums, tierces, or fibre containers of more than 45 pounds (per pound)	Cents 16.50	Cents 16.25	Cents 16.75
Cartons:	Dollars	Dollars	Dollars
(1) 12/4 lbs. (per case)	$8.10	$8.00	$8.20
(2) 48/1 lbs. (per case)	8.25	8.15	8.35

[Table amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 795, effective 1-26-44.]

(b) Hydrogenated shortening. (1) The maximum delivered prices of Procter and Gamble's "Primex"; Lever Brothers' "Cove"; Southern's "Heavy Duty MFB"; Swift's "Vream"; Armour's "Kremit"; and Wilson's "Bakerite" shall be the following prices:

	North	South	Pacific coast
Drums, tierces, or fibre containers of more than 45 pounds (per pound)	Cents 17.75	Cents 17.75	Cents 17.75

[Table amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 795, effective 1-26-44.]

(2) The maximum delivered prices of Procter and Gamble's "Sweetex"; Lever Brothers' "Covo Super Mix"; Southern's "Quik Blend"; Swift's "Vreamay"; Armour's "Kremor"; and Wilson's "Bakerite 140" shall be the following prices:

	North	South	Pacific coast
Drums, tierces, or fibre containers of more than 45 pounds (per pound)	Cents 18.75	Cents 18.75	Cents 18.75

[Table amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 795, effective 1-26-44.]

(3) The maximum delivered prices of Lever Brothers' "Spry" and Procter and Gamble's "Crisco" shall be the following prices:

	North	South	Pacific coast
Three and six pound airtight containers (per case)	$7.74	$7.74	$7.74

(c) Salad oil. The maximum delivered prices of Southern's "77" and "Angela Mia"; Gulf and Valley's "Blue Plate"; Procter and Gamble's "Puritan" and "Fluffo"; Swift's "Jewel"; Armour's "Star"; Wilson's "Certified"; South Texas' "Crustene"; Interstate's "Mrs. Tucker" and Humko's "Humko" shall be the following prices:

	North	South	Pacific coast
(1) Drums (per pound)	16.80¢	16.80¢	17.00¢
(2) 1/5 gal. can (per can)	$6.65	$6.55	$6.75
(3) 6/1 gal. can (per case)	$8.20	$8.10	$8.30

The maximum delivered prices of Southern's "Wesson Oil" shall be the following prices:

	North	South	Pacific coast
(4) 12/1 qt. cans (per case)	$8.40	$8.35	$8.50
(5) 24/1 pint cans (per case)	8.60	8.60	8.65

(d) Cooking oil. The maximum delivered prices of Procter and Gamble's "Marigold"; Southern's "88"; Gulf and Valley's "Clarola"; Swift's "Golden West"; Armour's "Supreme"; Wilson's "Laurel"; South Texas' "Magnolia" and Interstate's "White Beauty" shall be the following prices:

	North	South	Pacific coast
(1) Drums (per pound)	16.00¢	16.00¢	16.50¢
(2) 1/5-gal. can (per can)	$6.45	$6.35	$6.55
(3) 6/1-gal. cans (per case)	$7.95	$7.85	$8.25

SEC. 10.2 Differentials—(a) Quantity. The maximum delivered prices of hydrogenated and standard shortenings, established in section 10.1 above, are the maximum delivered prices for hydrogenated and standard shortenings when shipped in (1) carlots or (2) the quantity to which the lowest price is usually applied in the processor's published lists. When hydrogenated and standard shortenings are shipped in less than (1) carlots or (2) the quantity to which the lowest price is usually applied in the processor's published lists, the usual or normal differential for such a quantity shall continue to apply.

(b) Quantity. The maximum delivered prices of salad and cooking oils, established in section 10.1 above, are the maximum prices for salad and cooking oils when shipped in the quantities usually named in the processor's published lists. When salad and cooking oils are shipped in carlots on which a refining in transit privilege is applicable the usual or normal discount (if any) from the maximum prices established in the schedule shall continue to apply. When shipped in a quantity less than the quantity to which the lowest price is usually applied in the processor's published lists, the usual or normal differential over the maximum prices established in this schedule shall continue to apply.

(c) Container. When hydrogenated and standard shortenings and salad and cooking oils are sold in containers of different sizes from the container sizes named in section 10.1, the usual or normal differential for size of container shall continue to apply.

(d) Cash discounts. The maximum prices of hydrogenated and standard shortenings and salad and cooking oils, established in section 10.1, are the maximum prices before cash discounts. The usual or normal discount for the receipt of payment within the period usually specified in the processor's published lists shall continue to apply.

(e) Area. The maximum prices of hydrogenated and standard shortenings and salad and cooking oils, established in section 10.1, are basic prices for the three areas named (North, South, and Pacific Coast). The usual or normal differentials which have applied in the past over base prices to some points within these areas shall continue to apply.

(f) Limitation. The maximum prices of hydrogenated and standard shortenings and salad and cooking oils, established in this Article X are the maximum prices on sales made by processors. These prices are not the maximum prices on sales made by wholesalers and retailers.

(g) The maximum prices established in section 10.1, shall apply to sales to any person.

(h) The usual or normal differentials for type of purchaser shall continue to apply.

(i) Branch houses and car routes. Where a processor sells a brand of standard or hydrogenated shortening enumerated in section 10.1 hereof through a branch house or car route owned by the processor or owned by a corporation more than 50% of whose stock is owned or controlled by the processor, to a purchaser other than (1) a jobber, or (2) a wholesaler, or (3) a purchaser who buys a carlot or that quantity to which the lowest price usually is applied in the processor's published lists, or (4) a purchaser who during the years 1941 and 1942 customarily has bought in carlots or the quantity to which the lowest price usually is applied in the processor's published lists, the processor's maximum price on such sales shall be 106% of the lesser of (i) the amount that he bills his branch house or car route for the shortening so sold, or (ii) the maximum price permitted him by sections 10.1 to 10.2 (h) inclusive, for carlot shipments of the shortening so sold.

(j) Branch houses and car routes. Where a processor sells a brand of salad or cooking oil enumerated in section 10.1 hereof through a branch house or car route owned by the processor or owned by a corporation more than 50% of whose stock is owned or controlled by the processor, to a purchaser other than (1) a jobber, or (2) a wholesaler, or (3) a purchaser who buys a carlot or that quantity to which the lowest price usually is applied in the processor's published lists, or (4) a purchaser who during the years 1941 and 1942 customarily has bought in carlots or the quantity to which the lowest price usually is applied in the processor's published lists, the processor's maximum price on such sales shall be 110% of the lesser of (i) the amount that he bills his branch house or car route for the oil so sold, or (ii) the maximum price permitted him by sections 10.1 to 10.2 (h) inclusive, for carlot shipments of the oil so sold.

SEC. 10.3 Maximum prices of brands for which maximum prices are not established in section 10.1. (a) The maximum price of a brand of shortening, the maximum price of which is not established in section 10.1, shall be determined according to the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation [6] except that the period from January 16, 1942 to January 31, 1942 inclusive shall be substituted for the period of the month of March 1942 in determining the highest price which may be charged in accordance with §§ 1499.2 and 1499.3 thereof.

(b) The maximum price of a brand of salad or cooking oil, which is not specifically named in section 10.1, shall be determined according to the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, except that the period from January 16, 1942 to January 31, 1942 inclusive shall be substituted for the period of the month of March 1942 in determining the highest price which may be charged in accordance with §§ 1499.2 and 1499.3 thereof.

SEC. 10.4 Applications for adjustment of maximum prices by processors. If the processor of a brand of shortening, or of a brand of salad or cooking oil, the maximum price of which is not established in section 10.1, feels that his brand should command the same maximum price as those brands for which a maximum price is established in section 10.1, or if he feels that the maximum price for his brand, as computed under section 10.3, is unduly low in relation to the maximum prices of those brands the maximum prices of which are established in section 10.1, he should file an application for adjustment with the Office of Price Administration in accordance with the procedure set forth in Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1. Such application should set forth in detail the reasons why the applicant believes his brand should command the maximum price requested by the applicant in his application. The application should also set forth in detail the price relationship between the applicant's brand and one of the brands specifically named in section 10.1.

SEC. 10.5 Sales of bulk shortening to government agencies. On sales of standard or hydrogenated shortening in drums or tierces holding 300 pounds or more, to the Army, Navy, Lend-Lease Adminstration, or any other government agency, the maximum price shall be the maximum price as determined under the preceding sections of this Article X, plus in the case of standard shortening, .4¢ per pound for each pound of vegetable oil contained in such standard shortening and, in the case of hydrogenated shortening, .2¢ per pound for each pound of hydrogenated shortening so sold.

[Sec. 10.5 added by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 795, effective 1-26-44. Former 10.5 redesignated 10.6 by Am. 12.]

SEC. 10.6 Definitions. When used in this Article X, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Standard shortening" means a shortening which is (1) made from hardened vegetable oil or (2) made from a mixture of vegetable oil and animal fat and/or hardened marine animal oils. It must conform with the following specifications:

Suspended matter: The shortening must be free from any appreciable amount of suspended matter.

Taste and odor: The shortening must be free from rancidity, foreign odor and sourness.

Moisture: The moisture must not exceed 0.3% (Vacuum Oven Method, Official Agricultural Chemists Association, 6th ed., 1940, p. 423).

Smoke point: The shortening must withstand a temperature of 400 degrees F. without smoking.

Stability: The stability of the shortening must be not less than three hours (Active Oxygen Method; King, Roschen and Irwin; Oil and Soap, 10, 105, June, 1933).

Plasticity: The shortening must remain solid, and be plastic and workable at a temperature within the range from 70 degrees F. to 90 degrees F.

F. F. A.: The F. F. A. must not exceed 0.3% (Method, Official Agricultural Chemists Association, 6th ed., 1940, p. 436).

[6] 9 F.R. 1285, 5169.

(b) "Hydrogenated shortening" means a shortening made entirely from vegetable oils, each of which has been hydrogenated to some extent. It must conform with the following specifications:

No free oils: The shortening must contain no free oils.

Suspended matter: The shortening must be free from any appreciable amount of suspended matter.

Taste and odor: The shortening must be free from rancidity, foreign odor and sourness.

Moisture: The moisture must not exceed 0.2% (Vacuum Oven Method Official Agricultural Chemists Association, 6th ed., 1940, p. 428).

Smoke point: The shortening must withstand a temperature of 400 degrees F. without smoking.

Stability: The stability of the shortening must be not less than three hours (Active Oxygen Method; King, Roschen and Irwin; Oil and Soap 10, 105, June, 1933).

Plasticity: The shortening must remain solid and be plastic and workable at a temperature within the range from 70 degrees F. to 90 degrees F.

F. F. A.: The F. F. A. must not exceed 0.12% (Method, Official Agricultural Chemists Association, 6th ed., 1940, p. 426).

Iodine number: The iodine number must not exceed 80 (Hanus Method, Official Agricultural Chemists Association, 6th ed., 1940, p. 429).

(c) The term "North" includes the following states:

Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota, Colorado, Wyoming.

The term "South" includes the following states:

Delaware, Maryland, Washington, D. C., West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico.

The term "Pacific Coast" includes the following states:

Washington, Oregon, California, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Arizona.

(d) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of the foregoing.

ARTICLE XI—LARD

SEC. 11.1 Maximum prices. The maximum prices of lard shall be the prices computed as follows:

(a) Chicago and East St. Louis basing points area. This area shall include that part of the continental United States east of the Mississippi River and north of the northern boundaries of Tennessee and North Carolina, except Minnesota. Chicago and East St. Louis basing points maximum prices:

(1) Loose lard 12.80 cents per pound, in tank cars, delivered within corporate limits of basing points.

(2) Base or standard commercial refined lard, 14.55 cents per pound, in tierces, delivered within corporate limits of basing points.

(i) The maximum price that may be charged by any processor for loose lard, delivered, at any community in this area outside the corporate limits of the basing points, shall be 12.80 cents per pound, plus the tankcar freight rate per pound on loose lard from the nearest basing point in the area to the community of sale. No other charges may be added to this delivered price.

(ii) The maximum price at which a processor may sell base or standard commercial refined lard in tierces, delivered, at any community in this area, outside the corporate limits of the basing points, shall be 14.55 cents per pound, plus the packing house product freight rate, tare added, between the nearest basing point and the community of sale. No other charges may be added to this delivered price.

(b) Kansas City basing point area. This area shall include that part of the continental United States east of the Mississippi River and south of the southern boundaries of Kentucky and Virginia. Kansas City basing point maximum prices:

(1) Loose lard, 12.55 cents per pound, in tank cars, delivered within corporate limits of Kansas City.

(2) Base or standard commercial refined lard, 14.30 cents per pound, in tierces, delivered within corporate limits of Kansas City.

(i) The maximum price that may be charged by any processor for loose lard, delivered, at any community in this area shall be 12.55 cents per pound, plus the tank-car freight rate per pound on loose lard from the basing point for this area to the community of sale. No other charges may be added to this delivered price.

(ii) The maximum price at which a processor may sell base or standard commercial refined lard in tierces, delivered, at any community in this area shall be 14.30 cents per pound, plus the packing house product freight rate, tare added, between the basing point and the community of sale. No other charges may be added to this delivered price.

(c) Multiple basing point area. This area shall include that part of the continental United States west of the Mississippi River and all of the State of Minnesota. Basing points shall be as follows:

Iowa: Cedar Rapids, Davenport, Des Moines, Dubuque, Fort Dodge, Marshalltown, Mason City, Ottumwa, Waterloo.

Minnesota: Albert Lea, Austin, Duluth, South St. Paul, St. Paul, Winona.

Missouri: Joplin, Kansas City, South St. Joseph, Springfield.

Nebraska: South Omaha, Omaha.

Maximum prices at each of these basing points shall be as follows:

(1) Loose lard, 12.55 cents per pound, in tank cars, delivered within corporate limits of basing points.

(2) Base or standard commercial refined lard, 14.30 cents per pound, delivered within corporate limits of basing points.

(i) The maximum price that may be charged by any processor for loose lard, delivered, at any community in this area, outside the corporate limits of the basing points, shall be 12.55 cents per pound, plus the tank-car freight rate per pound or loose lard from the nearest basing point in the area to the community of sale. No other charges may be added to this delivered price.

(ii) The maximum price at which a processor may sell base or standard commercial refined lard in tierces, delivered, at any community in this area, outside the corporate limits of the basing points, shall be 14.30 cents per pound, plus the packing house products freight rate, tare added, between the nearest basing point and the community of sale. No other charges may be added to this delivered price.

SEC. 11.2 Quality differentials. To determine his maximum price for lard other than loose lard or base or standard commercial refined lard in tierces, the processor should determine his maximum price for base or standard commercial refined lard in tierces, in accordance with this schedule, and to this figure add no more than, or, subtract at least the quality differentials hereinafter set forth for the appropriate type of lard, irrespective of area, quantity or type of package:

Prime steam	¾ cent per pound under base or standard commercial refined lard.
Rendered pork fat	1 cent per pound under base or standard commercial refined lard.
Refined rendered pork fat.	⅛ cent per pound under base or standard commercial refined lard.
Base or standard commercial refined lard.	None.
Special refined hardened lard.	⅛ cent per pound over base or standard commercial refined lard.
Open kettle rendered lard.	⅛ cent per pound over base or standard commercial refined lard.
Neutral lard	1 cent per pound over base or standard commercial refined lard.
Edible lard oil	1½ cents per pound over base or standard commercial refined lard.
Lard flakes	1½ cents per pound over base or standard commercial refined lard.
Rendered pork fat flakes.	1½ cents per pound over rendered pork fat.
Specialty lard	4/10 cent per pound over base or standard commercial refined lard.
Hydrogenated lard	1¼ cents per pound over base or standard commercial refined lard.

[Table amended by Am. 20, 9 F.R. 5314, effective 5-23-44 and Am. 31, effective 8-14-44]

SEC. 11.3 Container differentials. (a) To determine his maximum price for lard sold in other than tierces, the processor should first compute his maximum price for the particular type of lard involved, in accordance with the above provisions of this schedule, than, to this figure he may add a sum equal to, but no more than, the differential hereinafter set forth for the appropriate type of package, irrespective of area, quantity or quality:

	Cents per lb.
Tierces	None
400 pound non-returnable steel drums	None
120 pound non-returnable steel drums	None
57 pound tubs	None
65 pound hardwood tubs	⅛
50 pound tins	¼
25 pound tins	½
20 pound tins	1
16 pound tins	1
20 pound wooden pails	1
8 pound tins	1
4 pound tins	1¼
3 pound tin or fibre containers	1¼
8 pound cartons	¼
4 pound cartons	¼
2 pound cartons	¼
1 pound cartons	¼

(b) If a processor sells lard in a type of package not listed in section 11.3 (a) above, his maximum price for lard sold in such type of package shall be his maximum price for the particular type of lard involved, in accordance with this schedule plus the usual or normal differential for such type of package.

SEC. 11.4 Quantity differentials. (a) The maximum prices for processors, established by sections 11.1 to 11.3 of this schedule, are maximum prices for carload sales of a lard commodity or combination of lard commodities where such carload is sold to one buyer and shipped in one shipment whether a through car shipment, single destination, or a stopover joint car shipment, more than one destination.

(b) The processor's maximum price for less than carload sales shall be the processor's maximum delivered price at the community of sale, as established by section 11.1 to 11.3 of this schedule, plus ¼ cent per pound.

(c) Section 11.4 shall apply whether the sale is made direct or through branch house or car route activity or similar form of selling, so long as such selling unit is processor-owned or operated.

SEC. 11.5 Cash lard. The maximum price for cash lard shall be 13.80 cents per pound, Chicago basis, and the maximum price for lard futures contracts traded on the Chicago Board of Trade shall be 13.80 cents per pound.

SEC. 11.6 F. S. C. C. lard. The maximum price per pound, f. o. b. shipping point, for lard sold to the Federal Surplus Commodity Corporation shall be the maximum delivered price, per pound, permitted by this schedule for carload quantities of similar lard, similarly packed, sold to other purchasers, and delivered at the point of shipment.

SEC. 11.7 Lard flakes. Where a Chicago processor sells lard flakes to another processor who is to use such lard flakes in the manufacture of war lard and the purchasing processor's maximum selling price on base or standard commercial refined lard, as established under this Article XI, is lower than the maximum price on base or standard commercial refined lard, as established for the corporate limits of Chicago under section 11.1 (a), the maximum price on such lard flakes shall be the maximum price on lard flakes, as established for the corporate limits of Chicago under section 11.1 (a), plus the actual cost of freight from the seller's plant to the buyer's plant. Where the maximum price on lard flakes is computed under this section 11.7, the maximum selling price of the purchasing processor on war lard, in whose manufacture such lard flakes are used, shall be the maximum price on war lard, as established for the corporate limits of Chicago under section 11.1 (a), plus ⅛ cent per pound.

SEC. 11.8 Lard or pork fat sold for inedible use by certain sellers. Where an edible pork fat or lard product is sold by a seller who sold a similar pork fat or lard product prior to January 1, 1943, and who, prior to said January 1, 1943 customarily sold over 75% of his production of such pork fat or lard product for inedible use, the maximum price of such pork fat or lard product shall be:

(a) On sales of such pork fat or lard product for edible use, the maximum prices for such products set forth in this Article XI.

(b) On sales of such pork fat or lard product for inedible use, the maximum price established by Article XIV hereof for the type and grade of inedible grease that the seller designated such product as being when he sold such product for inedible use prior to January 1, 1943, or, if no such designation was then made, the maximum price established by Article XIV hereof for that type and grade of inedible grease to which the product being sold would be most similar if it were inedible.

[Sec. 11.8 added by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 15523, effective 11-17-43. Former 11.8 and 11.9 redesignated 11.9 and 11.10 respectively by Am. 8.]

SEC. 11.9 Definitions. When used in this Article XI, the term:

(a) "Loose lard" means lard conforming with paragraph 29, section 1, Regulation 1 of the Meat Inspection Regulations of the United States Department of Agriculture regardless of rendering method and not refined or packaged.

(b) "Prime steam lard" shall be considered the same as loose lard both as to definition and price consideration except that it shall be rendered in steam tanks.

(c) "Cash lard" means prime steam lard in tierces conforming with the requirements of paragraph 1479, pages 183–184, of the rules and regulations of Board of Trade of City of Chicago, March 8, 1941.

(d) "Rendered pork fat" means those rendered edible pork fats, regardless of rendering method, not eligible for lard as such, in accordance with paragraph 30, section 1, Regulation 1 of the Meat Inspection Regulations of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(e) "Refined rendered pork fat" means rendered pork fat, as defined above, regardless of rendering method used in processing such pork fats, refined under standard commercial practice to conform to the following specifications:

Moisture: Not to exceed 0.3% as tested by the vacuum oven method of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

Suspended matter: Shall be free from appreciable amounts of suspended matter.

F. F. A.: Not to exceed 0.5% as tested by method of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

Taste and odor: Shall be mild, sweet and normal.

Stability: Not less than three hours, as determined by active oxygen method. (King, Roschen & Irwin, Oil and Soap 10, 105, June, 1933.)

(f) "Base or standard commercial refined lard" means that kind of lard produced from loose lard, regardless of rendering method used in making the loose lard, and refined under standard commercial practice to conform to the following specifications:

Moisture: Not to exceed 0.3%. (Same test as above.)

Suspended matter: Shall be free from appreciable amounts of suspended matter.

F. F. A.: Not to exceed 0.5%. (Same test as above.)

Taste and odor: Shall be mild, sweet and normal for pure lard.

Stability: Not less than three hours as determined by active oxygen method.

Plasticity: Shall remain solid and be plastic and workable at ordinary temperatures.

(g) "Special refined hardened lard" means lard which conforms to the requirements of base or standard commercial refined lard, as above defined, with the addition of a minimum of 8% lard flakes which have a minimum titre of 57° C. and shall conform to the following specifications:

Moisture: Not to exceed 0.2%. (Same test as above).

Suspended matter: Shall be free from appreciable amounts of suspended matter.

F. F. A.: Not to exceed 0.5%. (Same test as above.)

Taste and odor: Shall be mild, sweet and normal for pure lard.

Stability: Not less than three hours as determined by active oxygen method.

Melting point: Not less than 45° C., as tested by Wiley Method of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

(h) "Open kettle rendered lard" means that kind of lard which is produced from 100% leaf fat or any mixture of leaf fat and back fat down to a minimum of 40% leaf fat, and is kettle rendered in a regular commercial manner to conform to the following specifications:

Moisture: Not to exceed 0.3%. (Same test as above.)

Suspended matter: Shall be free from appreciable amounts of suspended matter.

F. F. A.: Shall be less than 0.5%. (Same test as above.)

Taste and odor: Shall have a characteristic kettle rendered flavor.

Stability: Not less than five hours as determined by active oxygen method.

Plasticity: Shall remain solid and be plastic and workable at ordinary temperatures.

(i) "Neutral lard" means that kind of lard from fresh chilled leaf fat only, rendered at a temperature not exceeding 130° F., to conform to the following specifications:

Moisture: Not to exceed 0.3%. (Same test as above.)

Suspended matter: Shall be free from appreciable amounts of suspended matter.

F. F. A.: Not to exceed 0.5%. (Same test as above.)

Taste and odor: Shall be neutral in flavor.

Stability: Not less than ten hours as determined by active oxygen method.

(j) "Lard flakes" means hydrogenated lard which conforms with paragraph 29, section 1, Regulation 1 of the Meat Inspection Regulations of the United States Department of Agriculture. The titre shall not be less than 57° C. and free fatty acid shall not exceed 0.2%.

(k) "Rendered pork fat flakes" means hydrogenated rendered pork fat conforming to paragraph 30, section 1, Regulation 1 of the Meat Inspection Regulations of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(l) "Edible lard oil" means the liquid or oil portion mechanically pressed from prime steam lard that has a minimum stability of seven hours measured by the active oxygen method and that has been previously conditioned by seeding under controlled temperatures, which oil conforms to the following specifications:

Moisture: Not to exceed 0.3% as tested by the vacuum oven method of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, 6th ed., 1940, P. 423.

Suspended matter: Shall be free from any appreciable amount of suspended matter.

F. F. A.: Shall not exceed 0.5% as tested by Association of Official Agricultural Chemists, 6th ed., 1940, P. 436.

Taste and odor: Shall be mild, sweet, and normal for pure lard.

Viscosity: At 100° F., Saybolt Method, shall be not more than 300 seconds.

(m) "Tare" means 15% of the packing house product freight rate, whether carload sale or less than carload sale and regardless of package or type of lard.

(n) "Packing house product freight rate" means the packing house product freight rate, published in public tariffs for minimum 30,000 pound weight packing house products (except canned meats) or if no rate for 30,000 pound minimum weight same class is available the nearest minimum weight carload established for same class shall apply in computing maximum prices under this Article XI.

(o) Community of sale. (1) Except as otherwise provided in sections 11.9 (o) (2) and 11.9 (o) (3), "community of sale" means that point at which the purchaser from the processor resells the lard so purchased, regardless of the point at which actual delivery of the lard from the processor to the purchaser takes place.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 24, 9 F.R. 6817, effective 6-22-44]

(2) Where the purchaser of the lard is the owner of four or more retail stores at which the lard ultimately will be resold by him, and has the lard delivered by the seller to a warehouse for storage until he (the purchaser) reships it to his retail stores for resale, or to another warehouse for storage and subsequent reshipment to his retail stores for resale, and is unable to determine, at the time the lard is delivered by the seller to such warehouse, the particular retail stores from which the lard will be resold by him, then, in such case, and only in such case, "community of sale" means the place where the warehouse to which the lard is delivered by the seller is located.

(3) Where lard is purchased from a processor for purposes other than reselling it as lard (such as, but not limited to, purchases for consumption, or for use in manufacturing another product, etc.), "community of sale" means the place where is located the buyer's premises in which the lard is consumed, or employed in manufacturing another product, or otherwise used.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 24, 9 F.R. 6817, effective 6-22-44.]

[Paragraph (o) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 11509, effective 8-24-43 and as otherwise noted]

(p) "The maximum price delivered" means the maximum price delivered at the community of sale, as established by section 11.1 (a) (b) and (c), regardless of the method of shipment and regardless of the point at which actual delivery of the lard from the processor to the purchaser takes place. It also means the actual dollars and cents figure, as computed decimally under this Article XI, and no higher price may be charged, although the processor may adjust this maximum price downward to the next nearest eighth of a cent or lower figure, if he so desires.

(q) Hydrogenated lard. (1) "Hydrogenated lard" means lard, all of which has been hydrogenated to some extent, to which no anti-oxidant or preservative has been added, and which conforms at least to the following specifications:

Stability: Not less than 30 hours as determined by the active oxygen method.
Smoke point: Not less than 420° F.
Moisture: Not to exceed 0.01 percent.
Plasticity: Shall remain solid and be plastic and workable at 65-95° F.
F. F. A: Not over 0.05 percent.
Taste and oder: Bland.
Suspended matter: Shall be free from appreciable amounts of suspended matter.

(2) The fact that for the purposes of, or under the regulations or rulings of any other Government agency, lard, all of which is hydrogenated to some extent, may not be described or labelled as lard, shall not prevent its being deemed to be lard within the meaning of that word as used in this Article XI. Such lard, all of which is hydrogenated to some extent, shall be deemed to be lard within the meaning of that word as it is used in this Article XI, and shall be priced as lard.

[Paragraph (q) added by Am. 20, 9 F.R. 5314, effective 5-22-44.]

(r) Specialty lard. (1) "Specialty lard" means lard that is bleached and deodorized, to which an approved anti-oxidant may be added, which conforms to the following specifications:

Moisture: Not to exceed 0.1% (same test as above).
Suspended matter: Shall be free from appreciable amounts of suspended matter.
F. F. A.: Not to exceed 0.1%.
Tast and odor: Shall be free from taste and odor.
Stability: No less than 15 hours, as determined by active oxygen method (King, Roschen and Irwin, Oil and Soap 10,105, June 1933)
Plasticity: Shall remain solid and be plastic and workable at 45°F-90°F.
Smoke point: Not less than 420° F.

[Paragraph (r) added by Am. 31, effective 8-14-44]

SEC. 11.10 Denatured edible lard. Where (a) denatured edible lard is sold for use in making an inedible product, and (b) where such lard is delivered by the seller on or before the 31st day of October 1943, the maximum price of such denatured edible lard shall be the same as the maximum price set forth above for similar edible lard that is not denatured.

[Sec. 11.10, formerly 11.9 added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 11296, effective 8-14-43]

SEC. 11.11 Loose prime steam lard sold to processors located in basing points. Where loose prime steam lard is sold and delivered in tankcars or tanktrucks to a processor who is located within the corporate limits of any of the above basing points, and is delivered by the seller from a plant located within the railroad switching limits of the same basing point, the seller may add to the maximum prices hereinabove set forth the railroad switching charge incurred where delivery is in tankcars, or, where delivery is in tanktrucks, an amount, per pound, not greater than the sum that would be charged, per pound, by a railroad carrier for the most comparable switching movement of a tankcar containing 60,000 pounds.

[Sec. 11.11 added by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 840, effective 1-18-44; amended by Am. 21, 9 F.R. 6232, effective 6-12-44]

SEC. 11.12 Maximum prices are for processors and for other sellers who would otherwise have lower ceilings. The above maximum prices are maximum prices for processors. They are also the maximum prices for any other sellers whose maximum prices, as established under any other regulation, would be less than the maximum prices hereinabove established for processors.

[Sec. 11.12 added by Am. 25, 9 F.R. 7420, effective 7-8-44]

ARTICLE XII—OLEO

SEC. 12.1 Maximum prices. The maximum prices of the following fats and oils shall be the following prices:

Oleo—Packed in used drums or barrels, f. o. b. Chicago:	Cents per pound
Extra oleo stock	12.75
Prime oleo stock	12.50
Extra oleo oil	13.04
Prime oleo oil	12.75
Prime oleo stearine	10.61

(a) The usual or normal differentials for grade, quantity, container and type of purchaser, above or below these prices for basic grades, shall continue to apply.

(b) The usual or normal differentials, above or below these f. o. b. Chicago prices, shall continue to apply for all other shipping points.

ARTICLE XIII—WOOL GREASE

SEC. 13.1 Maximum prices. The maximum prices of the following fats and oils shall be the following prices:

Wool grease: f. o. b. producer's plant, in returnable drums, carlots.

	Cents per pound
U. S. P. lanolin, anhydrous cosmetic grade	35
U. S. P. lanolin, pharmaceutical type	33
U. S. P. lanolin, hydrous	32
Technical lanolin, bleached and deodorized, ash maximum 1/10 of 1%, moisture maximum 1/4 of 1%, acid maximum 1/4 of 1%, 1 1/2 % loss with petroleum ether extraction, color 3 1/2 A. S. T. M. standard	31
Neutral wool grease, fully refined, acid maximum 2%, ash maximum 1/10 of 1%, moisture maximum 1%	29
Neutral wool grease, fully refined, over 2% acid, ash maximum 1/10 of 1%, moisture maximum 1%	27 1/2
Crude centrifugal wool grease, known as dry, moisture maximum 2 1/2 %, ash maximum 1/4 of 1%, maximum 1 1/2 F. F. A.	20
Crude centrifugal wool grease, known as wet, over 5% moisture, maximum 2 1/2 F. F. A., not refined, anhydrous grease basis	17
Common Degras, moisture maximum 2 1/2 %, 1/4 to 1% ash, maximum 11% F. F. A.	12
Common Degras, moisture maximum 2 1/2 %, 1/4 to 1% ash, maximum 20% F. F. A.	11
Common Degras, moisture maximum 2 1/2 %, 1/4 to 1% ash, maximum 30% F. F. A.	10

(a) The usual or normal differential for type of container shall continue to apply.

(b) The usual or normal differentials for grades above or below the listed grades shall continue to apply.

(c) When shipped in less than carload lots, the usual or normal premium shall continue to apply.

(d) The maximum price of an imported wool grease, duties and taxes paid, shall be the maximum price established above for the closest grade of domestic wool grease.

ARTICLE XIV—TALLOWS AND GREASES

SEC. 14.1 Maximum prices. The maximum prices of the following tallows and greases shall be the following prices:

Tallows and greases. F. o. b. producer's plant, in tank cars or tank trucks, or in returnable or non-returnable drums, barrels, or tierces, carlots:

	Titre minimum	F. F. A. maximum	M. I. U. basis (percent)	F. A. C. maximum untreated and unbleached	Cents per pound

No. 1 pig skin & Pigsfoot	34	2	1	9	9 1/8
Garbage grease	34	60	3	No color	7

(a) Materials of less than 40 titre shall be deemed greases and shall be priced only on the basis of the maximum prices set forth above for greases; and materials of more than 39.9 titre shall be deemed tallows and shall be priced only on the basis of the maximum prices set forth above for tallows.

(b) Each type or grade of tallow or grease must be designated by the name customarily applied to it by the trade prior to August 1, 1942, and must be priced on the basis of the specifications prescribed in section 14.1 for such type or grade.

(c) The usual or normal differentials for grades, or grades with specifications other than those listed above, shall continue to apply. Bleaching qualities of any material, however, do not constitute any better grade, and do not justify any premium.

(d) When shipped in less than carload lots, the usual or normal premium shall continue to apply.

(e) When any of the above named tallows or greases are sold in drums, barrels or tierces (1) to a buyer who has obtained a priority rating or priority order for such tallows or greases from the Food Distribution Administration, (2) by a seller who customarily has charged a premium for tallows or greases when sold in drums, barrels or tierces to a person engaged in a business similar to that in which the buyer is engaged, the maximum prices of such tallows or greases shall be the prices set forth above, plus the differentials hereinafter set forth for the type of container in which the tallows or greases are shipped:

Container	Differentials to be added in cents per pound
Returnable drums, barrels or tierces	3/8
Non-returnable drums, barrels or tierces	1

(f) The maximum prices for sales of the above tallows and greases to the Federal Surplus Commodity Corporation, in non-returnable tierces, shall be the prices set forth in section 14.1 above, plus 1¢ per pound.

SEC. 14.2 Imported tallows and greases. The maximum prices of imported tallows and greases, with duties and taxes paid, f. o. b. port of entry, shall be the maximum prices set forth above for the nearest domestic grade at the producer's plant.

ARTICLE XV—SOAPSTOCKS AND FATTY ACIDS

SEC. 15.1 Maximum prices of raw soapstocks. The maximum prices of the following raw soapstocks, delivered in tank cars or tank wagons, shall be the following prices:

RAW SOAPSTOCKS—BASIS 50% T. F. A.

[Cents per pound]

	New York	Chicago & Cincinnati	Los Angeles & San Francisco
Cottonseed foots	3.625	3.50	3.50
Corn foots	3.50	3.375	3.375
Soybean foots	3.50	3.375	3.375
Peanut foots	3.875	3.75	3.75

(a) Where any of the above soapstocks are delivered to other destinations, the maximum price shall be the price set forth above for the city nearest the point to which the soapstock is delivered, plus or minus the usual or normal differential that prevailed prior to price control between the point to which the soapstock is delivered and the nearest city named in the above schedule.

(b) The usual or normal differentials for grade, above or below the listed grades, shall continue to apply.

[Sec. 15.1 amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 11508, effective 8-24-43.]

SEC. 15.2 Maximum prices of recovered or acidulated soapstocks. The maximum prices of the following recovered or acidulated soapstocks, delivered in tank cars or tank wagons, shall be the following prices:

RAW OR ACIDULATED SOAPSTOCKS

[Cents per pound]

	New York	Chicago & Cincinnati	Los Angeles & San Francisco
Acidulated cottonseed foots (black grease), basis 95% T. F. A.	7.375	7.25	7.25
Corn oil, basis 95% T. F. A.	7.25	7.00	7.00
Soybean oil, basis 95% T. F. A.	7.25	7.00	7.00
Peanut oil, basis 95% T. F. A.	8.00	7.75	7.75
Coconut oil, 99% saponifiable	10.125	10.125	10.125

(a) Where any of the above soapstocks are delivered to other destinations, the maximum price shall be the price set forth above for the city nearest the point to which the soapstock is delivered, plus or minus the usual or normal differential that prevailed prior to price control between the point to which the soapstock is delivered and the nearest city named in the above schedule.

(b) The usual or normal differentials for grade, above or below the listed grades, shall continue to apply.

(c) The usual or normal differential for type of container shall continue to apply.

[Sec. 15.2 amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 11508, effective 8-24-43.]

SEC. 15.3 Maximum prices of distilled fatty acids. The maximum prices of the following distilled fatty acids shall be the following prices:

	Cents per lb. delivered, tank cars	Cents per lb. delivered, carloads, in returnable drums or nonreturnable packages
Tallow:
East	12	12¾
Texas and Oklahoma	12½	13¼

Coconut, triple distilled, special light color	----------	16¾

	Cents per lb. f. o. b. producer's plant, tankcars	Cents per lb. f. o. b. producer's plant, carloads, in returnable drums or nonreturnable packages
Soya bean oil, from foots	11	11⅝
Soya bean oil, from crude	15¾	16⅛
Corn oil, from foots	11	11⅝
Peanut oil, from foots	11⅜	12

(a) When shipped in less than carload lots, the usual or normal premium shall continue to apply.

(b) The usual or normal differential for type of container shall continue to apply.

(c) The usual or normal differentials for grade above or below the listed grades shall continue to apply.

(d) The maximum prices of fractionated fatty acids shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of Article II of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 53.

SEC. 15.4 Maximum prices of split fatty acids—(a) Tolling charge for splitting fats and oils. The maximum toll which may be charged for splitting fats and oils shall be (in addition to the retention of the glycerin for the account of the splitter) 75c. per 100 pounds in tankcar lots for all material testing under 20 F. F. A. and $1.00 per 100 pounds in tankcar lots for all material testing 20 F. F. A. and over. All freight shall be for the account of the owner. The normal premium for less than tankcar lots shall continue to apply.

(b) Maximum prices for split fatty acids. The maximum price of split fatty acids, tankcars, f. o. b. seller's plant, shall be the cost, on a tankcar basis, of the raw materials from which the split fatty acids are made, delivered the seller's plant, plus 75c. per 100 pounds for raw materials testing under 20 F. F. A., or plus $1.00 per 100 pounds for raw materials testing 20 F. F. A. and over.

(1) When shipped in less than carload lots, the usual or normal premium for fatty acids so shipped shall continue to apply.

(2) When shipped in containers other than tankcars, the usual or normal differential for fatty acids when shipped in such other type of container shall continue to apply.

SEC. 15.5 Maximum prices of stearic acid and oleic acid. The maximum prices of the following stearic acids and oleic acids shall be the following prices:

	Cents per lb. del'd east of Rockies	Cents per lb. del'd Texas and Oklahoma	Cents per lb. del'd west of Rockies
Stearic acid, carloads, in bags:
Single pressed	15⅝	15⅞	16⅛
Double pressed	15⅞	16⅛	16⅜
Triple pressed	18⅝	19⅛	19⅝
Oleic acid:
Tankcars	12⅝	13	13⅜
Carloads, in returnable drums or barrels	13⅜	13⅝	14⅛
Double distilled oleic acid:
Carloads, in returnable drums	15⅜	16⅛	16⅝
Carloads, in special drums or barrels (packages included)	16⅝	17⅜	17⅝
Hydrogenated fish oil fatty acid, 52° titre, carloads, in bags	14⅜	15⅛	15⅝

(a) When shipped in less than carload lots, the usual or normal premium shall continue to apply.

(b) The usual or normal differential for type of container shall continue to apply.

(c) The usual or normal differentials for grades above or below the listed grades shall continue to apply.

ARTICLE XVI—MARINE ANIMAL OILS

SEC. 16.1 Maximum prices. The maximum prices of the following oils shall be the following prices:

Marine animal oils—tank cars, all duties and taxes paid:

	Cents per pound
Whale oil, crude, No. 1, f. o. b. American ports	11.25
Sperm oil, crude, No. 1, f. o. b. American ports	7.75
Seal oil, No. 1, f. o. b. American ports	8.90
Menhaden, crude, f. o. b. producer's plant, Atlantic coast	8.90
Sardine oil, crude, f. o. b. producer's plant, Pacific coast	8.90
Sardine oil, hydrogenated 52°, f. o. b. producer's plant, Pacific coast	10.90
Light, cold pressed fish oil (Menhaden and Sardine), fair average quality, delivered	12.25
Herring oil, crude, f. o. b. Seattle	8.90

(a) The usual or normal differentials for grades, above or below those listed, shall continue to apply.

(b) The usual or normal differentials for type of container shall continue to apply.

(c) No marine animal oil shall be sold at a premium because of its vitamin content, unless such oil is purchased for use because of its vitamin content and contains more than 75 vitamin D units per gram. If purchased for its vitamin content, it may command the usual and normal premium for such vitamin oil, which it commanded on October 1, or November 26, 1941: Provided, That this schedule shall not apply to any vitamin oil for which a maximum price has been or may be established by a maximum price regulation.

(d) Sales by FDA or FSCC. On sales of any of the above oils by the Food Distribution Administration or Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation, which oils have actually been stored by the Food Distribution Administration or Federal Surplus Commodity Corporation, there may be added to the maximum prices specified in section 16.1 above, the following storage charges:

(1) On oil stored on the East Coast, .0735¢ per pound for the first month's, or fraction of a month's, storage, plus .0275¢ per pound for each additional month's, or fraction of a month's, storage.

(2) On oil stored on the West Coast, .0750¢ per pound for the first month's, or fraction of a month's, storage plus .0250¢ per pound for each additional month's, or fraction of a month's, storage.

In determining the length of time for which the particular oil being sold has been stored, the "first-in, first-out" method of inventory accounting shall be used.

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 15, 9 F.R. 1374, effective 2-14-44.]

ARTICLE XVII—LINSEED OIL SHORTENING AND LINSEED OIL MARGARINE

SEC. 17.1 Maximum prices. The maximum prices of linseed oil shortening and linseed oil margarine, f. o. b. producer's plant, shall be the following prices:

	Cents per pound
Linseed oil shortening (produced wholly from linseed oil) in tierces	19.75
Linseed oil margarine (in No. 10 tins)	19.94

[Article XVII amended by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 12569, effective 9-11-43; Am. 22, 9 F.R. 6434, effective 6-15-44]

ARTICLE XVIII—DOMESTIC TUNG OIL

SEC. 18.1 Maximum prices of domestic tung oil (Chinawood oil). The maximum prices of domestic tung oil, f. o. b. New York, Gulf ports or Pacific Coast ports, shall be the following prices:

	Cents per pound
Tankcars	38.375
Returnable drums, carlots	39.00

(a) Quantity differentials. When tung oil is sold in returnable drums in less than carlot quantities, the seller may add to the carlot price set forth above, the differentials hereinafter set forth for the particular quantity sold:

Quantity sold:	Differential to be added (cents per pound)
Carlots, in more than one delivery of 10 drums each	1.00
5 to 9 drums, one delivery	1.50
1 to 4 drums, one delivery	2.00

(b) Container differentials. (1) If the oil is shipped in nonreturnable drums, the cost of the drums may be added to the above returnable drum prices.

(2) The usual or normal differentials for containers other than tankcars or drums shall continue to apply.

[Article XVIII added by Am. 27, 9 F.R. 7878, effective 7-11-44]

ARTICLE XIX—OLEOMARGARINE; MAXIMUM PRICES OF PROCESSORS

SEC. 19.1 Maximum prices. Processor's maximum prices for oleomargarine shall be determined under the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation, excepting that:

(a) No maximum prices to be determined under section 1499.2 (b). No maximum price shall be determined for any margarine under the provisions of section 1499.2 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Where maximum prices for any margarine have been determined, or purport to have been determined, under the provisions of § 1499.2 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation prior to August 22, 1944, maximum prices for such margarine shall be recalculated and redetermined in accordance with the provisions of sections 19.1 (b) and (c) hereof.

(b) Maximum prices of brands that were not sold or offered during March 1942, and that are now sold by processors who sold or offered any margarine during March 1942. The maximum price of a brand of margarine that was not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, and that is now sold by a processor who sold or offered for sale any margarine during March 1942, shall be the highest price charged by the processor during March 1942 for the most nearly equivalent margarine sold or offered by such processor during March 1942.

(c) Maximum prices of brands that were not sold during March 1942 and that are now sold by processors who did not sell or offer any margarine during March 1942. The maximum price of a brand of margarine that was not sold or offered for sale during March 1942, and that is now sold by a processor who, did not sell or offer any margarine during March 1942, shall be determined under the provisions of Order No. 375 under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, excepting that in no case may a maximum price so determined be above the general level of prices prevailing for similar margarine in the same general area as that in which it is proposed to distribute the margarine.

(d) Application for adjustment in certain cases of increased costs resulting from changes in method of manufacture or distribution. (1) Where a processor, since March 1942, has changed and substantially improved the method of manufacture or distribution of any brand of margarine, or where a processor makes a new brand of margarine that is manufactured or distributed by a different and substantially better method than that under which the most nearly equivalent brand made by him during March 1942 was manufactured or distributed, such processor may apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for an adjustment in his maximum price.

(2) In any such application the processor shall specify the exact changes and improvements in method of manufacture or distribution claimed to have been made since March 1942, the old and new method of manufacture or distribution, the exact cost (as of the date of the application) of making and distributing the margarine under the method of manufacture and distribution that was used in March 1942, and the exact cost of making and distributing the margarine under the method of manufacture and distribution used at the time of the application.

(3) Any adjustment granted under this section 19.1 (d) will in no case exceed the increase in the total direct cost of manufacture and distribution that is due to the change in method of manufacture or distribution, and will in no case be to a price above the general level of prices prevailing for similar products in the same general area as that in which the product is distributed.

(e) Application for adjustment in certain cases of hardship. A processor may apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for an adjustment in his maximum price of margarine where

(1) His maximum price is below the general price level prevailing for similar products, and

(2) He is or will be unable to maintain his production at his maximum price or prices, and

(3) The loss of his production would result in consumers having to pay higher prices for the most nearly similar substitute product available, and

(4) An increase in his maximum price or prices will enable him to continue production, and

(5) The Administrator is of the opinion that an increase in his maximum price or prices would, under all the circumstances, be in furtherance of the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act, as amended.

The maximum price increase that may be granted to a processor or manufacturer under the provisions of this section 19.1 (e) shall not cause his price to exceed the general price level prevailing for similar products. Subject to this limitation, an increase may be granted not to exceed the total cost of the product, or if the applicant's earnings from all operations before income and excess profits taxes are low in comparison with those of a "representative peace-time period", adjusted for subsequent changes in investment, and if in view of such over-all earnings a small margin of profit is reasonably necessary to permit production, an increase may be allowed estimated to yield such a profit margin.

A "representative peace-time period" means the period of the years 1936 to 1939, inclusive. When 1936 to 1939 does not represent a reasonably normal prewar (December 7, 1941) period, some other period may be used but its use must be positively justified in the application.

SEC. 19.2 Maximum prices for brands for which maximum prices have been fixed by previous orders of the OPA. This amendment shall not affect the maximum prices for brands for which dollar-and-cents ceiling prices have been fixed by orders of the Office of Price Administration previously issued; such orders shall continue in full force and effect.

SEC. 19.3 These maximum prices are for processors or manufacturers only. The maximum prices established by this amendment are maximum prices for processors or manufacturers only. They are not the maximum prices for wholesalers, distributors, retailers or other sellers.

SEC. 19.4 Definitions. When used in this Article XIX:

(a) "Processor" means (1) the manufacturer or processor, (2) any predecessor in title of, or any corporation or person that conveyed its assets, business, stock-in-trade, good will or trademarks to, the manufacturer or processor, or (3) any corporation, a majority of whose voting stock is owned or controlled by the manufacturer or processor or which owns or controls a majority of the voting stock of the manufacturer or processor.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[RMPR 161,[1] Incl. Amdts. 1–15]

WEST COAST LOGS

This compilation of Revised Maximum Price Regulation 161 includes Amendment 15, effective August 14, 1944. The text added or amended by Amendment 15 is underscored. The tables amended and redesignated are indicated by notes.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of west coast logs, as herein defined, which differ in certain respects, from those established by Maximum Price Regulation 161. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of west coast logs prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been prepared, issued simultaneously herewith, and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[3]

Insofar as this regulation uses specifications and standards which were not, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected, or insofar as their use was not lawfully required by another Government agency, the Administrator has determined, with respect to such standardization, that no practicable alternative exists for securing effective price control with respect to the commodities subject to this regulation.

[Preamble amended by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11509, effective 8–24–43]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9250, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 161 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1381.151 through 1381.166, inclusive, issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; 57 Stat. 566; Pub. Law 383, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871 and E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681.

§ 1381.151 Sale of west coast logs at higher than maximum prices prohibited. (a) On and after January 22, 1943, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver west coast logs, and no person shall buy or receive west coast logs in the course of trade or business, at prices higher than the maximum prices fixed by this regulation; and no person shall agree, offer or attempt to do any of these things.

(b) Prices lower than the maximum prices may be charged and paid.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 5176) provides that war procurement agencies and governments whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States shall be relieved of liability, civil or criminal, imposed by price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.]

§ 1381.152 What logs are covered. This regulation covers under the name of "West Coast Logs" all logs produced in those parts of Oregon, Washington, and Canada west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains and in Skamania and Klickitat Counties in Washington and Hood River and Wasco Counties in Oregon.

[§ 1381.152 amended by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 16602, effective 12–13–43; Am. 13, 9 F.R. 5165, effective 5–18–44; and Am. 15, effective 8–14–44]

§ 1381.153 Explanation of maximum price tables.—(a) Prices are delivered to towable waters. (1) Except in the Southern Oregon-Tillamook District, the full maximum prices in the Price Table may be charged and paid only when the logs are delivered to towable waters, dumped, boomed, rafted, and prepared for towing at the seller's expense.

If any of these services are not performed at the seller's expense, its cost must be deducted from the maximum prices. "Towable waters" means any year-round towable waters along the coast of Oregon, the Skagit River, Puget Sound, Willapa Bay, Grays Harbor, Columbia River, and Willamette River. Specifically, the Willamette River shall be considered as towable water from its mouth to a point one mile south of Albany, Oregon; the Skagit River from its mouth to Lyman's Ferry; and the Columbia River from its mouth to Hood River, Oregon.

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 3848, effective 4–7–44; and Am. 15, effective 8–14–44]

(2) In the Southern-Oregon-Tillamook District, the maximum prices given in the Price Tables apply only when logs are sold

(i) Delivered in towable waters, dumped, boomed and rafted and prepared for towing,

(ii) Loaded on common carrier rail cars,

(iii) Delivered to mill dumped in the mill pond,

(iv) Loaded on trucks at a receiving point, sorting pond or mill pond where logs are received and sorted for reshipment, but only after such logs have been dumped, sorted and reloaded for further transportation by trucks, or

(v) Loaded on trucks at towable waters where rail facilities are not available, provided the maximum price is reduced by the cost of dumping, booming, rafting, and preparing for towing.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 15, effective 8–14–44]

(b) Deduction for non-delivery to towable waters. Except in the Southern-Oregon-Tillamook District if the buyer does not take delivery in towable waters, but elects to take delivery at some other point (except that in no case may delivery take place at the spar tree, logging road, logging railroad, or any other point in the immediate vicinity of or connected with the logging operation), the maximum price shall be determined as follows:

(1) From the maximum prices in the tables in the next section subtract the costs (calculated under subparagraph (3) below), including transportation, booming and rafting charges, which would have been incurred if the logs had moved to the towable waters of the particular district.

(2) Then add the cost (calculated under subparagraph (3) below) of delivering to the destination specified by the buyer, including cost of loading on rail cars or dumping in mill pond.

For example: Assume that the buyer takes delivery at a railhead, and that it would have cost $2.00 to transport the logs to towable waters and $0.75 for booming and rafting. Assume the cost of delivering the logs to the railhead to be $1.00 for trucking and $1.00 for loading on cars. The ceiling price would then be $38.50 less $2.75, plus $2.00, or $37.75. The intent of this provision is that the log seller should get the same spartree realization no matter where he delivers the logs in a particular district. If he finds that within the district it is more profitable to sell to one buyer than another, he has wrongly applied this section.

(3) In figuring transportation, delivery, booming, rafting and loading charges under this paragraph, the following rates must be used, regardless of actual charges paid or applicable:

(i) Rail: Common carrier rail rates.

(ii) Truck: A base rate of $1.06 per M feet, to which shall be added the following rates per M feet per mile or fraction thereof:

Class "A" Roads, 8½ cents;
Class "A–1" Roads, 9½ cents;
Class "B" Roads, 13 cents;
Class "C" Roads, 16 cents;
Class "D" Roads, 27 cents.

The classes of roads are defined as follows:

Class "A". Paved or macadamized, not exceeding grades of 6 percent;

Class "A–1". Permanently and continuously maintained fine gravel, smooth surfaced, free from chuck holes, ruts, "washboard" condition and other hazards, not exceeding grades of 6 percent;

Class "B". Graveled, other than specifications in Class "A–1"; also paved, macadamized, or permanently and continuously maintained fine gravel, smooth surface, free from chuck holes, ruts, "washboard" conditions and other hazards, with grades exceeding 6 percent but not exceeding 12 percent; also good plank not exceeding grades of 12 percent;

Class "C". All roads with grades exceeding 12 percent but not exceeding 16 percent; also all dirt, rock or plank other than good plank, not exceeding grades of 16 percent;

Class "D". All roads with grades exceeding 16 percent; also roads consisting of mud or water to a depth of 8 or more inches, or any road that cannot be negotiated by the truck under its own motive power.

(iii) Booming, rafting, or loading on cars. The rate charged by the nearest commercial booming, rafting, or loading facility.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 6619, effective 5–24–43, and Am. 15, effective 8–14–44]

(c) Scaling expense. The entire cost of scaling and grading is included in the maximum prices and may not be added to those prices; except that by agreement between the buyer and seller, the buyer may pay one half of the scaling fee above the ceiling price. The maximum prices for scaling fees in the area covered by this regulation are set forth in § 1499.666, paragraph (c) of Supplementary Services Regulation No. 16[4] to Maximum Price Regulation No. 165.[5]

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11509, effective 8–24–43]

(d) Credit practices and cash discounts. Changing credit practices from what they were in October 1941, is specifically prohibited. This includes decreasing credit periods, or making greater charges for extension of credit.

If the sale is on cash terms, the maximum price must be reduced by the same amount which would have been allowed for similar cash terms on October 1, 1941. For example, if the maximum price without cash discount is $30.00, and if this seller's cash discount on October 1, 1941, was 1%, the maximum price now for sales on similar cash terms is $29.70.

(e) Explanation of districts. (1) Puget Sound district means the part of Washington west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains, except Grays Harbor, Pacific, Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clark and Skamania Counties.

(2) Willapa Bay-Grays Harbor district means the counties of Grays Harbor and Pacific, in Washington.

(3) Columbia River District consists of the counties of Wahkiakum, Cowlitz, Clark, Skamania and Klickitat in Washington and Benton, Clackamas, Clatsop, Columbia, Hood River, Linn, Marion, Multnomah, Polk, Wasco, Washington, and Yamhill counties in Oregon.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 13, 9 F.R. 5165, effective 5–18–44]

(4) Southern Oregon-Tillamook district means Lincoln and Tillamook Counties, Oregon and that part of Oregon west of the crest of the Cascade Mountains and south of the northern boundary of Lane County.

(f) Sale into other districts. When logs are sold out of one district for delivery in another district, the maximum prices and the grades are those of the district in which the buyer takes delivery of the logs. In the case of logs produced in Lincoln County, Oregon, north of the Siletz River, and in Tillamook County, Oregon, south of a line running east and west through Hebo, Oregon, however, deliveries may be made to a railhead or in a mill pond in the Columbia River District at the maximum prices of the Southern Oregon-Tillamook District.

[Paragraph (f) amended by Am. 6, 8 F.R. 10660, effective 8–4–43]

§ 1381.154 Tables of maximum prices. The maximum delivered prices per 1,000 ft. log scale for west coast logs shall be as follows:

*These prices apply in the entire district except in Jackson and Josephine Counties.

[Table (K) added by Am. 13, 9 F.R. 5165, effective 5-18-44 and amended by Am. 14, 9 F.R. 5956, effective 6-30-44]

§ 1381.155 Long and short lengths and special logs—(a) Additions for long length. For Nos. 1 and 2 Sawmill Logs (all species except Western red cedar) and Douglas fir peewee logs over 42 feet in length, (after allowance for trim) the following additions may be made to the prices in the above tables:

	Per 1,000 feet
42 to 50 feet	$1.00
52 to 60 feet	2.00
62 to 70 feet	3.00
72 to 80 feet	4.00

For example, the maximum price on a No. 1 Douglas fir sawmill log 54 feet long in Puget Sound District is $33.00 per thousand feet. Authorizations for special prices on long length under the previous provisions of this paragraph will continue in effect for the quantity of logs to which the authorization extended. Note that the long log addition may not be made on Aircraft Grade Logs, Peeler Logs, Douglas Fir Special Ship Spar Logs, Ponton Logs, or logs sold on a camp run basis.

(b) Special logs. For sawmill logs over 80 feet selected to fill particular orders for long timbers or lumber or other specific purpose actually requiring long logs, or for logs of necessary extra specifications that cannot be priced under paragraph (G) of the preceding § 1381.154, the buyer and seller jointly shall file with the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the species, grade, specifications, and quantity of the particular logs, the requirement therefor, and the proposed price. This proposed price must be submitted within ten days of its first use. If, within 15 days of the receipt of the request for approval, the Office of Price Administration does not disapprove the requested price, such price shall thereafter be the maximum price for that seller for that item. Pending such approval or action by the Office of Price Administration, the seller may deliver the item and receive payment therefor, subject to the condition that a refund will be made if the price is in excess of that approved by the Office of Price Administration. Adjustment for approval of such prices may be made by letter or telegram by the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Short lengths. For blocks of peeler logs in lengths of less than 16 feet, which otherwise meet the requirements of the standard peeler grades, deduct $5.00 per 1,000 feet, log scale, from the maximum prices in the price tables of § 1381.154 above.

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11509, effective 8-24-43]

[§ 1381.155 amended by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 8619, effective 8-24-43; Am. 5, 8 F.R. 9381, effective 7-13-43; and as otherwise noted]

(d) Cull logs. Any logs not specifically priced in the above tables shall be "culled out", and the maximum price at which they may be sold or purchased shall be $1.00 per thousand feet, log scale.

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11509, effective 8-24-43]

§ 1381.156 The "overtime addition." The following additions may be made by any seller to the maximum price of any west coast logs produced by any company whose entire logging operation is operated the following number of hours per week in actual production:

Hours of operation:	Addition per M ft. l. s.
48 to 53 hours	$1.00
54 to 59 hours	1.50
60 hours or more	2.00

This addition is subject to all of the following conditions and provisions except that operators claiming the 48 hour addition are not subject to the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) relating to applications for certifications and monthly reports:

[Above sentence amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 3843, effective 4-7-44]

(a) Application. Any person intending to claim the overtime addition must first file a statement with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., that the company regularly maintains the required number of hours in all its logging operations. On and after the effective date of the order granting the right to make the addition, the person may add the amount authorized to the maximum prices otherwise established by the regulation. The addition may be made only so long as the required number of hours is worked, unless specific exceptions have been granted under paragraph (f) below. The right to make the addition may be terminated at any time either for failure to maintain the required number of hours or failure to observe any other provision of this regulation. For example, the right may be withdrawn at any time from any company or person which permits false grading and scaling to be practiced or fails to submit reports. The right shall terminate from the effective date specified in the order.

(b) Report. Not later than the 15th of every month in which the overtime addition is claimed, the company must file a statement with the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing the following:

(1) A statement that the required hours prevailed during the preceding month;

(2) The company's production figures by log scale, by species, for the month;

(3) The amount of logs sold during the month on which the overtime addition was claimed, by species, both log scale and total value.

(4) The amount of logs, log scale, by species, used in the seller's own mill.

(c) Monthly average. The requirement relating to weekly hours of production will be considered satisfied if at the end of each monthly period the average weekly hours are equal or above the required number of hours; that is, if the total number of hours for the month divided by the number of weeks or fractions thereof results in a figure equal to or above the required number of weekly hours.

(d) Operation requirement. Only the hours devoted to actual log production may be counted for purposes of this section. Actual log production does not include such operations as maintenance and repair work, road building, and similar operations incidental to logging. Every camp and logging side operated by that company must maintain the required number of hours.

(e) Invoices. The overtime addition must be shown as a separate charge on all invoices, and labeled "overtime addition." The invoice must further show the name and address of the company producing the logs. Copies of these invoices shall be preserved by the company and shall, if required, be submitted to the Office of Price Administration.

(f) Exceptions from requirement. The Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., may by letter or telegram grant exceptions from the strict requirements of this section on the "overtime addition" when a company which has previously had its name published as an overtime company, and which is in good faith attempting to operate on a regular overtime basis, finds that in a particular month it is impossible for particular sides or its entire operation to meet the requirements, due to weather conditions or other circumstances beyond its control. The request for such an exception must show not that regular overtime operation would have been inconvenient or costly by peacetime standards, but that it was impossible in the light of the standards of operation demanded by wartime conditions and in the light of the critical lumber requirements of the military services.

(g) Contract logging. When figuring the ceiling price on contract logging services under Maximum Price Regulation No. 503, the overtime addition may not be included in estimating the value of the logs produced. However, where the contractor operates the required number of hours, the additions permitted by this section may be separately paid to the contractor.

[Paragraph (g) added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 5678, effective 5-5-43; amended by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 9381, effective 7-13-43; Am. 11, 9 F.R. 694, effetcive 1-22-44; and Am. 12, 9 F.R. 3843, effective 4-7-44]

§ 1381.157 Resales by mills or other users.—(a) Resales under allocation. In the case of resale by mills or other users of West Coast logs pursuant to the direction of the War Production Board (or any other Government agency) requiring the allocation or requisitioning of the logs, the maximum price shall be the sum of the following:

(1) Maximum delivered price to the first buyer as established by this regulation.

(2) Actual cost of transportation which has been incurred from the point at which delivered price was computed; sorting, booming, rafting, scaling, reloading, and such other direct costs incurred by the first buyer as are necessary to the proper preparation of the logs for resale; and

(3) Any overtime addition actually paid by the first buyer to a seller who has been permitted to charge the overtime addition.

The resulting maximum price is f. o. b. the reseller's mill or plant, and the second buyer shall bear the cost of transporting the logs to his own plant.

The additions apply only when the resale takes place in the course of a going business, and when the reseller expects to buy other logs to replace those resold. If, however, this is not the case, as where a stock of logs is sold by a mill going out of business, the transaction is not subject to this regulation but to Revised Maximum Price Regulation 204—Special Sales of Industrial Materials.[*]

(b) Accommodation sales from log storage at mill. In the case of resales by mills or other users of West Coast logs to another user in emergency situations where the purchasing mill cannot obtain logs from its regular source, the buyer and seller may apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. for permission to add to the maximum prices for such logs a service charge to recompense the seller for inbound costs on the logs not included in the maximum price and to cover the cost of removing the logs from the seller's storage and hauling them to the buyer's mill. The application should state these charges in detail and the reasons why the sale is necessary. The Lumber Branch may grant the permission by letter or telegram.

[§ 1381.157 amended by Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 31 (7 F.R. 9894, 8 F.R. 1312, 3702) provides that: "Notwithstanding the provisions of any price regulation, the tax on transportation of all property (excepting coal) imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 shall, for purposes of determining the applicable maximum price of any commodity or service, be treated as though it were an increase of 3% in the amount charged by every person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire. It shall not be treated, under any provision of any price regulation or any interpretation thereof, as a tax for which a charge may be made in addition to the maximum price."]

§ 1381.157a [Revoked.]

[§ 1381.157a added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 6619, effective 5-24-43; revoked by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11509, effective 8-24-43]

§ 1381.158 Grading and scaling. (a) On and after August 14, 1944, no one may buy or sell West Coast logs unless the logs have been graded and scaled in accordance with the rules set forth in Appendix A.

(b) Each lot or raft of logs must be covered by a Scale Bill or Scale Certificate as required by § 1381.160 below.

(c) In Appendix B are listed "approved" independent graders and scalers and bureaus found to be qualified to perform the service of grading and scaling. When buyers and sellers have their logs graded and scaled by such "approved" graders and scalers, the buyers and sellers will not be held responsible for inaccurate grades or scales. Where graders and scalers other than those listed in Appendix B are used, however, and subsequent rescale or check scale shows more than 5% variation in value from the original grade or scale, the buyer and seller shall be chargeable with the full responsibility for such incorrect grade or scale and subject to the penalties provided for violation of this regulation.

(d) Where a rescale or check scale of logs which have originally been scaled and graded by an "approved" scaler indicates a variation greater than 5% in value between the original and check scale, the Portland District Office may notify the approved scaler that an investigation will be conducted to determine whether that particular scaler is performing his duties satisfactorily. As a part of such investigation the scaler must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard and to justify his original scale. If it appears from this investigation that the scaler is not performing the duties of scaler and grader in such a manner as to warrant continued approval by the Administrator, the Administrator may by appropriate amendment remove the original scaler's name from the approved list.

(e) Persons desiring to be added to the list of "approved" scalers may make application to the OPA District Office at Portland, Oregon, listing their experience and qualifications and showing that they will operate as independent scalers and not as an employee of any buyer or seller. If, upon investigation, it is found that the applicant possesses the necessary qualifications and ability to do a reasonably accurate and acceptable job of log-scaling under the rules of this regulation, the Administrator will by an amendment add the applicant's name to Appendix B of this regulation.

[§ 1381.158 amended by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11509, effective 8-24-43, and Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

§ 1381.159 Prohibited practices—(a) General. Any practice which obtains the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price without actually raising the price is as much a violation of this regulation as an outright overceiling price. This applies to the use of commissions, services, grading and scaling manipulations, transportation arrangements, premiums, special privileges, tying agreements, trade understandings and the like.

(b) Adjustable pricing. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of shipment; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after shipment. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The authorization may be given by the Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration having authority to act upon the pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization.

The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated revision will be the granting of an individual application for adjustment.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Supplementary Order No. 80 and Am. 1 thereto, 8 F.R. 10586, 14310, effective 7-27-43]

(c) Service commissions. It is unlawful for any person to charge, receive or pay a commission for the service of procuring, buying, selling or locating logs, or for any related service (such as "expediting") which does not involve actual physical handling of logs, if the commission plus the purchase price results in a total payment by the buyer of logs which is higher than the maximum price of the logs. For purposes of this regulation, a commission is any service charge or payment which is figured either directly or indirectly on the basis of the quantity, price or value of the logs in connection with which the service is performed.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 2092, effective 2-15-43]

(d) Specific practices. The following are among the specific practices prohibited:

(1) A buyer or seller attempting to influence in any way the judgment of the scaler.

[Paragraph (d) added by Am. 7, 8 F.R. 11509, effective 8-24-43]

§ 1381.160 Records—(a) All sellers and buyers. All sellers of west coast logs must keep all scaling certificates or statements, and invoices which will show a complete description of the logs sold, the name and address of the buyer, the date of sale, and the price. Buyers must keep similar records, including the seller's name and address. These records must be kept for any month in which the seller or buyer sold or bought 100,000 ft., log scale, or more, of west coast logs. They must be kept for two years, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Grades and scales. All original scale records shall show gross and net measurements in diameter and length, and shall designate the type of defect by appropriate symbols.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

(c) Grade and scale certificate. On and after August 14, 1944, a scale and grade certificate or statement must accompany every sale of West Coast logs subject to this Regulation. The statement must be in the form customarily used in the particular district and must be signed by the person who scaled and graded the logs, or by the manager of one of the authorized scaling bureaus, and it must indicate the grade and scale of the logs in accordance with the grading and scaling rules set out in Appendix A. A copy of this certificate or statement must be filed within 10 days after the scaling and grading of the logs with the District Office of the Office of Price Administration at Portland, Oregon.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

§ 1381.161 Species and extras not specifically listed. If a seller wishes to sell or a buyer wishes to buy species of logs not specifically priced in this regulation, or wishes to make charges for extras not specifically provided for, he shall apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. for approval of a maximum price. He must provide the following information:

(a) The requested price;

(b) A complete description of the item for which approval is desired:

(1) If a species of log, he shall supply a complete description of the grades and the grading rules pertaining to the species;

(2) If an extra, a description of the service performed or the thing for which an extra charge is to be made.

(c) The price differential between it and the most nearly comparable item priced in the regulation, between January 22, 1943, and April 11, 1944, from the seller's or buyer's own records, or if that is not possible, from the experience of other sellers or buyers. If no price differential exists, a detailed analysis of comparative value shall be furnished.

As soon as request has been filed, quotations and deliveries may be made at the requested price, but final payment may not be made until a price has been approved by the Office of Price Administration. Such approval may be made by telegram or letter.

If the above directions for getting approval of a requested price for "unlisted" logs are not followed, the seller shall use as his maximum price the lowest price given in the regulation for any log, regardless of species or grade.

[§ 1381.161 added by Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

§ 1381.162 Petitions for amendment and adjustment—(a) Government contracts. See Procedural Regulation No. 6[1] for adjustment provisions on certain government contracts or subcontracts.

(b) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 26 (7 F.R. 9619; 8 F.R. 7256) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

[§ 1381.162, formerly § 1381.161, redesignated by Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

§ 1381.163 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 161 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 161 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, are urged to communicate with the nearest District, State, or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

[§ 1381.163, formerly § 1381.162, redesignated by Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

§ 1381.164 Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[1] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

[§ 1381.164, formerly § 1381.162a, added by Supplementary Order No. 72, 8 F.R. 13344, effective 10-1-43, and redesignated by Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

§ 1381.165 Definition. The term "person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group, their legal successors or representatives; the United States, or any government, or any of their political subdivisions; or any agency of any of the foregoing.

[§ 1381.165, formerly §1381.163, redesignated by Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

§ 1381.166 Effective date. (a) This Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 161 (§§ 1381.151 to 1381.164, inclusive) shall become effective January 22, 1943.

(b) If logs have been received before January 22, 1943, by a carrier, other than one owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the buyer, that shipment is not subject to this revised regulation. It remains subject to the earlier version of this regulation which was in effect at the time the logs were turned over to the carrier.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this revised regulation, the requirements of § 1381.153 (a) and (b) as to delivery shall not apply to No. 1 and No. 2 grades of Sitka Spruce logs produced under the two contracts described below. As to these grades and species of logs produced under these contracts, the maximum prices applying to those logs as listed in the price tables of § 1381.154 shall be f. o. b. rail cars at Forks, Washington, loaded at the seller's expense:

(1) Contract No. 1, dated August 7, 1942, between the State of Washington and Olympic Logging Company (formerly Eagle Logging Company) of Seattle, Washington, covering 2,400,000 ft., log scale, of spruce timber located in Section 30, Township 27 North, Range 10 West, W. M., in Jefferson County, Washington.

(2) Contract No. 3, dated August 7, 1942, between the State of Washington and Noon and Crippen, of Port Angeles, Washington, covering 1,250,000 feet, log scale, of spruce timber located in Section 19, Township 27 North, Range 11 West, W. M., in Jefferson County, Washington.

APPENDIX A—GRADING AND SCALING RULES

All west coast logs must be graded and scaled in accordance with the following rules:

(a) Grading rules. The following rules set forth the minimum requirements for each grade. In grading logs the scale shall not be deducted in content in order to raise the grade; this means that if a log has a defect which is not permissible in a given grade, it may not be placed in that grade by merely deducting the defect from the scale. Logs may be designated as "camp run" where the entire production cut from a particular operation is sold without any prior selection (except wood logs or cull logs) either at the spar-tree, booming and rafting point, or elsewhere. If any graded logs such as peelers, have been segregated from the raft or particular lot of logs, the entire lot must be sold on grade.

[Paragraph headed "Douglas Fir Ponton Logs" deleted by Am. 13, 9 F.R. 5165, effective 5-18-44]

DOUGLAS FIR SAWMILL LOGS

No. 1 Douglas Fir sawmill logs. No. 1 Douglas fir sawmill logs shall be logs which are suitable for the manufacture of lumber in the grades of No. 2 Clear and Better or B and Better to an amount of not less than 50 percent of the scaled contents, and shall not be less than 16 feet in gross length (after allowance for trim) and shall not be less than 30 inches in gross diameter inside the bark at the small end.

No. 1 logs shall be old growth logs and shall contain not less than eight annual rings to the inch in any part of the outer portion of the log equal to one-half of the scale contents, ring count and measurement to be taken at the top end of the log, and shall be straight grained to the extent of a variation for a space of 6 lineal feet equidistant from each end of the log of not more than 1 inch per foot in logs to and including 35 inches in diameter, 1½ inches per foot in logs 36 inches to 50 inches in diameter, 2 inches per foot in logs 51 inches to 60 inches in diameter, 2½ inches per foot in logs 61 inches and over.

Rings, rot, or any other defects that are deducted in the scale are permitted in a No. 1 log providing their size and location do not prevent the log producing the required amount of No. 2 Clear and Better or B and Better lumber. Visible pitch-pockets, rings and knots must be located so that they do not prevent the production of the required amount of No. 2 Clear and Better or B and Better lumber.

No. 2 Douglas Fir sawmill logs. No. 2 Douglas fir sawmill logs shall not be less than 12 feet in length and not less than 12 inches in diameter below the grade of a No. 1 log but which will be suitable in grade:

(a) For the manufacture of lumber in the grades of at least 65 percent No. 1 Common or Better lumber, or

(b) For the manufacture of lumber in the grades of 25 percent No. 2 Clear and Better or B and Better or an equivalent value in combination of grades.

No. 3 Douglas Fir sawmill logs. No. 3 Douglas fir sawmill logs shall be not less than 12 feet in length, having defects which prevent their grading No. 2, but which are suitable for the manufacture of not less than 50 percent of the net scaled contents of the No. 3 Common and Better grades of lumber. Logs in this class shall be scaled down to and including an 8-inch diameter.

Logs having excessive slope of grain and/or logs having an excessive number of visible pitch-pockets shall be included in this grade.

SPRUCE SAWMILL LOGS

Select spruce sawmill logs. Select spruce sawmill logs shall be logs which are suitable for the manufacture of lumber in the grades of No. 2 Clear and Better or B and Better to an amount of not less than 50 percent of the scaled contents, and shall not be less than 16 feet in gross length (after allowance for trim) and shall not be less than 30 inches in gross diameter inside the bark at the small end.

Select logs shall be old growth logs and shall contain not less than eight annual rings to the inch in any part of the outer portion of the log equal to one-half of the scale contents, ring count and measurement to be taken at the top end of the log, and shall be straight grained to the extent of a variation for a space of 6 lineal feet equidistant from each end of the log of not more than 1 inch per foot in logs to and including 35 inches in diameter, 1½ inches per foot in logs 36 inches to 50 inches in diameter, 2 inches per foot in logs 51 inches to 60 inches in diameter, 2½ inches per foot in logs 61 inches and over.

Rings, rot, or any other defects that are deducted in the scale are permitted in a No. 1 log providing their size and location do not prevent the log producing the required amount of No. 2 Clear and Better or B and Better lumber. Visible pitch-pockets, rings and knots must be located so that they do not prevent the production of the required amount of No. 2 Clear and Better or B and Better lumber.

No. 1 Sitka Spruce Logs: (a) No. 1 Sitka spruce logs shall be not less than 26 inches in diameter and suitable for the manufacture of lumber in the grades of 25% No. 2 Clear and Better, or B and Better Clear.

(b) The slope of grain shall not exceed:

1 inch per foot on logs 26" to 35" in diameter.

1½ inch per foot on logs 36" to 50" in diameter.

2 inches per foot on logs 51" to 60" in diameter.

2½ inches per foot on logs 61" and over in diameter.

(c) The rate of growth shall not be less than 8 annual rings per inch in the clear portion of the log at the scaling end.

In addition to the above if the log meets the grade requirements of a Select spruce log in all respects other than slope of grain, such logs may be graded No. 1 providing the slope of grain does not exceed 3 inches per foot.

No. 2 Sitka spruce logs: No. 2 Sitka spruce logs are those which do not meet the above requirements for No. 1 but which qualify as follows:

(a) Shall be not less than 12 feet in length and not less than 16 inches in diameter;

(b) Must be suitable in quality for the manufacture of 65% No. 1 Common or Better lumber

No. 3 Spruce sawmill logs: No. 3 Spruce sawmill logs shall be not less than 12 feet in length, having defects which prevent their grading as No. 2 logs, but which are suitable principally for the manufacture of lumber grades of No. 2 and No. 3 common or box cutting, minimum diameter—10 inches.

Logs having excessive slope of grain and/or logs having an excessive number of visible pitch-pockets shall be included in this grade.

[Paragraphs headed "Douglas Fir Sawmill Logs" and "Spruce Sawmill Logs" amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 3848, effective 4-7-44, and Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

DOUGLAS FIR PEELER LOGS

No. 1 Douglas fir peeler logs. No. 1 Douglas fir peeler logs shall be of Old Growth Fir and meeting the qualifications of a No. 1 sawmill log and must be suitable for the manufacture of clear, uniform colored veneer or plywood stock to an amount of not less than 50 percent of the scaled content, selected for rotary cutting, and which do not contain defects that will prevent their being held and turned in a lathe. No. 1 peeler logs shall be at least 90 percent surface clear.

No. 2 Douglas fir peeler logs. No. 2 Douglas fir peeler logs shall be good quality No. 2 Douglas fir sawmill logs suitable for the manufacture of clear uniform colored veneer or plywood stock to an amount of not less than 35 percent of the scaled content, selected for rotary cutting which do not contain defects that will prevent their being held or turned in a lathe. Slope of grain shall not exceed three inches per lineal foot.

No. 2 peeler logs shall be at least 30 inches in gross diameter inside the bark at the small end and 16 feet or more in length.

No. 2 peeler logs shall contain not less than eight annual growth rings to the inch in the outer portion of the log, equal to 50 percent of the scaled content; all ring count and measurement shall be taken at the top end of the log.

Visible pitch-pockets which do not prevent the production of the required amount of clear face stock are permitted in No. 2 Douglas fir peeler logs. A short piece of ring, not to exceed one-half of a full ring, is permitted in each end of the log, provided that any heart check or spangles are confined to the heart portion of the log.

No. 3 Douglas fir peeler logs. No. 3 Douglas fir peeler logs shall be good quality No. 3 sawmill logs suitable for the manufacture of veneer or plywood stock to be used for center core, cross core and backs, and shall not contain defects that will prevent them being held and turned in a lathe. Minimum length 16 feet, and minimum diameter 24 inches.

Douglas fir peeler blocks. When scaling peeler blocks under 16 feet in length the same scaling and grading rules shall be used as when determining the grade and content of a peeler log, but they shall be graded as No. 1, No. 2, or No. 3 peeler blocks.

[Paragraph headed "Aircraft Grades Noble Fir and Hemlock" deleted by Am. 13, 9 F.R. 5165, effective 8-18-44]

HEMLOCK LOGS

Peeler grade hemlock. Peeler grade hemlock logs shall be suitable for rotary cutting and shall be capable of producing not less than 50 percent No. 2 Clear and Better lumber, of uniform quality, and not less than 16 feet in length and 24 inches in diameter.

No. 1 Hemlock. No. 1 hemlock logs shall be logs of good uniform quality not less than 16 feet in length and 24 inches in diameter. No. 1 logs must be capable of producing not less than 35 percent of the gross content No. 2 Clear and Better lumber.

No. 2 Hemlock. No. 2 hemlock logs shall be logs not less than 12 feet in length and not less than 14 inches in diameter. Logs in this grade must produce not less than 65 percent of the gross contents in No. 1 common lumber.

No. 3 Hemlock. No. 3 hemlock logs shall be logs not less than 12 feet in length and not less than 8 inches in diameter, having defects which prevent them grading No. 2 grade, but which are suitable for the manufacture of not less than 60 percent of the gross contents in the common grades of lumber.

OTHER SPECIES

The foregoing grading rules for peeler and sawmill hemlock shall apply to White Fir, Silver Fir, Noble Fir, and other allied species; with the exception of Aircraft Noble Fir grade. Ponderosa pine logs shall be scaled and graded on the basis of the above rules for hemlock logs.

[Paragraph amended by Am. 13, 9 F.R. 5165, effective 8-18-44]

CEDAR LOGS

Lumber Grade. Lumber Grade Cedar logs shall be such logs 16 feet and over in gross length, 26 inches and over in diameter which are suitable for the manufacture of No. 2 Clear and Better lumber to an amount of not less than 50 percent of the scaled contents. Slabs or parts of large logs, the greater part of which is suitable for the production of one inch No. 2 Clear and Better lumber, can be put into this grade down to and including pieces 14 inches thick provided that the scale content of each slab or part is more than 700 board feet.

Shingle Grade. Shingle grade cedar logs shall be such logs or parts of logs that do not meet the requirements of the Lumber Cedar log grades, but will produce No. 2 twelve inch clear or better shingles or common cedar lumber. For shingle cedar logs having less than 50% of clear cuttings, 24 inches between knots lengthwise of log and less than 10 inches crosswise of log on any quadrant, a reduction in scale shall be made of one inch in diameter for each quadrant so affected if the knots are two inches or less in diameter, and a reduction in scale of two inches in diameter for each quadrant so affected if knots are larger than two inches in diameter.

Any logs having knots over two inches in diameter on more than one quadrant but not on the full two quadrants shall be cut three inches in diameter.

Small Cedar logs under 16" in diameter, when sorted separately, may be scaled on the basis of Common Cedar lumber production.

[Above paragraph added by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 16608, effective 12-13-43]

WESTERN WHITE PINE

No. 1 Grade. Logs shall be 24 inches or over in diameter and 16 feet or over in length. They shall be reasonably straight grained and of a character which in the judgment of the scaler are capable of producing not less than 25 percent of the net scaled contents of C Clear and Better Lumber.

No. 2 Grade. Logs shall be not less than 12 feet in length and not less than 15" in diameter, below the grade of No. 1 log but which will be suitable in grade for the manufacture of lumber principally in the grades of No. 2 Common lumber.

No. 3 Grade. This grade shall consist of logs below the grade of No. 2 and shall be not less than 12 feet long and not less than 6 inches in diameter which will be suitable in grade for the manufacture of the inferior grades of lumber.

[Paragraphs headed Western White Pine added by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 16602, effective 12-13-43]

WOOD LOGS—ALL SPECIES

No. 1 Douglas Fir Wood Logs shall be logs 30 inches and over in diameter, containing sound stain and/or worm holes, that otherwise would meet the requirements of a No. 2 Fir log.

No. 2 Douglas Fir Wood Logs shall be such logs that do not meet the requirements of the above grades but have a net scale lumber content after deductions as specified in the wood log scaling rules of at least 33⅓% of the gross scale.

Wood logs—all other species (except cedar) shall be logs which meet the minimum requirements of the No. 2 Douglas Fir Wood Log Grade.

Culls: Any logs failing to meet the minimum requirements for a No. 2 Fir Wood Log must be culled out.

[Paragraphs headed "Wood Logs—All Species" amended by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 3848, effective 4-7-44]

LONG LOG SCALING AND GRADING

All species—excepting cedar. Long logs are defined as being logs which are 42 feet and over in length.

All long logs, whatever the species, should be scaled to grade, the grade requirement being the same as for short logs. The scale on these logs should be made by using the top diameter for the top log only; second, third and fourth logs should be scaled by adding to the top diameter an allowance of 1 inch for taper in each 10 feet of length.

Logs from 42 to 80 feet inclusive in length shall be scaled as two logs of as nearly equal length in even feet as possible and in case the two logs are not exactly even length in even feet, the longer of the two shall carry the smaller diameter.

Logs from 82 feet to 120 feet inclusive shall be scaled in the same manner except that they shall be scaled as three logs.

Logs in excess of 120 feet shall be scaled in the same manner except that they shall be scaled as four or more logs, it being the intent of having the maximum length of any one log 40 feet.

The scaling or grading of any segment of a long log shall be based entirely on the merits of the segment under consideration.

GENERAL RULES—PEELER LOGS

Slope of grain:
All grades: As defined in rule.
Pitch-pockets and hard pitch:
No. 1 peeler: Will allow some well-scattered pitch-pockets and/or hard pitch streaks, if in the judgment of the scaler, the number and character will not prevent the recovery of the required amount of No. 2 Clear or B Clear and/or Better.
No. 2 peeler: Permitted to an extent that they do not prevent the production of the required amount of clear face stock.
Core: Will allow to an amount not quite sufficient to justify de-grading to a No. 3 sawmill log.
Burls or knot clusters:
All grades: Permissible if so located that standard peeler blocks can be obtained on either side of defect.
Pitch rings:
All grades: Permissible if parts of rings are so located that the required peelable content can be obtained with a minimum of waste at the lathe. Complete rings allowable if located in sap area or within the heart area of the log.
Breaks:
All grades: Permissible if the defect can be eliminated by a normal deduction of up to ½ of the log length.
Heart checks, cross checks, crow's foot, or flaky heart:
All grades: Permissible if not in conjunction with pitch-rings or breaks to a degree that makes the resulting peeler blocks unsuitable for turning.
Sound stain:
All grades: Permissible if veneer stock of the quality and amount required for that specific grade is obtainable from the log in question.
Heart off-center:
All grades: Shall be a determining factor in grading peelable logs only when, in the judgment of the scaler, the heart off-center, in conjunction with other defects, renders the log impracticable for peeling.

GENERAL RULES—WOOD LOGS

A log that in the judgment of the scaler is a Wood Log as defined for the particular species shall be scaled for its net lumber content exclusive of bark, under the following deduction requirements:

Diameters: Take full diameter inside the bark or decayed sap at the top end of the log.

Lengths: Where logs have bucked ends, the standard gross lengths shall be used.

Where logs have badly broken or shattered ends, the lengths on such logs shall be taken inside the breakage to a point that will yield that longest, usable, standard length log or block.

Deductible defects: Any portion of a wood log that will not produce No. 4 or better lumber shall have the unsuitable portion of the log eliminated by sufficient deduction. Such defects are:

Hollow ends
Badly decomposed wood originating from Butt-rot, Top-rot or conk
Slab breaks
Shatter breaks
Saddle-burns
Rotted spots that penetrate beyond the normal sap
Excessive roughness or pitch-rings that will not permit the production of lumber.

Permissible defects:

Pitch-rings
Firm stain
Firm conk Knots
Worm holes
Straight splits
Heart checks
Cross checks

[Paragraphs headed "General Rules—Wood Logs" added by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 3848, effective 4-7-44]

GENERAL RULES—OTHER LOGS

Log diameters. Log diameters shall be measured inside the bark at the small end of the log with the scale stick held in the vertical position except in cases in which damage to the log, or knots, burls, depressions, etc., prevent taking a correct diameter measurement. In the latter cases, the diameter is to be taken in as nearly a vertical position as possible. The actual scale shall be in accordance with either the Spaulding Log Rule or the Revised Scribener Decimal C Log Rule.

Log lengths. To allow for trimming, the actual minimum lengths of each log shall exceed the stated length as follows:

	Inch trim
40 feet and under	8
42 feet to 50 feet	10
52 feet to 60 feet	12
62 feet to 70 feet	14
72 feet to 80 feet	16
82 feet to 90 feet	18
90 feet and over	20

Length measurement to be taken on the short side of the log.

For example, to meet a minimum length requirement of 16 feet, the log must measure not less than 16 feet 8 inches.

(b) Scaling rules or instructions to scalers.

(1) The scaler must exercise independent judgment in fulfilling his duties.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 15, effective 8-14-44]

(2) The log scaler's duties shall include a careful study of the natural defects of the different logs produced by the districts in which he works. A scaler shall also note carefully any other defect, such as breaks or damage caused in the process of felling, bucking, or any other part of the logging operation. The ability to judge what a log will produce in the finished product, as to grade, also requires a general knowledge of the manufacture of lumber.

(3) Scalers shall spend sufficient time at the mills to compare their scaling with the results obtained in manufacturing the logs. For the purpose of identification, logs to be observed shall be marked in accordance with the scale bill before they are sawed.

(4) Each log shall be scaled individually upon its own merits. After careful examination of any log, if no waste or defect is found, such log shall be scaled at its full diameter inside the bark, and full length with necessary trim. When waste or defect is found in any log, a deduction in scale shall be made which will completely eliminate the waste.

(5) All deductions shall be made in inches in diameter and feet in length. When required original scale records shall show full and net measurements in diameter and length, and designate the type of defect by specified symbols. In grading logs the scale shall not be deducted in content in order to raise the grade. When scaling bleached logs, or logs covered with dirt, the spud on the scaling stick shall be used to chop into the end of the log to uncover any hidden defect. In measuring the diameter of a log, any fraction over the inch is to be dropped.

(6) A reduction in length shall be made for defects such as end brooming, breakage, crook, stump shake, dry rot, sweep, split, stump rot, pitch spangle, conk or other advanced decay.

(7) Reduction in diameter shall be made for defects, such as sap rot, cat face, roughness, season checks, pitch rings and heart checks.

(8) Any logs so rough that the side cut will not produce No. 2 Common or Better lumber shall have deduction in scale of a sufficient amount to eliminate the No. 3 Common lumber in squaring up the log. This rule is to be applied only to extremely rough logs, especially knotty tops, and does not imply deductions on sound tight knotted logs.

(9) Logs with sap rot, sap stain and surface weather checks shall show the gross and net diameters. The net diameter shall be taken inside the defects, and the log graded on the quality of the net volume scaled.

(10) Broken ends and bucking breaks shall be allowed for in the scale by measuring only such part of the log as is free from break, in even feet in length. Care must be taken to see that the scaled part of the log represents the actual part of the log suitable for the production of lumber. Deduction for broken logs shall be sufficient for the waste involved. Deduction for splits in falling which show in the butt, or large end, shall be made as follows:

In large logs, and in logs containing excessive taper, straight splits through the heart shall be eliminated by reductions from diameter in the same manner as for heart checks. Reductions for badly split, or stump shot ends, are made by reductions in length of sufficient amount to eliminate the waste.

(11) Logs containing grub worms shall have the portion containing such defect eliminated from the scale, and the remaining portion shall be graded according to the class of lumber it will produce.

(12) A pitch ring in a log causes a loss in the amount of lumber produced according to its location. A general rule to be used as a basis for deductions for pitch rings is as follows:

A deduction of 1 inch from the diameter for each half ring or less visible in one end of the log only, and a deduction of 2 inches when visible in both ends. A deduction of 2 inches for a complete ring visible in one end of the log only, and a deduction of 4 inches when visible in both ends. The exceptions to this basic rule are as follows:

(i) A log containing a pitch ring 3 inches or less from the perimeter shall be scaled by taking the diameter inside the ring.

(ii) A deduction of 1 inch shall be made for a pitch ring located in the heart of the log, when in one end only, and a deduction of 2 inches when the ring extends through the log. Inner one-third the diameter of the log is to be considered as the heart area.

(iii) An open pitch ring located in the clear portion of the log where it causes the maximum amount of waste may, in the judgment of the scaler, receive an additional deduction of 1 inch when visible in one end only, and an additional deduction of 2 inches when such defect extends through the log.

(13) One inch is deducted for an open check in one end, or a straight close check showing in both ends. Two inches for cross checks, or double checks showing in one end, four inches if showing in both ends. Heart checks are often an indication of flaky heart. Deduction shall be made for waste caused thereby. For spangles, a cut in length shall be made in proportion to the amount of the log actually affected.

(14) In any No. 1 log where the maximum twist allowable prevails, the log shall be otherwise free from any other grade defects.

Rescales or check scales. If either the buyer or seller is dissatisfied with the scale or grade of any logs which have been scaled or graded, either party may call for a rescale. If the original scale was made by an Authorized Bureau, the request for rescale shall be made to that Bureau which shall notify in writing both the buyer and the seller of such request and the approximate date of such rescale which shall be made by the Chief Scaler of the Bureau. If the original scale was made by a person other than a Bureau scaler, the buyer and seller shall select another authorized scaler to perform the rescale; if they cannot agree on the selection of the rescaler, they may request the district office of the Office of Price Administration at Portland, Oregon, to select one from the authorized list. In either instance, the rescale shall be made without representation from either the buyer or seller and the rescale shall be the final scale and grade for the particular lot of logs.

The cost of the rescale shall be determined by agreement between the buyer and seller in accordance with past custom. If an Authorized Bureau is involved in the rescale, the cost shall be borne in accordance with the usual practice of that Bureau.

KANSAS-NEBRASKA NATURAL GAS CO., INC.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

AUGUST 7, 1944.

Upon consideration of the application filed on July 3, 1944, by the Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Company, Inc., a Kansas corporation having its principal place of business at Phillipsburg, Kansas, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity under section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize the construction and operation of approximately 16 miles of 12¾-inch O. D. natural gas steel pipe line extending from its compressor station west of Stockton, in Rooks County, Kansas, northwardly adjoining the route of its existing 6⅝-inch O. D. natural gas pipe line to replace the latter, and to remove and abandon the 6⅝-inch pipe line;

The Commission orders, That: (a) A public hearing be held, commencing on August 18, 1944, at 9:45 a. m. (e. w. t.), in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, Hurley-Wright Building, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. CANADIAN RIVER GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

AUGUST 8, 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on August 3, 1944, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by Canadian River Gas Company ("Applicant"), a Delaware corporation, having its principal place of business in Amarillo, Texas, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize Applicant to install and operate a 600 horsepower gas engine driven natural gas compressor, a 125 kva gas engine driven electric generator, and other necessary equipment in its Dalhart Compressor Station near Dalhart, Texas, all of which are more fully described in its application.

Applicant asserts that the installation of the above facilities is to assure maintenance of existing natural gas deliveries to Colorado Interstate Gas Company on peak days, which company, in turn, sells such gas for resale in Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Denver, and other communities in Colorado, to Colorado-Wyoming Gas Company, and to Colorado Fuel and Iron Company and other industrial consumers for their own consumption in the State of Colorado.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 26th day of August 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

DAIJINGU TEMPLE

In re: Real property and bank account owned by Daijingu Temple of Hawaii.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding:

1. That the Daijingu Temple of Hawaii is a non-stock membership corporation organized under the laws of the Territory of Hawaii, whose address is 1503 Liliha Street, Honolulu, T. H.;

2. That the Daijingu Temple of Hawaii is acting or purporting to act directly or indirectly for the benefit, or on behalf of, a designated enemy country (Japan), and that it is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

3. That the Daijingu Temple of Hawaii is the owner of the property described in subparagraph 4 hereof;

4. That the property described as follows:

a. Real property situated in the City and County of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, and real property situated in the City and County of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, particularly described as:

All of that certain parcel of land (portion of the land described in Land Patent Grant Number 4617 to W. P. Thomas), situate, lying and being at Wahiawa, in the District of Wahiawa, being Lot Number Twelve (12) of the tract of land known as the "Yamato Tract", as shown on the Map thereof, filed in the Office of the Registrar of Conveyances at Honolulu, as Registered Map Number Two Hundred Eighty One (281), together with all hereditaments, fixtures, improvements and appurtenances thereto, and any and all claims for rents, refunds, benefits or other payments arising from the ownership of such property, and

b. That certain bank account with the Bishop National Bank of Hawaii, Wahiawa Branch, which is due and owing to, and held for the Daijingu Temple of Hawaii, in the name of "Wahiawa Shibu (Branch) Daijingu"; including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for all or part of such account, and the right to enforce and collect the same, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

And determining that the property described in subparagraph 4–b hereof is necessary for the maintenance or safeguarding of other property (namely, that property described in subparagraph 4–a hereof) belonging to the same national of the same designated enemy country and subject to vesting (and in fact vested by this order) pursuant to section 2 of said Executive order;

And determining that the Daijingu Temple of Hawaii is controlled by, or acting for or on behalf of, a designated enemy country (Japan), or a person within such country, and is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

And further determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

And having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification required by law, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 4–a hereof, subject to recorded liens, encumbrances and other rights of record held by or for persons who are not nationals of designated enemy countries, and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 4–b hereof.

All such property so vested to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest, and for the benefit, of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account, or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall this order be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC–1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C. on June 6, 1944.

[SEAL] JAMES E. MARKHAM,
Alien Property Custodian.

EXHIBIT A

First: All of that certain parcel of land (portion of the land described in and covered by Royal Patent Number 7197, Land Commission Award Number 1173, Apana 1 to Leau), situate, lying and being on the Southeast side of Liliha Street at Koiulu, Honolulu, City and County of Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii, and thus bounded and described:

Beginning at a point on the Southeast side of Liliha Street, and at the north corner of the land conveyed by W. H. Crawford and wife to Robert W. Shingle by deed dated October 25th, 1911, said North corner being North 311.25 feet East, and 392.3 feet from a Government Survey Street Monument near the East corner of Vineyard and Liliha Streets, and running by true azimuths:

1. 327°25' 137.8 feet along a fence;
2. 46°58' 43 feet along a fence;
3. 142°51' 139.2 feet along land conveyed to W. H. Crawford;
